Justice and Mercy celebrate 245 years in Army

The Army's Staff Judge Advocate Corps and the Chaplain Corps each celebrated 245 years of service in July. The SJA and the Chaplain Corps share July 29, 1775 as their date of inception. At Fort Riley, the Chaplains celebrated with a cake and a small outdoor celebration July 24. In keeping with tradition, the most senior and the most junior member of the team joined forces to cut the cake. (U.S. Army Photo/Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Bradley Gooding)

Rim Rock Resurrection

Rim Rock community on Fort Riley's Historic Main Post recently underwent a major renovation. The features are modern and energy efficient while staying true to the history of each home. Eryk Hayden, a Fort Riley Housing Services apprentice, provides a view of the upgrades throughout the renovated units in the Rim Rock community.

COVID-19 didn't stop 35th Annual Fort Riley 10-5-2 Prairie Run

At the dawn of July 25, final preparations were being made outside of King Fieldhouse before the 35th Annual 10-5-2 Prairie Run. The starting gate was positioned, a DJ was playing music to fire up runners before the race and it was on.
