

Senior Leaders CSA remembers...

"Today, we honor our Veterans of D-Day. 75 years ago, the Allies executed the audacious invasion of Normandy, France. Operation Overlord successfully established the Allies' foothold in Western Europe, a decisive step in the eventual defeat of Nazi Germany."

– Gen. Mark A. Milley
Chief of Staff, U.S. Army
June 6, 2019, Washington, D.C.

On Point 75th Anniversary of D-Day

D-Day, June 6, 1944, was the largest multi-national amphibious attack and operational military airdrop in history. This day is considered the beginning of the end of WWII in Europe. On D-Day, more than 160,000 allied troops landed along a 50-mile stretch of heavily fortified French coastline. The attack involved more than 5,000 ships and 13,000 aircraft, and more than 9,000 allied Soldiers were killed or wounded in the initial attack. The 75th anniversary of D-Day offers an opportunity to honor the past, and secure the future by reflecting on the selfless service of those who fought on D-Day.

Cybersecurity

Army Regulation 25-2, Cybersecurity, provides cohesive and comprehensive cybersecurity policy and guidance. Commanders and senior leaders must include cybersecurity readiness assessments in unit status reports.

FORT CAMPBELL, Ky. – Soldiers, Families and Veterans of the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) came together with citizens and community members of Fort Campbell and the surrounding area for the 101st Airborne Division annual celebration, "Week of the Eagles," May 17-23.

"Week of the Eagles allows us to celebrate our rich history and strengthen bonds with our veterans, Families, and community," said Maj. Gen. Brian Winski, commander of the 101st Airborne Division and Fort Campbell. "This week we honor the commitment and sacrifice of those that have gone before us, and honor and remember those that sacrificed all so that we may live free. As we remain focused on our next rendezvous with destiny, we remain committed to caring for our wounded, caring for our Families and honoring our fallen."

This year marked several "Firsts for the 101st," as it marked the first time that Fort Campbell's Military Survivor Appreciation Week and Retiree Appreciation Day events were included in the Week of the Eagles, making it easier for guests to plan travel and attend multiple events honoring the service and sacrifice of Screaming Eagle Veterans and fallen.

It was also the first year to include an honorable "Veteran's Formation" in the week's closing Division Review. Several dozen Veterans from World War II through the modern era marched at the front of the formation.
