

Fort Riley POST

Home of the  1st Infantry Division

September 24, 2021

Volume 2 | Issue 38

Leaders focus on prevention during SHARP Leaders Summit

Leaders of 1st Infantry Division and Fort Riley gathered for a Sexual Harassment/Assault Response and Prevention Leaders' Summit held both virtually and at the Riley's Community Center Sept. 21. "I know how busy you are. I know how impactful it is for you to take time. But that's how important this is. We've got to do better. We CAN do better," said Maj. Gen. D.A. Sims, 1st Infantry Division and Fort Riley commanding general. See photos of the event here.

Big Red One Year of Honor September focus is Valor

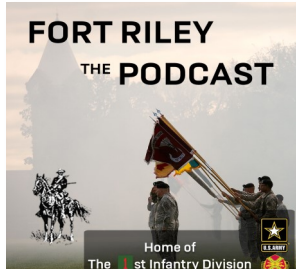

The 1st Infantry Division and Fort Riley hosted Big Red One Year of Honor events Sept. 22, focused on the theme of "Valor." The day's events included a 9:30 a.m. Commemoration Ceremony at Victory Park; two Leader Professional Development panels and a ceremony in which streets were renamed in honor of 'Big Red One' Medal of Honor recipients Staff Sgt. Joseph Schaefer and Pvt. 1st Class Gino Merli. See video of Commemoration Ceremony here, photos of street renaming ceremony here.

Fort Riley historic building: Quarters 13

This Fort Riley Friday, we continue our look at the houses on Officer's Row, commonly known as Forsyth Avenue on Main Post.

Quarters 13 was built in 1894 with limestone walls and foundation, wood floors and a slate roof. See more photos and information here.

Fort Riley the Podcast

This week on Fort Riley the Podcast, Tina with Army Community Service discusses the ins and outs of Master Resiliency Training.

News Around the Army

- Department of Defense announces award of 13 grants under Defense Community Infrastructure Pilot Program
- Junction City & network of regional employers match Fort Riley Soldiers-in-transition with civilian career paths
- 6 things to know about the Army's new mandatory COVID-19 vaccine policy

