Always give your best...

"If a man does his best, what else is there?"

- General George Patton Jr

So many times in life things happen that are out of our control. It can be a challenge at times keeping up with the requirements of a demanding military career and Family obligations for the ones we love. Balance by design is not easy to achieve. Continue to give your best in everything you do, and success will surely follow.

There will be an opportunity to celebrate our service during the upcoming National Guard Association of Mississippi Officer and Enlisted Officer conventions.

The enlisted officer convention will be held April 19-21 at Whispering Woods Hotel and Conference Center, Olive Branch. The point of contact for further information is Maj. Pat Lowery at 601-467-1028.

Keith Ales at 662-816-6452.

The Officer's Convention will be held May 3-5 at the Natchez Convention Center, Natchez. The point of contact for further information is Maj. Pat Lowery at 601-467-1028.

Team, we continue the task of preparing service members for their mobilization missions as we welcome the 838th Military Police Company, Ohio Army National Guard; 278th Military Police Company, Georgia Army National Guard; 437th Military Police Company, Ohio Army National Guard; 3/114th Infantry, Texas Army National Guard; 79th Infantry, California Army National Guard; 204th Movement Enhancement Brigade, Utah Army National Guard and the 128th Joint Assessment Team, Minnesota Army National Guard.

Dillon at 601-558-2396 or via the Camp Shelby Safety Awareness Resources Change or SARC representative hotline at 601-467-1030 for resource information and assistance.

These are just a few of the units that will be passing through our gates as they train and prepare for their upcoming missions supporting Overseas Contingency Operations.

This month we will welcome home members of the 1/181st Field Artillery Battalion, Washington Army National Guard; 19th Special Forces Group, Utah Army National Guard and the Alpha Company 3/20th Special Forces Group, Florida Army National Guard. Thank you, team, for your continued support and sacrifice during your deployment to a grateful nation.

April is sexual assault awareness month. Camp Shelby has dedicated resources and personnel on staff that are here to assist Soldiers in need. Contact Stephanie Smith at 601-558-2396 or via the Camp Shelby Safety Awareness Resources Change or SARC representative hotline at 601-467-1030 for resource information and assistance.

Remember safety in your mission preparation and daily activities. It is important to keep an emergency kit available at home for the unexpected inclement weather that can present itself rapidly in the Pine Belt. Always ensure you have your team's alert roster readily available at work and at home in the event of an emergency.

Thanks, team, for your continued hard work and steadfast attitude for success. God Bless you, your Families and the United States of America!

SOLDIERS FIRST!

Col. Brad Smith

Engineer, Const. Camp

The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME)/US Army is hosting its annual Engineering and Construction Camp June 16-22 in Vicksburg, Miss. The camp provides high school students with a great hands-on experience in engineering and construction activities. Vicksburg's wide-ranging engineering community provides a wealth of offerings in cutting edge engineering topics. The one-week program is supervised by professional engineers and volunteers from engineering organizations in the lower Mississippi Valley. The crewmates (campers) are exposed to a wealth of knowledge about the various career choices in the fields of engineering and construction, focusing primarily on water resources engineering. Applications are normally distributed to high schools in January for submission to the camp Student Affairs Committee by the middle of March each year. For more information and the application process, go to <http://samecamps.org/>

Free NAMI classes

AARTS Transition

The Army/American Council on Education Registry Transcript System (AARTS) is in the process of transitioning to the Joint Services Transcript (JST). The JST will produce a FREE uniformed transcript of all military training and experiences to Service members from all branches. The new electronic transcripts will include Enlisted, Warrant Officer and Officer training, joint military training, and DANTES-funded standardized test scores. The transition to JST is expected to be completed by January 1, 2013. During the transition, the process of requesting an AARTS transcript via GoArmyEd or the AARTS website will not change. The AARTS Team will continue to provide updates on the progress of transition. For More information contact john.junkins1@us.army.mil or call 601-558-2029.

Security courses

The Department of Defense Defense Security Service (DSS) Center for Development of Security Excellence (CDSE) offers security education, training and certification.

Courses offered by CDSE are available to U.S. government employees and military members. Some courses are also available to employees of companies that have government contracts.

There is no charge for any CDSE course; however, some courses require purchase of textbooks. The American Council on Education's College Credit Recommendation Service (ACE CREDIT) has evaluated and recommended college credit for 13 CDSE courses. Additional information about CDSE including course descriptions and registration can be found at www.cdse.edu/ For more information, contact the Camp Shelby Education Center at 601-558-2029 or John.junkins1@us.army.mil
