Husband, wife serve on medical team together at CSJFTC

BY STAFF SGT. JACKQUILINE HERRING
CSJFTC PA

"We love the work that we do here at Camp Shelby," said Staff Sgt. Kimberly McCrimmon.

Staff Sgt. Wayne McCrimmon and his wife, Kimberly, were both recently promoted to the rank of Staff Sgt. and they both work on the medical side of the operation.

This husband and wife team has been working at Camp Shelby Joint Forces Training Center helping with Overseas Contingency Operation (OCO) for a total of nine years between the two.

Wayne is originally from North Charleston, S.C., and has been in the military for about nine years. Kimberly is from Birmingham, Ala., and has been in the military for about five years.

They both were mobilized at Fort Jackson, S.C., before coming to CSJFTC. Wayne currently works as a dental tech, a job that he also performed as a civilian before being mobilized. Kimberly currently works in the Human Resource Department with Shelby Medical Task Force.

Kimberly and Wayne McCrimmon

The couple has three daughters, Nia Elaine (24 months) and twins, Janae and Jania (9 yrs). Some of the things the couple enjoys doing during their spare time is watching movies, traveling and shopping. But most of all, they enjoy spending time with their family.

They both said they hope to be mobilized here at Camp Shelby for at least another year and later join the Army full time.
