

Fort Riley POST

Home of the  1st Infantry Division

Sept. 25, 2020

Volume 1 | Issue 22

Sept. 23 COVID-19 virtual town hall delivers updates

This week the Covid-19 Town Hall announcements included information for Access Control Point hour changes, updates to hours of service at various Fort Riley Facilities and more! If you couldn't view the livestream Sept. 23 or want to re-watch, please follow link above.

Trooper Access Control Point reopens Monday

Trooper Access Control Point will reopen Sept. 28 at 5 a.m., following the completion of a construction project. The Trooper gate will then be open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Beginning Monday, Grant ACP will return to its previous hours of 5 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday, closed on weekends and federal holidays.

Fall Apple Day comes to you this year—virtually

This year, the annual Fall Apple Day Festival is being held virtually at 11 a.m., Oct. 3. We will bring you some of your favorites and show you some of what happens behind the scenes at Fort Riley. Tune in to facebook.com/FortRileyFallAppleDay, and don't forget the traditional Libby Custer Apple Pie will be available via drive-thru at Custer House at 11 a.m.

Fort Riley's Podcast

This week the Fort Riley Podcast covers the Kansas USO. Find out what's available and how you can volunteer.

News around the Army

- Holocaust survivor to receive top military police medal
- Army seeks funding to modernize ammo manufacturing capabilities
- Three simple steps can help save someone from brink of suicide

