Brigadier General Sidney S. Wade
... Assumes Base Command July 1

Major General James P. Riseley
... Retiring After 37 Years' Service

Brig. Gen. Wade To Succeed Retiring Gen. Riseley July 1st

Brig. Gen. Sidney S. Wade, assistant Division commander, 2nd Division, has been named by Headquarters Marine Corps to succeed Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley as commanding general, Marine Corps Base. The change of command will officially take place July 1.

Col. Odell M. Conoley, deputy director, Marine Corps Education Center, Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, has been selected for promotion to brigadier general and will replace General Wade as assistant Division commander, 2nd Division.

While with the Division on January 10, 1958, General Wade assumed command of the 2nd Provisional Marine Force, FMFLANT, and departed for the Mediterranean area on May 14.

At the request of the government of Lebanon, the first units of the 2nd Provisional Marine Force under his command went ashore at Beirut on July 15. The general commanded all American land forces in Lebanon until relieved by Maj. Gen. Paul D. Adams, USA, on July 26. General Wade remained in command of all Marine forces in Lebanon during the entire operation. He departed there on October 4 and returned to Camp Lejeune where he assumed his present position as assistant division commander, 2nd Division.

The general was born September 30, 1909, in Bloomington, Ill. Following enlisted service in the Marine Corps from May 1928 to July 1929, he attended the U. S. Naval Academy and upon graduation was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Corps.

General Wade's pre-World War II duties included sea duty aboard the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, Salt Lake City and Louisville; two years' service in China with the Fourth Marines; attendance at the Junior Course, MCS, Quantico, and duty at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

General Wade was promoted to major in 1942 and served as assistant G-2, Headquarters 1st Amphibious Corps, Pacific Fleet. While attached to that organization he completed a course of instruction at the Army's Command and General Staff School, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. He also participated in the Pacific campaigns at the Marshall-Gilbert

Army Marines Assist Fire Fighters

Members of the 2nd Bn., Eighth Marine Division, in conjunction with Forest personnel were mopped-up in Camden County, N. C., Tuesday which burned over 10,000 acres.

Division Marines responded Friday evening to a call from the North Carolina State Service office in New Bern. Robert L. Zuern headed a fighting detail of three and 111 enlisted men. The group from the Eighth Marine Division, unless a heavy rainfall intervenes, the Marines expect to be committed as much as five days. The problem of completely smothering the fire is complicated by the heavy peat moss covering the affected area which embraces about 6,000 acres.

Because of the unexpected flare-ups, the marine fire-fighters were withdrawn at night. They departed Lejeune equipped with fire-flaps, fire rakes and Indian pump-cans filled with water.

Regional Forester R. C. Wink-

worth, in charge of the 200-man fire crew, said, "Now we have a mop-up and holding proposition. If we can hold it as we're doing, we ought to have it wrapped up."

Winkworth said he and other State Forest officials believe the blaze was set intentionally, according to Wilmington papers. "We can't say positively," he explained, "but it was set in a place miles from where anyone travels—an inaccessible place where no one has any business."

Elizabeth City is 165 miles from Camp Lejeune.

If you ask me...

WHY DO YOU CONSIDER COMMUNISM A THREAT TO YOURSELF PERSONALLY?

CAPT. C. G. PIERIE, "B" Co., 1st Bn., Sixth Marines — The goal of Communism as we know it is one of world domination. Their basic philosophies of atheism and materialism would be forced on the free peoples of the world. To preserve our personal liberties and the free-enterprise system, I believe we must continually maintain a positive political and military position.

ACT. GYSGT. CHARLES A. MARLOW, Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., 2nd Division — I feel that Communism is a threat to me personally inasmuch as its purpose is to destroy all that I stand for as a career marine. My rights, freedom, choice and standard of living would be taken away if Communism were to dominate the world.

ACT. SSGT. STANLEY R. TEWS, "C" Co., 2nd Pioneer Bn., 2nd Division — There are a great number of reasons why I consider Communism a threat to myself personally. Basically, I feel that unless we are prepared for all incidents, there are possibilities that Communism could influence our future lives in such a manner that we would lose our cherished freedoms. I for one do not wish to lose any of these freedoms which many of us have fought for.

ACT. SGT. CHARLES A. SMITT-KAMP, Base Materiel Battalion — If Communism were to take over the United States, each and every one of us would be in the same position as the people of all other countries under the Communist hand. We would be without the freedoms we have fought for and lived by so long. To preserve these rights, I feel that we must work together as a country and show the less fortunate people the "right way" of living.

PVT. JAMES H. BERRY, Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., MCB — I consider Communism a threat to myself because under the power of Communism I would lose all of the rights and privileges I have known as an American citizen, and most important to me, the right to think for myself. The purposes and promises of a future in freedom offer too much to be cramped by Communist domination.

CLOTHING STORE INVENTORY

Clothing stores number 1-6, and 8 will be closed for inventory today and tomorrow. The stores include Bldg. 1211, Camp Geiger, Bldg. 64, Montford Point, Mobile Van, Bldg. 434, and MCAS, Cherry Point.

Dependents' Summer Rec. Program Set

The Youth Activities Committee of the local recreation council will sponsor a children's summer recreation program for all military dependents and those residing within the limits of Camp Lejeune.

Activities highlighting the program include swimming, golf, boat-sailing, canoeing, tennis, gymnastics and supervised playground, drivers training, weaving, leathercraft, metalcraft, art and wood-working.

Parents may register their children, boys and girls of school age grades one through 12, May 22, from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m., and on Saturday, May 23, from 8:30 p.m. until 11:30 a.m.

A registration fee of one dollar will be charged for each child. Those desiring participation in arts and crafts are asked to provide their own raw materials. All facilities and hand tools for the arts and crafts classes will be provided by the committee.

The program is divided into two periods, the first June 15 through July 10, and the second from July 27 to August 21.

Daily sessions are to be held Monday through Friday, and each session begins at 8:30 and ends at 11:30 a.m. Sessions are broken into three 45-minute periods to allow each child a maximum participation in all events.

Trained recreation and vocational supervisors will instruct and supervise all activities. The committee reports that vacancies are still available for paid adult supervisors. Those interested should contact Tom McGee at the Camp High School.

Military bus service will be provided to and from all government quarters and assigned areas. Points of pick-up and times will be given during registration.

Armed Forces Day

A torchlight parade led by the 2nd Marine Division band at Portsmouth, Va., will highlight the observance in the Norfolk area. During their visit there, 2nd Division marines will display an Ontos and their recently adopted "mechanical mule" with mounted 106mm recoilless rifle.

New Bern will witness a marching unit of the Division, accompanied by their drum and bugle corps. Tomorrow afternoon a display of Division equipment will be on hand at Morehead City.

Saturday, on Armed Forces Day, the 2nd Bn., Second Marines, with color guard will parade in Raleigh.

At Ft. Jackson, near Columbia, the Division's 2nd Anti-Tank Bn. will set up an Ontos with crew of three for static display and fire power demonstration.

Force Troops has had a 24-man detachment at Portsmouth this week in connection with an Armed Forces' fair. Another Force Troops' unit, 8th Engineer Bn., is participating in a parade at Morehead City, while the Force Troops' Drum and Bugle Corps will furnish music for marching Division units at Raleigh this Saturday.

For local servicemen, dependents and non-military visitors, Armed Forces Day means open house when Camp Lejeune plays host to all who would see what part it plays in the national defense role.

Local Navy Relief Drive Total Doubles

The 1959 Navy Relief Drive, nearing the end of its second week, has more than doubled last week's total membership subscriptions with the figure $15,000 reported by Col. H. W. G. Vadnais, drive chairman.

Continuing throughout the month of May, membership subscribers are eligible for the host of awards to be presented next month upon the return of the NELM battalion membership cards.

It is still urged that Navy Relief subscribers print their names and current organization legibly on card stubs, eliminating possible long, tedious tracking down of award recipients.

The 1959 funds appeal of the Navy Relief Society, on an all-station basis, spans the period May 4 to June 6 in commemoration of the WWII sea-air battles fought by the Navy and marines in the Coral Sea and at Midway.

Top awards this year include three automobiles, a boat and a camping trailer which have been on display at various Base locations for the past two weeks.

An early statement by Adm. Arleigh Burke, CNO, and president of the Navy Relief Society, said, "It is my confident hope that the interest and support of all Navy and Marine Corps personnel will insure a generous response to this year's drive."

Division BLT To T Academy Midshipmen

A battalion landing team (BLT) from the 2nd Division, scheduled to participate in the training of midshipmen 5-18 in the Norfolk area. Titled TRAMID-59, the training for the schooling of 780 second class midshipmen at the U. S. Naval Academy in the fundamental techniques of amphibious assault.

Bragg Field Firing Ends

Members of the Tenth Marines and the 2nd Field Artillery Group, Force Troops, returned Saturday from a 14-day field firing exercise at Fort Bragg.

The exercise was divided into two phases, including intensive gunnery practice followed by tactical situations in fire planning and control of an artillery regiment in support of a division operation.

Force Troops artillerymen supplied eight-inch Howitzer fire under Maj. W. L. Gore and 155 Howitzer support under command of Maj. J. J. Kagan.

DESIGN IN ARTILLERY—Force Troops' 155mm Howitzer Btry. provided night illumination during the Tenth Marines' field firing exercises conducted at Ft. Bragg.

Sea Service's Own

There are charities and charities and service people have been generous in supporting these organizations that help those in need. One group, however, that gets unreserved support whenever it appeals for funds is the Navy Relief Society, the sea service's own.

Camp Lejeune has always unstintingly given to the annual Navy Relief appeal for funds and this year's drive, as has those in the past, is expected to go over the top.

Marines, sailors and their dependents know that in times of adversity when the "need is there" Navy Relief stands ready to help.

Mark Of Maturity

One of the surest marks of the mature man is a high and consistent sense of financial responsibility. His affairs are solvent. If he has to borrow money, he steers clear of loan sharks and consults his bank. He gets the money he needs because his credit is good. His checks don't bounce.

Rubber checks make good material for gag writers. That's about all they're good for. A serviceman who can't balance his checkbook or keep a sufficient bank balance to meet emergencies isn't likely to be dependable in other ways.

Check cashing is a privilege and the Exchange that honors your check puts its faith in you. If that faith is destroyed and it is returned with "insufficient funds," trouble is ahead.

Every office that extends check cashing privileges also has the so-called "black list" of persons who have been denied the right to cash checks. Besides the loss of check-cashing rights, there's the knowledge that your name is inscribed on a list that does no credit to you.

Your checkbook signature is a badge of maturity. The person cashing your check trusts you; don't betray that trust.

★ WASHINGTON REPORT

The Senate has voted to keep the Marine Corps at a strength of 200,000, according to Navy Times.

The measure contained in an amendment to a current appropriation bill, provided "The Marines had to be maintained at an end strength of not less than 200,000." The measure was introduced by Senators Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) and Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), both former Leather-necks.

The Marine Corps had already begun cutting toward a Department of Defense figure of 175,000. At last report current strength was reported at 183,400. Under the new amendment, strength would have to be raised to 200,000 by June 30, a build-up of 15,000.

The Senate Defense Appropriations subcommittee expressed itself on the subject thusly:

"The committee desires that it be clearly understood . . . that it is the clear-cut intent of the committee, and of the proposed appropriating legislation, that the Marine Corps be maintained at 200,000."

The current appropriations bill with the Marine rider attached to it, is for additional funds for operations for all services, most of it needed because of the Lebanon and Formosa crises.

Chaplain's Corner

Many of you will be going to sea in ships, and many of you will be in the Mediterranean.

Some years ago it was my privilege to cruise in these same waters, and make a visit to Rome. While there some 300 of us had the pleasure of meeting Pope Pius XI. He spoke to us so simply and beautifully that I pass his message on to you:

"You men are going to live your lives following the sea, and in this profession of yours you may learn much about life itself and how to live your life, because the sea is a great teacher. Our Lord sailed the seas. His early followers were seamen, fishermen. Now you know from the short time you have spent at sea there are beautiful days when the sun is shining and the waters are smooth and clear and then all is serene. Your ship sails along smoothly. But then there come dark days. There are days of overcast and days of fog, when you have to slow down, when you have to feel your way, when you need guidance of some kind, or compass, or in our present day, radar. Then there are other days when not only the skies are overcast, but there are gales blowing and the sea is whipped into fury and you have to be careful in tending your ship, that she does not founder. You must know how to act and when to act. Then as you approach shores there are shoals and shallow places that must be avoided, else your ship will ground. You need various devices then to help you. You sound your lead, or you have lighthouses to warn you away from these shoals and shallow places."

These are all very simple words, spoken by a great religious leader, but their message is clear to all.

—PAUL G. LINWEAVER,
Division Chaplain.

Marine Sgt. Harold Cutler was rushing his wife to the hospital at San Diego for what turned out later to be twins, when he was flagged down by an over-zealous policeman. After discovering the anxiety of the young marine, the policeman transferred the couple to his patrol car and sirens screaming ended up at the University of California's Scripps Oceanography Institute. Mrs. Cutler told the policeman she was going to have babies, not fish, and please get her to the nearby Scripps Memorial hospital. All, however, ended well and the policeman got them to the hospital in plenty of time on his next try.

Two Texas naval installations have "declared war" over poaching rights in the current Navy Relief drive. The message from the commander of the Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Chase Field, Kingsville, Texas, was unmistakable: "... any such invasion north of the 28th parallel (North of Christ, south of Sinton) will be considered an act of war. Counteraction will be taken accordingly." His demand because in their enthusiasm for the Navy Relief drive, Kingsville had "invaded" local territory. Both readying drives for Navy Relief. Kingsville's stand at Chase Field's begins today.

'Mystery Mother' Visits Son For Mothers Day, Thanks To Local USO

The mother of a 2nd Division marine was dubbed Onslow County-Camp Lejeune Mystery Marine Mother of the Year last weekend at the Jacksonville USO.

Mrs. T. Joseph Connolly was selected for the honor from the list of the hometown registration log maintained at the Tallman Street USO.

Her son, Pfc Kevin J. Connolly, Second Marines, who had no idea of his mother's selection, first learned of the USO's choice while he stood at attention as a member of the honor guard welcoming the "Mystery Mother" to ceremonies at the Jacksonville USO.

The novel Mother's Day idea was originated when Mrs. Troy Connor, a volunteer worker at the USO, wrote Kevin's mother about her son's regular United Services visits. Mrs. Connolly in return sent a letter to the organization thanking the personnel for their efforts to make her son's "home away from home" a real home.

USO officials, gratified with Mrs. Connolly's return letter, began to make plans for a very special "Mother's Day" celebration for both her and her son.

Mrs. Connolly was flown here from Winthrop, Mass., met by an honor guard and welcomed at the USO. All expenses were paid by the local United Services Organization.

In addition, Mrs. Connolly received a number of gifts from local merchants and was then honored as a participant guest at the Jacksonville club's weekly hospitality hour.

Saturday, she toured Camp Lejeune facilities with her son and was again feted at the USO.

Monday morning, the mother-of-the-rise met with Maj. Gen. James P. Riley, commanding general, Marine Corps Base, and Maj. Gen. Joseph C. Burger, 2nd Division commander. Shortly thereafter she left for Massachusetts, and her son returned to his duties at H&S Co., 2nd Bn., Second Marines.

USO dignitaries were so pleased with the results that the officials are presently planning on making this an annual Mother's Day surprise for local Leathernecks.

Friends close to either the bride's or groom's family usually send wedding gifts whether they attend the reception or not.

RADIO SHOW, NAVY RELIEF PLANS HIGHLIGHT STAFF WIVES MEETING

A discussion on a "Party Line" program and the purchase of $50 worth of Navy Relief tickets were the highlights of the regular business meeting of the Staff NCO Wives Club held last Thursday night at the Community Center. On two occasions, the members of the club will be called upon for interviews about the Staff Wives club.

Plans were also discussed regarding the distribution of the 100 Navy Relief membership tickets purchased by the club. It was decided that the tickets would be given to each of the members and guests present at the next social meeting. Also, they will be used as game prizes at the meeting.

Forty members and three guests were on hand for the last meeting. Guests included Mrs. Jack Tenison, Mrs. Alan Prewitt and Mrs. Carson Franklin (now members).

Due to transfers, the positions of treasurer and recording secretary were vacated on the executive board. Mrs. Carla Swanson was appointed to fill the position of recording secretary.

 Whatever it's called now by men of the 3rd Bn., Second Marines, the 225-yard beach was where they first flexed their amphibious muscles since leaving Camp Lejeune last February.
 They maneuvered in the narrow bay for five days—had turn-away landings—practiced hitting the beach and wore callouses on their hands from climbing debark nets.

 "I've climbed so many nets I feel like a spider," observed Pfc Robert S. Houghton, a rifleman with "L" Co., as his boots thudded into a bobbing Peter boat (LCVP) for another turn-away exercise.
 When Lt. Col. Thomas Witherspoon figured the men under his command were ready and had shaken the effects of a soft month aboard ship, the battalion slammed ashore for a two-day problem in the hills.

 Once ashore, the marines went into their familiar routine.
 "K" Co. secured the hills on the left flank—"T" Co. dittoed on the right and medium support weapons moved in behind them. The LST's then ground in with bulkier support and supplies.

 During practice the sun had been brighter than a baby's laughter. But as the real show began, the weatherman gloomily and correctly predicted: "Rain and dropping temperatures."

College Stars Pace Fort Lee Victory

Thinclads Suffer First Loss

Bobby Mitchell, Rookie-of-the-Year with the Cleveland Browns' professional football team, and Bob Seaman, runner-up, National AAU mile champion in 1957, led the Ft. Lee Travelers to a 75½-64½ victory over Camp Lejeune's track team at Liversedge oval Saturday afternoon. It marked the first time this season that the Marines were defeated in dual competition.

Mitchell placed first in the 220-yard low hurdles, clocked at :24.9; first in the broad jump with a distance of 23'9½", and third in the century. Seaman had little trouble winning the mile (4:17.2), half mile (1:59.5), and helped pace the mile relay team to an easy seven-yard victory in that event.

Earl Poucher, former University of Florida star and All-Marine, took a first and second for the Marines, pole vaulting 13' for the win and placing runner-up in the broad jump.

All-Marine Tony Szalkowski tossed the hammer 148'1", bettering his own All-Mar record of 142'2¾", and placed third in the discus.

Other Ft. Lee double winners included Joe Johnson, Jim Simmons and Bob Hutcherson.

Johnson captured firsts in the discus (147'4") and shot (47'11"). Simmons won the 440-yard dash in :49.2, edging Lejeune's Bob Grayer by one-half yard after taking a 20-yard lead on the far turn. Simmons anchored the mile relay quartet to a 3:26 win with the Marines' bad baton passing spelling the difference. Simmons also ran runner-up in the 220.

Hutcherson took both dashes, beating out Willis Fjerstad by a half stride in the century (:09.8). He won the 220 in :21.5.

Lejeune's Merrill Sweitzer ran a stride behind Seaman for the first two and one-half laps before the Southern Californian pulled out ahead, winning by 60 yards. Seaman's times for the quarters were :63, 2:09, and 3:13 for a 4:17.2 mile.

Lejeune's Vic Zwolak, hobbled by chin splints, ran away with the two-mile event, timed at 9:46.2. Ron Botchan threw the javelin 191'4" to take a first for the Marines.

Divvy Baseball Play Inaugurated Today

The 2nd Marine Division intramural baseball conference gets under way today. Last year's champs, the Eighth Marines, clash against the Tenth Marines at Brown field. Gametime is 1:30 p.m.

In both the Division and Quad-Command tournaments last year the Eighth Marines were victorious over the Tenth, who will be looking for revenge in this afternoon's tilt.

Two more games are on tap tomorrow afternoon. Second Service Bn. is slated to engage Group II, while the Second Marines will meet the Sixth Marines.

Conference games will be played on Mondays and Wednesdays through July. Each team is scheduled to play 33 games this season.

Locals Lose On Road

Gerry Smith Pitches, Bats Lejeune To 18-3 Victory

Repetition reigned—Gerry Smith pitches and bats the Camp Lejeune nine to victory as the Marines broke a two-game losing streak last Wednesday to blast a hosting Ft. Knox club, 18-3. The local ace accounted for five RBI's with a homer, double and single. Smith hurled a six-hitter for his 12th win of the campaign.

The following day, the Marines couldn't do anything right as they committed seven errors and lost to the same team, 13-5. Friday, Lejeune concluded one of its worst road trips in two years with a convincing 15-5 thumping of Carson-Newman college behind Bill "Pappy" Herrington's four-hitter. The victory brought the Marine record to 33-12 and 2-3 on the current tour.

Smith struck-out seven in a seven-inning game against Knox. The tall righty twice fanned Jerry Elder who had played with the Cincinnati Reds last year. Lejeune backed Smith with 15 hits. Besides Smith's three blows, Stan Jackson and Dick Meade each collected three smashes in pacing the local offense.

Lejeune opened up the game in the last two frames, pushing across five runs in each inning. Smith's homer came in the top of the fourth when the Marines came up with four markers.

Bob Rumer started for Lejeune in the second game against Ft. Knox, allowing eight runs in five innings of which only three were earned. Rumer walked two while whiffing six. Thad McCollum hurried the remaining innings, giving up five markers, two of which were earned, struck out two and issued four free passes.

The Lejeune bats exploded for 11 hits but the defense fell apart after the Marines had taken a 3-0 lead in the top of the second inning. Dick Meade batted out a single, double and triple in five appearances to lead the Marines at the plate.

Knox scored one run in the bottom of the second, third, sixth and seventh frames, two in the fourth, four in the fifth and three in the eighth. Elder slammed two giant size home runs off of Rumer, accounting for four RBI's. His first round-tripper carried 400 feet.

Herrington, after winning five straight, dropped two consecutive games before regaining his form in the Carson-Newman contest, limiting the collegiates to just four hits for their five runs, one earned, and fanned five while giving up five walks.

Lejeune blasted out 16 hits in the 15-5 rout with Jackson going four for four which included a double. Sam Valentine also banged out four smashes in six trips.

However, the big blow of the game was Barry Fullerton's grand slam homer in the second inning. The converted catcher, now playing in the outfield, came up with two hits in three appearances and five RBI's.

The Marines bounded off to a fast start as they chalked up 13 markers in the first three frames. The locals added single runs in the fourth and sixth innings.

Carson-Newman tallied a lone run in the second on a single and three Lejeune errors. Three more were scored in the following stanza on two miscues and two walks. Another solo marker came home in the eighth on a homer by Jim Bales.

Anderson, Everett Tie In WGA Event

Phyl Anderson and Ione Everett tied for first place in "A" flight during the weekly WGA tourney at the Paradise Point golf course last week. Both carded a low net 69. Runner-up was Adria Law with a 70.

Pat Folsom came home with a 70 for "B" flight winner while Alice McCullough had a 70, top for "C" flight. Second in "C" was Dorothy Wilcox with a 71.

"D" flight honors were captured by Betty Walker's 77.

Ciella Fleissner's 17 putts for nine holes took the least putts award.

MILE WINNER—Ft. Lee's Bobby Seaman breezes home in after running the four quarters in 4:17.2. The former Southern California star also placed first in the half-mile and helped 1 mile relay team to victory. The visiting Travelers from Virg foated Camp Lejeune Saturday afternoon at Liversedge ov 64½, as the Marines dropped their first dual meet after tal straight.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR—A last minute entry in the track r urday was Bobby Mitchell of Illinois football fame and last Rookie of the Year while playing with the Cleveland Brov Ft. Lee speedster registered first in the 220 yard low hurd and broad jump. Mitchell just edged Camp Lejeune's Les C in the hurdle race. The pro ball player jumped 23'9½" for event victory.

WM Softball Team Drops Two To Jets

The Camp Lejeune WM softball team suffered a double setback over the weekend when they were stopped by the Cherry Point Jets Saturday, 9-7, in their home opener, and again Sunday, 10-6.

The local Red Raiders committed 10 errors in the first game while pounding out nine hits with Shirley Bray and Dee Alexander contributing doubles in the losing cause.

Sis Pranger worked the first five innings for the locals and was charged with the defeat. Lorenda Shelton relieved Pranger and finished up the contest. The Jets spotted Lejeune a run in the first and then came back with a single tally in the second to tie the game. They opened up the contest in the fourth with three runs and added five more in the fifth. The Raiders scored four in the sixth in a late inning rally and two in the seventh.

Pranger absorbed the second loss when the Jets pushed across five markers in their first time at bat. After tallying a lone run in the second, Lejeune finally came to life in the sixth coming up with five markers. However, the Jets had already wrapped the game up with a run in the third and sixth frames and three in the fourth.

Both teams blasted nine hits with Lejeune committing 10 errors.

Locals Belt Airmen 26-0; Smith Picks Up Win Number 13

Football returned to Camp Lejeune in the guise of the local baseball team when it swamped Andrews AFB, 26-0, Tuesday night in the second of a two-game series. And not to be overshadowed was Gerry Smith's four-hit pitching performance Monday night before a record crowd for the season of 3,693 spectators. The Marine rightly picked up his 13th victory in a 11-3 contest against the same club.

Smith struck out 15 going the route while exhibiting perfect control. The three runs Andrews scored were unearned as the Marines came up with three errors in the sixth frame. The former Notre Dame chucker had a perfect game going until Joe Clarke singled in the fourth.

A 45-minute delay because of the umpires failing to arrive on time didn't still the bats of the Marines as they banged out 14 blows, with Sam Valentine contributing a homer and a triple. Hal Norton had a triple and two singles in five appearances, while Earl Williams chimmed in with a three-bagger and a single in three trips to the plate.

Lejeune bounded off to a two-run lead in the bottom of the second with Valentine's poke in the fourth over the leftfield wall adding a run in the fourth.

In a battle royal the following night, the Marines tallied 10 markers in the first inning on three hits, four errors, wild pitch, hit batter, fielder's choice, four free passes and a theft of home plate by Norton.

Four more were added in the second, eight in the third, one in the fourth and three in the fifth.

Of the 18 Lejeune hits, Bobby Cooke and Cliff Simpson each got three. Cooke had two doubles and a bingle, while Simpson beat out three infield hits. Valentine, Norton and Williams contributed two-baggers in the assault.

Andrews used five hurlers in an unsuccessful attempt to stop the rampaging Marines. Frank Reichard, the Airmen's starter, lasted only two-thirds of the initial inning.

The game was so unique that manager Hal Glasgow called from his bench Bobbie Culler, equipment manager, and Joe DePompa, team statistician, trainer and catcher for batting practice. In his only turn at bat, DePompa struck out. However, he received an ovation from the crowd with his sliding technique when sent in to run for Dick Esau in the fifth.

Group I Nine Coached By Dick Mulloy

(Last in a series of articles on the 2nd Division intramural baseball teams.)

The Group I baseball team, last year's cellar-dwellers in the 2nd Division conference with a 1-14 record, will be out to improve their mark and play the spoiler's role this season.

Dick Mulloy, a graduate of Manhattan college in 1956, will handle the tutoring for the Group team this year. Mulloy had played centerfield there with the Jaspers for four seasons.

At present Mulloy is carrying a 17-man squad which is comprised of members from both Hq. Bn. and Pioneer Bn. The club got off to a late start in spring training but is beginning to take shape.

Ernie Cahill, Gerald Cole and Alfred Ballard form the nucleus of the pitching staff, while Joe Wade and Ed Terry will share the catching chores.

In the infield, Mulloy will probably go with left-handed swinging Felton Perry at first base, Stan Jackson at second, Phil Fenn at third and Harold Dean at shortstop. Jackson joined the team this week after playing shortstop with the Lejeune varsity in the former part of the season.

Arthur Gately, Paul Timberlane and Gary Blanton will fill in as utility infielders.

Gene Barnhardt, Ray Kasprzak and John Scarduzio got the starting berths in the outfield while Joe Dohaty and Don Marzano will be the substitute flychasers.

Golf Slices

By JIM BUTLER

There will be a home-and-home match against Cherry Point with the Burger Bucket at stake May 17 at Cherry Point. Anyone interested in playing, sign up at the golf course.

Joyce Ziski and Beverly Hanson, two top lady pros, will play the Paradise Point course Friday. The girls finished one-two, respectively last weekend in the Howard Johnson Tournament.

Anyone wishing to enter the ringer tourney should check in at the pro shop.

MCSS downed Hq. Bn. to run its win streak to five straight in the MCB Intramural Golf League. USNH downed ITR in other action.

The golf course is open officially during daylight hours only. All other times, play is prohibited.

The greens are still being gassed on course No. 2. All golfers are cautioned to stay as far away as possible from these greens.

First Catch Entered In Fishing Tournery

By CAPT. JOHN T. McKENNA
7-3606

FISHING CONTEST: First entry has been reported by Sgt. Maj. E. R. Huff, 2nd FSR, with a tremendous bream (bluegill) weighing 17 ounces. He hooked the fish at Wallace Creek using garden hackle. Best part of the catch is that this was the sergeant major's first fishing experience. Questions have arisen as to why one must be a member of the Rod and Gun club to be eligible for the 1959 fishing contest. This is self-explanatory as all the prize money has been taken out of the club's till. This gives you a good chance to join the organization and take part in the derby. Old members, don't forget to renew your 1959-60 membership.

An important meeting is set

MCSS Boasts Contender For League Crown

Marine Corps Supply Schools has been tabbed as one of the most improved teams in the Marine Corps Base Intramural Baseball League. Coaches Gene Jaczko and Bob Burnham have guided the Supplymen through their first two games undefeated. Coach Jaczko hurried for Iona college and is property of the Cincinnati Reds while mentor Burnham picked up his experience also on the mound, while at Duke university.

This year's club will rely mainly on the arms of Aaron Taylor, Bob Brolinski and Bob Nielson. The starting infield has Bob Houston at first, Hall Foster at second, team captain Jim Riano at short and Dorsel Santee at third.

In leftfield is Jim Smith. Paul Martin holds down the centerfield slot and Ron Spencer is in right.

Bill Moreland Hurls 8th MT To 6-1 Win

The Force Troops Intramural Softball League officially opened last Wednesday afternoon when 8th MT Bn., behind the one-hit pitching of Bill Moreland, handily defeated 8th Comm. Bn., 6-1. John Schmidt tossed the distance for the losers, allowing five hits.

However, of the five smashes, two went the distance. Forrest Coglianone banged a two-run homer in the fourth with one aboard while teammate Bill Simon hit for the circuit in the top of the seventh.

Dave Brown accounted for the lone Comm. run with a round-tripper in the sixth.

Quote of the Week: Casey Stengel, New York Yankee manager, explaining why he wears pajamas under his coarse woolen baseball uniform: "My skin's been itching ever since I shook hands with that Frank Lane." A quick look at the American League standings and Lane's Cleveland Indians has no doubt intensified that itch.

Dr. Tom Scott, former University of North Carolina ball coach and currently director of Physical Education at Davidson college, spoke before a combined wrestling, and boxing banquet audience Thursday at Marston Pavilion. He outlined the history of sports in North Carolina and the vital part it plays in the role of League, high school, colleges and Armed Forces.

Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, MCB commanding general, was presented a birthday cake in a surprise ceremony. Cdr. James R. Dineen, chief of orthopedics at the USNH, was master of ceremonies.

Among the honored guests were Maj. Gen. J. C. Burger, Division commanding general, and Brig. Gen. August Larson, Director of Personnel, HQMC.

Regarding Armed Forces programs, Dr. Scott stated that the Services have a splendid opportunity to develop men. "The Armed Forces act as a post-graduate course in developing better United States teams," he pointed out. Continuing, Dr. Scott said, "There are sandbaggers in every walk of life. Many military men argue against a sports program. But the fact remains there are those who want to compete."

"The ultimate goal for any athlete in the services is Pan Americans and Olympics," Dr. Scott said. "In the end there should never be a winner declared. This war was designed for. Sports writers today thrive on it and make them ALL important. This is why Russia and U. S. have emerged as competitors with each other as propaganda."

On education Dr. Scott said, "Athletes are finding it in going to school. The choice if their main school have been. They are two and a half times as many students in our universities as in 1945. This figure will grow to a total of six million. Colleges are very selective in their admissions."

On professional sports: "The professional athlete is bigger and better than the amateur. The professional makes inroads in competition and pushes right out of the amateur ranks. It hurts the college athlete which should be a proving ground and in many cases the athlete who is not ready for the big time."
