

At left, As the 184th SC prepares to kick off the day's training events, 1st Sgt. Willie Smith, left, calls out and checks off names during the morning roll call at CSJFTC April 6. Below, Level II Combatives Instructor Sgt. 1st Class James Heard, right, observes as Sgt. Cody Williamson uses Army Combatives techniques to achieve a position of dominance on Staff Sgt. Roger Salter during Combatives familiarization training.

184th April drill

By STAFF SGT. KENNY HATTEN
CSJFTC Public Affairs

The Mississippi Army National Guard's 184th Sustainment Command conducted a busy drill weekend at Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center April 5-7, featuring Army Combatives, required online training and a Joint Humanitarian Operations Course attended by the senior leadership. Promotions and awards followed the weekend's required tasks, as the unit continues to maintain readiness to deploy in support of overseas contingency operations around the world.

U.S. Army photos by
Staff Sgt. Kenny Hatten,
CSJFTC Public Affairs

At right, newly-promoted Sgt. 1st Class Steven Shattles, left, shakes hands with Materials Readiness Branch Section Chief, Master Sgt. John Pickett following the promotion ceremony held April 6.

Angelia Carnes proudly pins the insignia of rank on her husband, newly-promoted Master Sgt. Rocky Carnes.

Lisa Speagle pins the insignia of rank on her husband, newly-promoted Master Sgt. Brian Speagle, during a promotion ceremony held April 7.

Capt. Gregory Rice receives the Army Commendation Medal for exceptional military service as commander of the 1687th Transportation Company from 184th SC Commander Brig. Gen. Janson D. Boyles during a ceremony

Patricia Wilkins places the insignia of rank on her husband, newly-promoted Master Sgt. James Wilkins.