Marine recruiter in Idaho saves man's life after suicide attempt

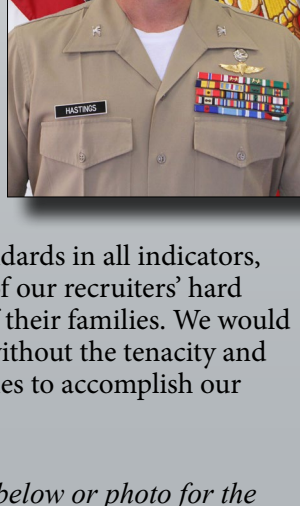

LEWISTON, Idaho — Screaming startled him awake. Sgt. Cody Leitheit checked the time: 2 a.m. Sunday, June 7, 2015. Probably people filtering in from the bars, he thought. After moving to Lewiston, Idaho, and into the apartment only a week earlier, he wasn't yet familiar with the neighborhood. (Click here to read more).

A Message From the Commanding Officer

The last few months have brought us many challenges and successes that have yet again proven the steadfast drive and commitment we have to our recruiting mission as a district.

It is no surprise that 12th District leads the nation in recruiting standards in all indicators, which is a direct result of our recruiters' hard work and the support of our families. We would never be where we are without the tenacity and focus of all of our Marines to accomplish our mission...
