// U.S. Navy Band Commodores

Jazz is America's music and the U.S. Navy Band Commodores, the Navy's premier jazz ensemble, has been performing the very best of big band jazz for the Navy and the nation for 50 years. Formed in 1969, this 18-member group continues the jazz big band legacy with some of the finest musicians in the world. Their mission includes public concerts, national concert tours, ceremonial support in honoring our veterans, jazz education classes and clinics, and protocol performances for high-level military and civilian government officials.

The Commodores jazz ensemble is held in high regard nationwide by concert patrons and critics alike. They have appeared on television shows, played nearly all major jazz festivals and toured across the United States and abroad.

A versatile and relevant musical organization in the 21st century, members of the Commodores write and arrange much of their vast library of music. The concerts are an eclectic mix of traditional big band music, exciting jazz vocal arrangements as well as fresh new instrumental music written specifically for the Commodores of today.

Terell Stafford, acclaimed trumpet player based in New York City, has been hailed as “one of the great players of our time, a fabulous trumpet player” by piano legend McCoy Tyner. Stafford is recognized as an incredibly gifted and versatile player, combining a deep love of melody with his own brand of spirited and adventurous lyricism. Stafford’s exceptionally expressive and well defined musical talent allows him to dance in and around the rich trumpet tradition of his predecessors while making his own inroads.

Since the mid-1990’s, Stafford has performed with groups such as Benny Golson’s Sextet, McCoy Tyner’s Sextet, Kenny Barron Quintet, Frank Wessex Quintet, Jimmy Heath Quintet and Big Band, Jon Faddis Jazz Orchestra, Carnegie Hall Jazz Band and Dizzy Gillespie All-Star Alumni Band. Notable accomplishments include recording with the Hamilton-Clayton Jazz Orchestra on Diana Krall’s Grammy-nominated album, “From this Moment On,” as well as appearances with the Clayton Brothers Quintet. As a member of the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, Stafford was awarded a Grammy in 2009 for Best Large Ensemble, in recognition of their “Live at the Village Vanguard” album. Stafford can be heard on over 130 other albums including his own “BrotherLee Love, Celebrating Lee Morgan,” which received a 47th Annual NAACP Image Award nomination. His most recent album, “Family Feeling,” is a BCM&D release.

Stafford is renowned in the jazz world as an educator, performer and leader and has received countless award nominations and accolades. He serves as the director of jazz studies and chair of instrumental studies at Temple University, managing and artistic director of the Jazz Orchestra of Philadelphia (JOP) and is the founder and band leader of the Terell Stafford Quintet.

Terell Stafford was born in Miami and raised in Chicago, Illinois, and Silver Spring, Maryland. He received a Bachelor of Science in music education from the University of Maryland in 1988 and a Master of Music from Rutgers University in 1993.
