ONSLOW COUNTY OFFERS HIGH SCHOOL AID

entirely new Onslow County Adult High School program, considered a great step forward in the progress of education and community relations, will be effected in mutual agreement, day, March 18, by officials of the Onslow County Board and Camp Lejeune.

The agreement, to be signed by County School Superintendent I. B. Hudson and Base Commander, Major General J. Berkeley, will be operated in accordance with guidelines established last month by the North Carolina State Board of Education and will result in local servicemen on active duty for more than 120 days becoming eligible to receive an Onslow County high school diploma.

The impetus for the program has been provided by the Base Commander in support of the Commandant of the Marine Corps' policy encouraging all commands to help raise the educational level of personnel of the Marine Corps, thereby increasing the capability of maintaining an effective combat force in readiness. The establishment of the program offers an opportunity for the individual Marine to increase his value to the Marine Corps, his country and himself.

The pilot program is also being conducted by Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station in the Havelock area.

It marks the first time local military personnel have been offered an opportunity to complete their high school education and receive a state approved Onslow County diploma.

The United States Armed Forces Institute (USAFI) has provided off-duty study programs for many years, but students were required to submit credits to their home school systems for evaluation and determination as to availability of a diploma. School boards were not required to recognize military credits and many did not.

For the current program, the Marine Corps will provide classrooms, study materials, administer placement tests and USAFI end-of-course examinations and handle other specified administrative details.

The Onslow County School Board will provide teachers and instructors, establish a curriculum to meet North Carolina requirements, issue high school diplomas and be responsible for general classroom administrative matters.

According to Base Bulletin 1956 the Spring term will begin April 15 and continue until June 6.

Official registration for the program will begin March 18, for one week, for those previously tested and from April 1 through 5, during normal working hours for all others.

To enroll, personnel must have transcripts of previous high school credits forwarded to: Superintendent of Onslow County Schools, Box 1155, Jacksonville, N. C.

Those possessing a General Education Development or US-AFI Testing Certificate, with scores, will be required to display them upon registration at the Base Education Office, Building 19.

Personnel desiring to be tested may do so at Bldg. 19 in accordance with the following schedule: 2d Division--8 a. m. and 1 p. m., March 25 and 26; Force Troops and Naval Hospital--8 a. m. and 1 p. m., March 27 and Marine Corps

Camp Lejeune Marines Are Selected For NESEP

Three Camp Lejeune Marines have been afforded an opportunity to obtain a college education at Government expense.

Sgt. James C. Brown, Marine Corps Base, Cpl. Charles N. Riley, Force Troops and Pfc. George M. Pfeiffer, 2d Division have been selected for enrollment in the Navy Enlisted Scientific Education Program.

The trio was selected along with 50 other Marines from 404 applicants at Marine Corps posts and stations in the United States and overseas.

If the three men accept the program, they will be ordered to the Naval Training Center, Baltimore, Maryland in May of this year.

Upon successful completion of the pre-college study the selectees will be enrolled in one of the participating colleges throughout the United States for the fall term.

During the summer between their Junior-Senior year of college, the Marines will attend the Senior Platoon Leaders Screening Course at Quantico, Virginia, for six weeks.

Following graduation from college, they will be commissioned Marine Second Lieutenants and ordered to Quantico for Officer's Basic School.

Camp-Area Recreation Workshop Starts Monday At Marston Pavilion

Marston Pavilion will be turned into a recreational workshop Monday and Tuesday March 18-19 as Recreation chairmen from throughout Base Special Services, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Patricia Schmidt, Program Director for the Sioux City, Iowa Parks and Recreation Department since 1955; Miss Pat Abernethy, Chief, Service Club Unit; James S. Stevens, Jr., Associate Director, North Carolina Recreation Commission

Air Force, Marine Corps, State Wildlife Resources Commission and the University of North Carolina.

Recreational skills such as billiards, horsemanship, skin diving, pottery making and parachuting will be demonstrated.

The workshop will be sponsored by the Armed Forces Division of the North Carolina Recreation Committee.

Representatives from surrounding communities and organizations, including recreation leaders of hospitals, churches, industry, USO Clubs, scouting programs, YMCA-YWCA's, volunteer and part-time recreation workers are welcome to attend the seminar.

AVE FOR TOUR—Twenty Midshipmen from the University of Pennsylvania arrived at Camp Lejeune last Tuesday for a day tour of the base and its training areas. Pennsylvania Midshipmen and Lejeune Visit Today

Twenty Midshipmen from the University of Pennsylvania arrived at Camp Lejeune last Tuesday at the Marine Corps Air Facility, New River, N. C., for a three day tour of the base.

During their visit, the Midshipmen observed and visited units of the 2d Marine Division, Force Troops, Fleet Marine Force Atlantic, and Marine Corps Base.

Arriving early Tuesday afternoon, they were met by an escort officer, dined in a Marine messhall, and were billeted in Bachelor Officers' Quarters at Paradise Point.

Later in the afternoon, they were given a brief tour of the Marine Corps Base area, and attended a film at the Camp Theatre.

After an early breakfast, the Midshipmen departed for a tour of the 1st Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Geiger on Wednesday morning, and returned that afternoon for a visit to the 2d Marine Division training areas at Lejeune. While with the 2d Division Marines, they observed 106mm Recoilless Rifle firing, and firing of the M-14 rifle, the M-60 machine gun, and the 105mm Howitzer.

Mrs. Slater Newman

North Carolina hold discussions and demonstrations on how to entertain everyone from nursery school to senior citizens.

Camp-Community Recreation Programming is the title of the seminar aimed at those interested in group and community recreation.

The work-shop will be open to Marines, their dependents and the general public free of charge. Reservations may be obtained by writing: Robert McIntyre, Recreation Director, and Mrs. Slater Newman, will discuss recreation programs for all age groups.

The performing arts, intramural sports, nature and outing, and special events are a few of the subjects to be covered by representatives of the Army,

Pat Abernethy

Joint Drive Nears Half-Way Mark

With the current Joint Services Crusade and National Health Agencies Drive well under way, 60 percent of Camp Lejeune Marines have contributed to date.

Two units from the 2d Marine Division and two from Force Troops have reached the percent mark in their drive.

Units from Division are the Bn., 2d Marines and Mortar Company, 3d Bn., 10th Marines. Force Troops units are the Separate Surgical Co., and 2d Force Photo Interpretation Team.

While some Lejeune units are close to the 100 percent contribution goal and others are so close, all are above the percent mark in the Joint

Off-Duty Employment Can Have Drawbacks

Living isn't cheap these days, not even for service people who enjoy the fringe benefits of military installations. A man with a family, trying to put aside something regularly for his children's education and his own retirement years, often jumps at an honest chance to supplement his income by taking a part-time job in his free time.

Civilian business people in general like to employ servicemen; they trust them and respect their capacity to do good work. Likewise, local commanders are generally lenient in permitting a man to take an outside job once they're assured that it will in no way conflict with or impair his military performance.

So it becomes a matter to which the man himself should give some candid thought, whether he's already got a part-time job or knows where he can get one. Is it one that will prevent his getting sleep, thereby causing him to be late for duty? Is it one that will leave him physically or mentally fatigued, thereby reducing his military efficiency? Is it one that requires lengthy travel back and forth?

These are all matters which concern him as a serviceman. But there is another important aspect. What about his wife and children? A job that keeps him away from home is bound to affect their lives by making him remote to the domestic circle. And when growing youngsters are concerned, there's no substitute for a dad's influence.

That's why it's definitely inadvisable for a serviceman to take a job impetuously just because it's available and he can use the money. True, it's preferable to going into debt, but isn't it even a better idea to first re-examine the family budget and see if expenses can't be trimmed? For a married serviceman is no different from a married civilian—he needs the relaxation and rest of his off-duty hours and the intimate human influences of his family.

IF YOU ASK ME

WHY IS IT THAT ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY EVERYBODY CONSIDERS HIMSELF AN IRISHMAN?

PVT. LINDA J. O'BRIEN, Base Communications — It's only human nature for people to want to be included in the celebration of St. Patrick's Day. Anyone can celebrate it, of course, but the real Irishmen seem to be in a world of their own on that day. Anyone that isn't Irish will usually think of himself as such so he can be a part of that world.

MSGT. RICK O'SHEA, Operations Chief, 2d CompRadCo., Force Troops — Because of the inherent nature of most Americans regardless of race, color or creed in respecting the ways of their fellow man. Added to this, is the offer of "spirited" celebration by all those partaking of the day's festivities.

SGT. V. T. DUFFY, S-2, 2d Bn., 10th Marines — Evidently they would like to be one as everyone wants to get into the act. Everyone loves a parade especially the St. Patrick's Day one plus the Irish girls are the best looking in the world — (the men the best fabricators).

PVT. PENELOPE G. ROCH, Base Mat. Bn. — Well, I've never really had that problem but guess everyone can't be luck. Around Boston there's no choice. It's either wearing the green being a social outcast. Most though, I think people just want to join in the fun and festivities that go along with the spirit things.

The 'Wearin' O' The Green' Tops Weekend Festivities

Air Facility Staff NCO Club

Tis St. PATRICK'S DAY that one be speaking of. The one of the green, the one that we love. His day has finally arrived here again. So you'll be wanting to celebrate this very weekend (March 16). Now there's going to be DANCING from 9 until 1. And it's EDDIE LONG'S BAND that will be joining in the fun. We'll be serving GOOD FOOD, with lots of good cheer. And it's also for sure we'll be having GREEN BEER. Now you needn't be Irish to join in the green. Just wear a big smile, you and your colleen.

Happy Hours will reign on Friday from 4:30 to 6 p. m. The dance is on Saturday. Monday and Wednesday Happy Hour will again be held from 4:30 to 6 p. m. For those of you who still don't know--the kitchen is open six days a week--Tuesday thru Friday from 5 to 9 p. m.; Saturday and Sunday from 3 to 5 p. m. and closed on Monday.

Hadnot Point Staff NCO Annex

Friday the club is bringing to you the sensational sounds of Geordie O'Smith and his River Shannon Skiffle Group. Be on hand and warm up on those good old Irish songs at the weekly Happy Hour. Music starts promptly at 8 p. m. and continues until the wee hours of the morning. Getting a little closer to good old St. Paddy's Day there will be more Irish song and cheer on Saturday when you listen and dance to Milton Shagnessy O'Dennis and his Sons of Elre. 'Twill truly be a good night for all! On Sunday an all Irish meal will be featured--Irish corned beef and cabbage for $.85.

Camp Geiger O' Club

The "Starlighters" will entertain on Friday from 8 to midnight. Don't forget family night on Thursday beginning at 8 p. m. Dining room opens at 6 p. m.

Paradise Point Officers Club

Since St. Patrick's Day is just about upon us, "Paddy Murphy's Wake" will be the highlight of the club on Friday along with Happy Hour from 4 to 6:30 p. m. The R. J. Quintet will entertain from 5 to 8 p. m. and then it's the "Swingers" from 8 to midnight. Special that night will be chicken-in-the-basket, fish 'n chip with hush puppies for only $1.00. Steaks are available if desired. Saturday, it's dance to the music of the T-Tones. A jam session will be heard on Sunday from 4 to 6 p. m. Brunch served in the dining room that day will consist of roast young turkey for $1.25. Here is a change in the cafeteria hours for brunch: On Saturday serving time is from 7 to noon and Sunday from 7 to 1:30 p. m. Dining room hours for brunch are 9:30 to 1:30 p. m.

Montford Point Staff NCO Annex

Don't forget Happy Hour on Friday from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. with the special, filet of flounder or veal cutlet, being served from 6 to 8 p. m. Dick Sermon will highlight on Saturday from 8 to 12:30 a. m. The special that night will be New York steak for $.90. Because of St. Patrick's Day, Irish stew or boiled ham will be the Sunday special from 1 to 5 p. m. Stew, $.50; ham, $1.00. Monday is open night, for those of you who wish to entertain just friends. Don't forget to make early reservations. Happy Hour again on Tuesday from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. The galley special that night is chicken-in-the-basket or roast beef for $.50. Game night Wednesday--special, Bar-B-Que Sandwich, french fries, cole slaw for only $.40. Thursday is open date again. For reservations for private parties call MSgt. Trapp, 9-8108.

Air Facility Officers Club

Friday is Happy Hour time again with the "stag" session from 4:30 to 6 p. m. and the "mixed" from 7 to 9 p. m. Dinner will be a la carte. The buffet will be served on Sunday from 5:30 to 8:30 p. m. Special that night will be prime rib beef for $1.75; children under six free. Wednesday is spaghetti night--all you can eat for $.50. Serving time that evening is 5:30 p. m. Later on join in game night. Don't forget Saturday's "Shamrock Rock" from 8 to 1 a. m. Entertainment will be provided by the R. J. Quintet. Informal, $2.50 per couple.

Courthouse Bay Staff NCO Annex

Friday is Happy Hour from 4 to 6 p. m. Special for that night will be hamburgers and french fries for $.50. Saturday is Happy Hour again from 6 to 8 p. m. and later on the "Rainbow Wranglers" will entertain with their western music from 9 to 1 a. m. The steak special will be served Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. for only $1.00.

GAY PURR-EE

A musical comedy in animation. This story is set in France in 1890. It deals with Mewsette and a group of cats who leave the farm and go to Paris, where they have a series of romantic adventures. Starring are the voices of Judy Garland, Robert Goulet, Red Buttons and Hermoine Gingold.

MYSTERY SUBMARINE

Recounting an episode of submarine activity in World War II, this adventure provides fast-moving entertainment for those patrons who like action in their film fare. When the British capture an undamaged German U-boat, James Robertson Justice, an admiral, conceives a brilliant idea. The sub, manned by a British crew, using the German code books and orders, all of which were found intact, would rendezvous with a German wolf pack known from the orders to be setting a trap for a tremendous Allied convoy. Starring are Laurence Payne, Albert Levien and Arthur O'Sullivan.

SAMSON AND THE SEVEN MIRACLES OF THE WORLD

The story involves China in the 13th century, when a vicious war lord holds sway over the country. He plans to murder the prince and princess who are rightfully entitled to the throne while a young rebel does his best to rally the people in opposition to the Tartar war lord. Then appears on the scene a man who calls himself Samson, portrayed by Gordon Scott. He gives no indication where he has come from and why, and helps the rebels in their fight for their country. Supporting cast: Yoko Tani, Helene Chancel and Dante Di Paolo.

TERM OF TRIAL

This is the story of a school teacher on trial starring Sir Laurence Olivier and Simone Signoret. Olivier is a teacher in a slum school in England. He is a man of integrity and one who served a jail term rather than fight during the war. Among his students is a teen-ager, Sara Miles, who falls in love with him. After rebuffing her one evening, she tells her parents a false story about Olivier assaulting her. He goes to trial and justice is finally done.

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE

Stories about the private lives of Hollywood stars, especially where matters of a scandalous nature are involved, have always intrigued many movie-goers. In the summer side of living comes this movie in which alcoholism, insanity, physical violence and murder all have a place in a tale about two sisters, movie stars of yesterday, living alone in a house in suburban Hollywood with only their hate for each other and their dreams of the past to occupy their time. The story is cast in the form of a tale of suspense with one of the sisters imprisoning in their home the other, who is a helpless cripple confined to a wheel chair and plotting to starve her to death in order to take over her money and use it to make a "comeback." Stars are Bette Davis, Joan Crawford and Victor Buono.

KILL OR CURE
A British comedy starring Terry-omas, Eric Sykes and Lionel Jeff-ers. The story moves from one sit-uation to another; the play for laugh-ible from the sly and occasionally ble to the more robust and occa-sionally slapstick.

LOVELY ARE THE BRAVE
An unusual, moving and dramatic-ure, this story tells, in simple 3 direct terms, of a wondering why whose deep, almost obsessive-ure for freedom and the open-oes of the west leads him into-able, and finally to the ultimate-ecdom which is death itself. Kirk-ugas brings all his expected rug-d vigor to the role of the cowboy, led most capably by Walter Mat-tn, as the sheriff whose duty forces n into all-out pursuit of the cow-ry into the hill country, but who-early has the deepest sympathy for- a fugitive, and obviously is hardly-urbed by the apparent success- of the cowboy's effort to escape. Co-arring are Gena Roylands and Mich-1 Kane.

PAYROLL
This is the story of what happens- the principal human element is- viciously-conducted armored car-

An Office With A

Is it the right amount? Did I get too much or too little?

Whether you are underpaid or overpaid, the amount of work involved in making out a check is staggering.

The Base Disbursing office at Camp Lejeune handles various amounts of checks including yours. Sixteen military men and women and 20 civil service personnel make up the staff. Maintaining a basic 3400 MOS, a person first entering the field can look forward to working in a complex office, normally consisting of a Fiscal Section, Public Vouchering Section, Travel Section and Military Pay Section.

Let us look into what many consider the most important part of the Disbursing office--the Military Pay Section.

In this section, the checks

Corps, and his fellow Marines whom he serves. He or she must also realize that accuracy of the individual's pay account is a contributing factor in the morale of the troops.

The pay clerk must maintain a record of each pay record that is or has been serviced by the disbursing office within the past year. Also in this section, a clerk must prepare on a "graphotype machine" an addressograph plate for each Marine showing such information as name, service number, and pay entry base date. These are used in the preparation of payrolls, checks, new military pay records and W-2 forms which are issued to each member at the end of the calendar year for income tax purposes.

Semi-annually, at the end of December and the end of June, each pay record must be closed and a new one opened. This process requires balancing and closing of the old pay record and opening of a new record. This is accomplished in addition to the normal duties with no postponement of paydays.

The disbursing clerk must have a thorough knowledge of the regulations pertaining to pay. A close relationship must be maintained with the company office of the members whose pay records he or she handles and questions in connection with pay matters must be answered.

Also in the Military Pay Section are the officer's pay accounts. The task is handled entered on the appropriate pay record.

Payday is preceded by several days of preparation including computation of pay which necessitates operating an adding machine or calculator with speed and accuracy; printing of payrolls and checks on addressograph machines programmed for each operation; posting the amount of payments on pay records, checks and payrolls by a posting machine; followed by balancing and checking each operation. Each clerk must be fully aware of his responsibility to both his employer, the U. S. Marine that go into the hands of Marines at Marine Corps Base twice each month reveal little of the story behind them---that story is the disbursing clerk's job.

Each clerk, whether it be male or female, is responsible for an average of 350 military pay accounts. On the pay record, a clerk must enter all information furnished from the daily unit diary that affects each Marine's pay. This includes promotions, leave, reenlistment bonus, etc. Substantiating documents for allotments, credits for basic allowance for quarters and checkages for clothing issues and other items must be examined for correctness and Since Nov. 15, 1962, the Department of Defense has sponsored an American Heritage Contest for Service newspapers. With this contest reaching its conclusion tomorrow, the GLOBE feels there is no better way to emphasize Our American Heritage than to publish the words of persons at Camp Lejeune who desire to share in this Heritage.

The GLOBE has interviewed these persons attending citizenship classes to fulfill their desire to become Americans.

Our American Heritage should never be regarded in the past tense alone. It is a living thing that grows with each new citizen.

The following article is a word picture of our American Heritage as seen by people of other nations.

Bogdanka Silva, Belgrade Yugoslavia, age 24, wife of GySgt. William J. Silva, 2d MarDiv—Mrs. Silva came to America in 1962. While working as a secretary in an industrial plant in Yugoslavia, she met her husband who was on Embassy duty in Belgrade. Asked why she wanted to become an American citizen she replied, "I want to be like other American women. I want to be able to share as they do here and be a part of something. I want to be able to say what I want, when I want and how I want, without the fear of being put in prison or punished by the government. I want to be able to do what I want, when I want and go where I want without having some government official watching every move I make. This is not freedom. America is a true significance of freedom. Another thing I love is the American food. Especially the hot dogs, with or without everything on it! The vastness of this country is very different to Yugoslavia -- that is another thing that impresses me about America. It is so big!"

Natividad Murphy, Canal Zone, age 25, wife of Sgt. (E-5) E. Murphy, 2d MarDiv—Mrs. Murphy first came to this country in 1960. She was working as a clerk stenographer at the U. S. Naval Dispensary, Rodman, Canal Zone. When asked what impressed her most in her new land compared to her old country, she remarked how small it was in comparison to New York City. This was her way of comparing the sizes of countries. "In fact," she stated, "New York City is nine times bigger than the entire Republic of Panama." She was also impressed with the "Freedom of Religion." Why does she want to become a citizen of this country? She wants to share in the future of this country and exercise her right to vote and have an individual SAY in this free democracy. In reference to the threat of communism, her belief is the communists are working on the poverty stricken and illiterate people in the Canal Zone. Mrs. Murphy sums up her feelings with this statement: "I think it's great living in this country."

June Johnson, London, England, age 31, wife of SSgt. Wallace G. Johnson, 2d MarDiv—Mrs. Johnson was born in London and came to the United States in 1953. She was working with the "Empire" girls for MGM in the Empire Theatre, London. These girls are the British version of New York's Rockettes. When asked why she wanted to become a citizen of the United States her reply was: "My four girls were born in this country. Not only do I want to become a citizen, but I feel since I am going to live here, it is only right that I am part of it." She went on to say, "This country offers more opportunities and more freedom. A communist doesn't have any freedom, let alone opportunities. They may have a large country but they don't do what is best for the land and the people that live in it."

"I hereby declare, and abjure all allegiance or sovereignty of whom that I will support and defend of America against all enemies, faith and allegiance to the United States when required in the Armed Forces that I will perform work when required by law; and mental reservation or pur-

Rita Cotter, Italy, age 31, wife of Sgt. (E-5) J. E. Cotter, 2dMarDiv—Mrs. Cotter came to America in 1956. While in Naples, Italy she worked in the Post Exchange and also met her husband who was attached to the NATO command. Why does she want to become an American citizen? She wants to have the right to vote and share in the many privileges and opportunities an American has in this country. She has four children she loves very much; they are all Americans, so is her husband. She also wants to become an American. She loves everything about this country. "Everyone has an equal chance to lead a decent life. Over in Italy, the only people able to afford a refrigerator or stove are those living in the higher class bracket," she said. "I think every alien should want to become a citizen. I have always wanted to become an American but since my husband is a Marine, he travels a lot and we have never spent enough time in one residence for me to apply. Asked what she thinks of communism: "I hate it."

could adjust to life in Japan again. I have changed my way of life and I like it much better.

Nathan B. Slomovic, Pfc, Supply Co., ASD Bn., 2d FSR, FMF—Pfc Slomovic was born in Russia and came to America eight years ago. During World War II, his parents were in a concentration camp. They wanted to get out of Russia. They came over here first and later sent for him. Nathan's father has his own business here in Nashville, Tenn., where he sells and fixes shoes. Why does he want to become a citizen? "I want to be able to vote and have a SAY in the government. If you cannot voice your opinion about the government, then you have no government. America has so much to offer: better standards of education and living. I want to go to college someday and get a good dependable job. Then I hope to get married. That is why I want to become an American."

Chieko Cunningham, Hokkaido, Japan, age 30, wife of Sgt. (E-5) W. A. Cunningham, 2d MarDiv—Mrs. Cunningham became a citizen in 1962. She attended the Government and English classes here at Camp Lejeune. Here is her answer to the question, why do you want to become an American citizen: "I wanted to have full rights as an American. Only a citizen has these full rights. I wanted to vote, so I could do my share in helping make this a good country in which to live. I think my vote is important because every vote helps elect good government officials. If I want to start a business, I can do this here. The government will help me. In Japan, they have more freedom now than they did before, but here in America I have the freedom of speech. I don't think I solely by one non-commissioned officer. The work involved is the same as that of the Enlisted Pay Section with the exception being that the officers personally come to the disbursing office when they desire to check their pay record or make a new allotment. There are over 170 Marine officers' accounts to check every two weeks, plus one Air Force officer's account.

Next, is the Travel Section. Here, work involves processing travel claims for both military and civilian personnel who perform travel under competent orders. A travel clerk is required to deal directly with claimants, to know the various regulations governing payment of claims and to correctly prepare vouchers for payment.

Everyone has had to pay a bill of some sort at one time or another. The disbursing office is no exception. Although it "gives" out money, it still must account for every cent spent.

The Public Voucher Section is responsible for the payment of bills for the military installation served by the disbursing office. The ability to prepare a voucher correctly and make a favorable impression on both military and civilian personnel coming in contact with the Voucher section play a large part in public relations for the Marine Corps. All purchases of materials, services and supplies other than personal for contracts issued by the Contracting Officer here at Camp Lejeune or for various contracts issued by other military installations are paid for by this section.

Those who like bookkeeping would be interested in working in the Fiscal Section of disbursing. It is this section that maintains financial records and prepares checks for other sections of the disbursing office and submits the Disbursing officer's monthly financial returns to the Commandant of the Marine Corps. An error could have far-reaching results.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

Base Units Firm Plans For 1963-64

"Goettge Memorial Field House is no Taj Mahal. It is for unit intramural participation and we will fit you in." Major E. S. Lambert, Special Services Office, opened the 1963-64 intramural planning meeting, last Monday with this statement pointing out that each individual unit should provide a sound program to allow maximum participation in intramural sports within Marine Corps Base.

Although no changes in the new program, from that of last year, were contemplated, two were suggested with one receiving favorable consideration, and likely to be approved.

Getting the nod from the majority of unit representatives was the addition of table tennis to the program. The matches, to be held in the month of November, prior to Thanksgiving, will consist of a singles and a doubles tournament.

Receiving no support was a suggestion to replace the badminton matches with a horseshoe tournament.

Also included in the program are events in tennis, softball, golf, touch football and basketball.

This year's program will include representatives from Base medical and will raise the number of participants to 10. These are: USNH, MCES, MCSS, H&S Battalion, 2d FSR; ASD Battalion, 2d FSR; Base Materiel, 2d FSR; Base Medical, MS&M Battalion, 2d FSR and 1st ITR.

PI Shooter Snaps 'Old' Pistol Mark

That "soon" should become a part of the adage, "records are made to be broken", was proven here yesterday when Chief Warrant Officer Anthony Mucci set a new all-time record for Parris Island's pistol range.

CWO Mucci scored 398 of a possible 400 points with the .45 caliber service automatic. This topped by ten points the previous record set January 31, of this year, by First Lieutenant Dudley E. Thomas.

Record breaking is nothing new to Mucci, who is captain of the Depot's rifle and pistol team. His name has, during the past several years, been frequently among the gold medal winners in Marine Corps and national marksmanship matches.

Thinclads

All Marine Corps Base personnel interested in participating with the Base Track Team are requested to contact Base Special Services, phone 7-3125. Those selected will participate in the intramural program and a local track meet, April 3.

Lady Basketball Greats Meet Lejeune Saturday

Hazel Walker, famed female basketball great, and her "Arkansas Travelers" will be on hand, Saturday, March 16 to entertain Marines, their dependents and the general public at the Goettge Memorial Field House, beginning 8 p. m.

Admission free, the girls will play the Camp Lejeune "Marines" to close out the local 1962-63 cage season.

Miss Walker, sole owner of the "Travelers", was selected to the mythical All-America AAU team 11 years, a record which has never been topped. During 14 years in amateur ball, she played on five national championship teams and as a member of runners-up squads for three.

During National tournament history, her amazing record of 49 out of 50 baskets from the foul line has never been beaten. Hazel was elected to America's Athletic Hall of Fame, taking her place beside such stars as Babe Zaharias, Patty Berg, Marlene Bauer Hagge, Helen Wills, Pauline Betz and Louise Brough.

In 1959 Arkansas conceived its first state "Hall of Fame." Hazel was selected as one of the first five athletes to the coveted organization and was the first woman to join sport greats Bill Dickey and Jim Lee Howell.

Rounding out the team are six players, whose ability and finesse in the swift sport of basketball is a constant source of amazement. They are the foremost performers of the day, making up an outstanding team that has been acclaimed the "best" anywhere in the Nation....Best playing and best looking team on the road.

Local Nine Said Ready For National Runners-up

After plenty of good weather to work out the kinks and get into shape, the Camp Lejeune baseball squad is ready for Junior College National Runners-Up, Wilmington, today, beginning 1:30 p. m.

The Wilmington-Lejeune game, first of a 3-game series, opens the 1963 season for both squads and is the first of a 31-game exhibition season for the local nine.

Starting for Lejeune and possibly in this batting order is shortstop George Borders, former Stetson University player. While attending Stetson, Borders was selected all-conference four years and was twice selected as the Most Valuable player.

Hitting second and in center-field is returnee Buddy Simpson, a member of the 1958 and 60 All-Marine baseball champions. Another Lejeune favorite, batting third is first sacker Hal Norton, holder of several Lejeune all-time baseball records.

In the cleanup slot is another of last year's squad, right fielder Cicero McClellan. During 1962 McClellan played left field and batted an impressive .376.

Roaming in left field and in the number five position is newcomer Tom Harrington, former MVP at Fordham University in 1961.

Following Harrington will be third baseman Billy Garrett, Garrett, also a returning veteran, sported a respectable .317 last year.

Holding down second base and batting sixth is Dick Garcia, who last year batted .265 for the 3d Marine Division. Behind the plate and batting eighth is Tom O'Leary, who joined the locals from Manhattan College of New York. During four years college ball the receiver was voted team captain, all-metropolitan and most valuable in his senior year.

On the mound the "Marines" will be Frank Wilhelm. One of many returning hurlers for Lejeune, this year. The 165 pounder right-hander compiled a 12-4 record last year.

Volleyball Title

Marine Corps Base will open its 1963-64 Intramural Sports Program and Commanding General's Cup race with the Volleyball Championships at Goettge Memorial Field House, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Monday.

The single elimination tournament precedes the Fleet Marine Force Atlantic Tourney scheduled to be hosted here by the 2d Marine Division, April 8 and 9.

Opening night's action in the Marine Corps Base play-offs will see Marine Corps Engineer Schools oppose ITR in the first game and MS&M Battalion No. 1 meeting MS&M Battalion No. 2 in the second, with the winners opening up Tuesday night's play.

Mt. Olive Dumps 'Pups From District II Tourney

Mount Olive's basketball quintet proved too strong for the Camp Lejeune Devilpups as they defeated the Pups 70-51 in the District Two tournament, Saturday. The loss eliminated Lejeune from the tourney and ended the 1962-63 season.

Pivot man Dan Paetow turned in one of his finest performances of the year with a 21 point effort. Jim Barrett, the other half of Lejeune's 1-2 scoring punch was held to 11 points, his lowest of the current season.

Flashy Doug Simmons and 6-4 Larry Jones combined to score 54 points for the victors.

After falling behind 11-0, midway in the first quarter, Coach John Griffin's Pups rallied for 11 straight points knotting the game at 11-11. A pair of free throws and a tap-in by Jones put Mount Olive ahead to stay.

Duffer Bags

Paradise Point Golf Course will sponsor a Scotch Foursome "Ladies Choice" Tournament April 7, beginning at 12 noon. Registrations may be made anytime at the clubhouse or the annex and the match is open to all Marines and their dependents.

During last Sunday's match Edna Kinder and Bob Searles bested a field of 40 linksters in CAFD low gross with an 84. Low net of 68 was shot by Mary Lou Gay and Tom Gay while Wally Schlesenger and his son fired a 34 and 3/4 for low net on the front nine. Low net on the back nine was taken by Mrs. Flory and Tom Shroveshire with a 35 1/2.

Carol Searles and Ralph Fortie captured low putting with 31.

Cannoneers Sweep Title; Enter Quad Cage Playoff

2D MARINE DIVISION,--The 4th Battalion, 10th Marines won the 1963 Marine Division basketball championship last Thursday night by eking out a bitterly-fought, 48-47, victory over Headquarters Battalion. The cannoneers' team captain, Julian Weingarten, scored the winning basket on a free throw in the dying moments of the final quarter.

4/10's hustling artillerymen, coached by Marlin Heftl, led 23-18 at the end of the first half. In their usually strong second half, they were outplayed by the aggressive Headquarters five, and only by mixing an overall strong defense with a well-balanced offense were they able to overcome a surging later-game bid by the Mac Radcliffe-coached men from Headquarters.

Sharpshooting Sherlock Cooper led the 4/10 courtmen with an overall dazzling display and a total of 15 points.

The strong, graceful forward clicked on 7 field goals and 1 free throw and also played brilliantly under the boards. Weingarten, the former Maryland cager, sank 11 points in all, including the all-important basket that won the game for the cannoneers.

Bob Gray, Glenn Anthony and Gabriel Randolph rounded out the scoring slate for 4/10. Gray, a standout defensively, threw in 9 points, while the hard-working Anthony tossed in 7. Randolph contributed 5 more to the winners' ledger.

For the unsuccessful Headquarters Battalion crew, guard Howie Day, using a deadly, long jump-shot, dropped in a game-high total of 18 points, made up of 6 field goals and 6 free throws.

John Newsome and playing-coach Radcliffe threw in 11 and 10 points respectively for the losers. Eight of Radcliffe's points came on free throws. Bob Spelyar and Chuck Barger basked 4 apiece to round out the scoring for the Headquarters crew, with Barger's field goal coming in the last five seconds of the game.

Chess Federation Rates Military Try-Out Players

To encourage chess players in the armed forces, the United States Chess Federation has agreed to provide national chess ratings to all who compete in the preliminary tournaments for selection to the All-Services play in Washington in October.

Heretofore, only members of the federation have been rated according to their tournament rating and upon payment of the 10-cent-per-game rating fee.

For armed forces players, the membership requirements have been dropped. Players in tournaments leading to the October championships need only submit tournament records and the 10-cents-a-game.

The federation is an organization of about 8000 player-members.

The American Chess Foundation, on the other hand, is a small group devoted to promoting chess.

Personnel desiring to participate in an elimination tournament are requested to call Mr. McIntyre, Base Special Services, as soon as possible, 7-5528.

ing chess. It directly sponsors the all-service tournament, for which one of its leading members, Thomas Emery, a former Marine, puts up the expense money and purchases the trophies.

So far, the Air Force has announced plans for a preliminary service tournament to select its team of five in the all-service competition.

The Army is entitled to pick five, and the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard together may select five.

Wilmington Golf Match In 15th Year

WILMINGTON, N.C.--Dapper Dave Marr, current Azalea Open champion, heads the first commitment list of 24 professional golfers who have signed up for the 15th annual $20,000 tournament at the Cape Fear Country Club March 28 through March 31.

The lanky Azalea Open champion is expected to defend his title against a field of upwards of 150 golfers, including many of the leading professionals in the nation.

On the first list with Marr are Pinky Stevens, Jimmy Powell, Harold (Catfish) Kneese, Claude King, Duff Lawrence, Bob Gasper, Willis Johnson, Ron Howell, Herb Marousen, Chuck Rotar, and Bob Pratt.

Charles Huckabee, Jim Peterson, Roger Ginsberg, Harry McIlree, Buck Adams, Bob Rose, Ed Oldfield, Jack Blissetter, Rod Funseth, Jack Rule, Jr., Cary Olson, and Brad Anderson.

In addition to the big $20,000 tournament, the WAA also sponsors a $2,500 pro-am tournament which precedes the Open by a day. The pro-am will be played March 27, and a full field of 150 amateurs is already assured. They will be paired with the 50 top pros who will be in Wilmington for the Azalea Open.

KYDIVER—Seeking a berth on the Navy's "Chuting Stars," GySgt. Dusty Rhodes, Marine Parachutist, displays trophies awarded him following the Annual Fairview Oklahoma Invitational Skydiving Meet. Rhodes was named "Outstanding Individual Jumper." (Photo by Pfc Santiago Martinez)

Parachutist Caps Career in Oklahoma

Flying through the air with the greatest of ease, without trapeze...only a parachute. This is Marine GySgt D. T. "Dusty" Rhodes of Marine Aircraft Group-26, and a member of Lejeune's Parachute club, who after 17 years of jumping from airplanes, reached the pinnacle of success last month during the Fairview Oklahoma annual Invitational Skydiving meet.

Rhodes, of Wilmington, N.C., who has jumped close to 500 times, compiled over 839 points during the yearly meet and was named the events "Outstanding Individual Jumper," for the first time in his skydiving career.

The only contestant to be invited to attend last month's meet from the East Coast, Dusty and his wife Gyneth drove over 300 miles to compete. While the meet was for men only Mrs. Rhodes was not idle acting as Master of Ceremonies.

National, local and world meets are "old hat" to the couple. Together they have participated in many skydiving events and are known in parachute circles, the globe over.

During the International Parachute Championships, last year at Orange, Mass., Dusty served as assistant judge for the United States and also entertained thousands with a major portion of the exhibition jumping.

Providing that "skydiving" is big business, Rhodes is a class "D" jumper for the United States and holds a Federal Aeronautical Internationale (FAI) license, issued through Ireland. A licensed Federal Parachute Rigger, he is the Area Safety Officer of the Parachute Club of America covering a 200 mile radius of Jacksonville, N. C.

Dusty, whose life-long desire to be a member of the Navy's "Chuting Stars," began his unusual career in 1946 when he became a displaced passenger from a small private plane over Santa Cruz, Calif. and the pilot were engaged in practice acrobatics when his safety belt opened, and Dusty, flat and plane parted company.

A quick hand on the ripcord and Dusty became the only survivor on an "aerial cooks" of Santa Cruz via the silk canopy route. He liked it and continued skydiving as a sport.

Hospitalmen-Artillerymen Make Quad Semi-Finals

The title game of the Camp Lejeune Basketball Championships is scheduled to be played tonight, beginning 7:15 p. m. at the Goettge Memorial Field House.

In the opening nights action the Naval Hospital moved into the semi-finals with a 69-56 victory over 8th Comm Battalion, Force Troops.

Battling the Hospitalmen Wednesday night will be the 4th Battalion, 10th Marines. The Cannoneers defeated Marine Aircraft Group-26, 49-30.

Tuesday night, Base champion Marine Corps Supply Schools met Headquarters, Second Marine Division and the 8th Engineer Battalion battled Marine Corps Air Facility, New River. The results of this contest were received too late for GLOBE deadline.

Topping the scoring department for the Naval Hospital was Stevenson who tossed in 11 from the floor and eight from the foul line for 30 points. He was followed by teammate Irish with 14.

High for the Communicators was Mitchell with eight field goals and six free throws for 22.

Leading the Cannoneers was Weingarten with 19 points. Also in double figures for the Division quintet was Anthony with five field goals for 10 points.

Lejeune KO'd In Interservice Bout

Lightweight, 132 lb. Leander Moore, of Camp Lejeune battled his way into the finals of the 1963 Interservice Boxing Championships, but failed to capture the title when he was defeated by the Army's Jim Grant at Fort Meyer, Va., last week.

Moore was one of two Lejeune boxers to win titles during the All-Marine Championships at Camp Pendleton, last month. Mike Adame, Lejeune's other hopeful lost in the semi-finals.

Another Marine finalist, flyweight Tony Alvarado was dethroned in the finals by Robert Carmody of the Army. More than 5,500 ring fans saw the strong Army boxers score their second consecutive tournament victory with four title wins in 10 events. Second place went to the Air Force with three champions, third to the Marine Corps with two and in the cellar was the Navy, with one.

The champions are currently in training for the Pan-American Games Boxing Trials which are being held at Toledo, Ohio, March 15 and 16. The finalists will face AAU champs for berths on the United States Pan-Am team and a trip to the games in Brazil and possibly the Olympics in Tokyo next year.

Air Force Flyer Saved; Marine Pilot Decorated

Timeliness is an important word when a person's life lies in the balance. Maj. Walter W. Vatcher, Marine Aircraft Group-26 (MAG-26) aviation safety officer received the Naval Commendation Medal on March 1, for his quickness in rescuing a downed Air Force pilot on January 22, 1962.

While flying a night mission, Maj. Vatcher received a MAYDAY from the downed pilot. The pilot was about 20 miles off the coast. Being closer to him than the ready pilots at MCAF New River, Maj. Vatcher led a party of two helicopters to the scene.

After the accompanying helicopter had difficulty in three attempts, Maj. Vatcher maneuvered his "chopper" over the downed pilot. Within 20 minutes after the initial radio transmission advising of the accident, the pilot was safe.

NOW HEAR THIS—Brig. Gen. John P. Coursey, Assistant 2d Marine Aircraft Wing Commander at Cherry Point reads the citation that Maj. Walter W. Vatcher, second from right, has just received. Major Vatcher, Marine Aircraft Group 26 (MAG-26), aviation safety officer, was awarded the Naval Commendation Medal for the rescue of a downed Air Force pilot on January 22, 1962. Present at the ceremonies were Col. Robert L. Cochran, MAG-26 commanding officer, second from left, and Mrs. Nelly Belle Vatcher. (Photo by Pfc Juan Santiago-Martinez)

Service Bn. MSgt. Retires With Goal Of Free Lancing

Retirement ceremonies today at Camp Lejeune marked the climax of a military career spanning more than two decades for MSgt. Herbert Hale, 2d Service Bn.

The sergeant, a veteran of more than 20 years service in the Marine Corps, saw action in the Pacific during World War II, and again in Korea. He was noncommissioned officer in charge of Battalion Special Services, prior to his transfer from active duty.

The sergeant commented at the close of his career that he hopes to "get in a little free lance writing, and a few of officiating in North Carolina sports."

Marine Of The Month Selected For February

February "Marine of the Month" honors were bestowed upon a young corporal of Company "G", 2d Battalion, 6th Marines, who served as a squad leader and later as a platoon leader during unit field exercises.

Cpl. Paul Watson was cited

for the degree of efficiency he exhibited in traits of leadership, initiative, energy, enthusiasm, and dedication.

Watson was selected over nominees representing other companies within the regiment. A native of Etowah, Tenn., he has served with the 6th Marines since completing recruit training in December 1961.

In addition to the award, presented to him on March 1, by Col. R. W. L. Bross, Commanding Officer, 6th Marines, Watson received a $10 Exchange certificate, a 96-hour pass, and a congratulatory, "Job well done!", by Capt. V. E. Firnstahl, his company commander.

Wanted

From Marine Corps Base, one Cpl. or below in the 03 Field, single and willing to reenlist for duty at the Marine Barracks, U. S. Naval Station, Bermuda.

For further information contact the Base Career Advisory Office in Bldg. 50 or call Baes ext. 7-3321.

GYSGT. HONORED BY STAFF NCOS—GySgt. George L. Shade, left foreground, of ASD Battalion, 2d Force Service Regiment, was honored at a Staff NCO Parade held on February 28. GySgt. Shade, who transferred to the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve with over 20 years active service, received congratulations and well wishes from Battalion Sergeant Major William F. Stepp, right, on behalf of the battalion's Staff NCOS.

Career Clues

Here is a little known fact which can mean a lot to married corporals. It is a "financial fact". Simply expressed it is this: a married corporal (E-4) with two or less dependents will normally receive a pay increase of $31.90 per month upon reenlisting. That's right!

How is that, you might ask. After all the new pay bill has not yet passed. This is true. But the average corporal who reenlists, completes four years service for pay purposes at that time. The base pay for an E-4 corporal with over three years is $160 per month; whereas his pay goes to $170 per month for over four years service—a $10 difference. Agreed?

Now then where will the $21.90 come from? Look now, the BAQ allowance chart will find that a married E-4 with one or two dependents will receive less than four years service receives $83.10 per month. Further, we see that the allowance jumps to $105 per month for over four years service—a difference of $21.90. When the sum of $21.90 (BAQ difference) is added to the $10 of increase base pay the total is $31.90. Needless to say, a nice percentage of pay increase.

One more point, only a $1 increase is subject to income tax. In itself, this presents an increase in net of $31.90. It is interesting to note that the difference between the base pay of an E-4 and under four years service is $10 per month. So we see the above increase in pay is, really, larger than the pay increase from E-4 to E-5.

Inasmuch as we are dealing with the financial future of Marines, let's go one step further and look into the proposed bill. When we look at the proposed figures, we see that E-4 with over four years service would go from $110 per month to $200—a difference of $90. And so the average married E-4 who reenlists should receive a $61.90 increase in pay during the next few months. That's a $742 "bonus" to add to the normal reenlistment bonus this year.

FT Career Days

During "Career Days" held at Force Troops, the week of February 11-15, 74 Marines extended or reenlisted for choice duty stations around the world and across the nation.

The "Career Days" were held for Marines of 15 Force Troops' units and over 200 years were added to Marine Corps service, with an average of 3 years per man.

Some of the choice duty stations received were: Rota, Spain; London, England; Naples, Italy; Japan; Bermuda; Trinidad; and the Philippines.

The "Career Days" were considered a marked success by the Force Troops Career Advisors.

Mrs. S. Denhup 'Star' Volunteer

"Self-satisfaction is the reward of volunteer work," states Mrs. Steven Denhup, chairman of the Thrift Shop, and reports from her fellow workers show that she is most qualified to make this statement.

Having come to Camp Lejeune in January of '61, Mrs. Denhup took over the reins as Thrift Shop Chairman last spring. She is also a staff aide and a member of the Catholic Daughters of America.

The Denhups were previously stationed at Parris Island where she was president of the Center School PTA, chairman of the Thrift Shop there, secretary of the Marine Wives and Room Mother Chairman. She also has some "time in" as a Blood Mobile worker.

Sponsored by the Camp Lejeune Staff NCO Wives' Club, the Thrift Shop runs on an "early bird gets the worm" policy with profits going to the scholarship fund and to charity. Goods are accepted as donations or on a consignment basis and sold to service personnel, dependents and civilians employed at Camp Lejeune.

The shop also features layaways with a 10% deposit, a minimum of 50 cents a week and a maximum of two weeks is allowed for full payment.

Payments to the owners of merchandise sold, less the 20% commission, is mailed by check on the last Tuesday of each month.

Displayed on the racks and shelves are girls' and women's skirts and dresses; all colors, all sizes. Also available are winter and summer uniforms, dress blues, formals, baby needs, dolls, aprons, books, games, purses, hats and kitchen gadgets.

All clothing accepted for sale must be clean and in good condition. Merchandise remaining on hand after three months will be considered as donated unless withdrawn by the owner. Goods may be brought to the shop during the business hours.

Located in Bldg. 1403, next to Toyland, the Thrift Shop is open on Wednesdays from 9:30 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. and from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. on Fridays.

Besides being able to contribute to the Navy Relief Fund, the scholarship fund and the United Fund, which in itself proves that business is thriving, Mrs. Denhup has her own technique of measuring the success of the Thrift Shop. "At first we only had two consignments, each containing approximately 125 names. Now we have five!" she exclaimed with her characteristic friendly smile.

Most rewarding of all though, Mrs. Denhup ascertains, is the volunteer work she does at home as the wife of MSgt. Steven Denhup and the mother of three: Joanne, 15; Steven, 11 and Mark 8.

Recreation Girls' Club Organized

A Girls' Recreation Club is now being formed for girls up to and including the age of 16. It will meet at Marston Pavilion, 6 days a week, from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. Those within walking distance may stay until 5:30. Activities will consist of individual and team sports, folk square dancing, synchronized and skill swimming. Individual sports include e of the trampolines, learning rudiments of tennis, fencing and badminton. Team sports to be covered are basketball, swimming, volleyball and softball.

The Club will be designed to supplement the school Physical Education program with additional activities and more advanced training in both individual and team sports.

Other objectives of the Club are to provide: a worthwhile school activity, competition within the group and tournament play, and activities with a carry-over value which may be enjoyed all through life and in a daily group.

Another purpose is to continue training in sportsmanship and leadership and to emphasize the necessity of getting along with other girls regardless of race, personality or background.

All those interested in joining the club are asked to contact Mr. Selwyn Orcutt, Recreation Director at Camp Lejeune, 3528.

Ceramics Students to Present Exhibit

A "before and after" ceramics exhibit will be held March 16 through the 23 at the Marine Corps Exchange. It will be sponsored by the Knox and other residents who have been attending classes at the Air Facility Ceramics Shop every Thursday and Friday from 2 to 4 p. m. Besides a variety of articles including Oriental figures, vases, cookie jars, ash trays and small figurines the display will feature a ceramics project going through the complete process—from slip to glaze to bisque to glazed. Those wishing to attend the classes at the Air Facility may contact the community director for their particular housing area. Transportation is provided and there is a nursery available.

Artillery Unit: 'Sunday Punch'

Sound tactics in amphibious warfare require that a combat leader hold a unit in reserve-- what old salts call a "Sunday Punch".

The 4th Battalion, 10th Marines, fulfills this requirement for the 2d Marine Division by providing general artillery support. By doing so, they have earned the title of "The Division Commander's 'Sunday Punch'".

The 4th Battalion, commanded by Major Robert B. Metcalfe, a former enlisted man and holder of the Silver Star Medal, is comprised of 574 enlisted men and 33 officers.

Utilizing the 155-mm. howitzer, 4/10 is made up of a Headquarters Battery and three firing batteries--"K", "L" and "M". The battalion is extremely active in training Marines in their MOS fields and in the intricacies of modern artillery warfare and tactics. Battalion staff sections conduct formal classes in their respective MOS each Monday morning. The communication section holds classes in voice radio procedure, etc., while the Motor Transport section conducts classes in motor vehicle maintenance and repair.

Other staff sections also receive varied experiences in their respective fields. W. C. Ludwig, Hospitalman, First Class, in charge of the Battalion Sick Bay, feels that his staff handles their fair share of work, especially during daily Sick Calls. Ludwig has a staff of 10 navymen, three of whom are detached at all times with one of the battalion's elements in the Caribbean.

In the Career Advisory Section, the battalion maintains a second place standing in the regiment, and the regiment holds the first place slot in the Division.

The battalion's war record is a source of pride and esprit for its members. The Battalion Colors are adorned by six campaign streamers with three battle stars; an American Defense Campaign streamer, the Navy Occupation Service streamer with Asia clasp; and the National Defense Service streamer.

In addition to units being deployed in the Caribbean, the battalion trains at the U. S. Army artillery ranges at Fort Bragg, N. C. two or three times each year for 10 to 15 days at a time.

The 4th Battalion, 10th Marines is constantly training and conducting field problems and exercises to keep in fighting form. Whenever it is committed, the 4th Battalion can be depended upon to give the "Sunday Punch" wherever it might be needed.

American History), two in Science (one must be in Biology), one in Mathematics, plus six electives and one in Physical Education, granted for military service.

Total cost per course is $24.00 with 3/4 of this cost being defrayed by the government, leaving $6.00 to be paid by the student.

British Officers Tour Lejeune

A team of seven officers from the British Joint Services Amphibious Warfare Centre will arrive at Camp Lejeune tomorrow morning to conduct an Amphibious Warfare Presentation and visit units of the 2d Division and Force Troops.

Honors for the group will be rendered on the Camp Parade Field by members of the 2d Division and Marine Corps Base.

The party will consist of Brigadier P. W. C. Hellings, and Lt. Colonel F. C. E. Bye, of the British Royal Marines; Wing Commander N. B. Freeman, Royal Air Force; Lt. Commander B. H. S. Stock, Royal Navy; Major W. Burnett, Royal Army Service Corps and Lt. Colonel R. D. Bohn, U. S. M. C.

Accompanying the group on their visit will be Colonel J. L. Carter, Royal Marines, British Defense Staff, British Embassy, Washington, D. C.

The team will conduct their Amphibious Presentation tomorrow afternoon.

On Saturday morning the visiting officers will attend briefings and view static displays of the 2d Amphibious Battalion, 2d Force Troops, 2d Pioneer Battalion, 2d Division and Bulk Fuel Company, 2d Force Service Regiment.

The group will depart Camp Lejeune for the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point Sunday afternoon.

Naval Academy Opportunity Open

Opportunity is knocking once again for Marines who have the desire and the qualifications to become a career officer in the Naval Service. However, applications must be submitted prior to March 20, Marine Corps Order 1531.14 of Feb. 14, 1963 provides detailed information for anyone interested in applying for nomination to the U. S. Naval Preparatory School, Bainbridge, Md. and on to the Naval Academy.

Some of the qualifications are as follows: the applicant must be at least 17 years of age and must not reach his 21st birthday prior to July 1, 1964; the applicant must be a high school graduate or have completed enough high school courses that credits earned at the Preparatory School will enable his Secondary school record to show the necessary 15 credits required for admission to the Naval Academy and must possess a minimum GCT of 120, or a minimum score of 120, determined by the sum of the Verbal, Arithmetic Reasoning and Pattern Analysis Test Scores of the Aptitude Area Test divided by three.

A screening examination, designed to determine each candidate's comparative capabilities in the fields of mathematics (algebra and plane geometry), English, and either physics or chemistry, will be given throughout the Naval Service on April 16, 1963.

Each applicant will be interviewed by a board of three officers and personally by his commanding officer. Only those applicants who qualify physically, have good moral character, motivation for career officer status in the Naval Service, and academic potential, where it can be judged will be recommended.

Candidates selected to attend the Naval Preparatory School are encouraged not to draw advanced pay prior to arrival at the school since pay will be withheld for the entrance deposit to the Naval Academy. During the course of instruction at the preparatory school a total of $300 will be held for this entrance deposit.

A midshipman's pay is approximately $11.15 a month, but due to the expense of books, uniforms and normal living a midshipman receives only a small portion of this pay for extra personal expenses and leave. A midshipman may not have a "Q" allotment and the small portion of his pay that he receives does not permit him to provide much financial assistance to any member of his family.

The midshipman must also agree to remain unmarried until he has completed four years of study at the Naval Academy and has received his commission.
