Cold Weather Unnecessary To Capture Christmas Spirit

By Chaplain G. S. Thilking

The word "Christmas" is in our thoughts and on our lips. Our plans are influenced by the annual re-occurrence of Christmas Day and related seasonal activities. Some of us are going to the Mainland on leave.

For most of us remaining in Hawaii there will be a holiday, if not a holy day. There will be gifts, decorations, greeting cards from old friends, worship services, and lots of food.

These are some of the externals which make this a memorable time of the year.

You must have said or have heard someone say, "I just cannot get the Christmas Spirit over here!"

What is probably meant by this statement is that the externals are different here than those often associated with Christmas, such as snow and cold weather.

The real Christmas Spirit, however, is something intangible and does not depend on these externals.

To capture "the Christmas Spirit", the Christmas Spirit must capture us. We must stand in spirit at the manger of the little Christ Child. He alone can give us the real Christmas Spirit.

May you have a Merry Christmas because you let the Christ into your life during this Christmas season.

"Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child, Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled, Within my heart, that it may be A quiet chamber kept for Thee."

—Dr. Martin Luther

Course Trains Marines To 'Fill-In' for Chaplains

A Leadership Training Course designed to train Marines as qualified "fill-ins" for Chaplains graduated 18 students Monday.

According to Cdr. J. H. Lampe, Brigade Chaplain, the purpose of the course is to train the student to take the place of the Chaplain should anything happen to the Chaplain while in the field.

The 12-week course instructs the Marines on the life of Christ, and is conducted by various chaplains and ministers.

The classes are based on material from the Bible and Biblical films from Pearl Harbor.

Members of the class also go on at least two retreats where they get to practice what they have learned. They also have an opportunity to conduct a class themselves.

"The next class has not yet been scheduled," said Chaplain Lampe, "however, all interested applicants should contact their Chaplain for further information on the Leadership Training Course."

The students who graduated from the course Monday are Maj. W. S. Travis, 1stLt. W. A. Julian, 2dLt. R. J. Squire, MSgt. M. D. Savage, 1stSgt. R. W. Bohne, Sgts. A. A. LaFever, R. C. Jones, B. E. Kearney and T. S. Oliver, Cpl. Joseph Carlross, LC.

Awa Lau Wahine Slates 'Young Set' Christmas Party

By Helen Lo Prete

Grab a few minutes during this frantic season to catch your breath and learn about the "Berry Bash" the Awa Lau Wahine has planned for the "junior set" at Christmas.

Junior in this instance defined as anyone 18 years or older, plus those attending college. If you're fortunate enough to be blessed with a sprout who is only 16 or 17 but in college, he or she also qualifies. Junior bachelor officers welcome too.

The "Berry Bash" is a swinging dance expressly for the young crowd and will be held on Sunday, Dec. 27, at the COM, Pearl Harbor. They can watusi, jerk, or plain old fox trot (Mother, REALLY!) to the rock and roll music of

O-Club Candlelight Dining To Feature German Dish

BY CAPT. WILL ISBELL

This happy hour thing is getting out of hand—with the big crowds we have been getting for the past couple of weeks we have offered some ridiculously low price specials and still haven't gone broke, soooo... this time we are going to actually try giving the stuff away!

That's right — Every half hour between 4 and 6:30 p.m. we are going to give a bottle of corn squeezins or a case of malt beverage to some lucky club member. The only catch is you have to be there to win.

If you haven't tried the new indoor steak night do so tonight. We will have the ever popular Barons of Basin Street from 8 to midnight. Their smooth Dixieland beat is reminiscent of New Orleans at Mardi Gras time.

You asked for it—here it is. The Chef's Special at Candle Light Dining tomorrow evening will be that delicious German dinner you liked so well last time. At $1.90 a plate you can't miss.

Steak eaters don't worry—we still have those savory king and queen size steaks.

Also tomorrow evening we are introducing George Storz at the piano in the Capt. Cook bar. This boy has a fine repertoire and will play your favorite tunes the way you like to hear them.

Again this Sunday we have brunch from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and a Roast Beef buffet from 6 to 8 p.m. with Cy and Ann to play for you.

A big mahalo to our many friends who turned out for the O-Wives Dinner-Dance. We will be forever grateful to the O-Wives club for those beautiful decorations.

Get your reservations in now for the gala New Years Eve Party — they are going fast. In addition to all the other features of this big event we have a floor show lined up that should delight everyone.

Be sure to stop by the Package Store and see some of the Holiday price specials on package goods that Kats is offering.

BARONS OF BASIN STREET—The six-piece dixieland band, The Barons of Basin Street, will perform at the O-Club tonight. The Barons are scheduled to play from 8 to midnight.

"The Exotics" from 8:30 to 12:30.

To keep things hopping, the "Surfers" will "break it up" during intermission. Dependents from all services who fit into the proper age bracket are urged to attend this big wing ding.

Tickets are $1.25 each and are available at the officers clubs at Pearl Harbor and here on the station. Why not surprise those young adults by tying a pair of tickets on the Christmas tree?

Required dress is coat and tie for the boys and "party" dresses for the wahines.

Those who were unable to make the scene at last Thursday's Awa Lau Wahine brunch really missed an unusual and enjoyable time.

The entertainment our gals provided was an overwhelming smash! The water ballet was better than ever despite the uncooperative weather that made "instant Aquamarines" out of most of us! Not as talented of course, but almost as wet! Nothing, however, dampened the precision and grace of Norma and her girls.

If ever you are asked to name the best looking and sounding singing group, answer with pride: MCAS O' Wives Chorus! They were tremendous and second to none in their performance.

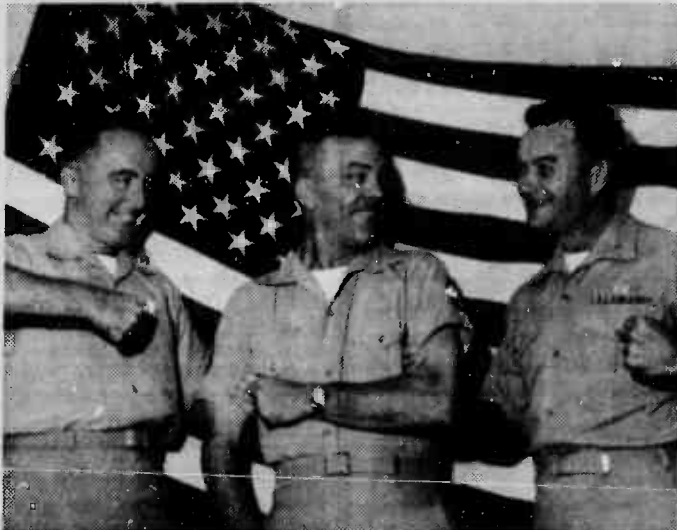

Special thanks to Ginger Odom who directed our sweet-singing birds of youth!
