Heroism Wins Medal For Woman Marine Sgt.

When Woman Marine, GySgt. Dorothy L. Kearns was presented the Navy and Marine Corps Medal by Col. Margaret Henderson, Director of Woman Marines, during ceremonies held on June 25, she became the second Woman Marine in history to receive the award.

The Navy and Marine Corps Medal, presented for acts of heroism not involving actual combat with an enemy was awarded to GySgt. Kearns for her heroic conduct while on Recruiting Duty in San Francisco, Calif.

On the morning of Feb. 5, 1961, Sgt. Kearns heard cries for help from an upstairs apartment in the same building in which she resided. Rushing to assist, Sgt. Kearns found a woman under attack by a mentally disturbed man with a knife. After pulling the assailant away from the victim and disarming him, she rendered first aid to the victim and attempted to calm the attacker. She then telephoned the hospital, which in turn, notified the police. While Sgt. Kearns was ad-

Commencing at 1 p.m., July 4th, there will be a four minute ceremony of bells. It is requested that all persons join in this ceremony by stepping outside and ringing any bells they possess. For those who do not have bells, local radio stations WLAS and WJNC have invited all to tune in, throw open their doors and turn the volume up and let "Freedom Ring" for all to hear.

New ZIP-Code Inaugurates Speedier Mail Deliveries

The new, five-digit ZIP-Code to be used by residents of Jacksonville was announced by Postmaster F. A. Smith with instructions for proper use of the improved system to speed mail deliveries.

The three-digit prefix to be used by all mailers of the community--whether they are post office box holders or whether they get home or office mail delivery--is 285.

To this prefix add the two-digit numeral 40 if you receive delivery service by carrier from the main office. Example--28540.

If you rent a post office box at the main office add to the prefix the two-digit numeral 41. Example--28541.

In the area served by Camp Lejeune branch the ZIP-Code number is 28542 for delivery or box rental.

Tarawa Terrace branch patrons ZIP-Code number is 28543 for delivery or box rental.

At the Midway Park branch the ZIP-Code number is 28544 for delivery or box rental.

The ZIP-Code system went into effect nationally on July 1.

The following is an example of the correct use of ZIP-Code:

PVT. JOHN DOE
UNIT
CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C. 28542

In answering mail use the ZIP-Code number taken from the return address on incoming mail.

When the National ZIP-Code plan is in full operation, it will provide the most modern system of mail distribution and dispatch. Mis-sent mail will be cut to a minimum, and the time between deposit and delivery will be sliced by as much as 24 hours.

In order to assure this vastly improved mail service, it is vital that all learn and use the ZIP-Code for your area.

BLT 1/6 Conducts Its First Med Landing

WITH THE U. S. SIXTH FLEET IN THE MEDITERRANEAN (Delayed)—BLT 1-6, under the command of Lt. Col. M. V. Schmidt, conducted its first amphibious landing exercise on June 14 when amphibious assault craft from ships of Task Force 61 transported the Marines to a landing beach located eight miles south of Kavalla, Greece.

hand to witness the impressive Marine and Navy operations were Lt. Gen. W. M. Greene, Chief of Staff of the Marine Corps, and V. Adm.

W. E. Gentner, Jr., Commander, U. S. Sixth Fleet and several hundred members of the Royal Hellenic Armed forces.

Supporting the Marine assault unit as it penetrated through a terrain of mountains and valleys were attack aircraft from the USS Enterprise and naval gunfire from ships of Task Force 61 and the USS Little Rock, flagship of the U. S. Sixth Fleet.

From their vantage point, the ruins of a stone fortification high above the harbor of Nea Peramos where the landing took place, Lt. Gen. Greene and V. Adm. Gentner, in company with several Greek Generals from the Greek War College, watched as Capt. Gordon E. Malone's Company "D" assaulted the beach objective from amphibious tractors.

Additional Marine ground support followed Company "D's" assault utilizing landing craft and helicopters from HMM 262, Sub Unit 2, under the command of Maj. H. V. Larson.

As the drive moved inland, a static display of battalion weapons and equipment was established on the beach for the convenience of the visiting Greek military personnel.

The Kavalla landing was the first landing operation conducted by BLT 1-6 since it arrived in the Mediterranean last month from its home with the 2d Marine Division.

A detailed schedule is published in Base Bulletin 1560. Units scheduling personnel for testing may make reservations by calling the Base Education Office at 7-5121.

Personnel scheduled to take the tests should report promptly to Bldg. 19, at 8 a. m. or 1 p. m. in the uniform of the day with I. D. card.

Individual Marines who have not completed High School or College may contact their unit Education Officers for full details concerning the GED testing program.

Diving For Sunday Dinner 'Sea Urchins' Find Puzzle

Many mysteries lie within the depths of an ocean; sunken ships and rusting cutlasses of another era sometimes remain as the only clue to human dramas of violence and high adventure long past, but Cpl. Roger Ash of the "Sea Urchins", a skin-diving club at Camp Lejeune, made a recent discovery which is more timely, but no less puzzling.

Ash, of Medium Support Company, 2d Service Battalion, was diving last Sunday afternoon in Mile Hammock Bay with two companions, Cpl. David A. Davis of Engineer Maintenance Company, MS&M battalion, and Pfc Joan Sobesky of Woman Marine Company, Marine Corps Base.

The group, diving in 10 to 15 feet of water just a short distance from shore, was searching for salt water crabs to round out a Sunday seafood dinner.

Ash, seeing the outline of a large stationary object in the murky waters, swam closer to investigate. Rusting at the bottom of the bay was an old car.

Ash and his companions forced open a window to search the wreck for bodies in the shadowed interior. Finding none they then reported the find to the proper authorities.

Ash, custodian of the "Sea Urchins", Davis, Vice President of the club, and Sobesky, club member, may never know what led their find into its watery resting place. Marine Corps Base Criminal Investigation authorities are reported as conducting an investigation. But the automobile, owned by LCpl. Frederick W. Natiello, now discharged and residing in New Jersey, and reported stolen more than 15 months ago, may have left its secret forever at the bottom of Mile Hammock Bay.

PAINT JOB???—The lighter area at the front of the car was buried in the muddy bottom of Mile Hammock Bay while the remainder paid the price of being exposed to the effects of water for 15 months before being found Sunday, June 23 by three members of Lejeune's skin diving club.

Reserves Also Physically 'Ready'

"IT'S A LONG, LONG ROAD TO TIPPERARY"—but that's not where these Reserve Marines of Forest Park's Company "F", 2d Bn., 24th Marines are headed. Led by their Company Commander, Capt. Roger J. Nemetz, (left foreground), they are in the process of completing a three-mile forced march during their physical readiness test as part of their two weeks annual summer field training.

Fans Set For Transition To Black Items Of Uniform

Headquarters Marine Corps announced plans for an orderly transition from brown to black uniform accessories. The color change in the uniform accessories is being made to minimize clothing expenses to the Government and the individual Marine. Items affected by the transition for male Marines and enlisted have been placed into three categories.

Category one items are dress shirts and dress caps. These items may be dyed black by the individual. Dyes will be made available at no cost to the individual Marine through the C&S supply system. Marine Corps approved dyes will be at nominal cost through the Marine Corps Exchange. Dress caps, which are required for all male Marines, will be black visors, chin straps and screw post buttons are expected to appear in the supply system during August, 1963. Marines who acquire either category one item, by issue or purchase, prior to January 1, 1964, will be required to dye, or purchase the other item in black color. Both items will be required accessories effective January 1, 1964.

Category two items, black dress gloves are listed as currently available in the supply system and stations, and are expected to be available at 1 Marine installations by January, 1964. However, brown gloves may be worn until January 1, 1967. At that time Marines will be required to wear black dress gloves. Leather gloves are not in long supply and will not be dyed satisfactorily by individual or commercially. Black gloves are not anticipated to be available in all stock units until January 1967, at a time they will become mandatory accessories. Brown gloves may be worn with the black frame cap and black shoes until that date.

Revised regulations pertaining to the wearing of gloves now stipulate that the leather gloves may be carried, worn or "shelved" at the option of the individual Marine while on leave or liberty. However, the gloves must be worn when the overcoat is worn. Commanding officers may designate the wearing of gloves when a Marine is in a duty status, either with the winter overcoat or without it.

White gloves must be worn with dress uniforms. Exception to this is made during the winter months when the topcoat, overcoat or raincoat is worn. Then the brown gloves must be carried or worn.

Included in the category three items are buttons, emblems, the NCO sword and scabbard, pistol holster, brown leather belt, etc. A study is underway to determine which of these items need to be changed to black and the most economical phase-in methods. No change in current regulations for these items is authorized.

Woman Marines will be authorized to wear black accessories beginning October 1, 1963. These accessories include black gloves, black pumps and oxfords and black handbags.

Black oxfords for WM's are currently available in the supply system and black pumps may be purchased commercially, or the shoes may be dyed.

Brown handbags, which are currently in short supply, and brown gloves cannot satisfactorily be dyed black. Black gloves are now available in all Cash Sales Stores, with the new style handbag expected to be placed in the supply system about October 1, 1963.

Once a Woman Marine has acquired a black handbag, either by issue or purchase, she will be required to immediately possess matching shoes and gloves.

A study is being conducted by Headquarters Marine Corps to determine if Woman Marines' buttons and emblems need to be changed to black.

Additional information on the uniform changes is contained in Marine Corps Order 1020.37.

Editorial

These days we have so many reports of present problems and crises that we have very little time to think about the ones in our past. A look backward, though, will show us that the road our forefathers traveled was, more often than not, strewn with obstacles very similar to those we face today.

May, 1776, was one of the most hectic times of our history. The newly formed Continental Congress was striving to find a solution to our problems with King George's England and there were times when the whole situation looked hopeless; times when the pessimists muttered that we were all doomed.

Yet, in spite of this outlook and prophecy of many, our leaders stuck to their task and produced a resolution that, in July 1776, would become the immortal Declaration of Independence. This document, the signing of which we commemorate each July 4, has remained the foundation stone of our way of life for 187 years.

Chaplain's Corner

In the old days when sea-going vessels were dependent upon the winds, a ship was lying becalmed while the sea around it was like glass and the air seemed motionless. However, a sailor noticed that a small pennant atop the tall mast was moving slightly. There was no hint of breeze on the water or on the deck of the ship, but the captain decided to spread the upper sails and see what would happen. Soon the ship was moving through the quiet waters, being driven by the currents of the upper air.

This story is something of a parable of life. The atmosphere in which we move as we go about our daily lives may sometimes be dead. We may feel that life is monotonous and unprogressive, but above all the monotony are currents of life, like the breezes of the upper air. If only we will take advantage of them, the soul can cease standing still. We can catch the impetus of higher and better things.

This is a truth upon which every Christian should act. Regardless of his immediate circumstances he should lift his efforts toward that which is above his present level. The prophet Habakkuk once said when he was confused and discouraged, "I will . . . set me upon the tower . . ." His effort to get a higher view of life paid off for him, and so it will for us. Let us learn to live in the upper air and respond to God's will in order that we may, with purpose, move through the monotony that threatens to engulf us.

Where would our country be today if these men hadn't faced the challenge? Where will the America of the future be if our leaders, today, don't meet the challenge facing them and find solutions with the power and impact of the Declaration of Independence?

Luckily, this question has already been answered. We have chosen our own leaders and they are capable of meeting our problems and finding the right solution just as the men of the Continental Congress did. Our nation has survived by faith in democracy and the men who guard it.

2d ANGLICO Take the Force Troops' 2d Air and Naval Gunfire Liaison Company applied their skills June 18-19 when more than 100 ANGLICO Marines participated in a Counter-Guerrilla Warfare exercise in the Camp Lejeune area.

ANGLICO split the men into two groups. Counter-guerrilla forces were comprised of 41 of the company's qualified jumpers. With one exception, the guerrilla forces were composed of 62 non-jumpers. The guerrillas' leader, Capt. Neil M. Larimer is jump-qualified, and did jump during the exercise.

The situation consisted of an enemy guerrilla force, estimated to be of battalion strength, and known to be operating in the area bounded by Verona Loop, Morgan Bay, and Stone Bay. The enemy had been conducting frequent raids and ambushing friendly vehicular traffic along the Verona Loop Road.

In addition, the guerrillas, consisting of well trained, seasoned combat veterans, have threatened the security of MCAF, New River and the town of Verona.

The counter-guerrilla forces broken down into seven teams jumped from two C1As (TF) at Camp Davis. Their mission, to locate and destroy the enemy's supply dumps, interrupt his flow of supplies, and ambush his convoys, ultimately denying him freedom of movement and impeding his future plans of operation.

After jumping at Camp Davis under light small arms fire from enemy forces, the counter-guerrillas rendezvoused with partisans who led them to base camps.

Each team worked independently, using PRC-10 radios to keep Problem Control informed of their progress. At Problem Control, Capt. J. G. Keiser and B. D. Wellborn kept track of the counter-guerrillas' progress.

In the field with the guerrillas, who were split up into four platoons, were four of ANGLICO's Naval Aviators who acted in the capacity of umpires for the problem.

In successfully fulfilling their mission the counter-guerrillas waded along beaches, crossed streams and crawled through densely wooded areas to hit the supply dumps, ambush the convoys and hit the guerrillas from all sides.

The problem was set up by 1st Lt. Dave Henderson, company Parachute Operations Officer. Henderson who was a counter-guerrillas team leader said, "The problem went real well, and Capt. Larimer and his aggressors did an outstanding job. They were set up so well that 1st Lt. R. A. Delaney's team and my team were forced to wade in by water to hit the supply dump."

Davis during 2d ANGLICO's guerrilla warfare problem.

"PAIR-A-CHUTES"—A pair of jumpers from the counter-guerrilla forces which jumped into the fray over Camp Davis had some realism instilled in their jump as guerrillas fired blanks for harrassing fire.

Take the Guerrilla Test

Capt. Larimer, whose guerrilla forces probed throughout the night at the friendly troops, said, "The overall problem was successful in many ways. It got people into the woods to learn things that they can't learn in barracks type duty. It had a real high morale factor and the troops thoroughly enjoyed the problem. Our's was mostly a defensive action, except for harrassing night probes. We tried to set up our base camps and stay ahead of the opposition at all times, however, the counter-guerrillas' mission was successful."

The problem was not entirely a Marine operation. Four Navy officers, members of ANGLICO, also participated. Two on each of the opposing sides.

Capt. Wellborn, at Problem Control, said, "The whole operation proved successful. All the guerrilla convoys and their supply dumps were destroyed by counter-guerrilla forces."

Lt.(jg) John J. Carty, USN, and Sgt. D. E. Heim through intelligence sources found out what uniforms were being worn by the guerrillas. They came carefully prepared. Shedding their uniforms, they dressed like the guerrilla forces. The twosome walked boldly into the enemy supply dump, chatted with the enemy troops at the dump for awhile, and in leaving dropped two grenades into the dump, blowing it up. On the way out, they found a communication section which they wiped out. Heading to their rendezvous point, they found enemy troops waiting at their truck. "Still dressed as guerrillas," said Lt. Carty, "we cleared them away from our truck so that we could get on our way."

As an added incentive, someone decided that putting the counter-guerrillas' rations at one of the objectives, a supply dump, would increase the troops incentive to take the objective. It did. The opposition didn't stand a chance.

Lt. Col. R. W. Johnson, commanding officer of 2d ANGLICO explained the problem. "This exercise was designed to accomplish two main purposes. First, a full scale guerrilla problem designed to utilize small teams of about six men. These teams were each led by an officer and coincided with the normal ANGLICO Air and Naval Gunfire teams. Second, this problem put regularly assigned ANGLICO air and gunfire support teams in the field via parachute assault with organic communication equipment to assist in accomplishment of both the guerrilla mission and at the same time substantially further regular air and gunfire team training."

Marines Set Pace In ECIC: 17

Camp Lejeune Downs Fort Eustis 10-0 In Last Inning For 17th Game

HEY! LET'S TWIST!

Lejeune Over Fort Eustis In Two Road Contests

The Camp Lejeune Marines extended their East Coast Interservice Conference (ECIC) winning streak to 15 wins and no losses, annihilating Ft. Eustis 19-0 and 11-1 in baseball games played June 25-26.

Ace righthander Alex Bright collected the win in the first game to boost his season record to 13 victories and two losses. Bright fanned 12 men, walked two, and was tagged for two hits.

The Marine nine's scoring rampage began in the second inning when Bill Westendick rapped out a base hit, Chuck Teletchea singled, and Chico Lugo got on first base on a fielders choice, forcing out Westendick. Tom O'Leary then singled, scoring Teletchea. Lugo and O'Leary scored on passed balls to momentarily empty the bases, until Bright drew a walk.

Buddy Simpson then smashed a line drive triple to left-center to drive in Bright with the fourth run of the frame. Dick Garcia brought Simpson in with a base hit to make the tally 5-0 before the inning closed.

In the fourth inning the Army team let three runs in on two walks and an error. Bright and Garcia singled to put runners on first and second. Hal Norton was issued a base on balls to fill the bases. Westendick then walked, forcing Bright home. Teletchea walked to force in Garcia, and Norton brought a run across the plate when the Ft. Eustis third baseman bobbled a ground ball hit by Lugo.

Buddy Simpson collected his second triple of the game in the fifth inning, to score Alex Bright, who had singled earlier.

The onslaught continued through the seventh stanza when Lejeune picked up eight more runs. The game was called after the seventh stanza, to halt the massacre.

Frank Wilhelm (12-3) hurled seven innings of the second game, giving up four hits, no runs and striking out eight batters. Dick Hall pitched one inning in relief, gave up one hit, one unearned run, and struck out two men. Ralph McIntyre finished the game striking out two men in the last inning. Hall was the winning pitcher.

Lejeune's offense started in the first inning when Simpson doubled and Westendick followed with a two base blast to right center to drive in the first run of the game.

Chico Lugo drew a base on balls in the second inning, stole second, and scored when the Army catcher overthrew trying to throw Chico out at second base.

The Marines continued to pile up insurance runs in the third and eighth frames. The lone run scored by the Ft. Eustis nine came when Army hitter singled, broke for second, went for third base when the catcher overthrew second, and came home when the centerfielder threw the retrieved ball over third base.

Water Sports

It was a beautiful sight last Saturday when twelve boats sailed over the starting line. It is encouraging that many of the skippers were competing for the first time at Camp Lejeune. In fact, a newcomer, Garth House took top honors. John Stram placed second, with Chris O'Donnell in the third spot.

The Sailing Committee would like to remind everyone that boat drawing for the July 4th race will be this afternoon at 1600.

As the sailing season gets into full swing and more people are interested in becoming qualified skippers, a new schedule for instruction has been announced. In the future no appointment will be necessary. Every Tuesday and Thursday at 1700 instructors will hold regular classes at Wallace Creek Boat House.

The Ski Club has also found it necessary to alter their schedule in order to accommodate more people. This will become effective next week. It is as follows:

Monday—Closed.
Tuesday—1300-1500, Beginners Instruction (Military Personnel). 1500-Sunset, General Skiing.
Wednesday—1300-1500, Beginners Instruction (Dependents). 1500-Sunset, General Skiing.
Thursday—1300-1600, General Skiing. 1600-Sunset, Instruction (Military Personnel).
Friday—1300-Sunset, Ski Club Members only.
Saturday—0900-1130, Instruction (Military Personnel).
Sunday and Holidays—1130-1245, Noon meal. 1300-Sunset, General Skiing.
Beginners will not be allowed to ski during hours of general skiing.

Lejeune salvaged its ECIC winning streak in the ninth inning of the baseball game with the Ft. Eustis "Wheels" last Saturday night when Bright clinched his 14th win of the season by smashing a 400 foot home run over the centerfield wall to defeat the Army team 10-9.

The "Wheels" came roaring back for the game, after submitting to a 10-0 shutout the previous night. The Army team, hitting well, making many fine defensive plays, and featuring capable moundsmanship, gave the Lejeune nine trouble throughout the game and held a 9-6 lead going into the last half of the ninth inning.

Ft. Eustis scored the first run of the game in the second inning, when Gonsolvez, their third baseman hit a hard shot to center for a single, to score a runner who had gotten on base because of a Lejeune error.

The Marines tied the score in the fourth inning. Westendick walked, stole second, and took third on a passed ball.

It was at this point that the

Two more runs were marked up for the "Wheels" in the eighth, when Gonsolvez, the little third baseman with the giant bat, smashed a pitch 350 feet into centerfield for a double, bringing in Lewis, who had walked earlier in the inning. The next batter brought Gonsolvez in with a base hit to set the score at 7-2.

The Marine offense finally sparked to life in the last half of the eighth frame. Garcia singled between first and second; Hal Norton drilled a double through second base; Garcia advanced to third, and came home when the centerfielder overthrew the base trying to catch him. Norton took third on the play.

Westendick drew a walk to put runners on first and third, then Chico Lugo doubled to bring Norton home. George Borders followed with a base hit to score Westendick and Lugo before the inning ended, first crisis of the game occurred. The Army pitcher went into his motion, wound up, and let fly. Teletchea squared away at the plate to make a sacrifice bunt in hopes of scoring Westendick. However, the bunted ball was fouled into the stands, to come to rest in an attractive young lady's paper cup of refreshment. Time was called so that Lou Bello, the plate umpire could give expert advice on the extraction of a baseball from a paper cup.

After play was resumed, Teletchea hit a long sacrifice fly to bring the run in, and tie the game.

The Marines pulled ahead in the fifth stanza when Simpson got on first, stole second, made third when the Army shortstop bobbled a ground ball hit by Garcia, and came home on a passed ball.

Ft. Eustis came bouncing back in the sixth with four runs to take the lead, 5-2. The first batter drew a walk, then stole second. The Army rightfielder singled to advance the runner, and the next man rapped a base hit to bring in the tying run. Then, with two away, Gonsolvez stroked a 320 foot triple to right centerfield to drive in two more runs. The next hitter doubled to rack up another run for the Army nine before the fire could be put out.

Another crisis came in the inning game when the plate umpire split the seat of his trousers, to the merriment of all the baseball fans present. Mr. Bello mustered the dignity making the score 7-6.

The "Wheels" scored their final runs in the top of the ninth when they loaded the bases and the Army catcher doubled to drive in two runs.

In the last of the ninth it was do-or-die for the Lejeune team, with their undefeated record in the East Coast Interservice Conference at stake. Garcia led off with a single. Norton rapped a base hit through second. Teletchea loaded the bases when the Army second-sacker dropped the ball on a force play at second. O'Leary hit sharply to the shortstop, who fumbled the ball, then made a bad throw to first. Garcia scored on the play. Garrett came into the game to smash a hit to right field, bringing in Lugo, who had reached first on a fielders choice. The score was 9-8.

Bright, who came in the game as a relief pitcher in the top of the ninth, stepped up to the plate, missed the first pitch for strike one, fouled two pitches off, took a ball, then slashed a 2-1 pitch 400 feet over the centerfield barrier to bring in the winning run.

Caffery (0-0) pitched 5-1/3 innings, gave up three hits, two runs, struck out four and walked two. Hamilton, Herrington and Hall saw action in relief. Bright entered the game in the ninth inning to get the win.

The devastating pitch thrown by the hurler 400 feet to center for a stand-up triple followed Simpson's hit to bring Buddy in first tally. Garcia advanced when Hal Norton by a pitched ball, third on a fly ball by Westendick, and scored sacrifice bunt by

The game was the end of the fourth inning. The high score of the Marines pushed the Army across home plate.

Tom O'Leary got an error when the Army stop bobbled a ground ball. George Borders singled. Cuppitt filled the bases bunted safely. Simps up an RBI, lining a center to bring O'Leary Garcia hit a long fly field to send Borders Hal Norton sent a low whistling through second for a double, to de ptt and Simpson in dck singled to center Garcia. The last of inning came when Norton on a passed ball.

The Army nine scored in the fifth inning, one out, the Ft. Eustis stop took the first half of the game, lining between first and second, then singled, sending to second base. The stop advanced to third when the Marines second-sacker was able to hang on to the pick off throw. The hitters grounded out to end the inning, the "Wheels" scored.

Lejeune scored no runs in the eighth inning, game score of 10-0.

Cuppitt pitched seven giving up four hits, and striking out three. Herrington hurled nings, giving up or runs. Cuppitt was the winning pitcher.

In National League activities, 2d Service Battalion again paced the teams with a fine 12-2 record. They defeated 2/10 in their last outing, 8-2, behind pitcher-coach Larrick's splendid one-hitter, and the offensive spark of Freeman (4RBIS), Hodges and Prytz, who each had two runs batted in.

In a surprising move in the National League, the 2d Motor Transport team dropped out of regularly scheduled activities after going through a fairly successful season. The 2d Battalion, 2d Marines, after a poor start, disbanded operations earlier in the season.

In the American League, the 1st Battalion, 2d Marines were given an automatic 0-16 record after they dropped out of the league more than a month ago.

Engineers Maintain Lead In Force Troops Softball

Second Comp Radio continued to be haunted by the "one run loss." After beating Hq-Hosp 10-7, Radio lost to Amtracs 8-7, and again to Engineers, 4-3. Of the nine games lost by the Radio nine, the last six were decided by one run.

In other games around the circuit, ANGLICO defeated 8th Motors in 10 innings, 10-9, 8th Comm beat 2d Tanks, 4-3, and Engineers crushed winless 2d Bridge 17-7, in four innings. Tuesday night Comm beat ANGLICO 5-3, and Recon-Topo clobbered Hq-Hosp 9-2.

ing. Biologists believe that since the nimrod's gun is only one of several factors involved in squirrel mortality, the hunting season should begin when the late crop has left the nest. This will give the sportsman more game that previously has been lost because of food shortages, inclement weather, and predators.

The turkey season has also been changed to run from January 2 to February 15. The new season, though shorter, gives the turkey hunter a better chance to enjoy his sport with less of his favorite game being taken by the relatively non-specialized squirrel and deer hunters. With both deer and squirrel hunting ending January 1, there should be very few hunters in the woods, except those going after turkey. The result will be fewer turkeys taken by deer and squirrel hunters.

There are 100 new reasons not to shoot a turkey out of season this year. The 1963 Legislature passed a law calling for a fine of 100 dollars for killing the big birds during closed season.

The quail and rabbit season will open November 23 and close February 15.

Bow hunters will again be permitted to hunt during the 20 days immediately preceding the opening day of the season for a particular game species, however, where the deer season opens November 18, the 20-day season will begin October 18 and close November 9. A bow used for hunting must have a rated pull of 45 lbs. Arrows, except the blunt heads used for small game, must have a broad head of at least 7/8 inch.

County laws govern some forms of hunting. Before you head for the woods and fields you would be wise to get a copy of the new regulations. Read them carefully. They might save you money.

Local Swim Team Defeats Tarboro

The Camp Lejeune Dependent Swimming Team captured their second straight Eastern Carolina Swimming Association Meet last week, defeating the Tarboro swimming team 284-254.

The two teams were well matched throughout most of the race, but Lejeune took a 21 point lead in the butterfly stroke event when Frank Costanza, Chip, and Sue Patton, Laura Larson, Brent Country, Cindy, Ginna, Lelf, and Eric Norton placed to gain enough score to easily sustain the Lejeune effort through the remainder of the meet.

The Lejeune club won their only previous association meet, downing Greenville easily.

The next association swimming competition will be held at the area 5 swimming pool July 10, when the dependent team will lay their 2-0 record on the line against a powerful Kinston team.

Varsity Football

Screening for the 1963 varsity football team will begin this month. Anyone interested in trying out for the team should report to the athletic office at Goettge Field House, July 15, to fill out a questionnaire.

The schedule calls for briefing July 15-16, with eliminations beginning July 17. By July 26 the squad will be trimmed down to 44 playing members.

Can You Be Critical

(Editor's Note: This is the second of six parts of an article concerning retraining of personnel for a critical MOS reprinted through the courtesy of LEATHERNECK magazine.)

One expression at HQMC is: "If you have something to offer, let us know." This is amplified to mean: "Will you oblige yourself to serve...?" The more of your time that you can offer the Marine Corps, the more the Marine Corps can offer you in the way of formal schooling for a retraining assignment.

And remember...the timing of your letter is all-important. If you have 30 months, more or less, to serve, don't try to bargain with the Corps. It would hardly be economically feasible for the Corps to spend several thousand dollars on you for an education in a critical MOS and then bid you adieu via the discharge route.

On the more practical side of the ledger, it is to the Corps' advantage to wait until you have a year or less to serve and then entertain your request for formal training if you agree to reenlist for four or six years. To put it more bluntly, it is the policy of the Marine Corps...except in very rare instances...to retrain only those men who have indicated a willingness to "ship over". There is a shortage...and an overage too...in almost every MOS held by Marines from E-3 through E-7, according to Marine Corps Order 1220.1B.

It can be safely said, we are losing people to private industry...in some instances at twice their Marine Corps pay...in both ground and aviation skills. Electronics and data processing seemed to head the list of coveted experts.

But suppose you're a dedicated career Marine. It's a "way of life" that you've decided is your cup of brew and you plan to reenlist; you and the Corps have reached a meeting of the minds. Unfortunately, you're not too happy in your present job. You want to strike out for something bigger and better. You've reached your terminal pay grade and can't get another stripe unless you qualify for a more advanced MOS or get into a new occupational field.

You realize all this and its sobering effect calls for no little soul searching. What to do?

You already have one strike on the first term enlistee who is undecided about shipping over. But again, don't make the fatal mistake of applying for retraining unless you meet all the prerequisites of the new MOS...or seek a change simply for the sake of change.

The personnel department at HQMC advises: take stock of yourself...be honest, admit your shortcomings as well as your capabilities...find out what natural aptitudes you possess and where your interests lie.

After you've done this bit of self-probing and have come up with some concrete answers, measure your eligibility for the billet you seek against your personal qualifications. Then, if you feel encouraged with the results, submit your request for retraining in the new occupational field or MOS.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object wins a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to assent to Laws for the accommodation of large districts of People, unless those People would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and pernicious to all others. He has called together legislative Bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the seat of their public Business, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the People. He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large, for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of Invasion from without, and convulsions within. He has endeavored to prevent the Population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Law for Naturalization of Strangers; refusing to approve others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers. He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent swarms of Officers to harass our People and eat out their substance. He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing Armies without the Consent of our Legislature. He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. He has combined with others to subject us to a Jurisdiction foreign to our Constitution, and unacknowledged by our Laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation. For quartering large Bodies of armed troops among us. For exercising them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States. For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world. For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent. For depriving us in many cases of the benefit of Trial by Jury. For transporting us so far as to detain for extended periods. For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies. For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments. For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with powers to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns and destroyed the lives of our People. He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive in the high seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, to fall themselves by their Hands. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the Inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated Petitions have been answered by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free People. Not have we been wanting in attention to our British Brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their Legislature to extend an unwarrantable Jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native Justice and Magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

THE RESOLUTION approved July 2, 1776, and the Declaration adopted in Continental Congress two days later, were simply unifications of actions the Colonies had begun to take separately. Prior to these dates, and in accordance with a recommendation made by the Congress on May 15 (see below), seven States had set up provisional congresses, legislatures, or assemblies, four had drawn up constitutions, and Massachusetts had instituted a provisional government.

Congress' recommendation had been anticipated in North Carolina. The patriot convention which met at Halifax, in Mecklenburg County, in April 1776, resolved that the delegates of this Colony in (Continental) Congress be empowered to concur with the delegates from other colonies in declaring independence and forming foreign alliances, reserving to this colony the exclusive right of forming a constitution and laws for this colony.

In Virginia, the same convention of that State's patriots which adopted George Mason's Declaration of Rights and a State Constitution in June 1776, directed its delegates at Philadelphia to advocate independence. Hence the resolution presented by Richard Henry Lee, which brought forth the actions on July 2 and July 4 referred to above.

While we observe July 4 as Independence Day, there actually were 13 — the days on which the people of the individual Colonies ratified the actions of Congress on July 2 and 4. There were, of course, no telegraph lines in those days. Messages in the Colonies learned of the Declaration in newspapers in the cities. The text had reached the legislatures and newspapers via circulation from Philadelphia. The locations in the respective Colonies were:

Pennsylvania and New Jersey: July 2. Maryland: July 9. New York: July 10. Connecticut: July 12. Rhode Island: July 13. Massachusetts: July 16. New Hampshire: July 16. Virginia: July 20. South Carolina: July 20. Information is absent in printings in Georgia, North Carolina, and Delaware.
