VOL. 19 CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1963 NO. 51

Peace On Earth

And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of heavenly host praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us.

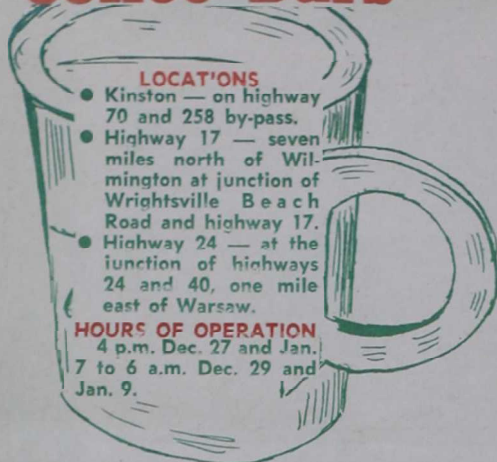

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph and the babe lying in the manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning the child. And all they that heard it wondered at these things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. (LUKE 2.8-19)

Information Given States On Servicemen's Income

Thirty-four states and 18 cities have requested from the Department of Defense information concerning taxable income of military personnel. However, this does not mean each of these states or cities will require the serviceman to pay his state's taxes. It does mean, though, that information concerning compensation paid to members of the uniformed services will be sent to those requesting it.

The forwarding of this information to the states concerned is in accordance with the Federal Government's policy that all its employees, including military personnel, have a responsibility to pay their just taxes.

The law recognizes that a

Former MarCads Given Opportunity For NAO Training

Former MarCads now serving on active duty in the Marine Corps who had dropped out of the Flight Training Program now have the opportunity until January 31, 1964 to apply for the Naval Aviation Observer (NAO) program.

The reason for their dropping out of the Flight Training Program must have been for other than their own request or for academic failure.

Those former MarCads currently in a commissioned officer status will retain that status while all others, if selected for NAO training will be appointed warrant officers upon successful completion of training.

Further information may be obtained from Marine Corps Bulletin 1040, dated November 18, 1963.

Library Displays Professional Book

"Books for professional Marines" will be on display in the Central Area Library until Jan. 31, 1964.

This display is based on the current John A. Lejeune Forum question, "What 10 professional books would you recommend as the nucleus of a Marine officer's library?"

The question was posed to Capt. Liddell Hart, Professor Gordon Craig and Marine Maj. Gen. Victor Krulak. Their answers appeared in the December issue of the Marine Corps Gazette.

person has only one legal residence or domicile in which jurisdiction his pay, as a member of the Armed Forces is subject to tax. It is the serviceman's obligation to ascertain his legal residence and report it to his disbursing officer.

If the serviceman does not indicate a "legal residence", income information will be sent to the state or other taxing authorities where he is serving. Any changes to a member's legal residence must be promptly reported by the member to his disbursing officer.

The actual civil residence of reservists in the drill pay category will be used for income reporting.

Information returns will also be provided on retired personnel, midshipman, members of the USNA and NROTC.

State taxing authorities which have requested information on the above personnel:

Ala., Alaska, Ark., Calif., Colo., Del., D. C., Ga., Hawaii, Idaho, Ind., Iowa, Kansas, Ky., La., Md., Mass., Minn., Miss., Mo., Mont., New Mex., N. Y., N. C., N. Dak., Okla., Oreg., S. C., Utah, Vt., Va., W. V., Wis.

Attention

This our last edition of the GLOBE until Thursday, Jan. 2, 1964. However, during this period the GLOBE office will remain open and information will still be accepted.

VA Insurance Checks To Hit Mails Jan. 2

The Veterans Administration has announced it will start putting next year's GI insurance dividend checks in the mail as early as January 2 and expects to have the entire $234 million into the hands of policy holders no later than January 15.

Acting under President Johnson's directive to pay the dividend immediately as a means of putting more money into the economy, the VA is preparing some 4.75 million checks, including about 548,000 for active duty personnel and retirees. Ordinarily, payments would be made throughout the year on the anniversary of the veteran's policy.

The January 15 goal includes payments to overseas personnel.

This will mark the third time in the past four years dividends have been paid ahead of time. The 1963 checks totaled some $327 million, which included a special dividend ordered by the late President Kennedy to clear the veterans insurance fund.

About $15 million, the VA said, will go to about 225,000 World War I policy holders of U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI). The remaining $219 million will be distributed to about 4.5 million World War II holders of National Service Life Insurance. While the total dividend is not

Brown To Black Effective Jan. 1s

The transition from brown uniform articles to black will become effective for Marines on January 1, 1964.

There are three categories of articles effected by this change over, however only one category will be mandatory on January 1.

Category one is the Marine dress shoe and the service frame cap.

The second category includes the dress socks and leather gloves. Black gloves are anticipated to be available in stock accounts at all levels in January, 1965. Personnel who acquire black socks either by issue or purchase are authorized to wear them as part of the service dress uniforms upon receipt. Personnel who possess brown socks and brown gloves are authorized to wear them until January 1, 1967. Interim replacement purchases of these items in brown are authorized pending availability of black items in the supply system. All male personnel will be required to possess category two items in black color commencing January 1, 1967.

The category three items include, buttons, insignia; sword and scabbard; officer sword sling; officer and sword frog; officers' sword knot, leather belt for coat; strap for campaign insignia distinguishing Marine Gunner, carrier, sword sword; and pistol holster. These items are still under study there is no change in pre regulations.

Federal Medical Facility Preferred While On Leave

Personnel on leave or leave are instructed to use Federal Medical Facilities when possible if they become injured. Civilian facilities to be utilized for emergency only and not for routine treatment.

If it does become necessary to use the services of a civilian medical facility, ensure that the correct name, rank, rate, service number and address are given in order that bills for medical treatment may be promptly processed.

In the event civilian hospitalization is required, every effort should be made to notify the commanding general or nearest military activity by direct telegram or telephone if appropriate.

Enlisted Rations Raised 2 Cents In Jan.

On January 1 commutation rates for enlisted men in the United States will drop from $1.03 to $1.05 daily. Correspondingly the ration will drop from $1.15 to $1.13. Alaska and Hawaii get the overseas rate.

The money goes to men on leave or who have been given permission to mess separately. Subsistence payments were a vital part of the 1963 payroll and for a while it appeared that both officers and enlisted would get substantial increases.

The Senate voted down the House passed subsistence increases after Defense promised a thorough study of subsistence. That study is now in progress.

Although no legislation on subsistence is planned for the year Defense may have one later in 1964 or early 1965.

ANOTHER FIRST—Lt. Col. Peter P. Yezierski made Marine Corps history on December 13, 1963, when he became the first Limited Duty Officer in the Marine Corps to reach the rank of Lt. Col. in the Food Service Field. Col. Yezierski received his promotion warrant in the office of the Commanding General, Maj. Gen. A. L. Bowser, Marine Corps Base. The new silver oak leaves were pinned on at an informal ceremony by his wife, Mrs. Muriel Yezierski (right) and his daughter, Julie (left) as Gen. Bowser looks on.

Although there were differences in language, custom, uniform, rank designation, pay and chow, the Marine spirit was the same.

2d Topo Installs Auto Seat Belts

Through the initiative and off-duty work of two men, the per-sonnel of 2d Topo Co., Force Troops, and their dependents can now enjoy more thorough automobile safety in their fam-ily cars.

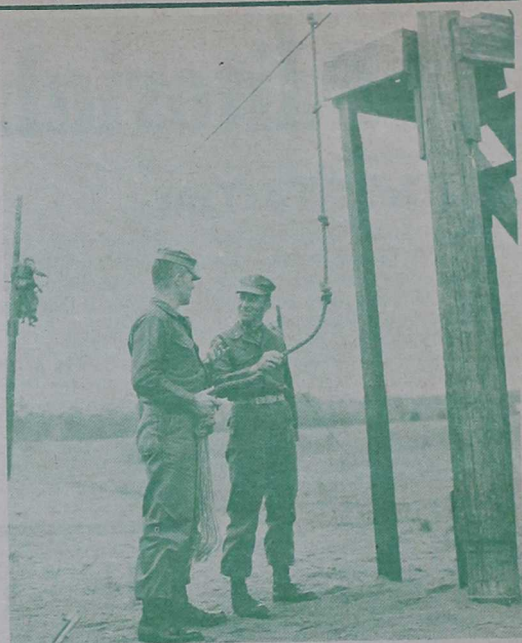

Approximately a month ago Sgt. Richard E. McLain, MT Chief and Vehicle Safety NCO for Topo Co., and Cpl. Robert T. Stewart, a mechanic in Topo's motor pool came upon the idea of conducting a seat belt safety drive within the unit.

A quick check revealed that only 16 seat belts had been in-stalled in private automobiles within the company.

Sgt. McLain and Cpl. Stewart arranged for the purchase of the seat belts from the factory through a Jacksonville auto parts distributor and installed the belts themselves after working hours.

When the drive was completed Sgt. McLain and Cpl. Stewart had installed 77 seat belts, ranging from two to six belts per automobile.

The total number of seat belts in the company now stands at 93 with 31 automobiles being equipped with the life saving strips of nylon.

KNOTTED ROPE—Lt. Luis Kohler (right) questions Capt. E. S. Huff on the use of knotted ropes by the U. S. Marines for climbing heights. Lt. Kohler is a Chilean Marine Corps Officer, undergoing on-the-job training at the 1st Infantry Training Regiment, in the procedures, training and construction of training ranges used by Marine trainees.

Our Debt To You

As 1963 comes to a close the GLOBE staff wishes to take this opportunity to pause and remember that we could not have accomplished our mission without the contributions and outstanding cooperation received from our fellow Marines. We heartily thank the ISO personnel of the various commands and the photographers of the Marine Corps Base and 2d Division Photo Sections for their continuous contributions throughout the year.

We are not about to forget our other contributors either. Our sincere thanks go out to the managers of the many clubs and annexes around the Quad-Command complex, the publicity chairmen of the numerous wives' clubs for their fine cooperation in aiding our operations and to those individuals who took it upon themselves to call or bring in the news.

The GLOBE also feels a debt of gratitude to the personnel of Special Services and to the coaches and members of the various varsity teams for their fine cooperation with photographers and GLOBE staff.

And the deepest heartfelt thanks to you, our reader, for making our work worthwhile.

IF YOU ASK ME

What Does Christmas Mean To You?

Chaplain's Corner

Christmas is a miracle. If you don't believe in miracles, you can't believe in Christmas — you can celebrate a Season, but you can't really celebrate Christmas.

Christ's Birth was the miracle of the Incarnation, which means, "God in the flesh."

Clergymen and theologians are always trying to explain miracles. When you come right down to it, that is probably their primary task. Books and Sermons almost without number have been written on subjects such as, the Virgin Birth, The Divine and Human Natures of Jesus, and the Holy Sonship of Christ. Most of these have done a fair job of trying to explain the unexplainable in terms of human logic — of describing the infinite in definite terms.

But no words of preachers, nor reasoning of human minds can fully explain the miracle of the birth of Christ — "conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary."

And yet the miracle took place, because all the rest that followed could be explained by a miracle. Do you have to figure it all out in detail before you can really believe in Christmas? No you don't because you can't.

But there is something you can do that will make Christmas a great, deep thrill — you can bow low and worship, alongside the shepherds and the Wise Men."

—Chaplain S. L. ROBERTS

Christmas The World Over

in terms of age, the United States is the youngest of the Christian nations to celebrate Christmas. As a result, it is easy to understand that this country has borrowed its Christmas customs from many parts of the world — the celebration of the holy season being as old as it is.

However, the greatest contributors to our customs the Yuletide have been England, Germany, Italy, Poland, Switzerland and Russia. But the "borrowing" Americans have done in their neighbors of the old underwent changes indigenous to our country, with some of the trimmings picked up at all.

ENGLAND

In England, they have a Boxing Day, and why it is called "Boxing" is not known. Some theorists ascribe the name to the fact that the day after Christmas, gifts are left for the postman. This has spread to include the milkman and others who have performed services for the household.

their feet are gifts. The log takes the place of the Christmas tree.

THE URN OF FATE

Another quaint custom prevails in Italy and Spain — in regards to the giving of gifts. In these two countries all gifts are placed in a large bowl called the "Urn of Fate." In it are dumped presents for all, none of them marked. Then each person draws a gift, examines it and trades among the members of the family until each receives a suitable present.

HOLLAND

In Holland they play a guessing and hunting game when it comes to passing out Christmas gifts. They put small gifts into enormous packages, hide large gifts in remote parts of the house, and use other more ingenious devices for hiding the gifts including the imbedding of them in sausages. The fun of course, is not only in the finding of the presents but also in guessing what they might be.

GERMANY

The Germans have a similar game but with a different twist. They wrap a gift and put a person's name on it. Then they wrap it again with still another person's name on it. This goes on until the package is quite large. Then when it comes to the unwrapping ceremony, each person expectantly unwraps, until finally there are no more "addressees" and the gift reaches its intended destination.

MEXICO

Mexican children do not hang stockings at fireplaces, as there are few in this tropical country. Thus the giving of gifts and goodies for children is surrounded by the custom of breaking the pinata (pronounced pin-yata). The pinata is a large earthenware pot, around which paper figures of birds, animals and even boats are created. The pot is then filled with gifts, cakes, candy and other good things. The filled pinata is hung by a rope from a rafter, and the children gather beneath it blindfolded. At a signal the children, armed with sticks, strike out at where they think the pinata is, break it and the goodies come tumbling down; at which point the scramble begins.

THE PHILIPPINES

The Philippines, predominantly Catholic, start their Christmas on December 16th and climax eight days of Mass worship at 3 a.m. with midnight services held at Christmas Eve. That is the signal for the fireworks, the exchanging of gifts, caroling and general merry-making to begin. The final Christmas festivities come to a conclusion January 6th, which is the date of the visit of the three kings of the East.

SWEDEN

Christmas in Sweden is actually the celebration of St. Lucia — and held on December 13th. On this day the oldest girl in each family rises early, dons a long white dress and crowns herself with lighted candles. Then she wakes the family and serves coffee and cake.

The Scandinavian countries also have a delightful custom at Christmas time. In Sweden, Denmark and Norway, a tree is loaded with a sheaf of wheat for the birds on Christmas Eve. Beneath the tree, the children sprinkle pieces of suet.

RUSSIA

Believe it or not, Russia celebrates Christmas much as we do in the United States, with one exception. They do not make any reference to anything holy or religious about the day. But they do have a "Father Frost" and "Winter Trees."

CHINA

The Chinese do not believe in the meaning of Christmas, yet they follow our customs closely without any religious themes. That doesn't stop them from having a merry time.

JAPAN

When the GIs were in Japan they brought with them many State-side ideas, not the least of which was Christmas. The Japanese were quick to adopt the custom and now have their Kurisumasu (Christmas), but it's more like wild New Year celebrations we express in the United States. Their New Year is celebrated much as we do Christmas.

The traditional festival colors in Japan are red and green and white, so it was easy for them to adopt the accepted Christmas colors we enjoy. But the Japanese have "modernized" their version of Santa Claus — and instead of the fat, jolly, rosy-cheeked fellow with the white beard, they dress their prettiest girls in the traditional regalia and the shorter the dresses they wear, the better.

HAWAII

Not to be outdone by anyone else, Hawaii has its Christmas too. But no reindeer, no sleigh. Their Santa arrives on the beach riding an outrigger canoe, and to top it all off, "Santa" is a hula-skirted girl!

All of which goes to prove that it's a point of view that dictates the custom of the country. But no matter what the geographical position, Christmas is Christmas — and it's the spirit that counts.

That being the case, the ability at this time of the year to say "Merry Christmas" in many languages would seem in order. Therefore what follows are a few ways you can greet your friends from foreign lands:

Bohemia, Vesele Vanoce; Bulgaria, Chestita Koleda; Croatian, Sretan Bojic; Denmark, Glaedelig Jul; Wales, Nadolig Llawn; Ukraine, Srozhdestvom Krisovym; Spanish speaking countries, Feliz Navidad; Portuguese (Portugal, Brazil) Boas Festas; Poland, Weselych Swiat; Italy, Buone Feste Natalizie; Germany, Froeliche Wienachten; France, Joyeux Noel; Ireland, Nodlaig Mhaith Chughnat.

The above, of course, are just a few ways of saying "Merry Christmas" in foreign tongues, nor would we attempt to pronounce them. But anyway, anywhere in the Christian world, the spirit of Christmas exists and when offered with sincerity is instantly understood no matter what the language.

SWISS

The business of the sleigh and six reindeer has been borrowed from the Swiss. But instead of our version of Santa Claus directing his team across the sky, they have an angel in the driver's seat, who comes bearing gifts.

BAVARIA

Candles in the window at Christmas Eve comes from Bavaria, where the custom dictates the tradition of lighting the way for Kristkind, messenger for the Infant Jesus.

THE YULE LOG

From England and Italy — though many miles apart — comes the custom of the burning of the Yule log. The more romantic Italians dress up their ceremony by having their children stand blindfolded before the burning log and recite a poem. When the children are finished reciting, the blindfolds are removed and at

General David M. Shoup

Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps

To all Marines, and to their families, I extend my warmest personal greetings and very best wishes for a Merry Christmas.

At this special time of year, when hearts are filled with the joys of Yuletide, we are heartened by the knowledge that throughout nearly two thousand years the Star of Bethlehem has not dimmed. Its message of universal peace and brotherhood shines brightly across the centuries to inspire men of good will toward a richer, fuller life.

May this joyous season bring to each of you, wherever you may be, a reaffirmation of fundamental beliefs, a renewal of the spirit of compassion, and a rededication to the ideals of our American heritage.

As the Old Year and my duties as Commandant draw to a close, it is my earnest prayer that the spirit of Christmas will shine brightly on Marines and their loved ones, and that the New Year will be filled with happiness.

Maj. Gyzin

Commandant

Once again the year when we celebrate the birth of Peace. We Marines have a deterrent to those who would bring the Angel of Peace will."

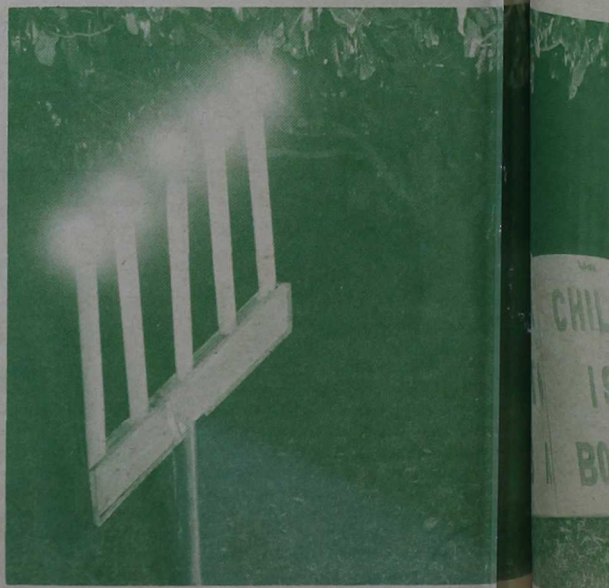

Ours is a lonely world. To all of you, wherever you are, I extend my warmest personal wishes and prayers that the New Year will be filled with happiness.

Brig. Gen. D. J. Robertson

Commanding General, Force Troops, Atlantic

As the Yuletide Season approaches, the thoughts of men everywhere turn toward home and family. However, many members of our Armed Forces will not be able to spend the Christmas Holidays with their families. They will be devoted to guarding our cherished "peace on earth." May we keep their sacrifice in mind, and enter into this festive occasion with an appreciation of the true "spirit of giving" and "love for our fellow man."

All members of Force Troops join with me in extending to the members and families of our sister commands our sincere best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

FOR THE SEASON

Maj. Gen. A. L. Bowser

Commanding General, Marine Corps Base

The Christmas Season is traditionally the most joyous time of the year for Marines and their families just as it is for others throughout the Christian world.

At this Christmas time I am happy to extend to the Marines and other personnel of Camp Lejeune my heartiest wishes that they and our friends in the Jacksonville-Onslow County area may enjoy a truly merry Christmas and share the blessings both of giving and receiving the happiness and peace foretold in the coming of the Prince of Peace almost 2,000 years ago.

As we look forward to this period of rejoicing and celebration I also urge each of you who will be driving or riding in automobiles over the holidays to exercise the greatest care so that you may continue to have reason to rejoice throughout the coming years.

May the spirit of Christmas, peace on earth, good will toward all men and the joy and happiness of peace of mind go with each of you through the end of this year and throughout 1964.

Col. E. C. Fusan

Commanding Officer, Marine Corps Air Facility

Christmas is the universal symbol of brotherhood and peace among men. It is a time each year that we pause to express our gratitude for the precious gift of life and especially for the life of the Saviour Child; it is a time to reflect on the supreme sacrifice made by so many dedicated Americans in the past that we who live may enjoy the freedoms of today; it is a time to rededicate ourselves to the ideals of our heritage and for all to seek the elusive goal of peace, understanding, and the brotherhood of man.

I extend my warmest personal wishes to all Marines, civil service personnel and their families for a very happy holiday period in the spirit of our Creator.

Lejeune Fighters Win 4-7 Against St. Petersburg

The flying fists of the Camp Lejeune fighters won them four bouts out of seven in the matches last Friday night against the "slugger" Infested Police Athletic League team from St. Petersburg, Fla.

In the first fight, at 132 lbs., Camp Lejeune's Darrell Smith hurled an assortment of hooks, jabs and combinations to decision Jesse Brown.

Considered by many of the spectators to be the best fight of the night was the bout pitting Bill Verdier of Lejeune against Jim Mells, at 139 lbs.

In the first round Verdier went mostly to the body of Mells, taking a few sharp left jabs in the process.

Action picked up in the second round with both men landing well. At long range Verdier was catching a lot of the lighting left jabs of Mells, but meanwhile Verdier was doing some banging of his own, scoring heavily with a combination of jabs to the head followed with rights to Mells midsection.

In the final round Verdier's shots to the body of Mells began to slow the St. Petersburg scrapper down, but he managed to rock Verdier with a hard left hook. Verdier came back with a booming right to the side of Mells' head, and from there on it was Verdier all the way as he followed up with lashing punches with both hands.

Verdier took the decision to set his season record at one win and one loss.

Adron Carroll of Camp Lejeune lost a decision against Dave Ham. Carroll fought well, but couldn't get the range on Ham, a very short fighter who stayed in a crouch throughout the fight.

Buddy Mullins from St. Petersburg racked up a TKO over Tom Zeigler in the 147 lb. fight. The TKO came in 1:58 of the first round. Mullins tagged Zeigler with a looping overhand right to down Zeigler one time, then swarmed him to put him down again, and the referee stopped the fight shortly after that.

Excel Calhoun of Lejeune lost a split decision to Dub Huntley in the 156 lb. fight. Carlos Tapia, fighting at 165 lbs. won on a TKO over Hydra Lacey in 1:50 of the second round, and in the last match Bob Glaister of Camp Lejeune decisioned Moses Norefleet in a hard fought battle.

Quantico Edges Diego In Missile Bowl Game

The man of the hour on the Quantico sports scene is Rick Bainbridge, the third-string defensive end.

Bainbridge started his first game of the year last week-end, against the San Diego Devil Dogs, and snagged two key pass interceptions to lead Quantico to a 13-10 victory in the Missile Bowl, at Orlando, Fla.

His first interception, which sparked the drive for the winning TD came in the third period on the Quantico 31 yard line. The Quantico team bulled their way to the Diego 28 and then scored on an aerial from quarterback Tom Singleton to Herm Brauch.

Quantico had scored late in the first half when fullback Dave Hayes capped a drive with a plunge across the goal from one foot out.

San Diego tallied once in the first quarter on a 23 yard pass from Errol Yeager to Hugh Oldham with the PAT being kicked by Herb Travenlo, and in the second period when Travenlo kicked a 27 yard field goal.

This win extends Quantico's season mark to 10 wins and one loss (to Ft. Eustis), while it is the first defeat of the year for the San Diego team.

Quantico's Missile Bowl record now stands at two wins in three games.

The 19th Hole

By BOB SPENCER

Another tip is to practice to something that is smaller than the regulation hole. I use a dime most of the time and when I go on the course that hole looks like it is four feet instead of 4-1/4 inch. Some practice greens have these half-sized holes and I think it's a great idea.

As for styles of putting, I feel it's mainly finding a stance and a grip that is comfortable and effective. So as long as the ball goes in the hole, don't worry about how you look.

About the stroke, never allow the right hand to pass the left, and make certain you have the clubhead accelerating when it hits the ball.

Our congratulations to M/Sgt. Frank Dierrico who shot a hole in one on the 12th hole using a number four iron last month.

Baseball Tryouts

Tryouts for the varsity baseball team will commence on January 27. Personnel interested in trying out for the team should report to Goettge Memorial Field House at 1 p. m. to fill out athletic questionnaires.

Pitchers and catchers will start working out January 27, while infielders and outfielders will begin work on February 10.

If you can play baseball here's your chance to get on a fine team. They compiled an excellent record last year, and walked away with the East Coast Interservice Conference title.

More Than 400 Attend Boy's League Banquet

Over 400 happy, expectant players, parents and cheerleaders jammed the Hadnot Point Staff NCO Club Thursday night for the annual Boy's League Football Banquet.

Following the invocation by Cdr. S. L. Roberts, Assistant Base Chaplain, MajGen. A. L. Bowser, Commanding General, Marine Corps Base, the featured speaker for the night, told of some of the instances he recalls from his days of playing football when he was a child.

General Bowser said "my first and most prized possession was a football helmet and a pair of shoulder pads". He recalled that during his childhood the only place available to him to play football was in a vacant lot and that equipment and coaching staffs were non-existent. The General stressed that this was a start for the young football players and what they have learned this season in teamwork and sportsmanship would stay with them in and out of school. "The only place here on out is up in your football careers", the General added. He expressed the importance of the Boy's League and the intense interest shown by the parents, officials of the league and the advisory group in the welfare of the boys and girls by eagerly and willingly devoting their time and energy for the success of the league.

Miss Bonnie Burns and Miss Linda Gibson, Cheerleading Queens for the Midget and Tiny Tot Leagues were introduced and greeted with enthusiastic applause. Eight teams of the Midget and Tiny Tot Leagues left their season's rivalries behind them, as they united as one team, cheering the presentation of the Championship Cup to coach R. Burns of the Bears, Midget League.

The high point of the ceremonies came when the sealed envelopes containing the names of the coaches' selections for "Most Valuable Player"; Most Valuable Lineman; Most Valuable Back and Most Valuable End were opened.

Enthusiastic crowd approval greeted the announcement that Chuck Daigoe, Tiny Tot League and Jimmy Alley, Midget League had been selected Most Valuable Player for the season. The Most Valuable Lineman award for the Tiny Tot League was won by Eddie Sellers with Al Coughlin capturing it in the Midget League. The award for Most Valuable Back in the Tiny Tot League went to Waldo Wells, Billy Callow was presented this award in the Midget League. The Most Valuable End award in the Tiny Tot League was given to Mike Plum and Mickey Boyd in the Midget League. General Bowser upon presenting the awards offered his congratulations to the boys.

Individual trophies were presented by General Bowser to each member of the Championship Bears in the Midget League. All football players of the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th place teams were given letters appropriate to their teams as mementos of long season practice drills and hard, clean fought games.

The final presentation made by General Bowser was a letter of appreciation to the outgoing President of the Boy's League, Ssgt. A. R. Williams, who is being transferred to Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic at Norfolk, Virginia. During the three years Ssgt. Williams has served with the Boy's League he has shown exceptional performance of duty serving as a voluntary member of the Board of Governors and President of the Boy's League. In his service to the Boy's League there has been an increased participation in the competitive athletic program and he has enriched the youth community program because of his untiring devotion to duty and interest in the welfare of the boys.

2d Division Angler Wins In Annual Fishing 'Rodeo'

Marine sergeant Leo Sheepwash of Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., 2d Marine Division copped honors this year for the largest red drum in the 18th Annual Fishing Rodeo, sponsored by the South Eastern North Carolina Beach Assn. He landed his 45 lb. winner while fishing at night from a Topsail Island Fishing Pier last August using a live croaker for bait.

"I knew that it was the largest drum landed in the last five years.

Relating the story of his catch he said, "We had been fishing at night, catching sharks, when I hooked into him. I brought the fish in, and then couldn't land him on the pier so I let him have about 150 yards of line and worked my way down to the beach. We finally landed the fish from the surf."

Sheepwash was using a 6/0 reel and a seven foot calcutta rod which he made himself when he caught the drum.

PRIZE-WINNER—This picture, published last August, shows Leo Sheepwash (right) throwing the prize-winning red drum back in, with the aid of Ken Woods.

NG UP—The walls of the new Camp Lejeune Bowling Center start taking shape as work nears the 18% completion mark.

Work 18 Pct. Completed on Base Bowling Center

a report last week it was stated that the bowling alley is 18 percent completed. The walls of the building are being erected now.

A lot of plans are in the works. A standing operating procedure is being drafted. Plans are being drawn for setting up leagues, methods of holding invitational tournaments are being considered, and a fight is being given to forming a varsity bowling team.

Entrance into the East Coast Service Conference. If you impulse bowlers who do not bowl but don't care to join a league can relax. There will be at least eight lanes free for league action at all times.

for open bowling.

About ten people will be hired full-time to keep the bowling alley in operation. Another ten persons will be required for part-time work. Plans are being made to send key personnel to school in New York.

The bowling center will have 32 lanes, a nursery, a snack bar, a lounge and a meeting room.

For the keggers who don't own bowling shoes or a bowling ball, about 320 balls and 360 pairs of shoes, in sizes for men, women and children are being ordered.

The expected completion date for the center is March 20, 1964.

Independent Swim Tryouts Scheduled After Holidays

Tryouts for a berth on the independent swim team will be held right after the Christmas holidays. Membership is open to the residents of all personnel stationed at Camp Lejeune, service and civilian.

Coach Jack Hayes has announced that due to transfers there are quite a few openings in the team for new members. Ability to swim extremely well is not the criteria to make the team. More so it is the desire to work hard and show improvement which will convince the coach that you will be worthwhile working with.

Anyone who can swim the length of the pool is welcome at tryouts. There will be a 30 day tryout period. Much of this time will be devoted to building stamina and providing instruction in the various strokes. Those swimmers who show improvement, the ability to apply themselves and the desire to compete and work hard will no doubt make the team.

Last year the Camp Lejeune Devilfish captured the eastern Carolina conference championship. From time to time they have been invited to participate in various regional and national swim meets. During the Thanksgiving holidays a total of 12 swimmers competed in the Arlington Invitational meet, a National competitive meet held in Arlington, Va.

More information can be obtained by phoning Major W. Patton at 6-6638, Captain C. Veno at 6-6473, Major F. Costanza at 6-6428 or by visiting the area five pool any Saturday morning from 0900-1200 and talking with Coach Jack Hayes.

In the black belt division Albarado, 2d Division in first place, Richard Smith in second, Parris Island came in third and Robin Rielly was third in the form competition. In free play Rielly came in first followed by Albarado and Smith.

The brown belt results were the same in both free play and form. Glenn Premru won first place with John Spires from Parris Island coming in second. In the white belt class Camp Lejeune Marines copped all honors. Dave Cook won first place in form and second place in free play. Paul Durso took second slot in form, followed by John DeBrucker, Ronald Madison captured first place in free play, and Jyrone Woods came in third.

Beginners karate classes will commence during the latter part of January. Anyone interested may get more information by contacting Sgt. Sam Pearson at 7-3787.

SHIRLEY ANNE FIELD AND ROBERT WAGNER (shown) team with Steve McQueen for the screen's version of John Hersey's famous novel — The War Lover.

MOVIE REVIEWS

KING OF THE ROARING 20's
The dramatic story of the country's top gambler, his life and love during the roaring twenties, starring David Jannsen portraying Rothstein from boyhood to manhood as he climbs his way to rule the gambling world. In his climb to the top his tactics are based on "the end justifies the means" as he deals with his friends, enemies and loves. Co-starring with David Jannsen are Dianne Foster, Jack Carson, Diana Dors, Mickey Rooney, Dan O'Herlihy and Keenan Wynn.

THE WAR LOVER
A story of heroism and cowardice with great impact is this screen play based on the best-seller by John Hersey. Telling of two American fliers based in England, Steve McQueen and Robert Wagner, and their personal conflict, along with their romance with an English girl, Shirley Anne Field, the picture is replete with exciting action and tense drama, together with whimsical and lighter moments.

THE MUSIC MAN
The Music Man makes a grand, flourishing showing on the screen after three and a half years on Broadway, with all flags flying and "78 Trombones" blowing their loudest. Robert Preston, the gay and friendly super-salesman, trying to organize boys' bands and selling them uniforms and instruments with the promise of the necessary music lessons. Since he himself can not read a note of music, it is his custom to leave town before this is found out. One town is different, however, and love puts him in its trap. Starring along with Preston is Shirley Jones.

MAGNIFICENT SINNER
A background of historical accuracy gives this story of Russian royalty and tragedy added spice for a rating of a well-produced, well-acted and colorful film. Produced in France, but with English so well-dubbed in, this movie has not received the usual objection to dubbed-in movies. Curt Jurgens and Romy Schneider portray the two main characters of the story supported by many others.

THE QUICK AND THE DEAD
A fight for survival is the center of this one as an American infantry patrol finds itself well-battered by German artillery in Northern Italy in 1944. As the patrol dwindles down one by one, and finally captured, two girls get into the picture, also prisoners. An escape is pulled in the confusion of a bombing attack and the action picks up again. Leading members of the patrol and the two girls are Larry Mann, Victor French, Jon Cedar, James Almanzar, Louis Massad while Majel Barrett and Sandy Donigan portray the two girls.

SPLENDOR IN THE GRASS
This one sounds like a good one as the age-old problem of parents trying to dominate the life and thinking of their children comes to light for Natalie Wood and Warren Beatty. Of course the children have their own ideas on how they want to live and what they want and this film tells the story of the changes they make in their parents' plans. In the movie with Natalie and Warren are Pat Hingle, Audrey Christie, Barbara Loden, Zohra Lampert and Fred Stewart.

Recipe Of The Week

Cranberry-Strawberry Compote

1 cup fresh cranberries
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup (10-oz. size) frozen sliced strawberries, thawed and undrained
1/2 cup whipped cream or dairy sour cream
1/2 cup powdered sugar

Wash and drain cranberries, removing any stems. In 2-quart saucepan, combine cranberries, orange juice, and sugar. Bring to boiling; reduce heat, and simmer, uncovered and stirring occasionally, until berries begin to burst — about 5 minutes.

Meanwhile, put strawberries and their liquid through sieve, blend in electric blender, to make a puree. Add strawberry puree to cranberry mixture; simmer, stirring, 5 minutes longer.

Refrigerate, covered, overnight. Serve with whipped cream or dairy sour cream and ladyfingers. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

A Christmas Prayer For A Year Of Grace

Give us, O Lord a twelvemonth of the beauties that confirm thy love;
A January day aglow with artistry of ice and snow.

In February, send a hare;
In March, the foal newborn to mare.

Let April's gift be silver rain to bathe earth's wounds and soothe her pain.

May's grace, from out Thy store of powers, a million times a million flowers.

In June, a dazzlement to eyes, the jeweled flight of butterflies.

Let Summer come, and in July, fashion Thy dome of sapphire sky.

Lead up on shores where at our feet Thy August sands and waters meet, until September frost achieves the conflagration of Thy Leaves.

October's harvest, golden bright,

November's geese in chevron flight, give us Thy grace one by one. And when our year is nearly done, Send us Thy Message, seen afar, the SACRED PROMISE of thy star.

By McCall's Mag.

First American Christmas

The observance of the Feast of Christmas Day was first celebrated in the new world in 1528 somewhere in Florida by five Franciscan missionaries who arrived there that year bringing with them the ideals and feasts of Christianity.

Several years later, more missions sprang up in the Southwest and in the California colonies of Spain.

In the English colonies along the Atlantic Coast, the first recorded Christmas was celebrated in 1607 by the British settlers at Jamestown, Va.

The leader of the colonists, Capt. John Smith, had this to say:

"The extreme winde, rayne, frost and snow caused us to keep Christmas among the savages where we were never more merry, nor fed on more plenty of good oysters, fish, fresh wildfowl and good bread."

For the Pilgrims further up the coast, where the wind was really extreme, Christmas Day was another day of hard work and struggle against the elements.

As late as 1659, although Christmas was regarded as a solemn feast there, a man taking the day off from his labor was liable to a fine of five shillings.

One of the most memorable Christmas Nights in American history was that of 1776 during can forces under George Washington made their crossing of the Delaware River.

Camp Lejeune UF Drive Has Ended

The 1963 Camp Lejeune-Onslow County United Fund Drive has officially ended with $90,189.76 donated by members of the Quad-Command and small amounts still trickling in from far-flung units of the FMF commands.

No further solicitation is being made, but the reports still coming in from 2d Marine Division and Marine Aircraft Group 26 indicate that the goal of $96,000.00 for Marine Corps activities at Camp Lejeune may be reached by the time the final count is made.

Added to that collected in Jacksonville and other Onslow County areas the drive has now brought in $108,689.76 to be distributed among the 26 charity and public service agencies supported by United Fund.

A special Christmas version of Music For Marines will be broadcast over WJNC Radio on Monday, December 23. The show will feature the singers of Camp Lejeune Junior-Senior High School, the Choralists of the Officers Wives' Clubs and Christmas Readings by Marine Corps Base and 2d Division Marines.

Broadcast time will be 2:05 until 3:00 p.m.

Marine Officer Honor Graduate In Army School

Lt. Col. James E. Wilson, Jr., of Hq. Bn., Division has been named one of seven honor graduates at the Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va.

Col. Wilson was named among the top seven students in the Army Supply Management Course 64-1 by Col. Felix J. Gerace, the Center Commandant.

This is the first time that honor graduates were selected for the twelve-week course which ended December 6.

There were 104 students in the class, including nine foreign officers from Great Britain, Korea, Libya, Canada, France, Germany, Ethiopia, and Turkey.

Chilean Officer Trains With 1st ITR

Lt. Luis Kohler, of the Chilean Marine Corps Headquarters, Valparaiso, Chile, will end a year of on-the-job training with the U. S. Marine Corps after the completion of study on training ranges and personnel scheduling at the 1st Infantry Training Regiment.

In modernizing its security forces it became necessary for the Chilean Marine Corps to broaden its scope of operation to cover amphibious operations. With this advancement in security procedures, training facilities are being brought into operation enabling the young Chilean recruits to put book knowledge into practical application.

As one of the training officers of the headquarters in Chile, Lt. Kohler was assigned to training in the United States to observe different phases of training of Marine recruits and permanent personnel.

His training began in January 1963 at the Cold Weather Training Center, Bridgeport, Calif. During this period the Lieutenant observed and participated in maneuvers which troops normally undergo under combat conditions in high altitudes and extreme cold.

This portion of training states Lt. Kohler "was very informative and beneficial to me because the location and climate was very much like the mountains in Chile....my knowledge on training under those conditions was broadened."

From California he came to Fort Bragg. Here schooling in Special Warfare and Counter Insurgency filled several months with tactics used by the U. S. Army.

At Parris Island, South Carolina Lt. Kohler observed Recruits in training during their formative months which included Rifle Marksmanship and Special Training for recruits. On this phase of training he commented on the spirit of the young American Marines which he said was outstanding.

During his stay here at the 1st Infantry Training Regiment, Lt. Kohler will study the construction of the training ranges and personnel administration of the instructor staff and trainees.

Lt. Kohler was accompanied to the United States by his wife, Rosa Maria and two of his children, Anne Marie Rose and Luis Alfredo. He is due to return to Chile in January 1964.

MAG-26 Pilots Break Record

An all time record for one day helicopter qualifications off of an aircraft carrier was established December 12, by MAG-26 pilots, when they made 1,134 qualification landings aboard the USS GUADALCANAL, LPH-7.

The carrier returning to its home port of Norfolk, Va., from an operational shakedown cruise in the Caribbean area, paused for three days off the coast of Onslow Beach, while Carrier qualifications became the business of the day. During the three-day period the MAG-26 helicopters based at MCAF New River made 2,911 day and night carrier landings.

All qualification landings were made without incident, which reflects the high level of safety maintained by both the newly commissioned carrier and the MAG-26 aviators.

Capt. Peterson, USN, commanding officer of the USS GUADALCANAL said in a message to Col. Reusser, commanding officer of MAG-26, "The MAG-26 pilots are to be commended for their safe and expeditious operations."

History of Communism

Stalin Increased In Power Pomp While Lenin Lived

(Sixth in a series of 20 articles entitled The History of Communism, by MSgt. Walter Stewart, USMC. Reprinted by AFPS from the San Diego Chevron, Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.)

In "Stalin: A Political Biography," author I. Deutscher writes, "Few important developments in history are so inconspicuous and seem so inconsequential to their contemporaries as did the amazing accumulation of power in the hands of Stalin, which took place while Lenin was still alive."

Stalin was: (1) Commissar of Nationalities, making him an all-powerful intermediary between the central government and the 65 million people who comprised the non-Russian element of the Soviet Republic; (2) Commissar of the Workers' and Peasants' Inspectorate, with authority to "act as the stern and enlightened auditor" of the entire governmental machine (he was in effect the head of a massive "super Inspector General" team); and (3) General Secretary of the Central Committee.

This latter post became almost unbelievably powerful and, when combined with Stalin's two commissariats and his position on the Politbureau, provided the thrust to gain Trotsky's ouster in 1926 and deportation in 1927.

In fact, by the end of 1926, there was on the Politbureau not one party member who opposed the leadership of Joseph Stalin.

In 1928, crisis again struck (crises were the fellow travelers of the Red regime for its first decade, but most of them were not of enduring importance) when an agrarian reform instituted several years earlier resulted in urban famine.

When the Communists' failure to permit a promised democracy prompted a panic in 1921, the Reds yielded to the extent of permitting private ownership of small farms--although these were heavily taxed.

After taxes, the farms had so little left over for their own sustenance, quotas for the cities went unmet. Thus, the urban panic reached its zenith in 1929.

Stalin's answer was collectivization of farms (note here again the subordination of the people to the program), an extremely unpopular answer to the poorest of farmers. However, it prevailed--with the aid of rifles and machine guns. Even so, collectivization soon fell over its own feet.

In order to succeed, the collectivized farms required mechanization and there were pitifully few tractors available, a quarter of a million tractors were needed and in the whole of Russia there were only 7,000.

Mass production of oil was necessary, as were power transmission lines, coal, steel and most of all--technical training. In short, the Russians needed an industrial revolution.

Stalin's solution, again supported by weapons, was the nation's first Five-Year Plan. Russia produced, in 1928, three and one-half million tons of pig iron.

The Five-Year Plan called for 10 million tons by 1933--a goal it had not yet reached by 1941. Goals were high, but Russia was fast gaining economy of both industry and agriculture (hammer and sickle).
