

ALLOWANCE HIKE EASES HIGH RENT PROBLEM

Thousands of Oahu servicemen, including hundreds of Kaneohe-based Marines, began receiving an additional Station Per Diem allowance Monday, August 11. This will be added to the regular basic quarters allowance (BAQ) allocated to enlisted personnel living off-station with dependents and to officers living off-station.

Military personnel living in government quarters or government-controlled rental units will not collect the additional allowance.

Officers living off-station with dependents will get $1.40 a day, enlisted men living with dependents off-station will get 90 cents a day while officers living off-station without dependents will receive 75 cents daily.

Enlisted men not living with dependents will get no extra allowance. The allowance applies only to Oahu.

Local disbursing sources indicated the increase will probably be reflected in pay rolls beginning next pay day.

Kaneohe disbursing officials, who had not received any official communication regarding the increase at press time, cautioned sergeants with less than four years service, along with corporals, privates first class and privates, not to count on the increase, even though they are living off-station with their dependents. Disbursing noted that these personnel do not qualify for transportation of dependents and therefore may not be eligible for the Station Per Diem allowance.

Also raised is the question of personnel living off-station who refuse government quarters or government-controlled rental units as their names come up on the housing lists. It is not known if personnel in this category will continue to collect the increased allowances.

Information on the foregoing questions will be publicized as soon as disbursing receives official directives on the allowance.

This increase is the result of a request by the office of the Commander-in-Chief, Pacific to obtain cost-of-living allowances for servicemen here. The request met with the approval of the Defense Department's Per Diem, Travel and Transportation Allowance Committee.

A 10-man group from the Department of Defense is expected to visit Admiral Harry D. Felt, CINCPAC, Monday to discuss a request for additional subsistence allowance. The study will include investigation of food costs here to determine if such an allowance is justified.

COL. MAGRUDER TO COMMAND MCAS

2 Fury Jet Pilots Head for Midway

Two Fury jet pilots of Marine Aircraft Group-13 will take-off today on a flight that may well establish new records for the air-arm of the 1st Marine Brigade.

Lt. Col. H. H. Long, Group S-3, and Capt. C. O. Hietl, Group safety officer, are scheduled to depart at 11:30 a.m. on an 1,175 mile pathfinder hop to Midway Island. This will be the first such flight ever attempted to Midway from Kaneohe in the North American Fury jets and will test the long range capabilities of the aircraft.

After the pathfinder flight, the hop to Midway could be included in the regular training operations of Fury squadrons attached to MAG-13.

Weather conditions permitting, the pioneering duo are scheduled to return to K-Bay about noon tomorrow.

COL. JACK R. CRAM

COL. MARION M. MAGRUDER

Col. Cram Ends Duty Here; Tuesday Ceremonies Set

Colonel Marion M. Magruder will relieve Colonel Jack R. Cram as commanding officer of MCAS during formal change of command ceremonies to be held on Dewey Square at 3 p.m. next Tuesday. Col. Magruder is arriving from Camp H. M. Smith where he served as deputy chief of staff, Headquarters, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific.

Lt. Col. Charles Kimak, MCAS executive officer, will be the commander of troops for the ceremonial parade and review.

An honor graduate of the University of Kentucky, the new commanding officer was commissioned a Marine second lieutenant in 1936.

He attended Basic School (then in Philadelphia) and was transferred to the Marine Barracks, Naval Yard, Washington, D. C., where he served for 11 months. His additional duties consisted of being social aide to the White House.

In July, 1938, he attended flight school at Pensacola, Fla., and two years later, was attached to Marine Fighter Squadron-1 as a pilot and squadron material officer.

The colonel reported to the Division of Aviation, Headquarters Marine Corps, in October, 1941, serving as the assistant material officer until February, 1943. At this time he was sent to England to study and train in night fighter tactics with the Royal Air Force.

Four months later he returned to the Marine Night Fighter Group-53 at MCAS, Cherry Point, where he served as night fighter training and operations officer. In October of that year Col. Magruder organized and became commanding officer of VMF (N)-533, which he took overseas in April, 1944.

During the first year overseas his squadron maintained the night air defense of Eniwetok before moving to Okinawa to bolster the air defense against intensive night bombing attacks. Under the command of Col. Magruder, the squadron established a World War II Theater record of shooting down 36 enemy aircraft at night for which the colonel received the Combat Legion of Merit.

Returning from overseas in September, 1945, the colonel assumed command of MAG-53 at Eagle Lake, Texas. He was later executive officer and commander of MAG-31 (then at Miramar, Calif.) until June, 1947.

Since then Col. Magruder was a student at the Air Force's Air War College, an aviation instructor at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, and an assistant operations officer in the Division of Aviation, Headquarters Marine Corps. He also served overseas in Heidelberg, Germany.

After graduating from the National War College in 1955 he assumed command of MAG-11 in Atsugi, Japan, where he remained until mid-1956. He arrived at Camp Smith in July, 1956, to serve as assistant chief of staff, logistics (G-4), FMF-Pac. He was named deputy chief of staff last December.

Col. Magruder's decorations and awards include the Combat Legion of Merit; Air Medal with two gold stars in lieu of the second and third awards; Presidential Unit Citation; American Defense Service Medal; American Campaign Medal; Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with one star; World War II Victory Medal; National Defense Service Medal and the European Campaign Medal with one star.

Col. Cram will sail aboard the Lurline, Aug. 23, for the mainland. The colonel is slated for duty at Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Calif.

During Col. Cram's tenure as commanding officer's Air Station facilities were expanded. Projects completed include a new bowling alley, extension of the golf course, a new exchange in the regimental area, an expanded MX service station, 55 new quarters in Rainbow Village, Leatherneck Cafe for entertainment.

Fire Inspectors To Check Over Naval Housing

To prevent loss of life and property damage in Naval Housing, the 14ND Consolidated Fire Department is conducting a program of home fire prevention inspections on Oahu.

This program is to help prevent the loss of property and lives by fire. It is requested that all residents of Naval Housing cooperate fully with the fire inspectors in the elimination of fire hazards.

The uniformed fire inspectors will conduct the inspection between 1 and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday during the period of August 11 and October 10, 1958.

Where deficiencies are noted, inspectors will provide the occupant of the quarters with a deficiency notice, a copy of which will be retained by the inspector and a second copy will be forwarded to the 14ND Fire Marshal. Such notices will show the date upon which re-inspection will take place to insure that corrective measures have been taken.

LOCAL SCHOOL REGISTRATION, BUS TRANSPORTATION SLATED

Registration for students planning to attend Mokapu Elementary School aboard the Air Station will be held at the school office Monday through Friday, from 1 to 3 p.m. The school grades run from kindergarten through sixth grade.

Principal James K. F. Lee reminded parents that they should bring their children's signed health card (Form 14) along with either a birth or baptismal certificate if the student is entering this school for the first time.

"Form 14" is a Territorial health card required of all students enrolled in Hawaii's schools. It requires a doctor's signature noting the child's state of health. Appointments for these physicals may be made by phoning the Station Dispensary out-patient clinic at 72-882.

On the first day of school, Sept. 3, classes will run from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. After this, with the exception of the first two weeks of kindergarten, classes will run from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

During the first two weeks of the kindergarten students will begin classes at 8:30 a.m. but will finish their school day at various times. This is being done to orient the youngsters into classroom life. After this breaking-in period they will attend classes on the regular schedule, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Although regular to-and-from school bus service will be afforded to all students, including kindergarten students, parents of kindergarteners will have the responsibility of the return transportation of their children each day during the initial two-week period.

School bus service to Mokapu School will be available to military dependent school children living in the Crescent Circle-Hilltop and Ulupau Housing area aboard the Station. In addition, to-and-from bus service routes will be used for military dependent school children enrolled at Mokapu who live in the Kailua, Kaneohe, Lanikai and Keolu Hills areas.

Only military dependent school children who live aboard the Air Station may make use of the military bus service transporting students to Kailua and Castle High Schools. Since St. Anthony's and the Seventh Day Adventist Schools in Kailua and St. Ann's in Kaneohe are within a reasonable distance of the established route, transportation will be provided between the Air Station and these schools.

Complete bus schedule information and bus routes are contained in Station Order 4643.6C. Copies of this order are posted on various unit bulletin boards and at the Mokapu Elementary School.

Electronics Shop Posts New Hours

Facilities of the Special Services Electronics Hobby Shop, in the rear of Bldg. 256 next to the Station Library have been made available to all military personnel and their dependents.

The shop contains test equipment and tools for the repair and building of all types of radios, televisions, Hi-Fi's and other electronic equipment.

A qualified instructor will be present at all times to assist and advise on any electronic problems that may arise. He will also instruct and supervise on the use of the test equipment.

The shop will be open Thursday through Friday between the hours of 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday it will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The shop will be closed Sunday, Monday and holidays.

Letter From an Air Force Wife

139 19th Street,
 Hickam Village,
 Honolulu, 18, T. H.
 August 8, 1958

Colonel Jack R. Cram, USMC
 Commanding Officer,
 Marine Corps Air Station,
 Kaneohe Bay, T. H.

Dear Sir:

As an Air Force wife who has lived on the Windward side for two years, receiving medical care for myself and five children, it would be hard for me to express my appreciation to the Dispensary at Kaneohe.

As for courtesy, accommodations and excellent medical attention I simply don't think Kaneohe can be beat! Especially would I pin a bouquet on Captain Gard (Captain Perry W. Gard, (MC), USN, Senior Medical Officer) with his good humor, good sense and consideration.

It is wonderful for us to be able now to live in Hickam Village, so much more convenient for my husband, but we will never forget how fine and efficient the Kaneohe dispensary was.

Gratefully yours,
 MRS. JOHN HAGOOD

This Will Kill You

Frankenstein's monster was a powderpuff compared with me. He could wreak havoc in only one place at a time, I strike simultaneously in many places—again and again.

I'm a manmade scourge. Man created me, and I destroy him without compunction. He has developed serums and vaccines to control and eliminate natural diseases, but try as he might he has been unsuccessful in his efforts to destroy me. I become more prevalent and destructive every year. I kill thousands of men, women, and children, and cripple many thousands more. I destroy property, wreck homes, and smash families. I have no regard for the rich or the poor, the healthy or the lame—they are all the same to me—my objective is to damage and to cause misery.

I can't be stopped, not by one man, nor yet by a group of men. It's going to take all men as well as a tremendous change in everyone's attitude to do it. You see, I am an automobile accident—conceived by carelessness, nurtured on discourtesy, and born of speed and reckless disregard for moral obligations.

Money Down the Drain

How much water does a man use in a day, maybe 40 or 50 gallons? How much water does a man waste? Look around. Leaving the water on while you shave wastes 20 gallons. Not bothering to call extension 72-380 to report that leaking faucet wastes 200 gallons a day. Leaving a tap running wastes more than 2,000 gallons a day.

It is estimated that one hundred million gallons of water were wasted last year on this station.

Who paid for it? You did, TAXPAYER, and you will pay for every drop wasted this year. So you see it's not "Trouble" to stop that leak, or report it: it's SMART.

Chaplain's Corner

By CHAPLAIN C. A. AUER

"If it pays, it's good." This little phrase is quite a popular one. As a matter of fact it sort of typifies the feeling of a great number of peoples. There are other little phrases too, all quite well known, which seem to say pretty much the same thing. "If it works out, it is worthwhile." "What's in it for me?" "It's a good deal." "If it makes me happy, I'll try it."

All of these are sort of innocent in themselves. But, they typify a spirit, which has always caused a weakening and eventually the self-destruction of communities, then nations, then civilizations. For these phrases come out of the loss of real values.

We hear on all sides "that the job that pays the most is the best job." "There are no real moral standards as long as no one else knows what I am doing." "The guy to stick close to is the guy who can get away with the most."

Again, these may be quite harmless as individual statements. But collectively they begin to show in what we really believe. Contrary to these is an absolute standard that, whether or not it pays, whether or not it makes me happy, whether or not it brings recognition, is still worthwhile.

It began this way — "I am the Lord, thy God . . ." It was restated this way—"We hold these truths to be self-evident . . ."

K-Bay Teen Club

Opening their program with their theme song, "Penthouse Serenade," the group features Duke Heatherly on the cocktail drums. Duke is also a composer. His latest composition, "Don't Say Goodbye," is due for release next month.

Chuck Roberts, one of Hawaii's finest guitarists, was formerly on Arthur Godfrey's program with the Four Vagabonds. Randy Oness handles the saxophone and the clarinet. Randy is also a composer with one of his hits being "Lovely Hula Girl." Reuben Yap, pianist with the group, has handled the ivories at the Clouds and many other Honolulu night spots.

So there you are! It's going to be a ball so be sure not to miss it. Remember it's next Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the "O" club.

The Inquiring Photographer

By SGT. SAM ZAGARELLA

The question asked this week by your Inquiring Photographer was, "How will the additional quarters allowance help you as a married person living off-station?" (See story on page 1.)

MRS. SARAH GUTOWSKI, Dependent: I think it is wonderful and will really help the personnel living off base. It will certainly be a contributing factor towards rent and food bills.

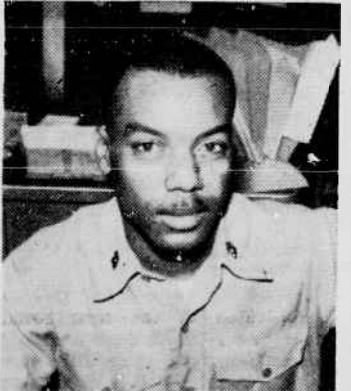

TSGT. THOMAS T. ZABELSKI, Chief Clerk, Hq.&Hq.Sq.: I think it will benefit the married personnel with children more than anyone else. The extra money will be a big help toward rent and food bills.

SGT. JAMES KELLOGG, Disbursing: I think it will help a great deal, especially toward the high rent situation. I wonder though if the landlords will increase the rent.

MSGT. F. J. FEMIA, Merchandising Manager, MX: It will help out considerably due to the fact that I'm living off base and paying $130 per month for rent.

CAPT. NORMAN MEDORE, Station Comm.: It will come a lot closer to doing the job it is supposed to do but it still isn't enough to make up the difference of living between on and off base housing.

TSGT. ROBERT C. BATCHER, Area Auditor's Office: I feel it is going to help in the rent situation. At least it will help pay utilities, but I feel we are still very much in need of the subsistence allowance increase. This increase will help a great deal if the landlords don't raise the rent now.

ONRUSHING ONTOS—Maneuvering through some of the rugged terrain of the Makua Army Range some 60 miles from Kaneohe, a power-packed Ontos heads for a firing exercise. "B" Co., 3rd Anti-Tank Bn., spent the past week at the range putting the nine and one-half ton "tank killer" through its paces.

CONCEALMENT—With only its recoilless rifle barrels visible, an Ontos buries itself in the deep of the Makua range. This highly mobile tank-buster camouflages easily due to its low silhouette. The gade Ontos men boast of never having been spotted by aerial observers during maneuvers.

SUITING UP—Crews of the Brigade Ontos Co. place protective covers on the breeches and muzzles of the 106's after firing exercises at the Makua range. "B" Co., 3rd Anti-Tank Bn., will return to K-Bay today and tomorrow.

LOADING—With an exterior resemblance to a well chewed cob, a 106mm high explosive anti-tank round is inserted in the breech of a recoilless rifle by Pfc Alvin P. Quick. The Ontos also uses a plastic tip high explosive shell which gives off a tremendous concussion wave upon impact on target.

LEADERS—"B" Co., 3rd Anti-Tank Bn. commander, Capt. John R. Fox (left) confers with his platoon leaders during firing exercises at the Makua Army range this week. Others listening are, from left, SSgt. Janna Bumgardner, 1st Lt. Theodore Taylor, 2nd Lt. William Warren, 1st Lt. James Sinclair and executive officer, 1st Lt. Bruce Webb.

INSPECTION—A company ordnanceman checks the bore of a recoilless rifle. The rifle is over 11 feet long, to be exact, and weighs over 280 pounds complete with spotting accessories. A 106mm round weighs over 35 pounds.

REFUELING—Crewmen and a supplyman pump 47 gallons of gas into an Ontos. An economical six cylinder engine permits a 150-mile cruising radius, an important factor offsetting fuel scarcity under combat conditions. Its top speed is over 30mph.

'ONTOS' AT HOME WITH 1ST BRIGADE

Fifteen Ontos, spawned by American industrial know-how in answer to a military request for a tank killer combining speed, mobility and souped-up firepower, have become an accepted part of the scene at the Marine Corps Air Station, home of the 1st Marine Brigade.

Developed by Allis-Chalmers, the mechanized killer, for lack of a better name, has been dubbed "Ontos," a Greek title meaning "The Thing." And no one has yet come up with a more graphic description.

It is an ungainly tracked vehicle, bristling with six 106mm recoilless barrels. Its lethal wallop can reduce to shambles any tank made today—by anyone. It can climb a 60 percent grade, crawl over a 30-inch vertical obstacle, and run through two feet of water at full power with a wet engine.

The relatively new weapons were delivered to "B" Co., 3rd Anti-tank Bn, last February as part of the Corps-wide reorganization under atomic warfare concepts. Under control of the 4th Marine Regiment, unit personnel have spent long hours perfecting employment techniques in attack and defense against other mechanized weapons.

Commanded by Capt. John R. Fox, the anti-tank company consists of three platoons of five Ontos each and a service platoon composed of ordnance, motor transport, communications, maintenance and food service sections.

One of the unique features of the Ontos is a new ammunition-saving aiming system. The vehicle sports a 50-caliber spotting rifle coupled by a co-axial mount to four of the 106mm rifles. The gunner swings his periscope sight on target and fires one of the 50-caliber rounds. If the visible incendiary round bounces off the enemy tank, the curtain is about to fall on the final act. Before the enemy tankers can speculate on where the round came from, the lethal power of the 106mm, unleashed by the gunner's finger pressure on the firing switch, would have accomplished its mission. They can be fired singly, in pairs or in a six-gun salvo.

The nickname of "The Thing" has become synonymous with the Ontos, overshadowing even the official military title, the Multiple 106mm Full Tracked Self-Propelled Rifle, M50. And as far as the personnel of the Brigade Ontos unit is concerned, they agree with their brother Leathernecks right down the line.

They've proved that the Ontos is just "the thing" to add devastating firepower to the 1st Marine Brigade's assault punch in the Atomic Age.

MOUNTING-UP—An Ontos crew loads the nine and one-half ton vehicle on a lowboy trailer for transportation to Makua. Fifteen Ontos participated in a five-day firing exercise at the Army range this week. The exercise ends today.

DRIVE FOR BLOOD DONORS PLANNED

The MCAS Blood Bank Reserve has reached a critical low, and a drive for blood donors is planned for the near future. Pledge forms will be distributed to department heads, and all employees who are physically qualified are urged to sign up. A minimum of 125 pledges must be made in order to obtain the services of the Bloodmobile on the station.

The last visit of the Bloodmobile to this activity was in July 1957. At that time there were 36 donors which brought our reserve up to 50 units. Today our reserve is down to 9 units. There is no substitute for blood—it must come from the veins of human beings, and the support and cooperation that everyone gives helps to maintain the perpetual supply of blood in our reserve.

Restrictions on prospective donors are as follows: Anyone having a

Five Leatherneck Mittmen Take Territorial Laurels

Five members of the Hawaii Marine Boxing squad were named Territorial AAU boxing champions Monday night and will receive trophies during ceremonies at the International Goodwill Tourney slated for Schofield Barracks tonight. Army had four champions and Hawaii Youth one as the Marines captured the unofficial team championship.

The Leatherneck winners were Pfc. George Robinson, 139 pounds; Pfc Raymond Cyrus, 147 pounds; Pfc Ray Phillips, 156 pounds; Pfc Amos Johnson, 175 pounds, and Pfc Charles Adams, heavyweight.

Nine Marines are set to trade blows with representatives of the Army, Civilian clubs, Australian and Japanese teams. It is anticipated that a full-strength Aussie aggregation will enter along with two fighters from Japan.

TSgt. Leo Neault, Leatherneck coach, looks forward to a real slam-bang series of bouts with his boys bringing home the fourth team title since he took over the reins of the squad. Thus far the Marines have won 70, lost 45 and drawn three under the gunny's leadership.

Neault heaped high praise on his number one trainer, Sgt. Rocky Santiago, saying that the Rock's long-suffering patience and ability to put across a point have been instrumental in the team's success.

The loss of bantam-weight Clarence DeMello robbed the 'Necks of an almost sure bet for the 119 pound championship in the Oahu Open bouts last week. A chest injury caused the talented Marine battler to default in his opening bout. Subsequent examination discovered that he would not be able to box for the remainder of the season and he left the team.

Hurting for a competent 119 pounder, TSgt. Neault looked over the available talent here at K-Bay and came up with a brand new star by the name of "Trigger" Tom Long.

Just seventeen years old, Tom captured the 1957 City Golden Gloves title in Grand Rapids, Mich., after only four months experience in the ring. He subsequently swapt on to take the Michigan State "Gloves" title, the State AAU crown in Detroit and reached the National AAU quarter finals. A pretty fair record for a beginner.

Need Officials For Sport Slate

Qualified officials are needed to referee the extensive Brigade-Station athletic program now being conducted here by 1st Marine Brigade units and MCAS, K-Bay.

All interested personnel, regardless of experience, are requested to contact the Brigade Special Services officer at 73-233.

Those who apply will be instructed by a qualified man with many years experience in the field.

Officials will be paid for their services at intramural games.

Baseballers Win; Keep Almar Hopes After Diego Loss

The Hawaii Marine baseball team rebounded from a first day squeaker loss to the defending champion San Diego nine, 2-1, and scored a 5-2 victory over Camp Lejeune in their second game to keep alive hopes for the All Marine baseball crown.

Assuming a spectator role for the third game of the series, Hawaii will play the winner of the third day's scrap between Lejeune and San Diego.

Cpl. Dick Demblon rapped a bases-empty homer in the sixth to send Hawaii out in front, but Lejeune came back to score a tally in the top of the eighth which knotted the count at 2 all.

Demblon was the big bat for Hawaii with a homer, double and single in three trips.

In the bottom of the eighth, Hawaii exploded for a three run rally which sent them ahead for good.

2nd Lt. Don Furth (8-0 in HMBL play) was the winning hurler.

Lejeune drew first blood in the fray with one run in the top of the first.

Sgt. Bob Duliba absorbed the loss in the first game of the series as he gave up ten hits in allowing two runs to score.

Big Earl Wilson of San Diego hurled a two hitter for his mates in stopping the Hawaii crew.

Local Sports Scribes Laud Uphill Climb Baseball Win

Underdogs throughout the season and pre-season bet for a second division wind-up in the Hawaii Major League, the Hawaii Marine baseball team still managed to turn the tables on an unusually strong quartet of civilian clubs to win the 1958 HMBL crown and earn the unanimous acclaim of local sports writers.

In a battle down to the wire, the Leathernecks added the major laurels to their Inter-Service crown when they triumphed over the runner-up Rural Red Sox by 5 to 0 in a game at Honolulu Stadium.

Sgt. Bob Duliba was the hero of the day for the 'Necks as he twirled a four hit whitewash. He struck out nine Sox batters enroute to the win.

Witnessing the pennant clincher were 3,500 fans, the largest crowd of the season.

Pfc. Eutch Grubbs was the Marine batting giant as he smashed a solo homer in the fourth and also collected a double and single.

Statements such as "Marines win on fighting spirit" and "All hail the hustling Marines" were issued liberally by sports scribes like Tom Hopkins and Carl Machado of Honolulu.

The flowery verbal boquets pointed out the fact that the Marines had never led the league until three days before the wrap-up victory which was their fifteenth straight in HMBL play.

Tom Hopkins, Star-Bulletin sports editor, felt that the most important factor in the Marine victory was hustle. The club was not the polished 1957 version which swept the title, but what it lacked in talent it made up for with the "will to win."

Another major factor was the fact that the winners got to Len Kasparovitch for two quick runs early in the encounter. It set them out in front and they refused to be headed.

Carl Machado of the Bulletin summed up the Leatherneck conquest in one sentence, "Grit, determination and the will to win."

He pointed up the value of Duliba who closed out Major league play with an enviable 8-1 record and started the decline of the Red Sox with a 4-0 win two weeks before the finish.

The win was the second straight for Island Leathernecks in Hawaii Major League Baseball play.

Aku-Marines

By CAPT. HUGH W. ROARK

With the Aku boat in operation, many members are enjoying good spear fishing and diving. No records were broken last week, but many were enjoying a fish dinner. With the weather permitting, the boat is scheduled to go out at 7:30 on Saturday and Sunday mornings. Diving after working hours during the week will have to be accomplished by calling the qualified boat captains or consulting the board at the equipment house.

Many new members have joined the club, and 10 of them completed the two-mile swim to Coconut Island last Tuesday.

More personnel are encouraged to attend our meetings and training exercises.

FROSTY COOL COPS SKEET WIN AT CAMP SMITH INVITATIONAL

Lt. Col. D. L. (Frosty) Cool, USMC, topped a field of 40 shooters to win the First Camp Smith Invitational Open Skeet Shoot, held Aug. 10 at Hickam AFB and Camp Smith skeet ranges.

Blasting 98 birds in 100 chances, Lt. Col. Cool led Dr. C. E. Patton of Honolulu by one bird for high gun honors in the all bore match.

Perfect weather lured a sizeable throng of onlookers to the all-day shoot. Competitors fired 50 birds at Hickam AFB range and moved to the Camp Smith range for the final 50 birds in the afternoon.

Veteran campaigner, Elmer Davis of Honolulu, captured the Class AA trophy with a 96, while Marine 1st Lt. Tom Jefferson, shot a 97 to win the Class A trophy.

Davis, who is known as "Mr. Skeet" to many skeet enthusiasts in the Islands, recently competed in the NSSA matches at Waterford, Mich.

Top shooter in the women's division was Ruth Awai who copped the "Lady Champ" trophy on a score of 79.

Dr. C. E. Patton and Ed Koyanagi formed the winning two-man team, while the winning five-man team included: Lt. Gen. Vernon E. Megee, USMC, MSgt. Ted Gitz, USMC, Bob Norman, Rudy Tongg and Lin Austin.

Rifle-Pistol Club

By CPL. BILL DOUGHERTY

The club held its monthly meeting with 30 members present and six new members voted into the club. New members are P. C. Andreatta; Capt. J. F. McGahan; Sgt. T. E. Johnson; Sgt. G. D. David; Lt. J. A. Conniff and Pfc H. F. Muemzler.

An election was held for both the secretarial and treasury positions. Sgt. Kirk and Pfc Robinson, who both did a fine job while in office, were relieved by TSgt. Bert Freedman as secretary and SSgt. Anderson as treasurer.

TSgt. Freedman made a motion that the club hold an international match. The match, which will be for club members, will have slow, timed and rapid firing. This match is tentatively planned for the second week in September and further word will be passed on when it becomes available. Working on the match committee with TSgt. Freedman will be MSgt. Chadwick and TSgt. Neal. This match will be followed by a steak fry.

A volunteer committee was organized to help the Junior Shooters by stressing marksmanship and competitive shooting. Mr. Case and Lt. Conniff have been and will be devoting their Saturday afternoons in handling this project.

By TSGT. G. C. KELLEY

New trolling lures for the Special Services Fishing Boat will be purchased within a week or two. A large selection of the best lures have already been selected and will be available to fishing parties chartering the Fishing Boat on week-ends and holidays. Bigger and better catches should result when the new lures are put into use.

No catches have been reported from our fishing boat since the 116 lb. Black Marlin was caught over a week ago. This is mostly due to rough seas which prevent the boat from venturing very far out to sea.

Fishing from the shore with spinning tackle and artificial lures has been outstanding during the past week, with some pretty fair catches of papio, moi and barracuda being made by SSgt. E. Drake of H&MS-

13 and this writer. A bag consisting of six papio to 2½ lbs. and one barracuda was the result of only two hours spinning last Sunday afternoon.

Several moi have been caught lately on artificials in the early morning hours, but moi catches are slim compared to catches last year. The largest moi registered in the Rod & Gun contest since the opening of moi season weighed only 1 lb. 4 oz. and was caught last week by SSgt. Waugh of H&MS-133.

September 10 is the next meeting of the Rod & Gun Club. Meetings are held at 7:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month at the Rod & Gun Clubhouse. For further information about the Rod & Gun Club call TSgt. Kelley at 72-074.

Midget Football Registration Set

Youngsters who may be future stars on the football field are urged to register Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 25-26 at the Little League clubhouse at 4:30 p.m.

Kaneohe Bay plans to field a team in the Oahu Pop Warner Football Conference. Dependent children of military personnel stationed at Kaneohe Bay are eligible.

The requirements for midget leaguers are rigid and unless a boy can meet the age and weight requirements, he will not be allowed to play. Players must weigh between 76 and 103 pounds, and must have reached their 10th birthday by Sept. 1. They are ineligible if they have passed their 13th birthday by that date.

Information on league schedules and other teams in the conference are not available as yet.

Slated to coach the K-Bay midgets is TSgt. G. L. Cody. He will be assisted by 2nd Lt. Jones and TSgt. McKee.

STATION RIFLE TEAM SHORT SHARP MATCH MARKSMEN

Rifle shooters are needed for a team to represent the Marine Corps Air Station in the intramural marksmanship program currently being conducted at K-Bay.

Interested Station personnel should contact TSgt. R. B. Neal at 72574 prior to August 19.

CAPTAINS AND QUEENS—Team captains of K-Bay's Minor, Little and Pony League teams and the reigning queens of their respective leagues are, left to right: Gary Hankins, Minor League All Stars, Miss Barbara Cohen; John McKee, Major League All Stars, Miss Jane Wellman; Mike DeGraw, Pony League Indians and Miss Cathy Kennedy. Approximately 200 fans witnessed final day action at the K-Bay Jamboree last week and saw the Major League Top Notchers whip the Minor League Stars II to I and the Indians beat the Major Stars 5 to 0.

Theater Schedule

By SGT. SAM ZAGARELLA
Two shows daily—6:05 p.m. and 8:20 p.m. at both Main Theater and 4th Marines. Movies at 4th Marines Theater are one day later than scheduled below. Matinees on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at the Main Theater at 1 p.m. only.

TONIGHT

MAMBO—Dis a one here, she come a from It-a-lee. The plot revolves about a slightly shopworn girl, Silvana Mangano, whose devotions waver between a shady character and a nobleman who first insults her and later weds her. Assisting the Italian beauty are Michael Rennie, Vittorio Gassman, and Shelly Winters.

SATURDAY MATINEE

COPPER SKY—Cowboys and Indians on a rampage with Jeff Morrow exiting as the hero. He starts out as a drunken coward but ends up with Coleen Gray, the prudish school teacher.

SATURDAY

CRY BABY KILLER—At a hangout for teenagers, Jack Nicholson challenges Brett Halsey to a fight over and about a girl. Carolyn Mitchell. Brass knuckles are used and one of the young bloods pulls a gun and fires. With the thought in mind that he has killed someone he runs and hides with a couple of hostages. Then comes the big Roman carnival affair when the cops arrive.

SUNDAY MATINEE

UNDERFIRE—Court martial of four men accused of hiding out from combat in the Battle of the Bulge. It affords a good look at Army legal tactics.

SUNDAY

SCARLET HOURS—This is another alien to American screens. It stars such big names as T. Tryon and C. Ohmart. Naturally everyone has heard of these two so no further details are needed.

MONDAY

WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION—A murder mystery that has thrilled thousands and will keep you talking for days. The story is based on a novel by Agatha Christie! Charles Laughton is amazing throughout. Marlene Dietrich is tremendous and Tyrone Power is stupendous. Don't miss it.

TUESDAY

CASE AGAINST BROOKLYN—Crooked cops in Brooklyn are collecting huge graft from a certain vice lord. Darrin McGavin, rookie cop, walks the straight and narrow and collects much damaging evidence against the bad guys. All the "nasties" are picked up as a result and "Casey, Crime Photographer" is a hero.

WEDNESDAY

SLAUGHTER ON 10th AVENUE—This was listed in one paper as a big take-off on the record with the same name. It was wrong—way wrong... Don't bring the "door slammers" for this is filled with corruption and violence at its hideous best on the docks of New York's waterfront.

THURSDAY

GOD'S LITTLE ACRE—Based on Erskine Caldwell's best selling and controversial novel. It is filled with such big names as Robert Ryan, Jack Lord, Tina Louise, Aldo Ray, Helen Westcott and Buddy Hackett. It is as close to the true story of dirt farmers and their women in the deep south as any movie dares to come.
