Army Tenant Satisfaction Survey
Available Dec. 2, 2020 - Jan. 15, 2021

Are you looking for a better quality of life through improved housing and community services? The survey results help plan for near-term and future improvements to housing, resident services and community amenities.

This survey was ordered by approximately 400,000 members living in Army garrisons, government-owned and government-leased housing or off-base quarters on Dec. 2, 2020. For Army Housing Survey information, visit www.armyhousing.com. Only one person per device will receive the invitation. All respondents information will be kept confidential. Completion takes 10 minutes.

Tenant satisfaction survey

The Army began its annual Tenant Satisfaction Survey Dec. 2 to gather feedback about living in Army housing. Col. Will McKannay, Fort Riley Garrison Commander, said "People are our highest priority, so providing our Soldiers and their families the highest quality housing possible is paramount to our mission. We believe in this simple motto – People always; all else follows."
