IFR Leading United Fund Drive Contributions Here

With three weeks remaining during the 1960 United Fund Campaign, Camp Lejeune has reported donations of over $33,000. During a special meeting held last Monday, it was announced that the First Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, has totaled 168 per cent participation in the drive. Marine Corps Base, including civilian employees, currently leads the campaign with $13,574.84 and a 66 per cent participation. Second Marine Division follows with 33 per cent and a total of $10,951.29. Force Troops reports 27 per cent and $3,808.86. No report was received from MC-AF for this week.

A special dance was held by Force Troops at Marston Pavilion Friday evening, Oct. 14. Over $400 in proceeds from the affair were contributed to the United Fund.

Organizations to receive funds from the United Fund Drive on a prorated basis according to their annual expenditures are the American Red Cross, which is participating in a combined drive for the first time this year; Onslow-Camp Lejeune Chapter for Retarded Children, Camp Lejeune-Onslow-County Boy and Girl Scouts, Emergency Relief Fund, Carolina United Services, Onslow County Hospital Auxiliary, Salvation Army, United Jewish Appeal for Refugee Relief, and the Jacksonville Rescue Squad.

The Fund Drive quota for Camp Lejeune was set at $80,000 and from the results of the drive so far, it appears that this goal will be reached.

Not contacted regarding donations are representatives of the unit representatives who are not available, those wishing to make donations should call: Maj. W. H. McCormack, Marine Corps Base, 7-5693; Maj. B. W. Clarke, Division, 7-5623; Maj. W. L. Kay, Force Troops, 7-5740; and Capt. C. W. Delaughter, Air Facility, 06-485.

Holidays

According to Base Bulletin 5330, there will be two holidays during the month of November. Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, and Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, will be observed here and holiday routine will prevail for all commands.

Best Rifle Squad Selected During Marksmanship Trial

Several weeks ago men of the 2nd Division voted John Wayne as their favorite mythical squad leader. Last week a young corporal, not nearly as well known as the Hollywood star, emerged as the best squad leader in the Division. Cpl. Bruce D. Trevathan led the third Squad, Third Platoon, Co.

"A," 1st Battalion, Sixth Marines, to victory in the Division's Third Annual Unit Marksmanship Competition. Runnerup was the Second Squad, Third Platoon, Co. "L", 3rd Bn, Second Marines, led by Cpl. Edward M. Lipnickas.

To reach the Division finals, the two squads were judged tops in their respective regiments through preliminary testing. The Eighth Marines did not enter this year's competition due to military commitments.

The purpose of the annual competition in the Marine Corps is to stimulate training on the squad level in offensive combat and to determine the Marine Rifle Squad most proficient in combat marksmanship. In other years the top squad from the three Marine Divisions met to decide the best squad in the Marine Corps. Budgetary limitations has curtailed Corps-wide competition this year.

Both squads in the Division runoff ran the same problem. Prior to a tactical helicopter lift to the position, squad leaders were given the overall situation by umpire personnel, and inspected as to completeness and readiness of the equipment. A short compass march from the landing area to the attack area preceded the actual attack.

Moving into the attack phase, the squads were judged on the combat orders of the squad and fire team leaders, formations, fire and maneuver, fire control and accuracy, assault and reorganization, and defense following the overrunning of the final objective. Live tions in a cup attached to his turret. Found by "B" Co. of the battalion while on a firing exercise, the turtle led the unit, commanded by Capt. Robert M. Croll, to 100% contributions in the drive. The company was the first Force Troops unit to attain this status. (Photo by Cpl. L. T. McKean)

POWER CUT-OFF

A power cut-off is scheduled for part of the Paradise Point area today, and tomorrow from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. All electrical power will be off to MOQs 3361, 3363, 3365 and 3367. RUMOR

Since the Sixth Marines produced the winning tactical squad in recent Division competition, somebody has revived that nasty rumor about the Sixth taking candy bars aboard ship.

ALUMNI

From former Marine Bill Crowell, now director of the N. C. Dept. of Motor Vehicles publicity bureau, comes a report on Highway Patrol Sergeant Lloyd M. Burchette, another former Marine: With Gov. Hodges aboard, Burchette headed toward Raleigh-Durham airport recently. Halfway there the veteran patrol non-com and governor's aide came upon another car being driven, he figured either by a crazy man or a drunk man.

Unable to stand it any longer, Burchette motioned to the governor, busy with paperwork in the back seat.

The governor said, "Get him."

Burchette did. He arrested the man for drunk driving, then summoned another trooper by radio, turned the man over to him, and continued on to the airport. Gung Ho!

FED UP

MSgt. Paul Burkhardt, who originally reported the bantams on Holcomb Blvd, says he is fed up with people calling him to ask if he knows the difference between buzzards and chickens. You're absolutely right, Top. They should stop calling you at 7-3434 to ask such a ridiculous question.

CHIEF

The corporal they called "Chief" picked up his mug and regarded his paleface companions.

"You fellows see the Cheyenne attack Major Adams' wagon train on TV and you fellows think the Indians mighty bad for killing and scalping innocent pioneers.

"What would you do if somebody came here, steal your land, kill your livestock, and pen you up on reservation? You'd kill 'um and scalp 'um, right?"

You have a point, Chief.

SHARP

Staff sergeant explained that the nylons hanging on a clothesline behind a Division barracks were for shining shoes.

"My boys want to look sharp," he explained.

DOG

The French poodle at left is feeling no pain being cuddled in the arms of fetching Leslie Sheldon. The lady's a showgirl at one of the big Las Vegas, Nev., nighteries that features "the most American girls in the world." For those of you who complained that there was no GLOBE pin-up last issue, we are publishing two this week. See right corner of this page.

ENEMIES

Tarawa Terrace lady wonders why HOWLS is so obsessed with snakes. Said her grandmother told her that when folks dream about snakes, it is a sure sign they have enemies. Okay, but what is it the sign of when you dream about grandmothers who tell their granddaughters old wives' tales?

2nd Division's Band, Chorus Give Concert Here Sunday

The 2nd Division Band and Chorus will present a concert here next Sunday at 3 p.m. in the natural amphitheater behind 2nd Division Headquarters. The 2nd Division Band's first open-air public concert was held last Sept. 4, during the Labor Day Weekend. The enthusiastic response given the first concert by the public demanded that another be held before winter weather cancels outdoor gatherings. The one-and-a-half-hour concert will include musical selections such as "Highlights from Music in the Air," "My Funny Valentine," "Rhapsody in Blue," "On the Trail," "Marines from 1775," "South Pacific," and songs from "The Merry Happy Fella."

Maj. Gen. James P. Berkeley, 1st Division commanding general, has invited the public to attend the concert, and special parking areas have been opened for the event. Military police will direct traffic from Camp Lejeune's main gate to the concert site and parking areas.

The band, under the direction of CWO George J. Bucieri, has played twice for the Queen of England: once during her visit to Williamsburg, Va., and more recent when she formally opened the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The band has also made numerous other public appearances at events in the southeastern states including the Darlington, S. C. "Southern 500." Earlier this year the band played at the Kentucky Mountain Laurel Festival and presented the Festival committee march written especially for the occasion.

First Lt. Allen Rose is present director of the chorus, which was organized in 1953. After singing during the Christmas season, the chorus was disbanded and reorganized again in April, 1954. The singing Marines also performed at the Queen of England at the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The chorus is composed of members of the 2nd Marine Division Security Platoon.

In the event of inclement weather the concert will be held at Goettge Memorial Field House.

Information, Advice Offered By Legal Assistance Officer

Maj. Gahan J. Haskins, new Base Legal Assistance Officer, will give information and advice to all Marines on any matter, not having to do with a court-martial. He can't act as your lawyer, but he can prepare wills, contracts and any other type of legal documents for Marines or their dependents. If you have a legal problem, he will tell you how to contact a lawyer.

The major is a member of the Bar in Illinois and is qualified to practice law in all Federal District Courts. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago and received his degree in Law from the Loyola Law School in 1948.

Major Haskins enlisted in the Marine Corps May 13, 1942, and served as an enlisted man until 1944.

During World War II, he reached the rank of sergeant and served on Guam with the occupation forces during mopping up operation. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve on March 21, 1944. The major served as the executive officer of the 1st Radio Company in Korea.

Since returning to active duty in 1956, he has served as Assistant Legal Officer and Legal Officer of the First Marine Aircraft Wing and assumed duties as the Legal Assistance Officer of the Marine Corps Base in September, 1960, when he returned to the States from the First Wing.

He is the husband of the former Miss Marge J. Mahoney of Berwyn, Ill., and currently resides at 408 Woodland Drive, Jacksonville. The Haskins have four children: Barbara, age 9; Gahan, age 6; Kevin, age 4; and Mary, age 2.

ammunition was fired at mechanical targets arranged in a practical tactical position during the attack phase of the problem. Half pound blocks of TNT were detonated to hinder the squad leaders and fire team leaders in the issuing of orders.

One of the highlights of the Division competition was the enthusiasm and aggressiveness displayed by both squads. The physical condition of the men also impressed the umpires.

Here's the Answer

Peace - Minded People Still Look Toward UN

The United Nations marks its 15th birthday this month in the most dramatic circumstances of its history. Admission of many new nations has swelled its membership. The appearance before the General Assembly by many Chiefs of State including Mr. Khrushchev and other heads of Soviet bloc states has sparked it with a high drama that electrifies the world.

What do the passionate oratory and the histrionics of this momentous Assembly session prove? Foremost, certainly, that in the United Nations lies the only hope for a peaceful solution of differences between the great powers. To doubt this is to face a bleak future. Heads of state present diverse proposals for peace, but the heartening fact is that they are talking peace, not shunning discussion of it.

In the eyes of the free world, the eloquence and sincerity with which the President of the United States set forth his program is a reaffirmation of American leadership. Against it, any volume of ranting and reckless distortion of historical facts sounded harsh and hollow. Here was a reaffirmation of the hopes of men of good will everywhere; also an undemagogic statement of our own country's desire to help new and old nations in the development of their economic and social potentials.

The net effect of gross deceit in the floodlight of the great Assembly chamber, under the symbolic olive branch of peace, is to discredit its perpetrators and make them appear meanly treacherous. Beside it, the message of calm voices speaking of a language of reason, calling for a continued war against war, disease and ignorance—and threatening no other kind of war—are heard with greater clarity.

Chaplain's Corner

No Others Before Him

It is interesting what becomes of old familiar sayings when you turn them around and try them in reverse. For example, consider the words with which the traditional marriage ceremony closes: "What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

When we reverse this familiar sentence, we discover that it is still valid: "What God hath put asunder, let no man join together." Man's attempt to marry those things which God has eternally divorced can be seen to be the source of much of the suffering and evil in the world.

When Jesus said: "You cannot serve God and Mammon," he was announcing that God had separated the service of money for its own sake and the service of God. Much of man's ruin, personal and social, could probably be traced to his attempt to find a compromise loyalty which would include both God and the riches of the world.

God has created a world in which the worship of God and devotion to the creations of man's mind and/or hands are at opposite poles. "Thou shalt have no other Gods before Me." Yet man has, throughout his history, attempted to find some way for the "peaceful coexistence" of the worship of God and worship of "idols" side by side.

Duty, fame, nationalism, beauty, pride, all have been tried as a suitable companion for the worship of God, but without success, and with spiritual calamity as the end result.

Man's confusion of pleasure, happiness, and satisfaction has often led him to try to bring together immoral indulgence and the blessedness God has promised. He has said: "No one can be really happy while he is bound by the inhibitions of a blue-nosed society. Let's live it up, wine, women and song, the works."

The result? Only the inevitable "morning-after" and a bad taste in his moral mouth. "The pleasures of sin for a season," but bitter defeat for eternity. "What God hath put asunder, let not man join together."

Enlisted Woman Marines will receive more physical training and less administrative training in the future. Emphasis will be placed on physical fitness, grooming and the wearing of civilian clothes. Decorum and dignity will be stressed.

The Office of Armed Forces Information and Education, a division of the Defense Department, has announced the publication of six foreign languages on long play records. These languages are Korean, Chinese (Mandarin), Thai, Arabic, Greek and Turkish. Six more courses will soon be ready and a total of 24 more languages are in the planning stage.

These languages can be ordered from the above office by any branch of the Armed Forces.

The coat, man's, wool kersey, green, with four-piece back, which was declared obsolete, has now been authorized for wear by personnel who have them. Further, the item may be issued until present stock on hand is depleted. According to Marine Corps Bulletin 10120, personnel are authorized to wear this style of green coat until further notice from Headquarters.

The last three of six battalions placed in a paper status will be reactivated in January and June, 1961, according to a release from Headquarters Marine Corps.

The 3rd Bn., Seventh Marines; 2nd Bn., Second Marines, and 2nd Bn., Eighth Marines, have already been activated.

In January, the 3rd Bn., Fourth Marines, and the 3rd Bn., First Marines, will be activated and expected to be up to full strength by June.

During June the 3rd Bn., Ninth Marines, will be activated and at full strength by the following summer.

If You Ask Me:

HOW DO YOU THINK MARINE CORPS TRAINING WILL HELP YOU AS A SEABEE?

CN DONLEY A. TAYLOR, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — Comparing it with previous training that I underwent in another branch of the Armed Forces, I found Marine Corps Training more detailed. For a Seabee like myself, such training will be very helpful. A lot of Seabees are sent overseas to work on defense projects. Therefore, we should be ready to defend ourselves if need be.

SW2 JOHN R. WALTER, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — In my opinion, I will learn the finer points of combat training rather than merely touch upon the high points like we did during our recent training up north. I am told that Marine Corps training is very helpful in that it will show us how to defend ourselves in case of attack.

tack. What with our being issued M-1 rifles to replace the carbines which we formerly carried, we should be able to get something out of our training here.

CN JOSEPH C. SEIDL, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — The way I understand it, the main object of this training is to teach us how to defend our construction projects if they are attacked. But I don't think we Seabees need to undergo as much training as that given to combat Marines. Of course, all training along this line helps.

I think the obstacle course will be particularly helpful in getting us into shape for whatever we have to do in carrying out our duties.

CN DEAN A. TURMAN, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — As far as any military training we received, this was it. The next thing to it—other than recruit training—was two weeks of weapons familiarization. After this period of training, we ought to know how to defend ourselves in case we are called upon to do so. We call ourselves a "mob," which means mobile construction battalion, and without this advanced training, that's exactly what we'd be—a mob.

CN STEPHEN K. OAKES, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — I think it will help a great deal. I went overseas the last time without any combat training. I don't know what I would have done if we had had to face combat. But now after my combat training is over, I'm sure I'll be able to defend myself as well as my fellow Seabees in a way that will ensure success. The way I see it, future military operations will be conducted in such a way to afford maximum protection for all personnel involved. That means combat units will be spread over much larger areas than was the case in former times.

CN CLAUDE Y. PENNEY, Mobile Construction Bn. Seven — Well, it should help me if I ever have to go into combat. I've been told that I'll learn all the techniques Marines use in battle. On the rifle range, the more practice I got the better score I fired. I believe I'll learn a lot about different situations which I might meet and how to handle myself in them.

WESTWARD THE WOMEN
Robert Taylor and Hope Emerson star in this drama of outdoor action. (124 min.)

DODGE CITY
This dated adventure story of the "untamed" Old West still packs a punch. Suave Errol Flynn and the vivacious Olivia de Havilland constitute the leads. (113 min.)

PORTRAIT IN BLACK
Murder and suspense are the chief ingredients in this production. Lana Turner portrays the wife of a Miller, hopelessly ill shipping tycoon played by Lloyd Nolan. Anthony Quinn as the family doctor, plots with Lana to eliminate Lloyd. Sandra Dee has the supporting role. (122 min.)

The beautiful Ziva Rodann plays a wealthy land-owner who allows herself to be influenced by South American Voodoo. Walter Reed, June Wilkinson and William Wellman Jr. become her targets. (94 min.)

THE BELL BOY
Jerry Lewis plays havoc with a famed resort hotel on Miami Beach in this rollicking, laugh-filled comedy. But Jerry really isn't so bad—it just that he's a little misunderstood, that's all. Bob Clayton, a Miami TV announcer, plays Jerry's superior. (82 min.)

THE LAST REBEL
An action picture starring Rudolf Acosta. (Cine, 116 min.)

PSYCHO
Here is a real shocker. Alfred Hitchcock went all out when he made this one. You won't believe it until you see it. Janet Leigh and Tony Perkins turn in excellent, if not outstanding, performances as the principal stars. (117 min.)

THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII
This is the latest in a seemingly endless series of spectacles made in Italy by former Mr. America, Steve Reeves. Cast as a Roman centurion, Steve returns to Pompeii in 79 A.D. and because of what he finds there, goes out on a one-man campaign of revenge. Massive mob scenes and the familiar violence of the early Christian era are in abundance. (Cine, 111 min.)

THE LAST ANGRY MAN
Paul Muni stars as a doctor who is dedicated to his profession. But all this dedication is not sufficient to prevent him from becoming a victim of his environment. (108 min.)

WILD YOUTH
A drama starring Robert Hutton and Jan Brooks. (73 min.)

TUNNEL OF LOVE
Doris Day and Richard Widmark star in this funny-bone tucker concerning the trials and tribulations of a young married couple's endeavor to increase their family. Some may feel that the film goes too far in its rather candid approach to the "birds and bees" subject, but movies are becoming more realistic these days. (Cine, 106 min.)

SEVEN WAYS FROM SUNDOWN
Audie Murphy portrays a Texas ranger sent out to "get his man" Barry Sullivan creates the role of an off-beat killer and is hunted down by Audie. (Cine, 93 min.)

A teen-age drama starring Tommy Steele and Hunter Hancock. (87 min.)

SOUTH PACIFIC
The merry capers and romantic adventures of men and women of the Armed Forces stationed in the South Pacific war theater during World War II. Mary Martin and Enzio Pinza blend their talented voices in rendering melodies that have become hits since the film was made several years ago. (Cine, 178 min.)

MARDI GRAS
A story of Mardi Gras fantasy, sweet romance and the Cinderella theme in reverse. The initial setting is not in New Orleans, where Mardi Gras is held annually, but at the Virginia Military Institute. Pat Boone, Tommy Sands and Richard Sargent play cadets with romantic intentions towards Sherree North and Christine Cerve. (115 min.)

JACKSONVILLE — Hollywood's late dashing cavalier, Errol Flynn, creates the role of famed Indian fighter, Gen. George Armstrong Custer in the weekend movie, "They Died With Their Boots on." The film ignores much historical fact, but Flynn's flamboyant portrayal of the ill-fated hero of the "Little Big Horn" and the cavalry action that is shown more than makes up for it. United Nations Marks Fifteenth Year

Prayer For The United Nations

Eternal God, in whose perfect kingdom no sword is drawn but the sword of righteousness, and no strength known but the strength of love, guide and inspire, we pray thee, on this the fifteenth anniversary of the United Nations, the work of this great organization.

We thank thee for the strife and bloodshed that has been averted by the men of all nations and races coming together in public debate and discussion for the common good of mankind. We glorify thee for the medical, cultural, social and economic agencies of this great organization that have given men, women, and children throughout the world renewed faith in their fellow men and courage to struggle against the poverty and oppression which seeks to enslave them.

Help us to realize, O Lord, that these achievements have not been accomplished through our own strength and knowledge, but only as we have followed thy will for our lives and for the world which thou hast created.

May we realize, Our Father, that thou hast indeed created of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the faces of the earth, and help us to bend every effort toward the realization of this worthy goal.

Amen.

LITTLE UNITED NATIONS—Seven children from Camp Lejeune's Dependent Schools point to the countries in which they or their forebears once lived. From left, they are: Danny Roach, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Cecil Roach, whose mother is originally from Morocco he was born in Israel; Albert Biffon, step-son of Sgt. and Mrs. James Coughlin, whose mother is from Casablanca, Morocco, he has two older brothers in Israel; Marjorie Ann Delp, daughter of GySgt. and Mrs. Allen R. Delp, who is from Hawaii, her grandfather is Chinese and is living in China; Regina Wells, daughter of GySgt. and Mrs. Samuel J. Wells, whose mother is from Bolivia and lived for some time in Spain; Michelle Thibault, daughter of GySgt. and Mrs. Paul V. Thibault, the great-granddaughter of a Japanese woman; Harry Williams, son of SSgt. and Mrs. Thomas W. Williams, born in Bolivia of a Bolivian mother; and Josephine Davis, daughter of GySgt. and Mrs. John P. Davis, born in England, her mother is a native of Tel Aviv, Israel. (Photo by LCpl. F. J. Every country has its special days on which it yearly honors the names and deeds which give lustre to its national history.

Each faith has its holy days whose observance knits closer all who share the same belief. Hallowed in many cases by centuries of observance, these anniversaries are rooted in the social and spiritual conscience of mankind.

In recent years a new kind of anniversary has been added to the calendar of great occasions. It is one that is international in origin and universal in observance.

Unique Quality

It belongs to no single nation, but is shared by all. It does honor to and is honored by peoples of many different faiths and philosophies, but its unique quality is that it emphasizes the common ties that unite them. It is the anniversary that all lands and people can acclaim — United Nations Day.

Charter

The event it commemorates is the coming into force of the United Nations Charter on Oct. 24, 1945. The signing of the Charter and the establishment of the United Nations Organization represented the beginning of the greatest effort by the peoples of the world to be rid of war and to build together a better peace.

Proclamation

During his proclamation of U.N. Day, 1960, the President of the United States said in part:

"... The United Nations is a powerful instrument for guarding mankind against the calamity of war and for establishing the rule of law among nations; and ... (it) has demonstrated its ability to assist in the orderly progress of dependent people toward self-government; help those who live in underdeveloped areas to become self-sustaining; and to drive back the forces of disease and poverty wherever found.

Faith

"Now. Therefore, Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America, do hereby urge the citizens of this Nation to observe Monday, Oct. 24, 1960, as United Nations Day by means of community programs which will demonstrate their faith in and support of the United Nations and contribute to a better understanding of its aims, problems and achievements."

Participation

In a letter to the Secretary of State, the Assistant Secretary of Defense, the Honorable Mr. Murray Stender urged all offices and commands to bring the UN Day observance to the attention of all Armed Forces personnel and to arrange for appropriate participation in ceremonies and other community activities in an effort to increase public understanding of the aims, problems and achievements of the United Nations.

Lejeune

Camp Lejeune will celebrate United Nations Day with a gala United Nations Menu to be served during the noon meal at all mess halls.

The menu will include such special dishes as Italian Minestrone Soup, Spanish Pot Roast, Mexican Cole Slaw, Danish Rolls, Dutch Apple Pie, South American Blended Coffee and India Tea.

Polack Brothers Circus Coming October 28-29; Featuring Aerialists, Wild Animals And Clowns

When Polack Bros. "Circus of Stars" opens its two-day stand at Camp Lejeune's annual presentation of the show, Oct. 28-29, a galaxy of big top stars from every corner of the world will be on hand, many of them displaying chilling and suspenseful maneuvers.

But even as ordinary people, outside of show business, they have their fears and superstitions along with their dare-devilry.

For example, Pat Anthony, America's top animal trainer, who appears in a cage with 13 jungle-bred lions and tigers, dreads elevators in tall buildings.

Jeannine Pivoteau, aerial star of Paris, France, is afraid of mice.

Fay Alexander, the only flying trapeze star to accomplish the triple somersault among today's contemporary flyers, has a fear of diving boards in swimming pools.

John Joanides, combination slack-wire artist and juggler, would never dream of going on stage without an ace of hearts playing card in his pocket.

Chester Sherman, producing clown, would never allow anything of yellow color in his dressing room.

Aerial Star

Jeannine Pivoteau, Paris-

Polack Bros. Circus will appear at Goettge Memorial Field House at 4 and 8 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 28, and at 2:30 and 8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Admission for this attraction is 50 cents for children and $1 for adults.

born, blonde and beautiful, is the toast of aerialists in her native France, and has won wide acclaim in both Europe and America.

When she appears at Camp Lejeune's circus of stars, older circus fans will be reminded of the great Lillian Lietzel who fell to a tragic death nearly 30 years ago.

Very few aerialists since have attempted the difficult and dangerous one-arm plunge that brought fame to Miss Leitzel.

Handicap

Jeannine was stricken with polio at the age of 17, and spent 18 months in a hospital. She returned home partly crippled.

Her guiding light was a circus performer who convinced her she could become a circus performer with enough practice and perseverance.

Three years of two-fold practice followed. First to overcome her physical handicap and second to master trapeze technique.

She then became an aerialist with a European circus. Her engagements took her all over Europe, North Africa, Central and South America and now, to the United States.

Camp Lejeune Sailors Planning Giant Navy Day Celebration At Clubs Next Thursday

Navy Day will be celebrated at Camp Lejeune Oct. 27 with a dance for all Navy enlisted personnel and their guests at the Montford Point Staff NCO Club and a reception for the officers at the Paradise Point Officers Club.

The officers' reception will be held from 6-9 p.m. Invitations have been extended to all Marine officers on the Base to join in the celebration.

Navy officers will wear the Service Dress Blue "B" uniform and Marine officers who attend will wear Blue Undress "B."

The Montford Point dance and buffet supper for the Navy enlisted personnel will be held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight. Music for the dance will be played by the "mellow horns" of the Pastels.

Tickets for the dance will cost 75 cents and may be purchased from the recreation representative of each unit.

Uniform for the enlisted dance will be the uniform of the day and the ladies may come informal.

Capt. L. E. Bach, commanding officer, U. S. Naval Hospital, and the commanding generals from Camp Lejeune commands are expected to visit the dance during the evening.

A sunset parade will be held by the 2nd Marines in honor of Navy Day, Oct. 27, and will be reviewed by Captain Bach. The Second Marines is commanded by Col. C. W. Kelly Jr. The 2nd Division Band will furnish the music for the marching Marines.

The first Navy was maintained by Gen. George Washington, in September and October, 1775, and was made up of five schooners and one sloop, manned by officers and men from his Army. These ships were used to prey on incoming British supply ships. Their success brought about the birth of the U. S. Navy.

The Continental Congress expanded this small Navy in December, 1775, and provided for the construction of Naval ships of the line. A Maritime Committee was also formed at this time with one representative from each colony.

When these ships were completed in 1798, a Navy Department was formed and a Secretary of the Navy was appointed and became a regular member of the President's Cabinet.

Since the Navy was formed, it has progressed from wooden sailing ships to the modern atomic ships and submarines found defending the United States today. The latest addition to the fleet, the Polaris submarine can fire missiles from under the water and gives the United States a submerged firing platform from anywhere in the world.

A message from the Chief of Naval Operations states that men and not machines are still the backbone of the Navy just as in the days of "wooden ships and iron men."

LOCALS' THIRD ROAD GAME

Lejeune Schedules Tilt Against Belvoir Oct. 28

The Camp Lejeune "Marines," still suffering from the 28-8 defeat handed down by the San Diego "Devildogs" last Saturday, are taking advantage of an open date this weekend to prepare for their battle with the Ft. Belvoir "Engineers" Oct. 28. The Marines will travel to Virginia to meet the win-starved Engineers who have suffered four straight defeats this season. Having scored only eight points all season, the Engineers fell to Ft. Dix 19-0, Norfolk "Tars" 22-0, San Diego 48-0, and last weekend they traveled to New York where they were dropped by Mitchel Air Force Base, 39-8.

Though having another bad season thus far, the Engineers aren't expected to be a pushover for the Marines. According to Belvoir Head Coach Nelson Peterson, they improve with every game. Lejeune Head Coach Denis Horn considers them a very dangerous opponent and will be on guard against anything they might try to gain their first victory of the season.

"We're not going up there with the idea we will have an easy time, and we are training just as hard for this game as we did for San Diego," said Coach Horn.

Expected to spark the Marine offensive attacks will be Martin Klein and 147-pound Vince Cesare. Adding to the running power will be Mel Anderson, Dennis Pardee, Jim Green, Tom Sacramone and Rusoria Zaecheo.

Zaecheo suffered a pulled muscle in the Ft. Campbell game and was sidelined. Back in action last week, however, he impressed the coaches with his running at full-back, and is expected to add needed depth to that position against Belvoir.

Head Coach Hans Jacobson of San Diego said, "Lejeune has one of the hardest hitting lines we've met all season."

Holding down the forward wall will be Dave Steechi and Joe Losack at the end position. At tackle will be Sam Thornton and Ron Cherubini while Jim Winebrake and Jerry Smythe will fill the guard slots. Ed Craig and Dave Gann will again alternate at the center spot.

Dave Steechi although suffering a broken nose in the tilt with San Diego, will be ready for action at right end when the Leathernecks face Ft. Belvoir on the gridiron.

Coach Horn and his assistants are devoting most of their practices to strengthening their passing defense which weakened during their battle with the Devildogs.

Lejeune's next home game will be against Mitchel Air Force Base on Liversedge Field at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 5.

Coaches Nominate Pardee, Smythe Top Local Gridders

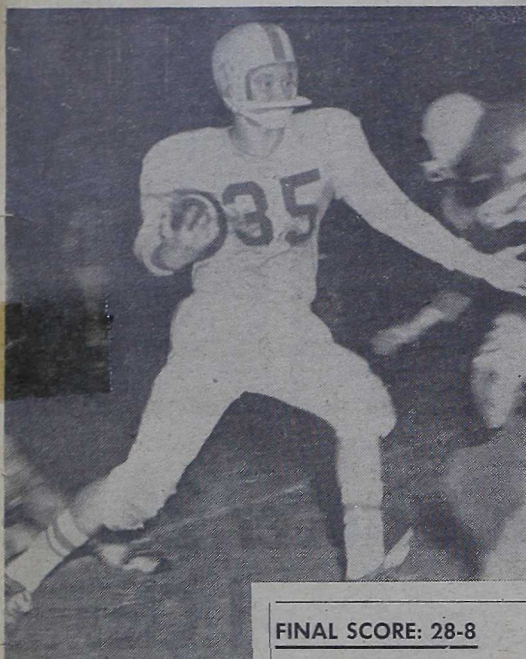

The Camp Lejeune varsity football coaches have selected quarterback Dennis Pardee as the back of the week and guard Jerry Smythe as outstanding lineman.

Pardee is in his first season with the Lejeune "Marines." He has four years' experience at Case Tech, where he was named All-Conference in 1954-55. Dennis was a member of the Pensacola "Go Hawks" in 1957. His service experience also includes time with the great Quantico clubs of 1958-59. A native of Warren, Ohio, he is a first lieutenant in "B" Btry., 1st Bn., Tenth Marines, 2nd Marine Division.

Jerry Smythe, also in his first year with Lejeune, is making his debut in service ball. A lineman with the University of Idaho for four years, Jerry was selected as the Most Inspirational Player in 1957. Prior to attending Idaho U., he was an All-State fullback and captain of the grid squad at Burley High School, Idaho. A second lieutenant in "M" Co., 3rd Bn., Eighth Marines, 2nd Division, Jerry is from Burley, Idaho.

FINAL SCORE: 28-8

'Devildogs' Down Lejeune; Rack Up Twenty-first Win

The San Diego "Devildogs" took a big bite out of the Camp Lejeune "Marines" as they defeated them, 28-8, Saturday morning on Liversedge Field before some 8,500 fans. The Devildogs chalked up their 21st victory in a row with the help of four interceptions and a weak Lejeune pass defense. Lejeune's record now stands at three wins and two defeats for the season. The West Coast Marines scored a safety, good for two points in the first few seconds of the game when a bad pass from center sailed over the head of Lejeune punter Joe Losack and rolled into the end zone.

The first touchdown threat by the Devildogs was halted on the one-foot line by the tough defensive line of Lejeune. The drive started when halfback Bill Martin intercepted a pass from Martin Klein on the Lejeune 27-yard line. After advancing to the one-foot line, center Ed Craig dropped fullback Jess Murdock for a loss back to the 10-yard stripe where Lejeune took the pigskin on downs.

Another interception set up the first touchdown of the game when Second Interception quarterback Jim Lorenz grabbed a pass from Klein on his 45, returning it to the three-yard line. After moving to the six-inch line, Alvin Hall plunged over for the first six-pointer. A kick by Bob Raney hit the mark, making the score 9-0 after two minutes and 50 seconds of the second stanza.

Receiving the kickoff, Lejeune marched downfield for 81 yards on their only long drive of the first half. Stopped at the one-yard line, the locals lost the ball on downs.

Second Half

The second half started with San Diego losing the pigskin during the first play from scrimmage on a fumble by Lorenz recovered by Jim Samples on the Devildog 34-yard line. After Denis Pardee lost to the 35, Lorenz intercepted another pass from Vince Cesare on the 30-yard line to start the Leathernecks' second touchdown drive.

The 70-yard drive was climaxed with an 18-yard pass from Lorenz to Bill Martin in the end zone. The conversion attempt by Raney was blocked by the rushing Lejeune line, making the score 15-0.

Lejeune Scores

The Lejeune eleven scored their lone touchdown after guard Marvin Lassiter recovered a Devildog fumble on the San Diego 44-yard line. The 44-yard march ended with Lejeune's 147-pound quarterback, Vince Cesare, going over from one yard out. Faking a kick for the conversion, Cesare passed to Denis Pardee for the two points, setting the score at 15-8.

The third San Diego touchdown started with the Devildogs downing a punt from Joe Losack on their own 39-yard line. After moving 58 yards downfield, halfback Bill Martin went around end from three yards out for the score. A pass following a faked kick was incomplete and the score stood at 21-8.

The fourth Devildog interception gave them their final touchdown when John Lee hauled in a pass from Cesare on Lejeune's 40-yard line. Being hit, he handed off to Kelson Winston on the 42, with Winston going the distance for the six-pointer. Barney hit the mark again for the point, giving San Diego the lead, 28-8.

Bears, Redskins Victorious In Boys League Grid Action

Rain dampened the playing field but not the spirit of Boys League football fans last Sunday as they watched the power-laden Bears rack up their first win of the season, 12-6, over the Rams. Behind the breakaway running of Forrest Woodridge, the Redskins romped over the Colts, 19-7. In the afternoon's first tilt, the Rams and the Bears settled back to a first half defensive duel which ended in a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth quarter the Colts line finally buckled under the Bear onslaught led by Batchelor and Maderos. But it took four plays from scrimmage, after getting inside the Ram 10-yard marker, for the Bears to score. Their PAT was blocked.

After the Bear kickoff, the Rams tried, desperately, to get back into the game. But luck was against them as one of Keagy's short passes was intercepted by Batchelor who scored standing up.

Still fighting hard the Rams began a drive as McCloskey scooted for 20 yards and a first down. On the last play of the game Aycock snagged a Rex Woodridge pass on the Bears' 40 and scampered for the six pointer. Final score, Bears 12, Rams, 6.

In the second clash of the afternoon Woodridge and Stillwell paced the Redskins to a decisive victory over the Colts as right half-back Woodridge sliced thru holes opened by the Skin line and Stillwell consistently bounced into the Colt backfield to break up plays before they got underway.

On their third play from scrimmage Woodridge took a hand off, cut thru tackle and went 52 yards for his first six pointer of the tilt.

The Colts battled right back, however, and drove down to the Redskins' 3-yard marker where the Skin line, led by Billy Vain and Jimmy Likens arose to stop the Colts' scoring attempt.

Woodridge and Mulholland then took turns lugging the ball for the Skins as the victors battled their way to the Colts' 12 yard line. Mulholland cracked to the one and Woodridge stepped over for the score. For the second time the Colt line stopped the Redskins' PAT attempt.

As the second half got underway, Woodridge took a handoff from Duval and raced around his own right end for 52 yards and the Redskins' final TD. Mulholland then battered his way over for the PAT.

The Colts took to the air in the closing minutes of the game and Tom Moore launched a long pass to Lou Paulson on the Skins' 20. With no one around him, Paulson scored standing up.

Three Division Grid Teams Sport Undefeated Records

Three 2nd Marine Division teams remained unbeaten and the Force Troops eleven gained their first victory during action last week in the Camp Lejeune-Cherry Point Complex Football League. The Sixth Marines remained unbeaten and unscored on when they rolled over Marine Wing Service Group 27, 26-0, at Cherry Point last Tuesday. The same evening, at Camp Lejeune, the Cannoneers from the Tenth Marines shocked Marine Air Group 14 to the tune of 34-0.

And Force Troops edged the Air Facility in a 7-6 thriller at New River. Group II and Marine Wing Headquarters Group wrapped up the week's action at Camp Lejeune on Wednesday evening with Group II gaining a come-from-behind 20-13 verdict.

The Devildogs from the Sixth Marines scored early and often in trouncing the MWSG-27 Flying Boxcars. They broke the scoring ice midway through the first period when Phillips scored from the seven. The TD was set up on a 50-yard pass-run from Fletcher to Madison. Following the kickoff, the Flying Boxcars failed to gain and punted to the Sixth Marines' 36. Fletcher hit Bassano on a short pass to the 47 and then hit him again with a play good for 53 yards and a score. The conversion made it 13-0 at the half.

Following a scoreless third period, the Sixth intercepted a stray MWSG pass and on the third play from scrimmage pushed across to paydirt. Holtsclaw put the final tally on the board when he broke away for 66 yards late in the period.

Force Troops Win

The Force Troops' 7-6 victory over the Air Facility saw all the scoring confined to the last three minutes of action. Force Troops' tally came on a 27-yard, off-tackle slant by fullback McGosky. The conversion was good for 7-0. Not to be denied, the New River eleven rallied and scored on a spectacular 55-yard pass-run from Lyman to Young. On the conversion play the Air Facility team went for two points and a possible win but Force Troops was equal to the task and stopped the play.

Force Troops dominated play during the contest, piling up 173 yards total yardage in the first period, but a stubborn Air Facility line and penalties stopped the Lejeune eleven from scoring.

The Tenth Marines rolled to their second straight victory following an opening game tie by belting MAG-14, 34-0. Patterson opened the scoring for the Cannoneers when he intercepted a pass and dashed 30 yards to pay dirt. Tisher converted for 7-0. Later in the period Gazzola scored on a dive play.

Held scoreless during the second quarter, the Tenth Marines exploded for two third period scores to put the contest on ice. Mileski scored first early in the period on a five-yard tackle slant. Jones put the six points on the scoreboard with a 10-yard run on the option. Final score of the night came in the fourth quarter on a pass from Jones to Guntlach.

The Group II Raiders extended their win skien to three when they rallied in the last four minutes to pin a 20-13 defeat on MWHG. Trailing for the first time this season, when the Cherry Point eleven pushed across a score with four minutes left, the Raiders electrified a large home crowd by storming back and scoring five plays after the kickoff. Quarterback Fred Townsend spearheaded the drive by going 45 yards on an option play and later passing to end Noel Thomas to set up the score. Carl Ott set the clincher driving across from the one.

Group II opened the scoring in the first period on a 25-yard-pass play from Townsend to Lee Bradley. Halfback Denny Meyers gave the home eleven a 13-0 halftime advantage when he hit pay dirt from eight yards out in the second period.

A fired-up Cherry Point eleven answered the whistle for the second half. They received a break early in the third period as they picked off a stray Group II pass. Quick to capitalize, Ezelle Ware found Art Weldon in the open on a pass play that covered 35 yards. The conversion made the score 12-7.

MWHG continued to apply the pressure for the remainder of the third period and well into the final stanza. Time and time again they drove deep into Group II territory but a stout Raider defense, anchored by Shai and Thomas, held. With slightly more than four minutes remaining on the clock, the visitors received a big break when they recovered a fumble on the Group II 11-yard line.

The score was set up on a brilliant run by Bill Abel who shook off three tacklers and carried the ball to the one. Ware sneaked it across for the 13-12 MWHG lead. This set the stage for the Group II comeback.

League action this week finds Group II meeting Air Facility at Camp Lejeune Thursday evening and MWHG clashing with MWSG-27 at Cherry Point the same night. Saturday morning on Liversedge Field two Division giants clash when the unbeaten Sixth Marines take on the unbeaten, but once tilted, Tenth Marines in a crucial contest. Game time is 10 a.m.

New Readiness Tests Lauded By Division Unit Commanders

The 2nd Bn., Sixth Marines, became the first 2nd Division unit to initiate the Commandant's revised physical readiness program when they underwent the five-stage test here this month. Contrary to expectations, the battalion, which recently returned from Vieques, reacted favorably to the new program. Although all the companies have not completed the test, they are expecting a final average of about 91 per cent passing. Wearing utilities with boots and helmets, light marching packs, and armed with organic weapons, emphasis was placed on simulation of actual combat conditions.

First event, on the three-hour program, consisted of stepping up and down 60 times on a platform 18 inches high with a time limit of three minutes. This event is marked climbing uphill and the battalion personnel were in agreement that this was the hardest of the five events.

Next was the rope climb which required the individual to climb up a knotted rope 20 feet high and back down in 30 seconds. In comparison to the old test this, like the pull-ups, require the strength of the arm and shoulder muscles to lift the entire weight of the individual's body.

In the third event a simulated casualty was positioned 50 yards from a Marine who would have to run to the casualty and carry him back to the starting point using the fireman's carry within 42 seconds. Getting the man off the ground and properly balanced on the shoulders is a skill within itself. Usually after this had been accomplished it was reasonably easy to zig-zag back to the starting point.

The infantrymen felt quite at home in the fourth event, here they were required to run and crawl 175 yards in a zig-zag fashion and hit the deck at least three times then jump an eight-foot trench in three and a half minutes. Jumping the eight-foot trench was said to have been the hardest part of this event, because most of the men were not able to correctly calculate the distance and timing necessary to complete the jump satisfactorily.

After simulated mountain climbing, carrying sometimes up to 200 odd pounds, climbing up a rope 20 feet high, and running and crawling 175 yards came the real test, Event No. 5, a forced march, running and walking three miles with no rest stops in a time limit of 36 minutes.

"Unlike the old test," said Capt. R. A. McElheny, assistant S-3 and officer-in-charge of the test, "this one is realistic. It really placed the men under actual combat situations. And it showed us their weaknesses so that now we can plan better programs which will be beneficial to the physical conditioning of the men."

Lt. Col. W. R. Lobell, battalion commander, commented that the test requirements are natural exercises which are often executed by the average field Marine, and that the only persons who could possibly have difficulty are those who are overweight or in poor physical condition.

"Although the men are accustomed to similar exercises this test often required them to use muscles they never used before," he said, "Especially in stepping up and down the 18-inch platform and the forced march. I feel it's a good test because it presents a real challenge of strength and endurance."

Capt. K. J. Skipper, commanding officer of "G" Company, said that it would be a good idea to conduct the test weekly in order to keep the men in good physical readiness, as is required by this test.

Sgt. R. E. Scribner, a participant, said, "I think the hardest event for me was the rope climbing and getting the timing for the eight-foot jump. But I feel that any man who keeps himself in good physical condition can pass the test with a little more than normal effort."

Bloodmobile Visiting Here Next Month

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Camp Lejeune for two days Nov. 8-9 to collect blood for the Camp Lejeune Blood Donors Program.

The mobile unit will collect approximately 250 pints of blood per day and will require about 300 donors per day. Part of the blood collected will be used by the Lejeune Blood Bank and the remainder will go into the National Blood Bank.

Blood from the Camp Lejeune Blood Bank can be obtained by any serviceman stationed at Camp Lejeune. The blood can be used by the serviceman or any member of his immediate family. The immediate family includes anyone eligible for a "Q" allotment, but do not necessarily have to be residing with the serviceman.

This blood is available whether the man is able to donate blood or not, and a serviceman and his family is protected by the bank for six months after the man has been separated or transferred from the Lejeune area.

If a Marine goes overseas, his family is protected by the blood bank during the overseas tour of the serviceman.

A Marine or a member of his immediate family may request blood from a Red Cross representative at any time. If a Marine is overseas, the request can be made by his wife and it will be honored.

To give blood, a person must weigh over 110 pounds, must not have donated blood in the past eight weeks, received a blood transfusion in the past six months, and must not have undergone surgery in the last six months.

Anyone desiring further information on the blood donor program can contact the American Red Cross representative here or see Base Order 6530.3A.

Navy Cross Winner Dies At Bethesda

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13—Funeral services for retired Marine Lt. Gen. Samuel L. Howard were held at the Ft. Myer Chapel last Monday morning. Burial with full military honors followed at Arlington National Cemetery.

General Howard, holder of the Navy Cross for heroism on Corregidor during World War II, died Oct. 12, at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md.

General Howard, born March 8, 1891, in Washington, graduated from VMI in 1912. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps in May, 1914, and was assigned to officers training school at Norfolk, Va.

During World War I the general served aboard several ships as commanding officer of Marine detachments. Following the war he was assigned various duties at Marine Corps commands around the world.

At the outbreak of World War II the general was a colonel commanding the Fourth Marine Regiment in the Philippines. He served with distinction during this period and was awarded the Navy Cross for his "courage, leadership, and efficiency under most difficult and hazardous conditions."

General Howard was taken prisoner when Corregidor fell in May, 1942, and remained in prison camp until liberated in August, 1945.

Following World War II and prior to his retirement in March, 1953, the general served at Parris Island, S. C., in North China, at Pearl Harbor and Washington, D. C. At the time of his retirement he was Inspector General of the Marine Corps.

Since his retirement, the general has been active in the St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Columbia Country Club, Military Order of the Carabao and the First Marine Division Association.

Fund Giving Results In Automobile Gift

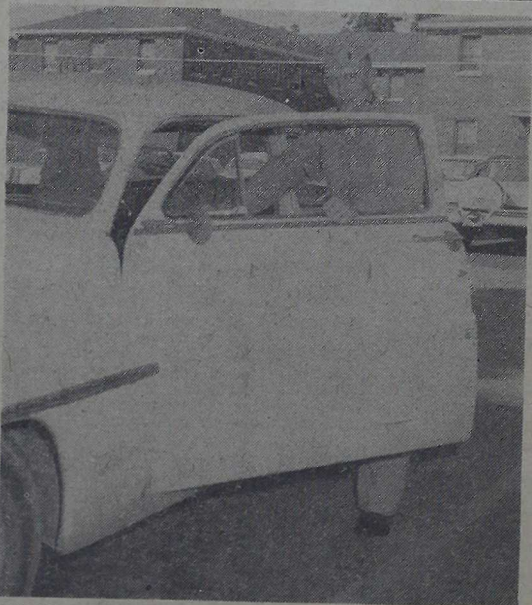

Pvt. D. J. Cook, Headquarters and Service Co., 3rd Bn., Sixth Marines, 2nd Division, gave the "united way" during the 1960 United Fund Drive and came up the winner of a car.

An anonymous contributor in H&S Company donated a 1951 Mercury to spark members of the command to give to the fund raising campaign.

Each man, who gave $1 or more, had a chance to win the automobile. Stubs from their UFD tickets were dropped into a container and at the end of the day a drawing was held.

Cook, who married recently, was having trouble getting from his quarters at Camp Geiger to the Base. His only comment about his good fortune was, "Winning this car was the answer to a real need."

Headquarters and Service Company exceeded their quota and contributed $662. Their contribution was the largest monetary donation within the battalion.
