GLOBE Takes Holiday

In keeping with the established custom of only one issue during the Holiday season, the GLOBE will not be published on Thursday, December 29. Regular publication deadlines will be observed, however, for the issue of December 22. Notices for publication concerning activities planned for the New Years weekend should be submitted in time for placement in the Dec. 22 issue.

Safe Driving Rules Listed For Holidays

It makes no difference where you spend New Year's Eve, State Highway Patrolman Cpl. H. A. Lane told citizens of Onslow County today. Whether you spend it at church in solemn watch night services or at a gay party, make it "watch night" on the streets and highways for sure.

Corporal Lane listed these life-saving rules:

1. Watch carefully for walkers as you drive to and from your evening's destination. Some pedestrians are likely to be under the influence of intoxicants.
2. Watch your self. Don't drive after drinking. Don't speed. Keep a safe distance from other vehicles, so that when you want to stop you won't skid into the car ahead.
3. Watch the highway warning signs, stop signs, traffic lights and pavement markings—and heed them. They are your signs of life.
4. Watch out for the fellow who may not be watching out for you. You may have the safest car on the road. You may have the foresight to put on tire chains if the going's rough, but the other fellow may not have been that wise.
5. When you watch the clock tick off the final hour of 1960—whether you are looking at the clock on your auto dashboard, the clock on a church wall, or the timepiece on your mantle at home—say a short prayer of thanks for having remained alive through this year.

"Careful drivers have a moral responsibility to set good examples in motoring safety under all types of road, weather and traffic conditions. Good examples might shame the careless drivers into driving more carefully," Corporal Lane said.

Inspector General Departs; Commands Get Top Mark

Maj. Gen. James M. Masters Sr., Inspector General of the Marine Corps, and his staff departed here last week after giving all Lejeune-based commands markings of "satisfactory" for the two-week-long inspection. The term, "Satisfactory," is the highest mark adjudged by the Inspector General. Other markings are "Satisfactory, with certain discrepancies noted" and "Unsatisfactory." General Masters and his party arrived here on Nov. 27 for the inspection, which was the first such inspection for the Base since 1958.

Thirteen Lejeune Marines Selected For WO Program

Thirteen Marines at Camp Lejeune have been selected by the Warrant Officer Selection Board to attend the Warrant Officer Screening Course at Quantico, Va., according to a report received this week from Headquarters Marine Corps. Two men from Marine Corps Base were selected. They are

Allied Officers Visit Training Units Here

Twenty-four officers from nine of the United States allied countries visited Camp Lejeune yesterday to observe training of Marines in the 2nd Division, Infantry Training Regiment, and the Marine Corps Engineer Schools.

The itinerary for Wednesday consisted of a briefing on the activities of the Marine Corps Base by the MCB Staff, a presentation a Verona Loop by the Infantry Training Regiment and a night firing demonstration by ITR.

The group of allied officers were from the Nationalist Chinese Marine Corps, Korean Republic Marine Corps, Thailand Navy, Indonesian Marine Corps, British Royal Marines, Canadian Army, Argentine Marine Corps, Haitian Marine Corps, and the Vietnamese Marine Corps.

SSgt. Martin Kusturin and SSgt. Forrest N. Varn. Representing the 2nd Division in the warrant selections were SSgt. William T. Moore Jr., Sgt. Stanley C. Skrobialowski, Sgt. Norbert J. Nowicki, Sgt. Clyde M. Simmons, Sgt. John J. Marnon and Sgt. Clarke J. Simcox.

Force Troops were represented by five men selected for the warrant program. They are GySgt. James W. Thomason, GySgt. Joseph J. Dzielski, SSgt. Robert H. Hart, Sgt. Ivan R. Sable and Sgt. Paul McCoy.

According to Marine Corps Order 1040.14, applicants for warrant officer status can request this status in 51 MOS's listed in enclosure to the order.

No previous training or experience is necessary for assignment to one of these specialties, the only essential quality required is that the individual have an aptitude in a broad channel leading to effective performance in a specialist

(See WO PROGRAM, Page 10)

In critiques which followed the completion of inspection at each command, the inspectors pointed out discrepancies noted and called attention to outstanding units and activities here.

Although some discrepancies were noticed, a number of "very bright spots" were found. Most of the Staff NCO's inspected presented a highly creditable appearance. Particularly noteworthy were the high standards maintained by the Staff NCOs of the Supply Schools.

Discrepancies noted most frequently were rifle accessories missing from the butt wells, bayonets not fitting properly on rifles, dress shoes shined with black polish or dyed black and a few personnel appeared unfamiliar with the proper execution of the command, "stack arms."

Support Company "B", Headquarters Bn., according to the inspection team, was especially well-

Limitation Of Funds Set By Navy Relief

The Navy Relief Society at Camp Lejeune provides assistance to Marines and Navy men and their families when a bona fide need is evident. However, there are limitations to the aid which can be given.

The Society cannot finance business ventures, the purchase of homes or other similar investments. It is not a bank or loan agency and cannot assist in maintaining a standard of living above that of the pay and allowances of a man.

The policies do not permit the Navy Relief Society to finance leaves or liberty except in special emergencies such as critical illness or death in the immediate family. Payment of court fines or furnishing bail for men held by civil authorities cannot be considered a "need" within the meaning of that term in relief work. Also, the Society cannot assist in marriage unless there are mitigating factors which warrant assistance.

Chorister's Memory Perpetuated By Gift

Although the voice of Marine Pfc Rolf Gordon Franks is forever stilled, the memory of the former member of the 2nd Marine Division Chorus will be musically perpetuated.

As a memorial to their son, who died in a traffic accident near Wilmington, N. C., last October, Ambassador and Mrs. S. B. Lacy have presented an upright piano to the Marine choral group. The Honorable Mr. Lacy, a former ambassador to Korea, is now a special assistant to the Secretary of State.

Members of the 2nd Division Chorus remember Pfc Franks as a fine second tenor and an enthusiastic student of music. He took a great deal of pride in being a Marine and he found much satisfaction in belonging to the Marine singing group. He taped several choral presentations and sent them home for his parents' enjoyment.

In addition to the piano, Ambassador Lacy presented gold tie clasps to the four members of the chorus who escorted Pfc Franks' remains home for burial in Arlington National Cemetery.

TIMELY CONVENIENCE—Mr. and Mrs. George Schaudel and their daughter, Caroline, examine one of the Central Exchange Christmas trees displayed by Pfc K. A. Skoczen, for their Tarawa Terrace home. Eighteen hundred Canadian fir trees arrived for sale at the Exchange last Saturday. This is the first shipment of trees ranging in size from five to seven feet and priced from $1 to $1.50. Prize Winner Got His Start With GLOBE

"Once I got a camera in my hands, I knew that was the work for me," says a prize-winning free lance photographer who credits his six-year hitch in the Marines with giving him his start.

Jim Black, whose striking pictures are being exhibited at George Washington University, in Washington, D. C., bought a camera more than three years ago. He bought it out of frustration.

Black at the time was picture editor of the Camp Lejeune N.C., "GLOBE." But, as he tells it, "I wasn't allowed to handle the cameras. I just handled the pictures taken by other people."

Once he acquired a camera of his own and returned to civilian life, Black set about to become a professional. In 1957 his spectacular shot of a football stadium, taken from a 160-foot tower, was reproduced all over the country.

The next year he won "Look" magazine's Sports Photo Award. This year his photos won him four awards from the University of Missouri—and the distinction of a one-man show.

COMMAND CHANGE—Lt. Col. John G. Babashanian, right, assumes command of the 2nd Anti-Tank Battalion and accepts the unit's colors from Lt. Col. J. E. Sundholm in ceremonies held here last week. Division Marines Conduct All-Out Traffic Safety Drive

Second Division Marines are conducting an all-out drive against traffic accidents which have claimed the lives of 11 Marines here to date this year. A specially equipped team of NCO's from the Division Provost Marshal's Office is giving lectures, supported by road tests, designed to prove that the car has never been made that can "stop on a dime." More than 1700 Marines have witnessed the demonstration since the series was started. Every unit in the Division will have the opportunity to participate in the safety lectures before the cycle is completed, according to current plans. This program is augmenting normal safety procedures which are conducted by each battalion in the Division.

The most graphic demonstration takes place when the student drives a test car down a road at a speed of 30 miles per hour. The instructor trips a device fastened to the rear bumper which fires a 22 caliber blank cartridge dipped in yellow paint. The yellow paint makes a smear on the road. When the student hears the report, he stops the car as fast as he can. A second cartridge is automatically triggered the instant the student's foot hits the brake, thus showing the distance travelled from the moment a dangerous situation occurs until the driver actually gets his foot on the brake. Statistics show that this time lag averages three-quarters of a second, in which the automobile travels more than 20 feet.

Distances of from 70 to 100 feet are common before the automobile actually comes to a halt.

SSgt. William S. Bittle says that at speeds of 60 miles per hour, the distance required to bring an auto to a halt is four times as great since the stopping distance squares as the speed of the car doubles. "Naturally, we don't try anything at 60 miles per hour," the sergeant continued, "but 30 miles per hour has proven fast enough to drive home our point—you just cannot stop on a dime."

U. S. Marines have made more than 200 landings on foreign shores in every part of the world during their 180 years of service.

LEGAL NOTICE

Major G. J. Haskins, Base Legal Assistance Officer, advises all military personnel holding policies with the National Automobile Insurance Company of Charleston, West Virginia and the National Automobile Insurance Company of Wilmington, Delaware to contact their unit Legal Assistance Officer. Their present policies are of no benefit whatsoever, since the states of West Virginia and Florida have taken possession of the property and liquidated the business of the subject companies. It is imperative that military personnel insured by either of these two companies obtain other insurance coverage immediately.

Committee Meets To Plan For National Library Week

The first meeting of the committee to plan for observing National Library week locally—with a book fair—was held at the Onslow County Public Library on Thursday, December 8, 1960. Presiding was Mr. Roy Nulton, Jacksonville NLW chairman, who briefed the committee on the purpose of the meeting and presented the agenda.

The fourth annual National Library Week will be April 16-22, 1961, with the Book Fair to be held in Cowell Memorial Auditorium, Jacksonville, N. C.

This joint project of the Onslow

County Public Library and the Central Library of Camp Lejeune will be the second one of its kind in the area.

Mr. Nulton informed the group that the following North Carolina authors had promised to participate in the Book Fair: Manly Wade Wellman of Chapel Hill and Bernice Kelly Harris from Seaboard. Other authors are being contacted. He announced that prizes are to be given for the winners of various contests on the last day of the Fair.

Information about the types of book collections to be arranged include general and special exhibits.

The chairman then appointed the following committees headed by leaders named: Decorating Committee: Miss Hathaway Price of Jane Way's House of Flowers; Music Committee: Mr. Pete MacMillan, chairman; Publicity Committee: Mrs. Jean Shaw, Jacksonville, chairman; Capt. John B. Lippard, Camp Lejeune, chairman; Committee for Printing Materials, Capt. John Ronsvalle; School Committee: Mr. George C. Ezzard, Camp Lejeune, chairman, Mrs. Louis Brown, Jacksonville.

A February meeting is to be conducted by Col. A. F. Lucas, co-chairman, who announced that the next meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 2, 1961, 7:30 p.m., in the Onslow County Public Library.

Committee members attending the meeting were: Mr. Willie E. Miller, Mrs. Ebon Barfield, Miss Marguerite Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ezzard, Mr. Wayne B. Roberts, Capt. John Ronsvalle, Mrs. Margaret Atkins, Mrs. Joyce Jungmans, Chaplain Watts, Don Kantor, Mrs. Barbara Evans, Sgt. Tom Donaldson, Mrs. Maxine Perine, Mrs. Walter H. Shaw, Mr. Michael A. Califano, Mrs. Velma B. Hurst, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Isham Hudson, and Mrs. Alexzenia Galt of the Central Library.

Serving as advisors for the meeting were: Lt. Col. L. M. Rogers; Miss Adelaide McLarty, Onslow County Public Librarian, and Miss Louise Rowe and Mrs. R. G. Turnage, Librarians at Central Library.

SUDSY STUFF—Testing for her TV "Arabian Nights" show, cute Janef Blair experimented daintily with a milk bath. If took a wind machine to whip the stuff into a skin-caressing froth that any harem favorite would have relished.

Quad-Command Highlights

LEAN-UP TIME—Pfc D. L. Morgan, left, and Pvt. G. T. Lane, 2nd Bridge Co., Force Troops, FMFLant, are shown working on one of the many pieces of equipment belonging to the company. The company is currently in the midst of its yearly program of sand blasting and painting all major items of equipment. Though equipment maintenance is a year-round procedure, once each year the company carries out a major reconditioning program such as that in which it is now engaged, in order to maintain its combat readiness.

OUTSTANDING GRAD—Pfc H. C. Mitchell, H&S Co., Force Troops, receives his diploma from Lt. Col. J. P. Treadwell, commanding officer of the 2nd Amphibious Tractor Bn., Force Troops, during the battalion's LVT School graduation ceremonies recently. Lt. P. M. Mackin, on the right, officer in charge of the school, views the presentation. Pfc Mitchell was the highest ranking graduate of the 58 candidates enrolled in the school, with an average of 99.12.

Tommy Dorsey Orchestra Stars Warren Covington

Unlike the ordinary "boy makes good" story, the decision to place the baton of the great Tommy Dorsey into the hand of the young, handsome and talented Warren Covington was not the fulfillment of a childhood dream. Rather it was a logical reward for achievement, designed to insure the preservation of the never-to-be-forgotten music of "the sentimental gentleman" Tommy Dorsey, whose orchestra under the direction of Warren Covington will be appearing New Year's Eve at the Paradise Point Officers Club.

Warren Covington happily relinquished his position at the helm of the deservedly popular Commanders Orchestra to accept this challenge of even greater honor and responsibility which his artistry has earned for him, that of perpetuating for the world the magnificent Tommy Dorsey music.

As a musician, Warren's brilliant trombone work has been featured with some of America's top bands, including Horace Heidt, Gene Krupa, Les Brown and Ray Block. Also Steve Allen, Ed Sullivan, Perry Como and Arthur Godfrey, to name a few, are keenly aware of Warren's ability, his having performed on their top radio and TV shows in the past few years.

As a singer, Warren has run the gamut from the church choir in his home town of Philadelphia to his own radio show, "Covington Sings." And as an outstanding teacher, Warren has enjoyed the gratifying experience of seeing virtually all of his students graduate to top positions with name bands.

Warren's great personality and talent, when combined with the music of "the sentimental gentleman" assures great success to the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra starring Warren Covington.

MISS POLAROID

Miss Polaroid will again be the feature attraction at the Camera Department in the Central Exchange on Saturday, Dec. 17. She will demonstrate and explain the function of the all-new polaroid camera. She will also photograph various children with Santa Claus.

OFFICERS' CARDS

A bulletin board for Christmas cards will be available in the lobby of the Paradise Point Officers Club for those officers and dependents desiring to use it in lieu of sending cards to others on the Base.

SHOE TEST—Nearly surrounded by hundreds of boots recently field-tested by men of the 2nd Marine Division, Cpl. Amon B. Vaughn, left, Sgt. Raymond L. Ruby, and Cpl. Hugh M. Lonergan, right, compare an Army experimental boot, a new Marine Corps combat boot, and the foot-wear currently used by Marine field units. During the four-month test, each of the above described boots and a field shoe currently worn by Army troops were tested for 30 days by men in the 3rd Bn., Second Marines. Although it was not revealed which boot was determined best suited for the rugged work of a foot soldier, Marines in the test unit counted the whole thing a huge success. The tested footwear became the personal property of the men who wore it during the test. (Photo by Cpl. T. J. Reddy)

Farewell To Squad Drill; Parting Brings No Sorrow

Hail and farewell! The Squad's Drill, like the dinosaur, has once again been relegated to the swamps of the past. Hail, sweet LPM, that simple drill of tactical nature which even the raw recruit can master.

Farewell, drill of the past, where massed manpower meant massed firepower, and Frederick and Napoleon swelled happily as the nameless soldiery of history went "on front into line" for now half-remembered battles.

Hail, free swinging LPM. Confuse us now with flanks and rears and "Without a pause, Halt." Give us a happy beat to the slap of palms on sling, grounded butt, and "To the winds, March."

Let the 21-count manual return to the sharp platoon and caution the salty stamp when given "To the rear, March." Happy, the normal arm's interval with its breathing and marching room and a strong cadence, steady and strange.

The dress is right and the drill is right and the voice of the eight-man squad will not be raised in the land of the Marine—at least "not for three years and 16 days."

Hail and farewell! Welcome, LPM.

Repeat Editorials Initiate Thought

Someone remarked recently about the "sameness" of GLOBE editorials. What they would like to see, the speaker said, was an editorial on a controversial subject. On the surface this appeared to be a legitimate complaint, but actually it isn't.

Controversy, according to Webster's New Collegiate dictionary, is "a discussion of a controverted matter or controversial issue; dispute, debate; sometimes, quarrel; strife."

We feel few things are more controversial, especially in the barracks, after a Marine has been reduced in rank or received other punishment for breaking a regulation. We also feel, unfortunately, the need to belabor the "same" subjects again and again in editorials.

When a Marine fails in his duty in any respect, another Marine has to take action. In many cases it means the loss of rank and pay for the accused, and lost manhours for the Marine Corps. It also means that while one man is being tried, another has to do his work. And, it also means, that perhaps the GLOBE didn't run the "same" editorial often enough.

"Why keep harping on policing up the Base and saluting and all that?" is a common query. The GLOBE "harps" on these subjects for the same reason that city, county, state and the national government constantly "harp" on safe driving practices. Every driver knows it is wrong to speed or drink while driving but it doesn't stop accidents from those causes. By the same token, every Marine knows it is against regulations to litter the Base or to fail to observe proper military procedures.

A GLOBE editorial is a reminder when we begin to slip a little. We try, uncontroversially, to tell each Marine when these situations arise again and hope that each Marine will be governed accordingly.

Library News

New Books

These books are available at the Central Library, Bldg. 62, or through request from area branches at Montford Point, Courthouse Bay, Rifle Range and the Tenth Marines. Books may be reserved by telephone.

GUIDE FOR THE MILITARY WRITER by John W. Gause is a basic tool kit which discusses letter writing, the staff paper, training literature, special editing, the information officer and writing for cash.

THE CHANGING MIDDLE EAST by Emil Lengyel is a comprehensive view of an explosive area and its role in the world.

TRAGEDY AT HONDA by Charles A. Lockwood and Hans Christian Adamson is the story of the nine U. S. destroyers which followed their leader blindly through blinding fog onto the rockbound California coast—and of the heroism of their crews.

Chaplain's Corner

One of the most objectionable features of military life is its transient character and general instability. We often hesitate to put down any roots because we know that sooner or later orders will come through. Then we must break all connections, leave friends and acquaintances, pack our goods and head for another part of the country or another part of the world.

Many of us live in fear of the day when this will be our lot in military service. We move to a new station. We wait for housing to open up, and while we are waiting, we behave much as the inhabitants of Jerusalem who were taken captive into Babylon. They hung their harps on the willow trees by the river Chebar and refused to sing. They asked, "How can we sing unto the Lord in a strange land?" They, too, were separated from homeland, from friends and family, and they had left their worship of God behind.

This is often the case with those of us in the military. We hesitate to take part in the chapel program or in the local church until we get housing on the base or until we get more settled. Thus, we live a few years here and a few years there; never settled; never happy, because we don't really belong.

However, if we take our religion and our worship of God with us wherever we go, if we enter into the chapel program, our lives can be pleasant and satisfying. It has been said that the busy man is a happy man. We are busiest and happiest when we are at work in the kingdom of our Lord.

Chaplain, MCB.

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii—Submarines of the Pacific Fleet paid solemn tribute to the 52 submarines and more than 3,500 men aboard them who were casualties in WWII.

They dedicated the nation's only Submarine Memorial, an impressive 52 by 9 foot monument adorned with golden bronze, copper-plated with plaques commemorating the men who gave their lives to the "Silent Service."

The commander of the Pacific Fleet's Submarine Force, Rear Adm. Roy S. Benson, in his dedicatory address-praised the memory of these men, many of whom he had served with during the war. Leis were placed around the plaques, the first decorating the S-12, lost in January, 1942, one month after the war began.

Among the special guests at the ceremony was CPO Robert J. Cornelius, now retired. Cornelius, early last year, conceived the idea of the Submarine Memorial.

If You Ask Me:

WHAT OVERSEAS STATION WOULD YOU LIKE AND WHY?

PVT. FRANCIS McGRATH, "K" Co., 2nd Bn., ITR — If I could take my choice I think I would like to be stationed at Hawaii.

The reason is I am interested in electronics and would like to graduate from the electronics school there. My brother, who is in the Army, was stationed there and went through this particular school. He said that it was a great school and gave him much valuable experience. Before enlisting in the Corps I worked in the electronics field with my father who is attached to an electronics concern. I plan to follow this field while in the Corps and after my first enlistment if I decide to leave the service, to continue in this direction in civilian life.

PVT. DONALD MUNERA, "K" Co., 2nd Bn., ITR — In answer to this question I would have to say, Puerto Rico. Before coming into the Marine Corps I visited there and spent three months on the island. I have many friends as well as family relations who are still there. It is a beautiful place and I certainly plan to return. I am interested in the field of surveying and some day hope to practice in the island area. My MOS 0800, artillery, offers a basic relationship between the two fields and will help me towards my future goals.

PVT. RALPH W. DELONG, "V" Co., 2nd Bn., ITR — When I enlisted in the Corps I had hoped for an overseas assignment, and the resulting chance to travel in foreign lands. I have heard much from my uncle concerning the Pacific. He was stationed aboard the Arizona when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941. From what he has told me I think that I would like to be stationed at Marine Corps Base, Okinawa. I have many friends in the Corps, one of them now stationed on Okinawa, who say this is outstanding duty. I never had much chance to travel before I came into the Corps and I hope that during my career the service will give me the chance.

PVT. RUSSELL M. VANCE, "A" Co., 1st Bn., ITR — I know I would like to be stationed in Japan. My uncle, who served 20 years with the Navy, spent many years in Japan. He said the sights he had seen would never be forgotten. His time-off duty was always filled with interesting and different sights to see. My home life has also stimulated my interest in Japan, and the Orient as a whole. One of the rooms in our home is completely decorated in Japanese style, and my mother favors things of Japanese origin. Though I am not currently scheduled for duty in Japan I hope that during my enlistment I will have the opportunity to go.

PVT. GARY R. COULSON, "V" Co., 2nd Bn., ITR — My uncle, who was with the Army during World War II, was stationed at Hawaii for two years. He said that it was just great. The island and the people were fascinating, and the local islands all offered varying experiences. While I am in the service I would like to travel as much as I can and see as many different peoples and places as is possible.

AMERICA'S MOST HONORED MUSICAL COMEDY

New Musical About Famed N. Y. Mayor

Fiorello H. La Guardia was mayor of New York City from 1934 through 1945. A short man with great energy and dedication, he delivered the city from the precarious spot in which it had been left by the flamboyant, free-spendng playboy, James J. Walker, the mayor who had swept New York from the wild Prohibition days of the late 1920's, into the sober, austere years of the Depression.

"Fiorello!" will be at the Camp Theater for one performance only on Jan. 12. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased through the Base Special Service Office or the Officers Wives Club. Seats are $3.25, $2.75 and $1.75 and are reserved. The public is invited. Reservations can be made by calling 7-5881.

During LaGuardia's terms in office, new highways were built, and the city played host to the world under the famous Trylon and Perisphere.

In 1945, during a strike affecting the delivery of newspapers, Fiorello provided what was perhaps the greatest public service of all: he appeared regularly on the radio in order to read the funnies to the children of the city.

It is with this sweet memory that the warm new musical "Fiorello!" opens.

FIVE BRANDED WOMEN
A story about five Yugoslavian women who are branded for having fraternized with the Nazis during an occupation of their village in World War II. Based on an unpublished novel by Ugo Pirro, the story gets under way with frank dialogue throughout. (Sylvana Mangano, Barbara Bell Geddes, Van Hoffin and Harry Guardino star, (108 min.)

LES MISERABLES
Michael Rennie and Debra Paget star in this 1950 version of Victor Hugo's famed narrative about the rise of a poverty-stricken Frenchman to fame and fortune, though constantly hounded by his past. (118 min.)

JIM THORPE, ALL-AMERICAN
Burt Lancaster stars as the great Carlisle Indian College football hero. (100 min.)

JUNGLE CAT
A Walt Disney Disney Adventure depicting the life and habits of the jaguar who reigns as king of the beasts in the jungles of Brazil. (Color, 107 min.)

THE STORY OF RUTH
Ziva Rodan stars in this idealistic version of the beautiful Bible story. (Color, 130 min.)

THE SHAKEDOWN
A swifty paced, suspenseful British film with a cops-and-robbers theme, yet which avoids most of the cliches usually found in this type of melodrama. Terence Morgan and Hazel Court star. (88 min.)

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN
Adapted from a Japanese picture of a couple of seasons back called "The Seven Samurai," this film tells an interesting and intriguing story of a Mexican village which was afforded protection from marauding bandits by a band of seven fighting men. Shot entirely in Mexico, "The Magnificent Seven" is an exceptional western. Yul Brynner, in an unusual role, Steve McQueen, Eli Wallace and newcomer Robert Buchholz lead an all-star cast to make this film one of the great western sagas of the year. (Color, 126 min.)

"VOODOO WOMAN" AND "UNDEAD"
A double-bill, this combination. In the first film, Voodoo rites, strange necromancy and monstrous creatures give the story its name. In the second, a strange concoction of hypnosis and the supernatural is seen. Maria English and Tom Conway star in the first show. Pamela Duncan and Richard Gardner star in the second. (75 min for the first; 72 for the second.)

NOWHERE TO GO
George Nader and Maggie Smith star in this British suspense drama about a man who will risk anything for a sack of money. (95 min.)

WHERE THE HOT WINDS BLOW
A story about romance and all its aces with a Sicilian background. Gina Lollobrigida stars. (128 min.)

PLEASE TURN OVER
A bubbling business picture with popular best sellers. The plot involves a teen-ager English authoress, who uses her respectable family as characters for her eyebrow-raising novel. The film is given extra lift by depicting the girl's family both as they really are and how she portrays them in her novel. (84 min.)

THE ANGEL WORE RED
A fictional melodrama set in Spain during the Civil War of 1936-39. The story is rather off-beat and contains a generous portion of romance, violence and death. Dick Barker, Richard Gardner and Joseph Cotton star. (107 min.)

KEY WITNESS
Jeffrey Hunter and Pat Crowley star in this story about a woman who is subjected to a series of brutal intimidations because the father of the family has agreed to testify against a murder suspect. A capable, youthful cast helps to make the film frighteningly real. (81 min.)

THE SWORD AND THE DRAGON

ELMER GANTTRY
A powerful, hard-hitting—even savage in some aspects—translation of Sinclair Lewis' novel. Burt Lancaster portrays an opportunistic, unscrupulous preacher who finds his own faith too tame for him and becomes a revivalist as an outlet of his talents. Jean Simmons, Dean Jagger, Arthur Kennedy, Shirley Jones and Patti Page lend support. (Color, 154 min.)

THE PAJAMA GAME
Doris Day at her musical comedy best plays a labor committee leader in a pajama factory. John Raitt portrays the factory superintendent who experiences both love and labor problems with her. Raitt and the rest of the cast starred in the Broadway show by the same name. (Color, 111 min.)

STUDS LONIGAN
Christopher Knight creates the role

Gala Holidays And Winter Driving

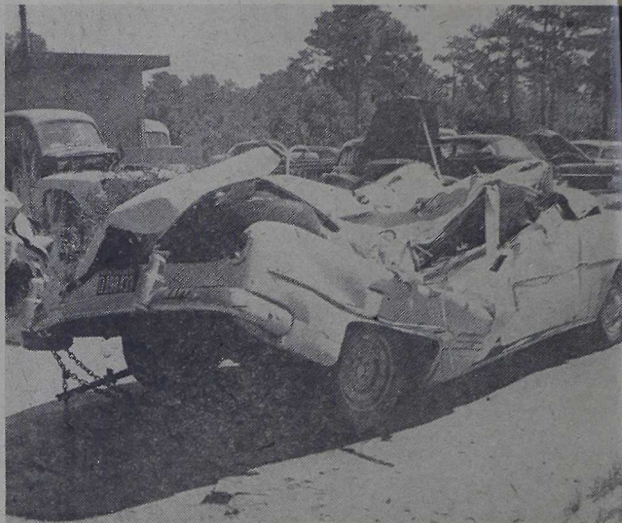

ONE MARINE KILLED

It has been said, "It is better to give than to receive" and this is especially true during the Christmas-New Year's holiday period, when we pause momentarily to take stock of ourselves and look with kindness upon our fellow man. But this holiday period, with the deepest spiritual significance, is the deadliest holiday of all.

Ironically, it achieves this terrible distinction precisely because we want it to be such a wonderful occasion. People will drive long distances for the traditional family reunion, undaunted by the worst weather, too little time, or the unsafe condition of their vehicle.

More travel, especially winter travel, often after dark, at highway speeds means more accidents, unless we the drivers take extra precautions to prevent these accidents from occurring. Speed too fast for conditions, fatigue, alcohol, darkness and pedestrian errors are the biggest contributors to the December traffic toll. Holiday conviviality increases the danger.

Controls are relaxed in an atmosphere of joyous excitement, and there is a let-down in alertness so necessary for the protection of one's own self and the lives of others. This Christmas, give the gift that means so much, the gift of life. Do unto others as you would have others do unto you. Keep Christmas in your driving.

Winter Driving

A University of Wisconsin research professor who has conducted winter driving tests on Wisconsin's ice and snow for the past dozen years has revealed that some winter tire advertisements "get and present misleading information which the majority of consumers stick to."

He calls attention to safety education warning that "advertisers non-skid properties of some of the most costly traffic tie-ups are accidents motorists into taking which they are aware."

He is Prof. Archie, director of the Vehicle Research Laboratory at the University of Wisconsin, who points to research of the National Safety Council on

Lejeune Unit Christmas Display Contest Winners Will Be Announced Next Week

As the Christmas holidays rapidly draw near, Marines throughout Camp Lejeune are drawing upon their artistic and creative talents in preparation for the annual Christmas display contest. The winning unit display will be awarded the Commanding General's Christmas Decoration Trophy.

All units entering the contest must have their displays ready by Dec. 18. Those units entering the competition also must notify the committee chairman of the location of the display and the name of the sponsoring activity. The winner will be announced on Dec. 23.

Lt. Col. F. D. Cortner, Marine Corps Base, has been appointed chairman of the judging committee for this year's contest. Other members of the committee are MSgt. J. L. Clouser, MCB;

Maj. W. A. Gagne Jr. and Sgt. Maj. R. T. Frizzell, 2nd Division, and Maj. J. R. Hansen and Gy-Sgt. J. J. Filko, Force Troops.

Any unit or activity at Camp Lejeune is eligible to enter the contest. Government materials will not be used nor will more than $50 of unit recreation funds be spent for materials used in any Christmas display. These restrictions do not preclude the use of government property or equipment as a part of a display, provided it is not altered in any way.

Last year, a theme from television's "Wagon Train" combined with a pioneer concept, was judged the best display. The 2nd Division's 2nd Pioneer Battalion was awarded the Commanding General's trophy for this display.

The display depicted three covered wagons and snow-capped mountains as a backdrop for a pioneer family clustered around a glowing campfire. Santa Claus could be seen peeking around the end of one wagon. The display was illuminated at night by floodlights.

Second place was awarded to another 2nd Division unit, the 3rd Bn., Second Marines. Support Co. "B," Marine Corps Base, placed third and the Base Headquarters Battalion received an honorable mention.

Lejeune Boxing Smoker

Lewis Martin Scores Second Knockout In Final Evening Of Camp Boxing Smoker

Lewis Martin scored an out-of-the-ring knockout in 1:02 minutes of the second round to highlight the final night of the Camp Lejeune boxing smoker Wednesday night at Goettge Memorial Field House. After a shaky first round which saw Martin in trouble, the winner came through with a smashing right cross to the head of Earl Stone, knocking him through the ropes. Stone returned to the canvas but could not regain his equilibrium to finish the round. Opening the night's action, Ronnie Cooper picked up points to score a unanimous decision over Doug Blankenship in

Sullivan Hits Thirty-Five In Cage Victory

Trailing only one time early in the first period, Camp Lejeune continued in their winning ways, swamping DesLant's basketball squad, 121-80, Monday night at Goettge Memorial Field House.

It was the ninth victory for the local cagers against only two defeats. It also marked the fourth time this year the "Marines" have busted the century mark.

Pumping in 18 points in the first half and 17 in the second, Lejeune's top scoring ace, Jack Sullivan, continued his red-hot pace from the foul line with three for three and a total of 35 points. Following Sullivan's top scoring effort of the night for Lejeune were teammates Bill Pickens and Howie Day with 13 points each.

Hitting nine field goals from the corner and four free throws, Al Smith, 6'3" forward, led the "Destroyers" in the scoring column with a total of 22 points.

Behind one point, 11-10, after the first four minutes, Lejeune opened up a scoring effort, aided by Pickens, Sullivan, Charlie Morrow and Jack Whelan, to move into the lead, 25-11, with 14 minutes remaining in the half. Steadily increasing the deficit, the locals left the floor at the half, leading 66-45.

the 119-pound class, while the second match saw 125-pounder Bill Hyson defeat Raul Santos.

Hynson, scoring well with a long left to the head and body, fought off a second-round effort by Santos to gain the nod from all judges.

Bill Wilson, 139-pounder, floored his opponent early in the first round and again in the second but failed to win by a knockout. James, after taking a count of eight in the first round, was saved by the bell in the second. Wilson again staggered his game opponent with a smashing right as the bell ended the bout.

Knockout

Experienced Bill Weir scored a TKO in one minute and 17 seconds of the first round over John Montgomery in the 147-pound class. After catching Montgomery off guard with an explosive left to the head, Weir followed with a barrage of crushing blows to the head and body before referee Ray Russ ended the match.

Carlos Tapia scored a split decision victory over light heavyweight John Muse. With the second round showing all the action, Tapia opened up Muse's defense with a tremendous short right jab to the jaw. Muse, wobbly and glassy-eyed, was saved by the bell and came on strong in the final round, with the effort falling short.

Following an even first round, Robert Merideth scored slightly in the second and third rounds, pounding out a split decision over heavyweight Bobby Beckett.

In the final bout of the evening, Bill King scored a split decision over 147-pounder Ronnie Sullivan. King, who hit the canvas early in the second round, came back strong in the remainder of the fight to gain the majority nod.

Cagers Top Albany Quintet; Starters See Subs Sparkle

Camp Lejeune took a two-game lead last weekend in the Mythical East Coast Area Championship race with a twin victory over the "Leathernecks" of the Marine Corps Supply Center, Albany, Ga. Led by scoring ace Jack Sullivan with a two-game total of 65 points, the locals won the first game, 99-89, and outscored the visitors in the second contest, 126-109.

Dixon Guides Virginians To Service Title

All doubt has been removed as to who is the Sea Service Champion Grid Team. Quantico smothered San Diego Sunday night, 36-6, during the Leatherneck Bowl.

During the preceding week, Quantico upset Pensacola by the same score to become the first Missile Bowl champions.

In the victory over San Diego, Quantico's King Dixon, former great from University of South Carolina, showed why he was picked as 1959 All-Service Quarterback and is the leading contender for the honor this year, as he paced the Virginians with four touchdowns.

The victory, coupled with their season record against all service teams, substantiates the general agreement that for all practical purposes, they will be the All-Service Champions as well as All-Sea Service, title holders.

Both teams finished the season with a 9-2 ledger. Going into the bowl classic Quantico had an 8-2 record with losses to college teams—Xavier and Detroit.

San Diego was carrying a 9-1 record into the bowl with their only loss coming at the hands of San Diego College, 20-21, snapping a 20-game winning streak.

Late last month Quantico, overcame a third-quarter 15-14 deficit to defeat the Lejeune "Marines", 36-15. Although picking up 136 yards passing against Quantico's 109, Lejeune could only gain 95 yards on the ground compared to 187 by the Champions.

Local Boxers List Schedule Of '61 Season

The 1961 Camp Lejeune "Marines" Boxing schedule was announced last week by Base Special Services.

Showing a listing of 12 service matches on a home-and-home basis, the schedule kicks off January 11 when Fort Campbell of Kentucky travels to Lejeune to face the local fighters at Goettge Memorial Field House.

All home matches will be held at the Field House and will get started at 8:15 p.m.

The only Marine competition the local boxers will face, other than for All-Marine honors, this year will be against Quantico, Va. Lejeune meets Quantico away on Feb. 8 and again at home, March 15.

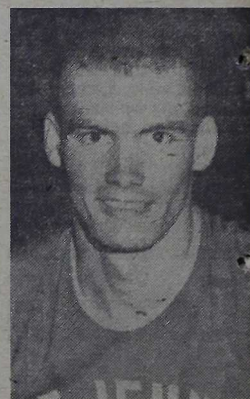

SCHEDULE

January

This year's coastal championship race includes Lejeune, Albany and Quantico. Lejeune will meet Quantico here for a two-game series, Jan. 6 and 7, while the Marine Corps School cagers have not scheduled a game with the "Leathernecks" to date.

During the two-game set, Sullivan with 19 field goals, hit 76 per cent from the free throw line with 17 of 17. Teammate Jack Whelan followed Sullivan in the scoring department of the first game with 16 points, while Bill Pickens and Charlie Morrow aided the cause during the second game with 19 markers each.

Bill Morse was high shooter for the visitors with a total of 59 tallies, 36 coming in the second game. Player-coach Bert Decker of the Leathernecks was high man for the visitors in the initial contest with 25 points and was followed closely by teammates Morse and Ange Cuttaia with 23 each.

Team Effort

Unable to get moving as a team, Lejeune's big, 6'9", Bill Pickens, playing his best game of the season, kept pace with the fast-scoring visitors with seven tallies in the opening minutes of the second game, keeping the score at 7-all.

After obtaining and stretching the lead, the Marines, behind a speedy and talented bench, kept the pressure on during the entire second half to easily coast to their eighth victory—against two defeats.

Accuracy on the foul line is the key words for the Lejeune five as they hit 24 of 32 from the free throw line, while hitting 60 per cent from the floor with 51 baskets of 85 attempts.

Turkey Shoot

It was announced by the President of the Camp Lejeune Archery Club, that an "Archery Turkey Shoot" will be held Sunday, December 18, at the Archery Range.

The range is located adjacent to the Base Skeet Range behind the Drive-In movie.

All Camp Lejeune personnel, both military and civilian, have been invited and are encouraged to take an active part in the "shoot."

The event will feature a shoot for the experts as well as the novice and also for men, women, and children. Winners of the classes will receive a certificate redeemable for a Christmas turkey or other valuable prizes.

Bows and other equipment required will be available for those who do not have their own.

Corporal Flynn's winning photograph was taken at Morehead City, N. C. It was picked over 10 other photographs.

Flynn began his photographic career at Cherry Point, N. C., having been stationed there 14 months prior to reporting to Lejeune.

The photos are judged by CWO-3 J. W. Lilley, Division photographic officer, and MSgt. W. V. Brown, Division-photo chief.

LCPL. F. J. FLYNN

Upon selection for the top shots during the month, including the winning photo and the next best 10, the pictures are mounted and posted in the laboratory's entrance to remain on display for military photographers by MOS, picture hobbyists, or passersby.

Pendleton To Re-Designate Certain Areas

Continuing to draw on the colorful historic Spanish influence in California, officials have designated several new "camps" within the Camp Pendleton complex.

In addition to four proposed installation, several existing training sites have been officially named, according to a recent Base Order.

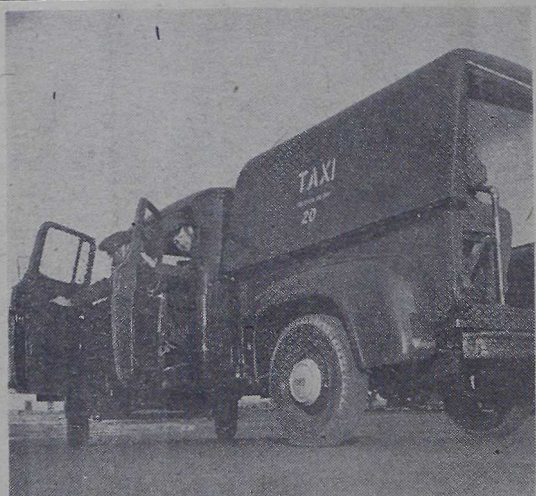

One of the largest of the new camps is the Weapons Training Facility, scheduled to be moved from the present rifle range unit at Camp Matthews rifle range for the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot, during the coming Fiscal Year. To be located in the 31 Area, the recruit training center will be known as Camp Stuart Mesa.

Following recruit training the new Marines move to the 2nd Infantry Training Regiment. Proposed plans call for a new home for ITR in the 34 Area, designated Camp Mesa Loma.

Another phase of the important mission of supplying combat-ready Marines for units throughout the world is handled by Staging Regiment. The 12 Area location of Staging and the Dental Clinic is now entitled Camp Portola.

Also in the planning stage is the new Camp O'Neill, located in the 14 Area. This will house Force Troops units.

New names were also given to several camps previously referred to only by their "Area" designations.

prepared for the inspection and received a satisfactory rating along with the 1st Bn., 1st ITR, who was said to have had one of the best appearing and most complete clothing displays seen by the inspectors.

The inspector general team praised the excellent police and appearance of the barracks and facilities of the Supply Schools and Engineer Schools. The exterior police in the vicinity of the service clubs, snack bars, parking lots and Dempsey Dumpsters throughout the base were said to need more attention.

The Supply Department, Ordnance and Engineering units were also rated "satisfactory". The armory at the rifle range was rated well above normal standards, as was the ammunition section of the Base Materiel Bn.

The organization and efficiency of the Base Post Office was said to be outstanding. All of the postal personnel appeared to be well-instructed in their duties.

The Women Marine Company, according to the team, was rated "satisfactory". The excellent appearance of shoes and ribbons was especially noted.

Generally, the condition of messes was found to be adequate. In the food services area, from January through November, 1960, the Base Veterinarian saved the government over $25,000 on price adjustments, short weight deductions and rejections of food products which failed to meet contract specifications.

The Base was commended on the support safety promotional material and personal protective equipment made available to 2nd Division and Force Troops personnel.

The recreational facilities available to Camp Lejeune Marines were satisfactory and the establishment of the new NCO club received favorable comment.

Division

The 2nd Division was rated as "satisfactory" and capable of carrying out any mission assigned to them.

The inspector general, this year, placed emphasis upon the tactical readiness of units during his inspection of the 2nd Division. In addition to the customary military, administrative and technical inspections the Division was tested regarding its ability to mount out units under emergency conditions and to conduct tactical exercises in the field.

Force Troops

Force Troops units were given satisfactory ratings by the Inspector General on command functioning, leadership, moral guidance, character guidance and the reenlistment rate.

All units were found to be capable of carrying out any assigned mission.

Particular mention was given of the condition of rifle stocks during the personnel inspections which was rated as satisfactory. The supply supervisors received an outstanding rating.

Rules Are Announced For All-Navy Cartoon Contest

The Sixth All-Navy Comic Cartoon Contest is now underway, according to BUPERS Notice 1700 of Nov. 18. Cartoons depicting Navy personnel or activities may be submitted by either Naval personnel or their dependents. Marine Corps personnel are not eligible. Trophies will be awarded by the Chief of Naval Personnel to those persons judged to have submitted the best five cartoons. The cartoons will be published in the Navy's magazine, "All Hands."

Entries must be in black ink on white paper or drawing board, 8 by 10½ in size, and in good taste. On the back of each cartoon the entrant must place his or her name, rank, service number, duty station, home town and newspaper, command recreation fund administrator and a statement of originality.

Naval personnel must include the following signed statement: "All claims to the attached entry are waived and I understand the Department of the Navy may use as desired." For dependents submitting entries, they must indicate who they are a dependent of.

All entries must be submitted to the Chief of Naval Personnel, (Attention: Pers-G11) by March 1, 1961, through organizational chain of command. Entries will not be returned, and become property of the Navy Department.

Cubs Of Pack 190 Set Christmas Party

Cub Scout Pack 190 will hold its annual Christmas Party Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tarawa Terrace School auditorium. The party will take place following a short Pack meeting during which awards will be presented to several of the Cubs.

Featured during the party will be the appearance of Santa Claus, bearing gifts for each of the Cubs. All parents and friends of Scouting are encouraged to attend.

Opening ceremony for the meeting will be presented by Den 14 with Dens 3 and 5 providing refreshments. Den 6 will conduct the closing ceremonies and turn the meeting over to Santa.

WO Program

MOS upon completion of an appropriate technical school.

Expansion of the number of MOS's authorized for assignment to warrant officers eliminates the category of Marine Gunner.

Selectees for the warrant program will attend a warrant officer indoctrination course for a period of 3-4 months and then be assigned to an appropriate technical school for a period up to nine months.

Former officers and commissioned officers who are selected for warrant officer are not required to attend either of these schools.

Annual programs to effect appointments for this program will be announced by separate directive.

PAVILION DANCE

Marston Pavilion will feature a Rock and Roll Band for patrons' dancing pleasure Saturday evening. Participants are asked to wear appropriate bop attire for the evening affair.

George Doener's "Southern Gentlemen" will provide the music for a New Year's Eve dance, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Hats and noisemakers will be furnished. Baby-sitting service will be available for those desiring it at Midway Park.

De Payola, Robert Ng, Stanley Bremer, Vernon Marshburn; third row, Mars K. Booth, Harold Wood. Also named as winners but not present were Hazel Lockamy and Earl Tyndall. The club's annual banquet was held last Friday night at the Southernaire Restaurant, Sneads Ferry. Col. and Mrs. Richard D. Strickler, Special Services Officer, Marine Corps Base, were guests of honor.

MCB Captain Submits Top Safety Slogan

The safety slogan submitted by Capt. E. J. Crampton, 6th AOP, Hq. Co., ASD Bn., 2nd FSR, was selected as the winning slogan of the first week Safety Slogan contest as announced by Base Bulletin 5101 of Dec. 8, 1960.

Captain Crampton's slogan was selected by a Board of Judges appointed by the commanding general, from the 31 slogans submitted. Captain Crampton will receive a $25 Exchange Merchandise Certificate for his winning entry.

The Safety Slogan contest and Safety Cartoon contest was approved by the commanding general to emphasize the need for safe driving during the coming holiday season in connection with the off-duty motor vehicle accident prevention program.

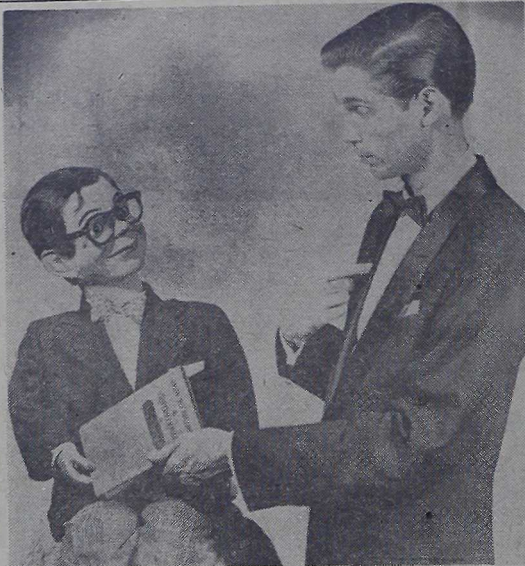

Mister Pinkin wasn't thinkin' Before drivin' he did some drinkin'.

The Safety Slogan contest will run two more weeks with a winner being selected for each of the weekly contests. The Safety Cartoon Contest will run the remainder of December with a first and second prize winner selected.

Winners of the remaining weekly slogan contests will receive a $20 Exchange Merchandise Certificate while the winner and runner-up for the Safety Cartoon contest will receive Exchange Merchandise Certificates for $25 and $15, respectively.

Famous Arkansas Travelers At Field House Next Month

Hazel Walker's famed "Arkansas Travelers" will make a return visit to Camp Lejeune Jan. 8 to meet the Camp Basketball Team in Goettge Memorial Field House. The Travelers, an all-girl basketball team, were organized in 1949 to provide entertainment, showmanship and top-notch basketball. This past season was the best and biggest yet for the Arkansas troupe which played a 200 game schedule in 45 states.

AT YULE FROLICS—"Knight and Daye," a ventriloquism act will be featured with the Christmas show, "Yuletide Frolics," as part of the Christmas party being held at Goettge Memorial Field House Dec. 17 at 2 p.m. The party is for all dependents children of Camp Lejeune through the age of 12. The Christmas show will also include a dog act, a puppet show and "Jabbo the Clown." Following the show, Santa Claus will arrive direct from the North Pole by helicopter. All children attending the party must be accompanied by an adult.

Transportation

Transportation from Midway Park will be provided for the Christmas party to be held at the Goettge Memorial Field House Dec. 17. Busses will enter Midway Park at 1 p.m. and circle the Park. They will leave the Shopping Center for the Field House at 1:30 p.m.

Transportation will be available at the Field House when the party is over for the return trip to Midway Park. See new bus schedule page 2, for Tarawa Terrace service.

Lawmen Set To Curtail 'Hitchhikers'

Hitchhiking, particularly on most turnpikes, expressways and the approaches, is a violation of military and state laws.

Violators are subject to payment of fines and possible confinement upon conviction by civil authorities, and to disciplinary action by military authorities. This practice is hazardous to both the hitchhiker and to the motorist. Fatal accidents have been caused by this practice.

During the winter months, the longer periods of darkness and weather conditions, which result in reduced visibility, further aggravate this hazardous practice. It was also emphasized that the dark winter uniforms further reduce the likelihood that personnel on highways can be seen by motorists.

Commanding officers and officers-in-charge are directed to insure that all personnel authorized leave or out-of-bounds passes have necessary funds for round-trip transportation tickets and that they are properly informed of the hitchhiking violations.

Base Fire Department Calls For Special Forest Fire Alert

The Base Fire Department last week called for a special forest fire alert for Camp Lejeune and area in view of the oncoming dry season. Although forest fire fears were experienced for a short time with the past weekend drenching, this is not commonplace for this time of year and cannot be counted upon

Holiday Trees Listed Among Fire Hazards

The traditional Yuletide symbol of joy, the Christmas tree, can be a hazard if proper precautions are not taken. The National Fire Protection Association estimated 1,000 Christmas tree fires last season. Some of these fires resulted in never-to-be-forgotten tragedies. For Christmas tree safety, throughout the holiday season, precautions should be taken.

Imported fir trees are cut early. The tree should be purchased when it is first placed on the market and kept in water until ready to put up. Water will keep it fresh. When it is put up, it should be placed in a stand containing water. Check water level daily. Tree should be taken down before it becomes dry and an easy prey to fire. A dry tree will burn with almost explosive violence.

Keep the tree away from all sources of heat such as radiators, television sets, fireplaces. Tree should be firmly supported. Do not light matches or smoke around the tree.

In decorating, first of all, check light set for frayed cords, faulty, ill-fitting sockets, loose connections, etc. Do not overload circuits. Sets approved by Underwriters label can usually be recognized by a paper band around wire, bearing letters "UL."

Use safe decorations such as metal, glass, asbestos and mica instead of paper or cotton. Put nothing on the tree that will burn. Even a fresh tree can be a fire hazard, for the oils in evergreens make them burn readily and hotly.

Christmas lights should be turned off before leaving the house or when no one will be in the room for any length of time.

Metallic Christmas trees are being placed on the market in large numbers. Electric light sets are not to be used on this type of tree. Off-the-tree spot or flood lights should be used. Such trees are conductors of electricity.

to check small brush fire with forest fire potential. During this particular season leaves are thickest on the ground, raw, icy winds tend to break dead branches, drying them out the process and grassy areas turned brown and fire-ripe with seasonal change. All of these are contributing factors in making the forest a perpetual fire hazard.

The fire department made an announcement as an appeal to military and civilian personnel living or working on the Base to exercise the greatest of caution with fires in the coming months.

Camp Lejeune has three fire towers strategically located throughout the wooded areas within around-the-clock watches and three specially designed and equipped forest fire trucks; all on constant alert to speed to the scene of fire and standing as examples of the importance of fire prevention. However, despite all of the routine precautions and equipment used to combat forest fires, the system cannot possibly stamp out every possible cigarette or match on this 300,000-acre installation; that is the job of the individual.

In keeping with the request for prevention, the Base Forester, Mr. K. Russell, reminds all personnel aboard the Base that the forestry office must be notified of plans to burn leaves, trash or any other debris, giving location of the proposed fire, time it will be set and what the party plans to burn.

Paramount on the fire calendar at Camp Lejeune are the training exercises where live ammunition is used. Last week 450 acres of timber land was destroyed as a result of a firing exercise. Participants in these exercises are asked to make a fire check of the range area upon completion of firing to make sure that small brush fires have not resulted.

Again this year the Camp Lejeune woodlands will play host to a number of hunters. Remember the little act of breaking a match in two pieces; a second glance after snuffing out a cigarette, these effortless precautions could save considerable loss of property.

The appeal for individual participation in fire prevention is not confined to Camp Lejeune, nor is it only for a particular season. Fire prevention is everybody's everywhere—all the time.

MARY GRAHAM

The girls parlayed amazing court finesse, entertainment and beauty to the acclaim of thousands of basketball fans throughout the nation.

In addition, sportswriters everywhere have tabbed the team, "The Nation's Most Watchable Basketball Outfit." They produce basketball at its best entertainment at its finest, appealing to the kids who have only a nodding acquaintance with the game and to long-time fans of the sport, both men and women.

Without question, the Hazel Walker group rates as the No. 1 Women's Basketball Team in the world today. Proof of that claim is the amazing record the team has compiled against men's teams only, the past years.

Hazel Walker's Fame

Miss Walker, the sole owner of this team, known as "Miss Basketball" was selected on the Mythical All-America Team 11 times, a record which has never been topped. During the 14 years in amateur ball, Hazel played on five national championship teams and runners-up three years. She has won the national free throw title six years and international title two years.

Miss Walker won a spot with the greats of sports world in America's Athletic Hall of Fame, "The Helm's Athletic Foundation," of Los Angeles, Calif.

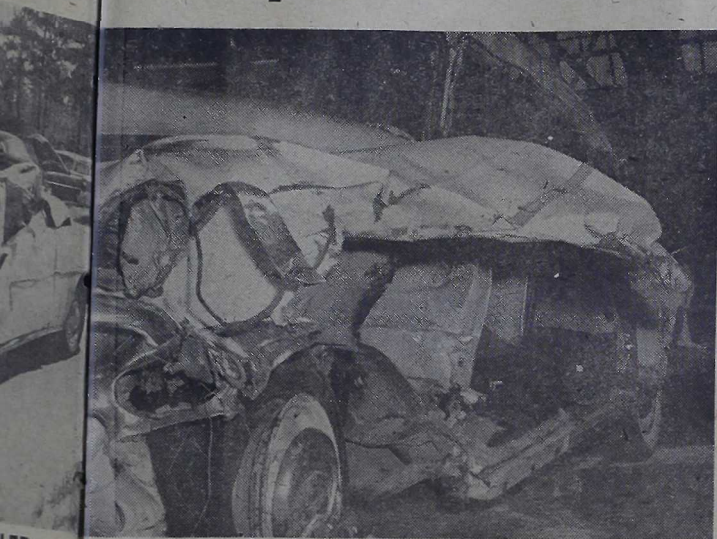

No admission will be charged for this entertainment exhibition game and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Driving Spell Disaster For Servicemen

MARINE AND WIFE KILLED

Prof. Archibald, director of the Motor Research Laboratory at the University of Wisconsin, says that the cause of many winter accidents is the lack of proper training in winter driving. He points out that during snow-ice months rural traffic death rates are three times higher than in urban areas.

Hazards. He is chairman of the committee and is described as the outstanding authority on "coefficients of friction as related to winter road surfaces."

Prof. Easton's favorite subject, when he isn't teaching his engineering classes at the University, is to talk about the facts of safe winter driving. He points out that during snow-ice months rural traffic death rates are three times higher than in urban areas.

Having risked his limbs and life time and again in winter test driving, Easton can tell about hundreds of test results with all types of vehicles, tire treads and chains to reduce dangers of skidding or stalling. He recommends that all snow-belt drivers, particularly those in rural communities, study the following facts:

THREE MARINES KILLED

Winter Starting—When it comes to starting and pulling ability on glare ice, snow tires are 28 per cent better than regular tires; regular tire chains are 231 per cent better, while reinforced tire chains are 409 per cent better. On loosely packed snow, the snow tires are 51 per cent better than regular tires, whereas reinforced tire chains provide 313 per cent better traction.

Stopping Ability—On glare ice, at only 20 mph, braking distances for regular tires average 195 feet. Snow tires take 174 feet, regular tire chains 99 feet, and reinforced tire chains 77 feet. At 20 mph on loosely packed snow, regular tires stopped in 60 feet, snow tires 52 feet, regular tire chains 46 feet, and reinforced tire chains 38 feet.

'Cease Fire On The Firing Line' Heard As Range Closes For Winter Season

The sharp crack of the M-1 rifle and the crash of the .45 caliber pistol will not be heard on the rifle ranges for a few months. The ranges have been secured for the winter months for repairs of equipment and rebuilding of the firing lines.

"A" Range and the pistol range will remain open to fire stragglers who have not requalified this year.

Many hours of work will go into the repair and overhaul of equipment, rebuilding firing lines and benches, painting the buildings inside and out and a thousand other jobs that must be accomplished by the permanent range personnel during the next two months to prepare ranges for the thousands of shooters who will use the range facilities during the calendar year 1961.

Since March 1, 1960, when the range was opened for firing, a total of 7,940,110 rounds of .30 caliber ammunition was expended by 25,872 Marines, Army Reserves from Eastern North Carolina, North Carolina National Guardsmen, and two Naval Mobile Construction Battalions, who underwent training at Camp Lejeune.

During this same period of firing, 1,646,584 rounds of .45 caliber ammunition was fired by Marines for requalification and in the many pistol matches held each year at Camp Lejeune.

The range maintains a minimum supply of 1,250,000 rounds of .30 caliber ammunition and 250,000 rounds of .45 caliber ammunition in their bunkers at all times.

A report of firing for the year shows that 20,036 people fired the "A" Course for record with the M-1 rifle, 18,160 of these qualified with a qualification percentage of 90.6. Shooters on the "B" Course had a qualification percentage of 91.5, with 3,864 persons qualifying and 354 unqualified.

The "B" Course is fired by the Seabees, Marines in aviation and others who do not use the rifle as a primary weapon.

Clean-Up

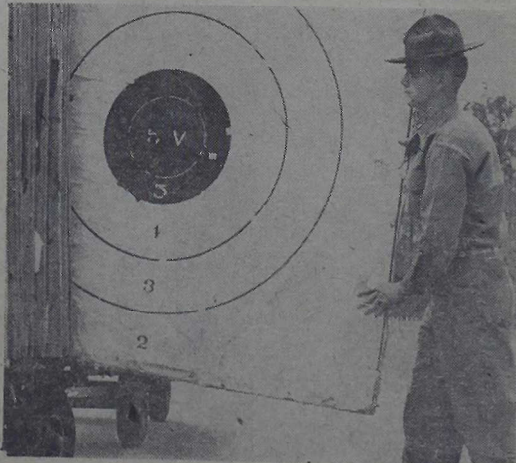

Seventy-eight per cent of the 1,612 shooters who fired the Browning Automatic Rifle qualified with the weapon.

Now that the range is closed for repairs, all the target frames and carriers are being scraped down to bare metal and a cleaning compound is applied to remove all rust before the equipment is repainted with three coats of paint. This work is being done by Camp Maintenance.

The firing lines are being rebuilt, new dirt is being hauled in, new benches for the shooters are being built and the lines are being sodded with grass for the shooters next year. This work is being done by a crew from the Roads and Grounds Department of the Camp Maintenance.

New disks for marking targets are being made, old ones repainted, and mounted on new shafts to replace the ones shot up by enterprising shooters who like to shoot at disks.

Lt. Col. R. M. Calland, commanding officer, Rifle Range, says the range will be much better for the shooters next year due to the improvements made by the permanent personnel and Camp Maintenance.

SECURE ALL TARGETS—This command which is familiar to all Marines who have pulled targets in the butts has a different meaning for Cpl. Ronald W. Taylor, who loads targets on a target cart for transportation to the target factory.

Colleges Propose Threat For Local Team In Holiday Classic

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two articles pertaining to the teams competing with Camp Lejeune for the Third Annual Christmas Tournament Championship at Camp Lejeune, December 28, 29 and 30. This article will cover Elon College, Carson Newman College, Pikeville College and Catawba College.)

Camp Lejeune is the defending champion of the Annual Christmas Basketball Tournament scheduled to be played Dec. 28, 29 and 30 at Goettge Memorial Field House. Seven college basketball squads from Kentucky, Maryland, Georgia, Tennessee and North Carolina will attempt to take this title from the "Marines" later this month. Returning for a crack at the championship will be the "Fighting Christians" from Elon College of Elon College, N. C. During last year's tournament Elon placed sixth with a 1-2 ledger. During the first day's action, Camp Lejeune defeated Elon, 89-74, after which the Christians bounced back with a 74-70 victory over Western Carolina College. The final night's action saw Elon fall prey to East Carolina College, a familiar rival during the North State Conference.

In conference play during 1959-60, Elon won six games while losing 10 for a season record of nine wins against 17 losses. During the past season Elon's offensive team scored a total of 1,756 points for an overall average of 70.2 per game while the defense allowed 1,887 points to be scored against them for an average of 75.5 points per game.

Head Coach Bill Miller will be depending on stalwart, 5'9" guard Dick Conaster to lead his scoring attack during the tourney. Conaster scored 375 points during last year's play for an average of 15.5 per game. Coach Miller has seven lettermen returning from last year's squad including centers Dewey Andrew and Eddie Burke, both 6'6".

With the speed and shooting skill of Conaster, doubled with the height of Andrew and Burke and the experience of eight lettermen, Elon cannot be overlooked as a possible challenger to the title effort.

Strengthened with eight returning veterans from last year, the "Bears" of Pikeville College, Ky., enter the Christmas Tournament for the first time this year.

Coached by Paul Butcher, the Bears won 18 games while losing eight during the 1959-60 season. Coach Butcher's teams have compiled an admirable record of 205 victories against 72 losses during his coaching career.

Termed as the "Iron Man" by advance reports, Paul Setser, 6'3" forward, will be the player to keep your eye on during the tournament. Setser, starting every game during last year's season, scored an average of 14.4 points per game with his highest effort of 37 points coming against Peru State Teacher's College of Nebraska. The sharp-shooting senior, with a 47.2 percentage from the floor, was selected to the all-Kentucky Invitation Athletic Conference squad last year.

◆ Top rebounder, at the rate of 14.7 saves per game last year, Vern Woods, 6'5" center, will be counted on to clear the board for the Bears during the fast tournament action.

Another first year entry during the tournament will be the Carson-Newman "Eagles" of Jefferson City, Tenn.

The Eagles are coached by Dick Campbell, a graduate of Furman College. Campbell began his coaching career at North Greenville Junior College at Tigerville, S. C.

In his five-year stint in South Carolina, Campbell's teams won had a season record of 16-11.

Mention of the standout junior college transfers are pertaining to senior, Cecil Todd from Lindsay-Wilson Junior College and junior, Charlie McKinney from Central Florida Junior College, both considered as an asset to the varsity squad.

Also missing from last year's tournament but well-known for their successful title effort last year during the North State Tournament is Catawba College of Salisbury, North Carolina. Under new coaching this season's opponents can look forward to fast breaking offense from one of the smallest teams in the conference.

Sam Moir, in his first coaching season with Catawba says "We're a little short on height, but we can make up for some of this deficit in speed. Our guards are fast men and can be depended on to pump in the points. Our squad is well rounded, and I feel with good effort we'll win our share."

With four lettermen bolstering the squad, the "Indians" will depend largely on senior, 6'6" Horace Medford to do the rebounding chores while Roger Snow and 135 and lost only 29. His teams were rated among the nation's top ten junior college quintets for three years, and participated in three national tournaments.

Reports from the "Eagles" publicity staff suggest that they also are a team not to be slighted as far as the tourney title is concerned. With a fine crop of incoming freshmen, the addition of a standout junior college transfers and the added experience of seven returning lettermen, the optimism toward an improved team is rising. Sixth Marines In Top Spot Of Division Basketball Play

The 3rd Bn., Sixth Marines, are the only unbeaten team in 2nd Marine Division Intramural Basketball play following the first day of inter-league action. The One-Star League leaders scored a convincing 89-69 victory over the previously unbeaten Two-Star leader, 2nd Bn., Sixth Marines, on Monday afternoon. Two other One-Star teams won in inter-league play, 2/10 beating 4/10, 76-61, and Pioneer Bn. ran away from Motor Transport Bn., 63-42. The 1st Bn., Tenth Marines, provided the only Two-Star victory when they upset defending champion Headquarters, 88-78.

Earlier in the One-Star League, 3/6 beat back the challenge of Hq. Bn. with a 106-97 victory. In the only other scheduled games, 1/6 gained their first win of the season, blasting Anti-Tank Bn., 102-53, and 2/10 won from Pioneers, 87-58.

Last week was a busy one in the Two-Star League with nine games on tap. Leading 2/6 won three times, handing Service Bn. their first loss, 76-58, edging 1/10, 64-56, and routing Medical Bn., 91-48. Second place Service Bn. nipped 4/10, 61-58, while the third place Cannoneers came back later in the week to win from Medical Bn., 75-67. In other games, 1/10 beat Motor Transport, 86-73, Recon edged 1/10, 68-61, and Motor Transport, 86-73, and Medical Bn. won their first game of the season from the Motormen, 64-48.

Pistol Match Scheduled By Lejeune Club

In an effort to increase its membership, the Camp Lejeune Rifle and Pistol Club will hold an informal pistol match tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The match is scheduled to take place at the indoor pistol range, Bldg. 451.

All military personnel at Lejeune and their dependents over 13 years of age are invited to participate in the match.

Pistols, ammunition, and score sheets will be furnished by the club. Awards will be presented following the match. Classified shooters will be given awards according to their classification.

The club will furnish qualified coaches on the line. Among these coaches will be: MSgt. William C. France, MSgt. F. J. Incosky, SSgt. Boyd Malouf and MSgt. Ralph C. Cox.

Sergeant Cox shot his way to the Grand Aggregate Match Title late last month during the Parris Island Invitational Pistol Matches.

According to Sergeant Malouf, the indoor matches are expected to be on a monthly basis. This will be determined upon the amount of interest shown during tonight's event.

Larrell Forbis, both returnees, will be at the guards to carry the brunt of Coach Moir's fast-breaking attack.

All freshmen recruited this year were outstanding high school basketball players and are expected to produce good results for the "Indians" not only during the tournament, but during the season as well.

The second and final series of this article covering the remaining teams participating in the Christmas Tournament will be published in next week's publication of the GLOBE.

Those teams remaining to be covered are Concord College, of Concord, W. Va., Georgia Southern College, of Statesboro, Ga., and the University of Baltimore, Md. Of these three remaining colleges, only the University of Baltimore is a returnee to the Annual Tournament.

Information concerning the first Camp Lejeune quintet, along with team statistics for games up to date will also be published in next week's publication.

Santa Claus Lands at USNH Saturday

Santa Claus will make his rounds at the U. S. Naval Hospital Saturday morning, 10 a.m., when a festive holiday party is in the pediatric ward for staff personnel's children and patients of the ward. The Hospital Theater has been chosen as Santa's landing place. All children up to the age of 10 years will receive stockings filled with gifts, bags of goodies, and enjoy stage entertainment provided for the occasion.

Songs, Gifts Planned For Luncheon

The old-fashioned Christmas spirit will prevail for all 75 of the Officers Wives Club when they sponsor their 1st December - Christmas Luncheon. In the River Room of the Paradise Point Club. Social is scheduled to begin at 12:15 p.m. and the luncheon will be served at 1 p.m.

The melodic voices of Mesdames B. Lytle, V. DeSchuytner, C. S. With, H. Freeburn, P. Bogardus, B. Holmes, A. Lamb, J. P. Canoy, C. Badger and E. Krieger will tend to serenade Group IV members and their guests. The "Y" choir will be conducted by Mrs. W. J. McGrath, who will also act as their accompanist. The festive songs will include "White Christmas," "Silent Night," "Carols of the Bells," and a medley of standard holiday tunes.

Each member is asked to bring a "White Elephant" gaily wrapped as a Christmas gift exchange. Reservations must be made by Dec. 20, by calling one of the following: Mrs. W. Derby, Base extension 6-6321; Mrs. M. O. Roe, Base extension 6-6224; Mrs. H. E. Freeburn, Base extension 6-6316; S. C. W. MacFarlan, Jax 9957; S. W. P. Phenagar, Jax 8867; S. J. H. Sanderford, Jax 4505; or S. R. Morrow, Jax 8275.

The wives of the 2nd Motor Transport Battalion, hostesses for the event, urge all ladies to attend.

Wives Club Lists Three Yule Parties

Mrs. M. W. Self and the ladies of the Midway Park Wives Club have three holiday activities planned during their club meetings. Tonight, beginning 7 p.m., in the Community Chapel the women and their guests will sponsor a Christmas party and dance. Refreshments will be served to those in attendance and a nursery will be available during the dance.

On the 22nd of December, holiday centerpieces will be brought, made and displayed by the members of the group at their morning meeting. They will later be judged for originality by three housing area officials. Also at this meeting, Sgt. Earl Valley and Sgt. Dennis Smith will talk on what the Community Council does for the community, both directly and indirectly.

On the night of Dec. 21, scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., a decorating contest will be conducted at Midway Park. Cash prizes of $5, $3 and $2 will be given. This contest will include only exterior holiday decorations at the park. Anyone desiring to enter the contest must have his name and house number in the housing office no later than Monday, Dec. 19. Further information pertaining to the contest may be obtained by calling the housing office.

PROJECT WRAP-UP—Dolls, noisemakers and sweaters are hidden beneath yards of satin ribbon and Christmas wrappings as women of Group VII of the Officers Wives Club work on their "adoption" project to replace their pre-Christmas coffee. Wives of this group will act as hostess to a needy family providing articles of toys and clothing and a complete holiday dinner. Seated around the table, from left to right, Mrs. T. J. Group Gives Family Toys And Dinner

A true spirit of Christmas, that of giving to provide happiness for others, has been shown by members of Group VII of the Officers Wives Club. This holiday season, instead of exchanging gifts among themselves at their pre-Christmas coffee, Group VII decided to "adopt" a needy and deserving family with eight children, all under nine years of age.

Each wife whose husband is in the Tenth Marines was already personally contacted about this project by her battalion commander's wife.

The wives in each of the individual battalions will provide gifts of toys, clothing, and useful school materials for two children. The Regimental Headquarters Battery will provide the Christmas dinner, complete with all the trimmings, for the entire family.

Special appreciation is given to Mrs. L. M. Farris, the group's Welfare Chairman, for coordinating the ladies' endeavor.

For further information concerning details about meeting times, individual purchases, and the date of this "adoption," contact Mrs. Farris.

Brownies Celebrate One Year's Duty With Santa

A joint Birthday and Christmas Celebration was held yesterday afternoon by 26 members of Brownie Troop 292, Midway Park, during their regularly scheduled meeting time. Commemorating one Scout year since the organization of their troop, the girls with their Scout leaders, Mrs. J. H. Henderson, and her assistant,

Mrs. D. M. Mitchell, decided to use the theme, "Happy Birthday and a Merry, Merry Christmas."

Gifts, candies, fruits and nuts all went into a festive afternoon with the unforgettable climax of the appearance of Santa Claus, enacted by Sgt. John Oliver.

During the afternoon, the Brownies formally donated their choices of canned vegetables, which will be given to needy families for the Christmas holidays.

Immediately following the Christmas party, the girls paid a tribute to their year as a registered Brownie Troop. Mrs. Henderson, original leader and organizer of the troop in September, 1959, gave a talk on the "What, Why, and Good" of Brownies in a housing area such as Midway Park. A short history was then related to the girls of the troop's founding.

Formed in September, 1959, by Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Frank Bruner, the troop wasn't officially registered until December of that year. At this time, there were 12 girls enrolled in the group's membership.

MORALE BUILDERS—Members of Lejeune's Staff NCO Wives Club bring friendly smiles and cheery hellos to patients at the U. S. Naval Hospital last week during one of their monthly Hospital Fun Nights. The Staff Wives spend a large percentage of their time with patients both at USNH and in Jacksonville providing entertainment, cooking, and donating reading material particularly to servicemen in the area. Santa Visits Knox Santa Claus will be at the Knox Trailer Park Chapel building this Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4. Gifts will be distributed to all children through 14 years who live in the park. In addition, special treats of cookies and candy will be given.

For a nominal fee, children may be photographed with Santa Claus. Parents are reminded to register their children at the chapel for assurance of a gift.
