Gen. Greene To Be New CMC

Lt. Gen. Wallace Martin Greene, Jr.

Lt. Gen. Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Chief of Staff of the Marine Corps, has been named to relieve Gen. David M. Shoup as Commandant of the Marine Corps, subject to Senate confirmation. Gen. Shoup has indicated he will retire Dec. 31.

According to Pierre Salinger, Presidential Press Secretary, President Kennedy had wanted to nominate Gen. Shoup for another term. However, the Commandant declined "on the grounds of health, and that a change would be good for the Corps."

Lt. Gen. Wallace Martin Greene, Jr., is now serving as Chief of Staff, Headquarters Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.

Born December 27, 1907, in Burlington, Vermont, Gen. Greene graduated from high school there in 1925 and attended the University of Vermont for a year before entering Annapolis. Upon graduation from the Naval Academy, June 5, 1930, he was commissioned a Marine second lieutenant and ordered to Marine officers' Basic School at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. He completed that school in June 1931, then served for a year at the Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Portsmouth, New Hampshire. In July 1932, he completed the Sea School at San Diego, Calif., and joined the Marine Detachment aboard the USS Tennessee.

Returning from sea duty in March 1934, the general served briefly at Pensacola, Fla. and Quantico, Va., before reporting to the Marine Barracks, Naval Air Station, Lakehurst, N. J., that November. Except for a temporary assignment at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., where he completed a course in the Chemical Warfare School, he remained at Lakehurst until March 1936. After that he served at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, until he sailed for Guam in October 1936. He was stationed there until June 1937, when he embarked for Shanghai to join the 4th Marines.

Upon his return from China in August 1939, Gen. Greene entered the Junior Course, Marine Corps Schools, Quantico. He completed the course in May 1940, then took command of the 1st Chemical Company, 1st Marine Brigade, sailing with it that October for Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. While there, the Brigade was redesignated the 1st Marine Division. Returning with the unit in April 1941, he served at Quantico and New River (later Camp Lejeune) as Assistant Operations Officer, 1st Marine Division.

In November 1941, the general was ordered to London, England, as a Special Naval Observer. During that assignment, he attended the British Amphibious Warfare School at Inverary, Scotland, and the Royal Engineer Demolitions

Marine Given Medal For Heroic Life Saving

Lt. Nicholas Winslow, pre- of Hq. Co., Marine Corps Schools, watched with his companions as an aircraft struggled on takeoff at an airfield last December. The aircraft, a small number, crashed into the side of a house, touching off an event leading to the presentation of a Navy Commendation Medal.

The aircraft, a military tank, cleared the end of the runway, pancaked into an Okinawa home, and burst into Winslow and his companions hurried to the crash site after seeing this plane explode, and hesitated as the flames from the high-octane aircraft fuel forced them back.

Winslow, considering the possibility of survivors, ignored the terrific heat and the danger of further explosions, then made his way into the blazing house and pulled a wounded Okinawan from the wreckage before being forced out by the intense heat. Nine fatalities were caused by the force of impact and the explosion, but Winslow was credited with saving the burned and frightened civilian.

Last week, Winslow was presented the Navy Commendation Medal by the Base Commanding General, Maj. Gen. A. L. Bowser, and received the congratulations of the Secretary of the Navy, Fred Korth, and the commandant of the Marine Corps, Gen. David M. Shoup, for his heroic actions. The Navy Commendation Medal, rarely awarded in peacetime, follows the Bronze Star in order of importance.

Winslow was serving with ASD Bn., 3rd FSR at the time of the crash.

First Telephone Installed In Enlisted Capehart Area

Long awaited event has come. No not another add to the family, but to many seem almost as blessed. First telephone has been installed in the Capehart house.

CWO W. Bailey tells us he is planning to install phones at this time and as another cable arrives will be approximately 245 phones installed.

Telephones are being installed at a cost to the user of .75 for a two party line. All phones have been installed at the base telephone office. Will try to install extensions to the existing phones to persons who would like to them at a cost of approximately $1.25 per extension.

HOOK-UP—Sgt. Dewayne Eichelberger, (left), ServCo., H&S Bn., MCB, makes the final hook-up on the first telephone to be installed in Capehart as CWO O. W. Bailey, Base Telephone Officer, looks on.

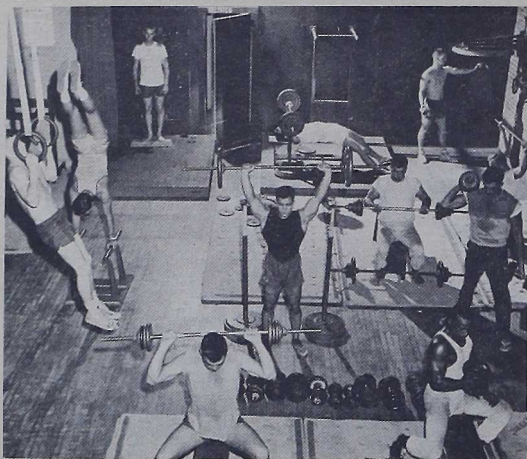

1964's United Fund Drive Kick-Off Set For October 1

Drive chairmen, committee-men and campaign workers for the 1964 Camp Lejeune-Onslow County United Fund Campaign met with Fund President Charles E. Woodul in a dinner session at Pine Lodge in Jacksonville Tuesday night to formulate final plans for the kick-off of the drive here next week.

President Woodul, Camp Lejeune Chairman Col. H. E. L. Zastrow and Onslow county chairman Chuck Benson headed the list of officials coordinating the planning for the drive that is hoped to raise $120,000 for 15 Camp Lejeune-Onslow County and national organizations benefited by the United Fund.

Col. Zastrow also announced that he will meet tomorrow at 10 a. m. in the Camp Theater with all campaign co-chairmen, assistant chairmen, supervisors and keymen for detailed planning and issuance of materials for the on-base drive. Maj. Gen. A. L. Bowser, Brig. Gen. W. J. VanRyzin and Brig. Gen. Donn J. Robertson, commanding generals of Marine Corps Base, 2d Marine Division and Force Troops, respectively, and Col. E. C. Fusan, commanding officer of the Marine Corps Air Facility will officially kick-off the Camp Lejeune campaign October 1.

2d Marines' Gym Gains In Popularity With Home Made Body Building Ge

California has its "Muscle Beach"; Camp Lejeune has its 2d Marines gymnasium.

Run by SSgt. Tony Tucci, former 3d Division and Quantico boxing coach, the "Indoor Muscle Beach" is identified by an easily-learned, easily-remembered building number: 201. It is perhaps the most efficiently operated, most fully equipped house of athletics in the Camp Lejeune area.

During the 12 months that Tucci has been assigned to the gymnasium, he and his four-man staff have, on their own time and at no expense to the Marine Corps, constructed a number of bodybuilding machines that are not only well made, but unique to gymnasiums in this area. Utilizing scrap metal, spare lumber, and a surplus of ingenuity, Tucci and his men have managed to bring their gym to a high standard of operational efficiency.

A "lat" machine, a "dip" bar, and adjustable incline board and a bench press rack have all been constructed by the 2d Marine "architects" in the past year. With tongue-in-cheek, Tucci further advises that there will be a "Grand Premiere" of another novel, home-made machine in the very near future.

The "lat" machine, an essential part of any health studio, was devised by Tucci and PFC Carlos Rodriguez. Using a discarded backboard from a light-punching bag as its nucleus, the apparatus was skillfully erected through the use of two pulleys from a retractable motion picture screen, tennis net cable, and various scraps of metal. It is now employed daily at the gym as a device to perfect the body's "V" shape.

The incline board, used to strengthen the abdominal muscles, was made from spare plywood, 2 x 4 lumber, and a length of lead pipe that can be adjusted to suit the user's comfort. The calf machine, designed by Rodriguez, is made with lead pipe, welded "sleeves", and an old cable. The machine is used to build the leg's calf muscles.

The "dip" bar and bench press rack were constructed by the men as a further indication of their uncanny talent for gathering discarded materials and transforming them into useful instruments of physical fitness.

In addition to the many home-made machines, "Tucci's Place" also features the more standard equipment usually found in the gyms around the Lejeune area: light and heavy punching bags, trampoline, ping pong table, horizontal bars, tumbling mats, and an adequate assortment of weights that total more than 2,000 pounds. A set of flying, or "Roman" rings, uncommon in Lejeune gyms, are also included in the house's standard equipment.

Some of Camp Lejeune's top weightlifters and bodybuilders utilize the gym in their off-duty hours. "We have handled as many as 175 Marines and dependents in a single night," stresses Sgt. Tucci. "In a few instances we have personnel from Cherry Point and New River Air Facility coming here, either for bodybuilding purposes or to observe our set-up," he added.

While recently on two weeks active duty, Marine Reserve PFC Larry (Powers) Clanchetta, used "Tucci's Place" as his physical fitness headquarters. He compared the facilities favorably with those of many of the health studios he had seen in New York City. Clanchetta is a two-time runner.

ner-up in the professional America" contest.

One of Tucci's aides, Rodriguez, is the 1963 runner up in the professional America" contest, held Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 1 was the first non-amateur for the Puerto Rico-born riguez, who has been a rine since September, 1963.

Aside from his per honors however, Rodriguez another distinction in nection with building 201: the chief bodybuilding instructor at the gymnasium instructs many would-be pique stars in all phases of building, primarily through use of weights.

Col. J. M. Taul, commander, 2d Marines, has of the gym's doors to all Mar plus dependents. Children than 16 years of age mu accompanied by an adult.

Through the coordinat Capt. J. D. Mattingley, 2d rines Special Services Of the gym is open seven d week. Hours of operation follows: Monday through day, 9 a. m.-10 p. m., Satu 10 a. m.-8 p. m., Sunday, 8 p. m.

New Name Given For 'River Drive' Honors Late Gen.

The name, "River Drive" applied to the street which from Autumn Oval to Wee Creek, no longer exists. The street has been re-named "Seth Williams Boulevard" in commemoration of the late Gen. Seth Williams, 1st (Ret.). This action is the result to a request made by Lt. J. P. Berkeley, former commanding general, MCB, and Commandant, Marine Corps.

General Williams entered Marine Corps in 1903. His career, primarily in supply, culminated in his service as Quartermaster of the Marine Corps from Dec. 1, 1937 to his retirement Feb. 1, 1941. The Base Maintenance officer has been directed to paint all the street signs, and other applicable material will be changed next time they are published.

4 Div. Chaplains Get Hail-Farewell

Sixteen of the 23 2d Division Chaplains met in the Chapel Room at the Camp Cafe for a "Hall-and-Farewell" together.

The "Hall" was to welcome aboard three new chaplains: Lt. (jg) John M. Collins, Lt. James P. Poerschke, and John C. Mignone, while the "Farewell" was for Chaplains R. C. Betters, who is transferred, and other Chaplains who will deploy with their units.

Lts. Poerschke and Collins reported to the 2d Division Chaplain's School, New River, I., and have been assigned duty with 1st Bn., 2d Marines, and 3d Bn., 8th Marines, respectively.

Lt. Mignone, prior to reporting to Camp Lejeune, served with the 9th Marines, 3d Marine Division. He has been assigned duty with 1st Bn., 8th Marines. Lt. Betters served with 1st Bn., 2d Marines, during ForMed 3-63, and later as a 10th Marine Division Chaplain, 10th Marines. He has received orders to Naval Air Station, 1st Island, San Diego, Calif.

Public Opinion Telegrams Mounting; New Record Expected For This Year

It looks like a record year for public "opinion" telegrams to Washington.

"Tell-it-to-Washington" wires from all parts of the U. S. are expected to top the half-million mark in 1963, setting a new record, it was announced today by Mr. E. R. Allen, Camp Lejeune office manager for the telegraph company.

"There has been a noticeable pick-up in the past 90 days when more than 150,000 opinion telegrams were sent to Washington," said Mr. Allen. "This is double the volume of the preceding three months.

"Congress appears headed for a year-end session, as proposed action on legislation still remains in such issues as the nuclear test-ban treaty, civil rights, tax cuts, college aid, and other hot issues. The result should be a record number of telegrams from constituents.

"Helping to boom 'opinion' wires is Western Union's new Personal Opinion Message, called 'POM'. This flat-rate telegraph service permits senders to express their views and recommendations to the President, Vice President, Senators and Representatives in Washington, at 85 cents for a 15-word 'opinion' telegram from any point in the continental United States. The sender's name and address, to assist in speeding a reply, is included at no extra cost.

"Many people wiring opinions to Washington," said Mr. Allen, "want to say more than 15 words. They usually use day letters, in which the telegraph company provides a 50-word starting allowance for a low minimum charge.

"Personal Opinion Message volume rises and falls with public interest in controversial issues. For example, in October 1962, during the Cuban crisis, more than 152,000 telegrams were sent to Washington from all over the nation. In fact, it was announced that 48,000 telegrams were delivered to the White House during the 17 hours following President Kennedy's announcement of the Cuban blockade."

MAG-26 Group First To Operate On First Of LPDs

The first of a new class of amphibious ships, the USS Raleigh, LPD-1, is presently undergoing an evaluation cruise in the Caribbean area.

The Landing Platform Dock (LPD) combines the operational characteristics of the Landing Platform Helicopter (LPH), and the Landing Ship Dock (LSD).

It can ballast down and lower its tailgate for access of landing craft, and provides a loading and refueling platform for helicopters. The LPD can launch landing craft, amtracs and helicopters while underway.

A detachment of forty pilots and maintenance personnel from LtCol. L. C. Ritter's HMM-265, MAG-26 operated on board for the two weeks evaluation period. During this time, debarkation and embarkation drills were held, utilizing an infantry company from the 24th MEU.

Night carrier qualifications were held aboard the Raleigh and the new ship recorded the time necessary to recover and fold the eight aircraft attached to it.

With the coming of the USS Raleigh, LPD-1, USS Vancouver, LPD-2, and the eight other LPDs on order, the familiar sight of Marines scrambling down cargo nets to waiting landing craft may gradually pass from the scene of amphibious warfare.

Base, Chamber Seeking Local Purchase Increase

Jacksonville and Onslow county businessmen interested in purchasing goods and services to the Marine Corps met with the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Committee and the Corps purchasing Tuesday afternoon to discuss an increase in local purchases.

After an introductory general session, purchasing agents met with individuals who wished to discuss specific points and procedures for offering their products to the Marine Corps.

Meeting, the third of its kind since the founding of the committee in mid-1962, was held to develop increased standing of the needs and requirements of Marine Corps and the Marine Corps Air Station for goods and services that can be provided by local businessmen.

Chamber of Commerce President Dan Southerland and Commerce Chairman Glenn Hooper, along with Col. R. W. Glickert, coordinator of the Civilian-Military Committee,

Medical Aid For Retirees Under Study

Efforts to best provide medical aid for retired military members and their dependents is being studied by the Defense Department.

Law, retired military and dependents are entitled to medical care at military hospitals on a "space available" basis. However, DOD estimates that the increasing number of retirees will soon bring about a situation where such facilities will be insufficient to meet their needs. The Defense Department is looking for a way of insuring continued health care for the people.

AT Unit Adds Div. 'First' To Record During CPX

Company "A", 2d AT Bn., 2d Marine Division, climaxed its recent CPX when the unit accomplished a Division "first".

The "first" occurred when, on the third day of the exercise, the company was committed to transport its vehicles across water at night without the aid of fording devices... something that had never been accomplished within the Division.

To accomplish the mission, Co. "A" contacted the 2d Bridge Co., Force Troops, which constructed a ferry by using sections of a pontoon bridge.

Company "A" began a two and one-half hour motor march from their position to French Creek—a wide, deep creek bisecting the training area.

Within three hours the first Ontos was ready for loading onto the ferry, which allowed the vehicles to be floated across the creek. All of the vehicles were ferried across without incident.

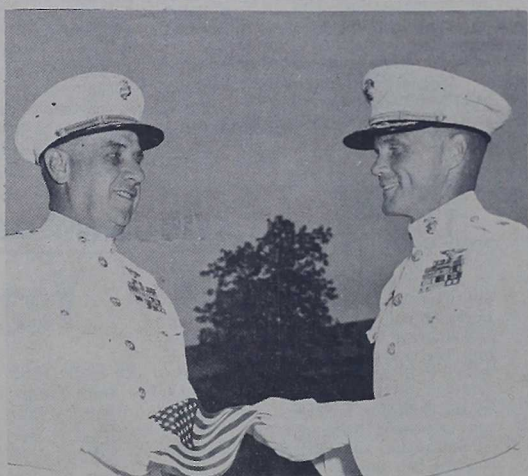

Another highlight of the problem occurred when 1st Lt. Terry B. Light, commanding officer, Co. "A", made an estimate of the situation and conceived the idea of excavating positions as defense against aggressor forces, which were supplied with five M-48 tanks.

With the aid of bulldozers, a network of channels and dug-in positions were prepared. Operating within these channels, the Ontos could maneuver about large areas with only their 106-mm recoilless rifles showing above the parapets affording much smaller targets for the tanks to zero in on.

Blood Bank, the Navy Blood Program is organized with the three commands providing voluntary donors on a regular schedule, each command having the responsibility for one week in accordance with BO6530.4.

The schedule for the next quarter assigns responsibility as listed below during the following inclusive dates.

Base Entertainers Sought For Part In Local Festival

The neighboring town of Swansboro is presently planning its Annual Mullet Festival for Saturday, October 12th. Each year this popular festival hosts several thousand people from eastern North Carolina. The day's activities begin with a parade at 1 p. m. and proceed throughout the afternoon with free boat rides and tours of historic land marks. The day is climaxed with a mullet dinner and dance in the evening. The entertainment committee is presently seeking talented Marines who are interested in performing during the afternoon and evening. Musical acts, magicians, tumblers, etc., would find this an excellent opportunity to try out their act before a large audience.

Interested persons should contact Capt. Shroyer at Base ext. 7-5582.

Salute To The Squads

Nine rifle squads recently competed in the Sixth Annual Rifle Squad Combat Practice Competition at Quantico, Va.

One of three squads representing the 2d Marine Division won second place in the competition.

The GLOBE congratulates not only the winners, but all the squads entered in the event.

Preparations began months before the actual competition. Undoubtedly, much extra training was involved at a sacrifice of personal desires in order for the squads to mold themselves into the smooth, efficient teams worthy of representing the 2d Marine Division in Corps-wide competition.

Every man who went to Quantico in competition should be commended for a job well done.

Chaplain's Corner

Christian faith is created in the life of those who will receive Christ. But anyone who receives Christ as his Rescuer faces a battle. Nevertheless, the one who receives Christ can be assured he will not be defeated, but be more than a conqueror.

Anyone who has yet to experience the birth of Christian faith in his life needs to hear the message addressed to him personally from God: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life." Faith comes by hearing. The message to hear is this very message. Be assured God is anxious to give you the gift of faith. And be assured the Scripture is true, that by grace you are saved through faith.

But realize the Christian faith that is given you faces a battle in this life. It will be tested and tried. But the redeeming purpose is to develop this adolescent faith into a mature faith. Adolescents in the military forces soon discover that they are not pampered, but put to the test for the purpose of developing mature military men. Recognize, then, that your faith must be tested. It can be rugged, as Job of the Old Testament discovered. And, as sure as the Lord will test your faith, Satan will tempt you to give up. This is the battle which demands you be on the alert. The battle-scarred veteran, the Apostle Paul says: "Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

Christ showed the strength of His might and defeated Satan by rising from the grave on the third day. For the Christian it means victory. Christ's victory is our victory. Christ has given us the victory. In fact we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. We are heirs of eternal life.

Problems Can Be Solved

According to many people, it is an old military custom to gripe. They also contend that "the troops aren't happy unless they're griping."

Do you believe this?

Although griping may give you a certain amount of personal satisfaction, how do you think your friends and contemporaries react when you are unburdening yourself? Do they really enjoy taking on your problems?

A man can be feeling pretty good. Maybe it's Friday, he just got paid, has a good week-end planned, and is at peace with the world. This is before his "buddy" encounters him with petty problems.

Soon, the formerly happy man's face takes on a sour appearance. It should, for he is getting a taste of bitterness through his "friend's" griping.

This is part of the blight spread by griping. If you spread very much of it you're going to find people walking away when they see you approach.

A better alternative than "shooting-off-your-mouth" indiscriminately at the slightest provocation is to sit down and think about the problem.

Ask yourself, is this problem necessary part of the military way of life? If it is, accept it as such and make the best of it.

If it isn't, why not find a logical solution to the problem and approach your immediate superior with your idea. If the idea is accepted you're ahead of the game.

If the idea is rejected the "boss" knows you're thinking, and you're not out anything, such friends lost by constant griping.

REMEMBER

Years ago ... this week

22 Sept. 1855 — Marines and seamen from the U. S. sloop John Adams landed at Viti Levu, Fiji Islands, and later, destroyed the village of Namula in retaliation for repeated outrages against American vessels.

23 Sept. 1779 — Marines contributed materially to the victory of the Bonhomme Richard, commanded by Capt. John Paul Jones, over the British ship Serapis off Flamborough Head, on the coast of Yorkshire, England.

23 Sept. 1902 — A Marine battalion landed at Aspinweil, Panama, Columbia, to be stationed along the railroad from Panama City to Colon to protect American property.

24 Sept. 1800 — The Marine detachment of the U. S. sloop Patapsco landed on the island of Curacao, West Indies, to assist in the defense of the island by the Dutch against French warships.

24 Sept. 1873 — One hundred and thirty Marines and seamen, later increased to 190, from the USS Pensacola and Benicia landed at Bay of Panama, Columbia to protect the railroad and American lives and property during a revolution.

25 Sept. 1906 — A detachment of Marines and seamen landed from the USS Marietta at Ciego de Avila, Cuba, and proceeded to Palmaria to protect the railroad.

25 Sept. 1915 — Marines met and dispersed a superior force of Haitian rebels in the Battle of Petit Riviere.

26 Sept. 1777 — Marines commanded by Maj. Samuel Nicholas, took part in the operation on the Delaware River where they were being conducted by elements of the Pennsylvania Navy.

27 Sept. 1860 — The Marine guard of the U. S. sloop St. Mark landed at Bay of Panama, Columbia, to protect the railroad and American lives and property during a period of civil strife.

IF YOU ASK ME

What reasonable incentive, not available now, do you think would influence more first-hitch Marines to stay in the Corps?

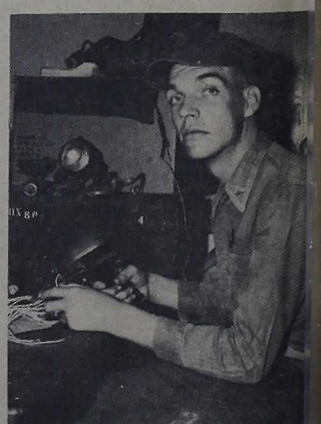

SGT. BERNICE L. D. BENEFIELD, Co. "B", 2d AmTrac Bn.—"I think better living conditions in the barracks would be influential towards re-enlistments of 'first-hitch' Marines. An example of barracks living conditions is in the overcrowded living areas during the summer training programs for the reserves."

SSGT. W. T. ADAMS, Co. "A", 2d AmTrac Bn.—"Allow Marines who are formally school trained the opportunity to choose a field more to his liking if presently dissatisfied, without having to re-enlist."

PFC JOHN P. MONTGOMERY, HqCo., MCEs, Spec. Serv., MCB—"In my opinion if a Marine is given the opportunity to retrain in a specialized field, making him better qualified to perform his job, he would strongly consider making the Corps a career."

CPL. H. L. WILLIS, Comm S, Co. "A", 2d AmTrac Bn.—"I think there are plenty of incentives for a first-hitch man to re-enlist. Presently they can 'shoot over' to retain their present station or to select new duty stations, there are also many other things available according to individual interest."

 Debbie Reynolds, everybody's sweetheart, and David Janssen.

Miss Dee and Donohue fall in love, and try to hide within each other from the adulterous and alcoholic failings of their parents.
 Their sensitive and mature portra-als of two anxious youngsters faced with the hard realities of life and the tragic weaknesses of their families make this film a sensitive and moving drama.
 Although promiscuity, adultery and alcoholism are underlying themes, the handling of them is tasteful and without noticeable detriment from the tender love story they surround.
 Th film may be seen by mature youths, but is not recommended for highly impressionable adolescents.
 Rated "excellent" by reviewers.

MY SIX LOVES
 Debbie Reynolds as a sought after stage and screen star, basking in the limelight of adulation, suddenly finds herself virtually the "little mother"
 to a brood of six lively kids.
 Miss Reynolds retreats to a hide away in upstate Connecticut to rest from the show business grind. Suddenly, her place of rest is invaded by six mischievous children, running away from alcoholic parents.
 Debbie takes charge of the kids,
 and the fun begins.
 Reviewers rated the film as "Very Good."

YELLOW CANARY
 A reasonable degree of suspense and excitement is found in the unfolding of this mystery and murder story, which also involves the kidnab-ing of a small child.
 Additional interest is provided by the "straight" casting of singer Pat Boone as the father of the kidnapped child. Barbara Eden and Steve Forrest co-star in the film.
 Rated as "Good" by reviewers.

IN THE COOL OF THE DAY
 Against the familiarly beautiful backdrops of Greece, producer John Huston has fashioned a rich looking love story that will appeal to young people. With an expensive and polished finish, the movie contains those elements which most contribute to the mood of a romantic-adventure theme.
 The plot is complicated in places,
 and involves underlying emotions which should reserve the film for adult patronage.

tasks of loading and unloading 155mm ammunition.

LONG AND LETHAL—Pictured above is the 155mm self-propelled gun with a range of 23,400 meters.

2d FAG Offers Bigng

Take one self-propelled 8 inch or 155 mm gun, add one experienced section chief and seven carefully trained crewmen, plus ample field firing problems and you have the formula which makes 2d Field Artillery Group, Force Troops, the vital and efficient supporting unit they are.

Small in size, but massive in the job they do, 2d FAG boasts the only self-propelled long range Marine Corps weapons on the East Coast.

In the Marine Corps, the 8 inch and 155mm self-propelled guns are primarily used as counter-battery weapons, as they can easily reach and destroy enemy artillery far beyond the reaches of towed artillery.

The 155mm Gun Battery has six 155mm guns (SP) in addition to approximately 65 assorted types of motor transport equipment. The battery can operate as part of a field artillery group, as an attached unit or as an independent unit for a limited period.

The 155mm gun has the longest range of cannon artillery in the Marine Corps. This long barreled weapon can hurl any of five different projectiles up to 23,400 meters at a rate of two per minute.

The 8 inch howitzer battery is made of three howitzer platoons and a Headquarters platoon.

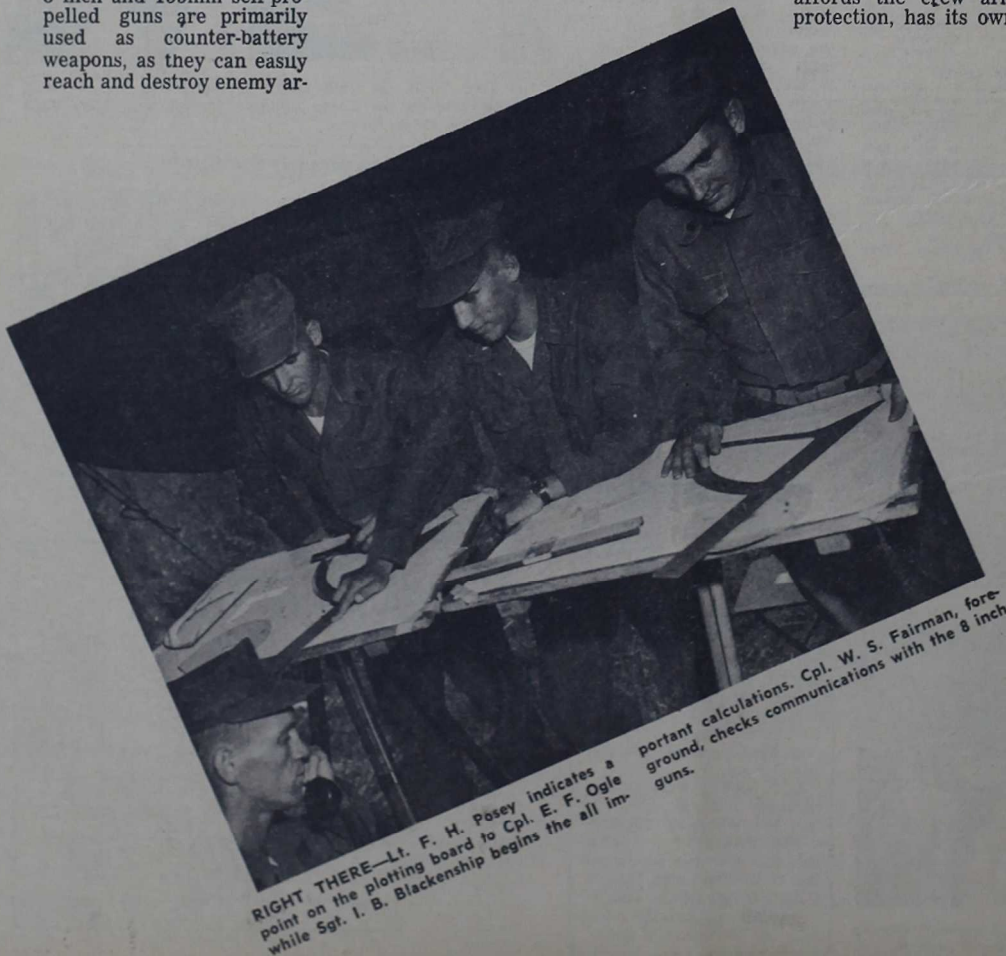

The 8 inch howitzer can put 200 pound, high explosive projectiles on target at a rate of more than one per minute and up to ranges of 16,800 meters. It also has a non-conventional capability.

Self-propelled artillery is superior in many respects to towed artillery in that it affords the crew armored protection, has its own ammunition storage, negotiates many types of terrain. Its ability to move quickly from place to place enables the self-propelled gun to strike the enemy where he isn't expecting it. The 8 inch howitzer is held on moving quickly from one sector to the 8 inch 155mm guns can be used for some element of surprise. The second and most important formula is the trained crew which makes the 8 inch and 155mm gun a formidable weapon. Led by a section chief, usually a staff sergeant, the crew consists of the driver and five can-

Each cannoneer has a specific duty on the gun. Through practice the crew works together with like precision in the firing of the gun.

The 8 inch howitzer battery makes up the second part of the 2d Field Artillery Group.

RIGHT THERE—Lt. F. H. Posey indicates a point on the plotting board to Cpl. E. F. Ogle while Sgt. I. B. Blackenship begins the all important calculations. Cpl. W. S. Fairman, foreground, checks communications with the 8 inch guns.

THE OTHER HALF—The 8 inch howitzer battery makes up the second part of the 2d Field Artillery Group.

PREPARING FOR FIRING—Cpl. R. E. Parker, left, places the projectile on the rammer tray as PFC F. J. King stands by with the powder in the first steps of loading the 155mm gun.

loading type ammunition, the loading process is more complex. The projectile, propellant, and primer are loaded into the breach separately. Since the projectile must also be fitted with a fuze the loading process is a four step procedure.

The driver is responsible for maneuvering the 50 ton vehicle which is powered by a 810 horsepower gasoline engine, over various obstacles and terrain, and into position for firing. The 8 inch and 155mm guns can ford four feet of water without fording gear, climb a 60 per cent incline, clear a seven and a half foot trench and pass over a 40 inch vertical obstacle thus making it a very mobile weapon.

The third element of the formula is field firing and 2d FAG gets plenty of practice. By use of the various ranges at Camp Lejeune, periodic trips to the Fort Bragg ranges and a yearly advanced training exercise in Vieques, the gun crewman becomes proficient and well versed on the operation and firing of the "big" guns as well as the smaller crew served weapons.

Through familiarization firing of the .50 caliber machine gun and .45 caliber "grease gun" the crew is ready to defend the gun position through small arms fire. Each crewman is armed with an M-14 rifle which gives added small arms support.

Since Field Artillery Group has no forward observers as Division does, the Fire Direction Center relies on the "spotting" of aerial observers and use of Division "FO's" for pertinent firing data.

Through the combined teamwork of the section chief, crewmen, Fire Direction Center personnel and aerial observers, 2d Field Artillery Group carries out its assigned mission of providing general support and reinforcing fire to units of a Marine Division or Force with the utmost accuracy and efficiency.

ACTION—The keynote seems to be action as the crewmen of an 8 inch howitzer prepare to load and fire another round during recent field firing at Mile Hammock Bay.

Visiting 'Goshawks' Top 'Devildogs' 20-0 In Saturday's Game

The Camp Lejeune "Devildogs" faced their second defeat Saturday in a rough and tumble game as they went against the flying "Goshawks" of Pensacola Naval Air Station, Fla.

More than 6,000 spectators watched the "Goshawks" run the score up to 20-0 before games end.

The Navy men won the toss to kick, with Charles Heard taking the ball on the Marine 10-yard line and going to the 37 before being stopped.

The "Devildogs" looked as if they would monopolize the ball game from the start, taking three first downs before losing any yardage. The "Goshawks" then settled down and stopped the Devildogs on their 32 yard line.

The Marines kicked on their fourth down. Ernie Reese received for the Navy and went five yards before running into Charles Heard. The Navy team gained nothing on their first down but Riddle and Reese managed to pickup six yards in the next two plays.

With Reese taking a quick pass from quarterback Ernie Price, the Navy picked up 12 yards for another first down. Three plays later the Goshawks landed on the Devildogs 12 with yet another first down. They drove the ball to the "Devildogs" two yard line and on their second play the talented right arm of Price went into action again as he passed to Art Dayton in the end zone for a TD. The Navy eleven falled on the extra point.

Marine right end, Charles Heard, made one of the most thrilling runs of the game when he fielded Pensacola's kick-off on his own two-yard line, angled to the right side of the field, then ran over, under, around, and through a host of Navy glants before being upended on the Goshawk 40.

The Marines only covered four yards before having to kick again. Dayton received for the Navy but couldn't hold the ball and The Marines big center, George Taliaferro covered for the Leathernecks on the Navy 19.

On the first down Warner Terhes passed to Eddie Hatchett for a 10 yard gain but the Marines were penalized 15 yards on a personal foul. On the Leatherneck's third down Terhes tried to pass but was dragged down for a four yard loss. John Level kicked for the Marines with the Navy taking the ball on the 45 and going for five before being stopped.

The "Goshawk" quarterback, Charles Price took to the field again for the Navy, putting the ball to the Lejeune eight yard line before halftime called the game to a halt.

The second half found the "Goshawks" on the Lejeune 45. On their first down Price passed to Reese for a 10 yard gain. On their second play the Marines held the line for a gain, but the "Goshawks" came back to gain another first down on the third putting them on the "Devildogs" 17.

The "Goshawks" advanced to the Lejeune 10 yard line in three plays and on the fourth Joe Way took a hand-off from Price and went around right end to score once more for the Navy team. The Goshawks kicked for the extra point setting the scoreboard at 13-0.

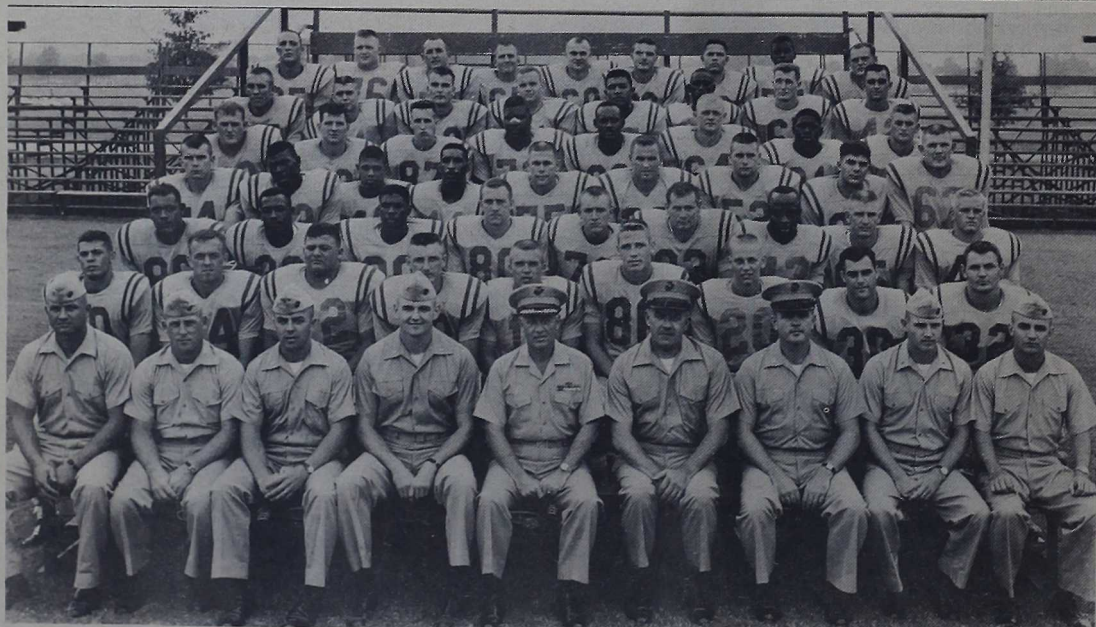

The Marines took over on a while and advanced to the "Goshawk" 40 yard line before losing the ball on down. Charles Price took to the field once more and the "Goshawks" advanced to the Marine 16 yard line.

On the fourth down Price tossed a pass to Mike Perry for another "Goshawk". Joe Murphy kicked the extra point for the Navy men setting the final score 20-0.

The "Devildogs" will journey to Fort Belvoir, Va., for their third game of the season Oct. 4. Last year the Lejeune eleven swamped the Ft. Belvoir "Goshawks" in a home game with a score of 42-0.

The "Devildogs" ran helter-skelter over the Belvoir team last season combining touchdowns, four extra points and a safety to win the game.

Although the Marines won handed their second set back in last Saturday's game against the Pensacola "Goshawks", Coach Alan Fliers says "we have two weeks of practice before going against Ft. Belvoir and we plan on working hard preparing for it. There is much I can say about the Pensacola game except we made just about the same mistakes as we did in the Ft. Belvoir game. We hope to have them corrected by Oct. 4.

In the individual titles Mull took honors in the 12 guage Class A event with 100/100. He also won the 28 guage Class AA competition shooting 48/50 with Ziegler holding the third place spot with 47/50.

Lejeune Devilpups Suffer First Loss To Hallsboro

The Camp Lejeune "Devilpups" suffered their first defeat of the season last Friday night as they went into competition with the Hallsboro "Tigers".

The "Tigers" took charge of the ball game for the first half to score 19 points against Lejeune's O. Hallsboro's Halfback, Bryan Powell started things rolling for the "Tigers" as he ran the opening kickoff 50 yards for a TD only to have it called back.

Two brothers, Bill and John Formy Duval took charge of things as Bill scampered 28 yards through the middle to score. Following that, Bill passed to his brother, John who also carried the ball for another additional six points.

Hallsboro's final score was acquired by fleet footed Johnny Hines in the last half of the second quarter as he scampered over from the three yard line. The extra point was run by Bill Formy-Duval.

The "Devilpups" came back strong in the second half to stop the running offense of the "Tigers". Early in the fourth quarter, Jack Sellers intercepted a Hallsboro pass deep in "Tiger" territory to set up Lejeune's only score.

Halfbacks Bill Turville and Bob McDonough moved the ball to the "Tiger" six yard line and the "Devilpup" quarterback, Larry Aycock scored on a "keeper" play.

Bob McDonough and Bill Turville turned in an outstanding performance for the "Devilpups" in the second half but were bothered earlier in the game by fumbles.

FT LCpl. Promoted

LCpl. Nelson W. C. Elsler, of 2d Tank Battalion, Force Troops, was meritoriously promoted to the rank of "Corporal" by his Battalion Commander, Lt. Col. R. M. Taylor, on Sept. 9. The letter recommending him for promotion read in part:

"Lance Corporal Elsler has been a member of the 2d Tank Battalion for a period of three years. Over this period Lance Corporal Elsler has displayed an outstanding knowledge of his duties as a radio telegraph operator.

"During the first eight months of this year, the Tank Battalion has been twice assigned the Lejeune Terminal of the Force Troops Phone Patch net and each time Lance Corporal Elsler has been the man in charge of this net and in each instance he performed his duties in such a manner that communications with Camp Garcia, Vieques, has been highly satisfactory. In September 1963, the 2d Tank Battalion will again be responsible for the Phone Patch net and it is anticipated that Lance Corporal Elsler will be the man in charge of this net.

LUCKY 13TH—Five members of the 2d Marine Division who do not believe that Friday the 13th is an unlucky day are, from left, P. C. Whitlock, J. E. Kelly, J. T. Johndreau, W. Irons and K. C. Herdman. They were meritoriously promoted to sergeant last Friday, Sept. 13, at ceremonies in the office of Brigadier General R. McC. Tompkins, Commanding General, 2d Marine Division. (Photo by Cpl. A. J. Sharp).

Unlucky Friday Change For Five Division Sgts

Five from four to five on 13 may sound like just a lot of numerical juggling to the average reader, but it meant good news to five sergeants within the 2d Marine Division recently.

It all started when five corporals arrived at the office of Brig. Gen. R. McC. Tompkins, commanding general, 2d Marine Division. The five Marines were led into the General's office and meritoriously promoted to sergeant.

To top it all off, the five went from pay grade four to five on Friday the 13th.

Now you may be one of the persons who believe that nothing good can happen on Friday the 13th, but there are sergeants who no longer agree with the age-old superstition. In fact, these sergeants are firm believers that Friday 13th is their lucky day.

Those promoted were: Kenneth C. Hardman, Hq. of H&S Bn., William C. Irons and Joseph E. Kelly, H&S Co., 2d Antitank Bn., James T. Johndreau, H&S Co., 2d Bn., Marines; and Paul C. Whitlock, H&S Co., 1st Bn., Marines.

FT Marines Commended

Ard was assigned as NCOIC of security guard reliefs with the mission of isolating the quarters occupied by the Commander in Chief, President John F. Kennedy, during his visit to Hawaii for the period June 8-9. Cpl. Ard accomplished his assigned mission in an outstanding manner. GySgt. Robert M. Hetrick of Headquarters and Service Bn., 2d Force Service Regiment, was awarded a Letter of Appreciation by Cheng Wei-Yuan, Commandant, Chinese Marine Corps. Lt. Col. F. A. Quint, H&S battalion commander, presented the letter in his office on Sept. 10.

The letter signed by the Chinese Commandant read: "The undersigned wishes to extend his appreciation to GySgt. Hetrick, for his many valuable contributions made to the Chinese Marine Corps during the period June 1962 through July 1963 in his capacity as Motor Transport Adviser to this Corps.

"Throughout his tour of duty, Sergeant Hetrick has worked closely with CMC motor transport personnel in the most dedicated manner and unreserved endeavor. Below listed are some tangible accomplishments made by the said advisor:

a. Conduct of monthly inspection of vehicle maintenance status of various CMC units;

b. Inspection and inventory of MT maintenance tools in all CMC units and assistance in the obtainment of new MAP instruments to replace the old ones;

c. Assistance in the development of converting M34 trucks to 106mm recoilless rifle vehicles and of the improved use of GPW jeep and bus tires;

d. Suggestion on the utilization of the obsolete M34 truck body as prime mover for towing the 155mm artillery pieces;

e. Assistance in the solution of MT maintenance problems during troop's maneuver area training; and

f. Study on the proper revision of the T/O's for various echelons of maintenance units.

"It is also noted that Sergeant Hetrick usually came to work on many weekends and at off-duty hours at the sacrifice of his own free time in order to accomplish more. Scout Leadership Interest Increased

It has been noted in the past, that there have been persons in the Camp Lejeune area that have been interested in the Boy Scouts of America and have expressed a desire to serve with them but did not know how to accomplish this.

There are many areas of service that need the help of those who have served with the Boy Scout program before, or wish to commence in this interesting endeavor.

Camp Lejeune, being primarily a transient community, has a continuing need for those who wish to help. There are five Boy Scout Troops and five Cub Scout Packs plus one Explorer Scout unit within the Camp Lejeune complex. For anyone interested in serving as an adult scout leader in any capacity, please contact Lt. Col. Dennis, Institutional Representative, Phone 5-7301 during normal working hours or 5-7117 for after working hours.

Lt. Col. Dennis will be glad to discuss at any time how you may help serve this worthwhile program for the guidance of our youth.

Teen Club Plans Season Activities

The officers of the Camp Lejeune Teen Club are formulating plans now for an interesting and enjoyable season for all teenagers going to the Camp Lejeune High School.

Starting Friday, September 20, there will be a charge of 10 cents a night or 20 cents when a live band is used. This charge will be taken at the door instead of collecting monthly dues. The club will be open every Friday, and Saturday night from 7:40 to 11:30 p. m.

The policy will be to bring different bands to Marston Pavilion during the winter season as well as having planned parties and general recreation.

This is one of the largest Teen Clubs in this area, but it takes the backing of each member to make this club function properly, so any new ideas you would like tried out just send them to the officers of the club or to Mr. Hoge, Director, Marston Pavilion.

Schools Set Dates For PTA Meetings

Parents in the Camp Lejeune area and their summer vacations along with the students to start a year of planning activities and programs to meet the needs of the school children in the community.

In the "community" of Camp Lejeune each of the eight children's schools has its own Parent-Teacher Association. They are linked through their membership in the state congress and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the bylaws are based on those of the National Congress and the state branch.

The first PTA meetings of the year are usually "open houses". This gives the parents a chance to meet the new teachers and plan the coming year schedule.

Dates for the first PTA meetings are:

Junior-Senior High School—October 7
Stone Street School—October 14

Brewster Elementary—October 1

Midway Park—October 15
Tarawa Terrace—October 3
Montford Point—October 10

All meetings will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the respective school auditoriums.

Columbus Day Proposed For National Observance

Another national holiday has been proposed—Columbus Day, Oct. 12.

Senate Bill 108, whose principal sponsor is Sen. J. Caleb Boggs (R., Del.), proposes to make Columbus Day a legal holiday. Senator Boggs has been joined by 32 other Senators in sponsoring the Bill.

The landing in the Western Hemisphere by Christopher Columbus is presently commemorated in 44 states and Puerto Rico, according to a spokesman for Senator Boggs.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland (D., Miss.), is now studying the bill.

Christopher Columbus, a Genoese navigator, after years of agitation in Spain, gained the support of Queen Isabella for a westward voyage in search of a shorter route to the rich lands of the East.

Columbus left Palos, on Aug. 3, 1492, with the vessels the Santa Maria carrying 52 men, and the Pinta and Nina carrying 18 men each.

On Oct. 12, at 2 a. m., Rodrigo de Triana on the Pinta, sighted land. Columbus landed on one of the islands in the Bahamas and named it San Salvador. Columbus also discovered Cuba and what was once called Hispaniola, now Haiti and San Domingo.

Four Lejeune Students Place For Scholarships

Principal G. W. Durr of Camp Lejeune High School, announced yesterday that four of the school's students have been named Semifinalists in the 1963-64 Merit Scholarship competition.

The students cited for their high achievement are Gary Ford, Sandra Potter, Darcy Meeker, and Herbert Robinson who has transferred to Carlsbad, Calif.

They are among 13,000 seniors throughout the country who attained Semifinalist status. The Semifinalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in United States territories. Each Semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice.

In past years, about 97 per cent of the Semifinalists have become Finalists. All Finalists receive a Certificate of Merit in recognition of their outstanding performance.

About April 23, 1964, the names of the Merit Scholars will be announced, the exact number depending on the extent of sponsor support of the Merit Program.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award to cover the undergraduate college years. The recipient's stipend is tailored to his need.

Awards may reach a maximum of $6,000 for the four years of college. For students who already possess financial resources which will enable them to attend the college of their choice, the awards are $400 for the four years. Stipends now average about $890 a year.

The Merit Program was established in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. In 1962 the Ford Foundation announced an additional grant to continue the program through 1970.

Division Squad Nets 2nd In Corps-Wide Competition

For the third consecutive year the 1st Marine Brigade in Hawaii walked away with the honors in the Sixth Annual Rifle Squad Combat Practice Competition held at Quantico, Va., Sept. 16-19.

Second place awards were gathered by the 2d Squad, 2d Platoon, Company "T", 3d Bn., 2d Marines.

Besting a field of nine Marine rifle squads from all over the world, the Marine team from the 4th Marine Regiment of the 1st Marine Brigade, earned the title "Best Squad in the Marine Corps".

Third place went to a squad from the 3d Regiment at the 3d Marine Division.

The winners of the annual competition were announced last Monday by Commandant of the Marine Corps, General

David M. Shoup, during the Sunset Parade at Marine Barracks, Eighth and Eye, in Washington, D. C.

Designed to stimulate squad level training within individual commands, the competition tactically determines which squads its most proficient in all-around combat readiness.

The testing exercise was composed of two different types of problems. The first, an attack on "enemy" positions was held in an area approximately 175 yards wide and 700 yards long, and comprised a combat situation on a squad level with as much realism as was safe possible. The second segment of the exercise was a night problem involving a reconnaissance patrol to seek information from the enemy without engaging in combat, if possible.
