Parade Field Named 'W. P. T. Hill Field'

MajGen. Hill's Widow Unveils Plaque

WILLIAM P. T. HILL FIELD DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM P. T. HILL (2 February 1895 - 6 December 1965). THE FIRST COMMANDING OFFICER OF CAMP LEJEUNE, WHO THROUGH HIS ZEAL, DEVOTION, AND FORESIGHTEDNESS WAS A MAJOR DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE WORLD'S MOST COMPLETE AMPHIBIOUS TRAINING BASE.

The above words are inscribed on the monument which Mrs. W.P.T. Hill proudly unveiled at a formal dedication ceremony which was held at 11 a.m. on December 13, officially naming the Base Parade Ground in honor of her late husband, Major General W.P.T. Hill.

In 1941, General Hill, then Lieut-tenant Colonel Hill, began the construction of this beautiful Base and became its first Commanding Officer. For his remarkable achievement in supervising the construction of this permanent and beautifully landscaped Base, under wartime conditions, he was awarded one of our Nation's highest decorations, the Distinguished Service Medal. He faced many problems, large and small, but always before him was a vision - a vision of a dream which would one day become a reality. And so it was that out of the muck and mire of the Carolina lowlands, along the banks of New River, he molded and shaped a beautiful and permanent complex which in its entirety stands today as a fitting memorial to his unquenchable courage and determination.

General Hill was born in 1895 on the plains of Oklahoma. In June 1917, he entered the U.S. Marine Corps and for 38 years he served his country and his Corps in every clime and place, on land, on sea, and in the air. In the air, as one of the Corps' earliest aviators, he flew anti-submarine patrols off the Azores in the gunships and flying boats of World War I, as a geologist he dug and delved into the secrets of the earth as a member of the Naval Alaskan Coal Commission during a survey of the Alaskan coal fields in 1920, served in 1926 with the Roy Chapman Andrews Asiatic Expedition exploring the hot sands of the Gobi Desert of Mongolia, and during World War II and the Korean War, General Hill kept supplies going to Marines wherever they served. In February 1944, he was appointed Quartermaster General of the Marine Corps, a position which he held until his retirement from active duty in 1955. General Hill died December 6, 1965.

In addition to Mrs. Hill, special guests attending were Maj-

DEDICATION — Mrs. W. P. T. Hill, and Major General J. O. Butcher, base commander, read the inscription on the bronze plaque which names the Base parade field in honor of the late Major General W. P. T. Hill. The field was dedicated in formal ceremonies Wednesday.

Sergeant Gary E. Hanns Wins Staff NCO Stripe, Bronze Star

A Bronze Star Medal and a meritorious promotion to staff sergeant were awarded to Staff Sergeant Gary E. Hanns of the Rifle Range Detachment last week.

Major General Joseph O. Butcher presented the Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V" to Hanns for his outstanding service as platoon sergeant of a 106mm recoilless rifle section with the 2d Battalion, 4th Marines, 3d Marine Division, in Vietnam.

During the period Sept. 18-25, Hanns displayed exceptional courage and skill in deploying his weapons to counter enemy artillery, mortar, and rocket attacks on Marine positions at Con Thien.

On Sept. 21, he noticed an enemy column attempting to outflank a heavily engaged battalion, and routed the enemy attempt with a heavy volume of recoilless rifle fire.

Did You Know?

That allotment checks due at the end of the month may be delayed one day because of the Marine Corps Allotment Office move to the Marine Corps Finance Center, Kansas City, Mo.

That residents of the Swansboro, Carteret and Hubert area may use the Marine Corps Exchange facility at Bogue Field which is open evenings and weekends, including Sunday. The field is operated by Marine Aircraft Group 24, Cherry Point.

SILVER STAR MEDAL — The nation's third highest combat decoration is awarded to retired Gunner Sergeant John C. Hatfield by Brigadier General E.B. Wheeler, commanding general, 2d Marine Division. Sergeant Hatfield presently works and resides in Wilmington, N.C.

Silver Star Medal To Retired Gunner

A Wilmington, North Carolina businessman received the nation's third highest combat decoration during a ceremony at 2d Marine Division Headquarters December 6.

John C. Hatfield, a retired Marine Corps Gunner Sergeant, received the Silver Star Medal from Brigadier General E.B. Wheeler, division commander. Sgt. Hatfield retired from active duty on October 31.

He was awarded the medal for "his conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action while serving as the company gunner sergeant of 'K' Company, 3d Battalion, 9th Marines, 3d Marine Division in the Republic of Vietnam."

On July 4, 1967, Sgt. Hatfield and his company conducted a routine search and destroy operation around the Con Thien area. During this operation "K" Company came under intense enemy small arms and automatic fire by a well entrenched North Vietnamese Army force, pinning down two platoons and the company command group.

Reacting quickly, he maneuvered across the fire-swept terrain, and deployed the 60mm mortar section and other Marines into covered positions. "Moving from there to a hazardously exposed position, he began issuing fire commands to the mortar section and adjusted accurate suppressive fire on the enemy emplacements," according to the citation.

Christmas Displays Require Special Safety Precautions

Christmas is a special holiday that should never be marred by the tragedy of fire. Yet, says the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) the ways we celebrate it—with trees, wreaths, colored lights, hanging decorations—means extra fire hazards and the need for special precautions.

Fire never takes a holiday, and in the rush of Christmas activities, there may come the careless, thoughtless act which opens the door to deadly fire.

Mothers during this season, when doing last minute shopping, may be tempted to leave small children at home unsupervised "for just a few moments." The tragic aftermath for some is to come home to find that death and destruction have taken over the home. Never, never leave them alone and unattended even for "just a few moments."

The NFPA suggests the following as a means of keeping your home fire-safe for Christmas:

1. When picking out a tree, choose a fresh one. Saw off the butt at an angle an inch or more above the original cut. Stand the tree in water from the time you buy it until you dispose of it. Don't rely on chemical preparations to "flame-proof" your tree, none is truly effective. Set the tree away from radiators or fireplace, and never where it might block your escape in case of fire.

2. If you choose a plastic tree, be sure it is marked as made of slow-burning materials. If it has a built-in lighting system, it should carry the Underwriters' Laboratories label. Metal trees will conduct electricity, so use only indirect lighting. Lighting strings on the tree may create a dangerous shock hazard.

3. Decorative lighting should be used with care. Check lighting strings for frayed wires, loose connections and broken sockets, before using. Never use wax candles on or near the

4. Use noncombustible decorating material (metal, glass, asbestos, etc.) wherever possible. If combustible—like cotton batting, flocking, and paper—be sure they are "flameproofed."

5. Dispose of gift wrappings promptly. (It is unsafe to burn them in a living room or game-room fireplace.)

6. Be extra careful about smoking near the tree.

tree, or with polystyrene foam candle holders or decorations. Turn off tree and other decorative lighting before retiring or leaving the house. For outdoor lighting, use sets listed for outdoor use by the Underwriters' Laboratories, (UL).

7. Keep trains, road racing sets and other electrical toys from beneath or near the tree. MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, plan in advance the escape measures and exit routes needed for the life safety of your family in case of fire, the NFPA urges. (Safety Review)

Military personnel and veterans are cautioned to avoid signing contracts or agreements to enroll in "mail order" type of correspondence or similar courses, in anticipation of eligibility for educational benefits under the new GI bill (Public Law 89-358).

Those who enter into such agreements may become obligated under a contract to pay for "courses" which have not been approved by the Veterans Administration.

Should this happen, the VA will not pay the veteran his monthly allowance for education and training.

Therefore, personnel should be advised that before they sign any contract or agreement for correspondence courses, they should first determine whether the "school" and course has been approved.

Information on all approved schools is available at the Base Education Office, Building 63,

LIGHTS

If you were unfortunate enough to get caught in the Monday morning traffic jam which held up traffic until way after 8 a.m., you probably noticed many motorists using only their parking lights.

This is a common occurrence even at dusk when the stream of cars head for home after a day on the base.

It starts getting dark enough for lights about 5:30 p.m. during the winter months and recent changes to the state law require that when lights are needed, you should use all your lights, not just your parking lights.

The laws of the state apply on the base as well and violators are going to find themselves attending the early morning ritual at the PMO office. . . traffic court.

DODGE FEVER

The only dodge fever walking Marines get here is when they start dodging cars while trying to get across the street.

Let us understand that while we speak of traffic laws, there is one which applies here as well.

Pedestrians in crosswalks have the right of way no matter what part of the base they are on. . . if they are in the crosswalk they have right of way over all vehicle traffic.

With the increased number of cars on the road during this holiday season, there is also an increase in pedestrian traffic and we must be doubly careful when we approach crosswalks.

To get a better understanding of the rules which govern operation of motor vehicles here, read the Base Traffic Regulations in Base Order P5560.2C.

CMC Approves Tuition Assistance

The Commandant of the Marine Corps has approved tuition assistance to Marine Corps Base personnel who wish to attend the Onslow Technical Institute.

The approval constitutes an exception to usual Marine Corps policy and is applicable only to the Onslow Technical Institute.

MajGen. Ma Tours Base Units

"I have observed the Marines of Marine Corps Base and the 2d Marine Division and I am impressed at their practical training. The Vietnamese village of Tri Me is most realistic and impressive and will save many lives." With this statement Major General Ma, Chi-Yu, Commandant, Chinese Marine Corps Schools, summed up his tour of Camp Lejeune which ended Dec. 12.

The general visited Marine Corps bases under the sponsorship of the Military Assistance Program. The purpose of Gen. Ma's visit is to familiarize him with military training in the United States, educational installations and with standards of manpower and facilities.

Accompanying the general was Colonel Chen, Keui-Liang, director of education at the Chinese Marine Corps Schools.

Gen. Ma began his tour Monday with the 1st Infantry Training Regiment, the Marine Corps Service Support Schools and the Field Medical Service School. That night he attended a reception in his honor at the officers' Club.

Tuesday morning the general observed morning colors with Brigadier General E. B. Wheeler, division commander, at division headquarters. Following a briefing on the division he flew by helicopter to the Counterterrorism Warfare Center where he observed training and was given a briefing on mines, traps and living conditions of the Vietnamese.

Reserve Is Top In 6th Mar

Private First Class Brendan S. Kennedy, a six month reservist, was awarded a meritorious mast and a $10 gift certificate as the 6th Marines Marine of the month for November on December 6.

A member of "B" Company, 1st Battalion, 25th Marines, USMCR, Hartford, Conn., Kennedy was cited for "his military bearing, conduct, professional knowledge, and attention to duty as a rifleman in "K" Company, 3d Battalion, 6th Marines.

Lieutenant Colonel E. Kirby-Smith, acting regimental commander, made the presentation at informal ceremonies.

Army Team Surveys Camp Lejeune Traffic

A two-man team from the Department of Defense's Military Traffic Management and Terminal Services is presently conducting a survey to determine the traffic habits of the 30,000 military and 4,000 civilian drivers here.

The team will submit recommendations for methods of immediately improving traffic flow on existing facilities and for a longer range program of improvement through construction of additional facilities, if required, to the Base Developments Board.

The board is especially interested in recommendations for changes in traffic routing with the forthcoming construction of a new troop housing complex which will shift the base population center.

The team consists of Mr. J.S. Hughes and Lieutenant Phillip Napolitano, members of the U.S. Army Transportation Engineer Agency, Fort Eustis, Virginia. They use mechanical counters, aerial photography and questionnaires in the survey. Twenty-five Marines are also used to count the number of turns made at the different intersections and streets in determining the existing and future problems. In solving the traffic problem the team is also viewing the parking problem now evident on base.

Major W.A. Merrill, the liaison officer for the team, stated that the team is conducting an impartial survey through various methods to use as a guide in connection with an architect and engineer "master plan" drawn up by A.G. Odell Jr. and Associates of Charlotte, N.C. for the board.

"Alertly observing that the mortar section was dangerously low on ammunition, he quickly organized and led a resupply team through the hostile fire to obtain additional mortar rounds from supporting tanks." the citation continued. He continued to complete the resupply mission.

After all the mortar rounds had been used, "he organized the Marines into casualty evacuation teams and supervised and assisted in moving the wounded to positions of relative safety, while steadfastly refusing medical evacuation for himself."

Sergeant Hatfield's wife, Carolyn, and their four children, Sandra, 10; Diane, 11; Brenda, 15 and John Jr., 4 observed the ceremony.

Col. Friedman Takes Headquarters Bn. Rein

Command of Headquarters Battalion, 2d Marine Division, was turned over to Lieutenant Colonel Arthur D. Friedman, during ceremonies held here Dec. 8.

Colonel Franklin J. Harte, former commander, is scheduled to retire Feb. 1, 1968.

Colonel Friedman, a native of Bronx, New York, began his military career in 1947 when he enlisted in the Marine Corps. He attended wire school after boot camp and was later assigned to the 10th Marines until 1950. From 1950 until his separation from active duty in 1951 he served with the 1st Battalion, 2d Marines. Colonel Friedman attended New York University from 1952 until 1953. In 1953 he was commissioned a second lieutenant and attended The Basic School at Quantico, Va.

After graduation in 1954, he served as communications officer with the 1st Marines at Camp Pendleton and in Korea.

Upon returning to the United States in 1956 the colonel became communications officer at the Naval Gunfire School, Coronado, Calif. until 1958.

He spent the next three years as base communications officer, Marine Corps Supply Center, Barstow, Calif. In 1961 he reported to the 3d Marine Division as the communications center commander.

From 1962 until 1965 the colonel was the inspector-instructor of the 4th Communications Battalion, Marine Corps Reserve, Brooklyn, New York.

After completing the Command and Staff College at Quantico, Va. in 1966, he served in the Republic of Vietnam until 1967.

Upon returning to the United States he assumed command of Communications, Company, Headquarters Battalion, 2d Marine Division.

Prior to assuming his present post he was executive officer of Headquarters Battalion. Decorations awarded Colonel Friedman during his career include the Navy Commendation Medal with Combat "V", the Good Conduct Medal, two awards of the Cross of Gallantry with silver star, the National Defense Service Medal, the Korean Service Medal, the United Nations Service Medal, and the Vietnamese Service and Campaign Medals.

Aliens Must Report Jan. 1

All aliens in the United States and its possessions are reminded by the Immigration and Naturalization Service to register their addresses during January 1968.

Addresses should be reported to the United States Attorney General. Cards on which to submit the reports are available at all U.S. post offices during the month of January, or at any time at the Immigration and Naturalization Office. The cards should be filled out and returned to the clerk from whom received.

Aliens temporarily absent from the United States during the month of January must report their addresses within 10 days of return to this country.

The Immigration and Nationality Act provides serious penalties for willful failure to submit the report. This requirement is, therefore, important to all aliens in the U.S. Armed Forces and to members of the Armed Forces with relatives who are not citizens but residents of this country.

WELCOMING HAND—Major General Ma, Chi-Yu, (center) commandant, Chinese Marine Corps Schools and Colonel Chen, Keui-Liang (right) director of education, Chinese Marine Corps Schools are greeted by Major General Joseph O. Butcher, commanding general, Marine Corps Base, at the New River Air Facility. Gen. Ma and his party toured the base from Dec. 9 to Dec. 12.

CORRECT ADDRESS

The Post Office urges using the correct address on letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

On Sept. 25, during a heavy artillery and rocket attack on Marine positions, he directed accurate return fire from his weapons until he was wounded three times and evacuated.

SSgt. Hanns' initiative and bold composure under fire undoubtedly saved many Marine lives and prevented the enemy from penetrating the battalion's positions, his citation stated in part.

Lieutenant Colonel R.S. Wilder, commanding officer of the Rifle Range Detachment, presented Hanns with his warrant of promotion.

COMMAND CHANGE — Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Nastasi (R) accepts the flag of command of 1st Battalion, 1st Infantry Training Regiment from Major Henry F. Finney. Colonel Nastasi's previous assignment was Assistant G-3, (Plans and Training) officer Marine Corps Base. Major Finney will take over as Executive Officer of the battalion.

Refreshed Teen Club Offers More Recreational Activities

A rejuvenated Camp Lejeune Teen Club, with more recreational facilities and under new management, is bidding for new members both from the hard core "jet set" and those just looking for a relaxing evening of fun.

Under the guidance of a twenty-member adult Advisory Board, headed by LtCol. Ivar Svenson, base provost marshal, the student Executive Council plans and conducts the club's recreation and social activities.

The purpose of the private, non-profit organization is to "provide entertainment and recreation for its members and to give them an opportunity to prepare themselves to be useful citizens." Club sponsor is the Parent Teachers Association of the Camp Lejeune High School.

Revision of club rules and the dues system is largely due to the new Advisory Board and Executive Council, who are also responsible for the new environment found within the club.

Besides the ping-pong tables, volleyball, and shuffleboard facilities available to members on the weekends, there is also a record hop on Friday nights and dancing to a live band on Saturday nights — all at the Marston Pavilion.

Membership is restricted to teenagers between the ages of 13 and 19 inclusive, and he or she must be a dependent of military or civilian personnel assigned to base housing or residing in off-base housing in the vicinity of Camp Lejeune. Dependents of retired personnel or unmarried widows of military personnel are also eligible.

Dues are assessed at $1.20 annually, and members must be enrolled as undergraduates in the Camp Lejeune or local community school system.

Additional Catholic Mass

Beginning this Sunday, Dec. 17, an additional Mass will be offered at 5 p.m. in the Main Catholic Chapel (Bldg. No. 17).

The Christmas Spirit

Commercial interests in recent years through sales promotion schemes have made the Christmas season an endurance contest. This year jolly ole Santa, himself quite a salesman of late, made his appearance in October surrounded by the ghosts and goblins that had not yet made their Halloween appearance. He bade us, "Start your Christmas shopping early." Came November we saw him as we shopped for the Thanksgiving turkey. These next two weeks he will bid us, "Come buy! Come buy!"

But the end is not yet! Come December 26 the small loan companies will bid us consolidate all those pesky little Christmas bills "into one convenient monthly payment." (Notwithstanding an interest rate that may run as high as 30 per cent.)

Why don't you have the Christmas spirit? We answer, "We have it; it's one of fatigue."

The Christmas spirit should be one of joy, peace and hope. May I make this suggestion? One evening, (tonight perhaps) after the TV has been turned off and the children are in bed, read these passages of Holy Scripture: Isaiah 9:2-7, Matthew 1:18-25 and Luke 2:1-52.

"For to us a child is born,His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace,She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins. Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God....He (Jesus) has a name inscribed, King of Kings, and Lord of Lords."

Chaplain R.V. Samples

HO, HO, HO — April Foster and her brother, Barry, sit on an opportunity to get their Christmas list in early this year. Santa Claus took time out of his busy schedule to stop in and check out the Goettge Fieldhouse where he will be a special guest for the Children's pre-Christmas Party Dec. 20. A special invitation has been made to all children whose fathers are in Vietnam. (Globe staff photo)

Activities

Mod Dance

A holiday dance is being planned for Camp Lejeune High School Graduates and all college students home for the holidays. Marston Pavilion will be the scene of "The Mod Happening" Dec. 27 at 7:30 p.m. Music will be furnished by the "Counselors."

OWC Bridge Club

The OWC Daytime Bridge Group will play Dec. 19 at the Paradise Point Officers Club from 9:15 a.m. to 1 p.m. For further information please call Barbara Graham, 6-6842.

All the books on sale are furnished by the Educational Reading Services Incorporated Book Company of Paramus, New Jersey. The type of literature on hand will range from kindergarten to high school reading material. The price of each book will be from twenty-five cents to $3.

The book fair will be open to the general public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on December 8, 11, 12 and 13.

Base Sojourners Meet Saturday

An Australian Army officer Lt. John G. Honey, who is presently serving with the Radio Platoon of Communications Company, Headquarters Battalion, Marine Division, will be speaker at the monthly meeting of the Camp Lejeune Chapter National Sojourners, tomorrow night at 7 p.m. at the Commissioned Officers Club, Paradise Point.

He has been on duty at Camp Lejeune since August. Born in Cornwall, England, he has lived in Australia since the age of 15. He graduated from the Moni School of Wireless in Sydney, Australia, and was commissioned in the Australian Army in 1963. Lt. Honey, who is married, has had a year's duty in Vietnam with the Australian forces.

Base Activities Scheduled For Closing Dates

With the Christmas and New Year holiday season approaching, Base Special Services has scheduled several non-operating dates for various Base activities.

The hobby shops, Walla Creek Boathouse, skeet range and swimming pools will be closed Dec. 23, 24, 25, 30, and 31. They will also be closed for New Year's Day.

The Library and Paradise Point Golf Course will be closed Christmas Day and New Year's Day. The Base Stables will be closed Dec. 25-26 and Jan. 1.

The Bonnyman Bowling Center, however, will be open on Christmas Day and New Year's Day from 1 p.m. until midnight. It will be closed Dec. 24 and

THE TROUBADOURS of Tarawa Terrace II Elementary School sing holiday renditions as Mrs. Elizabeth Bodkin, (foreground), Music Instructor accompanys on the piano. The group tours around the Base and Jacksonville and includes students from the 4th, 5th and 6th grades.

Med Marines Over British In Coveted Cassady Shoot

Nov. 12, (Delayed) — Marines and Sailors from Amphibious Squadron Two defeated a stubborn British team with a score of 1398 to 1298, to retain the coveted Cassady Cup Trophy at the annual rifle and pistol match held here, Nov. 9.

The Americans who have won the Cup ten times out of 14 contests, discovered the match rules had changed this year. Modeled after the standard British rifle qualification course, the Cassady Cup Course also tested the shooters fitness.

In the second of four events in the rifle competition, the shooters fire two shots prone, from the 500 yard line. The targets then disappear for 45 seconds while they scramble over such natural obstacles as rocks, gulleys, and shrubs to reach the 400 yard line.

This cycle repeats itself each hundred yard line. The 300 yard line is shot in the prone position, the 200 sitting, the 100 is fired in the standing position.

The day before the match the British lost one of their ace shooters when he fell over a rock while running the course.

The eight man rifle team, headed by Second Lieutenant Charles Duree, H&S Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Marines, quickly mastered the course however and went on to beat the British 1106 to 968. Sergeant D.W. Larock, Golf Battery, who fired a 157 out of a possible 200, was high rifle shooter.

The pistol team found the competition a little rough and fell to the British sharpshooters 292 to 330. Doctor James Devereaux, 2d Dental Company, was the high pistol shooter, with a score of 95 out of a possible 120.

Major General Leakey, Commander British Troops, Malta, presented the awards.

The Cassady Trophy is named after the donor, Vice Admiral J.H. Cassady, United States Navy.

USO Show Thrills Med Ready Force

San Juan, P. R. (Delayed) — More than 500 Marines and sailors of the Caribbean Ready Force turned out here for a USO show aboard the USS Guadalcanal (LPH-7).

The show featured entertainers appearing in the San Juan area. The performers donated their services for the three and one-half hour program.

Packed on the hangar deck and almost literally hanging from the galleries, the members of the Ready Force cheered the acts which included several song-stresses, a comedian and quick-draw artist, Xavier Cugat and his Latin American rhythms, two other bands, and Dr. Shawn Masters, hypnotist.

Nelson Sardelli, singer, stand-up comedian, and quick-draw artist, kept the audience rocking with laughter as he threw out one-line jokes and mis-quotations from history.

Xavier Cugat and his International Revue offered a variety of entertainment. Felix Caballero, a Puerto Rican tenor with "Cugie's" band, sang two old favorites, "Be My Love" and "Granada." With an assist from one of the Ready Force's sailors, Margo, the revue's ballroom dancer, gave a thumba demonstration.

One of the high spots of the show was reached as Charo — Mrs. Xavier Cugat — danced and sang several songs. Fetchingly attired in a cutaway full-length dress, Charo had no difficulty in enlisting a recruit from the audience to join her for one number.

Probably the most popular act of the afternoon, however, was

Dr. Shawn Master's demonstration of hypnosis. Using 10 volunteers, Dr. Masters showed what can be done with the power of suggestion.

After putting his volunteers into a deep sleep, the hypnotist told them that they were watching the funniest movie they had ever seen. Within seconds the subjects were rocking in their chairs.

Then Dr. Masters told his volunteers that the movie was the saddest they had ever seen. The laughter stopped abruptly and some were moved to tears. After a few minutes this "movie audience" was roaring again, after they were told that the movie was hilarious.

To show that the mind can prevail over matter, Dr. Masters put a female volunteer, whom he had brought with him, into a deep sleep and told her that her body was as rigid as a steel bar.

He then put the subject, who said that she weighed only 94 pounds, between two chairs and stood on her; Dr. Masters said he weighed 174 pounds.

Brought out of the trance, the volunteer showed no apparent ill effect from the demonstration.

At the conclusion of the show, Captain George H. Rood, commander of the Caribbean Ready Force and Amphibious Squadron 10, thanked the entertainers for donating their services. The Ready Force comprises the amphibious squadron, Battalion Landing Team 2/6, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Paul B. Haigwood, and Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron (HMM) 261, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Joseph R. Dobbratz Jr.

IT'S A SHAKEY PATH TO FOLLOW — Cpl. Roy L. Tally, tactics section, leads Marines on the obstacle course.

'Let No Marine Fail Because We Didn't Teach

"An infantryman's final exam comes on the battlefield; let no Marine fail because we didn't teach." This motto is the guideline for more than 200 instructors at the 1st Infantry Training Regiment, based at Camp Geiger.

Under the command of Captain James Lupori the instructors are composed of Marines temporarily assigned from the 2d Marine Division and permanent personnel attached to Marine Corps Base.

The "common denominator" of the instructors is that they are all non-commissioned officers and 99 per cent are veterans of Vietnam. The remaining one per cent has instructing background either at Quantico, Va., or teaching midshipmen at Annapolis, Md.

Though their hours are long - 5:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. and periodically around the clock - few complaints are heard because each instructor realizes the importance of his job.

CONSCIENTIOUS

Referring to their responsibilities, Staff Sergeant Charles R. Hill stated, "These instructors are conscientious... these troops need the training and we receive a real feeling of accomplishment." Sgt. Hill, a primary instructor, has been with ITR for seven months and prior to that served in Vietnam.

After the instructors give a class explaining either the use of weapons or method of tactics, the trainees adjourn to the field for practical application. More than 70 per cent of an instructor's time is spent with trainees in the field.

WEAPONS & TACTICS

"This is one of the most important jobs in the Marine Corps," emphasizes Capt. Lapouri, "This is the Marines first actual chance to learn and use weapons and tactics."

Within the training office the instructors are divided into two sections, weapons and tactics, each giving different styles of classes. Instructors from the weapons section instruct indoor classes and handle live firing ranges.

The tactics section gives indoor classes and controls the courses not directly involving live fire.

According to Gunnery Sergeant Anton F. Fickey, non-commissioned officer in charge of tactics, "Though the instructors have an opportunity to teach the subject of their choice, whether it be weapons or tactics, each instructor has to know enough about 76 subjects to give a class at a moments notice."

When an instructor reports to the training regiment he begins 10 days of what is known as "Technical Military Instruction." During this time the potential instructor must pick a subject, devise a lesson plan and give it before a group of experienced instructors known as mentors.

If the man passes this phase he is then assigned as an assistant to a primary instructor. The primary instructor has had experience at giving classes and knows his subjects extensively. There may be two to eight assistants assigned to each primary, depending on the range size.

1500 RECRUITS

"With the large number of men receiving training here it is common for one instructor to be involved with over 1500 recruits a week," stated First Lieutenant A.H. Hill, senior weapons instructor. A new seven day work week was recently established to help handle the influx of troops.

Private John J. Sherman, a recent graduate of the Parris Island Recruit Depot said of the instructors, "... they explain and show us combat techniques and we follow their examples..."

A program to provide incentive and recognition for the instructors was recently initiated by ITR. Once monthly a board meets to pick one instructor from the weapons section and one from the tactics section to receive a certificate of meritorious service as an instructor.

A JOB TO BE DONE

Best summing up the job the instructors are doing at ITR was Colonel Richard S. Johnson, commanding officer, 1st ITR, who said, "Seeing these Marines handle their work load is one of the most satisfying experiences of my career... when there was a job to be done these Marines handled it."

Devildogs Down 4-1 At Intermission

Boxers Edge All-Stars

J. C. Davis's Four Horsemen roared out of the barn to give the Marine Corps boxing team a come from behind victory over the Eastern All-Stars at Syracuse, N. Y. last Saturday night. Davis, the teams's trainer, was ecstatic over the victory.

Down four victories to one at intermission, Marine coach Ray Rogers decided it was time for a gung ho talk.

"We (J. C. and I) told the fighters we had to come out and really start hitting. These boys were fighting were tough and we had to get ourselves together," said Rogers.

Whatever he said to his team worked because Corporal Richard Royal, Private Will Phillips, Corporal Hinton Wilson, and Sergeant Art Redden all overwhelmed their opponents to give the Marines a 5-4 team victory. Sergeant Larry Armendariz had won his flyweight match in the first bout of the evening.

"I call those four men my Four Horsemen because they are tough. They really came through for us. I was proud of them," said J. C. Davis.

All was calm as the bouts started off as usual, with Devil-dog Armendariz hammering out a unanimous decision over Celestino Aponte in the flyweight bout. Armendariz dominated the whole fight and scored with combinations and hard counter punches.

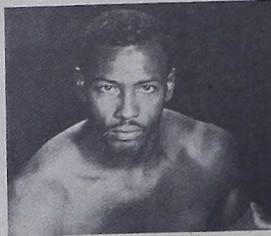

All good things must come to an end and they did temporarily, as the All-Stars glittered for four straight matches.

Private First Class Paul Cordero, fighting for the first time since his victory against the Navy in November, was edged by Dave Vasquez in their bantamweight battle.

"It was one of the most exciting fights of the night," said

RICHARD ROYAL

ART REDDEN

WILL PHILLIPS

J. C. Davis. "They threw punches for all three rounds but Cordero lost the split decision."

Spotting his opponent seven pounds, Corporal Cecil Beverly lost a unanimous decision to Greg Jones from Philadelphia.

"Jones had weight and reach on Beverly. He was a real good fighter and I was real proud of the way Beverly fought. Considering the edge Jones had in experience and weight, Bev fought well," said J. C.

Jones was a hard puncher and he hit Beverly with harder blows. Jones scored mostly with left hooks.

In the lightweight match, Lance Corporal Pete Browner dropped a split decision to John "Golden Boy" Harp, a local favorite.

Harp tried to power punch but Brown counterpunched and moved away in the first round. In the second round a five punch flurry by Harp brought the crowd to its feet.

J. C. Davis felt that none of the punches hurt his man. "I thought we had the fight in the last round," said Davis.

With 30 seconds left in the third round Browner knocked Harp's mouthpiece out with a left hook and then pounded him on the ropes. Browner had Harp in trouble but the bell saved him.

Lance Corporal Les Brown completed the Marine losses in the light welterweight match as he lost a split decision to Ed Beauford.

At this point there was a short intermission while the Marines went into the locker room and grabbed a few bowls of Wheaties.

Corporal Richard Royal started the Marine comeback as he whipped New York City's Bobby Middlebrooks in the welterweight bout. Middlebrooks was a strong puncher and Royal's plan of attack was to outbox his opponent.

The first and second rounds saw each fighter land telling blows. Royal finished strong in the third round and Middlebrooks was tired. Royal landed many left hooks and right uppercuts in the third round, as he earned a split decision.

After seeing Royal in his last match, J. C. commented, "Royal is going places now. He really looked good."

The 156 pound bout was a "real crowd pleaser," according to J. C. Phillips's opponent, Ira Daniel, was strong and carried his hands low.

Toward the end of the second round "The Chief" began to wear Daniels down. In the last 30 seconds of the round Phillips decked his man with a short right. Phillips won the unanimous decision going away in the third round as he hit Daniel with everything he had.

The Devil-dogs needed two more victories to win the match. "When you have to win all the rest, it's real bad," said Coach Rogers. "One loss and it would've been all over."

Corporal Hinton Wilson's opponent, Arthur Harrison, "danced around the ring and looked real cute for about the first round," said J. C. "He stopped dancing in the second round. Wilson really hit him hard."

By the third round, Harrison had slowed way down and Wilson began to land everything he threw as he won a unanimous decision.

Sergeant Art Redden didn't get to fight Leonard Hutchins, the National AAU Champ, in the light heavyweight encounter. Bobby O'Brien got the chance at Red, and earned the right to say that he had fought the "best light heavyweight in the country." He lost.

In the second Round, Redden hit the rangy O'Brien so hard that he spun him completely around and into the opposite ropes. The Marine rushed toward O'Brien for the kill but was in too close to throw a knockout punch. O'Brien held on for the rest of the fight as Redden scored a unanimous decision.

The hunt this past Saturday was the 11th of the season with more regular organized hunts remaining. The totals listed above include all registered kills to date. The hunts are experiencing difficulty in getting enough hunters to be effective and are having to join forces. This past weekend showed a total of 16 deer taken with Capt. STOFFA having a rather good day. The Buck is becoming hard to find but the Capt. still managed to take 8 deer for a successful day. Nice going Capt! I imagine that is why we were walking around the Rod & Gun Club with such a big smile on your face.

As far as the individual hunters are concerned, they must be given up on deer hunting. There was only one deer killed over the weekend and that was by 1st Sgt. H.L. McClucas who tagged an 8 pointer in the GD area. Although it wasn't a big deer, it's the only buck recorded.

So you lost your tackle box and fishing gear? Well, we have a man that is going to all extremes to get it back to you. 1st Sgt. Fredrick L. Fernane of H & S Co., H & S Bn., 2nd Ft. He has your Rod and Reel and Tackle. He has advertised on the radio and in the Trader for you to claim your equipment. All you have to do is describe your fishing tackle and you're back in business.

Eagle In The Rough

By Major W. A. Merrill

Seventy-six golfers were on hand for the Annual Commissioned Officers Golf Association meeting and tournament held last Saturday morning at the Paradise Point Golf Course.

Captain J.J. Brown, USN, outgoing president presided over the nomination and election of new officers for 1968. By unanimous votes Lt. Col. Joe Marron was elected president; Major John D. USMC Ret'd, vice president; WO D.F. Daughters, secretary and Lt. John Endman, USN, treasurer.

At 9:30 a.m. the tournament tee-off with a shotgun start. When the scores were tallied on the 19th, First Lieutenant Mickey Bonnell came in with the low gross of 68. Brigadier General John Williams dropped a mere 25 putts for fewest putts winner.

WO Buster Keeton won honors for low net with 64. He was followed by Lt. T.G. Landin, USN, 65, Lt. Col. E. Kirby-Smyth, 67; Maj. Bill Wagner, USMC Ret'd, 67 and Capt. Bill Klages, 68.

The Paradise Point Golf Course will hold the Annual Christmas Turkey Tournament on Course Number 1 tomorrow. The fee is $2.00 per person payable at the starter's post prior to teeing off. There will be one turkey winner in each foursome using handicaps. A foursome can sign up together or individuals may sign up, and they will be assigned a foursome with comparable handicaps.

Sign up today at the Club House or Saturday morning. Tee-off time is 9:00 a.m.

Boxers Fight Sat. At Raleigh Prison

The Marine Corps boxing team will fight the Raleigh Prison Champions at Raleigh State Prison, Raleigh, N.C. tomorrow. The fights will start at 2 p.m.

Coach Rogers is taking ten fighters with him in hopes of repeating the Marines' 8-2 victory over the prison champions two weeks ago.

Div. Wins, Force Troops Loses In FMFLant Football Tilts

The Force Troops All-Stars let down their defenses in the final quarter and dropped a 25-12 decision to Cherry Point's fired up MAG-24 football team.

The Wingmen scored 19 points in the last quarter to offset Force Troops' D. D. Barksdale's 12 point effort. Barksdale's first TD came in the opening quarter the second time his team had the ball. He scored on a 24 yard run off tackle.

In the second half Barksdale gathered in a pass from his quarterback, W. J. Wright, and raced into the end zone for his other tally.

This gave Force Troops a 12-0 lead and set the stage for the great Cherry Point comeback.

Near the end of the Third quarter, Cherry Point quarterback W. P. Vidacovich hit halfback Johnny Walker with a 35 yard scoring pass. This play climaxed the first successful offensive drive that the Pointers could muster up to this time.

The third quarter ended 12-6 with Force Troops ahead.

L. M. Walters, Pointer halfback, scooted around left end for 25 yards and the tying TD.

Force Troops got the ball on the kickoff but stalled in three plays. The Wingmen forced a hurried punt from Trooper Barksdale, and gained possession of the ball on the Force Troops' 35 yard line.

Mitch Arnette quickly took advantage of the Wingmen's luck as he tossed the go ahead TD bomb to L. H. Major. The Pointers now led 18-12.

Force Troops received the kickoff and coughed up the ball on a W. J. Wright fumble at his own 28 yard line. Cherry Point was forced to punt after a holding penalty put them out of range, but Force Troops receiver, M. R. Steele, dropped the ball and Chiomento recovered for the Pointers on the enemy eight yard line.

Huglett scored for Cherry Point's last touchdown from the eight. Chiomento faked the kick and passed for the PAT.

In the Division contest, Bob Debmán scored two touchdowns as he led his team to victory. He rolled around right end to tally in the first half and later added another six pointer on a quarterback keeper.

R. Green pushed over the other Division score. T.H. Versteegen kicked two PATS to complete the Division scoring.

MAG-31's G.M. Ditch tallied on the first series of downs when he caught a 20 yard pass from quarterback N. Rushing. The other touchdown for the losers came in the third quarter on an intercepted pass and runback by A.D. Holback.

Devilpups Run Wild Over Vanceboro In 115-46 Win

Camp Lejeune's Devilpups mauled the Red Raiders from Vanceboro 115-46 Tuesday night, posting their third win against one setback.

Coach Griffin gave everyone on the bench a piece of the action as the Pups drove past the century mark.

Lejeune grabbed a 20-8 first period advantage and by the intermission had amassed more points than Vanceboro was to score all evening. They dominated the boards as they riddled the Red Raider's zone defense, both from the outside and under the hoop.

Leading the Pup's offense were Ron Caves, Lane Argetsinger and Rick Gutekunst. Neither of the "big three" could be stopped as they combined for 71 points. Caves and Argetsinger tossed in 27 and 25 points respectively, while Gutekunst banged in 19

Caves and Argetsinger also turned in strong defensive efforts as they continually blocked Red Raider shots and broke up plays.

CAMP LEJEUNE (115) -- Gutekunst 19, Argetsinger 25, Caves 27, Ogle 12, Dillard 10, Judge 3, Slaton 2, Waters 2, Goss 4, Smith 6, Villeneuve 4, Russell 1, Overpeck. VANCEBORO (46) -- Hooks 12, Norfleet 10, Whitford 8, Robinson 4, Willoughby 6, Wright 3, Panichelli 2. Halftime: Camp Lejeune, 50-18.

What's New on the Bookshelves

FRANK LOYD WRIGHT: AMERICA'S GREATEST ARCHITECT by Herbert Jacobs. In this objective study Frank Lloyd Wright comes alive both as a vulnerable human being and as a man whose impress on modern architecture, here and abroad, will reach far into the future.

OVERTAKEN BY EVENTS by John Bartlow Martin. Here, written by a trained political observer, is a step-by-step account of those strange and violent days of the Dominican Civil War of 1965.

ROBERT MORLEY: A RELUCTANT AUTOBIOGRAPHY by Robert Morley and Sewell Stokes. This unconventional autobiography tells the classic story of an actor's progress - from the early years with touring companies in the provinces to international acclaim as one of the great figures of stage and film today.

THE JUST WAR by Robert W. Tucker. Here is a study which provides a penetrating commentary on the nature and limits of a defensive war and on the perennial moral issues even a defensive war must raise.

POPE JOHN by Meriol Trevor. In this detailed biography, Meriol Trevor places Pope John in the context of his time, dramatizing each important event in his life, and demonstrating how he affected - and was affected by - the history of the last half century.

SOVIET LEADERS edited by G.W. Simmonds. Here are forty-two biographical sketches of leaders in governmental, economic, military, and party positions of importance in the USSR and of prominent figures in Soviet scientific and cultural life.

SCIENTISTS AND WAR by Sir Solly Zuckerman. The chief adviser to the British government discusses the grave responsibilities of science and scientists in relation to the military and political decision of our time.

THEBES OF THE PHARAOHS BY C.F. Nims. A fine test supplemented by excellent photographs documenting the greatness that once was Thebes.

THE FRAIL OCEAN by Wesley Marx. The problem of air pollution is everywhere in the news these days, yet few people realize that the oceans of the world are like-

"The Flim-Flam Man"

The zany comedy depicts the revelings of two roguish swindlers as they play their fraudulent trade leaving a host of irate citizens in their wake. The color production features George C. Scott as the con-man with a touch of creative genius, Michael Sarrazin as his partner in crime and Sue Lyon as the lovely lass who wins the affections of the rascally hero.

"The Wings of Eagles"

Filed against the backdrop of World War I, this inspiring drama features John Wayne as Commander "Spig" Wead, the air ace who faced life with a laugh and a challenge. This color production also stars Ward Bond, Dan Dailey and Maureen O'Hara.

"Barefoot in the Park"

Barefoot in the Park featuring Robert Redford and Jane Fonda, depicts the complication following the marriage of a kooky socialite with a young lawyer. In color.

"A Fist Full of Dollars"

One of the bloodiest Westerns ever filmed, this flick features Clint Eastwood as a decadent killer who ravages rivaling gangs for mercenary gains. In color.

"Rough Night in Jericho"

In Rough Night at Jericho Dean Martin portrays an ex-lawman turned town-boss whose maniacal despotism drives him to murder. Jean Simmons stars as a stagecoach line owner intent upon impeding his tyranny. The color presentation also stars Slim Pickens and Don Galloway.

"Honey Pot"

Sparkling dialogue underscores this mature comedy of a man who circulates a rumor that he is dying in order to assess his popularity. Filmed in color, this United Artists release features Rex Harrison, Susan Hayward, Cliff Robertson and Capucine.

"Woman Times Seven"

The rollicking bawdy comedy of a femme fatale's maneuverings to entrap men, this film features Shirley MacLaine in a multi-rolled characterization of a woman in her natural element. The lavish color production also stars Rossano Brazzi, Michael Caine, Peter Sellers and Anita Ekberg.

"The Day Dreamers"

The stories of Hans Christian Andersen are brought to the screen in this musical fairytale. This cinematic spectacular features a galaxy of stars including Ray Bolger, Patty Duke, Burl Ives and Haley Mills.

"Robbery"

This compelling drama traces the drafting and execution of a crime that baffled Scotland Yard. Filmed in color, on location in England, the lavish production stars Jeanna Pettei, James Booth and Barry Foster.

"The Hellbenders"

This spirited horse-opera dramatizes the desperate attempt to reconstruct a war machine from the ashes of ruin left by the Civil War. The color production features Joseph Cotten, Norma Bengell and Angel Aranda.

"It"

The ultimate in terror, "It" rises out of the depth of time to reach the final frontiers of ghoulish delight. Filmed in color, this spine-tingler features Roddy McDowall and Jill Haworth.

"A Guide for the Married Man"

A Guide for the Married Man boosting an all star cast, illustrates the rules followed by an unhappy married man with a roving eye and the urge to stray. Filmed in color, the spicy comedy stars Lucille Ball, Jack Benny, Polly Bergen, Sid Caesar and a host of others.

"The Devil's Own"

Joan Fontaine joins with Kay Walsh and Alec McCowen in this ghoulish flick that answers the question, what do the 'Devils own' do after dark. In blood curdling color.

"Tobruk"

An action-packed war adventure, this movie details the true story of a little-known World War II incident wherein a handful of soldiers are sent to destroy the huge guns at Tobruk. The technicolor feature stars Rock Hudson, Guy Stockwell and George Peppard.

or General P.R. Tyler, Quartermaster General of the Marine Corps, representing the Commandant of the Marine Corps; former Quartermaster General of the Marine Corps, Major General Chester R. Allen (Ret.) and Mrs. Allen; Brigadier General and Mrs. Wallace H. Robinson, Commanding General, Marine Corps Supply Activity, Philadelphia; Colonel Elliot B. Robertson (Ret.), former Chief of Staff, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune; Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. H.G. Botarth (Ret.), former Base Maintenance Officer, Camp Lejeune; Capt. Frank Hill, USA, nephew of General Hill; Captain P.H. Rupertus, USMC, Godson of General Hill; the Honorable W.B. Teachey, Jr., Mayor of the City of Jacksonville; and Mr. W.R. Page, Jr., President of the Greater Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce.

The highlights of the impressive Dedication Ceremony included the unveiling of the commemorative bronze plaque by Mrs. Hill which will mark the field in honor of her late husband; the reading of General Hill's chronology of career by Colonel W.W. Stegmerten, Chief of Staff, Marine Corps Base; an address by the Commandant's representative, Major General P.R. Tyler; the Dedicatory address by Major General J.O. Butcher, Commanding General, Marine Corps Base, and remarks by Mrs. Hill.

In his Dedicatory address, General Butcher reflected on the vision and foresight of General Hill which made possible the beautiful and efficient training activity which Camp Lejeune is today. He stated "Every Marine, past and present, who has benefitted from the permanency, configuration, and beauty of Camp Lejeune, owes a debt of gratitude to the foresight of General Hill." He further commented that in addition to honoring the tangible accomplishments made possible through the skill and determination of General Hill, he thought it also fitting and proper that we pay tribute to the noble principles and ideals which the character of this man exemplified. General Butcher in recalling his memory of General Hill said "He was a person who loved his fellowman and he was in turn rewarded with the love and respect of an abundance of friends." In concluding General Butcher stated "There is a statement which comes to my mind which in my opinion most aptly describes the philosophy of life which General Hill lived - 'It is nice to be important, but it is more important to be nice'. And so, my friends, this is the memory of the man which we honor today. A man of dedication, foresight, and determination, but also a man with compassion and understanding who shared the heartbeat of his fellowman - a man in whose shadow we can be proud to stand."

In excerpts of his address quoted below, Major General Tyler, Quartermaster General of the Marines, speaking in behalf of the Commandant, said of General Hill "...Today at this dedication, we remember a man with a vast and shining vision. It is difficult to speak of General Hill and limit oneself to only what he accomplished here at Camp Lejeune - because for, General Hill, my friends, only the sky was the limit.....but the period which most interests us today is 1941, and the focus of our attention is Camp Lejeune. In 1941, General Hill constructed this Base and became its first Commanding Officer. The Nation had already begun mobilizing, and America was but a few short months away from World War II. The need was great. Time was short. Building supplies and equipment were scarce and the only commodity in plentiful supply was the troops, who were flowing by the thousands, and they desperately needed training and living facilities."

"To the average person the job would have been all but impossibleThis one man, a lieutenant colonel in 1941, led the way, and fought thousands of battles large and small, to build the best possible Base for the present and future Camp Lejeune. His determination, skill, and dedication produced this Base in its configuration."

"Today in dedicating this parade field in his name and to his memory, we are recognizing General Hill's contribution so that it shall not pass into the forgotten history of this area."

"Twenty years ago, General Hill was asked to approve and comment on a brief sketch describing his Marine Corps career. He returned it with one comment written on the bottom of the page....and I quote: 'Too many flowers'In deference to the General's wishes, I have tried to omit the flowers, however the quality of his service and the character of the man are so apparent and so uniformly high that even the cold fact sheet containing his service history reads like an accolade."

"Although General Hill died two years ago, he left a permanent legacy to all Marines. He was a Marine's Marine. For General Hill the sky was indeed the limit - but his head and heart kept on the ground. He wanted no monuments, but for Marines, he wanted, and so that they got the best supplies and equipment, and the first training Base, here at Camp Lejeune.

"Every Marine today is better trained, better housed, better equipped because a youth from Oklahoma decided 50 years ago to make the Marine Corps lifeand what a life was!"

The dedication ceremony concluded with the rendering of the benediction by Chaplain Morton.

Great joy to all men

The Birth of Jesus

AT THAT TIME Emperor Augustus sent out an order for all the citizens of the Empire to register themselves for the census. When this first census took place, Quirinius was the governor of Syria. Everyone, then, went to register himself, each to his own town.

Joseph went from the town of Nazareth, in Galilee, to Judea, to the town named Bethlehem, where King David was born. Joseph went there because he himself was a descendant of David. He went to register himself with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him. She was pregnant, and while they were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her baby. She gave birth to her first son, wrapped him in clothes and laid him in a manger — there was no room for them to stay in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

There were some shepherds in that part of the country who were spending the night in the fields, taking care of their flocks. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone over them. They were terribly afraid, but the angel said to them: "Don't be afraid! For I am here with good news for you, which will bring great joy to all the people. This very night in David's town your Savior was born — Christ the Lord! This is what will prove it to you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Suddenly a great army of heaven's angels appeared with the angel, singing praises to God:

"Glory to God in the highest heaven!
And peace on earth to men with whom he is pleased!"

When the angels went away from them back into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, that the Lord has told us." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and saw the baby lying in the manger. When the shepherds saw him they told them what the angel had said about his child. All who heard it were filled with wonder at what the shepherds told them. Mary remembered all these things, and thought deeply about them. The shepherds went back, singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen; it had been just as the angel had told them.

Up The Down Ladder

Chances are, when you think about the Chain-of-Command, you instinctively see it as a vehicle for passing policy, information, and orders DOWN from the commanding officer to his troops. Well, of course, that's what it is.

However, it has another, perhaps just-as-important function: It serves to send information, requests, and recommendations UP to the commanding officer from the lowest private in the "rearrest" rank.

Shades of Dan Dailey! Does this mean the chain-of-command ladder goes both ways? It does indeed. The "Down-rungs" and the "Up-rungs" are identical, except for spelling and pronunciation.

Take Private Joe Doe, for example. He has a problem -- besides being under suspicion of going under an assumed name. His problem is important to him, just about the most important thing in the world, at the present time, and he just can't seem to work out its solution.

First of all, you can believe his parents know about his problem; and you can believe that if his problem does not resolve itself, or if it is not resolved by Private Doe, or if it is not resolved by his military unit, either Doe or Mr. and Mrs. Doe, Senior, will contact their congressman. Or the Commandant. Or the President. Or all three. Personally. Then, of course, the chain-of-command again becomes the down-ladder, the way most of us ordinarily see it.

In fact, the ensuing deluge can almost convince one that Ye Olde Ladder is suddenly resting against Niagara or some other equally active waterfall and that everything connected with the law of gravity is functioning AOK.

Of course, the deluge starts with a simple inquiry from the top rung: "What is the status....?" or "Please forward details..." or "Investigate and advise".....that sort of thing.

At this point, what started as a simple problem, has grown into a complex problem. And the sad thing about it is that it is no nearer solution than ever before: Private Doe still has his problem.

This whole thing hinges upon one big word -- CONFIDENCE. Obviously, Private Doe and his parents lacked confidence in Doe's immediate superior to handle the problem except with applied stimulus from his seniors. What caused such a breakdown of the ordinarily assumed confidence of a Marine in his senior?

Was Doe summarily dismissed as soon as he stated his problem? Did he ever get past his senior's assistants to even state his problem? Did his senior accept responsibility for Doe's problem, then fail to follow through? Did the senior "forget" under burden of more pressing things? Did Doe fail to inquire of action status, after a reasonable time, as a reminder to his senior? Or did Doe fail to even give the man a chance in the first place?

Whatever the reason -- misunderstanding, misinformation, refusal to help, or whatever -- it resulted in a breakdown of confidence, followed by Doe's taking the matter into his own hands and trying to leap to the very top of the ladder.

The big point is, if we ascend the ladder in the prescribed manner, we'll seldom have to take more than one step, or possibly two, to achieve our goal. If we jump, we may have to come down several, to start our climb.

V.A. Income Reports Due Before Jan. 31

The Onslow County Veterans Service Officer, Mr. J.B. Pollock, states that area veterans and widows receiving non-service connected pension from the Veterans Administration are cautioned that the annual income questionnaires received with their December check must be completed and returned to the V.A. before January 31, 1968, to avoid suspension of payment.

Income reports are required by all persons receiving pension from the V.A. Service-connected disability, death compensation, or dependency and indemnity recipients need not file annual income questionnaires.

The questionnaires are used to determine entitlement to future payments and to make adjustments in payments where come requires it. Income limitations under the old pension are $1,400 for single persons widows without children; $2,700 for married veterans widows with children. Under law which began July 1, 1967, income limitations are $1,100 and $3,000 with graduated payments based on need and level of income below the minimums.

Assistance in completing annual income questionnaires may be obtained from Mr. J. Pollock in the Courthouse, Room 107, Jacksonville, N.C.

About Driving

Former Marine Passes Word About Jobs, To Former, CO

Yesterday I received a letter from a former Marine who was with us for over a year and stood Control NCO. He is now a civilian. By his own request I'm passing his letter on to each of you.

"Dear Gunner, I've been out of the service now for two months. I've been turned down on two jobs because of my driving record. I've only had one moving violation ticket and that was for driving under the influence. I'm now applying for a job with the police department here in Detroit. I have to go in front of a special board to see if it is possible to waive this one ticket, otherwise I will be rejected. Please pass the word to the troopers from the voice of experience what just a couple of beers can do.

Yours truly,
A former Marine

'Drinkers Shouldn't Drive' Says General Butcher

"Camp Lejeune motorists who stay out from behind the wheel when they're impaired by alcohol may be giving others the gift of life itself. There can hardly be a greater gift," Major General J. O. Butcher, Commanding General, Marine Corps Base said today. In making his suggestion, the General referred to a report by the National Safety Council that a drunk driver is at least 25 times more likely to be involved in a traffic accident than if he were sober.

The complex driving task in today's traffic is difficult, and our seasonal preoccupation with hurry, weather, and shopping only adds to the difficulty. The driver who, in these circumstances, further impairs his ability with alcohol violates all the noble traditions we associate with the season, ...

Our nation's motor transportation system is a network of cooperative and interlocking responsibilities. The citizen who abdicates his responsibility by impairing his driving ability, then injects himself into the traffic stream, poses a deadly hazard to us all.

Such anti-social behavior is a clear indication of social weaknesses in many of our citizens. It is essential that we all work to oppose, by every available means, such a dangerous threat to responsible individuals.
