

Brig. Gen. Janson D. Boyles, Commanding General of the Mississippi Army National Guard's 184th Sustainment Command, addresses the unit at first formation March 1 as they prepare to begin a weekend of mandatory training, health assessments and deployment preparation at Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center.

184th Drill Weekend

The Mississippi National Guard's 184th Sustainment Command conducted Inactive Duty for Training on the weekend of March 1-3 at Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center. The Soldiers of the Hattiesburg/Laurel based unit spent their drill weekend undergoing periodic health assessments, mandatory training and preparing for an upcoming deployment in support of overseas contingency operations.
