

ASC GLOBAL ELINE

November 2019

APS-5 equipment augments the 3/4 ABCT for Spartan Shield

CAMP ARIFJAN, Kuwait — The 401st Army Field Support Battalion-Kuwait completed an issue of Army Prepositioned Stocks-5 equipment to the 3rd Armored Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division (Iron Brigade) in support of Operation Spartan Shield, here, Oct. 4.

The more than 300 pieces of equipment augments the 3rd ABCT's existing materiel capabilities in central and southwest Asia, even as the brigade prepares for transitioning its role in theater to the 30th ABCT in the coming months.

"Operations never just stop, and it's important to have seamless transitions," ... (click to read more)

ASC prepares to help ensure smooth transition to LOGCAP V

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, Ill. — While the LOGCAP V contract award to several companies remains under protest in the Court of Federal Claims, plans are underway for a third transition planning summit with key stakeholders from the requiring activities, industry, U.S. Army Contracting Command, and the U.S. Army Sustainment Command to finalize the transition schedule and plan for commencement of operations under the new LOGCAP V contract. (click to read more)

Torres takes over as ASC command sergeant major, Ulloa heads to Texas

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, Ill. — In an outdoor ceremony held here Oct. 22 on a windswept Memorial Field, Command Sgt. Maj. Marco Torres officially became command sergeant major of the U.S. Army Sustainment Command. (click to read more)

PS Magazine shifts to fully online information portal

REDSTONE ARSENAL, Ala. — Effective Nov. 1, PS Magazine will undergo its most significant transformation ever. Its 64-page, cartoon-illustrated magazine will cease production, replaced with a fully online, mobile-friendly information portal. The URL for this resource is <https://www.psmagazine.army.mil>.

In order for PS to keep pace with today's readers, its web portal will provide the same valuable information as the traditional magazine but at a much quicker rate. All articles will continue to be vetted by technical experts for accuracy and still have to be approved for public release prior to them being posted.

But, instead of taking up to five months to get maintenance and supply information published, it will take a matter of days to a few ... (click to read more)

GLOBAL ELINE

Hispanic observance includes food, music, business info

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, III — Attendees at the annual Hispanic Heritage Month observance enjoyed food samples, festive music, and a message of community support for Hispanics delivered by Zenaída Landeros, the first female executive director of the Quad Cities Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, here, Oct. 17.

National Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated annually from Sept. 15 - Oct. 15. The theme for 2019 is "Honoring Hispanic Americans: Essential to the Blueprint of Our Nation." The observation celebrates the contributions of American citizens who have ancestors ... \(click to read more\)

RIA personnel from various commands conduct walk during National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, III. — Personnel from various commands came out to support an island-wide suicide awareness walk Sept. 19. September is National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month. \(click here to view\)

Rock Island Arsenal organizations honor retirees for their service

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, III.— Eight Army civilians and three Soldiers -- with service totaling 341 years and 18 deployments-- left federal service Sept. 19 to begin the next chapter of their lives, leaving a legacy of selfless service to our nation.

RIA's major tenant organizations, First U.S. Army, U.S. Army Sustainment Command, and U.S. Army Joint Munitions Command, conduct joint quarterly retirement ceremonies to honor those who are ending their service and to thank their families for their support.

Brig. Gen. Troy Galloway, deputy commanding general for operations, First Army, presided over the ceremony held in Heritage Hall. Assisting him in the presentations was Sgt. Maj. William Long, senior enlisted Army National Guard advisor.

Galloway gave remarks before presenting awards to the retirees.

"(At First Army) we often quote Gen. Omar Bradley who said something ... \(click to read more\)

RIA chapter inducts newest Sergeant Audie Murphy Club member

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL, III. — Sgt. 1st Class Kevin Davis of the U.S. Army Sustainment Command, Support Operations, Lead Materiel Integration Directorate, was inducted into the RIA Sergeant Audie Murphy Club Sept. 25 in the foyer of Building 390 here.

The club is named after Sgt. Audie Leon Murphy, America's most decorated World War II Soldier. Soldiers who achieve this prestigious award have proven to be true professionals of the noncommissioned officer corps. "I heard the SAMC was about NCOs that demonstrated exceptional NCO quality," Davis said. \(click to read more\)

ASC Commanding General

Maj. Gen. Steven Shapiro

Public Affairs Officer

Rhys Fullerlove

Editor

Linda Lambiotte

Staff Members

Sgt. 1st Class Meillettis Patton
Kevin Fleming
Jon Connor
Paul Levesque
Galen Putnam

