THROW A STRIKE... Col. Brad Smith, commander of Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center was chosen to throw the honorary first pitch during Saturday's University of Southern Mississippi's Military Appreciation Baseball game against the University of Alabama at Birmingham. USM honored all military service members; active, reserve, and retired veterans at the start of the game on April 27 at Pete Taylor Park. The Golden Eagles currently have a tight hold on the first place spot in Conference USA after a doubleheader victory against UAB on Saturday. The evening game was broadcast live via Fox Sports and enjoyed by a proud showing of military veterans and their Families. Above, Col. Brad Smith, commander of Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center, center, and USM Head Baseball Coach Scott Berry along with Col. Smith's sons, Kurt, 11, left and Kris, 14, strategizes before the opening pitch against UAB on April 27 at Pete Taylor Park. Far right, Col. Smith, throws the opening pitch. At right, Kurt Smith performed duties as the distinguished catcher for his Dad. Kurt is a member of the Mississippi Madness boys' baseball team of Oak Grove where he plays outfield and 3rd baseman. Kurt and his team won the state championship in their division last year.
