TOP HOOP CLASH AT BLOCH ARENA

Lt. Gen. Megee To Be Honored By Brigade Today

Lt. Gen. Vernon E. Megee, Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, will be reviewing officer at a 1st Marine Brigade parade to be conducted in his honor today at 4 p.m. on Platt Field.

Upon conclusion of the Platt Field ceremonies, an aloha reception in honor of Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Megee will be held at the K-Bay Commissioned Officers Mess. The reception will be given by the officers of the Brigade. Invited guests include ranking military officers and distinguished civilians.

The visit today by Lt. Gen. Megee is his first since taking command of the Pacific Fleet Marine Force last month.

Lt. Gen. Megee was formerly Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps and Chief of Staff in Washington, D.C.

Personnel of units participating in the parade and review have been urged to invite dependents and friends to witness the ceremonies.

The parade will conclude with a fly-by of MAG-13 aircraft.

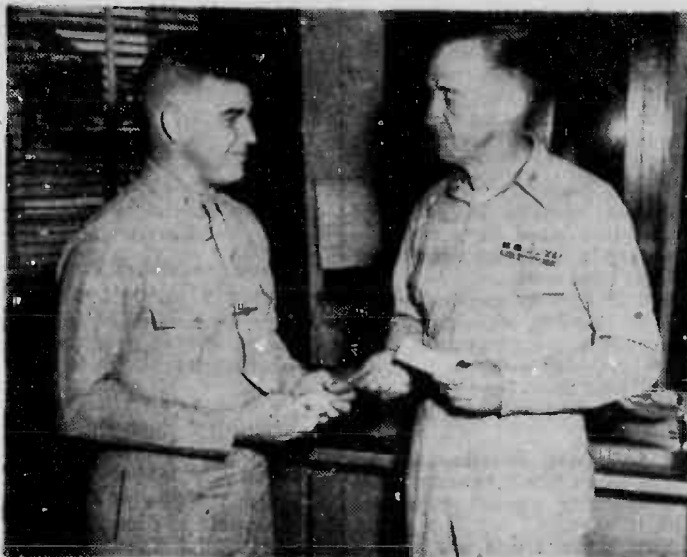

On-base Book Sale For UofH Courses Set March 17-18

The date for the sale of books for courses at the University of Hawaii-Kaneohe Center has been changed from Jan. 31 to March 17 and 18, the Station Education office announced this week.

Books will be on sale between the hours of 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Station Education office, located topside in Bldg. 221.

Courses in the field of General Studies will commence March 19 in Bldg. 267.

Registration will be held March 17 and 18 in the Station Education Office.

Marine Hoopsters Face Stiff Test In Thursday Game With U. of Utah

Senior hoop rivalry in the Islands will reach the high-water mark at Pearl Harbor's Bloch Arena next Thursday evening when the Hawaii Marines tangle with a talented University of Utah quintet in a benefit tilt for the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium building fund. Not since the Navy All-Stars upset the Hawaii Leathernecks late last season in "Stadium Benefit" tilt, has Island senior basketball offered the caliber of competition among the "top ten" nationally. The Hawaii Marines, meanwhile, have virtually cinched the senior basketball crown for the second consecutive season, losing one game in 18 starts.

Tossup time for the Utah-Marine tilt is 8 p.m., and with admission set at 75 cents per customer, a capacity crowd of civilian and service fans should be on hand for the game.

"Every seat in the house will be paid for, with no reserved seating," according to an announcement this week by Lt. Col. Darrell L. Cool, committee chairman for the game. "Even the Hawaii Marines players will pay," he said. Proceeds are expected to add nearly $3,500 to the stadium building fund.

Headed by coach Jack Gardner, the 10-man Utah squad is scheduled to arrive on Oahu tomorrow evening. Named to make the trip are: Delyle Condie 6-4, Carney Crisler 6-7, James Thomas 6-5, Milton Kane 6-5, Gary Chestang 6-4, Keith Ancell 6-3, James Brittain 6-5, Pearl Pollard 6-8, Gary Hale 5-9 and Al Mock 6-2.

WARRANT OFFICER & LIMITED DUTY OFFICER SELECTION PROGRAMS COMPLETELY REVISED

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Headquarters Marine Corps announced last Friday a completely revised Warrant Officer—Limited Duty Officer selection program for fiscal year 1959. The revised program will drop the test for Warrant Officer and Limited Duty Officer applicants. The test will be replaced by an evaluation sheet, a special fitness report and an appearance of the applicant before a command review board. In addition, for the first time since the program started in 1955, both regular and reserve

Warrant Officer candidates will be considered by the same board. Competing independently under the new program, regulars and reserves nominated for Warrant Officer must be guided by strong and sincere motivation and must possess the potential to be successful officers.

Those desiring consideration for the 1959 program must submit an application to their commanding officer or immediate superior for nomination. The Commanding Officer will nominate to the appropriate screening board only those applicants who are eminently qualified in the Military Occupational Specialty for which they are applying. They must be considered outstanding Marines. Basic eligibility requirements are as follows:

- 1. Limited Duty Officer USMC—Temporary commissioned officers, temporary or permanent warrant officers of the regular Marine Corps; sergeants major, first sergeants, regular male master sergeants and technical sergeants are eligible for nomination. They must not have reached their 43rd birthday on July 1, 1958 and they must have completed at least 10 years active naval service but less than 12 years on July 1, 1958, exclusive of active duty for training. Women are not eligible for this program.
- 2. Warrant Officer USMC (Technical and non-technical)—Temporary commissioned officers and temporary warrant officers of the Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve on active duty, permanent reserve officers who will be on active duty on July 1, 1958 and who were formerly regular enlisted men; and sergeants major, first sergeants, regular male or female master sergeants and technical sergeants are eligible for nomination. They must not have reached their 46th birthday on July 1, 1958 and must have less than 19 years, six months active service on July 1, 1958.
- 3. Warrant Officer USMCR—Male or female master sergeants and technical sergeants of the organized Marine Corps Reserve and reservists of the same rank on extended active duty with the regular or reserve establishments are eligible. Must not have reached their 46th birthday and must have less than 19 years, six months creditable service for retirement purposes on July 1, 1958.

Regulars nominated for Limited Duty Officer may also be nominated. See LDO/WO PROGRAM P-4

Ripley Feature Prints Incident Involving Pilot

An incident involving a Brigade pilot received notice in Ripley's Believe It or Not. The syndicated feature is carried in a local newspaper, and reported "a ring lost by Paul Goo of Onekahakaha Beach, Hawaii, was found by a skin diver and returned to its owner 30 YEARS LATER." It showed a picture of the ring.

The skindiver was Capt. Jim C. Robinson of HMR-161 who discovered the ring while diving in the waters off the coast of Hawaii, near Hilo airport.

He telephoned Mr. Goo with the question "Did you lose a high school ring marked 'Class of '25'?" After recovering from the startling question, Mr. Goo replied "I'll be darned, I lost that ring 32 years ago, and frankly had pretty much forgot about it."

WE'LL COME TO HAWAII—The traditional Hawaiian lei of aloha is placed over the craggy head of Sgt. "Sarge," first K-Bay Marine Corps Air Station mascot, shortly after he and his escort, Cpl. Lein G. Judkins, arrived in Honolulu last Friday morning aboard the MSTs Sultan. Performing the welcoming honors in the picture at left is hula dancer Dora Flores. In the picture at right, the 40 pound brindle colored English bulldog poses for his first official portrait on Hawaiian ground. He is attired in a set of tailored dress blues. Before reporting to this Air Station for duty as mascot, Sgt. "Sarge" is in quarantine. The mascot's last duty was with the Marine Detachment on Kwajalein.

Grim Reminder

The following is published with permission of the Associated Press:

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A letter addressed to "Dear Mr. Motorist" arrived at the Mirror-News.

"I am not writing this to you to remind you all over again," the letter said, "but to all motorists because school again begins.

"I want to prevent the tragedy that we have shared together—a mother and you Mr. Motorist.

"That day three sun-tanned little faces smiled as they waved me a happy goodbye and so importantly went on their way to school. I wanted to call them back to tell them how lonesome it would be.

"Mr. Motorist, I wanted to kiss them once more . . . then I saw you take that corner—tires screaming, car out of control.

"What was your hurry? Were you late for work? Were you angry at someone?

"Surely not my three. I am sure you would not want to run your screaming tires over their happy faces intentionally, erasing forever the smiles they had for me.

"But Mr. Motorist, children are very forgiving in life and I'm sure—in death. They would if they could, pat your hand and feel sad that because of one tragic moment you are left to live over and over again how your love of speed took three lives.

"I don't hate you any more. I feel sorry for you. I can still see those smiling little faces as they wave me goodby.

The letter was signed. Under the signature this postscript: "Another year. And once again your flowers arrive. They are beautiful. Thank you."

The newspaper sent Reporter Charles Neiswender to investigate. He talked with a close friend of the letter writer. She told him the letter was written four years ago on the first anniversary to the man who was driving the car. The friend sent the letter to the paper, which printed it Thursday.

The Motorist?

He still sends the mother flowers on each anniversary of the children's death.

And the mother?

She couldn't write a letter now. For in her mind she still waves goodby to the smiling faces of her children.

The tragedy was too much.

She is in a mental hospital, hopelessly insane.

EVER BEEN SHORT-CHANGED?

None of us like to be taken by a cheat. Yet every day we let many a short-changer get away with it. Hardly a newspaper but short-changes us, coloring its news so that we get only half the truth of a story. The sergeant who does not do his duty shortchanges the private, if he does not show him by example and instruction what he should know and what he is to do.

The private who fluffs off and shirks his duty because he is not watched every minute of every hour of the work day, and does just enough to "get by" shortchanges the Marine Corps and does tremendous harm to himself because he is acquiring lazy habits and demonstrating to others that he cannot be trusted.

Trashy books are terrific short-changers, cheating you of much time which could have been put into reading something which would do you some good.

Killing time by cheating on the use of valuable opportunities for education and advancement might gain us golden moments now, but they'll soon tarnish and at the same time do us out of golden moments for eternity.

Resent being shortchanged, and above all be chiefly resentful about shortchanging yourself, both here and in eternity.

Your future begins now.

K-Bay Teen Club

By SUSAN FONTANA

We all enjoyed the show that Percy Howce (P. J.) put on for the kids of the Teen Club last Friday night. We are all looking forward to his next visit some time in February.

Percy entertained us with his latest records, jokes, and games. The lucky winners of some of these exciting games were rewarded with records from P. J.'s own special record collection. An example of the type of record that P. J. collects is this one, "Cecile Boogie," by Cecile. How's that one for kicks? Another added attraction of the evening was the delicious sandwiches and punch contributed by some of the mothers.

This coming Friday we will have the regular Friday night Platter Party. Hope our platters don't wear out from over-use.

For the month of February the Teenage Club has been invited back to Hickam once again. We hope we make it this time.

If it's news, call the WINDWARD MARINE at 72104.

the K-BAY KIBITZER

by brauley

I saw a sight the other day that really would have made a picture, except that my camera wasn't loaded. It was a Volkswagen with a surfboard sticking out through the top.

The car had one of those roll-back sun roofs and the driver had ingeniously used it to make it possible to accommodate the board. But I'll tell you it was a sight. The board must have been as long as the car, or even a bit longer. The picture possibilities were terrific. From one angle it could have been made to look as though the little car were under full sail. From another angle it might have looked like an upsidedown sailboat with its keel showing. And any way it was photographed, it would have made a comical sight.

Maybe that will teach me to reload right after I finish a roll of film.

As you may have heard, there will be a cost of living survey in February. About 30 per cent of the command will be asked to fill out the survey questionnaires and it's important that they be completed accurately.

In case you didn't know, the results of the survey could spell more money in the pocket. There is firm belief in some high circles that a daily per diem rate is justified out here to offset the higher cost of living. But the annual survey is depended upon for justification of this belief and in the past it hasn't been much help.

From what I can learn, there were more than the usual number of jokers who just hit the questionnaires a lick and put down the first and easiest thoughts that occurred to them. Maybe they didn't need the dough but here's one man who could have used something like an additional two bucks a day.

If you don't think you'll be here when they start passing out the added money, at least think of your relief.

There wasn't much said about it at the time. They were just one group of many who helped out and they did it out of their own warmheartedness and not for publicity. I think they rate mention, though; so here goes.

The officers and men of the 3rd Bn., 12th Marines read about 5-year-old Eddie DeMello's need for financial assistance so that he could have an operation on his heart to enable him to lead a normal life. The same day Bob Krauss devoted his column to the story. Brigade artillery came up with $123 in voluntary contributions. The total was probably more than that but it was the idea that was important, and the response.

The contributors must be feeling mighty good about now. The operation, according to local newspapers, was a complete success.

An idea occurred to me this week. We might create a landmark and a bit of advertising, too. There's a big chunk of waste space on the side of Karsas Hill. On the main station side there is an almost unbroken expanse of green, all the same shade.

Why not clear out the brush in the shape of a giant USMC. This should be visible for some distance. Going a step further, some whitewashed rocks planted in the cleared space would add to the visibility.

This giant sign should be visible from the Pali and to all persons going around the island, as well as to everybody residing along Kaneohe Bay.

It was just an idle thought.

I was rather amazed recently to encounter a man who can't seem to face reality. I had thought, and my experience until now had substantiated the belief, that every American today was sufficiently well educated that he would recognize four as the answer to two plus two.

But in this case the man was so self-centered and self-pitying that it was impossible to penetrate to his reason. As a result, known facts tied together to produce an obvious answer failed to be recognized.

This childish attitude was brought out because the man thought he was being discriminated against and picked on. In actual fact this was not true, but he was so concerned with bemoaning his fate he was like a blind man who can't see because he won't open his eyes.

I mention this simply in the hope that somebody else might find himself reflected in this mirror of objectivity. It's important. All through life there will be problems and personal reverses but they should be applied as experiences to help the individual traverse the future. If the fact of adversity becomes all-important, the road through life will, indeed, be covered with obstacles.

The saddest part of this whole tale lies in what this attitude is doing. It is jeopardizing the man's career. It is alienating friends. It appears to be imposing an additional burden upon his family.

As a matter of fact, when he first encountered his problem, quite a number of people came forward to help, some of whom never knew the man before. But each encountered the same sullenness and unwillingness to be helped. I suspect friends who want to help are now few and far between.

It's a shame and it was a new experience for me. I trust the man is a rare exception. I'd hate to think there are many more as immature in their thinking.

THE ART of pilfering missiles is being perfected by the Intelligence and Training sections of the 3rd Bn., 4th Marines. The practice bomb and mock-up radar set are used to achieve realism during battalion training exercises. Attempts to haul away the 300 pound bomb have put 3rd Bn. Leathernecks to a strenuous test.

Rocket Pilfering Program Launched By 3rd Bn., 4th, Training Section

A combination of ideas of the S-2 and S-3 sections of the 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, has created a new program in the unit's training schedule entitled "rocket stealing." The title has little to do with the literal meaning of thievery but is more consistent with the axiom "to the victors, belong the spoils."

The new program has met with marked enthusiasm by members of the battalion which was demonstrated Monday night when the first exhibition was staged in the Fort Hase area. Object of the program is to conduct a night raid on an enemy shore, infiltrate the lines to steal a missile and information related to it.

A rifle platoon is first landed and dispersed according to plan. After making visual contact with sentries guarding the missile, they have 10 minutes in which to capture the missile, related information, plus a technician having knowledge of the weapon's operation. Failure to capture the rocket results in the technician mythically firing it. The mission itself fails.

Biggest problem facing the rifle platoons is moving the missile. The mock-up weighs approximately 300 pounds and is booby-trapped. Each simulated mission requires about six hours. After each practice raid, the mock-up is moved to a new location for another try by a different rifle platoon.

Choate Gets Award For Beneficial Tip

SSgt. Julian R. Choate Jr. received congratulations and a certificate of award last week at the Communications Headquarters Office from his department head, Lt. Col. Frederick C. Dodson, MCAS communications electronics officer for his beneficial suggestion having to do with "Safety on the Road."

SSgt. Choate

His suggestion was as follows: At the intersection of the main roads going to the Golf Course (Moffett and Reeves), there was a large bush obstructing the view for cars coming around the corner at Reeves. In order to correct this, SSgt. Choate suggested that the bush be dynamited out and the stop sign moved back.

Samoa Trip Slated During Feb., March

Navy and Marine Corps personnel of Samoan extraction are advised by Squadron Bulletin 1050 of Jan. 13, 1958, of the availability of round trip government transportation to American Samoa during February and March 1958 for personnel desiring to take leave in American Samoa.

Transportation will be via the Coast Guard cutter Blackhaw scheduled to depart Honolulu approximately Feb. 3, 1958 and return about March 23, 1958.

Since space on the cutter is extremely limited, only Samoan personnel who meet the requirements specified in the bulletin will be granted passage.

Sing or Dance? Enter Contest Set by YMCA

If you can sing, dance, play a musical instrument or do anything else to entertain, you are eligible to enter the Armed Services YMCA's talent contest to be held on Feb. 8, 15, and 22. Either professionals or amateurs are invited to enter.

The YMCA talent contests have been running periodically on a quarterly basis for approximately the last five years. They have attracted thousands of servicemen and have presented some outstanding performers who are in the military service.

Contestants will compete in the preliminaries on either Feb. 8 or 15 and 10 finalists will be chosen by competent judges to compete in the finals on the 22nd.

FIRST TICKETS to be purchased aboard the K-Bay Marine Corps Air Station for the Honolulu Little Symphony's first 1958 program on the Windward side go to Sgt. Maj. and Mrs. Donald E. Waldron. Happily accepting money for the tickets is Mrs. Jack R. Cram who is acting as liaison between the Air Station and the Windward Friends of the Little Symphony who are sponsoring the 8 p.m. showing next Friday, Jan. 31 in the K-Bay main theater. Tickets are available at Station Special Services and at Liberty House in Kailua. Sgt. Maj. Waldron is MCAS sergeant major. Conductor George Barati will bring a 33-member group to the Station for the program.

Scouting Groups Need Volunteers

A 14th Naval District notice urges all personnel to volunteer their services to Boy Scout activity. The Boy Scouts of America depend almost entirely on volunteer, part-time assistance in executing their program.

According to the notice, the Boy Scouts are urgently and constantly in need of volunteer members and leaders at the pack, troop or post level. Usually no experience is required—the volunteers receive training along with their activities. There is no age limit, preference as to family status, or preference as to rank or rate. The work may be directly with boys in age divisions of 8-11, 12-13 and 14-18.

Personnel interested in working with Scouting groups at this activity are requested to contact Capt. Edward P. Mertz, Military Liaison Officer for Scouting Activities, at extension 72973.

Fund Raising Drive Now Underway Here

Keymen in the 1st Marine Brigade and Marine Corps Air Station are calling on members of their units this week seeking voluntary contributions to the National Health Agencies and Joint Crusade Agencies Drive which began last week in the 14th Naval District.

The current fund campaign combines two authorized drives. Normally, there are four authorized drives to be conducted during the fiscal year.

Keymen have been asked to brief contributors on the purpose of the drives, to answer questions concerning the agencies and to urge a generous contribution. The contributor is asked to complete a card designating the recipient(s) of his money. The card and money are then placed in a sealed envelope and returned to the keyman. In this manner, the amount of money contributed is kept confidential.

At the conclusion of the drive, all funds collected will be audited, and the amount donated by major commands will be made available at that time.

Inasmuch as two drives are being conducted concurrently, two envelopes and two cards must be completed by the contributor.

Maj. N. M. Bennett has been designated chairman for the 1st Marine Brigade. Maj. J. V. Hanes is MCAS chairman.

ZICKUHR WINS DRIVER AWARD IN REGIMENT

Cpl. Herman A. Zickuhr of Headquarters and Service Company, 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, received the "4th Marines Driver of the Month" award at meritorious mast ceremonies conducted last Thursday by Col. George A. Roll, regimental commander.

In addition to the award, Zickuhr, received a letter of commendation for his outstanding performance of duty as motor vehicle operator during last month.

His letter read in part: "... you were able to accomplish this CPL. ZICKUHR honor by your conscientious effort, your knowledge of drivers' responsibilities and your ability as a driver. The condition in which you maintain your vehicle is a standard for all 4th Marines drivers."

Zickuhr was selected by the Regimental awards board after passing written, road, and skill tests, and being recommended by his company commander.

If it's news, call the WINDWARD MARINE at 72104.

Meritorious Mast Honors Cpl. Ensslin

Cpl. Thomas F. Ensslin of H&S Co., 4th Marines, was awarded a Meritorious Mast recently, by Col. G. A. Roll, CO, 4th Marines.

Cpl. Ensslin

Cpl. Ensslin has demonstrated an exceptional devotion to duty and an exceedingly high professional knowledge of the functioning of his section, the citation noted.

"When called upon, you have spent long hours in the preparation of both logistical and fiscal documents. Your intimate knowledge concerning the functioning of the S-4 office has greatly expedited the mission of this office and in turn, this regiment," the citation read, in part.

Mokapu School Thanks Personnel

Mokapu Elementary School had quite a face-lifting during the Christmas vacation when a group of parents spent two days at the school painting furniture and bulletin boards in 15 classrooms.

The parents who assisted in this project under the organization of Mrs. William Walker were: Lt. Col. Andrew Zimmer, Maj. and Mrs. William Walker, Capt. Vernon Paubel, Lt. and Mrs. Elmer F. Wacklin, Navy CWO and Mrs. William R. Garing and Mrs. Willard Espinosa.

The School wishes to thank these parents. Special thanks also goes to SSgt. Howard Williams of Det. 1, 3rd Service Regt. who, though not a parent, so ably manned the sprayer with speed and efficiency.

THREE DONKEYS, sporting the colorful names of "Pete," "Repeat" and "Misfire" reported for duty Wednesday at the K-Bay Stables. "Repeat" lost little time in going to work, providing entertainment for K-Bay youngsters. Above, Miss Judy Jones clings to the back of the docile burro while Sgt. Dick Dixon, Stables attendant, steadies the animal. The donkeys will be available for K-Bay small-fry starting next Wednesday during the hours the Stables are open. A 50 cent fee will be charged. A Stables spokesman emphasized that the burros are for children too small to ride horses and that children must be accompanied by a parent.

ARCTIC TO TROPIC—Pfc. Gerald L. Schaefer, right, of Homer, Alaska, willingly exchanges his cold-weather parka for the cool comfort of an aloha shirt proffered by Sgt. Alexander Kalua of Napili, Maui. Shaeffer, whose home is now shivering in 30 degrees below zero weather, reported for duty Tuesday at the K-Bay Marine Corps Air Station. His comment when asked about Hawaiian weather was simply "Hot!" Sgt. Kalua is a graduate of Kamehameha high school and welcomed his fellow Leatherneck to Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron here.

PRESENTED a commendatory letter last Friday from the Commandant of the Marine Corps was MSgt. Paul J. Booth, center, NCOIC, Brigade Schools, upon his performance in the recent Marine Corps-wide Third Annual Technique of Instruction Contest in which MSgt. Booth was a finalist. Maj. W. K. Dormady, left, CO, Brigade Headquarters Co. presented the letter. Capt. J. F. Ingalls, Director of Brigade Schools, witnessed the informal ceremony.

New Proposed Pay Boost Holds Cordiner Principles

Washington (AFPS) — Representative Carl A. Vinson (D-Ga.), Armed Services Committee Chairman, introduced the new pay bill in the House on Jan. 14, the same day it was delivered to Capitol Hill.

Washington (AFPS) — The Defense Department has presented legislation to Congress proposing pay raises based on the 1957 Cordiner Committee principles, or an optional six per cent increase, for most military personnel.

The pay bill, recommended in President Eisenhower's Jan. 9 State of the Union message for space age defenses, would modernize the present compensation system and provide new career incentives for highly qualified officers and enlisted members of the Armed Forces.

First-year costs of the legislation, included in the fiscal year 1959 service budget, are estimated at $518 million if the measures are enacted, as urged by the DOD by next July 1. Differing in numerous aspects from last year's military pay recommendations, the new proposals would bring increases to about 1.8 million of the present 2.6 million in the services.

The bill, delivered to Capitol Hill on Jan. 14, discards the traditional and outmoded longevity system for step-in-grade increases and establishes new basic pay scales for all ranks, in addition to reserve officer term-retention provisions, enlisted proficiency advances and the percentage cost of living raises for all with more than two years active service who otherwise would not benefit by the changes.

Authority also is asked to expand officer and enlisted ranks to include grades O-9 and O-10 and E-8 and E-9, as proposed in the original Cordiner Report.

In translating the earlier Cordiner recommendations into legislation, the DOD has provided for converting and phasing-in the increases for officers and warrant officers and a "satisfactory service" contingency for enlisted step-in grade advancements.

Enlisted personnel, however, automatically enter the new system with the establishment of the two additional pay grades under selective application of proficiency advances, reenlistment controls and retraining programs.

The proficiency plan, awarding one or two pay grade advances without commensurate military rank—for demonstrated outstanding ability primarily in critical skills, has already been shaped by the services for grades E-3 through E-6, but has not been put into effect.

The new measure, establishing definite pay differentials between grades, would make the system fully effective by including grades E-7 and E-8.

The Defense proposal does not change—as did the Cordiner plan—the pay of currently retired servicemen.

Drafted on three basic compensation principles, the revised pay system (1) encourages "meritorious" performance of skills and duty and makes "challenging" rewards for assuming added responsibilities; (2) reflects more accurately compensation for degrees of skill and insures that rewards are given selectively and where genuinely deserved and (3) provides pay levels "reasonably comparable" with those of employees in similar occupations in private industry.

In addition to giving greater recognition for merit instead of mere length of service, the revised pay structure eliminates "inversions" where substantial numbers of juniors receive more than their seniors; expands both commissioned and top non-commissioned ranks for a more "precise delineation" of levels of responsibility; brings senior officer incomes closer in line with comparable civilian positions; and relieves "compression" in officer and enlisted ranks with suitable pay differentials between grades.

Where the proposed basic pay rates are higher than the flat six per cent, officers and warrant officers would be phased-in to the new scales by a four-step conversion plan, as follows:

| Pay grade | 1st year | 2nd year | 3rd year |
|---------------|----------|----------|----------|
| O-10 | 200 | 300 | 400 |
| O-9, O-8, O-7 | 100 | 200 | 300 |
| O-6 | 75 | 100 | 150 |
| O-5 thru W-1 | 50 | 100 | 150 |

These amounts are cumulative and represent the maximum increase an individual may be paid over the amount he received prior to the date the bill would be signed into law. At the beginning of the fourth year, any difference remaining to obtain the full authorized rate would be added.

This phase-in, which includes the field-grade "active-duty supplement" not counted for retirement, will allow the services time, the DOD said, to introduce certain management improvements — now under study — to assure that those receiving large increases are carefully screened and selected.

'O' Wives

The next meeting of the "O" Wives' Club will be held Wednesday, Feb. 5 at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel in Waikiki. A fashion show will be the highlight of the afternoon. This will follow the luncheon, which will be served at 12:30 and social hour, which begins at 11:30 a.m.

All "O" wives are cordially invited.

Reservations must be telephoned to any of the following telephone committee: Shirley Moog, 73-375; Idalla Lawrenson, 72-317; Norma Taylor, 72-386; Mary Bustamante, 241-241.

Reservations will be taken until noon Feb. 1. Cancellations must be made by noon Feb. 3.

Correct Address Needed by IRS

"Large amount of mail bearing insufficient address being received in Fleet Post Offices from Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for navy personnel," states an OpNav notice dated last week. Principal reason for this is lack of ship or unit name.

The notice emphasizes the importance of a correct and complete address. An incomplete or incorrect address could result in a refund check being returned and held in abeyance unknown to the recipient.

If the service address is expected to change in a few months, the notice suggests that the serviceman's home address be used.

LDO/WO Program

for regular Warrant Officer. Separate nominations will be required if a man is recommended for both.

Personnel competing under the regular program may be nominated for only one specific Military Occupational Specialty, the one they are most proficient in, as listed in Marine Corps Order 1040.7. Those competing in the women and reserve programs will not be selected according to Military Occupational Specialty but on a best qualified basis regardless of Military Occupational Specialty.

Nominations to be considered by the Headquarters Marine Corps screening board must reach Headquarters not later than March 31, 1958. Approved nominations considered by field screening boards must reach Headquarters Marine Corps not later than April 30, 1958. Any nominations received after the above dates will not be considered.

Norfolk Naval Shipyard at Portsmouth Va., is built on 811 acres of land, has 30 miles of paved streets, 424 buildings, 44 miles of railroad track, nine locomotives, 254 cars, 350 cranes and derricks, two shipbuilding ways, seven dry docks, and is capable of drydocking and rendering complete service to the world's largest ships.

Reserve Officer Retention Plan Incorporated in New Legislation

The reserve officer retention plan, incorporated in the new legislation, was introduced in the House (HR-7473) by the Defense Departments during the last Congressional session. This bill would award two months severance pay for other than medical, dental and veterinary officers, for each month of continuous active duty beyond two years commissioned service upon involuntary separation after serving a minimum of four years.

Other stipulations in the bill, which would amend the Career Compensation Act, are:

Those holding higher temporary grades would be required to compute pay on active-duty time-in-grade.

Step-in-grade increases would not be automatic but would be contingent upon satisfactory performance of duty as verified by commanders.

A total break in service longer than three months would void previous time-in-grade eligibility for pay purposes.

Retirement pay of officers during the four-year phase-in would be computed on the rate at the time of leaving the service.

Supplemental pay to O-5's through O-8's would not be considered for retirement, severance, readjustment payments or accumulated leave.

Hazard and doctor and dental differentials would continue as additional pay.

Quarters allowances for grades E-8 and E-9 would be the same as now authorized for E-4's and above.

Saved pay clauses would protect anyone from taking a cut.

Marine General Slated to Retire

Marine Maj. Gen. John C. McQueen, Chief of the American Military Assistance Advisory Group, The Hague, Netherlands, will retire on June 30, Headquarters Marine Corps announced last week.

Gen. McQueen, a graduate of the 1921 class of the U. S. Naval Academy, assumed his duties at The Hague in Sept., 1956.

SECNAV GUESTS VISIT K-BAY, SEE DEMONSTRATION

VIP VISIT — Seated comfortably in the stand (in photo at top left) are guests of the Secretary of the Navy who witnessed an amphibious assault demonstration last Thursday by the 1st Marine Brigade, utilizing helicopters (in lower left photo) to deliver assault troops. In center, left photo, Brigade artillerymen soften up "enemy resistance" in the vertical assault zone. The civic and business leaders embarked on a tour of K-Bay and were briefed on key terrain features at Kansas Tower (top right photo) by Col. Jack R. Cram, MCAS commanding officer. While on board the Station, the visitors had lunch at the 4th Marines messhall.

Civil Service News

THE WHITE HOUSE

The White House today made public the following letter from the President to Honorable Harris Ellsworth, chairman of the Civil Service Commission:

"Dear Mr. Ellsworth:

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the Civil Service Commission gives me an opportunity to express my own personal appreciation for the work of the Commission and to sign the official Proclamation which expresses the gratitude of the Nation.

In this your Diamond Jubilee year, it is well to remember all the men and women who have taken part in advancing the life and spirit of the Civil Service Act of 1883. This means particularly those civil servants whose able and often selfless public service is a credit to the highest standards of American citizenship.

It is fitting that we take this occasion to rededicate ourselves to the principles upon which the merit system was founded. Please give my best wishes to all who are seeking to make this Jubilee celebration a well-known and meaningful observance."

Sincerely,
DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

SICK LEAVE HONOR ROLL

According to the Dec. 31 quarterly leave availability report, five new employees have reached the 1,000 hour mark for accumulation of sick leave. The addition of their names brings the total to 36 employees on the station's Honor Roll or Thousand Hours Sick Leave.

Congratulations to the following: Walter D. Souza, Harry K. Tokashiki and Noboru Yukumoto of the Supply Department; George F. Sheridan, Industrial Relations; and Charles L. Flanary, Public Works.

EMPLOYEES RECEIVE TRAINING CERTIFICATES

Marcus Rosehill and Alexander McAngus, Leadingmen in the Public Works Department, received certificates of training last week for having completed the basic 60-hr. supervisory training course.

Mr. Rosehill also received a training certificate and congratulations for having completed the homestudy course, "Fundamentals of Supervision for Navy Civilians."

Scotty L. Wong, Supervisory General Supply Clerk in Public Works, is the third employee to finish the homestudy course and received his certificate this week.

ALOHA TO ARTHUR

Supply Department personnel bade Aloha to Arthur L. Edralin, popular Mail Clerk in the Administrative Division, last Friday with a luncheon in his honor. Arthur, who was affected by the recent RIF, transferred to the Communication Department at Pearl Harbor on Monday.

FACTORS IN POSITION CLASSIFICATION

The number of persons supervised is only one of many factors which enter into the classification of a supervisory position, and undue emphasis must not be laid upon this one factor.

More important factors than mere number of employees supervised include: (1) the difficulty, complexity, and variety of the work and organizations supervised; (2) the nature and extent of the supervision exercised as indicated by the kind and number of supervisory actions taken—planning, organizing, coordinating, and controlling the work of others; developing work flow and new or revised work methods; laying out production schedules; training employees; directing and recommending disposition of personnel matters, etc; (3) the degree of finality contained in the recommendations of, or the actions taken, opinions rendered, or work processed by, the supervisor.

In other words, in order properly to classify supervisory positions, a number of factors, as indicated above, must be taken into consideration — this determination is never based on the single factor of number of persons supervised.

Also, in dealing with supervisory positions, another point is that grade controlling factors are not infrequently provided by duties and responsibilities which are essentially non supervisory in character.

THANKS TO BLOOD BANK

In a letter to Mrs. Sarah Y. Martin, Chairman MCAS Civilian Blood Bank Reserve, Dr. F. J. Pinkerton has expressed "sincere thanks and appreciation to the members of the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station Flood Bank Reserve for their gift of 10 blood credits to the Blood Bank of Hawaii for its discretionary use."

These credits will be applied to accounts of private patients who have received blood transfusions in excess of their ability to replace. This HELPING HAND RESERVE, which is supported by several organizations such as the MCASK Civilian Blood Bank Reserve, makes possible assistance to those less fortunate.

Intramural Cage Play Underway

Skin-Divers Busy; Invade Sea World

By MAJ. S. F. LEADER

From King Neptune's realm last Friday evening SSgts. C. O. Johnson and L. E. Walker brought into their deep-freezers seven good-sized lobsters. On Saturday, SSgts. Parfurse and Walker and Cpl. Pietila landed four nice parrot fish, among which one tipped the scales at almost seven pounds. On Sunday, Sgt. S. M. Mehlhoff and Cpl. J. P. Pietila brought up four nice lobsters from the briny deep.

The two mile swim was made this past Saturday in K-Bay by Capt. H. W. Roark, Cpl. D. J. Eggers, Sam Leader and Maj. Leader. All made the grade with flying colors. All we have to do now to become fully qualified AKU Marines is to have eight dives in the ocean with a single tank before we can use the double-rig; then make four dives with the double tanks and become full-fledged AKU Marines.

On Jan. 14, the AKUs had a little bad luck with their diving gear in that one Marine had to ditch his double-rig and regulator about 500 yards off the beach next to the golf course. There is a possibility that the equipment could float in on the beach. Anyone seeing this gear, please contact SSgt. H. H. Raedel at 72964.

The AKU Safety Committee will be giving lectures at the weekly meetings in order to acquaint new members with the safety measures that are necessary for the well-being of the club. This committee is also obtaining safety equipment for trial and testing for use of the AKU Marines. The safety equipment will not only help save our equipment but will help prevent loss of life.

Col. Finn, SSgt. Raedel and other club members gave some very valuable pointers from their experience in aqua-lung diving. All hands, I'm sure, learned a great deal from these experienced AKU Marines and have enlightening knowledge as to how to get their SCUBA gear out through the surf and back safely.

Another picnic is in the wind for the club in the near future, so all AKU Marines should wander over to the Rod and Gun Club on Monday evening at 7 to learn more about this outing.

All service personnel and their dependents who are good swimmers and desire to become members of the AKU Skin-Diving Club are invited to attend the tests conducted at the Enlisted Pool each Sunday morning at 11.

B-S Track Meet Feb. 19-20-21

Flying feet will again be heard around K-Bay on Feb. 19, 20 and 21 when the 1958 edition of the Brigade-Station Track and Field Championships gets underway on the track adjacent to Riseley Field.

It is anticipated that tryouts for the Hawaii Marine varsity cinder squad will be held shortly after the meet so all winged footers who intend running for the senior team had better start shaking the kinks out of those old muscles.

Those who place well in the intramural meet will no doubt be held in mind by the Hawaii Marine coach when he makes the final choice on available talent.

There will be a Track Coaches meeting in the Brigade-Station sports office at 9 a.m. on Feb. 17 and all entry blanks will be due at that time. No entry blank will be accepted after the announced period of acceptance.

WINSOME TARGET — With this lovely Miss atop the basket, what Marine would miss? While Maj. Ira Norfolk hasn't found it necessary to employ such a sensational training aid for his high-scoring hoopsters, Miss Neville Kaanana took the lofty perch as a means of drawing attention to the Hawaii Marines and their contest with the University of Utah next Thursday, Jan. 30, at Bloch Arena in what promises to be the number one cage attraction of the season.

Cagers Win Three, Squeak By Balfour

Easy wins over the Sub Pac Raiders 92-73, and Ford Island Navy 84-52, plus a hair-raising squeaker over a sharp Balfour Jeweler quintet at Palama Gym, 107-105, last Monday night sums up action in the Hawaiian Senior Invitational Basketball League this past week and leaves the Leathernecks in undisputed possession of the league lead, two games up on a fighting Sub Pac squad. The 'Necks now reign as prohibitive choice to repeat their league title grab of last year as they are three games up in the all-important lost column with only one defeat as compared to Sub Pac's four losses.

Sub Pac's Raiders tried to improve their second place standing last Friday night but fell victim to a fired-up Leatherneck squad 92-73 to tumble back into third place behind the Serv Pac Packers once again.

First half play in the rugged encounter saw the Marines steadily build up to a 50-32 bulge at the intermission on the strong rebounding of 2nd Lt. Bob Reese and John Fannon.

1st Lt. Ted Henderson continued his fine play and popped with precision from the outside to pace the scorers.

In the second half, 2nd Lt. Reese and Cpl. Jack Mitchell of the Leathernecks dominated the boards and poured in points as Sub Pac failed to cut into their lead.

The Packers used only five players and were steadily overpowered by Maj. Ira Norfolk's iron men who seem to get faster with each fast break they use. They just run, and run, and run!

1st Lt. Ted Henderson led the Marines' scoring with 21 points, 2nd Lt. John Fannon threw in 18, 2nd Lt. Bob Reese got 14, Cpl. Jack Mitchell 13 and 2nd Lt. Jere Lawrence tanked 12 to round out the double figure men.

Dick Jorgenson was high for the Raiders with a 21 point total.

The Balfour Jewellers seem to shine on the basketball court in a special way each time they encounter the Hawaii Marines. The have caused the 'Necks more than a few tense moments in their two clashes this season.

Hustling every inch of the way against a taller Marine quintet, the civilians opened a 55-50 gap on the league leaders at the half.

It was nip and tuck in the third period with the Leatherneck five pulling even at 69 toward the end of the quarter.

Thereafter ties occurred at 92, 96, and 105 all with a tense crowd holding its breath and praying for a Jeweler victory.

The bubble burst with two seconds left, however, when little Frank Julian, 2nd Lt. USMC, hit on a beautiful set shot from 20 feet out to pluck sweet victory from the grasp of the upstart Jewelers.

Julian, stellar play-maker, ball-hawk, spark-plug and defensive ace of the Marines ended up with 14 points for the night.

Marine scoring was accounted for by 2nd Lt. Bob Reese who was high with 27 counters, 2nd Lt. John Fannon, 19, 1st Lt. Ted Henderson, 15, 2nd Lt. Frank Julian 14, Cpl. Jack Mitchell, 12 and 2nd Lt. Jere Lawrence, 11.

Substituting freely in the Ford Island tilt Wednesday night, Maj. Norfolk used fourteen players in grinding out an 84-52 victory.

Sloppy ball-handling and ragged play marked the first period as neither team could manage to settle down, and took turns throwing the ball away and kicking it out of bounds. 1st Lt. Jack Keller proved a steady influence on the Marines during his brief stint and accounted for six of the winner's points in the final count.

Pfc. John Wilson, with a 30 point individual high game earlier in the year against Coast Guard, threw in 13 markers to end up second high Marine scorer for the night behind 2nd Lt. Jere Lawrence's total of 15.

2nd Lt. Bob Reese, leading Leatherneck scorer and spark-plug in recent games, appeared briefly at the start of both halves to record 9 points.

The high-flying Marines next meet their nemesis, Hickam Air Force, tonight in Hangar 103 here at K-Bay at 8 p.m. The Flyers handed the 'Necks their only setback of the season back on Jan. 3 to a mournful 88-63 dirge.

Close Scores; Tight Play In Hard-Fought Contests

Action waxed fast and furious on the smooth floor of Hangar 103 here at K-Bay last Monday night when the curtain rose on the 1958 Brigade-Station Basketball league scene, with Service Bn., 1st Marine Brigade, meeting the MAG-13 Champions head-on in the initial clash. It was a nip and tuck tussle all the way to the finish with the Service Bn., team emerging the victors, 45-42.

R. D. Demblon of the winners bucketed 23 counters as he sparked Service Bn., both offensively and defensively, in eking out the victory. Demblon scored three break-away baskets in the last three minutes and also stole an enemy pass to insure the win.

Cpl. A. P. Dillard accounted for 15 of the winner's points and was only one point ahead of Pfc. Ben Cochran, the Champions' high man with 14. Cochran sparked a second half drive which sliced a 10 point Service Bn., lead at half time, to a tie with three minutes to go.

In the second half of the twin bill a sharp-shooting Hq&HqSq quintet which led by as much as nine points in the first half, finally succumbed 53-48 to the set play of 1st Bn., 4th Marines and their potent center Pfc. Robert Lincoln who tanked 24 points.

Lincoln shared high point honors for the night with Demblon of Service Bn., followed by two MCAS players, Pfc. C. R. Taylor and Pfc. Bill Goins who each sank 19.

The Squadron team showed lots of hustle and led 24-15 in the second period before they ran out of gas. Sgt. Mike Woodward, who averaged 13.2 a game last season, saw only limited action and Sgt. Jack Mayberry, member of the 6 man football All Star squad, was apparently still nursing a knee injury as he didn't suit up. Mayberry led the Squadron team last year with a 13.5 point average, good for 245 points.

In Tuesday night's games the action continued at a torrid pace as the MAG-13 All Stars edged 2nd Bn., 4th Marines 58-56. 2nd Bn., moved out to a 5-1 lead in the early minutes but the All Stars reorganized their defenses and whittled away at the gap.

Pfc. Ron Jackson, forward for the infantry team, threw in 27 points in a losing cause, for the highest individual performance thus far in the infant season. He scored mostly on jump shots and was a giant off the boards.

The All Stars almost lost in the final three minutes when, leading 57-51, they shot twice and missed with 2nd Bn., scoring both times to close to two points. After trading fouls the All Stars pressed hard for the remaining 21 seconds and the infantrymen could not manage to get off a scoring shot.

Another hard fought contest saw the Cannoneers of 3rd Bn., 12 Marines fight an uphill battle after being down to 3rd Bn., 4th Marines by a 16-2 count in the first period, and finally push ahead 64-58 at the final buzzer.

1st Lts. Tom Cushman with 20 and Roger Haire with 19 paced the winners attack while Pfc. Ray Stevenson repeatedly cleared the boards to aid the cause.

Steady play and an excellent defensive set-up got the Cannoneers over the rough spots as they recorded their first win of the season. They are the defending champs of the Brigade-Station Basketball League.

Cpl. Rufus Roney was high for the 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, accounting for 15 of their total points.

Lacrosse Tryouts Scheduled Tuesday

Tryouts for personnel interested in Lacrosse will be held Tuesday, Jan. 28 at 4:30 p.m. on Riseley Field. Those who are not able to attend the scheduled tryout can get further information by contacting Lt. Herbster at 72255.

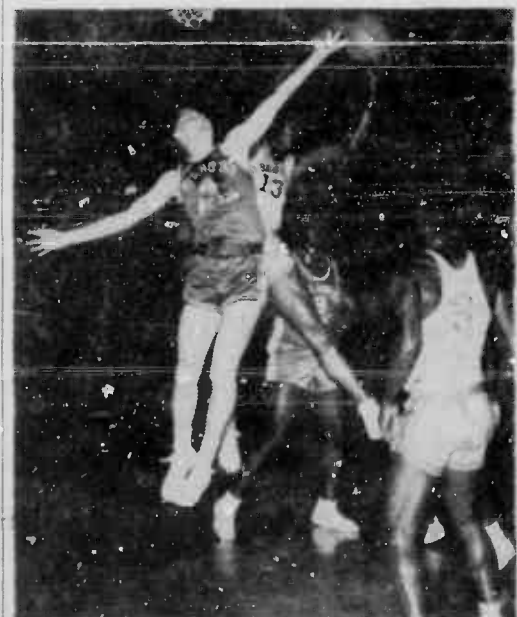

Lacrosse is a sport combining the body contact of football with the passing and continual action of basketball. Because of this, men of any physique, who are willing to improve their physical health, can play.

The sport is excellent for Marine personnel because it develops teamwork and is action packed.

Lacrosse is easy to learn and good instructors are available to conduct the forming of a Brigade Lacrosse team.

PISTOL TOURNAMENT SLATED TOMORROW

It has been announced that the 14th Naval District Monthly Pistol Tournament will be held tomorrow at the Hawaii National Guard Pistol Range, Diamond Head Crater, with registration starting at 7:30 a.m. and the meet commencing at 8 a.m.

LEAPING HIGH but not quite high enough, Pfc. Bill Goins, Hq & Hq Sq forward, got way up only to find Pfc. Willie Brown, 1st Bn., 4th Marines, already there and clutching that oversized grapefruit. Rebounding like this turned the tide in favor of the men from 1st Bn., who ended up 53-48 victors. — PHOTO BY SGT. BRUCE HAMPER.

KANE KWIPS

HAWAII MARINE BASKETBALL ATTENDANCE

According to a Station Bulletin (1710.2) government transportation will be provided for military personnel desiring to attend athletic events conducted on the island of Oahu.

If this is so, then why was there a total attendance of only 11 from MCAS K-Bay at the narrow victory over a Balfour J. team at Palama Gym, Monday nite? The civilian team was up by the strong backing they received from a large number of strictly partisan fans.

Where were the Marines?

There is no greater let-down for an athlete than to spend hours sweating in the close confines of a gym perfecting himself in a sport so that he might better represent his organization, only to find that he performs before, little more than the opposing team's fans. It is very disheartening and can sometimes spell the difference between victory and defeat.

Our Hawaii Marine Hoopsters and also the other Leatherneck varsity teams have time and time again brought home all the laurels and always give the fans something to cheer about. They play an outstanding brand of ball from the spectator viewpoint and in general raise public opinion regarding the Corps.

Let's provide some added incentive at their games and give them the support they deserve both at home games and those played in enemy strongholds.

Transportation requests must be submitted to Station Special Services (phone 73233) at least 48 hours prior to game time. Bus teams will be formed numbering a maximum of 37 men. All military personnel aboard MCAS, Kaneohe are eligible and buses will be boarded at the Station Bus stop (Mess Hall No. 1) and Building 1090 (south side).

Do it the Marine way and go all out in supporting your teams!

A LOSER'S CELEBRATION?

At a football banquet held by the Hq&HqSq 6-Man players last Friday night at the Sergeants club, Sgt. Jack Mayberry was awarded a trophy for having been the most "inspirational" player on the team.

On receiving the award from Lt. Col. Jack Conger, Station Special Services Officer, Mayberry remarked that he owed the credit for his good plays to the five men on the playing field with him and the Creator who gave him the talent he possesses.

This remark was typical of the soft-spoken man who earlier this year had been named to the Brigade-Station All-Star 6-Man Football Squad.

It's doubtful there is anyone aboard the Station who has ever heard Jack utter a word even bordering on the line of poor taste or vulgarity, drink alcoholic beverages, complain under duress or speak against anyone, and it is therein that I believe the intense, former Divinity student passes inspiration to those who work, play with or just know him.

The Pine Bluff, Arkansas product held together a team which just didn't have the horses during football season, yet rose to the occasion each time they played to score unexpected upsets.

Sgt. Howie Boers was named "Most Valuable Player" on the squad, amidst the cheers of unanimous acclaim and Pfc. Bob Bergeron, shifty quarter and half back was named the "Most Improved Player."

The unquenchable spirit of these assembled Leathernecks, who finished next to last in the league, is a tribute to the aims of Intramural athletics and would indicate that scoreboard tallies are not the only benefits derived from clean and hard-fought athletic events.

PONY LEAGUE

Boys 13 and 14 years of age whose parents are military personnel or government employees are eligible to play baseball for the MCAS Kaneohe Indians in the Pony League. Those interested should report to Joe E. Brown field at the seaward end of Platt Field, the regimental parade field, on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. with fielding gloves and sneakers. Players must be 13 years old by Aug. 1, 1958 and under 15 years of age prior to Aug 1, 1958. Lt. Col E. J. Doyle, Major E. B. Crew and TSgt. B. Kander will be on hand to provide adult supervision and coaching. Interested parents are invited to attend.

Collins Is Named All Sea Service

It was learned this week that 1st Lt. Mike Collins, stellar guard and defensive line-backer for the Hawaii Marine gridders this past season, was named to the third team of the 1957 All Sea Service Squad along with former All American end from the Naval Academy, Ron Beagle who played with the Okinawa Marines.

MARINE RIFLE CHAMPS—In the top photo, SSgt. Lohrke L. Armstrong, H&S Co., Service Bn., 1st Marine (second from right) presents the Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, Intramural Rifle trophy which his team copped during the fourth quarter at Puuloa range last month to the commanding officer, Service Bn., Lt. Col. John H. Ellis, during ceremonies held last week. Other team members looking on are, left to right, Pfc. Oscar F. Cooper, B. Co., 3rd Shore Party Bn., Sgt. Larry A. Lehmkuhl, A Co., 1st AmTrac Bn., Sgt. Charles A. Jankowski, C Co., 7th Engineer Bn., and SSgt. Henry C. Pyburn, A Co., 1st AmTrac Bn. The expert rifle quintet had an aggregate score of 899 points of a possible 1,000, to take top honors.

Basketball

At least one of the Redskin hoopsters may be well known by many Marine and Navy sports fans. Jim Thomas, a sophomore forward, played two seasons with the Camp Lejeune Marines before going to Utah.

While not a regular starter with Gardiner's quintet, big Jim made the All Atlantic Fleet five his second season at Camp Lejeune. A tremendous power under the boards. Thomas has a fine hook shot which made him a top scoring threat with the East Coast Marines. Thomas was with Lejeune from 1954 through 1956.

Half time entertainment will be provided by a Samoan drill team which made a big hit with Hawaii Marine grid fans during the past season.

Music will be provided by the Pearl Harbor Marine Barracks Band beginning at 7:30 p.m., and also during the intermission at half time.

Women's Golf

Play continued last week among K-Bay Klipper women players with a featured Blind Team-Best Ball event for 18 hole players won by Dot Nelson and Dot Johant who combined to fire a net total of 65.

Second in this event were Dessie Boyer and Elaine McRae who were very close with a 66 net score.

In the 9-hole players group Low Putt Tournament, Doris Trout was first with 15 putts and Ginger Bailey tied with Betty Bruce for the runner-up spot, both totalling 19 putts.

Navy Coat Donated To Texas Orphans

"Texas Bill," the goat who served as temporary mascot for Navy in the Cotton Bowl game, was assigned new duties as mascot for the Buckner (Texas) Orphans' Home football team.

The mascot was presented to the home by Rear Adm. W. R. Smedberg, III, Superintendent of the Naval Academy. "Bill" will keep the blue and gold manure on his horns, the Buckner School colors also, and the Navy blanket he wore at the game will be placed in the school's trophy case.

The team is called the Hornets, but the boys are considering a change with the acquisition of "Texas Bill."

Nimrods Hold First '58 Meeting; Schedule 3rd Annual Rifle Match

By PFC. BILL DOUGHERTY

With approximately 35 men present, the Rifle and Pistol Club held its first meeting, Jan. 14, for Calendar Year 1958. The main topic of discussion was the up and coming 3rd Annual Rifle Match to be held March 1 and 2. It is a club-sponsored match and is probably the biggest rifle competition held on Station.

The details of the match will be published by a Brigade Bulletin in the near future. As soon as we find out more information we will let you know through the Windward Marine.

The following members will be acting officials during the Match: Executive Officer — Lt. Frenzel, Range Officer—Sgt. Maj. Waldron, and Statistics Officer — Lt. Steinhilber.

In addition to the match and immediately following, there will be food and refreshments for the participants and club members. Our good friend TSgt. Drechsel will be in charge of the Food Committee.

If you are interested in helping this committee, you can do so by contacting MSgt. Gross, 72004 or Lt. Steinhilber, 73169. Needless to say we need any assistance you might give us.

MSgt. Klock brought up an interesting topic which the pistol shooters will go for.

It is a plastic grip which you can mold to fit your hand. The pistol Grip Kit, which is made by the A-B-C Plastic Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio, costs only $3.95 (add 50 cents for postage). The colors come in Walnut or Black and reports indicate that it is a big asset to your shooting. If you don't already have a custom grip, try it, you may like it.

It has been reported by the K-Bay Range Officer that the Range will be open for club shooters only on Saturday afternoons, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

HIGH SHOOTERS—TSgt. W. E. Pierce, left, of India Co., 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, assumes the sitting position from which he blasted a "possible" at 200 yards rapid fire in building up to his final high score of 233x250 with the M-1 rifle during rifle requalifications held last week at the K-Bay rifle range. Pfc. T. S. Gought, at right, of Weapons Co., 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, sights along the barrel of his .45 Cal. pistol. Gought fired 359x400 to gain an expert classification and high shooter honors during the qualification firing held Jan. 16 at the K-Bay pistol range. Cpl. J. Reilly, H&S Co., 3rd Bn., 4th Marines, fired 346 with the pistol to gain the runner-up slot and MSgt. P. H. Hauser, Weapons Co., 3rd Bn., 4th Marines was second in the M-1 rifle class with 232x 20.—PHOTO BY SGT. TOM WHITTINGHAM.

Theater Schedule

By PFC. BILL GOINS

Two shows daily—6:05 p.m. and 8:20 p.m. at both Main Theater and 4th Marines. Movies at 4th Marines Theater are one day later than scheduled below. Matinees on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at the Main Theater at 1 p.m. only.

TONIGHT

LIVING IT UP — Dean and Jerry have that irresistible type of humor that will even make your First Sergeant forget himself and smile. Mr. Lewis couldn't be funnier. It's an iddle, and a goodie. Too bad these two great guys decided to go their separate ways.

SATURDAY MATINEE

20 MILLION MILES TO EARTH — Like all the other science fiction shows this one has a monster, too. He's a cute little devil when first born, only one trouble though, he grows up! If you are a steady "dime waster" then you probably saw this gem four months ago on the night of Sept. 30, 1957. William Hopper and Joan Taylor chase our monster (and each other) for a full 82 minutes.

SATURDAY

TROOPER HOOK—An Indian chief steals Barbara Stanwyck, then Joel McCrea steals her back. Next our redskinned friend is on the warpath, which just goes to show that stolen love can lead to heap big trouble.

SUNDAY MATINEE

OKLAHOMA WOMAN — Eastern women can't compare horsemanship with them that "Oakies" because everyone knows it's impossible to get bowlegged from riding the subway. If you think this is a western, then congratulations, you're right! Richard Denning and Peggy Castle form the cowboy and cowgirl duet in this two fisted dust raiser.

SUNDAY

OUTLAWS SON — Now this title could be misleading. I used to know a preachers son who stole money from a blind man all the time, that is until his seeing-eye-dog got wise to the action. Afterwards it was very embarrassing trying to explain why it was necessary to eat standing up! That dog turned him every way but loose. Lori Nelson and Dane Clark star in what might be a good western.

MONDAY

OPERATION MAD BALL—Columbia has produced what is rated an excellent comedy by all hands so we won't disagree. Funny man Jack Lemmon teams with Kathryn Grant and gives the screen some real good laughs.

TUESDAY

X THE UNKNOWN—Couldn't find much information on this one. It is science fiction and I'll lay you ten to one that it has a monster. Stars Dane Jagger and Edward Chapman. Rated fair.

WEDNESDAY

NIGHT PASSAGE — A train robbery sets the pattern of action here and pits two brothers against each other. About the nicest thing connected with this movie is the fact it is filmed in Technicolor and has some very eye-appealing scenes of Colorado countryside. Stars Audie Murphy and James Stewart.

THURSDAY

NO DOWN PAYMENT—Sounds like something Smiling Sam, "the friendly used car dealer," might advertise. Seriously though, it's a good flick, stars Barbara Rush and Jeffrey Hunter.

NOTE: Out of the whole week's movies there are only two on the "must see" list. Don't miss the one tonight and catch Operation Mad Ball on Monday.

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

If we are to believe the newspapers, a man appeared in Traffic Court on his second drunk driving charge and explained that he could not be in court on the 10th because he was drunk, on the 11th more of same, 12th ditto, then said he was not guilty of the charge because he had only had two beers. Sentence three months in jail, 10 years suspension of driver's license. The day —Friday the 13th.

'Anne Frank' Diary On Tap by HCT

Opening its 1958 season the Honolulu Community Theatre group will present "The Diary of Anne Frank" for four weeks starting Jan. 30 at the Fort Ruger Theatre. There will be a 10 per cent discount to students and service personnel on all evening performances except opening night.

A play of great beauty and charm, it is one of the most universally accepted and well-loved dramas of recent years. It is a true record of an alert young Jewish girl who, with members of her family and friends, spent two years and one month sequestered in the garret of an Amsterdam building in a vain attempt to escape the attention of the Nazis. This New York production opened at the Cort Theatre, Oct. 5, 1955, starring Susan Strasberg as "Anne" and Joseph Schildkraut as her father, "Otto Frank."

For ticket information and reservations call Honolulu 996-174.

Ex-Women Marines Plan Coffee Here

All former Women Marines are invited to attend a Coffee Tuesday, Jan. 28, at 9:30 a.m. at 1221-B Senior NCO quarters.

This Coffee is being held in the interest of renewing old friendships, relocate old "buddies" and to give information about two big reunions planned for 1959, one to be held in San Francisco and the other in New York City.

For more information, call 73306 or 73301.
