Competitors' Requalification Shooting Indicates Tough Competition In EDM

Competition during the 1963 Eastern Division Rifle and Pistol Matches will be extremely tough, judging from the scores fired for requalification last week. The pistol competitors fired the regulation "A" course, which consists of 10 rounds slow fire, 10 rounds rapid fire, 10 rounds timed, and 10 rounds quick fire. Three men tied for high mark with scores of 395 out of a possible 400. Ten men broke 390. The average score of the 124 shooters was 366, a score of 330 on the "A" course is required for Expert classification.

The shooters were also hitting heavy with the rifle. The requalification course they fired is 10 rounds slowfire, off-hand, from the 200 yard line, 10 rounds rapid fire, sitting on 200 yards, 10 round rapid fire at 300 yards from prone, and 20 rounds slowfire, prone, at the 600 yard line. "A" targets (12 inch Bullseye) are used for the 200 yard slowfire phase, and on the rapid fire strings "B" targets (20 inch bull) are used for the 600 yard slowfire. Eight of the 124 shooters fired 245 or above out of a 250 possible. The high score was 248. The total score averaged out to 232. It takes 215 to qualify as Expert over this course.

The Eastern Division Matches begin May 20. Trophies will be awarded May 25.

Competitors who place in the Division Matches will be qualified to shoot in the Marine Corps Rifle and Pistol Matches also being held here at Camp Lejeune, June 3-8.

CMC Clarifies His Policy On Letters To Congressmen

(Editor's Note: The following is an excerpt from an article by Jim Parker, which appeared in the May 15 edition of the Navy Times.)

WASHINGTON--Marines who haven't written their Congressmen expressing their feelings about the pay bill because of a belief that such letters might be against Corps policy need hold their fire no longer. The boss Marine wants them to write.

Gen. Shoup told Navy Times he felt his men should write their Congressmen, not only about the pay bill, but on any other subject on which the lawmakers could help. He pointed out that many of the things he has been able to get done for the Corps have come about because some Marine in the field did write to Congress. Often, Shoup said, these letters have provided the spark needed to get certain things done benefiting the Corps.

Ball Game Will Highlight Jacksonville-Onslow Day

In observance of more than two decades of mutual cooperation between the United States Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune and the citizens of Jacksonville, N. C., and Onslow County, Major General James P. Berkeley, commanding general, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, has proclaimed May 23, 1963, as Jacksonville-Onslow County Day at the base.

The festivities will begin at 7:30 p. m. at Harry Agganis Field on the evening of the 23rd with an official welcome address by General Berkeley.

The highlight of the evening will be a baseball game pitting the Lejeune "Marines" against the East Carolina College "Pirates".

Following the General's address, distinguished civic leaders from Jacksonville, Onslow County and surrounding communities will be honored through a brief ceremony.

PRE-GAME WARM-UP—Officials for the opening of the 2d Jacksonville-Onslow County Day Program, to be held at Camp Lejeune on the evening of May 23rd, do a little warm-up before the big game spotlighting the day, between the hard-playing Camp Lejeune "Marines" and the marauding East Carolina "Pirates." At bat is 1st Lt. John T. Holt, Marine baseball coach, while Jacksonville's Mayor, A. D. Guy, throws the first strike, caught by Dan Southerland, President of the Chamber of Commerce and called by H. Selected representatives will be thoroughly familiar with the news and ideas of this organization; and, where possible, preliminary Staff Noncommissioned Officer conferences will be held within each organization.

Long Distance 'Person To Person' Highlights 8th Comm. Bn. Exercise

The 8th Communications Battalion provided person to person communications for the Commanding General, FMF-Lant, in Norfolk, Va., and the Commanding General Force Troops, here at Camp Lejeune, to highlight a field exercise last week.

Units of 8th Communications Battalion commanded by Lt. Col. Victor M. Johnson departed for the field on April 29, to participate in a Communications Exercise designed to provide all phases of communications facilities for CG FMF-Lant when conducting extensive combat operations on a Marine Expeditionary Force level.

During 10 days of successful operations, advanced training in communication skills and testing of new equipment and procedures were the order of the day. The Communications Central, AN/TSC-15, was provided by 2d Marine Air Wing for demonstration and testing purposes. The new Communications Central was featured this month in the MARINE CORPS GAZETTE.

U.S.N. Chaplains Assist To Build A Korean Chapel

When friends across the sea need assistance, the United States Navy and Marine Corps are ready to lend a hand. Navy and Marine chaplains throughout the joint services are attempting this Sunday to raise funds to assist the Republic of Korea's Naval Academy, Chinhae, Korea, in constructing a new chapel for its midshipmen.

According to Commodore Chang Chisu, superintendent of the Republic of Korea Naval Academy, 200 of the Christian midshipmen are attempting to crowd into an aged quonset hut each Sunday, where there is scarcely room for half that number.

Commodore Chisu has begun work on appropriation of funds for the construction of a new chapel, appraised at $23,000. Although the ROK Navy and Marine Corps pledged $6,900 of the cost, coupled with a pledge of $7,600 from Korean Christians, there is still a debt of $8,500, which the American Navy and Marine Corps is now attempting to raise.

Korean naval services and Christians have already raised $5,000.

Masses and worship services of all denominations at Camp Lejeune will afford Lejeune servicemen an opportunity to contribute next Sunday, May 19.

Association Reunions

Headquarters, place and dates of 1963 Marine Corps Division Associations' Reunions are:

1ST DIVISION: (West Coast) — El Cortez Hotel, San Diego, Calif., July 18-20. (East Coast) — Sherman House, Chicago, Ill.

2D DIVISION: Denver-Hilton Hotel, Denver, Colo., July 11-14.

3D DIVISION: Hotel Benjamin Franklin, Philadelphia, Pa., July 18-21.

4TH DIVISION: Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C., June 27-29.

5TH DIVISION: Manger Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, June 27-30.

Highlight of the exercise occurred when, through Col. Johnson's guidance, a telephone link was established between Lt. Gen. Robert B. Luckey, CG, FMFLant at Norfolk and Brig. Gen. Wood B. Kyle, CG Force Troops at Camp Lejeune. To accomplish this connection, Base telephone circuits, field wire circuits, and radio relay channels using relays at Tuscarora, Washington, Rosemead, and South Mills, North Carolina were utilized. Both Generals enjoyed clear uninterrupted conversation for the duration of the call.

Approximately 160 officers and men were located at Piney Grove here at Camp Lejeune, while approximately 120 officers and men were located at the relay sites and at Camp Elmore in Norfolk.

Units of 8th Communications Battalion engaged in the exercise were Communications Company, commanded by Maj. Dale Thornton. These units were supported by personnel and equipment from Communications Support Company and Headquarters Company.

AmTrac Troops, Tractor Get Gassed In Training

NBC Day was held last Friday at "Amtrac's Arid Acres" by 2d Amphibian Tractor Bn., Force Troops.

The unusual aspect of this exercise was the fact that this was the first time the entire battalion had participated in an NBC problem.

The exercise was planned and promoted by SSgt. J. W. Currie who started the problem with an introduction to NBC warfare.

After the lecture, members of the battalion were led into a gas chamber tent where they were introduced to the effects of tear gas. Each man took off his mask while in the tent to get acquainted with the tear-jerking effect of the gas.

Upon completion of the gas exercise, they went through the obstacle course wearing gas masks and became familiar with the new CS gas which is three times as powerful as CN. Still wearing their gas masks, the battalion went on a two-mile tactical march to get the feel of wearing it in combat conditions.

The 2d Marine Division Band came out to the field to serenade the troopers during noon chow, playing numerous marches and popular songs.

An LVTP5 Amphibian Tractor was decontaminated during the afternoon by a 10-man decontamination team, composed of three men from each company's individual team, led by Sgt. C. T. Patton. The tractor was supposedly contaminated with mustard gas. The team washed the vehicle three times using swabs, STB bleach, and water. They then took ten minute showers and changed clothes using the same procedures as they would in combat.

1st Lt. R. W. Kincaid, executive officer, NBC School, Force Troops, said: "A problem of this size helps everyone become more aware of NBC warfare. There is no limit to the number of people who can be run through an exercise of this type in a single day."

MISTY EYES—Members of 2d Amphibian Tractor Bn., Force Troops, were harassed with a CS gas grenade while they were on a two-mile tactical march as part of an NBC warfare exercise held last week at "Amtrac's Arid Acres."

Division Band A Hit At Trade Fair

Amid cheers, thunderous applause and a standing ovation, the 2d Marine Division Band's performance in Charlotte, N. C., May 2, was viewed by one of the largest audiences at Ovens Auditorium during the North Carolina Trade Fair.

Letters of appreciation, received May 6, by Maj. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman, division commander, from the N. C. Trade Fair Committee praised the band's performance, professionalism and program.

According to Mr. C. H. Crutchfield, Chairman, Entertainment Committee, "There were more spectators listening to the band than when Edward R. Murrow, David Brinkley, Andy Griffith, Ann Jeffreys and other celebrities were on stage".

The band, under the direction of Warrant Officer Frank

E. Barthold and MSgt. Charles P. Bush Jr., played an hour-long program for the public as part of the week's scheduled entertainment.

Future bookings for the band include an appearance before the Commandant, British Royal Marines, May 21, at MCAF, New River.

On May 26, the band will give a benefit concert for Navy Relief at the Camp Theater.

"DESK TO DESK"

DESK TO DESK COMMUNICATIONS—A telephone link was established between Lt. Gen. Robert B. Luckey, CG, FMFLant at Norfolk, and Brig. Gen. Wood B. Kyle, CG, Force Troops, at Camp Lejeune, on May 6. Through the guidance of Lt. Col. Victor M. Johnson, CO, 8th Communication Battalion, the connection was accomplished using Base telephone circuits, field wire circuits, and radio relay channels (using four relays as shown above). Col. Johnson completed the connection by plugging in the call at the field switchboard located at Piney Grove. (Artwork by SSgt. T. F. Cox)

Timely Warning

Rabies Danger Increases Seriousness Of Dog Bite

We've all had a chuckle at the seemingly endless stream of cartoons and jokes about someone losing the seat of his pants to an irate canine, but the truth remains, that a dog bite is no laughing matter.

Real danger may be imminent if there is a break in the skin.

Aside from the normal bacterial infection from the surface of the victim's skin, there is a wide and dangerous variety of infectious organisms from the dog's mouth, which may spread within the blood stream.

Although rabies, the dread dog bite disease, is now fairly limited under control in regions where efficient Public Health programs are in operation, sporadic outbreaks do occur from time to time.

As soon as possible, after a person suffers a bite, the wound should be cleansed thoroughly with body or surgical soap followed with an application of good antiseptic. After this has been completed, notification of health and medical authorities should follow. In any case, any animal bite, occurring within the jurisdictional area of Camp Lejeune, notify the Provost Marshal, Extension 7-15. The owner of the dog should also be notified, and the dog should be impounded and placed under observation for a period of two weeks. Impounded animals are well cared for and are watched carefully to insure that they don't have rabies. If they are infected with the disease during the period of observation, and treatment of the patient can be started immediately.

After a dog bite victim reports to his physician, he can expect to have the wound cleaned again. If necessary, the doctor may have to remove dead, contaminated tissue about the wound to prevent the tissue from becoming a culture medium for "breeding ground" for infectious bacteria.

The wound will be left open to drain freely, and a dressing will be applied. Antibiotics may be necessary, and a tetanus shot will be given. The doctor will usually follow the progress of the healing.

If the dog does not die of rabies during the two week intermittent period, the victim's wound heals without complications, the treatment is ended. If, however, the animal is found to be rabid, antirabies immunization will be started without delay.

The canine family is not only mammal species to cause rabies. Bats, squirrels, chipmunks and foxes are also potential carriers.

Remember.....If you hesitate to have an animal treated out of fear or dislike, such a bite as being "just a harmless scratch", it could be fatal.

'People To People' Program Spread To Vieques By 2d Division Marines

"IN APPRECIATION OF THE GOOD SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP, COOPERATION AND UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE PEOPLE OF THE ISLAND OF VIEQUES AND UNITS OF THE UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS, THIS PLAYGROUND IS DEDICATED." These words, written in Spanish and English and posted in the center of Vieques Island's only playground, stand as a memorial to the 2d Marine Division's people to people program.

One year ago, the majority of the children living on Vieques had never had the opportunity to use playground equipment. Many, when they first saw a slideboard, didn't know how it was used. Today, through the generosity of 2d Division units who use the island for training and liberty, there stands in the heart of the island's largest town, Isabella Segunda, a playground complete with more than 30 pieces of equipment.

In 1962, Lt. Col. John Thompson (Chaplain Corps) serving as chaplain for BLT asked for the price of one package of cigarettes per man as a donation for children. Chaplain Thompson flew to Vieques ahead of the BLT, drew up the blueprints and laid the groundwork for the playground. The men of 2d Pioneer Battalion, attached to 3/6, provided the labor and tools necessary to erect the first two pieces of equipment.

The units who followed 3/6 to Vieques took up the example of Chaplain Thompson. Little by little, the playground took shape. When BLT 3/6 returned to Vieques last month, they found two slide-boards which had been left behind by the 6th Marine Expeditionary Unit and BLT. Adding this equipment to their own, they called upon the attached Pioneers to lay the final nine pieces. The Marines of the 3d Platoon of Company

"B", 2d Pioneer Battalion, under 1st Lt. Niel F. Mitchell put in nearly 400 man hours.

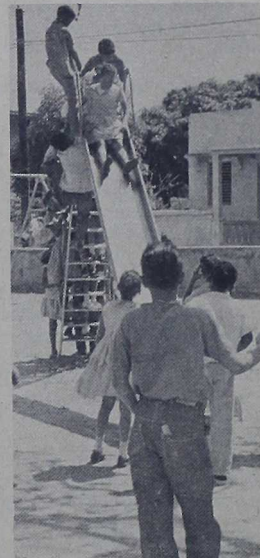

The completed playground contains: 15 chair swings, three slide-boards, three see-saws, three hand-swings, two chin-bars, one hand merry-go-round, one parallel bar, one horizontal ladder, and one capitol dome.

Following completion ceremonies held at the playground, Lt. Col. Ben L. Hoover, commanding officer of BLT 3/6, members of his staff, and the Battalion Chaplain, Lt. Robert D. Tatum, visited three rural schools on the island.

The pupils, ranging from first to third grade, were given a party with candy and soft drink. Teacher, Miss Manuela Carambot said later, "Many of the children had never tasted candy before."

Most of the funds for the people to people program came from the troops themselves, although some donations came from individual citizens of the island. The units which contributed are: BLT 3/6, BLT 2/2, BLT 1/6, and the Sixth MEU. Money left over from the program is to be given to the orphans of Vieques.

The people to people program is another reason why the pro-American citizens of Vieques are even more so, pro-Marine.

THIS BEATS THE STREETS—High pitched voices of happy children ring out, as they scamper up the ladder for their next turn on one of the three new slides donated and constructed by 2d Division Marines.

'Duty Free' Benefit Threatened

For the past several months, United States Commissioner Customs has been considering the reduction of $10 to $1 aggregate value of articles which may be admitted free of duty and internal revenue tax when mailed as bona fide gifts.

Principal abuses reported by customs officials have included sly labeling parcels as "gifts", claiming that articles do not exceed $10 in value when it is known that they do have higher monetary value, splitting a gift shipment, such as a set of chinaware valued at more than $10 into smaller parcels, each valued at less than $10, and including prohibited merchandise in the shipments. By avoiding the above mentioned abuses, you may help to retain previous customs benefits.

CMC Clarifies —

The Commandant said he did not encourage Marines to write Congress on matters which could be handled by a first lieutenant or at company level, but that he was definitely in favor of Congressional correspondence on problems like the pay bill which only Congress can solve.

Gen. Shoup also expressed the hope that Congress would approve a pay bill that "would make Marines' pay comparable to civilian pay scales".

Poison Or Palatable?

A Fleshy Menace — The Mushroom

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles to inform military and dependent personnel of the hazards of plant and animal life which are poisonous in nature. The aim of this series is to acquaint the Marines and families of Camp Lejeune area with the various characteristics of plants and animals we will be discussing.)

For the fourth article in this series, we will devote slightly more than the pests of Camp Lejeune and local areas to cover a mushroom family, which grows almost anywhere, and use possible death to persons familiar with them.

All mushrooms are fungi, but at all fungi are considered mushrooms. For the fungi family includes mildews, molds and mushrooms which comprise approximately one hundred thousand species.

These species are broken down into two main categories, or families, which are first: Basidiomycetes, which produce spores or minute reproductive bodies externally on stalks, and secondly, the Ascomycetes, in which the spores are produced in sacs or saci from which they are released at maturity, as if they were shot from a gun.

The most common of our deadly mushrooms belong to the Amanita class and are characterized by their white spores and the swollen or cup-like base on the stem.

Of this class the most commonly encountered species is the so-called Fly Agaric which has a yellow, white flaked cap.

The more deadly Phalloides type mushroom has a dead white color, and is usually found in wooded places. This species is almost round when it is young, but becomes flat with age. The cap may measure five inches across, and the stem may be as much as six inches tall.

In addition, it has a definitely pronounced swelling or cup at the bottom of the stem, thus deriving its common name, "Death Cup".

Some species of this type mushroom are actually edible but, because of the large possibility of mistaken identity, it is best to leave the entire group alone.

Strangely enough, most mushroom poisoning comes not from the most lethal type of mushrooms but from the mildly poisonous types. One such type which deserves special attention is the Jack-O'-Lantern fungus, so called because it is luminescent. It is orange-yellow in color and has a nearly flat top which sometimes measures six inches in diameter.

Another dangerous species belongs to the white-spored genus Lepiota, to which the beautiful parasol fungus belongs. All but one is edible, that being the Morgani.

This is a very large mushroom which sometimes reaches eight to 10 inches in diameter. This mushroom can be mistaken for the closely related parasol fungus, but may be distinguished by the fact that the spores become slightly greenish with age.

The amateur mushroom hunter can easily recognize the following types of mushrooms which may be used without fear of poisoning: the pink-gilled field mushroom; all of the ink caps; the white-spored oyster mushroom; the beefsteak mushroom; the sulphur-colored bracket fungus; any of the puffballs (if white inside); the coral fungi (if not too tough); and the sponge or spring mushroom. Amateurs should beware of all white-spored forms of mushrooms except the Oyster Mushroom.

Numerous tests have been devised to try to distinguish edible from poisonous fungi or mushrooms, however, there are no foolproof methods yet.

The only method considered safe, is to learn how to identify the edible mushrooms, and leave the unknown species alone.

This problem, however, is not as formidable as it seems, for out of the hundreds of species, such a large number are so characteristic that once they are learned they cannot be confused with any of the harmful species.

It is a matter of fact that there are 35,000,000 pounds of mushrooms produced by artificial means each year in the United States.

Next week; the Black Widow spider.

Armed Forces Day

With Armed Forces Day — the third Saturday in May — approaching, it is fitting that we, the people to whom it is dedicated, take a reappraising look at ourselves to make sure we deserve the honor.

The conclusion should be decidedly in the affirmative. We who wear our country's uniform aren't in the habit of strutting and bragging about ourselves. Most of us go about our jobs quietly and conscientiously, endeavoring to live up to the respect and trust that the American public has in us.

This holds true for the American servicemen in the Republic of Vietnam serving as advisors. As you read this, one of your fellow servicemen will more than likely be accompanying a patrol trying to rout a group of the Communist Viet Cong. He may not return — yet he carries out his mission to the best of his ability. Is there any question that he rates a salute?

When news of the Cuban crisis broke last fall, the nation experienced mass shock. How could anything like this happen so close to the United States? What could we do?

The answers to these questions are now history. In fact, U. S. Forces had been deployed before the news broke. The Armed Forces were ready with their Power for Peace. The show of military force by the United States has been accredited with curtailing Soviet nuclear aggression in the Western Hemisphere. The missile bases in Cuba were removed — thanks to a great U. S. military team.

The men that perished on the ill-fated submarine USS Thresher were a part of this team. They made the supreme sacrifice testing a nuclear submarine to be used in the defense team of the Free World. Their loss was mourned by servicemen throughout the world but their courage and devotion to duty is typical of the U. S. Armed Forces — the best in the world.

Wear your uniform proudly, serviceman, May 18 is your day.

Safety

Safety is an 'All Hands' job. Recently there has been a rash of backing accidents involving government and private vehicles. There is only one word that will suffice in identifying these accidents . . . CARELESSNESS!

Last year 70 tri-command vehicles were involved; during the first three months of this year alone, 51 government and private vehicles have been involved in backing accidents. In 1961 the National average for backing accidents amounted to 1.8% of the total — killing 640 persons and injuring 55,000.

When you're driving — BE ALERT to all dangers. Check your rear view mirror and see that the area is clear to back up. If there is a blind spot, get out of the vehicle and check. Better still, if you have a passenger let him get out and assist you. Common sense will do wonders. Don't let CARELESSNESS involve you in an accident.

Headlines such as these are a welcome sight in our daily papers in these days when so many unfavorable headlines concerning servicemen have appeared.

These Camp Lejeune Marines who have won acclaim for the presence of mind, courage and civic interest that has led them to stop whatever they were doing to help strangers in distress, rate a word of praise from all of us here at Camp Lejeune.

The Latest Word

WASHINGTON — The Senate Armed Services Committee, headed by Senator Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), is now evaluating the Military Pay Bill passed by the House May 8.

Effective date of the pay raise is still likely to be October 1st.

The pay raise would affect 1.8 million servicemen. Not included in the pay raise are those servicemen with less than two years service.

If passed "as is" by the Senate, the pay increases would average 12.6 per cent and would be weighted most heavily for those in the middle grades of both enlisted men and officers. The reasons for heavy increases in these grades is for retention of skilled personnel.

Major provisions of the House-passed bill would increase the pay of officers and enlisted men a total of $847 million annually, and add $90 million a year to living allowances. Also proposed is an allowance for service personnel who separated from their families a long period and who are housed at government expense.

Not every Marine can go out liberty and find a situation which he can distinguish himself in a similar manner. Often, being at the right place at the right time is the factor that decides who wins fame as a hero. However, every man who does go out on liberty can make sure that all that does will reflect credit upon himself, his family and his Corps.

To those Marines who have performed specific commendable acts and to those who daily present a picture of stable, honorable conduct, the GLOBE is happy to tend a hearty pat on the back.

Also added to the bill was an amendment to provide "hazardous duty" pay to military personnel subject to enemy fire in peacetime. This would cover servicemen in "limited" wars such as in South Vietnam. This amendment would be made retroactive to January 1, 1961.

The House bill also proposed that military personnel who retired before June 1, 1958 be allowed to recompute their pensions in line with present pay rates under the 1953 Pay Act.

Major General Frank C. Tiffin, commanding general, 3d Marine Aircraft Wing, El Toro, California, and Major General Frederick E. Leek, commanding general, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, the Far East, will exchange commands in June, according to the Commandant of the Marine Corps.

Chaplain's Corner

There was a legend among thoughtful Greeks which served to give hope to fainting hearts. It was said that if men would go at night to the site of the great battle of Marathon, the sound of Grecian squadrons marching would still be heard and the shouts of conquering hosts would seem to come out over the plains. Hearing the sound, men could be strong and brave in and victories were made possible.

How many times have we felt the need of similar encouragement? The military service can be a lonely place for the Christian at times. He feels that he is holding out for beliefs and ideals when everyone else seems to have quit the contest. Barrack life and the uncertainties of military life make it hard to expose our deepest feelings to our neighbors and so many of us are not aware of the spiritual yearnings and religious tendency of our service friends. We feel that we alone see God and know a new way to serve Him.

Centuries ago, the apostle Paul sought to dispel this kind of unheartedness when he wrote, "... seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses . . . Truly they that are with us in the fight for righteousness are more than they are against us. God is with us. It is God's world and His law and will must ultimately prevail. To be guided on the sweep of His purpose is to be blessed with all the forces of righteousness and to hear the tramp of all the heavenly host and the shout of the coming victory.

Movie Reviews

TRIAL AND ERROR

The film is set in England and presses the point of what happens to a man who killed his wife because she laughed too much. The before-trial scenes are good but when the trial takes place it is a comedy of errors.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

A very dapper young Italian lad finds out that although clothes don't make the man, facial features count a great deal. A very wicked magician changes his Adonis features into those of a beast. But alas, he finds a love in the form of a plain-Jane type Princess, and love conquers all.

JESSICA

A most original comedy where husbands in a small Italian village turn their eyes toward a sultry American arrival and find that the population begins to decrease rather than increase as their wives go on a "locked bedroom" campaign. The sultry female, played by Angie Dickinson, of Leatherneck fame, is an American nurse, who plays midwife in the village to the wives, and who just can't help attracting hotblooded Italian males.

OPERATION BIKINI

A single submarine and its crew deliver a brave six-man underwater demolition team to a rendezvous behind Japanese lines to undertake a secret operation that proved to be one of the keys to our final victory.

ELMER GANTRY

A "muckraking" type drama, based on Sinclair Lewis's controversial novel of the late '20's which exposes the private life and morals of a religious revival leaders' charlatan life. Burt Lancaster, Jean Simmons, Dean Jagger and Patti Page star.

LAST OF THE VIKINGS

The axe-wielding masters of the stage are back, as they once again set out in their small boats across the great stream screaming "Odin, we are coming." Those of you who remember the film, "The Vikings" with Tony Curtis and Burt Lancaster, already have an idea of this show.

BELLE SOMMERS

The sizzling story of the song syndicate that owns everything, even the girls. Starring, Polly Bergen, the girl singer who has a contract with a mob who tries to own her life.

Lejeune's 'Power For Peace'

Thousands of spectators from Jacksonville, Onslow County and various areas of North Carolina are expected to witness the 14th annual Armed Forces Day celebration at Camp Lejeune this weekend.

Activities will get underway officially on the evening of Friday, May 17, at 6:30 p.m. when the 1st Infantry Training Regiment will begin an evening of displays and demonstrations in the Verona Loop area, just south of Jacksonville, N. C., on U. S. Highway 17.

A static display with music provided by the 2d Marine Division Band from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. will set the stage at the Regiment's training area for an Infantry Weapons Live Firing Demonstration from 7:30 until 8:00 p.m., followed by a Final Protective Line Firing Demonstration from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Both of the firing demonstrations will simulate situations encountered in actual combat conditions.

The gates at Camp Lejeune will open on Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m., and passes will be issued to civilian visitors.

Static displays of tanks, weapons and other combat equipment will be lined up on the Base parade ground. Guided tours of the U. S. Naval Hospital, a barracks and messhall will be conducted. All chapels in the Hadnot Point area will be open to visitors throughout the day.

An added attraction this year will be displays provided by Army Units from Fort Bragg.

Commandant's Message

Our Nation's power for peace lies largely in maintaining its fighting forces in a state of constant preparedness, ready to meet promptly and decisively every challenge to our security.

As partners on the national defense team, we Marines are proud of our roles as the Nation's amphibious force-in-readiness.

Kennedy's Message

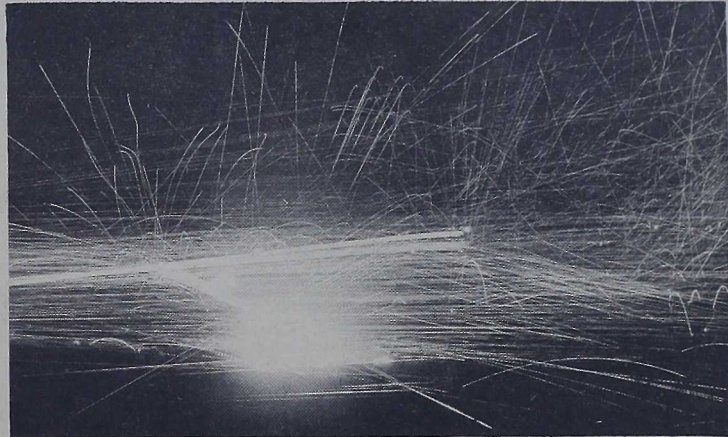

It is most fitting that we set aside this day — Armed Forces Day — to honor the men and women who serve our country in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Today our servicemen and women are serving throughout the world as guardians of the peace — many of them away from their homes, their friends and their families. They are visible evidence of our determination to meet any threat to the peace with measured strength and high resolve. They are also evidence of a harsh but inescapable truth — that the survival of freedom requires great cost and commitment, and great personal sacrifice.

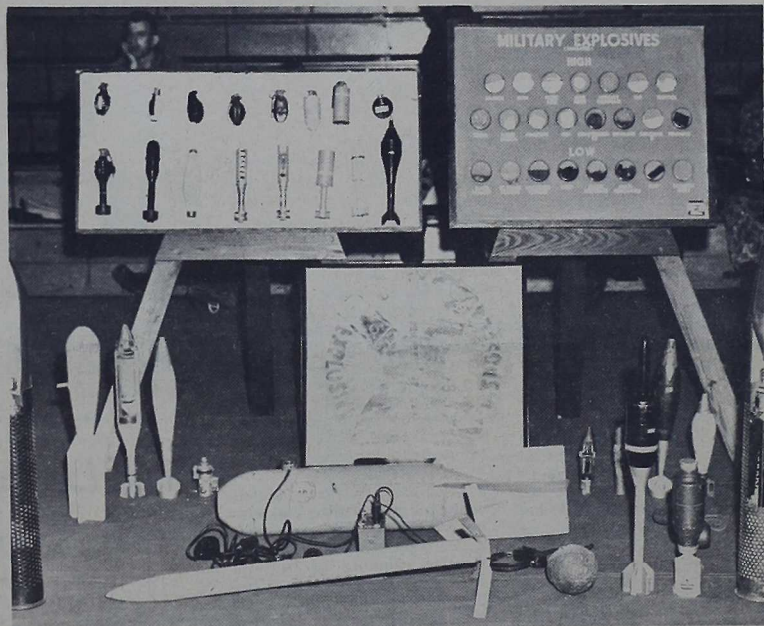

It has been said by some that today's struggle for freedom — in South Vietnam, Berlin, South Korea and other areas — is a "forgotten war." But to those who now serve, and to all of the American people, this battle is neither forgotten nor finished. Indeed, we are very much aware of our commitment, of its gravity, and of the need for continued sacrifice and dedication.

As we observe Armed Forces Day, I invite all Americans to view and learn more of our Armed Forces and their preparedness to meet the challenges which lie ahead. And as Commander-in-Chief, I urge all of my countrymen to join me in paying honor to all our servicemen and women on Armed Forces Day, 1963.

AmTracs 3-0 Slate Leads Force Troops Softball Play

The redhot Amtrac nine lead by one game in Force Troops Softball action after two weeks of play, boasting a 3-0 record, while 8th Engr Bn. is on their heels with a 2-0 slate.

In games played last week, Amtracs won over 2d ANGLICO by a forfeit, 8th Engr Bn. wrecked 8th Motors 15-3, and Recon-Topo Co's combo continued their winning ways by downing 2d Bridge 8-3 while 2d Tank Bn. edged ANGLICO 7-6, Amtracs outlasted FAG 11-8 and the combo of Recon-Topo Co dropped 2d Composite Radio 4-3.

On Monday evening, 2d ANGLICO could not field a team in the prescribed time and forfeited to league leading Amtrac, Bn 7-0.

ENGINEERS

Ace righthander David Dongann picked up his second win of the season as Engineers turned back a surprised 8th Motors 15-3. Dongann won his first victory by the identical score against 2d Composite Radio. Joe Stopezynski hit two singles and one double to drive in five runs in three trips to the plate for the Engineers. F. 'Fitness Centers' To Be Organized Throughout Corps

Washington (AFPS)--The Marine Corps physical fitness program is getting a shot-in-the arm with a chain of fitness centers "to insure the availability of the latest conditioning techniques and equipment."

Capt. George E. Otott, Marine physical fitness coordinator, says funds are now being obtained to equip gyms in every one of the service's posts and stations. They will be similar to commercial gyms, complete with body building equipment and qualified instructors.

Veteran body building expert, GySgt. Sam Griffiths, being transferred here from Iwakuni, Japan, to head this part of the program, has already set up three of the five fitness centers that now exist in the corps--at El Toro, Calif. and Iwakuni and Aitugi, Japan. He will travel to each of the new locations to set up the centers.

Otott established a center at Parris Island and one to be opened soon here at Headquarters.

hind one hit pitching of Bob Brown, stopped 2d Bridge 8-3. Brown picked up his first win after losing his opener to Headquarters Co. Bob Bledson and Rodney (Speedy) Ellingsworth hit round trippers for the winners.

AMTRACS

Hard throwing J. W. Coldren won his second game of the season as 2d Amtracs Bn dropped FAG 11-8. Jim Wallace suffered his first defeat in the seven inning affair. Wayne Campbell hit a homer and triple in a losing cause as his team committed six errors in the fifth inning, one by every member of the infield including the pitcher and catcher.

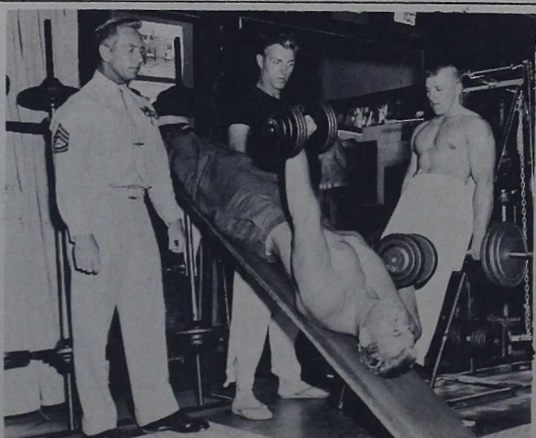

Coldren was helped along by the hitting of McGill and J. V. Johnson, both of whom smashed a homer and triple to drive in most of Amtrac's runs.

ANGLICO's George Howell continued to blast the ball with his mighty bat but to no avail as his team dropped their third straight game to 2d Tank Bn 7-6. Don Clark picked up his first win by scattering 12 hits over seven innings.

Pitcher Jim Pittman, trying to win his own game, stole home to score the tying run in the top of the seventh but gave up the winning run in Tank's half of the inning. Anglico outbit the Tankers 12-9, and made more appearances at the plate, 38-28.

Radio's Bill Ruff pitched a three hitter but walked seven batters and lost a heartbreaker to Recon-Topo Co 4-3. Winner Dal Labella had better control and threw a five hitter to gain his second victory in as many starts.

PHYSICAL FITNESS COMING—GySgt. Sam Griffiths (left) looks over the MCAS, El Toro gym he helped set up. Griffiths will organize a total of 21 gyms at major Marine Corps Bases. Looking on is GySgt. Marines Drop 4, Take 2 On Extensive Road Trip

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.--Camp Lejeune's Marines stayed in their losing streak as the American International College nine pushed across three runs in the bottom of the ninth to eke out an 8-7 win.

Tied 2-2 going into the fourth, the Marines tallied three runs in that frame led by Dave Hinz's two-run triple.

Cicero McClellan homered with one aboard in the fifth to add two more marks on the scoreboard. However, the collegiates pushed across one in the sixth, one in the seventh and burst out with three in the ninth to come out on top.

Don Derosa went all the way for American International and Dick Hall, who took the mound for Lejeune in one seventh suffered the loss. Frank Wilhelm started for the Marines but was lifted in favor of Mike Hamilton, who gave way to Hall.

Five Lejeune Parachutists On E. Coast Marine Team

Five members of the Marine Sport Parachute Club of Camp Lejeune have been selected as members of the Marine Sport Parachute Team, organized for the purpose of putting on sport parachuting demonstrations for both military installations and civilian activities.

The Team consists of 12 members representing sport parachute clubs of East Coast Marine Corps commands.

To be considered for Team membership, applicants must have made at least 100 free fall parachute jumps and hold a U. S. Class "C" Jumpmaster's license.

Lejeune came out of a hitting slump to snap a four game losing streak on the road as they pounded Brown University 19-9.

The Lejeune nine went ahead 2-0 in the first inning on a hit batsman, a double and a single. Brown bounced back with two tallies in the bottom half of the frame to knot the score at 2-2.

Baseball Notice

The scheduled game between the Camp Lejeune Marines and East Carolina College, tonight has been cancelled due to other commitments by the Carolina nine.

The Lejeune squad will meet Fort Meade in their first East Coast Interservice Conference Tilt tomorrow and Saturday evenings in a two-game series. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m. both nights. Support your team, they play for you!

The visiting Leathernecks racked up three runs in the fourth with two doubles, a single, one error and a wild pitch. Brown, still battling, tallied three times in the bottom of the inning to go ahead again 6-5.

The Marines tied it up again 6-6 in the sixth on two singles, an error and another wild pitch.

In the seventh, Lejeune broke loose and sent 18 men to the plate collecting 13 runs from 12 hits, five of which were for extra bases. In the one inning, Hal Norton, Buddy Simpson, Bill Westendick and Cicero McClellan homered for the Leathernecks.

An error and four singles gave the Brown nine three additional runs in the eighth.

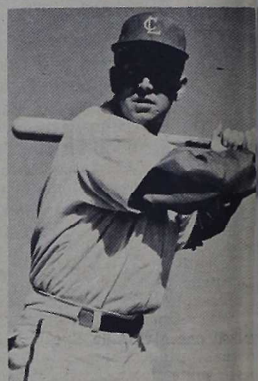

Ralph McIntyre started for the Marines, gave the mound to Mike Hamilton in the fourth and Chuck Cuppitt came on in the sixth.

In Wednesday's action, the Lejeune nine dropped a 4-3 decision to the University of Massachusetts.

The collegiates scored all four of their runs in the first frame off starter Bill Harrington, who gave up five hits.

STORRS, CONN.--Continuing their winning ways, the Leathernecks from Camp Lejeune took their second win in a row as they downed the University of Connecticut nine 9-5.

Alex Bright, Lejeune's ace righthander went all the way giving up six hits, walking four and striking out 11. Bright was in serious trouble only once, in the fourth when his control was a little shaky.

Lejeune pulled out the big sticks, pounding the three Connecticut hurlers in taking the victory.

Righthander Bill Westendick went four-for-four including a 350 foot home run over the left field wall, a double and two singles for Lejeune.

First sacker, Hal Norton, aided Bright's cause with three doubles in four trips to the plate.

Course Record Matched Marine Pro Golfer

giant Bob Spencer, Assistant NCO in Charge of the Point Golf Courses, through last week with a "65", seven under par, to match the course record set 61 by 1stSgt. Al Greer, NCOIC of the Lejeune course.

Spencer, a 1-handicapper at the Lejeune course, is currently setting out his five-year apprenticeship as a professional golfer. Bob now has two months, three months time remaining as an apprentice.

While fulfilling his ambition to become a teaching professional, Bob plans to finish his Marine Corps career and then go to his full time to the circuit upon retirement.

At year while stationed at the Marine Corps Supply Center, Camp Lejeune, N.C., Bob completed the Professional Golfers' Association Business School at Clearwater, Fla. The school is set up by the PGA to teach new professionals how to repair golf clubs, teach inexperienced golfers and how to run a pro shop.

No newcomer to the golf links, Spencer started swinging his big stick at the age of 17 while a member of his high school team in Quincy, Ill. He led his team to regional and sectional title and placed fifth in the individual Illinois State High School Tournament.

While with the 3d Marine Division in the Far East, he placed fourth in the Philippines-American Golf Tournament.

In Quincy, Ill., on leave in 1961, Bob set the current course record for tournament play during the Labor Day Tournament qualifying rounds with a red-hot 64, eight under par.

Soon after that record, he reported to Albany and teamed up with SSgt. Ray Leach to take the Albany American Legion's Thanksgiving Day Tournament with a impressive nine under par 61.

While a member of the Camp Lejeune team, recently competing at Parris Island, Bob came through with a 230 mark for the 54 hole tourney to aid his team in taking first place.

In May, 1962, Spencer captured the medalist honors among the play for pay ranks with a five under par 67 in a Supply Center Tourney.

"Big Stick" Bob Spencer

Bob wants to remind all Marines and their dependents at Camp Lejeune that he and other members of the Paradise Point Staff offer free golfing instructions each Friday evening starting at 5 p. m.

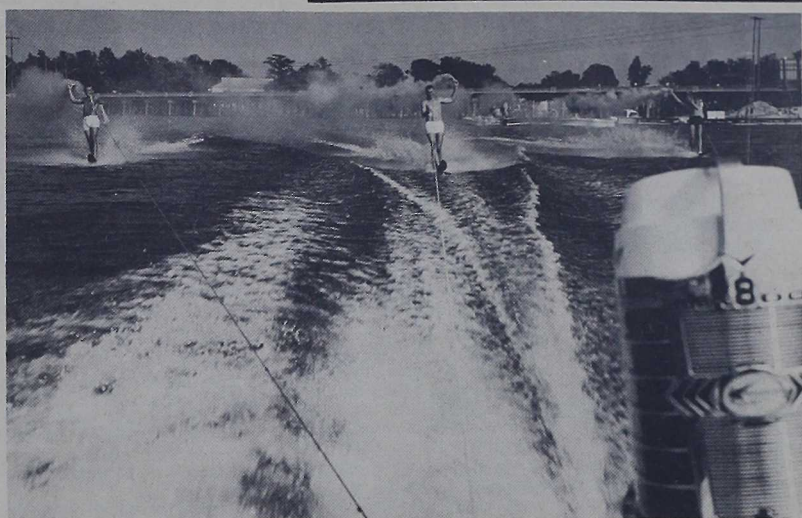

All Wins Top Div. Softball

2d Service Battalion's Lynn Larrick pitched a one-hitter and the 3d Battalion, 6th Marines made a resounding debut to feature play in 2d Division softball Monday night.

Larrick, who doubles as coach of Service Battalion, led his National League team to an 8-0 whitewash of the 3d Battalion, 8th Marines. The fast-balling Gunnery Sergeant struck out 15 and was throwing a no-hitter until the bottom of the seventh inning, when he gave up a Texas League single. Gary Prenoveau drove in two runs to give Larrick all the margin he needed for victory.

3/6 made their American League debut a hard-hitting one by blasting Headquarters Company, 8th Marines 21-4. Joe Reale's grand-slam home run and a triple play featured the rout of the 8th Marines' men.

Bob Tutierrez pitched the win for 3/6, helped immensely by the slugging of Reale, and the smooth triple play, executed by the infantrymen's infield of third-baseman Otis Kennedy, second-baseman Albert Hart, and first-baseman Reale.

Lejeune Water Ski Club Facilities Geared For Beginner — Professional

If you were interested in learning how to water ski and had to acquire your own equipment, it could easily cost you at least $1,500 before you even got your feet wet.

However, Marines and their dependents at Camp Lejeune can undertake this exciting and rapidly expanding sport with no more cost than an occasional bottle of suntan lotion, thanks to the Camp Lejeune Water Ski Club.

The club, going into its fourth year of operation offers experience, equipment and instructions free to all Marines and their dependents.

Members of the club are divided into three classes with trick skiers in a class of their own. After mastering a deep water start on two skies, staying behind the wake of the boat and making a proper landing, and showing knowledge of signals and club rules and regulations, newcomers are placed in the "C" Class.

Class "B" advances to a dock start on two skies and the ability to maneuver across the wake of the boat. This class also includes basic slalom skiing.

Members who can start from the dock, deep water, or beach on a slalom ski and maintain a speed of 30 m.p.h. while crisscrossing the wake are placed in the "A" Class.

The club now has in operation three 15 foot boats, one equipped with a 75 horsepower motor and two with 40's. This is one additional boat over last year. Skis are available for every age from six on up and for every degree of proficiency from beginner to the trick skier.

What might be considered the glamorous side of skiing are the Water Shows put on several times each year. Last year the club performed four times. This entertainment for the whole family includes the "Parade of Flags", exciting three man crossover act, pyramids, jumping, clown acts, trick skiing and water ballet.

Those skiers looking for excitement pick the Slalom Course or jump skiing.

A beginning jumper may initiate himself at four feet and advance to the regulation six foot jump. A four foot jump will carry a skier 25 feet high and 80 feet forward.

The Slalom Course is not only a thrill of speed but tests the skill and control of the skier. The skier enters the course through a gate six feet wide, swings to the right 12 1/2 feet around the first buoy, on to the number two buoy on the left which is 25 feet across and 45 feet forward. This zig-zag motion is continued for six buoys. The skier then turns, reenters the exit and repeats the course ending at the entrance.

The boat speed varies according to Class but the final speeds are from 30 to 34 m.p.h.

Safety is the club's primary objective. Its success is proven in the proud fact that there have been no accidents since the club's forming. Water skiing is not for the untrained and unsupervised. Skiers can be a hazard to other boaters, fishermen, swimmers and to themselves.

The Camp Lejeune Club complies strictly with State and Federal regulations regarding skiing and boating practices. Even for the private boat owner, experience with the club is invaluable.

Lejeune Hi Takes Dixon, East Duplin

Camp Lejeune's Devilpups held the arm of their ace pitcher, Paul Bacon, and the big left arm of Lou Paulson took easy victories from East Duplin (7-1) and Dixon (4-0) high schools last week.

Bacon struck out nine and had one giving up five hits to pick up his fifth win, over East Duplin. In the Dixon tilt, Bacon tossed a two hitter, struck out 13 and walked only one to shut out the visitors from Dixon.

Paulson drove in three runs against Duplin with a two-run single and a sacrifice fly.

East Duplin pushed for an unearned run in the top inning, righthander Bacon held the visitors to three singles over the next six innings.

Paulson had two singles and Gary Harper had three-for-three for East Duplin. There were no extra-inning hits in the contest.

Bacon, the mainstay of the Devilpup mound staff all season, exercised good control throughout the game with Dixon, walking only one.

Lejeune pushed across single runs in the fourth and fifth and two insurance tallies in the sixth frame.

Lejeune met Havelock Tuesday afternoon. The results of the contest were received too late for Globe deadline. That contest will be covered in next week's edition.

Division, Force Troops And Air Wing Conduct Joint Retraining Presentation

A special Career Retraining Presentation by Capt. Jack Davis and SSgt. Leroy Caughey of the 2d Marine Division Career Advisory Office, was presented at the Camp Theater for the first time within the Division. The program was designed to acquaint personnel phasing out of an infantry input battalion with the opportunities, advancements and schools that are available in critical occupational fields throughout the Marine Corps.

Six critical fields were explained by 2d Service Battalion, 10th Marines, Division Photographic Section, Division Communication Battalion, Force Troops and 2d Marine Aircraft Wing representatives.

Service Battalion presented a portion of their lecture and demonstration with the aid of a mobile machine shop and various vehicles showing the mobility of the battalion and its link with the Division.

The delegates from Artillery displayed radar sets and counter-mortar radar used in locating enemy weapons, and survey and meteorological equipment.

The Division Photographic Section exhibited types of cameras used within the Division and explained the details of a complete mobile laboratory.

Communications Battalion displayed radio jeeps, a radio-relay van, and counterparts of Air-Naval gunfire liaison.

The exhibition from Force Troops included distance measuring instruments, a fathometer for depth measure, a sextant, and survey signals with 30-mile visibility.

1st Lt. Glen Golden, 2d MAW Career Advisory officer, exhibited air-to-air and air-to-ground missiles, an ejection seat, and a "see-thru" model of the F4B "Demon." Lt. Golden stressed the 23 aviation schools available to potential "wing men."

Each of the units' representatives explained what schools were available in their respective fields and qualifications.

Marines Find That Off Duty Study Has Its Merits

Six Marines from Marine Aircraft Group 26, MCAF, ranging from LCpl. to MSgt., received their high school diplomas recently from Mr. B. Hudson, superintendent of Onslow County Schools.

On presenting the diplomas Hudson spoke to the men on the advantages of a good education and expressed his congratulations to all.

Marines, who for various reasons have not graduated from high school are afforded an opportunity to complete their education by attending off duty courses at Camp Lejeune High School.

Upon completion of these courses, provided a Marine can satisfactorily pass the General Education Development (GED) Test issued by the United States Armed Forces Institute in Wisconsin, he is awarded his high school equivalency diploma. Since January 1963, 176 men from MAG-26 have obtained their high school diplomas in this manner.

Career Advisory Clues

Is a service career worth it? This question comes up many times, not only from civilians, but young first-term Marines as well. It is certainly a worthwhile question, particularly so because a service-career involves a minimum of 20 years of one's life.

Much as any Career Marine loves Service life, he will readily admit that it does have some

ITR Marine Gets One-Two-Three Awards In 6 Days

Could much more happen within a six-day period in a Marine's career than to be promoted, be awarded a Meritorious Mast and be awarded proficiency pay? This is what happened to former Corporal Myron L. Palmer, H&S Co., 1st ITR, last month.

On April 18, then corporal, Palmer was awarded a Meritorious Mast for outstanding service and devotion to duty while NCO-In-Charge of the Draft Section of H&S Co. The following day he was awarded proficiency pay for having demonstrated outstanding proficiency in his military occupational field. Four days later, on April 23, Palmer was promoted to his present rank of Sgt. by Col. W. P. Dukes, commanding officer, 1st ITR.

Eastern Division Match Competitors Continue Practicing For Next Week

Eastern Division competitors who were required to fire the service rifle for requalification, shot over the National Match Course here, last week. With the exception of 10 rounds fired at the 200-yard standing stage, the course is the same as fired in the preliminary match of the Division Rifle Matches. After this was accomplished the shooters settled down to tight shooting. Concentration is now focused on the 4-inch "V-ring" of the "A" target used in the 200-300 yard stages, and the 10-inch "V-ring" they must shoot at from 600 yards. The "A" target is used at 200 and 300 yards for the slow and rapid fire stages. Numerical tie scores are decided by the highest total of "V's".

Despite rain and high winds which hampered the shooters in the first days of practice, scores have improved with better weather and with the use of the new position exercises introduced by the Marksmanship Training Unit this year.

Position exercises, consisting of dry-firing on the actual firing lines, have helped Marine Corps shooters practicing for the Eastern Division Rifle and Pistol Matches, raise their scores on the Camp Lejeune Rifle Range, according to Capt. George J. Lattimore, Officer in Charge of the 2d Division Rifle and Pistol Team.

Dry-firing was previously done on snapping-in ranges. Under the new system a shooter sights in and employs all of the rudiments of good marksmanship just as if he were firing the course. He then attempts to hold the sights on the bullseye for one minute after he has squeezed the trigger.

Gy. Sgt. J. M. Martin, 1st Bn., 22d Marines said, "Using the new position exercises has helped me increase my offhand score 10 to 15 points and has reduced the time between sighting in from 20-25 seconds to 7-8 seconds."

Most competitors agree with Capt. Lattimore and Gy. Sgt. Martin and are using the position exercises during practice.

All are hopeful that this will prove to be the secret weapon that will win for them the coveted marksmanship medals awarded at the completion of the matches.

Leave Rates Lowered

Effective as of May 1, 12 scheduled airlines began offering special 50% Furlough Air Fares to members of the Armed Forces.

To be eligible for reduced rates you must be on official leave and purchase your ticket and travel in uniform. Further, you will travel on a standby basis.

Standby basis is defined as, "If space is available at departure time you will be confirmed a seat. Space can be confirmed as far as it is available at the time of your departure."

WHERE'S THE TRUCK?—Novice shooter, LCpl. Russell King, Jr., a member of the 2d Marine Division Rifle and Pistol Team seems to think supply forgot to issue him a truck to carry his gear in, as he stands in wonder at the material required for him to compete in the 1963 Eastern Division Rifle and Pistol Matches being held here. A shooter firing phases of match competition will use about 3,000 rounds of ammunition in practice and match firing. He is issued material equipment valued at $438.00, and is taught the proper methods of care and use to prolong the life of the gear.

Navy Relief Drive Nears One Fourth of Set Goal

The third progress report on the Camp Lejeune Navy Relief Drive reveals that the Quad-Command has amassed $16,331.50 of the total goal requirement of $50,000 for a current 24.3 percent since Major General James P. Berkeley, commanding general, Marine Corps Base, purchased the first ticket on April, 25th.

First to top the 100% mark were Motor Transport Section, Marine Corps Supply School, and Food Services Section, closely followed by "A" Company, 8th Engineer Battalion, Force Troops, which contributed 100% of their designated quota, and the Camp Camp Vieques, Puerto Rico development of 2d Force Service Regiment personnel surpassing 100% mark by 4%.

Two new units reaching 100% mark are; Marine Control Squadron 8 and V-1, both of the Marine Corps Facility, with 158% and 1% of their quotas, respectively. Contribution figures for the Quad Command to date are as follows:

AMOUNT	MARINE CORPS BASE	QUOTA	% OF

6th Marines Pick Marine Of Month

Cpl. Charles E. Sturgis, Jr., commended for his heroic action March 7, was selected April's Marine of the Month by the 6th Marines.

Cpl. Sturgis, a flamethrower section leader with H&S Co. 3d Bn, was giving instructions in the use of flame throwers on the Island of Vieques when one of the weapons operated by another Marine went out of control. He grabbed the flamethrower with his bare hands and held it until it had burned itself out. His action caused minor burns to his hands but he was credited with preventing possible serious injury to the operator of the weapon and other personnel in the area.

His selection as Marine of the Month won Cpl. Sturgis a 96-hour pass and a $10.00 Post Exchange gift certificate.

Sojourners

Marine members of the Camp Lejeune Chapter No. 329 National Sojourners are reminded that the next meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. on May 23rd in the Paradise Room of the Commissioned Officers Mess at Paradise Point. This meeting will be featured as Ladies' Night.

Regulations Outlined For Lawn Care

Due to numerous telephone calls inquiring about various government housing regulations the base housing office has published a list of basic requirements.

Occupants of government quarters are required to water lawns during dry periods, keep their area free of litter, leaves and trash.

The planting of flowers is encouraged, as long as flowers are more than three feet from the house or existing shrubbery and as long as they do not interfere with the cutting of grass by power equipment. Fences must be authorized by the Base maintenance officer.

The Quarters and Housing Office, ext. 2-2108, would like to know 10 days in advance of planned moveouts. A minimum notice of three working days prior to moveout is mandatory.

Checkout inspection checks for old wax on floors, dirty appliances, failure to clean walls, crayon on the outside of house, lawns littered and dirty furniture. Occupants are charged for damages due to negligence.
