

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Speak out loud...

By CHAPLAIN (CAPT.) DONALD THOMAS
177th Armored Brigade Chaplain

Many people came to know and trust the Lord during World War II. One was an Englishman who was held in a German prison camp for a long period of time. One day he read Psalm 91. "Father in heaven," he prayed, "I see all these men dying around me, one after the other. Will I also have to die here? I am still young and I very much want to work in Your Kingdom here on earth."

He received this answer: "Rely on what you have just read and go home!" Trusting in the Lord, he got up and walked into the corridor toward the gate. A guard called out, "Prisoner, where are you going?"

"I am under the protection of the Most High," he replied. The guard came to attention and let him pass, for Adolf Hitler was known as "the most high."

He came to the gate, where a group of guards stood. They commanded him to stop and asked where he was going. "I am under the protection of the Most High."

All the guards stood at attention as he walked out the gate. The English officer made his way through the German countryside and eventually reached England, where he told how he had made his escape. He was the only one to come out of that prison alive.

The man spoke out loud! Are there some things in your life that you would strongly consider to speak out loud! The bible tells us, "that faith comes by hearing the word of God." (Romans 10:17). Speak life in your crisis. It could be relationship, children, jobs, government, friends, education, mental, physical, health, etc... Take it to the Lord in faith which fuels the prayer.

Reuben wants to give good first impression

By DANA ELISE SMITH
CSJFTC Public Affairs

Katrina Reuben serves as the management support technician for the commander of the 177th Armored Brigade. Her job is to provide a variety of technical, administrative and clerical support to the command staff in support of the brigade's mission of preparing Soldiers for deployment.

Reuben "In my job, I have the privilege of meeting many people of all ranks. I would like to believe when visitors enter our headquarters, I represent a great first impression for the brigade, being I am the first person they see," said Reuben.

The Hattiesburg native has worked as a government employee in administrative and secretarial positions for the past 27 years. She began her career in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1985. She has been working for the 177th Armored Brigade since 1998.

Throughout her career, she received numerous awards, including two Achievement Medals for Civilian Service, two Commander's Awards for Civilian Service, Commander's Award for Humanitarian Service and a Certificate of Achievement.

Rueben is the wife of Ronald Rueben. He served for 22 years in the Army and retired in 2000. He now works as the local area network administrator for the 177th Armored Brigade.

In her spare time, she attends church where she serves as an usher. She also enjoys reading, bowling, listening to gospel music and entertaining friends and Family at home. She has two grown children, Quanithia and Quinton. Rueben loves spoiling her grandsons, Quincy, 7, Quentin, 5, Quavaughn, 4 and Trenton, 1.

NCO Assoc. Conference

The Mississippi National Guard NCO Association Conference will be at the Whispering Wood Hotel and Conference Center, 11200 East Goodman Road, Olive Branch MS, April 19-21.

We encourage everyone to attend this year's conference in support of our association. With membership dropping, we need to make every effort to sustain our membership and search for ways to make it grow.

We need full involvement in the association and ask that everyone please talk to your fellow Soldiers and Airmen about the NCO Association and the many benefits of association membership.

This is going to be a great event, featuring bowling, fishing and golf tournaments, as well as ceremonies honoring our NCOs/Soldiers of the Year and outstanding Airmen. For more information, contact Keith Ales at 662-816-6452
