21—NO. 9

MARINE CORPS BASE, CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C.

MARCH 4, 1965

HOW MUCH ARE YOU GOING TO RECOMMEND THAT UNCLE SAM SPEND FOR A FAIR PAY RAISE FOR THE MILITARY? BE SURE TO SEND YOUR RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE PRESIDENT'S PANEL NO LATER THAN MARCH 12, 1965.

Deadline March 12

LBJ Asks Servicemen For Pay Raise Opinion

The President of the United States in an unprecedented move, has asked servicemen the world over to write to a special board created by him on the study of military pay.

Called the President's Panel on Federal Salaries, the panel has requested military men to write to them and recommend pay raise proposals.

The message from the panel reads as follows:

NOTICE TO FEDERAL CIVILIAN AND UNIFORMED PERSONNEL

The President's Special Panel on Federal Salaries will receive and consider any views on federal salaries which interested government personnel transmit in writing.

Letters should be addressed to: President's Special Panel on Federal Salaries, Executive Office of the President, Room 252, Executive Office Bldg., Washington, D. C. 20503.

All communications received will become part of the panel's record. Therefore, the panel requests that no materials be sent which the writer wishes to keep or which have to be returned. No communication can be considered which is received later than March 12, 1965.

Related Request

A similar request to write directly to superiors was published in the GLOBE three weeks ago in which the Secretary of the Navy asked servicemen to write to him direct on their ideas concerning the solving of the reenlistment problem. Although insufficient basic pay may be one of the cures to the reenlistment problem, the President's panel is the first to ask for direct recommendations on the pay problem alone.

McNamara Indicates Support

Meanwhile, NAVY TIMES has reported that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is backing a pay raise for the military this year. There is even an indication that his recommendation may exceed his original bid of $250 million.

What the Panel Might Discuss

In addition to basic pay increase proposals, the President's Panel will probably also consider recommendations to close some commissaries and exchanges, and study restrictions on 20-year retirements. Writers are urged to keep these points in mind.

Hopes High for Lower Rank Raise

At least one U. S. Senator is vitally interested in substantially boosting the pay of recruit ranks. Wisconsin Democrat Gaylord Nelson states that "the $78 per month received in recruit ranks since 1952 is too low". The Senator argues that the U. S. cannot consider this fair while West Germany and Canada pay their recruits between $110 and $112 per month.

Local Help Available

Several company officers have offered assistance to their troops in preparing their letters. Troops are encouraged at all levels to state their opinions. This is the first time such an opportunity has arisen and the spirit of the opportunity should not be marred with indifference.

ECC Fourth Term Begins Mar. 29

Registration for the fourth term of the Camp Lejeune Center, East Carolina College will be March 24 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. (Only from 9 a.m. to noon on Friday, March 27.)

All registrants are required to file an application appropriate transcripts. can be determined and tested in the College Office Bldg., 67.

Satisfactory high school GED will suffice in lieu of high school diploma. Stud planning to register for fourth term should take care of this immediately. Special tests are limited to a maximum of 23 quarter hours of at the Camp Lejeune Center.

Persons registering for the time should stop by the office (Bldg. 67) for the use of taking care of administrative details. This should be done as early as possible.

The Camp Lejeune center provides an opportunity for Marine Corps personnel, their dependents and all other individuals of the surrounding area to complete two years of basic college courses and receive credit training for their work. Plans are encouraged to participate.

Students may be admitted to center by meeting the requirements stated in one of the following categories:

admission as a resident student:

1. From High School
  - a. File an application
  - b. Take the College Entrance examination
  - c. File your high school transcript
  - d. Submit health certificate (applies to civilians only)
2. Transfer from another college

Students may be admitted on the basis of fifteen semester hours (23 quarter hours) of transferable credit from an accredited college or university. Students must have a "C" average and be eligible to return to the last college or university attended.

B. General Requirements for admission as a Special Student: Students may be admitted as a special student for a maximum of 23 quarter hours of work. For details concerning requirements for admission in this category, contact the director of the East Carolina College Center.

C. Students may register for "No College Credit". No grades or credit will be given for work taken as a non-credit student.

The fees will be the same as for credit courses.

The cost will be $9.00 per quarter hour of credit. The tuition for biology will be $12.00 per quarter hour. Military personnel are entitled to financial assistance from the government at the rate of $6.75 per quarter hour. The military student pays the remaining $2.25 per quarter hour. Students who desire this assistance should complete MCBCCL 590, including endorsement by your commanding officer. (Your CO and Base Education Officer should sign all copies. Enlisted men should complete 3 copies and officers should complete 4 copies of this form. Completed and signed forms should be hand carried by the student at the time of registration. The blank forms may be obtained from the ECC Branch Office (67) or the Base Education Office (19).

Our Military Community Faces National Problem

Among the increasingly complex problems facing our increasingly complex society today is the care and treatment of crippled children.

Crippling is, first of all, a personal and family problem. But because of its vastness in size and its impact on the economy of our culture and social institutions it becomes a military community problem and a national problem.

The dictionary defines "cripple" as a person who is lame or otherwise disabled as a result of injury, disease, or a condition existing from birth.

There are many degrees of crippling, of course, but to establish a statistical base we consulted the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults. The Society said that there are at least 8-1/2 million "severely" crippled persons in the country today. This means that about one in every 24 Americans has a handicap which seriously affects his and his family's life.

The number continues to grow in proportion to the population increase and is augmented because of advances in medical science. Babies who suffered once fatal crippling diseases are now being saved, more people survive strokes, and others live to the ages at which they acquire handicapping conditions.

How do we care for these people? The Easter Seal Society took the leadership in the nationwide campaign to establish appropriate services 44 years ago. Last year with 1,426 state and local affiliates the Society served almost a quarter million crippled children and adults. Their handicaps included cerebral palsy, polio, arthritis, muscular dystrophy, loss of limb, other orthopedic conditions, stroke and speech disorders.

Until we know all the answers—until medical science conquers crippling—we must depend on such organizations as the Easter Seal Society to at least alleviate this community and national problem.

So please give generously to Easter Seals this month.

A HOLOCAUST that meant tragedy for hundreds of Indiana families a little more than a year ago left also hundreds of physically handicapped men, women and children in critical need of rehabilitation. Easter Seals brought necessary services to Barbara, 9, so severely burned that for weeks she remained in a coma, for months, hospitalized and unable to sit up or walk. Today, she is back at school, back to many of her previous normal activities.

CHAPLAIN HONORED—Thirty-five guests attended a buffet supper Feb. 23 at the MCAF New River Chapel. The occasion was the impending transfer of Father Anthony R. Peloquin to the USS Bennington at San Diego. Father Peloquin was presented with luggage in appreciation of his services to the service community. Cpl. J. D. Monroe, Chapel NCOIC made the presentation on behalf of the Ladies Altar and Rosary Society, the Chapel Ushers and the Chapel Choir.

FOUR STAR QUOTES...

"Every young Marine is a part of the Navy/Marine Corps team—a part of that force-in-readiness serving on the frontiers of the world with the Fleet Marine Forces—in the South China Sea, in the Mediterranean, in the Caribbean. By these deployments, virtually world-wide, they are contributing to our National Strategic deterrent posture. They constantly demonstrate this Nation's willingness and capability to assist our allies, as well, in meeting their specific needs. They are an essential element of our National posture."

Radio Free Europe

For over 15 years, the Communists have controlled every aspect of life in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania. And, for 15 long years, the captive people have been subjected to a constant flood of Communist propaganda—propaganda designed to turn them into willing slaves of the Soviet Union.

Have the Communists succeeded? The answer is resounding NO! The captive people in East Europe have actively resisted all attempts to fit them into the Communist mold. Soviet agriculture collectivization attempts have failed. Soviet expectations for East European industrial growth have failed. Soviet hopes to use East Europe and its people as a stepping stone to further conquests have failed.

Why have the Communists failed? Surely, it is through lack of time, effort, money or even skill in manipulation of facts and ideas. One of the main answers for the Kremlin failure to master the minds of East Europeans has been the work of Radio Free Europe.

Each week Radio Free Europe combats Communism with over 3,000 program hours devoted to news analysis, music, and feature programs that include drama, sports, and religious services. Working on the basis that an informed people are a free people, RFE devotes over 50 percent of its broadcast time to hard cold facts—the Communists can't refute.

To the 80 million captive people in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria, Radio Free Europe is the strongest link they have with the truth: the free world; a link we can't afford to have weakened through lack of support.

Radio Free Europe is active, working proof that we can defeat Communist propaganda. But only through your help can RFE continue in its vital work... help... can give Radio Free Europe through your International Service Agencies campaign (Federal Service Joint Campaign).

LENT

The Lenten Season, which began yesterday (Wednesday), is a period of six weeks preceding the anniversary of the death of Jesus Christ and it is set apart as a special season of fasting, penitence, and prayer. It is called "Lent" because it always comes in the spring of the year and the old Saxon word "Lent" means spring. The season is used to recall the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness.

Christians use the season of Lent as a special time for drawing near to God, to deepen the religious life to purify the heart from sin and to unite us more closely to the Savior. Rightly kept, it purifies the heart from greed and lust, breaks the force of evil habit, brings us near to Christ, and creates a closer bond of union between our souls and heaven. The fullest and deepest meaning of the joyous resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ will be best received by those who prepare, during Lent, by thoughtful and sacrificial disciplines in thought, word, and deed. "I will arise and go to my father, he will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son."

Your Chaplains strongly urge you to attend special Lenten Devotional Services

'Banana Wars' Veteran, Silver Star Holder, Retires

By: WO F. TUCKER, JR.

A "Marine's Marine" said goodbye March 1 to the way of life he loved and lived for more than three decades. Silver Star holder, Chief Warrant Officer (W-4) Henry B. Reed of the 2d Marine Division, a veteran of more than 36 years service to the Marine Corps and his country, faced the inevitable—retirement.

born Jan. 19, 1907 in Arizona, Reed spent more than 33 of the 36 years on active duty. His career stretched from the days of the "Horse Marines" in the Space Age.

He served under seven Commanders-in-Chief and 11 Marine Corps Commandants and numerous Marines advanced from lieutenant to general officer.

Listing Jan. 10, 1929, his assignment at Parris Island, S.C., was cut short and he was sent to Nicaragua. After that, his assignments took him to China (Yangtze River) and then a return trip to Nicaragua.

The "Banana War" veteran and "Old China Hand" spent the early part of World War II in the North Atlantic. He was serving as a gunnery sergeant in Iceland when he was appointed a Marine Gunner Jan. 31, 1943.

He received his first Purple Heart during the battle of Barter's Sea. He was aboard a Merchant Marine cargo ship that was struck by an air attack and submarine torpedoes simultaneously.

He then saw action in Saipan, Tinian, Peleliu and Okinawa. It was during the Peleliu campaign that he received the Silver Star and his second Purple Heart.

He received the awards for duty as a forward observer for the 11th Marines (Artillery). He was the only survivor in the outpost and continued to accurately call in the deadly artillery fire on the enemy after being wounded and cut off from friendly lines.

His comment regarding this action was, "There was no place to go."

He served a short tour in Korea on special assignment during that war.

An interview with Reed is comparable to a guided tour of Marine Corps history from 1929 to the present. He is a "Plankowner" in the Fleet Marine Force—he was right guide of the 1st Platoon, Company A, 1st Battalion when the FMF was organized in 1933. He was a corporal at the time.

National Matches—1936

In 1936 he was a member of the winning Marine Corps team in the National Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. He has fired expertly with the service rifle and pistol every time he fired for qualification since 1929.

He spent nearly 12 years in the 2d Marine Division and served with the present commanding general, MajGen. W. J. Van Ryzin, in 1943, when the general was a major.

He has served in almost every billet a warrant officer would normally be assigned to—and a few that were out of the ordinary. It is one of these unusual assignments he considers the highlight of his long career.

Unusual Assignment

In 1951 he was assigned to detached duty with the Department of Interior and subsequently appointed "Director of Public Safety" for the U. N. Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands with headquarters at Truk.

There he faced the task of establishing a constabulary and law enforcement code for the territory. He requested, and received, two Marine NCOs with civilian police experience to help him.

He organized a police force of approximately 350 local civilians and was responsible for providing law enforcement for 125,000 people spread over three million square miles (mostly ocean). This 125,000 is more than twice the number the Marine Corps had on active duty shortly before the Korean War!

Reed also assisted in setting up security at Kwajalein for the first H-Bomb test in 1952.

Don't Under-Evaluate

When asked to compare today's Marine with the young Marines of 1929 and the '30s, he very emphatically said, "Don't ever under-evaluate the Marine of today!"

"Young Marines today have a lot more to learn in a lot less time than they did years ago to remain proficient. Pressure is much greater—more young NCOs have families to look after.

"Discipline is maintained now by different standards. A Marine that gets through his first and second enlistment with a clean record is doing good. I don't advocate a reversal to the past, though. We are experiencing an evolution. We must change too," he said.

CAPTAIN FRED CRAIG, Marine member of Navy Blue Angels acrobatic team.

Pre-Retirement Class A Success; 400-500 Potential Retirees Attend

By PVT. D. E. BELSEY

"Now we begin thinking of our future, and how to get there," was the opening statement made by Colonel E. B. Robertson, Chief of Staff, MCB, that started the class on the afternoon of February 23 in the Camp Theatre at which 400-500 potential retiring Marines from both the enlisted and officer ranks gathered to listen to the subject of Pre-Retirement.

S. Marvin Burton, Director of North Carolina's Veteran's Employment Service provided job market information. "It is my job to present thought-provoking ideas and to initiate a 'self help' program. Although you, as Marines, possess many skills of the civilian populace, it is necessary to make an orderly transition. But, in this transition we come across four key problems: (a) Lack of employment objectives, (b) Equivalence of military skills and their demands, (c) Business concerns recruiting from a younger age group, and (d) Locality of settlement after retirement."

It was noted that future employment possibilities lie mainly within government, industry and self-employment. Yet, one must also check the Dual Compensation Laws, which may hinder the individual's placement.

We ought not to forget the field of education as one may supplement the current critical situation of the teacher shortage. This field in itself is vastly rewarding and deserves much attention from experienced and mature men.

Col. Charles Burgess (Retired), Employment Services Supervisor said, "You must analyze your own capabilities and compare them to similar civilian occupations. You must not waste time in stepping into gainful employment. Assistant Employment Service Director, Alden Honeycutt described the services of the Public Employment Service.

Regional Director, Veteran's Commission Officer, Pat Dornmydval; State Adjutant of the American Legion of North Carolina, Nashville, Keith together with Joseph Price of the Jacksonville branch of the Veteran's Employment Service of the State Employment Commission, outlined their programs for aiding veterans.

Staff Sergeant R. E. Renegar, 2d Division Career Advisory representative explained through the use of screen-projected charts the Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan together with its four options.

A question and answer period followed which terminated this class. One important conclusion which was formulated was that although this discussion did not insure a potential retiring Marine a job, if he follows the suggestions, contacts everyone that may be of aid to him, then, and only then, can he encounter his job skills equivalence.

2d Force Recon Oils Efficiency On Cape Fear River

As a part of their specialized and diversified training, designed to keep their proficiency at peak perfection, the 2d Force Reconnaissance Co., Force Troops, recently spent a week in south-central North Carolina reconnoitering the Cape Fear and South Rivers.

After parachuting from C-1A aircraft into Dowd's Pasture, near Elizabethtown, N. C., late one night, the four platoons of Recon Marines trekked overland 25 miles to the upper portions of the Cape Fear and South Rivers.

Upon reaching their rendezvous point they received provisions and rubber boats by parachute from the Air Delivery Platoon, 2d Force Service Regiment.

From there the four platoons began the 45-mile trip downstream. During their voyage the recon teams took photographs, made sketches and gathered other pertinent information on power installations, locks, bridges, and trestles along the route.

Providing realism during the problem was an aggressor force made up of platoon commanders, platoon sergeants and company administrative personnel who harassed the recon teams throughout the five-day exercise.

Upon reaching a point near Kings Bluff, N. C., the recon teams were recovered and left the area as quietly as they entered.

NEXT STOP—Col. T. S. Ivey, Assistant Base Commander, Camp Lejeune, (left) points out the U. S. Naval Hospital to Rear Admiral Joseph L. Yon, District Medical Officer, Fifth Naval District on his visit to the medical facilities here. Rear Admiral Yon visited Camp Lejeune Feb. 17 and toured the hospital, Naval Medical Field Research Laboratory and the facilities of the Field Medical Service School.

AmTracBn. Hosts Annual Dependents Day

For the second consecutive year the 2d Amphibian Tractor Force Troops, has hosted highly successful Dependents Day.

The full day of activities was designed to better acquaint the parents and children of the battalion's mission and methods of operation.

It gave the Marine wives an opportunity to see just what an amphibian tractor's capabilities are and learn what their husband's job in the battalion organization is.

After a briefing in the area by BG, Donn J. Robinson, CG, Force Troops; Maj. C. Barrett, Battalion CO; Maj. C. M. Darracott, Battalion Executive Officer, the guests adjourned to the Court Bay mess hall where they served a smorgasbord luncheon—Marine Corps style. The area theater was again setting for the afternoon's activities as a documentary movie on the Lebanon is in 1958 was shown to illustrate the need for a "Force readiness."

After the movie, the guests were shuttled to the battalion's motor park by bus, where they were given a demonstration of the LVT-5 and LVT-1 amphibian tractors.

After the demonstrations, the guests went for a ride on amphibious tanks. Before boarding the tractor each guest donned a life preserver and steel helmet for safety purposes and to add realism.

For children too young for the tractor ride, jeeps shuttled them around the Boat Basin.

Snowfex No Bed Of Roses For Crews Of 2d Tank Bn.

By CPL. R. B. WILLIAMS

For the "tankers" from 2d Tank Battalion, Force Troops, Exercise SNOWFEX-65 was a new and rewarding experience.

Many of the men had rarely seen snow, let alone operated tracked vehicles in it. The "tankers" had to learn how to drive their tanks under bad weather conditions in snow four to five feet deep in some places.

Another problem was the maintenance of the tanks in the below-zero temperatures of up-state New York. During the four day field exercise, the final phase of SNOWFEX-65, the thermometer read as low as -20 degrees F.

The tanks used by the Force Troops armor specialists were those of Companies "B" and "D" of the 4th Tank Battalion, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, whose home armory is at Hancock Field in Syracuse, N. Y.

The reserves tanks were used in the interest of cost reduction, as the regular tanks would have had to be shipped to Camp Drum by rail. The reserve tanks were only 98 miles from the camp.

On Saturday, Feb. 6, the "citizen Marines" from the Syracuse area, with the permission of the New York State Highway Commission, drove their tanks to Camp Drum via Interstate Route 81.

Tank Record

According to the 4th Tanks I&I Officer in Charge, Maj. G. H. Poakoff, this is the longest tank road march on record in the Marine Corps.

The next day, Feb. 7, the reserves fired their tanks on one of the many tank firing ranges at the Army's summer training camp.

When the reserves finished firing they turned their tanks over to the Force Troops "tankers" on the range.

In the ensuing days the Marines of Company "A", 2d Tank Bn., were involved in cold weather indoctrination that involved both the proper care of themselves and the vehicles during the extremely frigid weather that was to be encountered at Camp Drum.

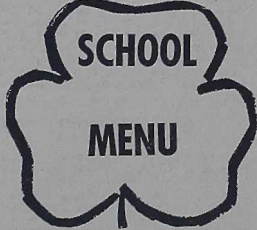

During this period the men also received instruction on use of snowshoes and skis. Incidentally, all Marines that received ski instruction received it from an expert, Army LtCol. O. L. Alakupie, a former gold medal winner for cross-country skiing in the 1922 Winter Olympics for his native Finland. He was also an advisor for the U. S. team in the 1960 Winter Olympics held in Squaw Valley, Calif.

After the initial phase of cold weather training the men took their tanks to the field for a number of firing exercises, ranging from subcaliber firing (.50 and .30 caliber machine guns) to their main guns (the 90mm tank cannon).

Field Problem

During the final phase of SNOWFEX-65 a full scale battalion sized field problem using all support units attached to the operation was carried out in a mythical area called Retaw (water spelled backwards).

The role the tanks played was that of both friendly and aggressor forces. Three tanks were used by enemy forces during the problem, while the remaining seven were part of the First Battalion, Eighth Marine Regiment's friendly forces.

The armored vehicles were used mainly in conjunction with infantry troops using tank-infantry coordination tactics.

After SNOWFEX-65 was over the reserves returned to Camp Drum and fired their tanks again. They then drove them back to Hancock Field.

For the Force Troops "Tankers", Exercise SNOWFEX-65 proved to be a rewarding and different experience. The men learned many cold weather skills that will stand them in good stead for the future.

Linda Horner Wins In Speech Contest

Linda Horner

All those who attended the March 1st meeting of Camp Lejeune High School P. T. A. were delighted to hear how well our school is being represented in the speech contest sponsored by the American Legion.

Linda Horner, daughter of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. B. E. Horner, after winning over tough competition here at Lejeune, has gone on to win at the County level and at the District contest where she was presented with a $25.00 bond. Miss Horner will compete with other District winners in the Division contest on March 4th at St. Pauls, North Carolina.

Eighty students from the high school prepared and delivered speeches. Of these, six were selected to compete for the honor of representing Camp Lejeune. Five of these six spoke to the audience last night and were later presented with gifts from the P. T. A. by General Bowser.

The speakers were, in addition to Linda, Tommy Cooper, son of Chaplain and Mrs. William D. Cooper, Owen Furuseth, son of 1st Sgt. and Mrs. O. J. Furuseth, Wren Terry, daughter of HMCM and Mrs. Francis Terry and Karen Weir, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Robert R. Weir. Pamela Addis, daughter of CWO and Mrs. W. J. Addis was unable to appear.

Electronic Circuit Course

The Industrial Education Center is accepting applications from personnel interested in attending an Electronic Circuit Analysis Course in preparation for a 1st, 2nd or 3rd Class FCC License.

Registration will be held on March 15-16 at the Center, located on Hwy. 17 South, near the N. C. Highway Patrol Office.

SUDDEN DEATH to men and machine as a Force Troops tank waits for the "enemy."

Tarawa Terrace Mothers Take Red Cross Course

Tarawa Terrace School set a precedent when mothers from the P.T.A. volunteered to take a 30 hour Red Cross Course (the first class graduated Feb. 11) have since then completed an advanced course.

They have volunteered to take these courses order to enable them to give their time each week caring for sick and injured children in the school's clinic. Many of these ladies plan to continue toward a Red Cross Instructor Course.

This clinic program was in the T. T. P. T. A. and now being conducted in schools throughout the area may move on to other states spread throughout the U.

This program has been possible because of the relationship between the parents and the school faculty. P. T. A. membership has exceeded that of any other previous year with 457 members.

The mothers have done more with the Patrol Mothers Program. Mrs. Robert H. (Chairwoman) and seven of Patrol Mothers traveled week by week to Goldsboro, N. C. to attend the Safety Workshop called by Governor Moore. Tarawa Terrace School was the Camp Lejeune representative. Mrs. Hobbs has proclaimed month of April as "Safety Month" at the T. T. School, T. T. Area.

A luncheon will be held for Patrol Mothers and also Williams, Sgt. Baker and White from the Base Training Department to extend appreciation for all their help in mounting a Safety Patrol Program at all school intersections.

SIGNPOST TO MURDER

Are we all potential killers? Signpost to Murder is a thriller story; a ve story out of the dangerous world we live in. No film has ever posed, so nakedly, the savage nature of men and women.

THE BELLS ARE RINGING

The hit play, The Bells Are Ringing, is winning its way this way on Broadway. Now on the motion picture screen in CinemaScope and stereo Color, it stars Judy Holliday and Dean Martin. The romantic comedy about a Switchboard Cinderella and her handsome fella! Judy is the blonde telephone Belle who falls in love with one of her private numbers. Dean is the bachelor who gets a romantic message. It's a wonderful fun story with hit songs like "The Party's Over" and "Just in Time." An Arthur Hurd production, with a happy cast, including Fred Clark and Eddie J. Jr. The Bells Are Ringing, creates more love, fun and laughter amid more songs and dances than ever. Don't miss it!

MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY

An immortal story becomes an immortal film as MGM presents the new Mutiny on the Bounty. Starring Marlon Brando, Trevor Howard, Richard Harris and the beautiful Tarita.

This is the story of the most famous mutiny in history — and the loves and adventures that followed. Don't miss Mutiny on the Bounty filmed in Ultra Panavision 70 and Technicolor, amid the exotic splendor of Bora-Bora, Moorea and Tahiti.

TOPKAPI

Q. Your name?
A. Jules Dassin.
Q. Are you the director of "Riffi"?
A. Guilty.
Q. Your new film "Topkapi" contains an even more fantastic robbery?
A. Thank you.
Q. Do you consider it a compliment to be a thief?
A. Oh no. But I'd be honored to be considered a master thief—a virtuoso.

Q. What provokes this in you? Larceny?
A. Not alone. The impregnable safe, the so-called foolproof alarm system — is an impertinence — a personal challenge.
Q. Who's your crew in "Topkapi"?
A. Melina Mercouri, Peter Ustinov, Maximilian Schell, Robert Morley.

ley and Akim Tamiroff.
Q. Why did you choose them?
A. They're a great bunch of crooks. It's fun to steal with them. Now, if you'll excuse me...
Q. Where are you off to?
A. The Mint.
Q. Business or pleasure?
A. My business is pleasure.

SANDOKAN THE GREAT
MGM's Sandokan the Great is a new high in spectacular adventure. From fighting the mercenaries that guard his own captured palace to enduring the tortures of the jungle from challenging the snarling fury of a giant panther to facing the deadly catpaw of an elephant stampede, Sandokan the Great (Steve Reeves) is magnificent. One man against an empire for a nation's freedom—and a woman's love. In color.

GLADIATORS SEVEN
MGM presents a spectacular story of Spartan courage in Gladiators Seven. Seven heroes—the most gallant sons a valiant land has ever known! Seven men sworn to friendship, who fight as if they were seven hundred.
In Eastmancolor and Techniscope, Gladiators Seven stars Richard Harris and Lorena Ladd, and many others. Thrill to duels in the arena, ambush at night, stampede of the bulls, storming of the castle, battle on the ramparts and many more scenes of peril and courage.

Judy Holliday has Dean Martin's number (and he gets the message!) in "Bells Are Ringing." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sparkling film version of the Broadway musical hit, with Miss Holliday recreating her original stage role. Filmed in CinemaScope and color, the picture is highlighted by fourteen musical numbers. It was produced and directed by Arthur Hurd and Vincente Minnelli, who teamed on the Academy Award-winning "Gigi."

MCAF STAFF NCO CLUB

Thursday is our big Game Night. This could be your lucky night. If you do not wish to take part in our game, come on out and try our special, which is Spaghetti with Meat Sauce (oh, you can see the meat in it) Salad and French Bread with Garlic Butter, all this for 65c served from 5:30 till 10 p.m.

Friday we have Happy Hour from 4:30 till 7 p.m. Fried Fish with the trimmings, Hush Puppies, Cole Slaw and French Fries, for the amazing price of 75c. Why the wife can't very well afford to pass up a bargain like that, because we have the dirty fishes for you. And if you do not like fish then there is always our menu that you may choose a good meal from, and very reasonably at that. Our Galley is open from 5:30 till 9 p.m.

Saturday we are featuring the continuous music of Roy Dixon and his group for your listening, and dancing pleasure, from 9 p.m. till 1 a.m. Our galley opens at 5:30 and remains open till 10 p.m. The chef says that we have a variety of real good juicy and tender steaks on our menu that you may order. Come on out and join the fun at our club. You will enjoy it.

Sunday we are once again featuring that (our) famous family special: this Sunday the chef outdid himself, for he is featuring fried Chicken with all the trimmings, OR (now get this folks) Chicken Fried Steak, with the trimmings, and for the very low, low price of 90c for adults and 50c for children. You just can't beat that. It is a good deal. Galley opens at 1 p.m. and remains open till 9 p.m. Bar and Package Sales open from 12:30 till 11:30 p.m. Won't you come and see us?

MONTFORD POINT STAFF NCO CLUB

The free hospitality hour at 4 p. m. Sunday is sponsored this week by the Catholic Daughters. The Carolina Kloggers and Cathy Craft will entertain.

Five Lejeune Women Earn 1000-Hour Pins

By LCPL. SHARON K. FURBEE

The Camp Lejeune Auxiliary of the Navy Relief Society held exercises for thirty-two graduates of a Volunteer Training Course and for volunteers receiving service awards.

Vice Admiral W. R. Smedberg, III, President of the Navy Relief Society, addressed the group. Admiral Smedberg served as superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy from 1965-1958. Prior to assuming the position of President, Navy Relief, he was assigned as Chief of Naval Personnel, Chief of the Bureau of Naval Personnel, and Deputy Chief of Naval Operations.

Admiral Smedberg commented on the great service that each of the volunteers performed. He stated that there were 6,000 volunteers and 161 paid workers. The Navy Relief Society depends a great deal on the volunteers and the work they produce. Admiral Smedberg ended his address by thanking all the volunteers for the services they have rendered.

At the exercises anew award, 1000 hour service pins, were presented to five volunteers. This was the first year that the Camp Lejeune Auxiliary has presented this award.

Six hundred hour service awards were presented to Mary Gregory, Beatrice Tuter, Melba Jean Addis, and Mary Vroegedeway.

Twenty-three other volunteers were presented with one hundred hour awards.

Ft. Lauderdale Citizens Had A Problem —Till They 'Told It To The Marines'

By CPL. DON H. GEE

WITH THE 10TH MARINES, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.—One hundred Marines conducted "Operation Leukemia" Feb. 16 by sweeping through the doors at Hollywood Memorial and Broward General Hospitals in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. to donate 100 pints of blood to the Broward County Leukemia Society.

The Marines, members of the 10th Marines, of Camp Lejeune, are embarked aboard USS Okinawa (LPH-3) on a three-week operational deployment to the Caribbean. They made a two-day "Port of Call" visit to Ft. Lauderdale Feb. 15-16. This marked the first time that an aircraft carrier has visited there in 17 years.

The "operation" got underway Feb. 15 when Mrs. Mildred Goodman of Ft. Lauderdale offered a ride to several Marines walking from their ship to Ft. Lauderdale proper. Mrs. Goodman, a member of the Broward County Leukemia Society, told the Marines that the society needed seven pints of blood to replenish their supply. Her riders suggested she discuss her problem with their unit commander, Colonel Herman Poggemeyer. The donations Feb. 16 were the result of her meeting with the 10th Marines Commander.

Mr. William J. George of Pompano Beach, the Society's president, was overwhelmed by the response to the local need. Terming the project "Operation Leukemia", he said the Society will present a plaque to the Marines in appreciation of their wonderful response.

The donations, totalling 100 pints of blood, brought the Society's blood supply to the highest point in its three years of existence.

The Marine unit left Ft. Lauderdale Feb. 17 bound for Vieques, Puerto Rico, where it is scheduled to conduct naval gunfire and artillery training.

South American Student Tour Camp Lejeune Area

By PVT. DONALD E. BELSEY

"Oh, I'm freeze," was the comment from one of South American Exchange Students that toured Camp Lejeune last week in the nippy 20 degree weather.

The students and their sponsors from the Wilmington, N. C., area were: from Buenos Aires, Argentina

Ana Maria Lampicchiatti with Debbie Tong, Estela Castro Olisera with Ann Rackley, Monica Costa with Beth Brady, Beatrice Vidal with Melinda Hamrick. From Lima, Peru: Sheila Marchand with Sally Jones, Gonzalo Navarro with Jonathan Alper, Ana Maria Ferrando with Cathy Mattocks, Luis A. Carrera C. with Dave Hawes, Alberto Rubini Lopez with Sam Glasgow. From Santiago, Chile: Luz Maria Williamson with Rhessa Reagan, Patricia Abud C. with Janet Blanchard.

The students arrived with their sponsors and escorts; Mrs. Brady, Mrs. W. T. Blanchard, Mrs. Reagan, Mrs. E. P. Blanchard, and Mrs. C. J. Bek-aert, who were instrumental in arranging the tour for the students. The students were met by their escort officer, 1st Lt. M. R. Arnold and then traveled by bus to the Camp Lejeune High School where they were met by Mr. Francisco Blanco of Miami, a Spanish instructor at school. They toured the school and were amazed at way the Marine Corps had up its dependents school needs.

Upon completion of the school tour, the students were taken to Camp Geiger and met LtCol. J. Kelly, S-3 Office ITR. After the noon meal they were briefed by LtCol. R. Remington, EXO, 1st ITR, who were taken to the infantry training ranges and shown the various ways in which a Marine introduced and becomes adept with Marine infantry weapons. They found courses interesting and helpful. The warm-weather South-Americans could not believe how the North-American Marine could survive the while completing the courses. When it was explained that the Marine must be prepared to fight in all types of climate, the students then claimed that they had never seen such rigorous training for young men.

Upon returning to Camp Lejeune they were asked exactly what they thought of their week visit to the United States. Ana Maria Lampicchiatti of Buenos Aires, Argentina exclaimed the feelings of her fellow students by saying, "We United States and the people live here."

The day completed and goodbyes said, each one of them felt that they had departed with deeper insight into the culture of both peoples. In each every heart there was a warm feeling of love and understanding that will take an eternity to erase.

Girl Scout Skill Badges Integral Part Of Training

Critics who declare that young girls of today are losing their taste for domesticity are probably unaware of the nearly 1,000,000 Girl Scouts — Juniors and Cadettes — who chose to work on badges for demonstrated skills in homemaking in the past year.

Although Junior Girl Scouts, ages 9, 10 and 11 have a choice of 7 badges in a variety of subjects, the largest number of girls chose to earn the "Cook" badge. For this badge one of the requirements reads: "Plan and prepare a simple, well-balanced dinner for your family and friends."

For Cadettes, 12, 13 and 14 years old, there is also a wide variety of badges—some 60 of them—but more "Hostess" badges were earned than any other. For the "Hostess" badge, girls must develop a knowledge of a range of subjects including planning a party and working out a series of menus to serve about the use and care of linens, dishes, glassware and silverware.

Badge work is an integral part of the Junior and Cadette Girl Scout program because recognition for achievement is so important to girls in these age levels. By the time they reach Senior Scout age they can take on more advanced activities and service projects which concentrate on the very same areas in depth and which serve as career exploration.

But, above all, by the time Juniors and Cadettes meet all the requirements outlined in the badges for domestic skills, they should be as good as mothers in the homemaking department—maybe even better.

Paradise Point OWC

"In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

But, in the Spring, milady's fancy brightly turns to thoughts of fashion.

Catering to this feminine whim, members of the O. W. C., will be treated to a fashion show on Wednesday, March 24, at 1 p. m. at Marston Pavilion.

The program while called "Fashion in Fantasy", will present a down to earth selection of clothes suitable for all occasions from morning through the cocktail hour, with perhaps one or two items for dreaming.

Mrs. H. E. Ing is chairman of the fashion show. Assisting her as co-chairman is Mrs. B. McCintock.

Tea will be served following the show. Tickets have been distributed to all the groups and will be available on a first come first serve basis.

"I'll see you in the green—And be sure to bring your queen."

On March 20 the Lejeune Area Engineers will join at the Paradise Point Club for their annual celebration in honor of Saint Patrick, Patron Saint of Engineers.

Festivities begin at 6 p.m. and feature cocktails in the Lejeune Room followed by buffet and dancing in the Paradise Room. Meet old friends and make new ones. But—plan now to attend.

Engineer officers, both active and retired, including those officers serving with engineer organizations are invited.

BLT Marines In Greece Find Female Guides Best

By CPL. ROBERT O. SHAW

WITH THE U. S. SIXTH FLEET IN THE MEDITERRANEAN (Delayed)—"It's all Greek to me!" This is a cliché common to nearly every American, yet most appropriate to the American tourist in Greece, once he discovers that the local tongue, be it on bus or ballet poster, was not written expressly for the English-speaking visitor.

So it was for the Marines of BLT 1/2, 8d Marine Division. The BLT recently pulled into Athens aboard ships of Amphibious Squadron Six, U. S. Sixth Fleet, after completing the last training exercise of their current Mediterranean Cruise.

Promotion Briefs

Washington, February 26—Marine Corps officials today announced that 157 Marines selected for promotion to staff noncommissioned officer ranks will be promoted during March. The Marines will have a March 1 date of rank.

In announcing the March promotion plans, Headquarters officials disclosed that 1,175 Marines previously selected for promotion remain to be promoted.

Promotion breakdown by rank, precedence number and number remaining to be promoted is:

One first sergeant to sergeant major, cutoff precedence number is 16. Twenty-two remain to be promoted.

One master sergeant to master gunnery sergeant, cutoff precedence number is 64. Twenty-seven remain to be promoted.

Three gunnery sergeants to first sergeant, cutoff precedence number is 161. One remains to be promoted.

Three gunnery sergeants to master sergeant, cutoff precedence number is 582. Thirty-five remain to be promoted.

Sixty-one staff sergeants to gunnery sergeant, cutoff precedence number is 882. Four hundred, thirty-four remain to be promoted.

Eighty-eight sergeants to staff sergeant, cutoff precedence number is 2122. Six hundred, fifty-six remain to be promoted.

Not to be outdone by this "language barrier", and eager to see the famous sights of this ancient and proud city, one group of Marines had the good fortune to make the acquaintance of a feminine quartet of English-speaking residents of Athens. Each of the girls had an interesting background, providing an equally interesting and informative tour of the city for the four lucky Marines.

The young ladies accompanying the BLT Marines in the photo are Cathy Anton, an American citizen of Greek extraction, now studying Greek and related subjects; Tina Lazarou, a Greek secretary at the Athens Bureau of Stars and Stripes; Carolina Richardson, an American actress and Bea Batten, an American student attending Business School in Athens.

From the Battalion Landing Team: LCpl Thomas Garcia, a Radio Technician from 2d Marines; HM3 P. F. Hall, Navy Corpsman from 2d Reconnaissance Battalion; LCpl. Charles A. Harrison and PFC Robert N. Wilson, both riflemen of "A" Co., 1st Bn., 2d Marines.

Despite thundershowers which dumped 1 1/4-inch hailstones over much of the greater Athens area during the tour, the double foursome was able to cover a great deal of ground before finally taking refuge in a downtown restaurant near Constitution Square that afternoon. The bi-lingual (in some cases tri-lingual) capability of the girls was a great help in bringing the visiting Marines a more personal glimpse of the city, now one of the most important tourist meccas in the world.

Locals Grab All 6 Fights; Battle Bragg This Friday

Last Saturday evening at the Goettge Memorial Field House, the Camp Lejeune Marines' Boxing Team swept all six of their bouts from the Army's best, the Fort Campbell Eagles. Revenge was sweet for the local battlers, who dropped a 7-3 verdict at Fort Campbell earlier in the campaign.

Floyd Stevens and Art Redden capped off an evening of fine boxing with back-to-back knockouts. Fighting before a home crowd of approximately 2500 cheering Marines, the Lejeune sluggers racked up win after win.

Coach Rogers Advises

Due to injuries to a few key members of the Eagles squad, only six bouts were held. Light Heavyweight Isiah Davis, who lost to Art Redden at home, didn't make the trip due to a broken nose suffered in their first meeting. Ray Owens, a light middleweight, and John Johnson, heavyweight, were also sidelined with injuries.

In the evenings opening match, Bill Mercedes grabbed a unanimous decision from Eagles' John Scott, Mercedes, Devil-dog's buzz-saw Bantam-weight, landed hard left hooks in the opening round, only to see the game Army fighter battle back at the bell. The second round was a toss-up with both fighters scoring on different occasions. As the third round got underway, "Mouse" caught the Army fighter with a stinging flurry of lefts and rights. Taking over the offensive for the remainder of the fight, Mercedes' flashy left hooks took a toll on the tough Campbell battler.

Charlie Davis, also fighting at 119 pounds, won a unanimous decision in his contest with Don J. Rudd. Davis was unstoppable in the first round, as he battered his way through his opponents defense with straight right hands.

Not letting up for a moment the Marine fighter opened a cut above Rudd's right eye at the outset of the second round. The game Army pug wouldn't be knocked off his feet however, as he battled feverishly to end the round. The third round was even as both boys wore themselves out near the end of the fight.

Next to enter the ring was Rafael Mulett. The fast-of-foot D'dog Featherweight copped a unanimous decision from Ernest Hayes. Both fighters stayed away in beginning of the first round, feeling each other out with jabs. Mulett, who moves as fast as a rattlesnake strikes, came on strong near the end of the round, stunning the Army fighter with double left hooks to the head.

The second round was uneventful, with neither fighter scoring heavily. Near the end of Round 3, Mulett sent a hard left to Hayes' head, but never followed up the advantage.

Marine Welterweight Marshall Fortune made it four in a row for the evening, as he was awarded a split decision over

Art Redden Sets Him Up For The Left

Willie Burton in the evening's closest contest. The first round went to Fortune. The powerful Leatherneck 147 pounder found the mark throughout the round with solid rights and stinging lefts.

As the second round began, Fortune tagged the Army fighter with a sharp right to the head. Burton, who was hurt, maneuvered his way out of trouble. Fortune hit and danced his way through the remainder of the round, picking up points along the way.

Fort Campbell's Burton stole the show in the third round. Fortune, who was tiring midway in the final round, was caught with a couple of sharp right hands, but hung on to grab a close verdict.

The fans, who were at a high pitch already, went wild as Floyd Stevens knocked out Corbett Anderson in 1:41 of the first round. Anderson, who is the 1964 All-Army Champion, appeared confident at the outset of the round.

Stevens, Lejeune's hard punching Welterweight, caught the back-peddling Army champion with a stinging right hand to the face. As the Campbell fighter hit the canvas, the Marine rooters were to their feet, cheering Stevens on. Anderson got up at the count of six.

Watching for an opening, Stevens landed a pair of devastating lefts to the hurt Army boxer's head. Not wasting any precious seconds, the Marine pugilist followed up with a straight right hand to the head, sending the Eagle fighter to the canvas for good.

The evening's finale pitted Art Redden against Fort Campbell's Ernest Brown. The Golden Hog dropped Brown in 1:59 of the first round with a bone-crushing right to the body.

As the round opened, Redden immediately took the offensive, throwing a quick combination which sent the Eagle boxer into the ropes. Stalking his prey, the Golden Hog tagged the back-peddling opponent with a left hook.

After setting him up with the 1964 Interservice Light Heavyweight champion went down stairs and landed the knockout punch. Redden, who was also an alternate on the 1964 U. S. Olympic Boxing Team, has his winning streak now at seven.

Featherweight Ray Mulett and Heavyweight Ken Norton are also sporting unblemished marks this campaign. Norton has copped all seven of his bouts, while Mulett has won all five of his.

This weekend the Lejeune fighters will travel to Fort Bragg for a return match with the improved Dragon squad on Friday night. In their last ing, Lejeune handed the boxers a 5-3 set back. will be the locals last before the upcoming, Al-rine Tournney, which will be held at Camp Lejeune, 24-27.

Track Trials On Saturday

This Saturday, beginning 2 p. m., at the Goettge Memorial Fieldhouse track trials will be held. Running events for selected a team to compete in a meet against William & College on March 27. The will also compete in the Marine Meet, scheduled April 29 at Quantico, Va.

Force Troops Cage Crown Undecided; 4 Teams Tied

For seven of the Force Troops intramural basketball teams the season is nearly over, but next week is the "beginning" of a "new" season for the four teams tied for first place as they tune their high powered basketball machines for the double elimination play-off which will decide the league championship.

Clashing head-on in first round play at 6 p.m. Monday will be defending league Champion, 2d Field Artillery and their old tormentor, Headquarters Co., Force Troops, who snapped FAG's game winning streak earlier this year.

At 8 p.m. Monday 8th Communication Bn. meets 8th Motor Transport Bn. in a battle of "dark horses."

Second round action Tuesday evening pits the winner of game one against the winner of the first game. Tip-off time is 7 p.m.

Losers of the first round games will clash at 8 p.m. Tuesday. The first two day's action will be in the Force Troops gymnasium, building 1.

Wednesday evening the spot-switches to the Goettge Memorial Fieldhouse where a 7 p.m. encounter will decide the winner in the loser's bracket.

The championship game is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Fieldhouse. Should a second game be necessary to determine the champion it will be played at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the same goal house Thursday.

With the exception of FAG, all of the top teams were in last week.

Motor Transport Bn. finished in championship style as it trounced 2d Topo Co., 52-32.

Force Troops had four men in double figures as they surpassed the previous high of 101 points scored by FAG against 2d ANGLICO.

Leading the Motors onslaught was Fletcher who had 28 points. H. H. Jones was close behind with 26, while Buttery had 20 and Pritt 19. Deveney was high for the losers with 18 points.

Headquarters Co., Force Troops, completed their season with an 82-76 win over 2d Radio Bn.

In winning a play-off spot the Headquarters quintet had to stave off a fourth quarter rally by the Radio five as the "communicators" outscored them 26-14 in the final frame.

In the "big game" of the week 8th Comm Bn. nailed down their play-off berth by beating the contender 8th Engineers, 58-53.

After falling behind in the first half, Comm found the range with its outside shooting and rattled the Engineer zone defense in the second half to overtake the Engineers.

Lorah led the Comm scoring with 18 points, while Engineer's pepper-pot guard, Morrow, took game scoring honors with 21 markers.

Roving With Rick

Traveling around the Tar Heel State this weekend, one will find many varied and interesting things to see and do. In Charlotte, the 8th Annual Sportsmen's Boat and Travel Show of the Carolinas will run through Sunday. Set in the same pattern as the Boat Show already featured at the New York Coliseum in mid-January, the Charlotte showing will feature the new and different types of craft we will be seeing in the state's many waterways this year. The finals of the 12th Annual Atlantic Coast Conference Basketball Tournament will be held Saturday evening in Raleigh. If you're an avid hunter or dog breeder try and take in the 19th Annual Bird Dog Field Trials at Tryon, N. C.

The members of the 1965 All-Marine Basketball Team have been announced. Seven members of the championship squad from Quantico will be represented, while the Hawaii contingent will add four men. San Diego has one man on the team. Quantico, who defeated the Hawaii Marines for the Corps title, will have Brian Sheehan, Dick Peloff, Jim Meyers, Bob Birkle, Gary Smith, Waco Hughes and Bob Ulrich playing for the All-Stars. Hawaii Marines on the team are Charles Dennis, Carl Hunter, Jim Mullen, and Bill Connolly. Tom Delaney is the lone cager from San Diego.

Fresh water fishermen who have been catching trout had better keep hidden from the local game warden. Trout season will not open until the morning of April 3, and will run until midnight Sept. 6. All other game fish, such as Muskellunge, Pickerel, Pike, Perch, Black Bass, White Bass, Weakfish (Sea Trout) and Striped Bass can be caught all season long and at any size. The only exception to the size limit is the Muskellunge, which must be 26 inches long, Black Bass, measuring 10 inches, and Striped Bass at 12 inches. Non-game fish are all other species not listed above.

National Pastime Begins In 1 Week

The Camp Lejeune Baseball Squad, blessed with a few days of good weather, have nearly completed picking their 1965 team. Working out over the weekend and this week, 1st Lt. Schwab's stickmen are only three men shy for their upcoming campaign. The slots will be filled prior to their opening game with Wilmington College next Thursday at the Harry Aganis Baseball Stadium.

All games in the month of March will be held at home. Up until April 19, the Devil Dogs will only be participating in day contests. All games begin at 1 p.m. Night games will commence after April 19. They will get underway at 7:30 p.m. All Saturday games are also at 7:30 p.m., while Sunday's tilts are set for 1 p.m.

Last year, Camp Lejeune downed Wilmington College in their season's opener, 6-0. Many of last year's stars are gone from the squad. Key men bolstering empty slots are Ron Nay in centerfield, Al Davis, in right field, Leon Kislowksi at third base, and Ken Eeles, catching.

The D'dog pitching staff has been fattened by the acquisition of Nick Sutyak, a Class A ballplayer for the Dodgers.

PLAYING THE HARD WAY—Unidentified members of Marine Corps Engineer Schools (center and right) attempt to make a difficult layup by a member of Base Materiel Bn. during third round action in the Base Basketball Tourney. The tournament, which will end Wednesday, March 10, will send the top two teams into the Quad-Command Meet, scheduled for March 15. Base Mats moved into the fourth round with a 54-46 win over Engineer School, the latter being eliminated. Supply Bn., who dropped tourney favorite H&S Bn. in the opening round of the double elimination tourney, remains undefeated along with Maintenance Battalion, ITR and H&S Bn., 2d FSR. Maintenance Bn. humiliated Rifle Range quintet, 73-9, ITR dropped Base Mats, 51-43. The H&S Bn., 2d FSR toppled Engineers School 80-53. In the losers bracket, H&S Bn., MCB is back on its winning ways in a 54-47 victory of Supply Schools, and a win by forfeit at Rifle Range.

Girl Scouts' Week Feted With Skits, Songs And Cake

Camp Lejeune-Onslow District Girl Scouts will gather Sunday at 2 p.m. at Goettge Memorial Field House to observe the 53rd anniversary of Girl Scouting. The public is invited.

The program this year will represent the traditional service days of Girl Scout Week, and will include a flag ceremony, skits, songs, and an artificial birthday cake.

To illustrate the service days, several troops will present skits followed by group singing of related songs and assembling a decorated cake. After all six pieces of cake (representing each day except Sunday, when the Scouts attend church) are brought in, all will sing "Happy Birthday, Girl Scouts."

The following service days will be illustrated in the program: Monday, Homemaking, Troop 63, Mrs. A. Beddell, leader; Tuesday, Citizenship, Troop 245, Mrs. Wm. Davis, leader; Wednesday, Health and Safety, Troop 174, Mrs. J. L. Nolan, leader; Thursday, International Friendship, Troop 297, Mrs. R. M. Giddens, Adviser; Friday, Arts Day, Troop 307, Mrs. M. Dever, leader; and Saturday, Out-of-Doors, Troop 130, Mrs. M. A. Berry, leader.

Girls assembling the cake will be from the Air Facility: Yvonne Gill, Troop 124; Joan Modelewski, Troop 124; Theresa Fitzpatrick, Troop 80; LaRita Sims, Troop 118; Dereta Derrow, Troop 44; and Maureen Kirby, Troop 66.

Also included in the program will be a rededication of Girl Scouts as they renew their commitment to the Girl Scout promise which they made when they were invested.

Emphasis will also be made of the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund, a voluntary fund to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouts in the U. S. A. Girl Scouts throughout the United States contribute each year. It is used to help build friendship and better understanding around the world through Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting by sponsoring international exchange projects and other activities. Each troop will present its donation Sunday.

The fund will be explained by Sharon Spikes, of Troop 297, who will also give the welcome. Two representatives from each troop will be Juliette Low girls and present their troop's contributions. Assisting with the collection will be Senior Scouts Nancy Chambers and Lorraine Baggett, Troop 297.

The Second Marine Division Band will play before and at the conclusion of the event. The invocation will be by Chaplain W. F. Fuller, and the benediction by the Rev. H. B. Jones, of the North Woods Methodist Church, Jacksonville.

The skits and the remainder of the program will be given by Girl Scouts. Narrator will be Joyce Miller, Senior Troop 297. The song director will be Woman Marine Lt. P. M. Sanders.

The flag ceremony will have the following girls participating: Judy Fisher, Troop 157; Carol Proto, Troop 294; Theresa Selgo, Troop 80; Cathy Morris, Virginia Giddens, Pat Cushing, all of Troop 297; Debby White, Troop 118; Mary Beth LaFrance and Michele Silvers, Troop 130.

The program committee consists of: Mrs. R. Sherrin, Mrs. D. Duncan, Mrs. J. Beddell, Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. J. Abbott and Mrs. D. Tomlinson.

Girl Scouts in District III of the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina, Inc., normally called the Camp Lejeune-Onslow District, number 1168 girls. There are 49 troops registered in the district. This is broken down by neighborhoods or sub-districts as follows: Paradise Point, 14 troops with 327 girls; Midway-Knox-Tarawa Terrace neighborhood with 12 troops and 291 girls; the MCAir Facility with five troops and 129 girls; and Jacksonville which includes Onslow County with 18 troops and 421 girls. Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, sponsors, the 26 troops at Paradise Point and MKT neighborhoods. Those at the Air Facility are sponsored by the Chapel. There are approximately 200 registered adult volunteers.

Last year Girl Scouts had 2895 hours in community service projects ranging from food baskets and clothes for the needy, to furnishing food for four Marines rescued from Wallace Creek. They have made bandages for the Red Cross, cleaned Scout huts, fireproofed hut curtains, strung cranberries and popcorn to hang out for the birds, sent cards to missions in Korea, made tray favors for hospitals, etc.

Senior Scout Joyce Miller, Troop 297 will act as WM Co. Commander for the day, on Thursday, March 11. Christine Capece, of Jacksonville, will be honorary mayor of the city. She was "appointed" Tuesday night at City Council.

Two girls from Camp Lejeune were selected as Roundup camper and alternate to serve with a group of 24 girls at the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina, Inc. The roundup will be held at Farragut, Idaho in July 1965. It is held every three years and is similar to the Boy Scouts' Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa.

Only the best of the Girl Scouts are selected for this honor. For the alternates in the North Carolina Councils there will be an Eastern Roundup in the Nantahala National Forest in western North Carolina. The girls have begun extensive preparation for these events as their gear has to be shipped in May.

The training for all 24 delegates and alternates will be the Knox Scout Hut. Dates still being considered are: Feb. 27 and 28; March 27 and 28; April 10 and 11; May 1 and 2; May 15 and 16.

Helpful Income Tax Hint Given By Area IRS Agent

GREENSBORO — Military and Naval personnel stationed in North Carolina were reminded of several important tax items today by J. E. Wall, Director of Internal Revenue in Greensboro.

Where to File

Wall said that personnel who use North Carolina as their legal address should file their returns with one of two offices, depending upon whether a refund is due them or whether they owe additional tax.

Refund returns should be mailed to: Internal Revenue Service Center, Chamblee, Ga. Returns with additional tax due should, as in the past, be mailed to Director of Internal Revenue, Greensboro, N. C.

Taxpayers who do not have a legal residence in the United States, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands should mail their returns to the Office of International Operations, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C.

Due Dates

Individual Income Tax returns are normally due on April 15 for calendar year taxpayers. However, citizens who are residing or traveling outside of the 50 states and Puerto Rico on the normal due date are allowed an automatic extension of two months for filing returns.

Extensions of time for other reasonable causes are also made but applications must be submitted in advance. For details on additional extensions, taxpayers should contact their base legal officer of the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Excludable Income

Director Wall's announcement also included a listing of some of the items which need not be included in income: disability severance pay; pay earned but forfeited by court-martial; allowance for quarters (including cash difference for inadequate quarters); temporary lodging pending assignment to permanent quarters outside the continental U. S.; allowances for subsistence; uniform gratuities or clothing allowances; mustering out pay; sick pay (special limitations apply).

Includable Income

Items which should be reported as income include (but are not limited to): basic pay for active duty, training duty, summer cruises, drills, incentive pay for hazardous duty, special pay for physicians and dentists, retired pay, interest, lump sum severance pay other than disability severance pay, fees, commissions, business income, dividends, capital gains, and awards.

Recent Changes in Law

Beyond these basic items which relate specifically to military personnel, Mr. Wall mentioned a number of changes in the law which could affect all taxpayers. Among these the new sick pay exclusion, casualty loss limitations, child care expense, of residence rules for taxpayers 65 or over and medical expense for taxpayers 65 or over as well as new rules regarding contributions and deduction taxes.

The new minimum standard deduction also will benefit thousands of taxpayers.

Assistance

For more complete information on these items, Internal Revenue Service booklet entitled "Your Federal Income Tax". It contains pages of instructions and to-earth examples. It is available and can be obtained from Internal Revenue offices, who need personal assistance should telephone or visit nearest Internal Revenue

In his closing comment, Director Wall urged all taxpayers to be certain to correctly report their Social Security numbers on their returns. Internal Revenue's automatic data processing system is built around use of these numbers. Incorrect entries will result in processing delays and delay the receipt of refunds.

Cub Master Given Onslow Award

The Cub Scouts, parents and friends of Cub Pack 190 on a Terrace held their Blue and Gold Banquet Sunday night at the Tarawa Race Community Center. There were about 300 persons in attendance.

The Cubmaster, Lou Arsenault, acting as master of ceremonies presented a full program of awards to Cub Scouts who had advanced in rank. After a fine dinner, the Cub Scouts and their parents gathered at the head table were presented; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Onslow District Scout Executive, LCdr Arthur J. Lejeune, Assistant District Commissioner for Scouting and Lejeune; and LCdr. (CHC) Pack Chaplain.

Mr. Arsenault presented the 1965 Charter to Pack 190 name of the East Carolina Council, Boy Scouts of America, Chaplain Fuller, representing MGen. A. L. Bowser, CO.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation by Mr. Arsenault of the Onslow Award 1964 to Lou and Pat Johnson for outstanding service to Scouting in the Onslow District. Mr. Johnson then gave a resume of his responsibilities to the Scout program.

After formal recognition, Cubmaster Proto of the Mothers, their able assistance, and the Scout Committee, and the Chaplain Fuller closed the meeting with benediction.
