A Message From the Commanding Officer

January marked the beginning of a new year of taking on the largest share of the load for the Marine Corps' recruiting mission. As we welcome 2015, we continue to lead the nation in accomplishing our important mission of finding the next generation of Marines.

We came out of the gate strong in January, which had the largest contract and shipping mission outside of the summer season. The District performed exceedingly well through the subsequent months, and continues to set the bar for finding the highest caliber young men and women to send to recruit training.

The readiness of our families and ...
