

Station's Reorganization Changes Personnel Titles

As a result of the Station's reorganization June 1, many Station billets have changed titles, perhaps leaving personnel completely bewildered when someone answers their phone calls using the new title.

A conversation between two clerks might sound something like this.

"Good morning sir, Services Office, PFC. Smith speaking."

"Hello, this is Corporal Jones from Headquarters Squadron, may I speak to the S-1 Officer."

"I'm sorry, this is the Services Office."

"What, this isn't S-1?" But I've called this number for nearly two years now and its been S-1, — and Smith, you and I've called each other nearly everyday for a year. You've always worked in the S-1 Office."

"Yes, but we've been reorganized."

"Oh! - REORGANIZATION! What's your section called now?"

"Services Office."

"Services Office, well what's the OIC's title now?"

"Services Officer."

"Services Officer—then may I speak to him, please?"

Under the new organization, the S-1 office, headed by LtCol. L. J. Oltmer, receives the billet title, Services Officer.

The former title of S-2/Inspector has been changed to Security Officer, with LtCol. Raymond MacArthur filling the billet.

LtCol. D.L. Fenton, former S-3 officer, has moved over to Executive Officer of the Station, while the S-4 has changed title to Planning/Inspector Office, with LtCol. Henry Waryek named to the job of Planning/Inspector Officer.

Airfield Operations have also joined the ranks of the redesignated, with LtCol. R.L. Gover Jr., being named to the Operations Officer billet which now includes many duties of the former S-3. Colonel Gover's previous job of Station Special Services Officer was assumed by Maj. A.D. Albert, former Assistant Special Services Officer.

Other new personnel assignments are: Maj. F. J. Heath, Provost Marshal; Maj. W. J. O'Brien, Asst. Special Services Officer; Maj. W. E. Rudolph, Personnel Officer; Maj. E. W. Whitten, Asst. Operations Officer; Maj. F. P. Williams, Jr., Asst. Operations Officer; Capt. P.F. Cameron, Jr., Executive Officer, H&HS, MCAS; and Capt. F. C. Lewis, Search and Rescue Officer.

Affecting Military Personnel

Secretary Paul Establishes Study Group To Examine Current Consumer Practices

WASHINGTON(AFPS)—Proposals are being examined by an inter-service study group concerning present consumer credit practices affecting military personnel.

The group was established by Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower), Norman S. Paul. Heading the group is Mr. Stephen S. Jackson a senior staff member in Secretary Paul's office.

One proposal being considered is the requirement of certification as a DOD approved financial company for guidance of servicemen.

Secretary Paul said some of these possible requirements include: compliance with a code of ethics and standards of business conduct to be developed after research and coordination with other Federal agencies including the President's Committee on Consumer Interests; clear concise disclosure of all costs, interest or otherwise, included in the financing transaction; and the use of standard forms for the financing contract or instrument, which must not provide a penalty for prepayment of principal or interest, a waiver of rights or benefits under the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, or any similar provision prejudicial to the borrower.

Another proposal mentioned by Secretary Paul would require the lender and the borrower to execute a DOD form which would require an accurate annual interest rate and other pertinent data to spell out truth in lending.

Secretary Paul said that opposite each such an entry on the form would be comparable information pertaining to a loan from a Federal Credit Union.

"If the creditor refuses to execute such a form," the secretary explained, "he would be advised that the military service would not render him any assistance with respect to recovering a default of payment on the part of the serviceman."

The matter of denying the serviceman an allotment unless this form is executed is also under consideration, Secretary Paul said.

It was pointed out by the secretary that any proposals of the study group would have to be coordinated within the Defense Department as well as with other executive agencies involved in development of administration policy.

Fourth of July Means More Than Fireworks and Picnics

To some people, July 4 means only a day off from work, a lot of fireworks, picnics, and perhaps a long week-end for a trip. Such people don't think of the real meaning of our proudest secular holiday. On this day in 1776, the United States of America adopted the Declaration of Independence. Thus, the occasion truly warrants a holiday to commemorate the birth of our nation.

The standards set forth in this statement of independence, signed by the Continental Congress, have been the foundation of our American way of life for the past 189 years.

If our forefathers had failed to face the call for a free nation and had not introduced the Declaration of Independence, what sort of country would we be living in today? We can come very close to answering that question by asking another. What kind of country would we now live in if our leaders did not continually challenge the threat of Communism? What would happen to the world if the United States didn't actively further the cause of freedom, both for herself and for her allies?

We need look no further than the nearest depressed, strife-torn nation under Communist domination for the answer.

On July 4, we should all take a moment off from our busy holiday activities and thank God we have had great leaders such as those who signed the Declaration of Independence and those who fight to preserve freedom today.

It was an inspiring and solemn occasion when the founding fathers gave their pledge, evidenced by their signatures:

"And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor."

It is pledges such as these which have kept America a free and independent country.

By our service in the armed forces, we have actively joined in this pledge and are dedicating our lives to it. We should, therefore, be especially aware of the true significance of the Fourth of July celebration. (AFPS)

Husbands, Wives Respect Each Other This Rule Adds Up to Happy Marriage

By Chaplain H. E. Austin

It takes a heap of living in a house to make it a home; A heap of sun and shadow and sometimes you've got to roam

Before you appreciate the things you left behind.

And hunger for them somehow with them always in your mind.

For if it's a home there's got to be a heap of living in it.

This is a great deal. However, one in every five marriages ends in a divorce court and closely affiliated with this is juvenile delinquency. And someone hastens to ask, "Is there not some way to make marriage immune to bitter-quarreling?" The answer is "Yes."

Herewith I would like to suggest ten commandments for husbands and wives.

WIVES

1. Respect your husband's point of view.
2. Keep in mind that he is an individual, with individual likes and dislikes.
3. Look up to him. Show him as much consideration as possible.
4. Give him plenty of freedom. Don't try to be a clinging vine.
5. Show your gratitude for the many hours he spends at work each day to help support you.
6. Give him active proof of your appreciation.
7. Tell him frequently how much you love him.
8. When he comes home tired and cranky, comfort him.
9. Overlook bursts of temper, and try to help him laugh away his anger.

10. Don't try to mold him to your pattern.

HUSBANDS

1. Resolve today to stop nagging your wife immediately and forever.
2. Make love to her as often and as sincerely as you can.
3. Spend at least three nights a week at home with her, and take her out with you as often as you can.
4. Consider her feelings and let dead issues rest in peace.
5. Refrain from saying, "I told you so" when your judgment proves superior to hers.
6. Stop losing your head swearing in front of her.

7. Praise her for her little kindnesses and take a sincere interest in her personal problems.

8. Try to develop common interests with her.

9. Be thoughtful.

10. Never let a day pass without telling her how much you appreciate the way she takes care of you and your home.

Above all let me say to husbands and wives, the one indispensable requirement which covers all commandments is simply this, "BE EASY TO LIVE WITH."

Summer Fun—A Time When Keikis Enjoy the Day

Mix six weeks of activities, 324 eager youngsters, and 26 advisors; well you won't come up with a gourmet's delight, but you will have a lot of Summer Fun.

Last Wednesday the Summer Fun Program, sponsored by the K-Bay Youth Activities

Association (KBYAA), started its various classes and activities for dependent children aboard the Air Station.

Summer Fun is under the direction of Miss Shirley Yamashiro.

The program features many of the activities offered to both Marines and their dependents on the base.

The main headquarters of the Summer Fun Program is the Mokapu School building.

Here the youngsters meet at 8 a.m. every week-day morning to start their daily activities and are returned to the school at the end of the day.

Each Monday, the children enjoy a field trip to various areas around the island of Oahu.

Transportation is furnished on these field trips by Station Transportation.

The classes have visited such places as Hanauma Bay, the Honolulu Zoo, the Bishop Museum, the Brownie Perfume Factory, and Holsum Bakery.

Miss Yamashiro stated that there are many, many more and exciting trips to be scheduled during the second session coming up.

The other four days are devoted to classroom art work; swimming, which is made in order that the Summer Fun Committee may plan for the second session. No late registrations will be accepted.

Registration fees for the Summer Fun Program are $7.50 for officers and warrant officers; $5.50 for Staff NCOs and $3.50 for sergeants and below. All registration fees must be paid at the time of registration.

For further information concerning registration or the Summer Fun Program, call Miss Yamashiro at 258-73232.

GOES FOR A STRIKE—Rory Cahoon, who is 12 years old, attempts to throw a "perfect" strike at the Station Bowling Alley as his group learns the technique of bowling. Instruction in the delivering of the ball, stance, and the proper method of scoring are taught during the classes which are put on by the Summer Fun Program.

IT'S A FLOWER WITH MEASLES—Miss Christine Heitzler, senior aids instructor (standing center), looks at a "masterpiece" of art work in the painting class put on by the Summer Fun Program. In the painting class the "students" have the opportunity to express themselves through applying their ideas on "canvas."

held everyday except Monday; archery; workouts in the gym; hiking; library work; bowling and visits to other various areas of interest on the station.

The age groups entered in the Summer Fun Program vary from the kindergarten group up to the sixth grade level.

When asked for opinions on what participants of the Program enjoy most, Cindy Bargaheiser, who is six years old, said "I like swimming and the trips better. I am taught how to swim and I like to go to other places."

Mike Kelly, nine years old, said, "I like archery and bowling best. I like to make strikes and shoot at the target to see if I can hit it."

Susan Decker, 11 years old, said, "I find the field trips educational and fun. I enjoyed going to the Brownie Perfume Factory the best because they gave me 7 different kinds of perfume."

Navy Cdr. H. E. Thurman Jr., President of the KBYAA, stated, "Many parents and children have indicated that they are enjoying this year's activities even more than they did last year because the variety offered is much greater."

The first session of the Summer Fun Program closes July 9. The second session will commence immediately afterward.

Registration for the second session will be held on July 1-3 from 10 a.m. to noon at the Mokapu Elementary School.

New personnel aboard the Air Station have the opportunity to register their children and the parents whose children are already enrolled, may re-register at this time.

Secretary of the Navy Visits III MAF During Six-Day Tour in the Far East

GySgt. John Babyack Jr.
DA NANG, VIETNAM—The Honorable Paul H. Nitze, Secretary of the Navy, completed a two-day visit to units of the III Marine Amphibious Force recently as part of his six-day tour of Navy and Marine Corps units in the Far East.

Mr. Nitze and his staff Four Jet Squadrons Hit VC with Everything But Headache Pills

DA NANG, VIETNAM, June 24—Marine jets hit the Viet Cong today with everything but aspirin tablets to cure the headaches they are causing the enemy.

Three Chu Lai-based squadrons—Marine Attack Squadrons (VMA)-214, 255 and 311—flew 48 sorties, expending 17 tons of bombs, about 50 rockets and 300 rounds of cannon fire. They destroyed six buildings, damaged 13 and riddled a camouflaged sampan, the latter in a stream near Da Nang.

Da Nang-based Phantoms of Marine Fighter Attack Squadron (VMFA)-513 triggered 16,000 pounds of bombs and about 80 rockets to smash buildings and troop concentrations near Pleiku, to the south, and Hue Phu Bai, to the north.

7 Fourth Regiment Marines Receive Purple Heart for Actions in Vietnam

PFC. L. W. Schlegel
CHU LAI, VIETNAM—Seven Marines serving here with the Fourth Regimental Landing Team, 3d Marine Division, received the Purple Heart Medal recently.

PFC. Rafael Rivera of New York City and a member of "C" Co., Fourth Marines, was wounded in the right arm by Viet Cong rifle fire May 25.

Even with a wounded arm, he returned fire and killed the man who shot him. Rivera's medal was presented by LtCol. R. J. Perrich, battalion commander.

Six Marines from 2d Bat-were greeted upon their arrival at Da Nang Airbase by MajGen. Lewis W. Walt, Commanding General, III Marine Amphibious Force and the 3d Marine Division, BrigGen. Keith B. McCutcheon, Commanding General, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, and members of their staffs.

After a command orientation at III Marine Amphibious Force headquarters, Secretary Nitze and his party were taken to the Third Marine Regimental area where they received a briefing on current operations.

An aerial tour of the Third Marines area in a helicopter came next with one stop at the village of Le My in the 2d Battalion's area.

With the landing of the helicopters in a nearly dried out rice paddy, the Secretary set out on foot for an escorted tour of Le My which until recently was Viet Cong controlled. He viewed enemy bunkers, damage caused during the village's capture from VC forces, and punji sticks—sharpened bamboo stakes set in holes in the ground or in the bushes so unsuspecting individuals might step on or impale themselves on the stakes.

An in-flight briefing and an aerial tour of the Naval Component Command port facilities came next. An operational and intelligence briefing at 3d Marine Division headquarters rounded out the first day of Secretary Nitze's visit.

The following morning the Secretary was taken by helicopter to the Chu Lai sector where he was briefed on Marine Aircraft Group-12's operation, improvement being performed in and around the Chu Lai airfield by Seabees of the 30th Naval Construction Regiment, and current operations of the Fourth Marine Regiment.

BrigGen. M. E. Carl

Former 1st Marine Brigade CG Gives Views Of Viet Cong Fighting Ability, U.S. Marines

"I cannot predict what will happen on the political front, but unless the war in Vietnam ends through negotiation, we should be prepared to see Marines there for an extended period."

BrigGen. M. E. Carl

With these words, BrigGen. M.E. Carl, former CG of the 1st Marine Brigade, voiced his opinion concerning the commitment of Marine forces to Vietnam.

Speaking in an interview with Sgt. Jim McPhillips of 1st MAW ISO at Iwakuni, Japan, where the General recently assumed duties as assistant wing commander, General Carl stated that "the Vietnamese are now convinced that the United States is behind them with something more than just money and talk."

According to the General,

BRONZE STAR WINNER—LtCol. Joseph E. Muir, 3d Marine Division operations officer, receives the Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V" from Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze in a surprise presentation ceremony June 17 at Da Nang, Vietnam. Secretary Nitze was in Da Nang while on a two-day visit of III MAF units.

the introduction of large Marine units into the war in Vietnam has done much to boost the morale of both the Vietnamese fighting men and civilians.

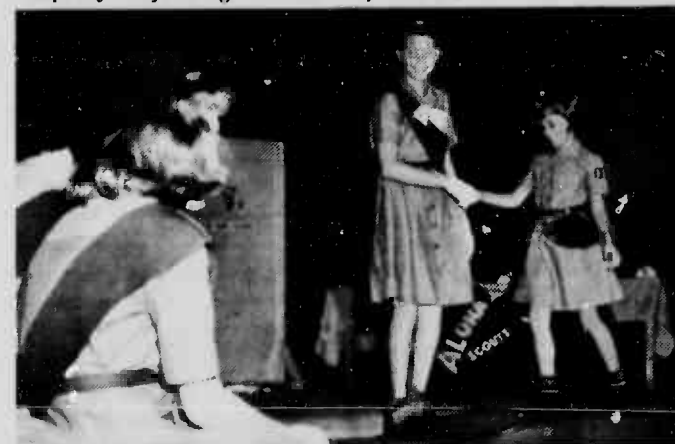

In reference to the effect of the war on Marines in Vietnam, General Carl said, "It's a different type of war than we've been accustomed to fighting in the past and there are certain problems."

"Temperature and humidity are high, much worse than most of the Marines have ever encountered before. The terrain is foreign. But they are getting acquainted quickly and rapidly adjusting to the situation."

The soft-spoken General Carl also gave his opinion about Viet Cong fighting ability. "The fact that Viet Cong are operating as guerrillas gives them a certain advantage. Furthermore, they don't observe the rules of warfare that both Republic of Vietnam and Marines fight by: this in itself gives them a certain edge," he said.

"But as far as being good fighters, I don't think, as an individual, a Viet Cong is any better than a well-trained Vietnamese. Certainly, he is no match for a well-trained Marine," the General emphasized.

Leatherneck Nine Topples UH Rainbows In HIBL College-Service Tournament Debut

By PFC S.J. Preisler
Sports Editor

The Hawaii Marine baseball team rode the four-hit pitching of right hander Dave Tallmadge and a four-run third inning rally to a 6-2 victory over the University of Hawaii, Monday night, in the opening round of the College-Service Tournament at Honolulu Stadium.

Center-fielder Ray Lara bounced a ground-rule, two-run double into the right field stands and catcher Jerry Blackwell followed with a booming two-run triple to account for the scoring in the third inning rally.

Joe Gomez had opened the inning with a single and "Butch" Bacon followed with another one. Dick Mahoney then laid down a perfect bunt to load the bases. UH starter Dennis Tshuhako exited to the showers as Lara's blow chased Gomez and Bacon home.

Tshuhako's reliever, Frank Fukunaga was greeted by Blackwell and the big HM backstop pasted his first pitch to the deepest part of the outfield sending Mahoney and Lara home. Fukunaga closed the door the rest of the way, though, as he didn't allow another hit while striking out 11 in seven complete innings of work.

Tallmadge was never in serious trouble as he allowed the Rainbows single tallies in the second and seventh innings. The lanky fast-baller mixed his pitches well and gave up just one extra-base hit, a triple, to Gil Apisa in the seventh.

The win was the second in a row for the 'Necks who broke a four-game losing streak in HIBL play last Thursday night by downing Army 6-5 in 10 innings at Redlander Field.

Gomez raced home with the winning run in the tenth on a pair of Army errors. The 'Neck shortstop had singled, his third hit of the game, and moved to second on a sacrifice by Bacon.

Mahoney then hit a shot that Army's Bob Lilley let go through him at third and Gomez kept right on going after reaching third. The throw from left field was in time but catcher Bob Hundley failed to hang on to it and Gomez was in safely.

Gomez, Bacon and Mahoney had hit successive singles in the first inning to give the 'Necks an early 1-0 lead. They scored three times in the fourth to take a 4-2 lead on singles by Gil Dehoyos, Gary Bastida and John Reese, and a double by Gomez.

Army grabbed a 5-4 lead off reliever Jim Helms in their

J. Wagoner Captures Klipper Crown; Low-Net Honors Won by R. Emerson

Jim Wagoner, firing steady 73 and 76 rounds, emerged as the new Klipper Club Champion, Sunday at the K-Bay Klipper Golf Course as he won low-gross honors in the tournament's championship flight. He finished just a scant stroke ahead of Howard Culberth, who finished with a 150 total.

Wagoner, a Navy CWO-2, had built his one strike margin on Saturday when he fired 73 and Culberth, a retired Navy LtCdr., fired 74. The two leaders matched 76s on Sunday.

Sixteen year-old Rick Emerson won the tournament's overall low-net honors. A nine handicapper, Emerson carded 67-70—137 in the championship flight. By taking the overall low-net title, he relinquished the title in his flight to GySgt. John Woodlief who carded 141.

LtCol. Stephen Polansky, USMC (Ret.), was the winner in the "A" flight with a low-net total of 137. He fired a sizzling 65 on Saturday and came back with 72 Sunday. Sgt. Jerry Graham was "A" flight runner-up with 71-69—140.

"B" flight action produced a "sudden death" play-off when Capt. Lyell H. Holmes and Sgt. W. C. Hough finished the 36-holes in a 139 deadlock. Captain Holmes won the play-off on the first hole.

The Captain had held a two-stroke lead after the first day of play, but zoomed from a 64 to a 75 on Sunday. Sergeant Hough who fired 66 Saturday, followed with a 73 on Sunday to force the play-off.

ACCIDENT ABOUT TO HAPPEN—Cardinal catcher Pat Rosenthal charges at the sliding Ricky Musgrove of the Cubs during last Saturday's game at Joe E. Brown Field. Musgrove was safe on the play and the Cards continued on to down the Cubs and cinch the Minor League pennant in the K-Bay Little League.

ALL-LEATHERNECK—Carl Hunter, 6'2" guard-forward on last season's Hawaii Marine basketball team, was presented with an award recently for being selected to Leatherneck Magazine's All-Marine team. Maj. L. O. Davis, H&HS CO, presented Hunter with a certificate from the magazine. It was the second year in a row that Hunter was cited for the honor by Leatherneck.

Indians, Yanks Tie for Major Lead; Cards Cinch Minor League Pennant

The Indians climbed back into a first place tie with the Yankees last Friday as they drubbed the former league leaders 13-2 in a K-Bay Little League make-up game at Jerry Coleman field.

Tim Carr, hard-throwing Indian right-hander, held the Yanks to four hits while his teammates blasted three Yank hurlers for 17.

The win was the second of three weekend victories for the Indians as they whipped the Tigers 14-2 on Thursday and the Dodgers 15-0 on Saturday.

Johnny Byars and Jim Macklin teamed up for a seven hitter against the Tigers with Byars gaining credit for the win.

Joe Funk led Indian hitters with three-for-three while Ed Hershey chipped in a pair of hits and two runs-batted-in. Allan Estergall and Jay Traut parried hits for the Tigers.

Against the Dodgers, the Indians hung up an "eight spot" in the fourth inning to break up a 2-0 ball game.

"Butch" Tharp fired a two-hitter for the tribe and the Dodgers' George Bushnell coined both of them. Tharp and Carr had four hits apiece to pace Indian hitters.

The Yankees stayed with the Indians by capturing their other two weekend games. They edged the Orioles 4-3, in extra-innings Thursday, and then bested the Tigers 6-1 on Saturday.

Garland Price raced home with the winning run in the last of the seventh against the Orioles to give himself the win in relief of Jim Pomier.

All three Oriole runs came on the strength of a three-for-four performance by Randy Strahan. Strahan's three hits included a two-run homer.

A three-run first inning gave the Yanks an early cushion against the Tigers and they hung on despite the sharp relief pitching of Jay Traut.

Traut relieved Ed Gover in the fourth and pitched shutout ball the rest of the way. He struck out five in three innings of work.

Gover, Traut, and David Youngblood were the only Tigers to hit safely in the ball game.

In Minor League action, the Cardinals cinched the pennant as they moved 4½ games in front of the Giants with just four games remaining to be played.

The Cards upended the Cubs 21-12 while the Giants were bowing to the cellar-dwelling Red Sox 6-3 in what proved to be the cinching games Saturday. Danny Nichols rapped a triple and two singles in pacing the Cardinals.

Dave Swetland provided the heroics in the Red Sox' upset, turning a route-going performance on the mound while striking out 11 and walking just one. Bill Rudolph had three-for-three for the Giants in a losing cause.

The Cubs bounced back from the Saturday drubbing by downing the Red Sox 12-8 on Monday night. Don Dempsy and Bob Satterfield kept the Sox in check despite some shaky support.

Marauder Nine Commits Five Errors As Pearl Harbor Scores 6-0 Victory

Pearl Harbor scored five unearned runs in coasting to a 6-0 victory over the K-Bay Marauders last Saturday at Riseley Field. The loss gave K-Bay a 3-2 record in the Senior Division of the Armed Forces Youth Association Baseball League.

The Jr. Admirals broke up a scoreless pitching duel between Marauder John Funk and lefty Mike Reavis of Pearl Harbor in the fifth inning when they scored on a walk, a wild pitch and a base hit.

Five K-Bay errors, coupled with three Pearl Harbor hits accounted for four more runs in the next two innings. Reavis, meanwhile, was limiting the Marauders to just three hits.

K-Bay threatened to score on only two occasions. Ed Dufrene was stranded on third after reaching there on an overthrow in the third inning. Jerry Funk was the only other Marauder to reach third, as Reavis loaded the bases with walks in the seventh before retiring the side.

Bulletin

The Hawaii Marines scored nine runs in the fifth inning, enroute to a 11-3 victory Wednesday night at Flyer Stadium, to eliminate Hickam from the College-Service Tournament.

OUT AT FIRST—"Marty" Pellerin, the Pearl Harbor catcher, is out at first base as K-Bay's Joe Rovanssek stretches for the throw from short-stop Doug Austin. The action took place in last Saturday's game at Riseley Field in which Pearl Harbor bumped the Marauders 6-0.

Station Special Services Newsletter

To All Special Services Facilities patrons:

From now on you find the information previously published in our Newsletter slated here in the Windward Marine, I hope this will result in more efficient dissemination of information. My thanks to the Windward Marine staff for inviting us.

A serious situation has developed in Special Services which you all should be aware of. The Marine Corps Exchange, which picks up the tab for a good proportion of our activities, has had a drop in business which has resulted in a drop in Special Services revenue. CMC has been asked for assistance but for the next few weeks at least, some activities will have to be curtailed. The Library is a specific example. It is my sincere desire that our facilities provide the best possible service to our Marines and their dependents and we will do the best we can with what we have. You will be kept advised in this column of the Special Services situation.
