

Fort Riley POST

Home of the  1st Infantry Division

May 15, 2020

Volume 1 | Issue 3

Severe spring weather season arrives in Kansas: Be informed, part 3

Story and photo by Margaret Ziffer, Fort Riley Public Affairs

Fort Riley's Emergency Management Office spearheads the Severe Spring Weather Awareness campaign following the four tenants of the Ready Army program: Be Informed, Make a Plan, Build a Kit, and Get Involved.

Fort Riley eases transition for new Soldiers during pandemic

Story and photos by Sgt. Timothy Brokhoff, 19th PAD

The 1st Infantry Division welcomed 152 new soldiers who reported to Fort Riley, Kansas, after completing training at Fort Benning, Georgia. Fort Riley community works together to make the transition into the Army a smooth one.

The 1st Infantry Division patching ceremony welcomes new Soldiers

This video shows new arrivals from Fort Benning, Georgia, as they become a part of the Big Red One family during a ceremony that captures the Army's history and its future.

Fort Riley's Podcast

This episode features Information about Severe weather and how to prepare for the unexpected.

News around the Army

- Army's antiterrorism technology chasing COVID-19
- Nanoscale experiments give researchers optimism for stronger, lighter armor

