

Fort Riley POST

Home of the  1st Infantry Division

Jan. 22, 2021

Volume 2 | Issue 3

Fort Riley unit helps make museum displays safe

Fort Riley's 79th Explosive Ordnance Disposal Battalion permanently loaned a World War II practice bomb to the Onaga Historical Museum. The Army munition was placed in the Morton Exhibit building Jan. 18, at 1:30 p.m. during a ceremony hosted by museum staff. Maj. Blake Zenteno, 79th Explosive Ordnance Disposal Battalion executive officer, presented the ordnance.

Economic Impact Summary for 2020 released.

The financial impact of Fort Riley on the surrounding communities is about $1.8B. In addition to the overall total economic impact, the annual report includes the estimation of salaries, contracts and information on the various groups who receive services at Fort Riley, including veterans and retirees who live in the surrounding area.

Garrison Commander conducts virtual media round table

Col. William McKannay spent time keeping local reporters in the know virtually.

Fort Riley Friday

This week in Fort Riley Friday we look at building 505. This building first housed Soldiers who worked in the hospital next door. Today, it serves as home to two families.

Fort Riley's Podcast

This week we talk recreation at the Fort Riley Hobby Shop. Learn about the different activities available for patrons of all ages.

News from around the Army

- Acting Army Secretary initial message
- Get to know COVID-19 vaccine
- Just scrolling through: Army urges responsible social media usage

