Parade-Review Marks Event Following Week Of Honors

MAJ. GEN. J. P. RISELEY

A parade and review Tuesday morning at the Camp parade ground will end a week of retirement activity for Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley as he concludes over 41 years of active service. Brig. Gen. Sidney S. Wade, present assistant commander of the 2nd Division, will assume command of the Marine Corps Base on the following day, July 1.

Tuesday's parade, which marks the retirement of General Riseley and Capt. W. L. Berkley, USN, commanding officer of the U. S. Naval Hospital, is scheduled to begin at 11:00 a.m.

Brig. Gen. Leonard F. Chapman, commanding general, Force Troops, will act as Commanding Officer of Troops of the Tri-Command elements participating in the parade. The 2nd Marine Air Wing from Cherry Point is providing a band and an aircraft flyover during the ceremonies. In case of inclement weather, the review will be conducted at the Goettge Memorial field house.

NR Over Top; Divvy Captain Gets Cadillac

The 1959 Navy Relief Drive ended "over the top" at $72,000 Tuesday afternoon as 27 award winners were selected at the Camp parade field in the finale to one of the most successful fund raising projects ever held here.

Top Winner

Capt. J. W. Nolan, Hq. Bn., 2nd Division, was the winner of the first award, a 1959 Cadillac four-door "hardtop." The second award winner was Maj. J. R. Barbour of the Division's 2nd Service Bn. He is now owner of a 1959 Oldsmobile '98."

M. A. Scott, believed to be an acting corporal, was the winner of the third award—a 1959 Chevrolet nine-passenger station wagon. Scott is reportedly a member of Hq. Co., 2nd Bn., Sixth Marines, currently on the Great Lakes tour—"Operation Inland Seas."

Final Totals

Some of the final drive totals from throughout the Quad-Command show the 2nd Division with more than $33,000 raised, Marine Corps Base in excess of $14,000, Force Troops, nearly $8,000 and the Air Facility, more than $6,000. Civil Service employees added another $1,000.

Other award winners Tuesday were (as they could best be identified from ticket stubs): portable TV set, Frank P. Balcer, 2836 N. Lawndale, Chicago, Ill.; set of matched luggage, Jack A. Lovla, 3rd Bn., 1st ITR.

Duty Wear Of Short Sleeves Is Approved

The new short-sleeve khaki shirt, approved last week by CMC as an optional uniform item, is classified a "duty uniform," according to AlMar 12, and is to be worn with cotton khaki trousers only.

Base regulations announcing the date when local personnel may begin wearing the new shirt have not yet been published.

Made of cotton material, the shirt is also authorized for wear to and from residence and place of duty, but not on leave, liberty or in ceremonial formations.

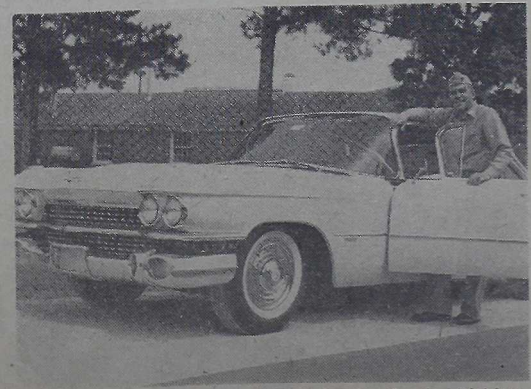

Enlisted personnel will wear their chevrons centered on each sleeve of the shirt and collar emblems centered on each collar. Officers will wear their rank insignia centered on each collar.

Reduced Rail Rates Remain In Effect

Reduced rail fares for active duty members of the Armed Services traveling in uniform have been extended to June 30, 1960, it has been announced by the nation's railroads.

The announcement insures that marines and navy men on leave or liberty will continue to have the privilege of reduced and tax exempted fares when traveling round-trip in passenger-carrying railroad coaches. Tickets, however, must be over the same route in both directions, according to Marine Corps Order 4642.54, which outlines the details of the "furlough" fares.

The reduced-price tickets are good for 90 days and include regular stopover and baggage privileges, the order says.

"MOST HAPPY FELLA"—Capt. J. W. Nolan, Hq. Bn., 2nd Division, smiles beside the 1959 Cadillac he was awarded for his contribution to the Navy Relief Drive. The holder of the 1st Award membership card, Captain Nolan's only comment on his good fortune (two hours after the drawing) was: "I'm still a little shook!"

If you ask me...

IN YOUR OPINION, WHAT IMPRESSES YOU MOST ABOUT A MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE?

(Answered by members of the present NELM Battalion now undergoing training in the Mediterranean areas.)

PFC ARMAND THERRIEN, 2nd Motors — While with the NELM Battalion I am primarily concerned with the extensive maneuvers and landing operations we undergo daily. This is our business, but there seems to be more purpose behind it here.

ACT. CPL. EUGENE SMITH, Tenth Marines — To me, being afforded the chance to visit places and meet people that I have only heard of is the most interesting phase of a tour such as this. It was quite interesting to see places like Vatican City and people like His Holiness Pope John.

ACT. CPL. GERALD McKRELL, H&S Co. — The great contrast between Naples and Capri is an unforgettable experience. Naples impressed me as a bustling, noisy city. Yet, just a few miles away, the island of Capri is a quiet and unhurried place. The complete change of atmosphere within such a short distance amazed me.

PFC GILBERT FRANKLIN, "K" Co. — My visit to Paris is the first thing that comes to my mind. Being able to see such historic places as Versailles, the Eiffel Tower, and the very interesting Place Pigalle was not only educational but plenty of fun, too.

PFC GEORGE L. M. STEWART, Tenth Marines — I think being able to see how the people in other nations live interested me most. Like many Americans who's never before been to Europe, I had a lot of misconceptions of Europeans. They're real great people.

PFC WAYNE WOLK, 2nd Motors — I've always been interested in archaeology, so naturally I enjoyed seeing the ruins of ancient civilization at some of the places we visited. These were what I consider chance-in-a-lifetime experiences. This trip has afforded me a good education regarding the European way of life.

The North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles reports a total of 50,739 traffic accidents occurred in the state last year.

Useful 'Tick Facts' Listed To Help Reduce Menace Of Abounding Local Pests

"Don't give your blood to an unworthy cause. It can be dangerous." This statement is a reminder that the tick season is upon us, presenting a serious local nuisance—and possibly more—for anyone spending time in the outdoors, whether it be for pleasure or work. During June, July and early August the blood-eating tick abounds in the Camp Lejeune area feeding on animals, birds and man. Even earlier—during April and May—the big nuisance begins when adult ticks decide that a human meal is as good as, or preferable to, a meal from the lower species.

Prefer Humans

Various stages of the growing tick (the larva and nymph) will attack humans throughout the year. But the most serious menace is from the adult during the spring and summer.

To help combat the tick's feeding habits, which can be both irritating and disabling, the Naval Medical Field Research Lab here has listed some useful "tick facts" that everyone spending time in the open should note.

Disease Carriers

Ticks, warns the Research Lab, carry several diseases and are suspected of carrying others. The Lone Star variety, which is the local pest, is a principle carrier of Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever. These ticks are also capable of and suspected of transmitting Tularemia, commonly known as rabbit fever.

In addition, ticks, after feeding on the back of the neck or base of the skull, can cause a temporary paralysis.

Alarming as this may sound there is a fortunate side. The incidence of tick-borne disease is extremely low in the Camp Lejeune area, says the Research Lab. But, nevertheless, the lab notes, the threat is serious enough to necessitate that everyone exposed to tick infested areas take the fullest precautions.

Preventative Steps

The Research Lab lists these preventative steps:

1. Wear socks or boots well up over the trouser legs as ticks make their initial move to feed at distances of 18 inches or less from the ground.
2. Wear smooth, tight-weave clothing whenever possible to make it hard for ticks to get a "toe hold."
3. Examine the clothing and body each noon and night when in tick country. This will insure the speedy removal of the pests if any TICK TAKING—Proper way to remove the Lone Star tick skin, if pointed tweezers are available, is demonstrated at Medical Field Research Lab. Field marines often use effective methods but even then the Research Lab's antiseptic on the area should be followed.

make good an invasion. The ticks rarely transfer a disease until after they have fed for several hours. Thus speedy removal is important.

4. Store clothing in tick areas off the ground and away from where you are sleeping. If clothing must be stored on the ground, thoroughly inspect it before putting it on again.

5. Avoid camping in or on the edge of a trail as such areas are the most heavily infested.

6. Use tick repellent whenever possible, both on the skin and clothing. Several are available.

Medical Care

In spite of all preventive measures, some ticks will probably reach the body during a prolonged stay in infested areas, notes the Research Lab. Removal of these invaders is best accomplished, says the lab, by gently pulling off with a pair of tweezers parallel and close to the skin.

When a tick is removed, especially important, the area should be thoroughly good antiseptic. Some offset infection if put left in the skin, so the tick should be burned.

Ticks can be found in areas there are weeds, grass and woods. Controlling large scale is possible. However, they can be somewhat where they are by clearing the areas, application can be used. But the each individual must fight. So use these to your advantage.

Alaska Living Conditions Not So 'Hostile'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a series of articles that will appear periodically on housing and living conditions at various Marine activities around the world.)

Sweltering in the heat at Camp Lejeune, marines can stop... and think of their buddies serving at Marine Barracks, Adak, Alaska.

Most marines stationed at this Alaska outpost are cheered by the fact that no matter where they are transferred after serving here, living conditions have to improve.

All personnel under orders to Adak are told just two things—DON'T bring too much light clothing, and, DO bring plenty of heavy clothing. The wind howls constantly, the sun very seldom shines, and the rains are among the heaviest anywhere in the world.

On Station Housing

There is no off-station housing available. All housing for dependents is on station and a marine's quarters allowance covers rent. Everything is furnished except dishes, curtains, and cooking utensils; consequently, personnel are reminded not to take too much furniture. Field grade officers plus E-8's and E-9's have no waiting period for housing while others wait from three to four months.

Included in the housing development is a PX, dry-cleaning plant, cobbler shop, beauty salon, commissary, barber shop and cafeteria.

One of the prime concerns of all marines is medical facilities and their availability. Adak has a hospital for military dependents with an out-patient clinic and a dental clinic.

Dependent children, although going to one of the outposts of the world, can't escape their nemesis—the teacher. The base at Adak has a kindergarten, grade and high school.

Recreation Facilities

When most people think of Alaska and its cold year-round climate they visualize spending long hours huddled around the fireplace. Not so at Adak. Recreational facilities available are bowling alleys, a library, roller-skating rink, swimming pool and a gymnasium. Movies are shown and there are television and radio stations for the stay-at-home. Dependents and marines can call anywhere in the world via the station's amateur radio station.

An officers club and enlisted club are available. Club activities held at the barracks.

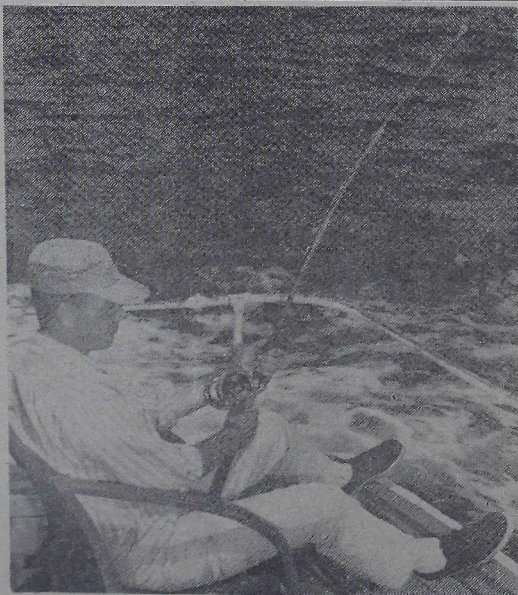

Marine wives go to the base to have to do all the housework themselves as the base or domestic service is not available.

No Automobiles

Only marines who may bring their own car to Adak. There is a gas station base but those who do bring spare parts, tools, plugs, etc., as gas and oil are available.

Tires and other automobile accessories have to be ordered.

Those receiving demerit soon find that exacting demands, duty is not much more than at any other station.

PLAYING IT COOL—Act. SSgt. John L. Fields, Base Comm., enjoys the thrill of trolling for the "big ones" on board the "Valhalla" out of Swansboro. He was with marines from Supt. Co. "B," Hq. Bn., MCB, when they embarked last week on an all-day fishing trip 20 miles out into the Atlantic. Hq. Bn. Special Services provided the trip.

Four Division Officers 'Jungle Friend' in Training

The jungle has become an old friend for four division officers who will complete training today at the Warfare Training Center, Ft. Sherman, Canal Zone. The 124 Army, Air Force and Marine Corps students scheduled for graduation are: 1st Lt. Norman H. Ho-ton commander, 2nd Bn., Second Marines; 2nd Lt. Patrick G. Collins, platoon commander, "C" Co., 1st Bn., Eighth Marines; 2nd Lt. John M. Campanelli, platoon commander, "I" Co., 3rd Bn., Sixth Marines.

Jungle Shelter

When they arrived May 27, many never had heard of a jungle shelter known as a bohio. Within a week they not only had built such huts but were living in them. Not a nail, rope or piece of manufactured material had gone into the construction; everything came from the jungle including vines to tie floor poles together and palm leaves to make a thatched roof.

Back to Nature

In learning to appreciate and respect the jungle, the students first had an introduction to habits of tropical animals, edible plants and foods. Then came toughening on the obstacle course. They found the students' historic Cnagres river improvised themselves these were poncho leaves. In another 100-foot climb

As vigorous and training was, they learned at the course, that the jungle is a

Divvy Review To Honor Top Drill Unit

Excellence in close order drill has won for Bravo Co., 1st Bn., Eighth Marines, the 2nd Marine Division Association Drill trophy.

At a Division parade and review next Wednesday, "B" Co. will become the second Eighth Marines unit to hold the trophy. It was awarded last year for the first time.

India Co., 3rd Bn., Eighth Marines, walked off with top honors in last year's competition. This year, "B" Co. nosed out eight other competitors.

Reviewing officer for next week's parade and review is Maj. Gen. J. C. Burger, Division commanding general. General Burger will present the trophy to "B" Co. during the ceremonies.

Annual Award
The 2nd Marine Division Association established the annual award to be given to the company or battery of the Division proficient in company drill.

Purpose of the award is to recognize drill excellence. Competition is based on the Marine Corps eight-man squad-drill manual.

Division Birthday
Though awarded July 1 this year, in following years the Drill trophy will be presented on the Division's birthday, February 1. The winning unit will be selected during January 20-31.

The trophy will be retained by the winning unit until lost at a subsequent competition.

Local Credit Union Loaning Out 'Fast As It Comes In'

Camp Lejeune's infant Credit Union, now four weeks old, is lending money almost as fast as it comes in, it was learned this week from the union's credit committee. And, says Capt. Kenneth W. Singleton, credit committee member, seniority of rank or grade means nothing to the committee when it is processing applications for funds.

"Privates on up will receive the same consideration," said Captain Singleton, "as do civilian who are working on the grounds of Camp Lejeune."

Since the Credit Union was started, more than $4,000 has been deposited. Of that amount, $3,000 has reportedly been loaned out.

The three-member credit committee, elected to screen all applications for loans, includes 2nd Lt. Betty L. Hutcheson and Allen P. Olmstead, director of Base Housing. The Credit Union also has a supervisory committee and a board of directors.

Need Gets Priority
Any member of the Credit Union can apply for a loan. At present, said Capt. Singleton, the credit committee is processing from 30 to 50 applications a week. Priority is given to those applications the committee feels are most needy the captain said.

To become a credit union member it is necessary only to purchase one five dollar share (which goes into savings for the purchaser) and pay a 25-cent enrollment fee. Any local military person or Lejeune civil service worker can join.

Savings Plan
A regular savings plan can be maintained with the credit union by allotment (S type) from military pay.

Details concerning credit union loans can be obtained from the credit union office, phone 7-5492. Members of the credit committee should not be contacted personally as the committee considers only properly-applied-for loans at its regular weekly meeting each Thursday.

Some tips on making applications were given by Olmstead. "Applicants should give a clear and concise account of their problems," he said. "If possible, they should have with them receipts and bills they cannot pay when they are interviewed (by the committee)."

Bringing complete records said Olmstead "is a great factor in determining the loan."

In case of a valid emergency, a credit union member's loan application may be approved without extensive screening, credit committee members noted. But, it was pointed out, the application still must go through the credit union office before the credit committee will take action.

Supply Officer Stamps Out 'Rank' Rumor

Rumors of complete abolition of the new rank structure were discounted at MCAS, Cherry Point, last week by Capt. F. J. McDonald, supply officer from the Philadelphia Clothing Depot, during his visit to the air station on routine clothing business.

The Cherry Point WINDSOCK reported that rumors had spread throughout the station "in 50 different versions," due to the arrival of a dispatch ordering that all new type chevrons be returned to the Philadelphia supply facility.

Limited Chevrons
Captain McDonald interrupted his work to clarify the contents of the dispatch. He said that only a limited number of the chevrons were procured initially for issue to all Corps' posts and stations.

Camp Lejeune, however, "requisitioned almost the entire quantity procured," the WINDSOCK story reported. Quantico, Parris Island and other stations were not issued any of the new stripes, so Captain McDonald's activity recalled all of the issued chevrons for equal redistribution to Marine Corps posts and stations.

The report concluded with the captain's statement that there should be sufficient numbers of chevrons on hand within the next six weeks to take care of all Corps activities.

COL. THOMAS J. COLLEY

Col. Colley Leaving For University Duty

Colonel Thomas J. Colley, present Chief of Staff, MCB, will leave July 10 for duty as commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps and Professor of Military Science at the University of Washington in Seattle.

A graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, Col. Colley received his Marine Corps commission in 1932. A two-time winner of the Legion of Merit with Combat V, Col. Colley saw action during World War II with the 2nd Marine Division at Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Saipan and Tinian.

He reported to Camp Lejeune on Sept. 1, 1957. Since that time he has been assigned duties as Chief of Staff, 2nd Marine Division, on two separate occasions as commanding officer of ITR and as Assistant Base Commander.

Coming Camp Knox Hobby Show Plans Prize For Ceramics

A special prize for ceramics, two grand prizes, first, second and third prizes for four age groups plus a special non-competitive display sum up plans for Camp Knox's sixth Hobby and Handicraft Show this Saturday at the Trailer Park's Chapel. Entries are to be in at 10 a.m. and judging will be at 11 a.m.

Special Prize
Mrs. Carl Foreacre, chairman, said that a special prize for ceramics would be given if the volume merited it. The grand prizes will be one each to a man and a woman for outstanding entries. The non-competitive group has been added to afford a wider range of displays and to encourage previous winners to exhibit again if they do not want to compete. However, previous winners are eligible for prizes which consist of monetary certificates for the Canteen. Classes consist of: adult, teen, pre-teen, and children under eight years.

It is hoped that by the addition of the two extra features that this will be the best show Camp Knox has had.

Prevent Fire

Smoky the Bear says, "Only you can prevent forest fires"; yet the carnage continues. Acres of scorched Camp Lejeune woods attest that someone was careless. Perhaps it was a hurried cigarette or match tossed into grass made dry by unseasonably dry weather . . . all the makings for a first-rate forest fire. This happened several weeks ago.

Summer weather makes it doubly difficult to fight fires once they have gotten started. Manpower, money, wildlife, all suffer when careless individuals cause fires.

Be especially careful around wooded areas. Snuff out your match and make sure that the camp fire is completely out.

Watch that cigarette while driving. It only takes a second to insure that it's out—that's what ash tray receptacles are for.

New Mediterranean

One of the greatest engineering projects in the history of mankind has just been dedicated with all the official pomp the occasion deserves. The St. Lawrence Seaway, after more than four years of epic construction, has turned the Great Lakes into a new Mediterranean.

If the Seaway, with its great complex of locks and dams and its triumphant Straits of Mackinac Bridge, is a monument to human skill and technical resourcefulness, it also stands for something else—the durability of U. S. and Canadian relations.

It is a cause for celebration, this joint engineering marvel achieved by two great and good neighbors. And for the whole world it is a proud example of what common effort for constructive ends can create for human betterment.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Prospects of a new GI Bill for servicemen who enlisted after Jan. 31, 1955, are still in view as Senate committee action on the measure continues this week.

The proposed bill, which would again make service veterans eligible for education, loan guaranty and vocational rehabilitation benefits, has been approved with little change by the Senate Veterans Affairs Subcommittee. It now goes to the full Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee.

Senator Ralph W. Yarborough, chairman of the VA Subcommittee, introduced the measure. It includes provisions for $100 mustering out pay for certain veterans honorably discharged after its enactment.

Service personnel who enlisted after the last day of January in 1955—cutoff date for Korean GI Bill eligibility—are not presently entitled to federal loan or education benefits because of their military service, or for mustering out pay.

Military personnel whose household effects approach the maximum weight limit for their rank or rate are in for a possible saving under new Change 83 to the Joint Travel Regulations which goes into effect August 1.

Present allowable deductions for the weight of packing and crating material are 28.5 and 4.8 percent respectively for packed and crated and motor van shipments.

The deduction allowances apply only when it is not practical to secure an actual net weight of the unpacked household goods.

Chaplain's Corner

It is the contention of Dr. George W. Crane, a popular syndicated writer, that all men carry an invisible inscription on their chest. It is, "I want to feel important." The military organizations throughout the history of America have taken this into consideration. Because men display bravery under fire, sacrifice a portion of their body, or even give their lives, they are decorated.

Yet in the continuing state of a cold war men are just as arduous, just as dedicated to the preservation of freedom and the great liberties. Perhaps this matter of feeling important can be rephrased to include the matter of feeling accepted and appreciated in the efforts that one puts forth.

This matter can be greatly enhanced if all look for the construction and notable characteristics in others. Many times fault-finding can be a reflection of one's own sense of incompetence and lack of achievement. On the other hand there is something about a smile of acceptance or a cheery word expressing satisfaction for a job well done that is a boost to anyone's personality.

In domestic life there is place for a sense of appreciation on the part of the parents. Youngsters thrive emotionally and advance toward maturity when they feel accepted. Growth is thwarted by negativism; it is fostered by a sense of acceptance. In the framework of human social relations people cannot bear continual rejection.

There is a basic reason that man wants to be considered as an important being. He has the potential of being creative. He wants to survive as a self or person. It is his desire to transmit this sense of belonging to others.

The American constitution was framed to protect man and guarantee him freedom in his dignity and worth. This sense of acceptance is a reciprocal matter. If we want a harvest there must be a seed-time. If we want to progress we must labor. If we want to win friends we must be one.

—Chaplain O. R. Fitzgerald,
Marine Corps Base.

A vast repertoire consisting of seven fluent languages and travel in 38 different nations has been common to Marine Pvt. Bo Stevenson, an 18-year-old now on recruit training at MCRD, San Diego. Stevenson, a lifetime of experience into teen-age years, has hiked—on foot or ship through 38 different nations and speaks seven languages. He has also played the saxophone in one of Sweden's leading jazz bands, held a rank in Sweden's armed forces and won a track and boxing awards. Stevenson, a member of the 320, "L" Co., 3rd Recruit Training Bn., joined the Corps to obtain self-discipline.

ITR Families Feted At Geiger Picnic Grounds

Steaks, prizes and fun galore were had by all the 600 ITR personnel and their families who attended the First Infantry Training Regiment picnic, Sunday, June 21, at the new Camp Geiger picnic grounds.

The picnic-goers enjoyed $500 worth of steaks, fried chicken, tossed salad, potato chips, a variety of cold cuts, and quenched their thirst with ice cold soft drinks and beer.

Door Prizes

Additional features of the picnic were the door prizes. All members were given tickets which were placed in a hat, and drawn by Col. Richard D. Strickler, ITR Regimental commander.

The door prizes included, a Polaroid camera, electric razor, electric blanket, Brownie camera kit, electric barbecue rotisserie set, Kodak movie camera, and an electric Sunbeam mixer.

The picnic site, which was first scheduled to be built at Rigid Point, was completed at Camp Geiger a few weeks ago, from Camp Cafeteria funds.

The camp site is located away from the highway, one city block from the Camp Geiger Main gate. A large parking lot is provided.

Grounds Available

The grounds are available to Reserve units, battalion and individual parties, and Marine-Naval families.

The recreation area of the site includes swings, slides, a merry-go-round, and teter-totters. For adult recreation there is a softball diamond and horseshoe area.

There are cooking facilities, consisting of individual broilers, a main charcoal burner, plus tables and benches. Shade from the pines provide comfort for the card players and babies in cribs.

Link Acting Lieutenant Wins Tot From Brink

The father and mother were especially grateful on Sunday. They observed the day with their family. Act. GySgt. and Mrs. William G. Haught can thank Lt. John S. Gavis, Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., 2nd Marine making it so. Two-year-old William L. Haught, nine 1st Lt. John S. Hq. Bn., 2nd Marine making it so.

William L. Haught brought back from death only through the death of his father.

In Water

William was playing in the other children in the Haught home at beach two weeks ago. A small tidal basin over there, he was back floating in the Haught quickly waded in and carried him ashore. At the same time, Lt. Gavis, who was changing clothes in his home nearby, heard the excitement and rushed to the beach partly clothed. He listened for a heartbeat and heard none. He felt no pulse.

With the distraught mother hovering near, Lt. Gavis began artificial respiration. "I don't know how long it took," he said. "I lost track of time." Soon, faint breathing was noticed, then William began to vomit sea water . . . and finally, he began crying.

No Ill Effects

Rushed to the dispensary at the New River Marine Corps Air Facility, young William underwent a thorough physical examination which revealed no ill effects. He returned home with his much-relieved parents.

As for young William, Sunday he was as frisky as any two-year-old. But he has a healthy respect for a small tidal basin behind his home.

Marines Lose Twin B Ft. McPherson Hosts

The Camp Lejeune baseball team swung into town early Sunday morning after two defeats while winning one game on their eighth road trip of the season. The TARS avenged an early season two-game loss when they stopped the local nine, 3-0, early in the week, running the Lejeune losing streak to three straight. Saturday, the team got back into the win column with a 10-4 thumping of the 82nd ABD at Ft. McPherson.

Second Shutout

The 3-0 shutout defeat to Norfolk marked only the second time this year that an opponent has been able to shut the door on Lejeune. In a well-played game in which both nines banged out only four hits apiece, Gerry Smith dropped his third decision of the year. The former Notre Dame chucker had to this point won 16 straight and was 20-2 for the year.

Smith fanned six while walking four, allowing two runs in the third on two bingles and another in the fifth on a double and walk. Only Barry Fullerton, George Uremovich, Sam Valentine and Charley Armstrong managed to hit for the Marines as Bob Cartwright stilled the potent offense of the visitors. Cartwright whiffed eight batters in working all but the last out.

Marines Threaten

The Marines threatened in the top of the ninth when Uremovich singled to lead off; Fullerton was on via a fielder's choice with Uremovich out; Valentine walked; Bobbie Cooke popped out; Armstrong walked, and Earl Williams fanned batting for Smith to end the uprising.

The following night, reliever Thad McCollum was charged with the loss after the score was tied at 3-3 at the end of six innings. In the seventh, Norfolk put together a single, triple and sacrifice fly to produce two tallies, enough to win the game.

Lejeune came back to life in the ninth, pushing across one run on a single, walk and fielder's choice.

Bill "Pappy" Herrington started for the Marines and went four frames giving up six hits and four walks, good for three runs. McCollum finished up, allowing the winning margin in the seventh. In all, the TARS rapped out 10 safeties, six for extra bases, while Lejeune had nine hits.

Pacing the locals were Hal Norton and Valentine, each accounting for two smashes. Cooke had the only extra base blow for Lejeune, a triple in the sixth.

Defeat 82nd

Saturday night against the 82nd ABD, the Marines put together 12 hits to pound out a 10-4 verdict over the Army club. The Marines had two big innings, coming up with five in the first, four in the eighth and a final run in the ninth.

Max Eller hurled eight and two-thirds frames before giving way to Smith with one out in the eighth. Eller was credited with the victory, his ninth of the season against one loss. The Navy chaplain fanned nine, walked three and allowed seven hits. The 82nd scored a lone tally off of Smith, while the Lejeune ace struck out three and gave up three singles.

Smith also had a perfect night at the plate slamming out two doubles in the same number of appearances, sending two base-runners home. Fullerton and Dick Meade also had two hits apiece with the former accounting for a two-bagger.

Five singles in the top of the initial frame gave Lejeune enough runs to win the game. It wasn't until the sixth that the 82nd came up with its first two tallies of the game.

The victory gave the locals a 57-16 record.

Ninth Homest

The Marines will win their ninth homestand of the season tomorrow night when they host the 82nd ABD. Coach Hal Glasgow will start Smith in the first inning. Rumer Saturday and Sunday night. All three are scheduled for Harry Armstrong beginning at 8 p.m. Early season, Lejeune took three from highly rated Pherson.

The East Coast stand remained unchanged this week as all three teams were inactive in conference play. Parris Island invited the Marines to play the 82nd last night for the first time.

Marine N To Open State Tour

The Camp Lejeune baseball team will play the first game of its North Carolina State Tournament scheduled to begin on July 15 in the town of Parris. Pairings have not yet been decided but drawings are expected to start within the next few weeks.

Runners-Up

Last year, the local runner-up to Angier after losing to the local nine had to forfeit their place in a final game because of a previous court case. The Marines are expected to participate in the All-Star game in San Diego, Calif. Lejeune is the most popular team in the state, having won the last season with crowds turning out in six games that the Marines captained.

Capt. Hal Glasgow gave the locals through five wins. Gerry Smith's no-hitter, which defeated Lejeune in the local loss, The Marines fought the losers' bracket to defeat Angier and then Angier in action.

Because it was a double elimination tournament, another game was scheduled for following Monday. However, the Marines had to leave Sunday night for the West Coast and Mar.

Costa Pitches No-Hit Game; FSR Wins Two

Mike Costa, ace of the Hq. Bn. pitching staff, hurled his second no-hitter of the season last Tuesday afternoon when he blanked USNH, 6-0, in the Marine Corps Base Intramural Baseball League. Costa allowed three base runners, two via errors and one through a free pass. The victory brought Costa's record to 8-1.

In the meantime, player-manager Neill Shai and Bob Jefferies supplied the power in the offense with each blasting out a homer.

Twelve Hits

In all, Hq. Bn. picked up 12 hits while committing three errors. The winning club went ahead 2-0 in the first inning when Shai poled his round-tripper with Costa aboard. Jefferies hit his circuit smash in the sixth.

Joe Dunn and Costa each accounted for two hits in pacing Hq. Bn. Thursday, MCES stopped Hq. Bn., 4-2, on seven safeties as Carl Smith handcuffed the losers on a five-hitter. MCES banged out seven blows off two Headquarters hurlers.

Perfect Afternoon

Carl Pollard had a perfect afternoon at the plate for the winners, going three-for-three including two doubles and a triple. Shai provided the power for the losers with a triple and a single in three appearances.

Headquarters went ahead in the first, 1-0, but saw its lead quickly erased when MCES tallied two in the second and two more in the third.

In other loop action, 2nd FSR increased its league leadership by thumping MCES, 5-1, and MCSS 6-1.

Last Tuesday, Bill Bryzgornia pitched a neat four-hitter, while his teammates were banging out seven blows. Outfielder Bill Winters provided the winning margin with a perfect squeeze bunt in the fourth frame.

Norm Ozanick and Pete Rhodes each accounted for two hits in pacing the FSR offense.

Shirley Bray Hits Homer In 6-2 Win Over Norfolk

Shirley Bray's three-run homer in the bottom of the third inning and Lorenda Shelson's seven-hit pitching was enough to stop Norfolk NAS, 6-2, Saturday at the local WM field. The victory gives the Camp Lejeune Red Raiders softball team a 4-7 record. After picking up a lone tally in the first and spotting Norfolk a run in the third to tie the game, Bray smashed her circuit-clout with two mates aboard to place the Raiders permanently ahead. The visitors pushed across one more marker in the fifth while Lejeune tallied two in the fourth.

Shelson Goes Distance

Shelson went the distance, striking out seven while walking only one batter.

Dede Alexander paced the local offense with a perfect three-forthree afternoon. Jo Anne Bergman had two singles in three appearances.

This weekend, the Raiders will travel to Cherry Point for a two-game series.

Bergman, in seven games, is pacing the Raider attack, hitting .480. Shelson is blasting at a .421 clip after nine contests. Four of her eight hits have gone for extra bases. Pat Voloshin is the club's RBI leader with 11 and has four extra base blows in eight appearances for a .276 average. Team captain Alexander and Bray are the other regulars slamming in the 300's. Bray is at .313 and Alexander at .308.

Shelson is the only pitcher with a better than 500 average at 3-2. In 41 innings, she has struck out 53 opponents and has issued 20 walks. Twenty-five runs have been scored against Shelson on 34 hits.

Softball Personalities

RED RAIDERS—Two of Camp Lejeune's named stars are with the WM softball team. Left, Julie "Frenchie" LaRue, manager of the local nine. While a member of the American Shoe club, Lewiston, Maine, she was national and international walk-a-thon champ in the 50, 100 and 200-yard dash. France won the world's record for the one-mile snow shoe race in 1958 has earned 32 medals and trophies in competition. Team captain Deanna "Dede" Alexander won 12 letters while participating in softball, basketball and field hockey in Farmington, Maine, a year veteran with the Raiders. Dede is hitting at a .308 clip in the squad in stolen bases with 14.

Smith Chalks 21st; Homer By Armstrong

The Camp Lejeune baseball team was at it again as the Marines swept a two-night double header Tuesday night from Moody AFB at Harry Agganis field in two seven-inning games. The double victory brought the locals' season record to 59-16.

Moody was stopped on four hits in the first tilt as the Marines scored a 9-1 decision featuring shortstop Charley Armstrong's solo homer in the fourth and a seven-run uprising in the sixth. In the night cap, Lejeune was held to just three hits in a 4-2 verdict with Moody pulling off the first triple play at the local park in several years.

Notches 21st

Gerry Smith notched his 21st win in the opener allowing one run on four hits while striking out six and walking one. Thad McCollum hurled the final frame. Defensively, Lejeune played errorless ball while executing three double plays to shut off Moody rallies.

The Marines produced a single run in the first and one more in the fourth on Armstrong's circuit clout that drove over the leftfield wall at the 380 mark. And then came the sixth when the Marines pushed across seven markers on six hits and three Moody errors. Highlighting the frame was George Uremovich's triple to the rightfield wall scoring Barry Fullerton. Uremovich had been robbed of a homer in the fourth when Don Ellis made a one-hand stab of a fly ball just before it cleared the left-field fence.

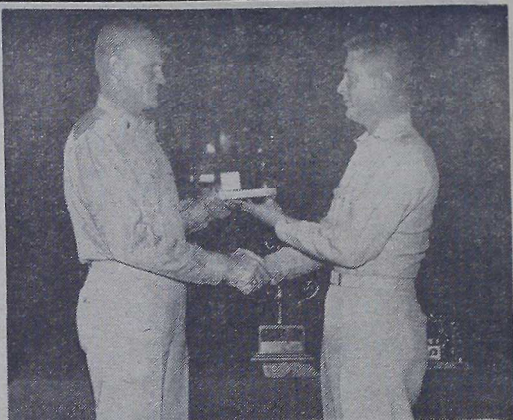

Pacing the 10-hit Lejeune attack was Armstrong with a homer and double accounting for two RBIs.

Second Game

In the second game, Moody jumped on Bob Rumer for four singles, good for two runs, in the first inning. The locals came back with three markers in the bottom of the same inning featuring a bases-loaded triple by Fullerton.

With the bases once again loaded, Dick Esau slammed a hard ball back to pitcher George Nieman who deflected it into the hands of second baseman Ellis. Ellis stepped on the bag and quickly relayed it to first catching the Lejeune base runner by surprise, completing the triple play.

Hq. Moves Closer To National Crown

Stretching its winning streak to 10 straight, Headquarters Battalion moved a step closer to clinching the National League title in 2nd Division intramural softball play last week. The league leaders can assure themselves of a first place finish by winning two of their next three games. Hq. Bn. trampled winless Med. Bn. 17-5 behind the four-hit hurling of Bryan McNaughton last Tuesday. The 17 runs were scored on a total of 15 hits and three Med. Bn. errors.

Second Victory

Ron Hutchens pitched Hq. Bn. to its second win of the week, a one-hit 9-1 victory over 3rd Bn. (Tenth Marines). The only run scored off Hutchens' deliveries was unearned.

In a game originally scheduled for June 22 but moved up to Friday June 19, Hq. Bn. again emerged victorious with a 4-2 decision over a vastly improved MT contingent.

MT scored both runs in the first inning on three consecutive extra base hits. Hq. Bn. countered with three unearned runs in the third when MT committed a series of costly errors after two were out. McNaughton survived the first inning uprising and pitched six-hit ball for the victory, his sixth without a loss this season.

Second Bn. (Tenth Marines) moved from fourth to second with wins over 1st Bn. (Sixth Marines) by an 8-3 count on Monday and 1st Bn. (Eighth Marines) 6-4 Wednesday.

MT crushed 1st Bn. (Sixth Marines) 31-5 before being edged by Hq. Bn. 4-2 on Friday. Pioneer Bn. wound up the week's proceedings in the National League with a 9-5 win over Med. Bn.

For the second consecutive week, American League action remained at a minimum with only one contest being played. Recon Bn. strengthened its hold on second place with a 17-2 rout of last place 3rd Bn. (Sixth Marines). All other teams in the league were idle last week.

10th Marines Sweep Divvy Tennis Finals

The Tenth Marines completed a clean sweep of the Division tennis finals Friday morning taking all of a possible 16 points. It was an all Tenth finals in both the singles matches held on Thursday and the doubles on Friday.

Clint Parsons swept to the singles championship by defeating Ronald Powell (Eighth Marines) with scores of 6-1, 6-0; Rowe (Sixth Marines) 6-1, 6-0; and Austin Sullivan (Tenth Marines) 6-0, 7-5. Sullivan reached the finals with wins over David Shellito (Eighth Marines) 7-5, 6-0; Carl Cohen (Second Marines) 6-0, 6-0; and Steve Olmstead of Recon Bn. 6-1, 7-5.

Doubles Win

Parsons, a former Quantico ace, teamed up with Sullivan to complete the Tenth Marines triumph in the doubles Friday morning. En route to their victory, the championship duo swept over Powell and Shellito (Eighth Marines) 6-0, 6-2; Rowe and Macklin (Sixth Marines) 3-6, 6-3, 6-2; and Greg Sinnott and Bob Smith (Tenth Marines) 6-2, 6-1. In a consolation match to determine the team runner-up, Rowe defeated Steve Olmstead (Recon) 3-6, 6-0, 6-1.

With Parsons as team captain, the four finalists in Friday's double matches comprise a team to represent the Division in the Quad-Command tourney which got under way Tuesday. The winners of this tournament will represent Camp Lejeune at Beaufort, S. C., on July 6 in the FMFLant Tournament with MAG-32 as host.

L.—Sliding into third in a cloud of dust, Eighth Marine John Dennison is tagged out by Group II third baseman Blake. The action occurred in the bottom of the second division intramural baseball game when Dennison attempted third after tagging out on a long fly to center. The Eighth stretched their winning streak to seven with a 14-2 victory today.

Fourteen Hits Stop Tenth's Win Streak

Tenth Marines snapped an eight-game Eighth Marine streak and moved to within one-half game of the leading Second Marines to highlight play in the 2nd Division intramural Baseball League. Victors in all three weeks, the Cannoneers connected for 14 hits.

Eighth Marines 9-5

A deadlock for second Tenth Marines began the No. 1 spot with over Group I on Monday when the distance to gain the win. Ed Subotich and John Greco paced the Tenth's attack accounting for seven of the 14 safeties.

Capitalizing on three Sixth Marine errors, the Tenth won their second encounter of the week with a 4-2 victory over the fourth place Sixth Marines.

Scoring early and often, the Tenth made it three straight with a 9-5 win over the Eighth Marines. Paced by Subotich, Greco and Sam Friddle, the Tenth built up an early 9-2 lead for starter Jim Aderholt who coasted the rest of the way for the win.

Wins First

Group II won its first ball game of the season at the expense of the league leading Second Marines. Ernie Cahill pitched six-hit ball while striking out 17 in going the distance for the win. The victory was climaxed by Felton Perry's ninth inning theft of home to give Group II the win.

After dropping a 14-2 decision to the Eighth Marines on Wednesday, Group II came back to win its second encounter of the season, an 18-10 conquest of Group I. Right-hander Cahill struck out eight of the nine batters he faced in a three inning relief stint to save the win for starter Al Dean.

The Eighth Marines ran its streak to eight straight with wins over the Sixth Marines and Group II. The 3-0 triumph snapped a three game winning streak by the Sixth Marines.

The Second Marines maintained league leadership with a 7-0 victory over Group I on Wednesday. Mike Miller gave up five hits in notching the shut out while Jim Hummel paced the 12 hit attack with three-for-four.

Star Wrestler Back

IN TRAINING AGAIN—Camp Lejeune's Howard George received a clean bill of health last week from doctors at USNH and has joined the AIMar team currently working out in preparation for the Pan American trials scheduled at Michigan State in mid-July. George, an alternate on the 1956 Olympic squad, had been sidelined with an elbow injury that saw him miss both the AIMar Tournament in wrestling and judo.

The Marines tallied one more in the fourth when Uremovich tripled and came home on the catcher's error.

Rumer, in chalking up his ninth win, went the distance walking two while fanning five opponents. Homer Hobgood, Fullerton and Uremovich were the only Marines able to hit, each delivering one blow apiece.

The locals played Seymour Johnson AFB last night and will conclude the two-game set tonight at Goldsboro.

Prior to the Moody games, tabulation of the ballots for the Most Valuable and Most Popular players showed Norton was the leading candidate for both honors. The local first sacker is currently hitting at .378 and is pacing the club in homerun production with nine; runs scored, 88; base hits, 116; and doubles, 23.

Voting will continue throughout the remainder of the season with ballot boxes placed at either end of the middle exits under the stands at Harry Agganis field.

BOXING

Word has filtered from Hartford, Conn., that Pete Benson, a known Marine Corps boxer, has been putting his work to the benefit of Hartford area boys.

Pete is presently stationed in Hartford as the Marine Reserve Inspector-Instructor stationed here two years ago after three years as Lejeune during which time his teams were three-time champions and the 1956 Atlantic Fleet champions.

In Hartford, Benson just finished a season of his art to boys in the Hartford area YMCA to boys clubs in the vicinity.

Other boxing news from the New England area that Billy Ryan, one-time Camp Lejeune prizefighter, is making his time in earnest. Property of Rocky Marciano, up to eight-rounders and last month drew well.

The McNeelys

Brian McNeely, a member of the 1958 Camp Lejeune ball team and formerly of Michigan State, is a proud of his brother Tom, rated one of the best to come out of New England in many years. The heavyweight has won his first 11 bouts, 10 catches.

Brian is also entertaining the idea of turning professional as soon as he gains amateur experience. His brother, before hanging up his gloves in 1931. Since then, Sr. has taught both Brian and Tom the fundamentals of the art.

TRACK: Four of Camp Lejeune's track athletes participated in the Amateur Athletic Union's 71st annual track and field championships held at Boulder, Colo., over the weekend. The only place-getter was Vic Zwolak, All-Marine, won the 3,000 meter steeplechase run. Vic placed eighth in the event with Jerry Walters of the Southern California finishing first in 9:19.

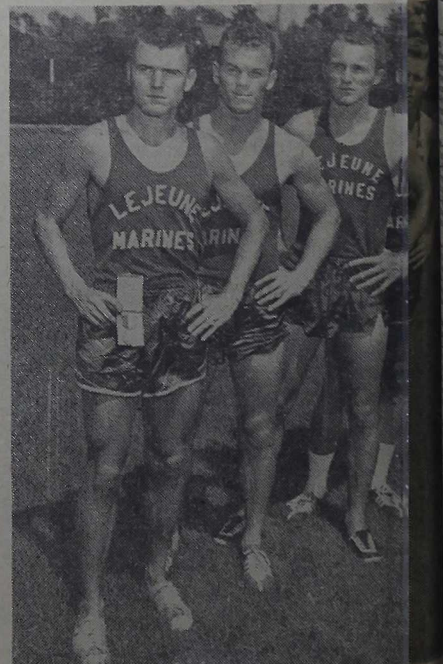

Other Team Members

Other local marines making the trip were Harry Merrill Sweitzer and Jim Rockwell. The latter placed in the high jump, his best effort to date. Both Rockwell have all their eligibility remaining and are being looked at by some of the best coaches in the country.

Zwolak, in an interview Monday afternoon, said of the slow times in the meet on the altitude, "I didn't alibi as to his own performance as he said that he needs a lot of work going over the steeplechase."

Rockwell stated that he picked up quite a bit from AIMar champion Bob Gardner of Quantico. He said that he feels that Gardner will be the next to covet seven-foot barrier in the high jump, and third at the AAU with a 6'7" effort.

In all, even though the Southern California State team title, marines at the event captured more than all of the other service representatives combined.

Career Lawyer Plan Adopted By Corps

In a move to solve its lawyer shortage problem, the Marine Corps has adopted a program in which regular officer lawyers will carry primary law MOS's and will be assigned continuously to legal duties, Headquarters Marine Corps announced last week.

Provides For Integration

The new program also provides for integration into the regular Marine Corps of a limited number of Reserve officer lawyers on both active and inactive duty.

Under the old system, regular officer lawyers could carry only secondary legal MOS's and normally were rotated between law and line duties. The remainder of the Corps' billets requiring certified lawyers were filled by Reserve officers on active duty.

In the first phase of the new program, letters went out last week from the Commandant of the Marine Corps to each of the Corps' 91 regular officer lawyers requesting that they choose voluntarily between accepting primary legal MOS's (0185 or 0195) or retaining their present MOS's. Those who accept the change-over will be given recurring assignments to legal duties. Those who do not will be gradually phased out of law billets.

BAFFLED MARINE—Act. Sgt. John Jones, H&S Co., 3rd Bn., Second Marines, was a bit baffled to run across the above signpost on the outskirts of Brindisi, Italy. Italian Carabinieri (police)—with tongue in cheek—reported that "after exhaustive investigation, we are unable to apprehend the homesick marine." The 3rd Bn., Second Marines, is currently serving as the amphibious landing force of the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.
