The Schinnen North Parking Lot will be closed Wednesday, Sept. 25 due to motorcycle safety training. Please make sure to move your vehicle before 9 a.m. that day so staff can conduct training.

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

The city of Chièvres and U.S. Army Garrison Benelux celebrated its partnership during the annual American Festival in Chièvres, Belgium, Sept. 6 to 8, 2019. Throughout the weekend, the neighboring communities enjoyed festivities such as the Daumerie 5K Fun Run/Walk, an open-air cinema night, live music and market. On Sept. 8, USAG Benelux military police, including Army Staff Sgt. Antonio McNutt (pictured), set up a special demonstration to show Belgian and American community members what equipment and gear police use to perform their duties. (U.S. Army photo by Jessica Ryan)

SEPTEMBER IS NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS MONTH: BE PREPARED, NOT SCARED

Disasters can strike at any moment, and individuals should take action to prepare themselves for emergency situations. September is National Preparedness Month, and this year’s national theme is “Prepared, Not Scared.” The observance is a reminder that people should always be prepared by having a plan, checking their insurance policies and learning lifesaving skills such as CPR and first aid. HERITAGE DAYS CONTINUE IN BRUSSELS AND THE NETHERLANDS ON SEPT. 14 AND 15

The next edition of Heritage Days will take place Sept. 14 and 15 in the Brussels Capital Region. This year, the theme is “A Place for Art”. Walking and bicycle tours, bus excursions and exhibitions will take visitors throughout the region. Heritage Days are perfect occasions to discover Brussels from a new perspective. In addition to visiting the cultural sites, almost 100 activities are scheduled throughout the region. The Netherlands will also observe Heritage Days during the same weekend. [\[READ MORE\]](#)

CAR-FREE SUNDAY IN BRUSSELS SCHEDULED SEPT. 22

September 22 is Car-Free Sunday in Brussels. The event marks the end of Mobility Week, a European initiative held from Sept. 16 to 22 to promote alternative ways of transportation. From 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m., car traffic is not allowed in the Brussels Capital Region including the city of Brussels. The ban applies to all motorized vehicles except for public transport, taxis, buses, the emergency vehicles and security forces. [\[READ MORE\]](#)

BENELUX COMMUNITY OBSERVES 18TH ANNIVERSARY OF 9/11

Eighteen years after the 9/11 attacks, U.S. Army Garrison Benelux community members paid special tribute to the fallen and their families during the Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation’s Patriot Day 3K Run/Walk Sept. 11 on Chièvres Air Base, Belgium. [\[READ MORE\]](#)

424TH AIR BASE SQUADRON CONDUCTS “LANDING ZONE” TRAINING

Aircraft don’t always have the luxury of smooth, paved runways – especially on overseas missions where pilots often have to make due with rough “landing zones” on natural ground. Safely simulating such conditions is crucial training for air crew and ground forces alike. [\[READ MORE\]](#)
