AUSA donates holiday hams to the Arrowhead Brigade

Story by Carlene Joseph
 President Captain Meriwether
 Lewis Chapter, AUSA

Welcome home everyone! The Lacey community is so happy to have you all here, especially during the holiday season where you can have the opportunity to enjoy your time with your families. We appreciate your sacrifices, and in return, we're looking forward to having a great welcome home gathering for you. Also, during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Season, the Captain Meriwether Lewis Lacey Subchapter gathered turkeys and hams to give to lower enlisted families all over JBLM and Camp Murray.

Soldiers of 3rd Stryker Brigade Combat Team, 2nd Infantry Division carry their newly donated hams home for the holidays.

While you were all away, we planned, raised money, and found a great venue at Saint Martin's University in Lacey. The University graciously donated their gymnasium and pavilion to have your return home lunch and we hope you enjoy your time there. The group spearheading the event is the Captain Meriwether Lewis Lacey Subchapter. In addition, the City of Lacey, the North Thurston County School District, and the staff at Saint Martins have played an important part in the planning process. We look forward to seeing you on February 4th, 11:30 am to 1:00 PM to welcome you all home. In the meantime, enjoy your leave right now with your families – it's very well deserved!

Operations Ham Grenade and Turkey Drop were other projects the Lacey Subchapter participated in. Donations were collected from DaVita, Northwest Harley-Davidson, Heritage Bank, America's Credit Union, American Lake Credit Union, the Old Cannery Furniture Warehouse, and Harborstone Credit Union for the purchase of hams and turkeys. Overall, over 600 hundred were donated. During each event, the 3-2 SBCT received their share. Again, we're so glad to have you all back. We appreciate you very much for your sacrifices and we hope that you remain home for a very long time. More than anyone, you deserve the quality time with your families. We hope all have a joyous holiday season with your friends and loved ones.
