COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR'S CORNER

It's summer! Be careful and stay cool!

During the summer months, it is important to take extra measures to step up our safety awareness. People become more active during warm weather; they participate more in outdoor recreation and the chances for accidents increase. Water and boating safety, motorcycle safety and even heat safety should be addressed and everyone is encouraged to step up safety measures to decrease potential accidents. Before you jump into a pool, assess how deep it is or if you have the proper flotation devices for kids. Motorcyclists should wear an approved helmet and proper protective clothing that helps other motorists to see you in heavy traffic. Also during the summer months is the potential increase in heat injuries. All I can say is "drink plenty of water." Keep a close eye on missions are complete. We also welcome Command Sgt. Maj. Matthew McDowell as he takes charge of his new position. Godspeed to Col. Dale Kuehl in his new role at Rock Island Arsenal and to Command Sgt. Maj. Andrew Swanson in his future endeavors.

That same week, the Mississippi Armed Forces Museum, along with Congressman Steven Palazzo, presented Pfc. James Jones, a native of Laurel, with the World War II medals he earned from his service with the 761st Tank Battalion, known as "The Black Panthers." Mr. Jones, we thank you for your service to this country.

As units continue to roll through our gates to conduct their annual training, keep in mind that the traffic is going to increase, there will be longer lines at the Exchange and more Soldiers conducting hip-pocket training throughout the installation. This means you should all maintain a high state of situational awareness as you conduct your daily business around the installation, and allow for possible delays if you're out on the roads. Vehicles and Soldiers are everywhere, so be careful.

And once again, thank you team for your service, attention to detail and selfless service as we continue to provide mobilization/demobilization support to units from around the country. Your work is definitely not going unnoticed. Thank you for giving your best efforts to ensure that we remain the premiere National Guard training site in the country. May God continue to bless you, your Families and the United States of America.

SOLDIERS FIRST!

Meet MP Kristoffer Rosamond...

PERSONNEL PROFILE ENLISTED

By DANA ELISE SMITH
CSJFTC Public Affairs

Staff Sgt. Kristoffer Rosamond serves as a military policeman, non-lethal weapons instructor and Army Combatives Instructor for the Provost Marshal's Office at Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center.

His job is to patrol CSJFTC to enforce safety policies and assist in responding to initial investigation of crimes.

Rosamond has served in the military for 14 years and is a member of the 113th Military Police Company, headquartered in Brandon. He has deployed many times with the unit to locations including Guantanamo Bay, Cuba and Iraq. His most recent deployment was in 2011 to Kuwait in support of Overseas Contingency Operations.

He said many factors influenced his decision to join the military.

"Watching 'G.I. Joe' and reading 'Captain America' sparked my interest in the military as a kid," said Rosamond. "I just always knew I wanted to be in the military. My best friend growing up had a great grandfather who was a POW in WWII. Hearing those stories just encouraged me to join even more."

He is currently working on a bachelor's degree in criminal justice with a minor in kinesiology from Bethel University online based in McKenzie, Tenn.

Rosamond has been serving on active duty at CSJFTC since 2005 but he does find time to serve as a co-owner and trainer at Crossfit Hattiesburg Gym. He holds several certifications in cross fitness and other physical training certificates.

He enjoys spending his spare time partaking in any type of exercise and physical fitness activities.

The Canton native now resides in Petal with his wife, Nikki. Together they raise four children, Taylor, 11, Hope, 7, Raimee, 4 and Jaydon, 9. Together, they enjoy spending time at the pool and the beach.

Recycling bins are available
