

Combat Camera Weekly

Regional Command-East Afghanistan

14 JUNE – 20 JUNE 2014

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Security Forces discuss security operations after the run-off elections during a press conference at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag/ Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Security Forces discuss security operations after the run-off elections during a press conference at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

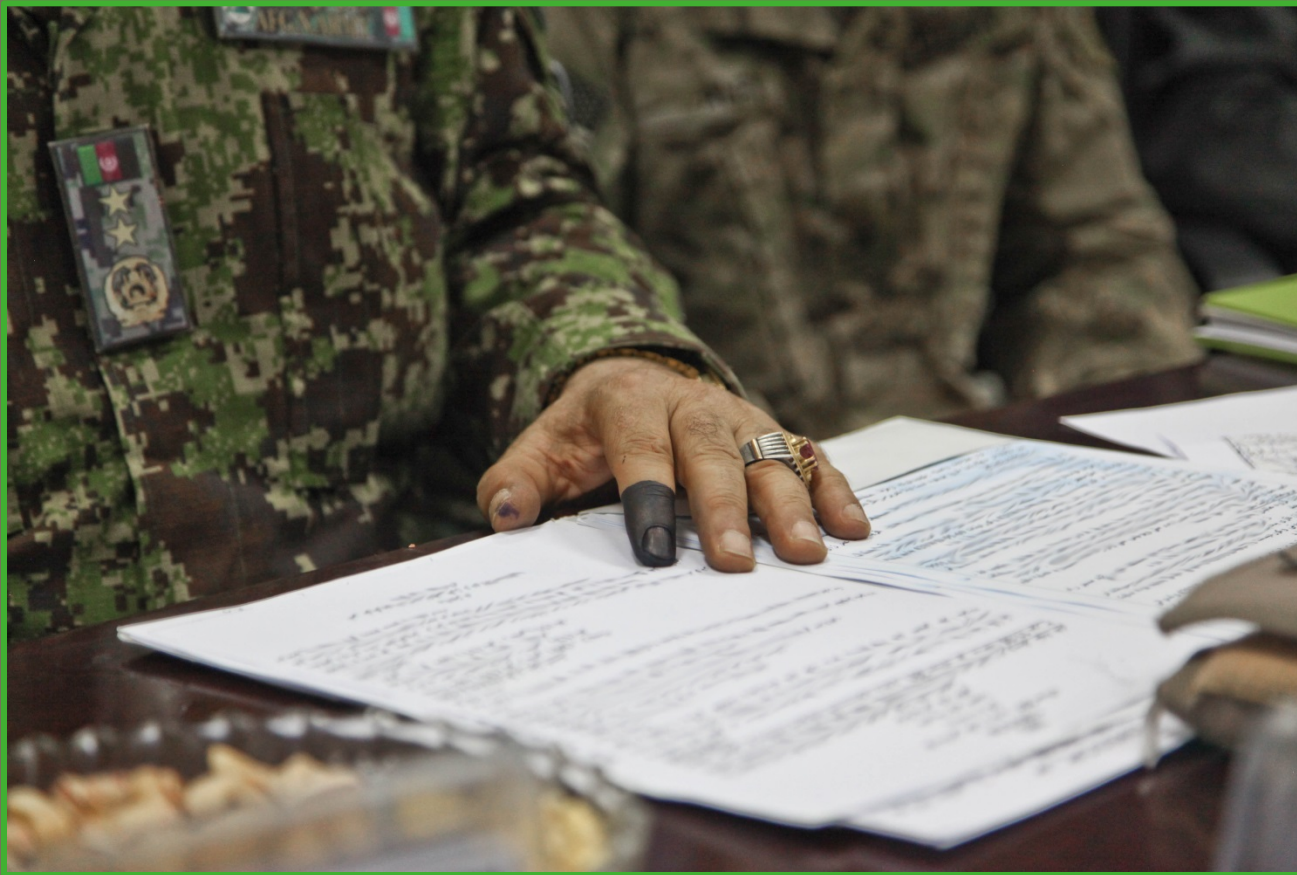

Afghan National Army Maj. Gen. Mohammad Zaman Waziri, commander of the 201st Corps reviews an update of security forces during the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014.

The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Security Forces await election results and plan counter insurgency tactics in the Operations Coordination Center - Regional North East during the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014.

The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the run-off elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag/ Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Army soldiers display their inked fingers after casting their votes while providing security during the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014.

The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag/ Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan Security Forces senior leadership display their inked fingers after casting their votes during the run-off elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Army soldiers await for updates and current activities around the region during the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Army Maj. Gen. Ziyaei, 201st Corps discuss strategies in the Operations Coordination Center - Regional North East during the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Army Maj. Gen. Mohammad Zaman Waziri, commander of the 201st Corps directs and controls strategies in the Operations Coordination Center - Regional North East during the run-off elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014.

The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag/ Released)

Afghan Security Forces Take the Lead During Elections at Fob Gamberi

Afghan National Army Maj. Gen. Mohammad Zaman Waziri, commander of the 201st Corps congratulate his peers after the runoff elections at Forward Operating Base Gamberi, Laghman province, Afghanistan, June 14, 2014. The security forces were responsible for ensuring the safety of the Afghan people during the runoff elections which is a continuation of the April 5 presidential elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Dixie Rae Liwanag / Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Staff Sgt. Justin Nelson, Blue Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, sets up the Secure Electronic Enrollment Kit II (SEEK II) Charikar village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014. Nelson used the SEEK II to collect information on a suspected Afghan criminal.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Staff Sgt. Justin Nelson, Blue Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, scans the eyes of a suspected Afghan terrorist in Charikar village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014. The man was suspected of creating vehicle-borne improvised explosive devises used against coalition forces.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Jose Hernandez, White Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, finds a sniper position on top of a compound in Qalah-Yeaja village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014. Hernandez's platoon was on a patrol through the village.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

A U.S. soldier with White Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, provides security while on patrol through Petawa village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Spc. Valentino Briones, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, provides security inside an abandoned fortress in Petawa village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014. The fortress was a staging area for the company's patrol operations.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Spc. Colby Welch, White Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, conducts a radio check inside an abandoned fortress in Petawa village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014. The fortress was a staging area for the company's patrol operations.
(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army Capt. Rodney Freeman, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, talks to Afghan local nationals while on patrol through Petawa village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

U.S. Army 1st Lt. Matthew White, Blue Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division, provides security while on patrol through Petawa village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014.

The patrol was conducted to disrupt enemy activity during the Afghan elections.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

Disrupting Enemy Activity

A U.S. soldier with White Platoon, Apache Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Task Force Strike, 101st Airborne Division provides security while on patrol through Qalah-Yeaja village, Parwan province, Afghanistan, June 13, 2014.

(U.S. Army photo by Cpl. George Huley/ Released)

FOR MORE COMBAT CAMERA IMAGERY, PLEASE VISIT

<http://dvidshub.net/units/jcca>

<http://defenseimagery.mil>

DEFENSEIMAGERY.MIL

