Over-all weapons system reliability, which depends greatly on ground handling and proper maintenance, is considered in judging squadron performance as well as accuracy.

The "Bullpup" is an air-to-surface missile developed originally for the Navy in order to provide attack aircraft with a weapon which could hit ground targets without coming within range of anti-aircraft fire.

The missile is guided to the target by the pilot through a radio command guidance sys-tem which provides great accuracy at extended ranges

Since its development, the missile has been adopted for use on fighter aircraft of the Marine Corps, Navy, and Air Force, and is now being produced in Europe for aircraft of the NATO nations.

God Became a Carpenter To Dignify Man's Labor

By Chaplain W. A. Lane

Monday, Sept. 7 is Labor Day.

This is a day set aside in our nation when we pay honor to the laboring man; the man who earns his living by the labor of his hands and the sweat of his face.

The idea is not to detract from anyone who does not labor with his hands, but is to specifically honor that great host of men who gain their livelihood by the labor of their hands.

Accident-Free Holiday Urged for K-Bayites

Most K-Bayites will take off from their regular duties starting today in observance of Labor Day, Monday.

However, Al Roth, Station afety Officer, reminds K-layites that accidents will be orking full time if automoile drivers, swimmers, ampers, boatmen and hobbysis are careless and foolhardy uring the three-day holiday.

We are faced with another hree-day holiday weekend which we hope K-Bayites will keep accident-free.

"Marines were commended by Gen. Wallace M. Greene r., CMC, for spending the July weekend without casualties," Mr. Roth said.

"Nevertheless, we should at forget that there were 510 eaths from traffic accidents, 147 persons drowned and 95 be the continue its safe record his weekend," he added.

This year's squad is led by Sgt. R. W. Bradley.

The 26 year-old sergeant first entered the Marine Corps in 1954, and was released from active duty in 1958 after being promoted to Sergeant E-4.

He again entered the Marine Corps in 1961 and was appointed a PFC. Sgt. Bradley served as a military policeman at Camp Pendleton, Calif., until being transferred to the Brigade in January 1962.

Upon his arrival at K-Bay, as a Lance Corporal, Sgt. Bradley was assigned as a fire team leader with the battalion's "F" Company, and competed with the company's entry for Top Squad in 1963.

Sgt. Bradley said, squad is in top physical condition. This is an important requirement for the Quantico competition. We are confident that our physical condition, coupled with the rigid training program we have conducted, will make us tough competitors.

The squad is scheduled to depart K-Bay Sept. 15, for the 7th Annual Squad Combat Practice Competition to be held Sept. 21-23 at Quantico, Winners of the Corps "Top Squad" title will receive awards during the Evening Parade at Marine Barracks, 8th & "1", Washington, D.C., Sept. 25.

Umpires from Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, will grade the eight competing squads.

Firing of the M14 rifle will play an important role in the selection of the Corps' "Best." Other points that umpires will grade on are squad fire control and individual accuracy.

Also scored in the Quantico competition is practical application in helicopter lift procedures, combat orders, formations, defensive combat, and night patrolling.

When grading the squads, the umpires will consider the squad leader's ability to control and co-ordinate his fire teams under simulated emergency battle-field conditions

K-Bay golfers are sharpen-ing up their putting and lengthening their drives in preparation for the Klipper Golf Club Championship tournament to be held Sept. 18, 19, 25 and 26.

All qualifying rounds will be played the first weekend and then the top eight golfers in each flight will vie for the tro-phies the following weekend.

lay in the tournament will be divided into four flights according to handicaps. The flights will be: Champion-ship, 0-6; "A" Flight, 7-12; "B" Flight, 13-18; and "C" Flight, 19-25.

Handicaps will be established by the Klipper Course Golf Committee as of Sept. Temporary handicaps will be refigured as of Sept. 15.

The tournament will consist of 72-holes of medal play with full handicaps. USGA rules will govern the tournament. Local rules will be posted prior to play.

Green fees must be paid by individual participants. Par ticipants must also furnish their own equipment. Special Services has a limited number of sets of clubs available.

All active duty and retired personnel are eligible to play in the tournament. All play in the tourney will be in four-somes. Tee times will be posted in the clubhouse.

Applications for the tourna-ment are available at the clubhouse and must be returned prior to 4:30 p.m., Sept. 15. Winners in each flight will receive appropriate prizes. The winner of the Championship flight will have his name inscribed on the Club's perpetual trophy.

End of Summer Swim Program

Red Cross Presents Cards To Graduating Swimmers

Graduation ceremonies were held at the Station Swimming Pool Tuesday for the Red Cross Summer Swim Program.

Instructors for the swimming program provided a swimming show depicting the events that took place throughout the Summer.

The morning events were started off with a demonstration of the first day in a swim-ming class. Following this was a demonstration of the nine styles of swimming.

Precision diving and clewn diving were on the lighter side of the program. The instructors also showed life saving methods during a simulated accident using a litter basket in the water. They also showed three types of artificial respiration. More than 800 students received Red Cross Swimming Cards during the summer. Participants ranged in age from 5 to 17 years of age. Two Marines completed the Summer Swimming course.

A series of swimming lessons also were held for mothers. The summer classes were for beginners, advanced beginners, intermediate, advance swim-mers. There were also courses in Junior and Senior life saving. Sgt. Charles Vorce was the overall director of the summer program. Victor B. Fairless, Assistant Field Director for K-Bay's Red Cross Chapter, was the program's administrator.

AFPS Football Series Rates Squads; Pro League Contests Called Toss-Ups

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of three articles on the 1964 Foot-ball Season provided by the Armed Forces Press Service.)

The way professional foot-ball is played today, the only thing certain is that nothing is certain. This has been the pro format for a decade and was never more evident than last season.

In both the National Football League and the newer but firm-ly established American Football League, the 1964 forecast again points to a season with tight division races, volatile offenses, interesting defenses, packed houses and the "guarantee" that somebody will upset somebody every weekend.

It's the uncertainty in the championship races of both leagues that breeds excite-ment and indicates another record year at the gate.

There are the favorites, of course, but who wants to pre-dict the Chicago Bears a sure-winner in the NFL, or the San Diego Chargers a shoo-in in the

O-Wives To Hold Luncheon Tuesday

By Helen Lo Prete

As the last small, tanned and calloused feet were crammed into shoes, and the school bus rumbled slowly over the horizon with our "spirited sprouts" safely in tow, a weak but joy-ous cry of "HOORAY" emanated from the throats of many a summer-weary mother!

We wouldn't trade them for the world, but isn't it great to look forward to regular routine again? (And not hear the refrigerator door and close ALL DAY LONG?)

A word to all dieters. Come Tuesday, FORGET the calories! Lose your head, throw caution to the wind and perhaps skip breakfast, because here is the menu for our luncheon:

Roast squab with macadamia nut stuffing, rice pilaff, broccoli, rolls and butter, island sherbert and iced tea and coffee. All this for a mere $1.75. You can't beat it.

The Hawaiian Fashion Show will be presented after lunch with designs and ideas by Noel. O-Wives will model. and if you malihinis really want to see how graceful the hula can be, watch Helen Dietz perform. Poetry in

Our program committee has some fine treats in store for us his year as you can judge by the first luncheon — which is a sneaky way of reminding you to try to pay your membership dues Tuesday.

See you on the Lower Lanai!

Services spent approximately $6,500 for the improvements.

Maccine Titus, chief librarian, acted as decorator and coordinator for the project. She personally designed the three tiki floor lamps and had them made in Honolulu.

LtCol. R. L. Gover Jr., Special Services Officer, said, "We are all very proud of the job Miss Titus did, and we hope that everyone appreciates the efforts long enough to keep the lobby looking as beautiful as it does now.

The walls of the lobby are adorned with a Trojan war horse, horse-heads, masks, and outrigger canoe.

Furnishings include a large round couch, a square couch, a buddy couch, eight occasional chairs, coffee and end tables, and Navy blue drapes.

Floors are of Marine blue tile with the Marine Corps emblem set in red tile in the cehter of the lobby.

Colors are predominately kelly-green, taffy, turquoise and a shade of orange.

THEATRE LOBBY REDECORATED—Three theatre-goers "take it easy" in the newly redecorated lobby of the Station's Theatre 1. The decorations were completed under the direction of Maccine Titus, head librarian, whose sketches were the basis for the renovation.
