KC Royals Opening Day B-2 flyover

More than 100 servicemembers from Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri, unfurl the American flag during the national anthem on March 28, 2019, at Kauffman Stadium, Kansas City, Missouri. The flag ceremony was accompanied by a B-2 Spirit Stealth Bomber flyover. (U.S. Air Force photo by Senior Airman Thomas Barley)

During the opening game ceremony at Kaufmann Stadium in Kansas City, Missouri, members and veterans of all five branches of the military were recognized. (U.S. Air Force photo by Senior Airman Thomas Barley)

Tech. Sgt. Spencer Thrasher and Tech. Sgt. Robert Hawkins with the 509th and 131st Maintenance Squadrons, respectively, from Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri, pose for a photo on March 28, 2019, at Kauffman Stadium, Kansas City, Missouri. During the season opening game, both crew chiefs were recognized for launching the B-2 that flew over Kauffman Stadium during the national anthem. (U.S. Air Force photo by Senior Airman Thomas Barley)

During the National Anthem, the Spirit of America, a B-2 Spirit Stealth Bomber, flew over Kauffman Stadium. (U.S. Air Force photo by Senior Airman Thomas Barley)