VOL. VIII, NO. 25

U. S. MARINE CORPS AIR STATION, KANEOHE BAY, T. H.

June 19, 1959

K-Bay Command Changes Continue; Parade Honors Fourth's Commander

Leathernecks of the 4th Marine Regiment, the infantry element of the 1st Marine Brigade, will mass at Platt Field Tuesday for a farewell parade and review to honor their departing commanding officer, Col. John H. Masters.

Slated for a new assignment as assistant Director of Personnel at Headquarters Marine Corps, Washington, D. C., Col. Masters and his family will depart aboard the liner Monterey July 3.

Col. John Antonelli has been named to succeed Col. Masters. He is expected to arrive at Kaneohe about July 6. Lt. Col. Ernest L. Medford Jr. will serve as temporary commander of the unit until the arrival of Col. Antonelli.

Col. Charles J. Bailey, executive officer of the 4th Marines, will leave July 5 for duty with the 3rd Marine Division at Okinawa.

SERVICE BATTALION

Lt. Col. E. S. Dzura, commanding officer of the 1st Marine Brigade's service battalion for the past year, was relieved Friday by Lt. Col. J. S. Hudson during a formal parade and review ceremony.

Col. Dzura departed with his family this week for a new assignment at Camp Joseph H. Pendleton, Calif.

Until last week when he was relieved by Maj. T. D. Hess, Col. Hudson commanded the 2nd Bn., 4th Marines.

SUNSET PARADE MARKS SGT. MAJ. CHANGE FOR 3/12

Artillerymen of 3rd Bn., 12th Marines, marched past the reviewing stand in Dewey Square last night in a sunset parade marking the change of sergeant major for the unit.

During the ceremony orders were read relieving Sgt. Maj. R. R. Harvey and assigning Sgt. Maj. Maurice A. Ledbetter to the top enlisted billet in the Brigade's artillery battalion.

Sgt. Maj. Harvey is returning to the mainland for transfer to the FMCR.

Maj. P. N. Austen was commanding officer of troops for the parade.

STATION SETS WEDNESDAY AS 'GENERAL WIESEMAN DAY'

"General Wieseman Day" will be observed here next Wednesday, according to a special announcement by Col. M. M. Magruder, Station commanding officer.

All dependents and guests of military personnel are cordially invited to witness the colorful and traditional parade and review ceremony that will begin at 10 a.m. at Dewey Square. Bleacher seating will be available at the parade site.

The day has been set aside to provide an opportunity for Station personnel to honor Brig. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman, new commanding general of the 1st Marine Brigade who assumed command of the air-ground team May 18.

Other highlights of the day will include a briefing for Gen. Wieseman at Kansas Tower to be conducted by Col. Magruder and his staff, a luncheon for the official party at the Commissioned Officers Mess and an afternoon golf match between the Brigade and Station staffs.

Maj. C. C. Angle has been named battalion commander for the parade. Key officers and enlisted men will hold a rehearsal at 1 p.m. Monday at Dewey Square and a rehearsal for all personnel will be conducted Tuesday.

Martial music for the second rehearsal and the parade the following day will be furnished by the 1st Marine Brigade band.

Gen. Wieseman, a veteran of over 33 years Marine Corps service, reported to Kaneohe from Headquarters Marine Corps where he had served as Fiscal Director. He was awarded the Legion of Merit for distinguished service during the Guam campaign and the Bronze Star with Combat "V" for action at Bougainville.

WELCOME HOME — Maj. Donald H. Brooks (center), commanding officer, 1st Bn., 4th Marines, is greeted by Brig. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman (left), commanding general, 1st Marine Brigade, and the 4th Marines Sergeant Major, T. J. McHugh shortly after arrival at Pearl Harbor last Sunday. ## Brigade Elements Set For 'Big Isle'

An advance element of 125 Leathernecks, forerunners of over 2000 1st Marine Brigade infantrymen and cannoners, departed today for the Big Island's Pohakuloa training area.

The advance elements will ready the camp area for training which will begin July 4 and end July 26 with all troops returning here by Aug. 4.

Units involved include the 2nd Bn., 4th Marines; 3rd Bn., 12th Marines; and the Brigade's Reconnaissance and Anti-Tank Companies.

Transportation to the training site will be by LST and transport aircraft. The first major element of troops will return by air July 16.

Training will be concentrated in field firing exercises coordinated with artillery and close-air support.

HONORS SLATED NEXT FRIDAY

Official honors will be rendered RADM. P. H. Ramsey, Chief of Staff, CINCPACFLT at 10:45 a.m., Friday, June 26. The ceremony will be conducted on Dewey Square.

The admiral is returning an official call to Brig. Gen. F. L. Wieseman, Commander, 1st Marine Brigade.

Academy Grads Choose Marines

For the first time in history, graduates of all three service academies will be among the new second lieutenants reporting this summer for duty with the Marine Corps.

The only member of the first graduating class of the Air Force Academy to enter a service other than the Air Force decided to become a Marine. He is 22-year-old Second Lieutenant Robert E. Lowe.

Seven members of the Class of 1959 at the United States Military Academy took advantage of their new option to select commissions in the Corps. Not since 1814 has a West Pointer accepted a Marine Corps commission upon graduation.

Out of the 793-member Class of 1959 at the United States Naval Academy, 57 have accepted commissions in the Marines. Among them is 23-year-old Second Lieutenant Stanley W. Legro, whose four-year academic average was the highest of the class.

Extra copies of the Capehart edition are available in The Windward Marine office, Bldg. 220.

Services Adopt New Gas Mask

Adoption of the M-17 canisterless mask has been announced by the Army, Marine Corps and Navy as a standard item of issue. The new mask affords respiratory protection against chemical gasses, biological agents and radiological particles.

A newly developed lightweight filter material eliminates the external canister common to previous masks. Users have expressed their preference to the M-17 mask because of its lower breathing resistance, superior vision and better speech transmission.

Developed by the Army Chemical Corps, the new item marks the first significant change in mask evolution since 1947. All overseas troops including those in Korea were equipped with the cannister type mask in 1953.

Because it does not require a wide range of sizes, the M-17 mask will simplify supply and stock problems. Current stocks of previous types will be gradually replaced with the M-17 as they are depleted.

Liberty Cards Pau For Staff NonComs

A recent change to the Marine Corps Manual has abolished liberty cards for staff non-commissioned officers, E-6 and above.

Change No. 34 to Vol. 1, MCM, authorized the discontinuance.

Staff NCOs serving under or with another service whose regulations require them to have liberty cards will comply and possess liberty cards.

Jet Noise Reducer Study By Navy, AF

A joint program aimed at finding an economical, workable way to reduce turbo-jet noise during ground run-up has been announced by the Navy and Air Force.

Acoustical test programs and other pertinent data will be exchanged under the plan, the two services said.

Eventually, a noise suppressor beneficial to all services will emerge from the coordinated specifications now being developed.

Suppressors now being tested are said to reduce turbo-jet noise by about 250 decibels. Concerted research is aimed at bettering this performance.

A decibel is a unit by which the loudness of sound is measured. Ordinary speech is about 65 decibels while noise loud enough to be painful to the ear is about 140 decibels.

DEATH CURVE — Cpl. William J. Cook, driver of this 1947 model sedan, was killed Tuesday morning when his car failed to make this turn on Mokapu Road and turned over three times before coming to rest in an upright position. Three other men are in Tripler Army Hospital in serious condition. Two other Marines escaped with minor injuries. The impact was so great that three of the car's doors were torn off. ALOHA AHAAINA (FEAST) — Mrs. Frederick L. Wieseman (left), wife of the new 1st Marine Brigade commanding general, was honored by the Staff NCO Wives Club during an aloha luncheon Friday, June 12, at the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station NCO Club. ## Weapons Regulations Apply To All Military Personnel

Except as may be necessary to the proper performance of his duty or as may be authorized by proper authority, no person in the Naval service shall have concealed about his person any dangerous weapon, instrument, device or highly explosive article.

A weapon is defined as an instrument of offensive or defensive combat; something for fighting. Items which fall into this category, but are not necessarily limited to the following, are listed for information.

- Firearms of any type.
- Explosives of all types.
- Knives which contain a blade measuring three inches or more from tip of blade to point where the blade enters the handle and all switch-blade knives regardless of blade measurement.
- Any blackjack or club type weapon.

Commanding officers may authorize personnel to bring aboard or take off station privately owned rifles or shotguns of a barrel length of 18 inches or more for the purpose of hunting or to engage in target shooting on a target range. Other privately owned firearms may be brought aboard or taken off station with permission of the unit commander for the purpose of engaging in authorized target practice or match shooting.

Additionally, Territorial law requires that all privately owned pistols and revolvers be registered with the chief of police of the county residence of the owner.

For the information of all personnel the following extract from Station Order 3006.05 (Firearms, Air Rifles, Ammunition and Fireworks) is printed.

a. Military personnel on duty at the Marine Corps Air Station are permitted to possess privately owned shotguns, rifles, pistols, air rifles, and air pistols aboard the station in accordance with the following:

(1) All military personnel who bring on board the Station, or who buy or receive from another person on board the Station, any shotgun, rifle, pistol, air rifle, or air pistol, shall register them with the Station Provost Marshal.

(2) Personnel living in barracks are not permitted to have any privately owned ammunition, firearms, air rifles or air pistols in the barracks, but shall arrange with their unit for storage in the Unit Armory. The responsibility in case of loss, or theft, will rest with the owner.

(3) A permit for each firearm, air rifle, or air pistol, shall be obtained from the Station Provost Marshal. The permit shall be presented on request of the sentries upon entry, or departure, from the Station with aforementioned weapons.

(4) Civilian personnel entering, or residing on, the Station must secure permits from the Provost Marshal to carry, possess, or store firearms, air pistols or air rifles.

(5) All personnel, residing in either public quarters or rental housing under the cognizance of the command, shall secure permits from the Provost Marshal to retain privately owned weapons in their respective quarters. All firearms authorized to be retained in the quarters of the owner shall be made inaccessible to children at all times, or shall be disassembled. Firearms shall not be used on the Station except in authorized places under proper supervision.

(6) Military arms, or ammunition, shall not be taken off the Air Station except in pursuance of official duties.

(7) Military personnel shall not be armed with any firearms unless each individual is thoroughly familiar with the function and use of the firearm. In addition, sentries or guards must have fired an indoctrination marksmanship course for the weapon with which they are armed.

(8) Sidearms shall be carried with the chamber empty, and are to be used only in self-defense, in protecting the life of another person, for the prevention of felonies, or the escape of prisoners, and then only after due warning has been given.

(9) The utmost care and caution is to be exercised in the apprehension of criminals, or in the prevention of the escape of a prisoner, and the lives of innocent persons shall not be jeopardized.

(10) Introduction, possession, or use of fireworks or pyrotechnics and ammunition on this Station is prohibited except as employed in official operations.

Staff NCO Wives

by JOANNA KUCINSKI

At the monthly aloha coffee last Friday at the Staff NCO Club dining room the Staff NCO Wives Club welcomed Mrs. F. W. Wieseman as an honorary member of the Wives Club with a white lei.

Other staff NCO wives welcomed and presented plumeria leis were the following: Mesdames Lila Blas, Donna Stevenson, Bobby Bridges, Greta Trygstad, Letecia Schwartz, Bertha Bowman, Nadine Poppe, Ida Herbert, Marie Jenkins, Rita Taylor, Toni Friedman, Marge Martens, Dora Logan, Carolyn Eck and Mary Schinpf.

Special guest mothers from the mainland welcomed and presented leis were Mesdames Fay Mosser, Jane Scaife and Rachel Fulcher.

Hulas were danced by Mrs. James Kyser, Mrs. E. B. Crews and daughters of other club members. Children taking part in the hula program were Beverly Perez, Nancy Buzzelli, Karon Marshall, Donna Allen and Patty Davis.

A golf clinic will start for Staff NCO Wives Thursday, June 25, at 7 p.m. and run for three weeks. Further information on the clinic may be obtained by calling Mrs. Peg Foley.

An aloha gift was presented to Mrs. Barbara Hayden who is leaving for the mainland. We would like to wish her a "bon voyage" and best of luck at her new duty station.

Chaplain's Corner

CHAPLAIN DAVID A. SHARP, JR.

By virtue of being in the service all of us are subject to travel. I am sure that each of you has noticed the frequency with which churches appear in the landscape. In fact, many look for the landmark of a church before deciding upon the location of their home. They want to have the services of a church readily available in time of emergency and to be able to go regularly for worship.

Our Chapel Center here at the Marine Corps Air Station is located in the community building No. 1090. When new people report on board the station one of the easiest ways to locate the Chapel Center is to say that it is in the same building with the bowling alleys or the Marine Exchange.

At the present plans are underway which will help change all of that. A cross is to be erected on the portion of 1090 which houses the Chapel Center and it will be readily seen by all who come on board the Station. The moral values and teachings drawn from allegiance to God are unmeasurable. The pattern of Christian Conduct is very clearly defined and there is but one Christian Way of Life.

Unfortunately, there are too many people who never know where the Chapel is and never attend to worship and to "increase in favor with God and man." They think of the church as a place to be married in or buried from. These two experiences are important, but there is a great gap in life in between which should be filled if we are to "increase in favor with God and man."

The church begins with the teaching of a concept of God, and in this it follows the teaching of Jesus and presents God as a Father who cares for his children. Out of this relationship is developed a man's attitude toward his fellow man, and the understanding of brotherhood comes into being. Religion thus touches men at two vital points: his relationship to his Maker and his relationship to men.

Seek your Chapel and your Chaplain! Attend divine services in order that you may "increase in favor with God and man."

Plans are under study to relocate the stables. The tenants have been asked what they thought of the move:

JOAN — "I'm against the move. We have been given the usual 30 days notice to vacate, but the housing situation is tight right now. We were talking about that supper last night, and we may even go to court with it. After all, we were here first."

QUEENIE — "Frankly I am looking forward to the move. I don't relish the thought of having a bunch of screaming kids living next door keeping me awake all night."

BUCK — "ALL I CAN SAY IS HI HO SILVER, AND AWAY WE GO AGAIN."

DOLLY — "I don't mind the move, orders are orders, and I know my husband is not going to get a modification on this set. I certainly hope we get a different packer and mover than we had the last time."

JACK — "I'm all for the move providing they move us closer to the bridge path. By the time we get from the present stables to the riding area, I'm so bushed I could lie down and cry."

PRINCE — "Between you and me and the fence post, I'm so mad I could kick. What's the sense, it all counts on twenty. I wonder if we collect travel pay for this move."

Marine Corps Asks NonCom Increase

Department of Defense planners recently announced that an increase in Marine Corps enlisted promotions will be in effect during the next two fiscal years.

Defense officials also noted that all services were asking a bigger increase in their non-commissioned officer ratio.

In Fiscal 1960 the Marine Corps plans to advance 15,500 to E-4. Other services, in ratio, want more.

All services, including the Corps, desire to increase their non-commissioned officer ratio by one per cent each year to a point where there would be a 60 per cent NCO and 40 per cent non-rated force.

Currently closest to the desired 60-40 ratio is the Air Force, followed by the Army and then the Navy. The lowest ratio is held by the Marine Corps which, through Fiscal 1959 and 1960 has been authorized to have 37.4 per cent enlisted in grades E-4 through E-9.

Two years from now the Corps wants this ratio to reach 41 per cent.

On Dec. 31, 1958, 59 per cent, 101,768 of the Corps' 171,399 were NCOs.

Since Jan. 1, all men making E-3 become lance corporals which is not an NCO grade.

Plans call for the gradual increase in the number of E-4s as the total of E-3s goes down.

A 41 per cent NCO ratio would mean about 65,500 NCOs in an enlisted total of 160,000, as compared with the 62,602 E-4s and up in the Dec. 31 Corps total of 171,399.

Officers Wives

By Anne Steman

Taking over from Toni Mackey is not going to be easy! She has done a wonderful job keeping us posted on all the events, and we extend our thanks—or "mahalo," to keep in tune with the Islands.

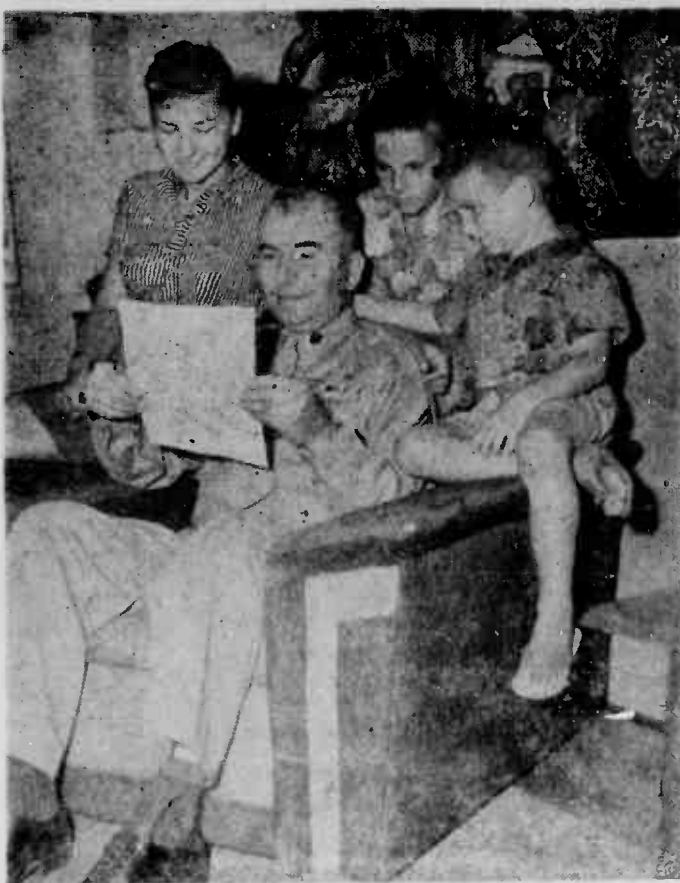

With vacation in full swing, the Officers Wives' Club will not be having its monthly luncheons until September when all the "junior members" will be going back to school. There will be an executive board meeting at 9:30 a.m. July 28 at Mrs. Fontana's Quarters to formulate plans for our first fall meeting. Since there will be a number of people arriving before we have our next get-together, the aloha chairmen for the individual groups will be the busy ones. If newcomers are met and acquainted with the fact that there is a Wives' Club, we should be welcoming many old and new friends in the fall. It's always such fun to spy someone at a luncheon that you haven't seen for ages and to catch up on all that's happened since last you met.

This column won't be appearing weekly during the summer but there will be one occasionally. Until September first there's business at the beach—have fun!

68 Students Finish Brig. Comm. School

A record 68 students graduated from Brigade Communications School Friday, June 12 at the Marine Corps Air Station. Brig. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman, commanding general of the 1st Marine Brigade, spoke during the commencement exercises and presented certificates to each graduate.

Four Marines earned high honors in the class and represented the four phases of communications studied in the school. They were: ActCpl. Eugene D. Jezuita, radio telegraph operator; LCpl. Harry W. Lange, field radio operator; Pfc. Charles G. Hignight, field wireman and LCpl. Richard J. Harrington, message center operator.

K-Bay Marine Loses Cash; Finds Honest Californian

ActSSgt. Joseph E. Clemons of "F" Co., 2nd Bn., 4th Marines, this week began to really smile again for the first time since April 11.

That was the date he lost a wallet containing "a large amount of money" in Santa Ana, Calif.

Clemons had stopped off at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station in an unsuccessful attempt to catch a ride back to Hawaii following leave at Jacksonville, Fla. He then took a taxi from El Toro to the Union Bus Station in Santa Ana.

Before catching his bus for the Los Angeles Airport, he had lunch in the Station Cafe. It wasn't until about 20 minutes before his plane departed from L.A. that he realized that he had lost the wallet.

Clemons made a few hurried calls to Santa Ana to report the missing money and gave his address in Hawaii.

Roy C. Bryant, co-owner of the Union Bus Station Cafe, found the wallet. In addition to the money, it contained only a Marine Corps certificate of satisfactory service with Clemons' name on it.

Bryant turned the money over to the El Toro provost marshal who was unable to locate the owner among personnel at the Air Station.

LtCol. F. Simpson, the provost marshal, contacted Headquarters Marine Corps and learned that Clemons was stationed in Hawaii with the 1st Marine Brigade. Clemons recently received his money after its travel through official channels.

SQUAD LEADER CITED AT MAST

Acting Sgt. Allen C. Hadley, of "F" Co., 2nd Bn., 4th Marines, was awarded a meritorious mast June 4 for exceptional and commendable performance of duty while serving as squad leader of "F" company.

The meritorious mast was conducted by Col. John H. Masters, commanding officer of the 4th Marine Regiment.

The citation which accompanied the meritorious mast read in part: "It has been reported to me that in preparation for the Molokai Armed Forces Day Demonstration, you conducted in a highly competent manner the training of 28 men, many of whom were totally unfamiliar with their assigned duties, on your own initiative. You organized a group of communicators, drivers, mortar men, and rifle men into a well-functioning rifle, machine gun and rocket squads and a flame thrower unit.

"You displayed qualities of leadership, mature judgment, attention to detail, and ability to work in harmony with seniors and subordinates alike far beyond those normally expected of a Marine of your grade and experience.

"Your outstanding performance of duty resulted in a demonstration which left a most favorable impression of the Marine Corps with the people of Molokai."

CORPS PLANS PRIMARY MOS FOR ALL OFFICER LAWYERS

Letters went out this week from the Commandant of the Marine Corps to each of the Corps' 91 regular officer lawyers requesting that they choose voluntarily between accepting primary legal MOSs (0185 or 0195) or retaining their present MOSs.

Those who accept the change-over will be given recurring assignments to legal duties. Those who do not will be gradually phased out of law billets.

Also, in the Corps' program to solve its lawyer shortage, provisions are included for integration into the regular Marine Corps of a limited number of reserve officer lawyers on both active and inactive duty.

Under the old system, regular officer lawyers could carry only secondary legal MOSs and normally were rotated between law and line duties. The remainder of the Corps' billets requiring certified lawyers were filled by reserve officers on active duty.

Even with a high percentage of regular officer volunteers for primary law MOSs, the number of conversions will still fall short of meeting the Corps requirement for lawyers.

Headquarters has mapped out a special integration program in which selected active and inactive duty reserve officers of the rank of captain and below will be offered regular commissions with primary law MOSs. The scope of the program, scheduled to start this summer, will depend on the number of regular officers who choose the permanent law billets.

In the inactive category, the integration program will be aimed primarily at officer lawyers who have been off duty from two to three years.

Under the new program regular officers with law specialties will have promotion opportunities equal to those of other unrestricted officers. As an added incentive, the Corps' officer lawyer billets will be upgraded to provide for normal career advancement patterns.

Statistics show that the lawyers on active duty have steadily declined. By December of this year there will be 128 lawyers on active duty to fill the Corps' 129 legal officer billets. This necessitates abandonment of the concept of rotating regular officer lawyers between legal and line billets, and dictates establishment of the new, stabilized career officer program.

Clothing Section NCO Lauded

ActMSgt. Owen Manning of Hq&HqSq was honored at a meritorious mast last Friday. Col. M. M. Magruder, MCAS commanding officer, conducted the ceremonies at Station headquarters.

A commendation letter presented Manning reads in part, "As the NCO-in-Charge of the Clothing Division, Supply Department, during the period of May 1957 to June 1, 1959, you have performed your duties in an outstanding manner."

His commendation also noted that Manning "constantly sought new and more effective ways of providing better service with fewer personnel."

The initiative you have taken to recommend numerous changes to the Clothing regulations has been a particular note. With 50 percent of the personnel you had two years ago, you are now able to provide service which is four times faster.

"You have not taken any time off from your duties in the past two years, even though during the recent deployment of MAG-13, you worked many long hours to insure the preparation of the mount-out supplies you held for the group."

"This devotion to duty and your mature, intelligent approach to daily tasks has been an inspiration to all who have observed you."

CO Commends Logistics Clerk

Unselfish devotion to duty, a willingness to work long hours and a highly commendable performance of duty earned a 2nd Bn., 4th Marines, logistics clerk a meritorious mast last Friday with his battalion commander.

Acting Cpl. Julian T. Lee of H&S Company was presented a letter by LtCol. John S. Hudson, commending him for the manner of performing the dual jobs of logistical clerk and Battalion embarkation NCO during Operation "Big Land."

If it's news call the WINDWARD MARINE at 72104 or visit the offices in Bldg. 220. Weekly deadline is 12 noon, Wednesday.

IT'S YOUR CHOICE — The young lad on the left completed his education while serving with the Marine Corps and landed a good job as a civil engineer. The gentleman on the right didn't have time for the off-duty education program, he had to catch the liberty run; he also landed a job—sweeping streets.

SORRY, NO JOBS — This scene is repeated hundreds of times daily, no diploma, no job. This young fellow enlisted in the Marine Corps for four years, completed the enlistment, and went out to set the world on fire. He neglected to do anything about his education and today he suffers the consequence.

THE MILLIONAIRE — These two former Marines failed to take advantage of the Marine Corps education program and wound up in the unemployment compensation line. A school diploma would probably never have earned them a million dollars, but it would have kept them out of this line.

MANY EDUCATION AVENUES TAKE MEN TO HIGHER GOALS

"I'm sorry, but the job you are applying for requires a high school diploma. You will find that no matter where you go, most employers require a high school diploma. If you don't mind my saying so, you dropped the ball by not finishing high school. You should have taken advantage of the courses offered by the Marine Corps Institute or other educational programs."

Hundred of times daily, this conversation is repeated in employment and personnel offices throughout the business world. If you are without an education, you will always be on the outside looking in.

It's hard to realize why so many young men in the Marine Corps today neglect to take advantage of the educational programs conducted at posts and stations throughout the world.

As ActGySgt. J. B. Earle, NCOIC of the Station Education Office, puts it, "we are giving education away, not selling it."

It would be difficult to estimate just how many Marines right here at Kaneohe Bay are unaware that even though they did not finish their high school education, they can still receive their diploma by simply taking the High School General Education Development test at the Station Education Office located topside of Bldg. 221.

According to Sgt. Earle, about 80 per cent of all Marines taking the high school level GED tests pass it. Upon satisfactorily completing the test, the Education Office sends the individual's application to take the test, and the test answer sheet to the USAFI office at Ft. Shafter where the test is graded and forwarded to the USAFI headquarters at Madison, Wis. If the individual desires his diploma, he writes a letter to Madison and requests that a transcript of his test results be forwarded to his home-town high school. The high school, or State Education Department will forward the diploma.

For the young career minded Marine with an eye on the future, the Station Education Office has the facilities of administering the College Level GED Test. The satisfactory completion of this test is considered equivalent to one year of college education, and qualifies the individual for the NAVCAD program.

In addition to obtaining high school diplomas and college credits through the education office, personnel at Kaneohe Bay have the opportunity of preparing themselves for promotion tests or studying for job opportunities in civilian life through the off duty education program.

Correspondence courses are available through the Marine Corps Institute, Marine Corps Schools, United States Armed Forces Institute, through the Air Force Extension Course Institute, plus college, universities, business and industrial schools. The Marine Corps picks up three quarters of the tuition tab for civilian correspondence courses. Service courses are available without cost.

Adult evening courses are also available through the University of Hawaii for both on-and-off campus study.

In addition to obtaining correspondence courses and administering GED tests, the Station Education Office also has the facilities for retesting or reclassifying Marines by administering the General Classification Test.

According to Sgt. Earle, the majority of Marines applying for retesting, compile a better score on their second test.

Career guidance is another function of the Station Education Office. The staff of the education office is available to answer questions concerning social security, insurance, career benefits or related subjects.

STATION COMMANDER "KICKS-OFF" LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Col. M. M. Magruder, Commanding Officer, opened the special leadership training program for all civilian supervisors June 9. Introducing the first of a series of sessions on "A New Look At Leadership," he stressed the qualities of personal leadership which instills in employees the desire to do their best and to have a sense of responsibility for high quality in the total work output. Effective leadership was further identified as being based on personal example, good management practices, and moral responsibility. He pointed out that while this is not a religious program, the principles of good leadership can be traced back to Christian principles upon which our country's greatness is based.

Col. Magruder in turn introduced Cdr. W. R. Frieden, head of the ComServPac Leadership team. Cdr. Frieden spoke on the implementation of General Order 21, issued by the Secretary of the Navy in May 1958 and directing all Naval commands to review and revitalize their leadership training programs. Chaplain (LCdr.) J. J. Killeen, another member of the team, gave a vivid and stimulating presentation on the background of General Order 21 pointing out the need for a new emphasis in the field of improved leadership and the results which can be expected from the development of more effective leaders.

Leadership training classes for all civilian supervisors will be held twice a month for a total of six sessions. In developing the program, a new approach to the subject has been taken which explains the theme "A New Look At Leadership." All supervisors should find the sessions of unusual interest.

THE LATEST BENNY SUGGERS

Two simple ideas recently earned $5.99 each for four employees. On the receiving end of the checks were June L. Chun and June M. Stewart for their improved method of tabbing hi-pri items (fraction T & Q). Jean P. Norcutt and Miyoko Sato shared an award for suggesting that dittos be used in preparation of multiple addressee letters in Public Works. Miyoko, the original suggester, previously received a $10.00 award when this suggestion was adopted in the Supply Department.

WELCOME ABOARD to Patrick Lawrence Himan our new hire in the Supply Department. Patrick reported to work as Utilityman in the Sales Commissary Store June 9. Born in the Islands, he attended Castle High School prior to joining the Marine Corps in 1954. Stationed almost four years at Terminal Island, Long Beach, he returned in 1958 to accept a position with Kapiolani Furniture Company. Married and the father of a 5-year-old son, Patrick, enjoys a game of golf in his leisure time.

WE BID ALOHA

To Dorothy Amend who sailed June 6 on the Matsonia. Dorothy and son, Kip, will live in San Diego with Capt. Amend's mother until his return from Okinawa. Dorothy was formerly with Supply.

To Minnie Denis who is Mainland bound to join her husband Benjamin, in Long Beach. Minnie, who was employed in Administration Department, was accompanied by her three children.

NEW BABY

A new addition to the Gilbert Silva family is Glenn. Born at Kapiolani Hospital on May 22, the 8 lb. boy joins two brothers, Gilbert Jr.—16 and Vernon—11, and a sister, Diana—14. The proud father is employed as an electrician in Public Works.

Theater Schedule

By ACTCPL. JIM WOOTEN

Two shows daily — 6:05 p.m. and 8:20 p.m. at both Theater 1 and 2. Movies shown at Theater 2 are one day later than scheduled below. Matinees on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at Theater 1 only at 1 p.m.

TONIGHT

GIGI—This musical comedy returns by popular demand. Adopted from Colette's play which later became a Broadway hit, it is the story of an innocent sprite whose natural charms attract Paris' most eligible bachelor. Leslie Caron, Louis Jordan and Maurice Chevalier head the cast in this film rated superior by critics for adults and youth. (115 minutes).

TOMORROW MATINEE

FUNNY FACE—Fred Astaire, a New York fashion magazine photographer, is sent to Paris with a new model (Audrey Hepburn) he discovered in a Greenwich Village bookshop. He changes her from a drab clerk to a glamorous mannequin, then falls in love with her. Good for the young people and seniors. (103 minutes).

TOMORROW NIGHT

HELL ON FRISCO BAY—Alan Ladd portrays an ex-police officer, framed on manslaughter charges, who serves time in San Quentin. Upon his release he undertakes a relentless and successful campaign to track down the men responsible. For adults and youth.

SUNDAY MATINEE

THE LONELY MAN—This is a Western drama of a gunslinger and the emotional conflicts that arise as he attempts to start a new life with his son while fleeing from his old gang which seeks to exterminate him. Jack Palance, Tony Perkins, Neville Brand and Elaine Aiken are the stars. Should provide good entertainment for the family.

SUNDAY

NEVER STEAL ANYTHING SMALL—James Cagney leads the cast in the drama of a small time racketeer who ousts the big labor bosses and gets himself elected the top man on the eve of beginning a prison sentence. Excellent for adults. (94 minutes).

MONDAY

THE CRAWLING EYE—Action in this science-fiction drama stems from an enormous eye that emerges from a radio-active cloud and advances on its slimy tentacles. Leave the children at home and those with weak hearts. Rated fair. (83 minutes).

OUTDOOR CIRCLE LADIES PLAN 'DREAMWOOD' TOUR

All personnel of the Air Station and adult members of their families are cordially invited to attend a garden tour of "Dreamwood." Sponsored by the Kaneohe Circle, the tour is scheduled for Saturday, June 20, from 2 to 5 p.m.

"Dreamwood," the private estate of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bigelow, is located at 45-035 Wai-kalua Road and faces Kaneohe Bay and the distant Koolau mountains.

In this heavily wooded area seven lily ponds, each completely landscaped and secluded with island foliage, offer a rare opportunity for visitors to see what a master engineer has accomplished. Working daily at his side in the garden is his wife whose magic finger tips shape island blooms into graceful arrangements and nurtures the greenhouse products of exotic orchids and fragile ferns.

Ladies of the Outdoor Circle will act as guides in this veritable fairyland garden.

Marine Sets World Record In Javelin Throw At Compton

With one mighty heave of the javelin Quantico's Al Cantello realized the fruits of years of conscientious training and self-denial at the 20th annual Compton Invitation track and field meet held in Compton, Calif. June 5.

He set a new world record for the javelin throw by tossing the "weighted stick" 282' 3 1/2" to surpass the old mark of 281' 2 1/2" set by Norway's Egil Danielson in the 1956 Olympic games held in Melbourne, Australia.

His record shattering effort bested Bud Held, holder of the old American mark for the event of 270", who placed second with a 245' 3 1/2" heave.

In achieving the new world mark Al utilized a new "flying throw" style in which he throws the javelin while hurling his body through the air. He has been practicing with this revolutionary style all spring, however, only recently started using it in competition.

The wiry Marine gave his first indication of world-record shattering potential when he uncorked a 254' 3" heave in a dual meet with the Ft. Lee Army team three weeks ago.

The following Saturday he threw the spear 264' 10" at the Pennsylvania Athletic Club's ninth annual Invitational meet held in Philadelphia. However, the officials ruled that the throw was illegal as the point of the javelin didn't break the earth.

A visit to the rule book changed the officials' minds and this weekend word was received here that the throw of Cantello was formally recognized by the meet officials. Cantello thus defeated Bill Alley, Kansas University star, who had a toss of 250' 3". Alley was heretofore considered by many to be America's leading threat for the world record.

MAG WINS 2ND GOLF TOURNEY

MAG-13 copped the second match in the Fourth Quarter Golf competition held at the Klipper links June 11.

The MAG took the match with a total score of 654 strokes to gain 30 points toward the CG's trophy. Headquarters Company, 1st Marine Brigade took second spot with 760 strokes and 20 points.

June 25 the third and final match will be held.

If it's sports, call the WINDWARD MARINE, 72104.

Hawaii Marine Baseballers Half Contest From First Spot

The defending champion Hawaii Marines moved to within one half game of first place in the service section last Sunday by blasting SubPac, 7-3, for the second straight time in a Hawaii Major League baseball at Riseley Field after handing the civilian section leading Braves a 3-2 defeat the day before.

In the Marine-SubPac game, which was postponed from May 16, the Leathernecks jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning as Bill Garrett, Norm Ulrich, Danny Wells and pitcher Bill Haywood scored off the pitching of Herb Frantz and errors on Dick Gabel and Frantz.

Haywood who usually plays the first base slot, went all the way on the mound against the Raiders to take two straight wins over them in seven days. He gave up 10 hits, walked 5 and struckout 4.

The Marines scored a single run in the second when catcher Dave Colombe walked and was forced in after Frantz loaded the bases and gave Danny Wells a free pass to score Colombe.

Bud Balzer singled in the bottom of the 8th and went to second on an overthrow to score Ulrich and Faust to add unneeded insurance runs.

SubPac scored a pair in the second when Jerry Ross walked and Bob Vega reached first on Norm Ulrich's overthrow error. Bob Harris walked as did first baseman Lew Cain to score Ross and Vega came home on catcher Dave Colombe's error. Ross scored the third run in the 8th after belting a long single. Vega singled to move Ross to second and Jocko Little sacrificed to score him.

There were no extra base hits in the game. Ulrich, Balzer and Haywood paired hits for the Marines.

Rod & Gun Club

by ActSgt. F. J. Blesser

ActMSgt. S. Lawson and J. L. Ferrero had a good day of fishing off Bird Island. Their tally at the end of the weekend was a large string of blue hinalaei averaging a little under a pound apiece.

Action was fast and furious Saturday afternoon off the airfield on Long Rock Jetty. Many papio and lai were landed by a few of the club members.

Monday morning the writer brought in one of the best catches he has ever made while on the island. Using a chrome-headed jig with red and white feathers and a eight pound test line I accounted for three papio caught in the following order and weights: Five pounds, eight ounces; four pounds, 8 ounces and two pounds, eight ounces. they were caught from the Navy pier at about 5:30 a.m. A fourth papio of about five pounds was lost when the fish threw his hook.

Monday night three more of these fish were landed by ActSSgt. H. W. Waugh and E. H. Drake at the Navy pier.

At last week's meeting of the Rod and Gun Club five new members were brought into the club. Our organization has quite a bit to offer to both old and new members. Helicopter trips to neighboring islands for fishing is a common thing. Those of you men who have never had the opportunity to hook into a ulua or papio are really in for a thrill of a lifetime.

Herb Newman went 3 for 5 for the Raiders.

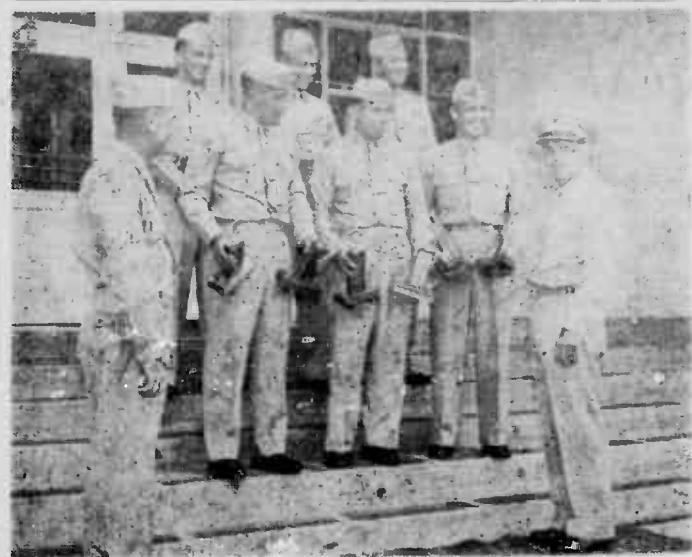

SubPac used three pitchers to try to stop the Leathernecks but starter Herb Frantz was responsible for the loss.

In the game against the Braves Saturday at Pearl Harbor's Quick Field, the Marines scored two unearned runs in the third and added another insurance run in the seventh to break up a hurling duel between Sidney Lindo and Don Furth.

Furth gave up four hits, walked six and struckout eight. Lindo gave up five hits, no walks and failed to strike out a single batter.

The Marines left only four runners on the bases and the Braves left six.

The linescores: R H E
Braves 000 001 010 2 4 2
Marines 002 000 10x 3 4 0
Sidney Lindo and Dick Nagamine;

Hawaii's C. Miller Wins Hammer Toss In All-Mar Tourney

Hawaii Marine thinclad Carroll Miller, who took first place all season in local meets in the javelin throw, set a new record in the hammer throw as he took first place in that event at the All-Marine Track and Field Championships last week at Camp Pendleton, California. He tossed the hammer 150 feet 11 1/2 inches.

He placed fourth in the javelin throw with a 228 foot 1 inch toss, 15 feet 11 inches farther than his best throw this season in the Islands. He was beat out by Al Cantello of Quantico with a new record of 262 feet 2 1/2 inches. Larry Stuart of Cherry Point, and Vincent English, Camp Pendleton.

Hawaii Marines' John Paxton and Ed Henderson took second places in the 400 meter run and 200 meter run, respectively, with times of 49.4 and 21.2.

Joe Hendrix, who consistently took firsts in local broad jump and hop step and jump events, placed third in the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet 1 inch. Teammate Bob Coleman took a third in the hop, step and jump with a 42 foot 7 1/4 inch jump.

Henderson took a fourth in the 100 meter run.

Carroll Miller has been selected for the All-Marine Team which will compete in the National AAU meet later this summer.

An estimated 3000 throng watched the Quantico Marines dominate the 23 events of the 12th edition of the annual All-Leatherneck Track and Field meet.

Quantico finished with nine first place honors and 10 runnerup positions. Event-wise, Pendleton was second with four top spots and three also rans.

Six All-Marine thinclad records were thrown out the window during the highly competitive meet.

Bob Gardner of Quantico bettered his own Leatherneck high jump mark of 6 ft. 6 in. with a 6 ft. 7 1/2 in. effort. Marine Corps Recruit Depot of San Diego had a record buster in Robert Whitlow's 54 ft. 8 1/2 in. shot put heave which erased the 52 ft. 8 1/2 in. effort of Allen Cheney who did the trick for Quantico in 1952.

Quantico's world record holding twosome, Bob Gutowski and Al Cantello, lived up to their advance billing.

Gutowski, vaulting 14 ft. 7 1/2 in. nullified Raymond Poucher's mark. See Track Results . . . Page 7

ALL-MARINE TRACK RESULTS

of 14 ft. 7 1/2 in. set last year at Camp Lejeune.

Cantello, who broke the world's javelin vestige at the Invitational in Compton last week with a 282 ft. 3 1/2 in. heave, cracked his own All-Marine niche of 244 ft. 5 1/2 in. Cantello cleared 262 ft. 2 1/2 in.

While also grabbing a first in the broad jump, Gutowski was one of the Meet's two double champs.

Gutowski, incidentally, also grabbed a first in the broad jump with a 23 ft. 6 in. leap to gain double honors along with Camp Pendleton's Russ McLean. McLean copped the 100 Meter Dash in :10.6 and won the 200 meter dash with a :20.9 timing.

Actually McLean's time bettered the All-Marine mark set by Joe Schatzle of Camp Lejeune in 1955, but AAU officials declared that the wind exceeded the 4 1/2 mile limit and so the record did not stand.

McLean, along with Vincent English and Jim Shepard have been selected to participate in the national meet. The selections were made after the final day of the meet by the team coaches.

The results:

HAMMER THROW — Carrell Miller, Hawaii, 150-1 1/2; John E. Polley, Camp Lejeune, 149-7; Paul A. Ward, Quantico, 143-9; Ervin J. York, Camp Elliott, 130-10 1/2.

RUNNING BROAD JUMP — Bob Gutowski, Quantico, 23-6 1/2; Willis Lebedoe, Quantico, 23-1 1/2; Leonard S. Hendrix, Hawaii, 22-1 1/2; John Keating, Camp Pendleton, 22-1/2.

RUNNING HIGH JUMP — Robert F. Gardner, Quantico, 6-7 1/2 (New All-Marine record. Old mark 6-6 set by Robert F. Gardner, Quantico, 1958); Ozzie McGee, Camp Pendleton, 6-1/2 (tie); Tork, uQuantico, 6-1/2; Phil Hoover, Camp Pendleton, 6-1/2.

SHOT PUT — Robert E. Whitlow, MCRD, San Diego 54-3 1/2 (New All-Marine Record. Old mark 52-8 1/2 set by Allen Cheney, Quantico, 1957); James R. Allen, Quantico, 51-8 1/2; Paul A. Ward, Quantico, 48-1 1/2.

1500 METER RUN — James Shepard, Camp Pendleton, 3:56.2; Alex Breckenridge, Quantico; Merrill Sweitzer, Camp Lejeune; Glynn L. Wood, Quantico.

400 METER DASH — Robert Grayer, Camp Lejeune, :48.8; John P. Paxton, Hawaii; Robert Skerritt, Quantico; Kenneth W. Gee, Quantico.

100 METER DASH — John McLean, Camp Pendleton, :10.6; Alfred Terry, Camp Lejeune; Willis Lederboer; Ed R. Henderson, Hawaii.

NICK'S NICHE

by
DICK NICKLIN

I don't like to be the type that says, "I told you so" but in this case I have to say it. Not for something that someone didn't do, but just the opposite.

If you will remember back to May 22, I speculated that once the Hawaii Marine diamond squad got the League-leading SubPac Raiders over the Pali that they would destroy their spell over the Marine defending champions.

Well "I told you so" and it not only happened once but twice within seven days.

BIG STICK

In the first game on the Windward side it was the big stick of Bud Balzer that smashed the pair of circuit blows that spelled defeat for the Raiders. Credit also goes to shortstop Rudy Faust who tied up the contest with a four base blast sandwiched between Bud's pair.

Balzer's professional career was dampened when he ran into a concrete wall while playing for a Yankee farm team in 1951. He injured his left shoulder which still gives him trouble at times. The injury has brought his batting average down but not too many percentage points. He had been hitting around 40%. This was eight years ago. He is now leading the league two consecutive weeks in a row with a percentage in the neighborhood of .385.

Bud played with or opposite some fellows who are big names today in major league baseball when he was under Yankee contract.

When he reeled off the names that he remembered from 1950, '51 and '52 it was like reading a page from Baseball's "Who's Who." While with Fond du Lac, Wis., he played in spring training against Mickey Mantle, Vic Power, Billy Martin, and Johnny Mize.

In 1952 after his injury he moved to Joplin, Mo., where he met and played both basketball and baseball with John Blanchard, Yankee catcher and Norm Seiburn, Yankee left fielder. He also remembers guys like Jerry Lumpy who is with Kansas City, Tony Kubek and Murray Thacker, now with the White Sox.

GOOD PITCHING

A great deal of the credit for the two SubPac defeats must go also to the fine pitching arm of Bill Haywood who handled both games all the way.

Bill allowed only six runs in the pair of games on 15 hits. He struck out six Raiders and gave up eight free passes. The Raiders used up five pitchers in the two games.

The arch foes will meet again tomorrow at SubPac's Millican Field at 2 p.m. This game has been declared a benefit game for the Pearl Harbor Little League. There will be a 25 cent admission charge which will be turned over to the Little League to defray the expenses of training boys who may some day be in the big leagues. It certainly is a worthy cause. I don't know of any other sport for boys which teaches sportsmanship and fair play as does the Little League.

CUBS IN LEAD FOR 2ND HALF OF L.L. SEASON

Led by the no-hit hurling of Duke Keenan the Cardinals blasted their way to a 3-0 victory over the Red Sox June 10 at Jerry Coleman field.

Not only was the pitching good, but the fielding showed spark also as the Cards came up with two double plays.

The first one Scotty Ogden of the Sox hit a pop fly in front of home plate and Jim Delaney caught it for the out. Jim threw to Tommy Dees at second to catch Stan Jones off base. On the second dual-play, Ricky Dean of the Sox hit to the Card's pitcher, Keenan, who threw to the shortstop, Dees, who retired Dusty Rhoades on the force-out. Tommy relayed the ball to John McKee at first in time to catch Dean.

Big bats for the Cards were John McKee, Jim Vandermate and Peyton Harris. Delaney belted out a stand-up double. Dusty Rhoades took the loss for the Sox giving up three runs on seven hits.

On June 11 another crowd-pleasing battle was fought between the Cards and Giants. The Giants won, 5-1.

Phil Buzzelli was the winning pitcher as he gave up only one run on five hits. He struck out 11 and walked five. John McKee took the loss for the Cards when he gave up the five runs on five hits.

On June 12 the Cubs defeated the Red Sox 11-3 in a crowd pleasing contest. Jerry Cody was the winning hurler for the Cubs as he gave up three runs on five hits, walked four and struck out 14.

Scotty Ogden took the loss for the Sox as he gave up 11 runs on five hits, walked five and struck out five. Mike Young was the big stick for the Cubs when he went two for four with three RBIs.

Another thriller was played June 13 between the Giants and the Cards, the Giants winning, 2-1.

Butchie Ball was the winning pitcher when he gave up one run on three hits, struck out five and walked two. Tommy Dees took the loss for the Cards as he gave up two runs on four hits, struck out eight and walked four. Ball was also the big hitter for the Giants when we went two for three.

Reservists In Two-Week Training Stint

"We're making fine progress in our efforts to remain a truly combat-ready unit of the Marine Corps Reserve and to bring our efficiency up to top level on all weapons and tactics during this two-week tour of duty."

This was the comment of Maj.

Philip T. Kelly, commanding officer of the Marine Corps Reserve of Honolulu's 27th Rifle Company now on active training duty here at the Air Station.

The Civilian Marines, 132 strong, arrived at the Air Station last Saturday (June 13) for their annual two-week tour of active duty. Moving into Building 1032, they rushed into a training schedule which would seem a little strenuous to many members of the regular establishment.

Their accelerated schedule is a must with the Reserves since they must utilize these two-week periods each year to bring themselves up to date on the latest weapons and tactics of the Marine Corps . . . and they must do it fast.

Daily training schedules call for physical drill, rifle inspections, familiarization and record firing of the M-1 rifle, familiarization firing of the automatic rifle and the 3.5 inch rocket launchers.

Highlight of the first week's training was a tactical helicopter lift of the company to Bellows Air Force Base last Wednesday where the "Weekend Warriors" engaged in field tactics throughout the day.

Next week's schedule will put them through dry net training and amphibious operations which will include the use of supporting weapons.

On Thursday the unit will conduct a field problem in the Kahuku area. The problem will commence at noon when the company moves by truck to Kahuku. They will conduct maneuvers for the remainder of the day, bivouac overnight and continue their "attack" through Friday.

Returning to the Air Station on Friday evening, the reservists will devote Saturday to final inspections, packing their gear and a final parade at the Air Station's Dewey Square. At 10 a.m. the unit will depart for Pearl Harbor, its regular home throughout the year.

After pay call, they will stand a final muster at the armory and once more return to inactive status and their regular weekly drill sessions at the armory.

Officer Integration Plan OKed By CMC

A long-range program providing junior reserve officers with increased opportunity for integration into the regular Marine Corps has been approved by the Commandant.

Two major changes in current integration policies are made in the expanded program.

(1) Establishment of annual integration programs for reserve officers in their fifth year of service, immediately following consideration for selection to captain, to include officers serving both on SWAG's and on inactive duty.

(2) Removal of the present five per cent limit on the number of Basic School graduates who may be offered regular commissions directly on graduation.

With the new fifth-year program, all reserve officers will have three opportunities for integration. Formerly, they had only two chances after completing Basic School to apply for regular commissions — once during their second year of service and again during their third.

Annual fifth-year integration programs will be aimed primarily at reserve officers serving on contracts (SWAG's) beyond their obligated active duty. These officers, who have demonstrated their desire to remain on active duty, will thus have the opportunity to become career officers and apply for regular commissions. In addition, Reserve officers on active duty will be eligible should they become motivated for regular officer careers.

Tentatively, Headquarters Marine Corps plans to begin fifth-year integrations with the 1956 year group. This group includes officers whose initial dates of rank as second lieutenants fall on or between June 4, 1955 and June 1, 1956.

9TH DISTRICT MOVES TO K.C.

Movement of the 9th Marine Corps Reserve and Recruitment District headquarters from Chicago to Kansas City, Mo., took place yesterday.

Largest of the Corps' seven MCR&RDs, the District is headed by Col. O. C. Bjornsrud. He and his staff coordinate reserve and recruiting activities in Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, and Colorado.

Headquarters of the 9th MCR&RD has been located in the U. S. Court House at 225 South Clark Street, Chicago, since the District was organized in 1953. The Marine Corps Recruiting Station in Chicago will remain at the Court House.

Movement of the District Headquarters was ordered earlier this year by the Commandant of the Marine Corps.

Marriage Vow Renewals Set For Catholics

Catholic couples have been invited to take part in a Renewal of Marriage Vows ceremony at K-Bay's St. Michael Chapel. The ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Confessions will be heard at 9:30 a.m. All couples renewing their vows have been urged to receive Communion at the Mass which will follow the ceremony.

There will be no 9 a.m. Mass tomorrow.

NEW MEMBERS SOUGHT BY FRA

Officials of Windward Oahu Branch 174, Fleet Reserve Association, invites all service personnel eligible for FRA membership to attend the branch's regular meetings. Meetings are held the first and third Thursday of each month in the FRA Hut (Quonset near Main Dispensary) at 7:30 p.m.

All career personnel with six years service are eligible for membership in FRA, which is composed of 52,000 career enlisted members or the Navy and Marine Corps.

Purpose of the FRA is to work for improved benefits for career personnel and their dependents. FRA lobbied for the latest increase in pay and for additional fringe benefits.

There are some 225 branches extending from Hong Kong to the Mediterranean area.

Technique of Instruction Contest Finals Set for D.C. Sept. 27-Oct. 2

Finals of the Fifth Annual Marine Corps Technique of Instruction Competition will be held at the Marine Barracks, Washington, from Sept. 27 to Oct. 2. Headquarters Marine Corps has announced.

Sponsored by the Marine Corps Institute and Leatherneck Magazine, the 1959 competition will be similar to those of previous years.

Competition again will be conducted at three levels. First, at the lower level, FMF units will hold intra-command competitions and non-FMF units will schedule area competitions. Winners at this level will compete in major FMF command contests or regional non-FMF competitions, with the victors then moving up for the Washington finals.

All enlisted Marines on active duty with the regular establishment are eligible to participate in the competition. Contestants will again be divided into two categories — Staff NCO and sergeants-and-below. Each competitor will be required to deliver a 20-minute prepared presentation followed by a five-minute impromptu presentation.

Awards for major command, regional, and final competition winners will be provided by Leatherneck. Details will be published in forthcoming issues of the magazine.

On the basis of quotas established by Headquarters Marine Corps for the final competition, each division and wing will provide one contestant in both the Staff NCO and sergeant-and-below categories. FMFPac and FMFLant also will provide one finalist each in both categories. East Coast non-FMF units have been assigned a quota of one in each category, as have West Coast non-FMF units.

Non-FMF East Coast regional competition will be conducted at Camp Lejeune, N.C., and the West Coast regional will be held at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The Annual Technique of Instruction Competition is conducted for the purpose of stimulating interest in, stressing the importance of, and improving the quality of military instruction throughout the Marine Corps.

From 1880 to 1904, U. S. Marines wore spiked helmets as a part of their uniform.
