

Christmas Story Of Joy Unfolds Here

Sunday is Christmas and throughout the world Christians are looking forward to "peace on earth, good will toward men" for this Christmas and many more to come.

But this is not the case with tiny Christy Joy Masten. Without immediate help—and a lot of it—Joy may not live until next Christmas. Joy has a heart deformity.

"She's a happy, gay little pixie," according to her physician, Dr. P. T. Hood Jr., of Kinston. "She is three years old but her weight is only that of a six or seven-month-old infant. Her height is that of a 15-month-old infant. Her heart has made her a dwarf," Dr. Hood says.

Open heart surgery is necessary if little Joy is to live. If the operation is successful, her frail body will restore itself to normal.

Joy's father, John A. Masten, of Kinston, is a former Marine who was honorably discharged in 1957 while serving at Cherry Point. He earns a small salary each week but is not able to pay the heavy medical expenses. Most of the cost of the operation, if not all, will be borne by the North Carolina State Board of Health and Duke University Hospital. However, the expense of previous medical bills, transportation and maintenance of the family at Durham during Joy's hospitalization is beyond the means of the Masten family. Christmas can't be a very happy occasion for the Mastens this year.

Military and civilian per-

sonnel of the Traffic Section of Base Materiel Battalion first became aware of Joy's plight last September. Since then they have been making plans to assist Joy back to a normal, healthy life and to relieve the financial burdens of a fellow Marine. Last week their plans and prayers were answered when the commanding general of the Base authorized a drive for funds to give Joy a new lease on life.

"JOY for JOY" has now been launched and volunteer contributions—large and small—are coming in. Through a special arrangement with the Post Office, contributions are being mailed to "JOY for JOY," Box 25, Camp Lejeune, N. C. Donations are also being picked up by MSgt. Frank S. Hoffman, ext. 7-5265, or by Mr. Henry Jarman, ext.

7-3392 or Jacksonville 4764. Hearing of the campaign, the officers and men of the 1st Infantry Training Regiment announced their intentions to "help a Marine buddy" and to assure Joy's operation. Sizeable contributions started pouring in from the Regiment late last week. Col. G. H. West, commanding officer of the Regiment, said this week he expected his personnel would "come up with several thousand dollars before the end of January."

As it looks now, the drive is a wildfire of success. Camp Lejeune Marines have been given a chance this Christmas to give the most precious gift of all—life itself. A "happy, gay little pixie" may yet be here to dance and sing and rejoice next Christmas. God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen!

Stage Set For Third Annual Holiday Basketball Tourney

An informal luncheon here Wednesday, Dec. 28, will kick off the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament. A nine-game classic, the tournament, termed successful in past years, will feature such teams as: Elon and Catawba Colleges of North Carolina, Pikeville College of Kentucky, Concord College of West Virginia, Georgia Southern College of Statesboro, Ga.; Carson-Newman College of Tennessee; the University of Baltimore, and the hosts and 1959 defending champion Camp Lejeune "Marines."

Among those invited to attend the "kick-off" conference and luncheon are: Maj. Gens. Robert B. Luckey and James P. Berkeley, commanding generals of Marine Corps Base and 2nd Marine Division, respectively; Brig. Gen. Leonard F. Chapman Jr., commanding general, Force Troops; Brig. Gen. Odell M. Conoley, assistant Division commander; tournament officials and Marine Corps representatives, team coaches and player-captains, and athletic directors of the respective colleges.

Games during the three-day tourney are scheduled to be played at 1:30, 3:30, 7 and 9 p.m. Each team entered will play three games during the classic regardless of their individual won or lost record.

The four winners of the opening day's action will play the two evening sets on the second night. Losers of the first day's play will pair off for the afternoon of the second day. Winners of the second night will play in the finals, while the losers will meet in the initial game of the third night for third place honors.

THANK YOU

In keeping with the established custom of only one issue during the holiday season, the GLOBE will not be published Dec. 29. Regular publication deadlines will be resumed, however, for the Jan. 5 issue.

The GLOBE staff wishes to thank all of our readers, contributors and photographers for their splendid support during 1960.

To our readers and friends from New River to Isla Bella Segunda, Puerto Rico — from Barcelona, Spain, to the Suez — to all Marines aboard Navy ships on the high seas—to our Tar Heel friends who print the GLOBE at Mount Olive, N. C., and especially to the kids — A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS, and to one and all—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Board Selects 1759 E-7's; 190 From Quad-Command

A Corps-wide Christmas present went to 1759 Marines this week with the announcement of the list of personnel selected for Gunnery Sergeant, E-7. Of the group, 190 are members of Marine Corps Base, 2nd Marine Division and Force Troops. According to Headquarters Marine Corps, 1450 of those selected will be promoted in January, the remainder in April.

Due to the size of the list, precedence numbers for hte selected Marines are still being assigned. The precedence list has not been completed and the GLOBE was unable to get an issue date before publication.

Announcement of the names of Marines selected for promotion to E-8 will be made before Christmas, sources in Headquarters, Marine Corps said. Promotion for these Marines is expected in January but no dates have been announced.

The following Lejeune Marines were selected for E-7 in the occupational fields indicated:

Plastic Bag Safety Rules Outlined By Base Officials

J. E. Ulmstead, Base Safety Director, this week warned children of the hazards of plastic bags similar to those being used by cleaning and pressing activities of Marine Corps Exchange—also those bags used by the Exchange for new uniforms. A total of 63 babies suffocated during the first half of last year due to misuse of plastic bags, according to the United States Public Health Service.

The safety director suggests education and not regulations to prohibit the use of plastic bags as a solution to the problem.

Ulmstead said it is impossible to know how many more babies would have suffocated if parents hadn't been warned of the danger through the nationwide safety campaign. The National Safety Council recognized the splendid results of the safety campaign, and agreed that parent education was the best solution.

The safety director said that discoveries of everyday useful items through science—sometimes bring about new dangers. He compared the hazards of plastic bags with many other useful items which are dangerous if misused.

The following three safety rules are offered by the safety director for parents to follow closely:

1. Never use a plastic bag as a makeshift cover in cribs, playpens, baby carriages, mattresses or upholstery.
2. Never give plastic bags to children to play with. They should be kept out of a child's reach.
3. Never keep a plastic bag after it has served its usefulness. Before disposing of it, fear it up or tie it in a knot.

Exchange

The Central Exchange will be closed on the following dates in observance of the holidays: Monday, Dec 26, and Monday, Jan. 2.

Choice Duty Offered Force Troops Men

The following quotas have been received by Force Troops for duty stations indicated below, according to the Force Troops Reenlistment Officer:

SSGT/SGT. Duty with State Department and Recruiters School.

SGT/CPL. Duty with State Department, Recruiters School, 1st Marine Brigade, and March Replacement Draft—Okinawa.

LCPL. March Replacement Draft—Okinawa, Duty with State Department and Camp H. M. Smith, Oahu.

PFC. MCAS Kaneohe, Oahu, and 1st Composite Radio—Oahu.

PVT. MCAS Kaneohe, Oahu.

Under a new policy just established, personnel may now be assigned to the Med Bay.

Second Field Artillery Group Receives Four Units Awards

Col. R. D. Wright, commanding officer of the 2nd Field Artillery Group, Force Troops, decorated the group colors with four streamers and silver bands last week for actions in which 2nd FAG units participated during World War II and in Korea. The decorations were a Presidential Unit Citation streamer, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign streamer with two bronze stars, World War II victory streamer, and the National Defense Service streamer. Research by the

Force Troops Reenlistments Hit Highest Two-Year Mark

Force Troops reenlistments during the month of November reached their highest point since June, 1958, according to 1st Lt. Charles W. Field, Force Troops reenlistment officer. Of all personnel eligible and recommended by their commanding officers for retention in the Marine Corps, 61 per cent reenlisted. The previous high was 71 per cent in June, 1958, Lieutenant Field said this week.

The November rate marks the peak of a continuously increasing rate of reenlistments in Force Troops since June of this year, when the rate hit a low of 8 per cent. The reenlistment rate for personnel eligible and recommended for the first time during June was 4 per cent.

The November reenlistment rate for first termers was 47 per cent, the highest rate since Jan. 1 this year.

The rate for first term reenlistments increased over 11 times from June to November of this year, while the over-all reenlistment rate rose over seven times from 8 to 61 per cent.

The rate for personnel eligible to reenlist for the second time was 77 per cent during November. July, with 83 per cent, and October, with 80 per cent, were the previous high months during the year. Of the 35 eligible and recommended for reenlistment during November, 27 decided to stay in the Marine Corps.

"During November, we had more quotas with better duty stations available than usual. I think this had a lot to do with our increase in reenlistments during the past several weeks," Lieutenant Field commented.

A total of 233 persons have extended their tour of duty in Force Troops since Jan. 1. The average extension was for one year.

Navy Uniform Modifications Are Ordered

The following changes in uniforms for both men and women have been approved by Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke:

Distinctive metal shirt collar devices have been adopted for male senior and master chief petty officers (CPO's).

These devices consist of the present CPO collar device with one silver star centered above the anchor stock for E-3 and two silver stars arranged horizontally above the anchor stock for E-9.

The Navy said these devices will be worn by the two top enlisted grades in place of the present CPO collar insignia.

In another uniform regulation change, name tags were authorized to be worn on the uniform at the discretion of commanding officers on such occasions as conferences, seminars and other similar gatherings.

They may also be worn in the performance of duty where some easy method of identification by name is desirable or beneficial in furtherance of the command's mission.

The Navy also authorized unit identification marks for enlisted men below CPO who are assigned to Fleet Training Groups or Photo Triangulation Groups.

The new shirt is authorized for immediate wear in place of the present cotton lawn white shirt.

Cameraman Enters Best Safety Slogan

The safety slogan submitted by GySgt. Stanley A. Harris, Base Photographic Laboratory, has been selected by the Board of Judges as the winning slogan in the second of three weekly slogan contests. The entry is:

"Take it easy, watch that meter, Or celebrate Christmas with St. Peter."

Sergeant Harris will receive a $20 exchange merchandise certificate for his winning entry in accordance with the rules of the contest as set forth in Base Bulletin 5101 dated Dec. 8, 1960.

Entries in the final week of the three weekly contests must be submitted to the Base Safety Office not later than 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Studies show that the faster you drive at night, the more you can see. Actual driving tests show that Decorations and Medals Branch, Headquarters Marine Corps, recently revealed that units of the 2nd FAG rated the decorations in recognition of the contributions of units within the group toward Allied victory in World War II and Korea.

A group parade was held on the Base Parade Ground in honor of the event, which was highlighted by the decoration of the colors by Colonel Wright.

Lt. Col. N. E. Anderson, 2nd FAG executive officer, was narrator for a brief program which pointed out the actions for which the decorations were awarded.

The Presidential Unit Citation was awarded for actions of the First Provisional Rocket Detachment and the 4th Howitzer Battalion of the Fifth Amphibious Corps, which was attached to the 4th Marine Division for the Saipan campaign of World War II. The rocket detachment and howitzer battalion are now batteries of 2nd FAG.

The 4th Marine Division earned the award for heroism in the capture of Saipan during the period of June 15 to Aug. 1, 1944.

"To be awarded the Presidential Unit Citation, a unit must have clearly rendered itself conspicuous by action comparable to that which would merit the Navy Cross to an individual," Lt. Col. Anderson told the group during the ceremonies. "The award is designed to recognize specific acts of heroism on the part of a unit acting as a team," he added.

The Asiatic-Pacific Campaign streamer signifies the participation of Corps artillery units in the Pacific Theater of Operations.

Two engagement stars are affixed to the Asiatic-Pacific streamer. One star was awarded for the participation of the 2nd 155mm Howitzer Battalion in the capture and occupation of Saipan and Guam in the Marianas operation from June 20 to Aug. 15, 1944.

Three Marine Gens. Get Station Change

New assignments for Marine Brig. Gens. John P. Condon, Robert E. Cushman Jr., and Odell M. Conoley were announced last week by Headquarters Marine Corps. The new assignments will be effected during the spring of 1961.

General Condon, now Deputy J-3, U. S. European Command, Paris, France, will replace Maj. Gen. Ayrer R. Kier as commanding general, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing in the Far East. General Conoley, present Assistant Division Commander, 2d Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, N. C., will relieve General Condon in Europe.

General Cushman, who is serving at Headquarters Marine Corps, in Washington, D. C. will succeed Brig. Gen. Thomas J. Riley, as Assistant Division Commander, 3rd Marine Division in the Far East.

New assignments for Generals Kier and Riley have not yet been announced.

Commandant's Christmas Message

The Christmas season is filled with promise. It is a joyful, eager time for children. For adults, it is a special time when well-loved customs and fundamental beliefs are reaffirmed. It is a time of gratitude, compassion, hope and faith. Gratitude for the many blessings bestowed on our Nation. Compassion for the less fortunate. Hope for a better world of peace and justice. Faith in our continuing ability to defend our precious birthright.

The promise of the Christmas season is in the story of the birth of Christ. It is a covenant of brotherhood and universal peace. It can be fulfilled only when ideals of human dignity and freedom are accepted throughout the world. These ideals are the heritage of the free world. They are the ideals for which America stands. They are the precious ways of human life which Marines are ready to defend.

As Christmas of 1960 renews the age-old promise to men of good will, may every Marine, wherever he may be, find his resolution strengthened to serve Country and Corps and to defend our precious inheritance of freedom.

To each Marine and to all those whom he holds dear, I wish a very Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

... That none shall know tyranny or oppression

If You Ask Me:

WHAT ARE YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS?

LCPL. RAY EUGENE PHILLIPS, Support

Co. "A," Hq. Bn., MCB — I intend to train harder this year for my upcoming fights with deep devotion to the purpose of the training, striving for the best possible satisfaction in boxing. I've been boxing for only three years. Each year I've got to reach and try for more. I don't usually make resolutions since I usually break them, but this ambition is more than just resolving to do something. I feel I've got to attain the goal I set for myself. Besides this, I enjoy doing it. One thing I seem to say every year, I will refrain from foul language. Sometimes it's hard, but this year I'll try extra hard.

SGT. DANIEL J. JEZEWSKI, Military Police Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — I wouldn't want to make any rash promises. I know I wouldn't keep, but I do think the new year is a good time to turn over a new leaf, so to speak, if the individual feels the necessity. Personally, I don't feel the necessity. I'll just try to make the best of everything that comes along, as before. I consider myself quite a happy-go-lucky guy which, I think, is the backbone for all the resolutions I'll ever have to make. Marine Corps life, or life as a civilian should be spent with a "let things come and go" attitude. I'll do my best to have a friendly disposition, an understanding attitude toward people and simply be a decent human being throughout the year and for the remainder of my life.

CPL. THEODORE L. MILLER, "T" Co., H&S Bn., 2nd FSR — New Year's resolutions are a good thing.

Too many people, especially in the service, go through each day with the same thoughts, the same feelings, the same opinions. At the beginning of the new year, a person should more or less meditate, look over the year, plan for the one ahead. Ever since I can remember, I've done this, and was really surprised to realize what a better year I could have spent, if I only thought a little before I acted. 1964 is the year of my discharge. This means I'll perform my duties four times as well at that time than I am now. Being in the service, my actions are directed toward service life, the Marine Corps. I want to never stop being conscious of my duties, my important obligations to myself, to God, and to my country.

PFC VERA M. PETTIT, Woman Marine Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — One of the most important resolutions to me this year has to do with Jan. 12, my 21st birthday. I have always looked forward to the voting age since I believe it should have an important bearing on the manner in which an American citizen, especially a servicewoman, conducts herself. At the age of 21, if a person isn't capable of taking on the responsibilities of being a voter, he should change. I resolve to take maximum interest, or try to, in voting. I want to go into this privilege with an open but full mind. Another important resolution deals with my work at Food Service. I'm only a private first class, but I want to show my capabilities and feel a sense of accomplishment in everything I do at the end of every working day.

Strong Men Know The Meaning Of Christmas

Christmas is the time of year when Americans of the Christian faith renew their faith and pray for peace for all the people of the world. Like all great religious holidays, it is marked by feasting and gift giving and a feeling of goodwill to our fellow men.

But good feelings are not enough to insure peace in our world. We learn at an early age that "Heaven ne'er helps the men who will not act." There are strong and weak people in every society, in every race and in every nation. There are men and women who, through necessity and a feeling of duty, carry a heavier load in order to protect and help those less strong.

In our world, the United States has taken on its share of the world's burdens. In order to insure the peace, we maintain a large military force as a deterrent to anyone seeking to enslave the rest of the world.

During the Christmas season we traditionally relax and our enemies know this. Some of us, because of this, can never relax. We must be ready at all times, regardless of how much we would rather be with our families and loved ones.

There is good reason for this. Patrick Henry said, "Is life so dear or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?" Our answer throughout our history has been a resounding "No." While we seek peace, we must also insure it by remaining strong.

During this season, when we traditionally pray for peace, let us also ask the Almighty for the courage and strength to protect that peace, our country and our people. It is only because we have the strength that we have kept the peace, uneasy though it may be. As Marines, we know we will face our country's enemies first. We also know, regardless of our faith, that Marines have always pledged their faith in the Almighty and then gone out to do battle with our enemy.

In wishing each of you a Merry Christmas, we also ask you to remember your responsibility to your country and your people. Keep yourself fit and ready so that we may continue to have a Merry Christmas in the future.

Chaplain's Corner

As I sit in my office or walk in the area snatches of conversation can be heard—often interspersed with what has come to be known as "four-letter words." Few such additions make much sense—adding only a negative quality. In fact, plainly speaking, such a vocabulary even for expression of anger and disgust is extremely limited: only a few of the "experts" of this type of language do a "good job" of expression.

No matter how much we are criticized for the use of such words by our officers, NCO's, parents and even girl friends, the words slip out, largely not meaning to use them at such times, when they are "overheard"; yet as often happens, cuss words become habits. As a small boy, I remember the extensive "vocabulary" of one neighbor, vivid indeed, every other word was a cuss word (incidentally not limited to four letters). More recently a rather embarrassed Marine in talking to me discovered his conversation was similar except for only one cuss word used over and over.

The question comes if we are to be limited to four-letter words, what about some others such as love, good, glad, etc.

Four-letter words are but a part of our speech, limited in expression and usage, showing the kind of person we are. As our Lord Jesus Christ once said, "Don't swear, whatever you have to say, let your yes be a plain yes." This concern is with oaths and promises—but just as well applies to everyday speech for each of us.

—James D. Marrs,
Tenth Marines.

Christmas is an appropriate time to review some of the highlights of President Eisenhower's People-to-People Program during 1960:

Chief Petty Officer Francis G. Grandbois gave his savings of $9,400 to help build a nursery for the children of Chinese workers. Today, Formosa's Grandbois Memorial Nursery stands as a monument to the chief's personal dedication to the People-to-People Program. The Formosan Chinese, in turn, held Grandbois in such affection that when he completed his original two-year tour there, he was granted an extension of an additional two years at the request of Gen. Lo Yu-Lun, Commandant of the Chinese Marine Corps. His many accomplishments, of which the nursery was only one, he dismisses as "one of my obligations to mankind."

A seven-year-old Filipino girl can now speak clearly due to the generosity of a U. S. Marine at the Olongapo Naval Base. Bringing her to the attention of specialists at the North General Hospital in Manila led to an operation which enabled her for the first time in her life to talk clearly.

When A/1C Richard Major, a 20-year-old American stationed at Chikikawa Air Base, decided he wanted to learn something about Japanese farming last summer he wrote an appeal to a local newspaper. The airman used part of his 30-day leave to live and work on a five-acre farm owned by Takeichi Suzuki, a member of the Chikikawa City Council. While on the job he did every chore on the farm and he followed the same schedule and lived as one of the family.

JUNGLE CAT
A Walt Disney True-Life Adventure depicting the life and habits of the jaguar who reigns as king of the beasts in the jungles of Brazil. (Color, 107 min.)

THE STORY OF RUTH
Ziva Rodan stars in this idealistic version of the beautiful Bible story. (Color, 130 min.)

THE SHAKEDOWN
A swiftly paced, suspenseful British film with a cops-and-robbers theme, yet which avoids most of the cliches usually found in this type of melodrama. Terence Morgan and Hazel Court star. (68 min.)

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN
Adapted from a Japanese picture of a couple of seasons back called "The Seven Samurai," this film tells an interesting and intriguing story of a Mexican village which was afforded protection from marauding bandits by a band of seven fighting men. Shot entirely in black and white, "The Magnificent Seven" is an exceptional western. Yul Brynner, in an unusual role, Steve McQueen, Eli Wallace and newcomer Horst Buchholz lead an all-star cast in making this film one of the great western sagas of the year. (Color, 126 min.)

VOODOO WOMAN AND UNDEAD
A double-bill horror combination. In the first film, Voodoo rites, strange native ceremonies and monstrous creatures give the story its name. In the second, a strange concoction of hypnotism and the supernatural is seen. Maria English and Tom Conway star in the first show. Pam-Tula Duncan and Richard Garland in the second. (75 min for the first; 72 for the second.)

NOWHERE TO GO
George Nader and Maggie Smith star in this British suspense drama about a man who will risk anything for a sack of money. (68 min.)

WHERE THE HOT WINDS BLOW
A story about romance and all its agonies with a Sicilian background. Gina Lollobrigida stars. (122 min.)

PLEASE TURN OVER
A bubbling burlesque on popular best sellers. The plot involves a teen-age English authoress who uses her respectable family as characters for her eyebrow-raising novel. The film is given extra lift by depicting the girl's family both as they really are and how she portrays them in her novel. (94 min.)

THE ANGEL WORE RED
A national melodrama set in Spain during the Civil War of 1936-39. The story is rather off-beat and contains a generous portion of romance, violence and idealism. Dick Bogarde, Ava Gardner and Joseph Cotten star. (107 min.)

KEY WITNESS
Jeffrey Hunter and Pat Crowley star in this story about a family that is subjected to a series of brutal intimidations because the father of the family has agreed to testify against a murderer in court. A capable, youthful cast helps to make the film frighteningly real. (61 min.)

THE SWORD AND THE DRAGON
A color adventure with a massive cast. (98 min.)

ELMER GANTTRY
A powerful, hard-hitting, eleven savage in some aspects—translation of Sinclair Lewis' novel. Burt Lancaster portrays an opportunistic, unscrupulous preacher who finds his own faith too tame for him and becomes a revivalist as an outlet of his talents. Dean Jagger, Dean Jagger, Arthur Kennedy, Shirley Jones and Patricia Page lead support. (Color, 164 min.)

THE PAJAMA GAME
Doris Day at her musical comedy best plays a labor union leader in a pajama factory. John Ratt portrays the factory superintendent who experiences both love and labor problems with her. Ratt and the rest of the cast starred in the Broadway show by the same name. (Color, 111 min.)

STUDS LONIGAN
Christopher Knight takes the role of a sensitive and impressionable youth subjected to a hard environment of Chicago's South Side during the bitter extremes of the 1920's and early 1930's. The story is taken from James M. Farrell's best selling novel of the depressive years. (103 min.)

YUL BRYNNER, NOEL COWARD AND MITZI GAYNOR team up in this comedy broadly streaked with satire and whimsy about a racketeer boss who has been deported to his native land, and to make ends meet plans to steal a disposed king's royal crown. (108 min.)

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN
The Three Stooges commit mayhem—what else? (66 min.)

BREATH OF A SANDAL
Sophia Loren plays an Austro-Hungarian princess who although pledged to wed a foreign prince falls in love with an American businessman, played by John Gavin. The scandal consists of Miss Loren's romantic carryings-on with Gavin which actually are innocent. Maurice Chevalier and Angela Lansbury lend support. (106 min.)

ALL THE FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS
The story of four young people—two of them brother and sister—who become deeply enmeshed in the complexities of life as a result of being improperly prepared for adolescence by their respective parents. Robert Wagner, Natalie Wood, Susan Kohner, George Hamilton and Pearl Bailey star. (130 min.)

SECRETS OF THE PURPLE REEF
Filmed in the Caribbean, the story concerns two brothers, Jeff Richards and Richard Chamberlain who, following the death of their father, attempt to solve the disappearance of their family's boat, the claim for which the insurance company refuses to honor. (68 min.)

ANDY HARDY COMES HOME
Mickey Rooney starred as a pre-World War II teen-ager in an earlier brand of this series. Now Mickey, some 20 years older, plays Andy Hardy, Sr., and his real-life son, Pat, plays Andy, Jr. But the plot is still the same. (88 min.)

Covington Band Carries On Tommy Dorsey Reputation

Warren Covington, who fronts the fabulous Tommy Dorsey Orchestra which is appearing New Year's Eve at the Paradise Point Officers Club from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m., is no stranger in the homes of regular viewers. During his 10-year stint on the staff of CBC, Warren and his trombone were conspicuous on all the top programs.

Services For Montford Pt.

From 1946 to 1956, he played the opening theme every week on Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts program. In addition, he played for 10 years with the Perry Como Show, eight years with Ed Sullivan and four years with the Jackie Gleason Show—simultaneously. He is one of TV's most active musicians.

Tommy Dorsey's and Warren Covington's careers center on one great common love—the trombone! In the beginning, Tommy was dead set on becoming the world's foremost trumpet soloist. One night, however, his dad, who was an accomplished musician and an organizer of what used to be called "brass bands" back in Mahoning Plain, Pa., asked Tommy to fill in for a failing trombonist, and it was love at first note.

Warren Covington's first musical training was also on the trumpet, but when he joined his high school band he found no instruments available but trombones. He picked one up, and has had a firm grip on it ever since.

Tommy Dorsey was the first bandleader in the country to use the trombone as a solo instrument. Before Dorsey's time the "slush pump," as it has been dubbed by musicians, was just a brass musical instrument used for sounding "oom-pah-pahs" and keeping the beat in time. The trombone is said to be one of the hardest musical instruments to play.

As the show drew to a close 1st Lts. W. M. Bush and N. Houston, both members of the Marine Helicopter Squadron-263 of Marine Air Group-26, New River Air Facility, brought Santa direct from his North Pole workshop to the Lejeune Field House. The "Santa bearing copter" landed at the north end of the Field House traffic circle. The children appeared delighted and not at all disturbed by Santa's modern mode of transportation.

As the children left the Goettge Memorial Field House, 12 Woman Marines, acting as Santa's helpers, passed out approximately 2800 stockings filled with presents of candy, fruits, and nuts. Four thousand stockings had been prepared for the Christmas shows. Some were given to the Naval Hospital for their show earlier that morning and what remained after the Field House party was turned over to the Jacksonville American Legion for distribution.

Customs For Celebrating Christmas Vary In Nations

By JANE LOBELL
(Age 13)

Wherever Christians may be found they gather with their friends and neighbors to celebrate the birth of the Savior, Jesus Christ. This holiday is celebrated in many different ways depending upon the country.

In the Netherlands, instead of leaving something for St. Nicholas, they fill their wooden shoes with straw for his white horse. They then go to bed hoping to find candy and gifts where the straw was.

In the Slavic countries children like to sleep on a bed of hay or straw on Christmas Eve to share in the birth of Jesus because He had straw to sleep on.

A row of stockings hung by the fireplace, waiting to be filled by Father Christmas could be found in most English homes on Christmas Eve. The day after Christmas is known as Boxing Day. On this day gifts are given to the milkman, mailman, paperboy and all those who serve throughout the year.

In Switzerland, young people going to midnight mass stop by at the nine fountains and take a sip from each. If this is done it is believed your future husband or wife will be waiting for you at the church door. At midnight, it is believed the animals speak and kneel in honor of Jesus.

Italy has a lady Santa called La Befana!

The pinata of Central America is an earthenware jug filled with candy and hung by a rope from the ceiling. Each child, blindfolded, is allowed three chances with a bat to break it. The lucky one who breaks it is considered a hero. The candy is shared by all.

When young people visit each other's houses on Christmas Eve they mysteriously creep up to the house with a shotgun. This is supposed to scare away all the witches, for this is the season of the witches in Norway.

Yet, amidst all of this the real reason is not forgotten. "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, Which Is Christ the Lord" (Luke 2:11).

Christmas Tourney Begins Wednesday

Winner of the second game, second afternoon, will play the third afternoon for fourth place, while the first game of the final afternoon's action will decide seventh and eighth place during the event. During the initial day's action, the Champion Camp Lejeune quintet will oppose the Catawba "Indians" during the final game of the evening. In other pairings for the evening, the "Fighting Christians" of Elon College will play the Pikeville "Bears" at 1:30; Georgia Southern meets the University of West Virginia Tech, 111-103 for Baltimore "Bees" at 3:30 and the Concord "Eagles" of Carson-Newman College prior to the Lejeune contest at 7 p.m.

With two of the entrants for this year's event fully aware of Lejeune's scoring efforts of last year, competition is expected to be high for the holiday honors.

Camp Lejeune, Elon College and the University of Baltimore round out those returning quintets.

During last year's tourney Camp Lejeune defeated Baltimore, 83-75, and downed Elon, 89-74, before edgthe tournament title.

Lejeune's Art Andreoli, MVP of the tournament, led Marines over West Virginia, 29 points in the final contest, in three games the former Cross Cager totaled 83 points, high honors in that department

Locals Ready For Three-Day Cage Classic

Camp Lejeune's "red hot" basketball team will defend their 1959 championship during the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament, beginning Wednesday.

With high scoring Jack Sullivan leading the way, the local cagers have scored an average of over 100 points per game so far this year.

Sullivan, a member of last year's Olympic quintet, paces the "Marines" in the scoring division with an average of 34 points per game. The 6'4" former star from Mount Saint Mary's College of Washington, D. C., also is the leading rebounder with 116 and is third in assists with 28.

Leading Lejeune in the assists department and following Sullivan in the scoring is 6'2" Jack Whelan. A former Holy Cross cager, Whelan has scored 159 points this season for a record of 12.2 per contest.

Third in rebounds with 101 and fourth in assists with 22, is one of Lejeune's two returnees, Derek Dickinson.

Set Shots

"In his second year with the Lejeune five, and second in assists with 35 is veteran cager Charlie Morrow. A former Drexel Tech star, Morrow is deadly with a set shot from outside the key and has average 8.2 points per game this season. Quick handed and an accurate passer, Morrow spearheads the fast-break attack being utilized by Coach Ira Norfolk this season.

Coach Norfolk will be depending on center, 6'7" Fred Lentz to keep the boards clean for the locals during the classic.

Always a possible starter for the Lejeune quintet is speedster Dick Bailey. Played sparingly in 11 ball games due to an ankle injury, Bailey has 41 per cent of his shots from the floor for a 6.8 point average per game.

Boasting both speed and height in reserve, Coach Norfolk's bench shows: 6'4" Don Avery, who gained college basketball experience at Georgia Southern College, center in this year's tournament, and George Cooney, Glen Sturgill, and Howie Day, all of who have shown speed and excellent shooting ability this year.

Notice

The Emblems, a choral singing group will provide entertainment during half-time and between afternoon and evening games for the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament.

An integral part of the 2nd Marine Division Choir, the Emblems have made numerous appearances at variety shows in the Camp Lejeune area, and are due to appear on TV at the end of the month in Washington, N. C. The group has written many of their own numbers and have been together for about a year. Recently they went to New York City to audition for a recording company.

Joe Losack Voted All-Sea Service End; Teammate Anderson On Second Squad

Lejeune's left end, Joe Losack, was voted to the first string of the 1960 All-Sea Service Gridiron Team, it was announced Friday, by Navy Times. Picking up a berth on the second string was veteran Lejeune halfback, Mel Anderson, who earlier was voted "Most Valuable Player" for Lejeune, during the past season. Service coaches, sportswriters and players, in cooperation with the Navy Times sports department, selected the team. Leading the list center John Yohn. Giant tackle, Art Anderson, and two lightning backs, Billy Martin at half and Al Hall, fullback, represented the Marines of San Diego on the squad.

Also voted to the first string along with Mauldin were teammates, halfback King Dixon and center John Yohn. Giant tackle, Art Anderson, and two lightning backs, Billy Martin at half and Al Hall, fullback, represented the Marines of San Diego on the squad.

Rounding out the first team were: Guard, Bruce McDonald (his third consecutive selection to the team), from Memphis NAS; end, Kyspre Harrell of Newport, R. I.; tackle, John Williams of Pensacola, and guard, Ivan Klepzig of Norfolk.

Lejeune 'Devilpups' Win Fourth Straight

The Camp Lejeune High School Basketball team made it four straight last Friday night with a 36-32 edge over the cagers of Havelock High School.

The Devilpup junior varsity was slaughtered by the Havelock Jayvees 43-19 in the preliminary contest.

David Kelly led the Pups in the possession-type contest with 12 markers, followed by Don Pactow with 10. Lawrence paced Havelock with 12.

The contest was won in the third quarter by the Devilpups, who trailed at halftime, 13-20. Lejeune tallied 15 big markers in the third canto as compared to four for Havelock, to move into the lead by four. Each team followed with eight points in the final period to wrap up the contest for Lejeune.

Eight players entered the scoring column for the Havelock Jayvees with a total of 17 field goals and nine points from the free throw line. LeBlanc paced the Lejeune High School junior varsity with a six-point effort.

Joining Anderson on the second string squad were: QB, Glen Wood of Norfolk; HB, Chuck Covington, Quonset; FB, Bob Marsnall, Quantico; Ends, Marshall Hollingshead of Quantico, and Cotton Smoot of Quonset; tackles, Paul Ward of San Diego, and Don Ernst of Quonset; guards, Vince Pagano of Newport, and Jan Powell of Pensacola, and center, Clark Staples of Norfolk.

End Howard Coughron of Quantico was the only Marine selected to the third All-Sea Service Team.

Veteran

A veteran griddier, Losack played two years of service ball at Quantico before coming to Camp Lejeune. Before two years' experience on the field with the University of Texas, the fine receiver was named All-State Junior College in 1954 while playing with Wharton County Junior College, Texas.

His play with the Quantico eleven in 1957 and 1958 netted him two All-Marine Team nominations.

Although lacking in college experience, Mel Anderson was considered a stand out in every game played this year. The speedy halfback averaged just under seven yards per carry and gained close to 500 yards for the season. Named frequently by opposing players and coaches, Anderson was close to the first-team finishers.

Second Match Set By Rifle-Pistol Club

Thirty-one participants were on hand in what was termed "a successful match" held by Camp Lejeune's rifle and pistol club, last Thursday.

"It was more than we expected," said club president, MSgt. W. C. France. "We hope there is more for the next one."

A second match is scheduled to be held Jan. 5, in Bldg. 451, beginning at 7 p.m. All military personnel at Lejeune and their dependents over 13 years of age are invited to participate in the match.

Winners of the match were:

Category I—J. D. Stevens, 275; H. E. Itchkawich, 260, and F. Linstead, 218.

Category II—D. V. Collier, 260; P. T. Cummings, 257; A. E. Krueger, 240, and E. H. Torres, 231.

Junior—Ronnie Funk, 221; Richard Funk, 175, and Randy Funk, 170.

Women—Mrs. J. R. Alexander, 177; Mrs. Felty, 160, and Mrs. Cox, 153.

Sullivan Tops Field House Scoring Mark

Top scorer of the Lejeune "Marines," Jack Sullivan, set another record to his string of honors last night which hopes to lengthen during the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament starting here Dec. 28.

A three-day classic, the tournament will feature such teams as Elon and Catawba Colleges of C.; Concord College of West Virginia; Pikeville College of Kentucky; Georgia Southern College Statesboro, Ga.; Carson-Newman College of Tennessee; the University of Baltimore, Md.; and the Camp Lejeune "Marines," defending 1959 champions.

Scoring only 15 tallies in the initial half, Sullivan poured 30 markers through the hoop in the second canto, establishing a new Field House record of 47 points.

The remarkable scoring effort paced the Marines over the Flyers of Langley Air Force Base, 117-74.

Team Effort

Sullivan aided by the spectacular defensive play and accurate passing of his teammates picked up 22 field goals during the record-smashing effort and went three for four on the free-throw line.

The newly established record bettered the old record of 42 by five points. This mark was set during the 1955-56 season by Lejeune's Jack Beck, formerly with South Missouri State Teachers College.

Sullivan joined the Lejeune quintet from Quantico, Va., where after his first season of service ball, he was selected to the All-Marine Team, the Pan American Team, the All-Service Team and the 1959-60 Olympic Team.

Also selected as members of the Olympic squad were such players as Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati and Jerry West of West Virginia.

All-America

From Washington, D. C., the 6'4" court star was named to the High School All-America Team and also the most valuable player in the nation's capital in 1953 while attending St. Anthony's High School.

Sullivan gained his college experience at Mount Saint Mary's College, Washington, D. C., where he broke and re-set numerous scoring records.

Among other laurels attained while in college, he was selected to the Associated Press' first string Small College All-America Squad and also to the third string Big College All-America Team. He was named All-Mason Dixon from 1953-57 and was voted Most Valuable Player in the state of Maryland in 1957.

Eighth Marines Win Christmas Display Contest

Eighth Marines, First Place

Winner of the annual Commanding General's Christmas Decoration competition was announced Tuesday by Lt. Col. F. D. Cortner, chairman of the judging committee.

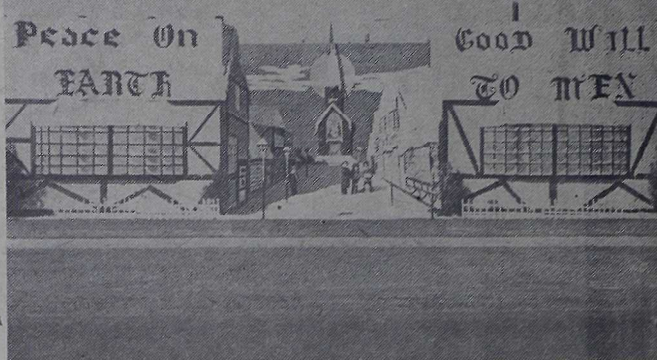

The Commanding General's trophy will be presented to the Eighth Marines, 2nd Division, for its winning display. A medieval cathedral with stained glass windows, crosses, an entrance, and a stone front formed the display, which covered the entire front of the headquarters building.

Slightly to the left of the archway entrance is a reproduction of the nativity scene.

The trophy will be presented tomorrow to Col. V. R. Bisceglia, Eighth Marines commanding officer, and Sgt. Maj. V. J. Pasceus, 3rd Bn., Eighth Marines, by Maj. Gen. R. B. Luckey during a 10 a.m. ceremony in the Base commanding general's office. Representatives of the ASD and 8th Comm. Battalions will be on hand to receive Letters of Commendation for their units.

There were two honorable mentions which, according to the judging committee, were excellent displays. Both honorable mentions were considered to be equal. Eighth Comm. Bn., Force Troops, presented a snowy depth model of Tun Tavern with a church centered in the rear, a choir in front of the tavern, and Christmas greetings in front.

The other honorable mention was offered by ASD Bn., 2nd FSR, showing the three Wise Men approaching the manger scene. Replicas of the Holy Bible, angels and the guiding light rounded out the presentation.

Any unit or organization at Camp Lejeune was eligible for the contest. Each unit was allowed to use recreation funds not to exceed $50 but was not permitted to use any government materials in the construction of its display other than government property or equipment that was not altered in any way.

The most important factor considered by the committee in the selection was day and night effectiveness of the display. Other factors were originality, amount of work represented, location, materials used and appropriateness of theme.

Other members of the judging committee were MSgt. J. L. Clouser, Marine Corps Base, Maj. W. A. Gagne Jr., and Sgt. Maj. R. T. Frizzell, 2nd Division, and Maj. J. R. Hansen and GySgt. J. J. Kilko, Force Troops.

All-Service Marksmanship Competitions Are Planned

Interservice small-arms competitions between all U. S. Armed Services, including the Coast Guard, reserve forces, the National Guard, and ROTC units, are scheduled to be conducted on an annual basis beginning in calendar year 1961. The program has been established as the result of a memorandum of understanding recently signed by the chiefs of four armed services.

In support of the new service-wide competitions, the memorandum noted that "small arms are the basic, personal weapons of every military man and skill in their use increases his confidence, professional capability and versatility."

The military chiefs further agreed that a "growing awareness of these facts has resulted in several interservice small arms competitions which have aroused enthusiasm and a healthy interservice rivalry."

"The importance of fostering continued interest in marksmanship training, thereby increasing the effectiveness of all segments of our Armed Forces, is evident and warrants the continuance of interservice small arms competitions."

The agreement calls for the Air Force to conduct the interservice pistol match; the Navy and Marine Corps to sponsor the rifle competition; and the Army to be responsible for international-type matches.

The small arms competitions will be conducted annually, if practicable, and will be open to members of regular and reserve components of the four military services, the Coast Guard, National Guard of the United States, and to ROTC units.

Cancelled

The Sea Urchins have cancelled all meetings until January 10. Regular meetings will begin after the Christmas-New Year's holidays.

Search Made For Missing Assn. Trophy

Unit publications throughout the Marine Corps are conducting an all-out search for the 3rd Marine Division Combat Marksmanship Trophy which has been misplaced since its first presentation in 1957.

All information available indicates that the trophy has not been competed for since that year. Its disposition after the first presentation is not known. Numerous letters of inquiry from the division have yielded nothing.

In 1957, the Third Marine Division Association procured, through donations from members, and presented the trophy. For identification purposes, the trophy has a wooden base about two feet in diameter surmounted by a silver Caltrap, the insignia of the Third Division, standing approximately 18 inches tall.

Association members are very anxious to locate the trophy in order that it may again be placed in competition between units of the Third Division. It is hoped that former members of the Division who might still be serving at Lejeune would know of its location. Personnel who have access to this information are asked to contact the Association Secretary through the Third Marine Division Association, P. O. Box 7154, San Diego 7, California.

Art Group

The Art Study Group sponsored by Central Library will resume classes in painting and drawing beginning Jan. 3, 1961, if enough people are interested to warrant its continuation. The group will meet each Tuesday at 7:00 o'clock in the Training Room of Building 1403 (Toyland) under the direction of Mrs. Grace Peter.

If you are interested in joining this Group, please register at Central Library, Building 62. Registrants will be notified if the quota is reached and classes are definitely going to be held.

Force Troops Master Sgt. Wins Instruction Contest

A scant 45 points separated the highest scorer from the lowest in the FMFLant Technique of Instruction Competition finals last Tuesday. Total scores of contestants in the last period ranged from 1,250 for high, with a low of only 1,205. The instruction competition is conducted Corps-wide annually and divided into two separate categories, one for staff non-commissioned officers; the other for sergeants and below.

MOS Exams For Next E-4 Test Waived

Dates for GMST testing of eligible E-4's for promotion to sergeant E-5 are Jan. 10 and Feb. 21, according to Marine Corps Order 1418.11.

Sergeants (E-4) and corporals who will have completed 19 months in their current grade by June 30, 1961, will be eligible for testing.

Marines in retraining assignments may be tested if otherwise eligible. Marines administered the GMST in the first testing period of FY 1961 and those who have previously passed the GMST at the E-5 level will not be administered the test during the second period.

The order added that the enlisted testing and promotion system of the Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve is currently under study. Extensive revisions to the current system are anticipated, particularly insofar as testing and promotion to ranks in pay grades E-5 through E-7 are concerned. The FY 1961 Testing Promotion period for pay grade E-4 Marines of the regular establishment can, therefore, be termed as "interim" period. All technical tests will be waived during this interim period.

This interim period will be conducted in two complete phases of testing and promotion. During this interim period, and until cancelled, present provisions except as specifically noted will remain in effect.

Winner in the staff non-commissioned officers' category was MSgt. G. F. Mena of Hq. Co., Force Troops, and in the sergeant and below category Sgt. S. E. Jordan of the 2nd Recon. Bn., 2nd Marine Division, emerged as champion. Other participants in the finals were GySgt. R. G. Kirk, MAG-26, and SSgt. J. A. Towle, Serv. Bn., 2nd Marine Division, in the staff non-commissioned officer division and Cpl. D. L. Blackmer, MAG-14, Cherry Point, N. C., and W. S. Childs of the 8th Comm. Bn., Force Troops, in the sergeant and below class.

Maj. Gen. J. P. Berkeley, 2nd Marine Division commander, presented the winners with travel alarm clocks with engraved gold plates, and congratulated the other contestants on their achievement. Judges for the finals were Lt. Col. L. T. Keagy, 2nd Force Service Regiment, J. F. McMahon Jr., 1st ITR, and H. W. Horst from the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N. C.

This was the first year that finalists did not go to Washington, D. C., for competition in an all East Coast Regional Competition due to a recent cut in travel funds.

Appointments

Beginning tomorrow, the Central Exchange Service Station will operate on an appointment basis for the following services: tune-ups, front-end alignments, wheel balancing, lubrication, washing undercoating and minor mechanical repairs.

All junior officers' wives who are members of the Officers Wives Club are invited. As usual, coffee and donuts will be served.

Arrangements for the occasion

The annual visit of the New Hanover County Garden Council from Wilmington to the hospital was made Monday morning. They brought with them over 100 galaxy wrapped packages which were distributed to patients who will not be home for Christmas. They also brought decorative centerpiece which will be used throughout the hospital during the Christmas holidays. Capt. L. E. Bach, commanding officer, USNH, greeted the group and thanked them in behalf of the patients for their generosity.

Due to its scheduled date conflicting with the presentation of "Morello," the Officers Wives Club talent show, WORLDWIDE '61, has been postponed until early spring.

Rehearsals will be resumed in January.

Mrs. Robert E. Shea, supervisor of the kindergarten, played the role of "Mamma Santa" while gifts and Christmas goodies were distributed among the children.

Wives Clubs Combine For Turkey Shoot

A turkey shoot was held by Headquarters Bn., MCB, and co-sponsored by Group I, Officers Wives Club and the Staff NCO Wives Club of Camp Lejeune last week at the Battalion's recreation area behind the Main Exchange.

The shoot was open to everyone at Camp Lejeune and 300 people participated in the shoot. Targets were sold for $1 each and each person was allowed to shoot one shot at a target approximately 35 yards away using a 12-gauge shotgun and No. 8 shot.

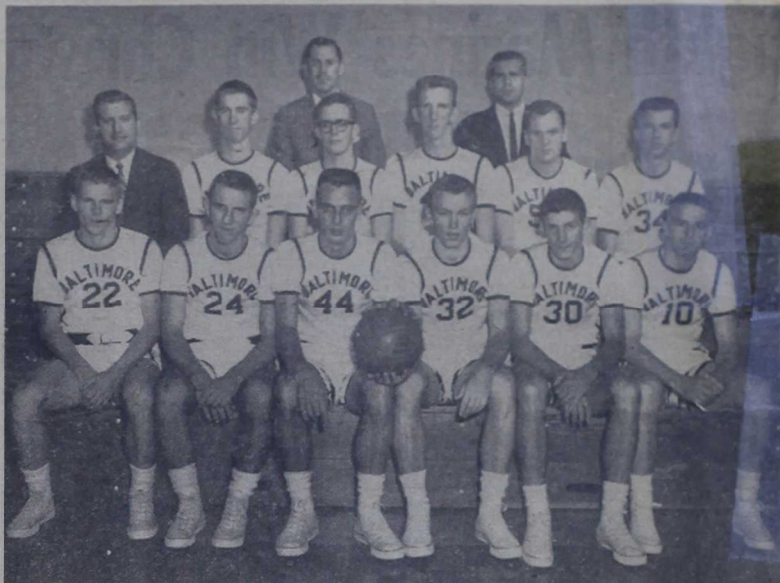

The targets were 8x10½ inches with an "X" in the center. The winner was the target with a shot hole nearest the center of the "X."

Winners of each relay of 10 shooters received a gift certificate for $7.50 at either the Marine Exchange or the Sales Commissary.

Gen. R. B. Luckey, commanding general, Marine Corps Base, fired in the first relay of the shoot and won a gift certificate. General Luckey couldn't believe the judges and measured the target with a pair of calipers and proved that his shot was nearest the "X."

After paying for the ammunition and gift certificates, the two Wives Clubs received $70.86 to be used in the various projects undertaken by the clubs.

A total of 33 certificates were awarded to winners of the 33 relays, 17 to the Marine Exchange and 16 to the Sales Commissary.

Concord, Georgia Southern And Baltimore Complete Christmas Tourney Opposition

(Editor's Note: This is the final article of a two-part series covering the opponents during the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament being held at Camp Lejeune December 28, 29 and 30.)

As the present year rapidly speeds towards its end, the Camp Lejeune-Jacksonville, N. C., basketball fans are eagerly looking forward to the Third Annual Christmas Invitational Tournament. The classic is scheduled to get under way at Goettge Memorial Field House Wednesday, Dec. 28. Game time for the three-day event is 1:30, 3:30, 7 and 9 p.m. daily. Hosted by the defending champion Camp Lejeune Marines, the tournament spectators will see such college quintets as: Elon and Catawba Colleges of North Carolina, Carson-Newman of Tennessee, Concord of West Virginia, Georgia Southern of Georgia and the University of Baltimore.

Finishing fifth during last year's tournament and solid contenders this year are the "Bees" of the University of Baltimore. Competing for the first time last year, Baltimore took a 77-69 win over Western Carolina in the tourney opener, but dropped the following two contests to Camp Lejeune and Atlantic Christian College respectively.

Baltimore "Bees"

Under head mentor Don Newberry, for the third consecutive season the University of Baltimore is one of three returning squads to the tournament this year.

According to advanced reports, two of last year's rookie performers, counted on to give the team good rebounding strength, will be missing from this season's squad. Otherwise the squad is essentially the same as last year's, which finished second in the Northern Division of the Mason-Dixon conference with a 7-5 record.

Once again Jack Bychich, who held an 18.3 scoring average last year, is expected to show the way as the leading scorer. According to coach Newberry, co-captains Hank Majewski and Bill Frantz have the court savvy necessary to give the squad an excellent chance over any opponent.

Although still without an outstanding ball player, the "Bees", because of their accumulated experience will be another team to watch during the holiday classic.

Concord "Mountain Lions"

One of the first year participants during the tournament, relatively little is known as to the strength of the "Lions" of Concord College, West Virginia.

Boasting only two returning lettermen, Concord's squad is filled out by Freshman Kenny Steward and Bob Rhodes and sophomore Rudy Tapia. The returning players are Bernie Hamrick and Johnny Porterfield.

Concord College

BUCK JAMISON

The "Mountain Lions" are coached by Buck Jamison, who is in his fifth year at Concord. Coach Jamison formerly coached Point Pleasant, West Virginia, and South Charleston, W. Va., before assuming his current post.

Georgia Southern

pears from reports to have a well-rounded team which includes an abundance of height.

Averaging well over six feet per player, Georgia Southern will be depending on returning center 6'8" Jim Long to sweep the boards during the tournament, while scoring ability will be sought from senior J. Rowe, also a returnee. Rowe has scored 80 points during Georgia's first four contests for a 20-point average.

Also returning during the 1960-61 season are 6'5" forward, Connie Lewis, playing his second season, and six-foot, guard, Dave Patton, junior from Ashland, Ky.

Division Cage Loop Completes First Half

The 2nd Marine Division Intramural Basketball Leagues have reached the halfway mark with the 3rd Bn., Sixth Marines, leading the One-Star League with a perfect 8-0 slate, and 2nd Bn., Sixth Marines, and Service Battalion sharing the Two-Star lead with 7-1 records.

One-Star leader, 3/6, had an easy week, trouncing winless Motor Transport, 92-52, and later a forfeit win from Medical Battalion. Second place 2/10 fell two games off the pace by dropping a 77-72 decision to Service Battalion in inter-league play.

Later in the week, Service Battalion won from Aanti-Tanks, 78-64, to move into a tie for the Two-Star lead with 2/6. In their only scheduled game, 2/6 defeated Pioneer Battalion, 84-68.

In other games, 4/10 beat Headquarters Battalion, 91-76; 1/10 defeated 1/6, 79-69, and Hq. Bn. took Recon Bn., 78-64.

The second half of Division play will commence on Jan. 12. Two new teams, 1/8 and 3/8, will enter competition while Medical Bn. will drop out.

The Division championship will be settled by a tournament in late February. All teams with a .500 percentage during the regular season will be eligible to compete.
