Two Ships Refitted At Pearl Harbor For Rocket Pickup

Two satellite recovery ships, the USNS Dalton Victory and the Hatti Victory, have arrived in Honolulu for final outfitting and training of personnel. They will relieve the fleet destroyers currently being utilized in recovery of satellites launched into the Pacific Missile Range.

Both ships, under operational control of the Commander Pacific Missile Range, will assume duties as the seagoing component of the satellite recovery team now operating in Hawaiian waters. With their specialized crews and equipment, the two ships will be able to render highly effective service for satellite recovery operations.

Recovery crews aboard the ships will include aviators to pilot helicopters, frogmen to handle satellite capsules, and technicians to operate radar, communications and specialized project equipment.

The helicopters, when not operating, will be based at the Air Station here.

In addition to naval personnel, the recovery team is also composed of Marine personnel. SEE SATELLITE . . . P. 2

Corps Adds 6,000 Marines To FY60 Pro-Pay Roster

About 6,000 additional Marines will be awarded proficiency pay in Fiscal Year 1960, Headquarters Marine Corps has announced.

This will double the number programmed for FY 1959 and will bring to approximately 12,000 the total number of Marines authorized "pro-pay" by June 30, 1960.

Proficiency pay program for FY1960 was established by Marine Corps Order 7720.12A. Field commands have been directed not to execute payments, however, until authorized to do so by the Commandant. Such authorization is contingent on Defense Department approval of the program, which is expected in the near future.

MCO 7720.12A authorizes commanding officers to award P-1 pay of $30 per month to Marines in 77 critical MOSS, to drill instructors, and to one out of every 35 Marines for "outstanding effectiveness" in non-critical MOSS. Eligibility for pro-pay is limited in all cases to personnel in grades E-3 through E-7. To qualify, E-3s must have more than 24 months service.

The additional 6,000 pro-pay awards authorized for FY 1960 will be phased in over the four quarters of the fiscal year. As in 1959, administration of the program will be decentralized. Within broad criteria established by the Commandant, commanding officers will determine which Marines are to receive pro-pay awards.

Pro-pay quotas for FY 1960 are SEE PRO-PAY . . . P. 2

FMF Musicians End Japan Tour

Members of the Fleet Marine Force Drum and Bugle Corps returned to Camp Smith last Thursday from an 89-day tour of Japan, Korea and Okinawa.

One of the longest tours in the history of the unit, the Far East engagement included 221 performances at 52 armed forces installations and in 58 cities, towns and villages in the three countries.

Highlight of the tour was a special performance honoring Crown Prince Akihito and Princess Michiko on their Imperial wedding April 10.

An estimated crowd of 3,200,000 people witnessed the Marines' performances with countless others watching them over television.

ActMSgt. William O. Nickell was the leader of the 26-man team during the Far East tour.

The weight limit now allowed on MATS flights remains at 65 pounds.

Gen. Kier Named Information Chief

Brig. Gen. Avery R. Kier, former commanding general of the 1st Marine Brigade here, was named Marine Corps Director of Information, July 1.

Festivities In Hilo Feature Marines, Tahitian Dancers

Tomorrow the 1st Marine Brigade Drum and Bugle Corps will take part in Bastille Day festivities in Hilo, Hawaii. ActGySgt. Donald O. Everett will lead the musicians.

This will be the first time in Hawaii that an organized community program has been scheduled to observe the Tahitian national holiday. In Tahiti, Bastille Day marks the beginning of seven days of celebration commemorating the start of the French Revolution on July 14, 1789.

Hilo's one-day activities will consist of a parade, athletic contests, water sports and Tahitian dancing competition.

Because of the tremendous surge of interest in the music and dances of Tahiti, combined with the aim of increasing the cultural interchange between Hawaii's people and their Tahitian neighbors, the Hilo program will attempt to duplicate the events in near-entirety.

In addition to the 9:30 a.m. parade, other events are as follows: 10:30 Dedication Ceremonies (band concert, exchange of greetings between Hawaiian and Tahitian officials); 11 a.m., Polynesian Sports Events; 12 noon, Luau Luncheon; 2 to 5 p.m., Tahitian Dancing Competition (three hours of continuous Tahitian dancing) and 8 p.m., Grand Ball. All festivities will end at midnight.

BOARD SELECTS 524 GYSGTs (E-7)

Names of Marines selected for gunnery sergeant (E-7) are being announced by bulletin from Marine Corps headquarters this week.

Date of rank for the new gunnery sergeants has been established as June 1. Pay and allowance will accrue from June 24, the date the Commandant approved the promotions.

This is the first large promotion of Marines to the new E-7 rank. The title of gunnery sergeant, which was discontinued after World War II, was restored to the enlisted rank structure last Jan. 1.

THE STUMBLING STONE

There is an interesting story concerning a community whose people determined to cooperate in the building of a church. With limited resources they faced a problem regarding the materials to be used. Many hours of debate were given to this problem. There was much surprise when, one morning, people noticed a mountainous pile of stone that had been delivered during the night. Persistent inquiry revealed that a young farmer had given serious thought to their common problem. But he had done more than just think! With certain of his friends, he had gone quietly through the fields and roads of the community picking up stones over which the people had walked and stumbled for years. These stones became the materials for a beautiful building.

There is a truth in this parable. There are many who go through life waiting for opportunity to knock. Somehow, their eyes are blind to the opportunities at their very feet.

How often do we find ourselves explaining away a predicament in which we find ourselves? We manage to blame it on others—our duty station, the first sergeant, the Marine Corps and even our wives and families. We keep telling ourselves that the grass is greener in some other company, duty station, or, in many cases, civilian life. Thus, with our eyes glued to that greener pasture, we continue to trip over the opportunities that are ever with us.

"My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee . . . Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path." Proverbs 2.

Funds for outfitting the two ships were provided by the Advanced Research Projects Agency, primary sponsor of the Discoverer satellite project. Technical direction of the Discoverer program rests with the U. S. Air Force and Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

PRO-PAY . . .

again based on a "Critical MOS List" divided into three groups.

Commands will not reach 100 per cent of their pro-pay quotas, however, until after April 1, 1960. The schedule calls for each command to achieve five-eighths of its total quota during the first quarter of the fiscal year, three-fourths during the second quarter, seven-eighths during the third quarter, and 100 per cent during the last quarter.

All DIs, E-3 through E-7, who are actually serving with recruit platoons, are eligible for P 1 pay, as are supervisors of DIs assigned to recruit platoons.

Pro-pay for outstanding effectiveness will again be made on the same principle as meritorious mast or meritorious promotion. Commanding officers are authorized one such award for every 35 Marines on board, in eligible pay grades, not serving in MOSs listed as critical.

The Inquiring Photographer

By ACTGYSGT. JACK SHEEHAN

What do you think of motorists? (This question was asked of members of "Charlie" Co., 1stBn., 4th Marines, who are considered authorities on the subject having just returned from an extended tour of the West Coast.)

PFC. DON HOLZHAUER — "Motorists! M is for monster, O is for offender, T is for trouble, O is for ornery, R is for reckless, I is for inconsiderate, S is for speedster, T is for, oh well, I don't know, BUT LOOK OUT, HERE COMES ANOTHER ONE."

PFC. EDMOND ARSENAULT— "Well, it's funny you should ask me this question. I'm a motorist, and frankly, I wouldn't trade places with a pedestrian. They don't have a chance. That reminds me of the time—whoops, excuse me, there goes a sucker now; watch me get him."

PFC. JOHN DARING — "I'm all for overpasses at every intersection. Here I was crossing the street, when this sports car appears from nowhere. The next thing I know, I'm flat on my back. To add insult to injury, the driver stops, backs up, in fact right over me again, gets out and asks, "You OK, son?"

PFC. FRED SAUER — "I think they are very considerate. I was crossing the street, this car approaches me, so I stop dead in my tracks. The driver stops and signals me to go ahead. As soon as I am in the middle of the street, he lights his after-burner, and here I sit."

PFC. JAMES T. DAVIS — "In the eyes of a motorist, a pedestrian is something that you have just got to hit. If you miss him the first time, make another run on the target."

PFC. KENNETH DOCKTER — "I was crossing the street minding my own business, head and eyes straight to the front like the book says, when all of a sudden, WHAM. I'm not sure, but I think the Santa Fe Limited just went by."

Don't Burn The 'Green'

A K-Bay Marine was observed Monday morning burning 50 one-dollar bills in his barracks. Authorities took the man into custody. He is now under observation at the psychiatric ward of Tripler Hospital.

This incident never really happened, but a similar occurrence amounting to about the same thing happens too often.

A Marine returns to his barracks after a day of training, all set to get ready for the liberty run. He goes to his wall locker to trade his utilities for civilian garb.

He looks through his pockets for his locker key. Then he remembers—he left the keys in the locker when he closed his lock before running to make muster early this morning.

Problem: How to get the wall locker open.

His solution: The bayonet didn't help much, only bent the locker door. Now I got the idea. Out in the car I've got a hammer, screw driver and tire tool. Well it took an hour but I got the locker open.

Result: Got the civvies, the three dollars and the keys and headed for a big night of liberty. Next morning barracks inspection and report on ruined wall locker by inspecting officer. Get personal audience with the CO. Next stop—"Crossbar Hotel."

This "locker to lockup" episode could have been prevented by the man obtaining a hack-saw or cutters and cutting the lock without defacing the locker.

A locker is entrusted to an individual by the government and he is as responsible for its condition just as he is responsible for his rifle.

What has this got to do with a man burning 50 dollars?

Here's the relationship: A wall locker costs Uncle Sam 50 dollars. It costs the man with the whiskers 40, dollars to have one repaired and refinished.

Is there much difference between a screwball burning 50 dollars and a screwball destroying a 50-dollar wall locker?

Remember this the next time you lose your locker keys.

Re-Evaluation of Critical MOS List Planned; Other Changes Told

The Critical MOS List, as presently constituted, will be re-evaluated at Headquarters Marine Corps during the second quarter of FY 1960.

Although basically similar the FY 1960 proficiency pay program is not identical to last year's. Among the more important changes are these:

- (1) The number of critical MOSs has been expanded from 49 to 77.
- (2) E-6s and E-7s are eligible in FY 1960. They weren't before.
- (3) Opportunity for outstanding effectiveness pro-pay is increased from a ratio of 1-45 to 1-35.
- (4) Drill instructors competed for pro-pay as individuals in FY 1959 but were not eligible on a special-category basis, as they are this year.

Under the Marine Corps proficiency pay program, Marines in critical MOSs awarded pro-pay must be actually serving in billets requiring the skill for which pro-pay is awarded. Under present criteria, 87 per cent of the Corps' authorized total of 12,000 pro-pay awards will go to Marines in critical MOSs, with the remainder going to DIs and Marines cited for outstanding effectiveness.

This is the Critical MOS List on which proficiency pay quotes are currently based:

Group I: 0131, 0791, 0847, 0848, 1141, 1161, 1444, 1841, 1861, 2131, 2161, 2181, 2191, 2311, 2533, 2536, 2539, 2541, 2631, 2633, 2636, 2721, 2731, 2732, 2733, 2741, 2751, 2752, 2753, 2761, 2771, 2773, 4011, 6614, 6641, 6661, 6631, 6741, 6811, 7113, 7114, 7141.

New Pond Areas To Open August 1 For Pole Hook and Line Fishing

New Station fishing areas, as announced in last week's WINDWARD MARINE and spelled out in Station Order 5510.1E, will open August 1. These areas will include the fish ponds on the Kaneohe bay side of Mokapu Road near the entrance to the Station.

Since these ponds have been leased to civilian fishermen and are still under contract until July 31, personnel desiring to take advantage of these new open areas are cautioned that they will not be permitted on the ponds until the opening date of August 1.

It was erroneously reported in last week's WINDWARD MARINE that the ponds on the ocean side of Mokapu Road had been closed in the past. These ponds are now and have always been OPEN. The ponds on the Kaneohe bay side of the road are closed and will remain so until August 1.

When opened to fishermen these ponds will be limited to pole hook and line fishing only. Fishermen are limited to two poles each. No nets will be permitted with the single exception that nets of less than three feet in diameter will be permitted for the catching of bait.

Boats will not be allowed in the ponds for any reason.

After August 1 the ponds will be stocked with tullepia both fingerling and catchable size. These fish grow to an average weight of about two pounds.

Before going into the new fishing areas, it is suggested that all personnel familiarize themselves with Station Order 5510.1E.

4TH MARINE XO — Lt. Col. Ernest L. Medford Jr. assumed regimental executive officer duties recently, replacing Col. C. J. Bailey, who has returned to the mainland for reassignment.

Medical Officer Warns Swimmers Of Poisonous Rash

Kaneohe Bay personnel and their dependents were cautioned this week by station medical officials to use extreme care with new rashes appearing on their bodies following swimming at Windward beaches.

According to Capt. Edward K. Allis, USN, Station medical officer. "As yet, there has been no noted increase in the number of rash cases reporting to the dispensary for treatment."

Medical officials attribute the rash to a blue-green algae which apparently floats into Oahu beach areas during the summer months.

Victims of the poisonous algae (limu o seaweed) break out in severe skin blistering.

The blue-green algae is actually olive drab in color. The seaweed resembles a tangled mass of six-inch long hair.

Capt. Allis stated that swimmers should not lie around the beaches in a wet bathing suit. Immediately after leaving the water, bathers should take a hot soapy shower, and wash the swim suit out thoroughly. Algae remaining in an unwashed swim suit could cause trouble when the swim suit is worn again.

ing on exercises to develop the body.

This was Jones' first contest. He now has his sights set on the Mr. America contest. According to Jones, "The big contest will have to wait until I get back to the mainland, but I'm eligible to enter it now by virtue of winning the contest last week."

Marines Join Kailua July 4th Program

Kaneohe Bay-based Marines played a prominent role in supporting the festivities in celebration of the 4th of July in surrounding communities during the past weekend.

Center of activities on Windward Oahu was Kailua, where a mile-and-a-half long parade was held Saturday morning. During the afternoon, the celebration shifted to Kailua Beach where the festivities lasted until late that night.

The day-long celebration began with a colorful parade in the morning. In the line of march was the 1st Marine Brigade Band and Drum and Bugle Corps, and a color guard from the air station. An infantry unit from the 4th Marine Regiment added a military air to the parade. In addition to Marine units, Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard bands and marching units participated.

Highlighting the afternoon festivities at Kailua Beach, a group of 45 combat-equipped Marines of the 1st Marine Brigade stormed the beach in three landing vehicles tracked. Once ashore, and the "beachhead" established, a static display of arms and safety equipment was set up on the beach. Throughout the day, thousands of spectators viewed the display, asking hundreds of questions of the Marines standing by to explain the use of the equipment.

Another Marine highlight of the afternoon's festivities did not fare as well as the beach landing. Act-MSgt. Charles Pringle, of MAG-13, was scheduled to parachute from a plane over the beach and land in the ocean where two Marine helicopters were standing by to demonstrate an air-sea rescue.

During the first pass over the beach area, Pringle released a streamer from the plane that landed right on target. On the second pass as Pringle jumped, an extremely high gust of wind blew him inland and dumped him, uninjured in a Kailua yard about a mile from the beach.

Potynesian entertainment followed the military demonstrations and exhibits.

As a climax to the day-long festivities, a 40 minute fireworks display was held off Kailua Beach on Flat Island.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Throughout the nation, 372 Americans lost their lives in traffic accidents, while another 171 drowned, and another 52 died from miscellaneous causes during the two-day Independence Day week end.

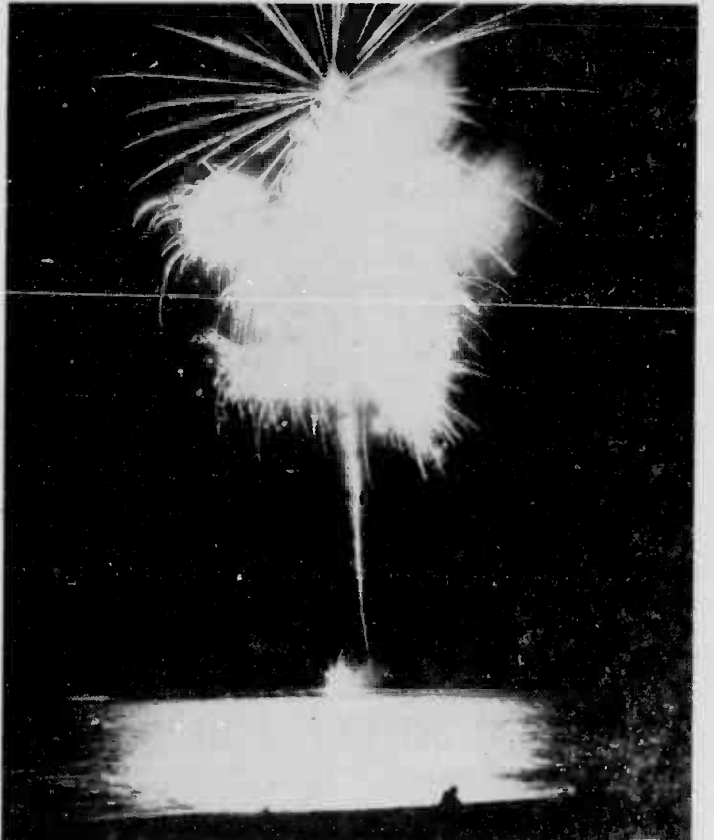

Texas led the states in traffic deaths with 25, followed by Illinois and Virginia with 16, New York 15, and Pennsylvania 14.

New York led in drownings with 16. Texas had 14 and Michigan 13.

Here on Oahu, Kaneohe Bay Marines can justly be proud of themselves. According to the Provost Marshal's Office, Marines were not involved in a single accident, nor were any injured from fireworks.

Elsewhere on Oahu, a Kaneohe Bay Marine helicopter crew was credited with saving the life of Mr. William Young of Waimanalo who was thrown into the sea when the boat in which he was a passenger capsized.

Young was plucked from the sea by a helicopter piloted by Lt. James O'Connor at 6:10 p.m. Saturday evening. O'Connor's crew reported spotting six sharks circling the area where they picked up Young.

Drama of Atomic Scientists' Lives In Pearl S. Buck's Latest Novel

IN COMMAND THE MORNING, Pearl S. Buck has turned to the greatest topic of our time — man's conquest of the atom — and has woven a suspenseful story through fictitious characters placed accurately within the course of actual events.

She takes the readers back to these years early in the second world war, when great physicists had become convinced that a weapon of unutterable destructive power was within their grasp. The personal and professional lives of the scientists are brought into clear focus as they become ever more aware of what they are unleashing.

The reader is brought into the laboratories to listen as the scientists work out the mechanics of the monster — details that may mean the difference between a dud, a usable bomb and a heaviest that will set the hydrogen in the oceans ablaze and consume the world.

Prominent in the story are two men scientists and a woman scientist teamed together in this unnatural life of racing the secret for control of the atom. One would wonder what kind of a woman, beautiful and intelligent, would turn her back on love to devote her life to this work.

And in the end, as the atom is conquered, torment of sleepless nights are revealed as the scientists grapple with the nightmare question which each of them must ultimately confront squarely: shall this weapon be used?

Pearl Buck concludes her account with the effects and changes in the lives of the scientists — a powerful drama of life which the author is noted for portraying in previous novels. It is truly a book no one should miss.

4½ GAMES IN FRONT

Diamond Squad Downs SubPac And U. of Hawaii

Rampaging Hawaii Marines trounced their arch foe, SubPac for the fourth straight time and handed the University of Hawaii a 9-7 defeat as they ran their winning streak to 15 straight and a four and one-half game lead over the second place Submariners this past weekend (July 4, 5) in the Hawaii Major Baseball League's service division.

The 10-4 victory over the SubPac Raiders was the fourth in that many weeks after the Raiders had defeated the Leathernecks five straight in the early part of the season.

Hap Spuhler's charges bounced off to a three run start that shook the Raiders, scoring on shortstop Rudy Faust's circuit blast with Norm Ulrich and Bill Haywood on. Faust was the third man up.

The Raiders fought back to a 4-3 lead in the second inning when pitcher Don Furth handed the Navy men a pair of walks for Glen Crowe and Bob Harris with one away and then Hal Thompson singled to score Crowe and Jerry Ross matched it to score Harris and Thompson. Ross scored when leftfielder Al Moore got on with an error on Norm Ulrich.

The Leathernecks came back with two runs in the fourth with Dick Young and Dave Colcombe scoring after getting on with singles.

They added four insurance runs in the fifth when shortstop Rudy Faust led off with a single, Bud Balzer walked, Danny Wells singled to load the bases and Jack Lennon's single drove in Faust. Dave Colcombe cleaned the bases when he doubled to score Balzer, Wells and Lennon but was thrown out at third. Bill Haywood scored the tenth run for the Marines in the sixth on Rudy Faust's fielder's choice after getting on with a single.

Don Furth went all the way for the Marines, giving up only four hits but he walked 12 and struck-out 12 as he ran his record to 8 wins against 2 losses. The Raiders used up three hurlers but starter Hal Thompson was credited with the loss.

The following day at the same Riseley Field here, the Marines fought off three University homers by Fausto Grado, George Anzai and Roy Nishioka with two of their own by Jack Lennon and Bud Balzer, his 13th of the season, to down the collegians 9-7.

The Marines scored three in the second inning on a solo circuit clout by Jack Lennon and a walk, a double and single by Wells, Haywood and Young after the University had drawn first blood in the top of the first by a single score by Francis Oshiro.

The University squad tied it up in the top of the 5th with single runs in the 4th and 5th on homers by Roy Nishioka and George Anzai, but the Leathernecks blasted across four runs in their half of the 5th as Butch Bacon, Norm Ulrich, Balzer and Lennon scored on an error, a pair of walks, a double and a single.

The see-saw game was tied up again in the top of the 7th by the University as Fausto Grado belted out a homer with Don Oura and Hank Okimoto had singled and Roy Yonemitsu on, after pinch hitter Hank Okimoto had singled and come across on Oura's single.

Rifle-Pistol Club

The regular monthly meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 14. We hope to have Mr. Alan DuEois, a prominent authority on firearms present a discussion of weapons, and demonstrate the new Remington "Nylon 66." During the business portion of the meeting, reports of committees will be aired. Recreational shooting will go at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Guns and ammo are available.

JUNIOR RIFLE CLUB

A regular monthly meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 13, in the Teen Club. All members are urged to attend.

The Basic Small-Arms Class will be conducted at 10 a.m. at the Station Pistol Range. Shooting will commence at 12 noon.

We again wish to call attention to the importance of attending these classes. Juniors receive indoctrination and training in all phases of firearms safety and handling during the course and we feel this instruction provides the basis of a life-long regard for the proper use of weapons.

Home run king Bud Balzer hit the tie-breaking blast in the home half of the 7th with nobody on and Jack Lennon doubled, went to third on Francis Oshiro's error and scored when Danny Wells singled.

Leo Gillis was credited with the win after relieving Bill Haywood in the 6th. He gave up four runs on three hits, walked two and fanned four. He now has a 7 win record against 1 loss.

The SubPac Raiders snapped jet pilot Bud Balzer's hitting streak at 12 games Saturday when they held him 0 for 3, walking him twice.

Jack Lennon and Bill Haywood were the big sticks against the University nine as they both collected 3 for 4, Lennon with a homer and a pair of doubles.

Aku-Marines

By ActSSgt. Ron Hamilton

If any members have some free time tomorrow, it would certainly be appreciated if you would drop down to the Aku Hut and help clean the place up. Let's keep the place clean as a matter of pride.

Pool tests were given Tuesday at the "E" Pool with good results. If you need a test drop down to the pool at 4 p.m. Tuesday to qualify as a diver.

We are still calling for new members. Presently the club is mostly made up of Brigade personnel and MCAS divers are needed. It's a good hobby and lots of fun plus the advantage of learning good diving habits. For the monetary minded, diving for motors and fishing rods can bring a profit.

The Aku Marines are sponsored by special services and no dues or fees are assessed. We meet every Monday evening at Building 575 at 7 p.m.

The K-Bay team won 62 of their matches and lost 34 to beat the second place team by eight games.

Sue Van Beck won the honors in the individual high games with a blazing 247 and Mary Smith took the individual high average with a consistent 152.

GONZALES WINS FLAG TOURNAMENT

ActMSgt. Jose Gonzales won top honors in the "Flag Tournament" held last Saturday at the Kaneohe Klipper Links. Gonzales ended up a few feet from the pin on the 19th green having had three strokes remaining as he finished the normal 18 hole round. This gave the winner $9.20 in merchandise.

Three players, all long hitters left the 18th green with one shot to spare. 1stSgt. S. Whittington was able to hit the longest tee shot and finished in the runner-up position and a merchandise award of $6.90. 1stSgt. A. Greer was next in length off the tee and received $4.60 as his merchandise award. Capt. W. Dollard received 4th place and $2.30.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SLATED AT KANEOHE

Wednesday morning, July 15 is the day when the "Championship of the World" will be decided at the Kaneohe MCAS Golf Course when the dependent children of personnel stationed aboard will vie for honors in a nine hole contest.

Youngsters ranging in ages between 8 and 16 will be comprising various "flights" and competing for trophies.

The Women's Division will aid in scorekeeping and will attempt to have the actual low scorers receive the awards.

Mothers and fathers will be permitted to tote the youngsters' equipment and serve as caddies for that day's play. Neutral observers only will be permitted to record the scores.

An entry fee of $1 is being assessed each entrant and will be used to supply the players with a banquet immediately following the tournament and which will consist of hot dogs, soda pop, ice cream and cake. Players are urged to sign up for the tournament and submit their entry fee prior to four o'clock Tuesday,

July 14. Spectators are welcome—free of charge!

WOMEN PLAY PRO LADIES' TOURNAMENT

The Women's Division held a Pro-Ladies' golf tournament on Tuesday, July 7, winning the "A" Flight with a 62 effort over 18 holes was Jane Hecox.

LaNelle Robson "picked up the marbles" in the "B" Flight with a 62 effort also.

The "C" Flight (9 hole group) laurels went to Marge Parnell who teamed with her professional to fire a 31 for the route.

Individual low net awards went to Vi Hoskins (88-15—733 in the "A" Flight, Polly Austin (111-36—75) in the "B" Flight, and Sib Walters (59-21—38) in the "C" Flight.

THREE WAY TIE

In the Ladies' Junior Division Pro Ladies' Tournament three lassies tied for first place in this 9 hole division with a score of 33. Georgia Roueche, Kathy Madore and Tommie Greer were dead-locked for the top award.

The individual low net in this division was won by Georgia Roueche who fired 57-19—38.

ACE OF ACES RESULTS

The Ace of Aces winner in the 18 hole group was Vi Hoskins with 88-15—73.

Sib Walters won the 9 hole division title with 59-21—38.

The lowest ten scorers (from scratch) will comprise the Hawaii Marine golf team in the 1959 inter-service golf championship which will be held on four days over four different golf courses beginning July 28 and ending July 31 here.

It is the personal opinion of this writer, that for the first time in the history of the INTER-SERVICE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP that the Hawaii Marine team will present formidable opposition. We definitely will be in the thick of contention in this year's fracas.

INDIVIDUAL CHAMPS — This group of Staff NCO Wives won top individual honors while bowling. They are (from left): Darlene Brown, high game scratch; Pat Saunders, high series with handicap; Inez Dick, high game with handicap; Helen Wayne, most improved bowler; Sue VanBeck and Fran Shepherd, high average; and Louise Ogden, high series scratch. K-BAY'S JOHNSON AMONG PAN AMERICAN MARINES

Three track and field stars from MCS, Quantico, Va., have been added to the roster of Marines on the United States team which will participate in the Pan-American Games at Chicago August 27-September 7. Headquarters Marine Corps announced recently.

Selected last week by the U. S. Olympic Committee for membership on the team were 1stLt. Albert A. Cantello, holder of the world record for javelin throw, 2ndLt. Robert Gardner, a high jumper, and 2ndLt. Alexander D. Breckenridge, a distance runner. They were named to the U. S. team after turning in stellar performances at the National AAU track and field championships held at Boulder, Colorado, June 19-20.

This brings to nine the total number of Marines named thus far to participate in the Pan-American Games. As previously announced, four boxers, one basketball star and one boxing trainer were selected last month. On the U. S. Boxing Team are: Pfc. Charles Brown of MCRD, San Diego, a featherweight; Pfc. Amos Johnson of K-Bay, a light-heavyweight, Pvt. Richard Gilford of MCB, Camp Lejeune, a welterweight, and middleweight contender ActSgt. Lewis Moses of the 3rd Marine Division. Quantico's All-Marine basketball forward, 2ndLt. John Sullivan, is a member of the U. S. Basketball Team, and MSgt. Frederick Lenn a recruiter from Pittsburgh, Pa., will serve as trainer for the boxing team.

PACIFIC PLAYOFF

With the All-Marine Baseball Championships just around the corner, August 17, there have been some plans made to hold a Pacific Ocean Area playoff here on Oahu during August 11-14 and the 3rd Marine Division will be sending a team to compete against the Hawaii Marines for the chance to play in the Big Tourney the following week.

This could or could not be good news for Coach Hap Spuhler's diamond nine. The team which will represent the Third Division will no doubt be an All-Star team picked from the top material of their three teams.

The Division has three teams competing in Okinawa competition, the second place Streaks, the Royals and the Strikers.

Bill Gulley will no doubt be either the manager or coach of the team that travels here to the 50th State for this payoff. He is now managing the Marine Royals of the 12th Marines. He has had many years of experience as a baseball manager. He was assistant manager of the Quantico squad in 1947 and '48 when they took the All-Navy Crown. He has also managed the Pendleton Scouts among others.

It is reported also, although we couldn't check this out immediately, that Tommy Wolf is in the Division and if this is true, he will undoubtedly be a member of the Division squad. He won 20 games at Pendleton last year.

Another possibility on the coaching staff as well as playing is Joe Casale who is player-manager of the second place Streaks. He handles a good many catching chores.

The Royals have a shortstop who might show good in Jack Warpole. Also there is Jim Simmons, a second baseman, who is a former Minor League player. Also other names in recent write-ups from Okinawa are outfielder Joe Blondo, Vince Funaro, who was with Pendleton last year and is a former player for the Brooklyn City College and pitchers Tom Damanski and Dave Peters.

If this contingency comes here hot and with blood-thirsty eyes for the Pacific-Ocean Playoff they could give the Hawaii Marine section leading Marines a rough time of it. This of course would kill the possibility of the Hawaii Marines vieing for that Championship pennant.

OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK

I am rather optimistic about all this though as the Hawaii Marines have showed great strength this season as in the past two seasons and now are holding on to a very comfortable four-and-a-half game lead here with 15 straight games under their belts and only 15 more games to play in local competition.

The SubPac Raiders seem to be on the long downhill slide as they dropped their 15th game of the season to the local Asahis, 4-2, at Millican Field Tuesday night. This is against 25 games won. They were riding high in the League until the Hawaii Marines got their number after being as much as 4½ and 5 games behind. Now in 15 games the Marines have just reversed the position to where they stand 4½ in front.

The Leathernecks have to play four more games against the SubPac Raiders but after this week-end they will have only service clubs to compete against, since the schedule will be finished with the civilian teams.

This gives me a rather optimistic view of things to come, they could stretch their winning streak to as many as 30 games, although this is a long shot. I'm not predicting, just doing some armchair speculating. It would be nice.

CORRECTION

Last week I said that it was Ray Phillips, who is now on the Hawaii Marine swimming team, that beat out Rocky Santiago for the All-Marine Championship in boxing. I stand corrected, it was Lee Hackney. I have had these two confused for sometime now as they look somewhat alike and as I remember their style is similar.

ROD and GUN CLUB

CANOEING, considered by many to be a lost art, is still the best way to travel to those out-of-the-way fishing spots that can't be reached by wheels or air travel. And there are still hundreds of such places in the world.

Lightweight and inexpensive when compared with other types of boats, they can travel in places where an outboard or inboard wouldn't be able to move. Despite a lot of tales to the contrary, they are easy to handle if little care and common sense are used.

Although the majority of American-built canoes are built with a stern thwart (seat) even with the gunwales, veteran canoeists will use these for back rests rather than sitting. This lowers the center of gravity and lessens the chance of tipping over. It also is easier to paddle correctly if the stern man is kneeling on the bottom.

Remember, a canoe is not a row-boat and paddles are not supposed to be used like oars. In stern or bow position the paddle should be nearly vertical as possible during the stroke; never across the chest except on ecovey.

The sternman dips his paddle close to the canoe and pulls straight back in a line with the course, ending with a slight push outward.

The bowman sets the tempo of the stroke and also pulls straight back. He should start his paddle away from the bow and draw it back in a line parallel to the keel.

Handling an empty canoe alone poses problems for the beginner, but they can be overcome if he'll kneel in the center of the canoe with his weight just in back of the center of the craft. This way the canoe sits level in the water and is less susceptible to wind drift.

Canoeing can be enjoyable and rewarding for the adventurous sportsman. There are few limitations on where you can go with one of the versatile craft.

SUBSEQUENT REGISTRATION

Following the completion of initial registration, consideration will be given to enrollment of children who have formerly attended Mokapu School and who reside in the Kainalu School district but are ineligible for initial registration.

KINDERGARTEN

In order for a child to become eligible for enrollment in the 1959-60 kindergarten semester, the child must have been born on or before Dec. 31, 1954, and meet the other requirements as outlined above.

Parents who previously registered children for kindergarten will be required to re-register their children because of the new school eligibility regulations.

TRANSPORTATION

It is anticipated that government transportation for children living off-station will be provided along the same routes as followed by the school buses this past school term. Transportation for children attending Mokapu School and living off-station will terminate upon the completion of Capehart Housing occupancy.

Kiddies Challenge Carrier's Charm

It is a well known fact that dogs do not like postmen and vice versa. It is equally true, but less noted, that children are fascinated by the men who deliver the mail.

In view of this, it is difficult for Melvin Kikano, supervisor of the K-Bay Marine Corps Air Station post office, to explain his problem.

His carriers have no trouble with dogs owned by Marine families in the housing areas. There's a sort of "co-existence" program, dogs don't bite postmen and vice versa again.

It is the children—who not only love to see the mailman come but also his pretty red, white and blue mail truck—that worry Kikano.

The youngsters can hardly wait when they see the pretty truck appear. It's becoming quite a feat for the driver to come to a halt at the curb without running over the children who swarm in the streets to greet the vehicle.

And when the driver leaves the vehicle to carry a package to a doorstep, he doubts if the "mail will go through," especially after four or five little cherubs climb into the truck to play "mailman."

Supervisor Kikano loves children, his carriers love children, but not in the streets or in U.S. mail trucks.

Red Devils Set Demonstration

Invitations were sent out this week by the Commanding Officer of MAG-13 to approximately 50 Brigade and Station officers to attend a static demonstration of the Crusader, its weapons, and its supporting equipment.

The program was prepared by the commanding officer and the officers and men of VMF-232.

Designed to acquaint officers assigned to certain billets at Kaneohe Bay with the mission and capabilities of the F8U Crusader, the program is scheduled to be held on Thursday, July 16 at 2 p.m. on the bay side of Hangar 104.

During the program, Lt. Col. L. H. Steman, VMF-232 commanding officer, will lecture on and demonstrate what is needed to keep an F8U tactically airborne. He will be assisted by squadron personnel.
