Writers Urged To Contribute Short Stories

Amateur short-short story writers have a chance to win $50, a life membership in the Armed Forces Writer's League and a certificate of merit, it was announced this week.

A short-short story contest, open to all amateurs who are U. S. citizens or member of the Armed Forces, is being sponsored by the Armed Forces Writer's League, a non-profit organization established to mutually benefit writers who are members of the Armed Forces.

Each entry is not to exceed 1,500 words and may be written on any subject. In addition to the $50 first place prize, a $25 second prize, $15 third prize, $10 fourth prize, and several meritorious certificates will be awarded.

Entries must be submitted to the contest chairman of a local branch of the Armed Forces Writer's League on or before July 31, 1959. All entries will first be judged on the local branch level. The winning manuscript of each branch contest will be submitted to national headquarters as an entry in the national contest.

Detailed information on the short-story contest is available at any local branch of AFWL and from national headquarters of the League, 329 Mount Vernon Avenue, Alexandria, Va.

MC Stressing Individual Weapons With New Marksmanship Division

In a move to insure continuing proficiency and confidence in the use of individual weapons, the Commandant of the Marine Corps has established a new Marksmanship Training Division at Headquarters Marine Corps. The Commandant also named Brig. Gen. Chester R. Allen, a long-time marksmanship enthusiast and energetic supporter of the Corps' competitive shooting program, as Director of the newly created special staff section. Prior to his appointment, General Allen served as Assistant Quartermaster General of the Marine Corps.

The new Division will be responsible to the Commandant of the Marine Corps for developing and coordinating plans and policies for, and to supervise execution of, the Marine Corps Marksmanship Program. In performing its mission, it will execute the following functions:
1. Plan, coordinate, and supervise the individual marksmanship training program and the competition-in-arms program.
2. Coordinate the individual marksmanship program with other activities such as the National Rifle Association of America and the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice.
3. Develop methods, techniques, and procedures whereby the marksmanship program, consisting of individual marksmanship training and competition-in-arms, can be improved.

4. Function as coordinating agency for the Marksmanship Training Unit at Camp Matthews, San Diego, Calif.
In announcing establishment of the new Division, Gen. R. McC.

Pate reemphasized that "the weapon of the marine is still the rifle. Our success or failure on the battlefield depends complet-ly on his individual confidence and ability to use this weapon."

General Pate called for "our closest command attention" to insure the continued success of this program.

"When this is accomplished," he said, "marksmanship will be supported in consonance with its importance to the Marine Corps and an increased capability can be maintained in our role of readiness."

COMMISSARY NOTE
The Base Commissary will close at 12:00 noon Saturday, March 28, for inventory. It will not re-open until Tuesday, March 31.

Force Troops Has E-6 Staff

The Marine Corps' only staff sergeant (E-6) is believed to be James F. Glover, Information Services
Chief for Force Troops, Atlantic.

He was meritoriously promoted to pay grade E-6 yesterday and was congratulated by Brig. Gen.
Leonard F. Chapman Jr., commanding general, Force Troops, during informal ceremonies in the general's office.

Since the new enlisted rank structure was adopted last year, increasing the number of enlisted pay grades from seven to nine, no promotion to the new staff sergeant (E-6) level have been made here.

So rare was the sergeant's promotion, which he said he wasn't expecting, he was unable to get the new crossed rifle staff sergeant chevrons. The Lejeune supply system doesn't have them in stock.

After thoroughly checking all supply outlets, Sergeant Glover contacted the main post exchange which is ordering him three sets of the new chevrons.

The sergeant, a veteran of over nine years' service, was so happy with his promotion yesterday he gave everyone he met a cigar, including General Chapman.

MERITORIOUS E-6—Act. SSgt. James F. Glover, right, presented
Brig. Gen. Leonard F. Chapman Jr. a cigar yesterday as the Force Troops commanding general congratulated him upon his promotion to the rank of Staff Sergeant (E-6).

RE CHIEF—Receiving his award emblem for 10 years of "faithful service" to the Marine Corps is Frank J. Schlapp, the Lejeune Fire Department, Col. Richard H. Crockett, right, makes the presentation to the 30-year veteran of ment work. The informal ceremony took place last Friday in Col. Crockett's office at Bldg. 1.

Civvies Are A Privilege

As long as a man's in the service, the wearing of civilian clothes in his off-duty hours is a privilege, not an inalienable right. He is open to disciplinary action if he appears in public in a dirty uniform. He is no less an offender when he goes out on the town in another kind of "uniform"—the sloppy, stylized garb of the adolescent beatnik.

What it amounts to is a sort of sartorial Jekyll-Hyde complex. The same man who in his military attire on duty presents a smart, wholesome appearance may unaccountably turn up in civvies as a "rebel" of the James Dean school. Is this an expression of individuality? It's hard to see how, when the standardized blue jeans, black jackets and motorcycle belt with all the tinny accessories have become the ultimate trappings of group conformity.

Civilian duds are fine—if they're in good taste. But a military installation that unloads a flock of hot rod freaks on surrounding communities soon earns the hostility of their inhabitants.

Tragedy Of Desertion

Desertion means running away. But you can keep running the rest of your days and never stop.

It doesn't sound much like freedom, does it?

Yet there are men today who have got themselves into this desperate plight. They never know when they will be apprehended. They can't be hired for the kind of good job that requires initial inquiry into their past. They can't become social members of a community—not without risking detection. They live the twilight life of fugitives.

The tragedy is that many of these men got themselves into such a mess by going AWOL. They didn't mean to desert. But the bad time got longer and they built up in their minds a fear of the punishment or confinement that awaited them. So they stayed away longer until they reached a point of no return. They were deserters.

An ugly word, isn't it? It suggests cowardice and stealthy flight. In wartime it is betrayal of your country and your fellow citizens—punishable by death. But it's a dirty word at any time, however you look at it.

Never let yourself be trapped into a situation where desertion seems the only way out. Don't take the first fatal step if the second leads you into a quagmire of deceit.

A child flees from its misdemeanors. A man who has made a mistake—a real man—faces the music. (AFPS)

...and He has risen

Chaplain's Corner

"Ought not Christ to have suffered these things; and so enter His glory?" St. Luke XXIV:26.

On Easter Sunday we dress up in new clothes, and fill our churches with flowers and joyful music. It is so different from the austerity of Lent and the sadness of Good Friday.

Rejoice in the Lord, again I say, rejoice.

This is the day the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad.

Christ, rising from the dead, dieth no more, death shall no more have dominion over Him.

Well may we rejoice for the resurrection of Jesus is God's pledge to us of our own resurrection. "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them who have slept through Jesus, God will bring with Him."

Yet in the background of our rejoicing there stands the barren cross and an empty tomb, reminding us that the glory of resurrection is the fruit of suffering and passion.

Jesus debased Himself, taking the form of a servant, being made to the likeness of man. He humbled Himself becoming obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. For which cause God has exalted Him and given Him a name which is above all names; that at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow.

His body was broken on Friday, now raised and transfigured on Easter.

His thorn-pierced countenance of sorrow and suffering now beams with the halo and glory of divinity.

This same Jesus, judge of angels and men says to us, "It behooveth you to suffer and so enter into my glory."

—P. G. Linaweaver, Capt., ChC, USN.

Local Staff Wives Plan Orient Theme For Monthly Meet

Plans for an Oriental theme to highlight the April 16 meeting of the Staff NCO Wives club, were discussed Thursday night at the regular monthly meeting. The local club will host Staff NCO Wives from Cherry Point at this time.

USO Distinguished Service Award Certificates will be presented to the club by Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley at this special meeting to be held at the Tarawa Terrace Community Center, 8:15 p.m.

Thirty-nine members and two guests were present at the last meeting. Guests attending were Mrs. Carl Swanson and Mrs. Francis Williams. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Keith Lewis, Mrs. Hanley Scarber and Mrs. Owen Munden. The refreshment table was decorated in the Easter theme.

Mrs. James McCarthill was installed as the new Publicity chairman during the business meeting.

A committee of women were appointed to supervise the Tarawa Terrace Easter Hunt on Saturday. Included in the committee are Mrs. Clara Hunter, Mrs. Donald Paterson, Mrs. J. D. Langley, Mrs. Henry Scorbier, Mrs. Dominic Anzilotti, Mrs. Owen Munden, Mrs. William Koprowski, Mrs. Frederick Mathews and Mrs. Howard Owen. The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the Community Center on Thursday, April 2.

NEED VOICES

The 2nd Division choir needs more voices. Capt. Wilbur L. Mundell and his "Singing Marines" are presently rehearsing for a television show, scheduled in the immediate future. However, due to transfers and training exercises more men are needed to keep the tone balance.

Rehearsals are held at the Area 4 Service club, between 1 and 4 p.m. on Mondays. For further information, call Captain Mundell at 7-3496.

TRAVELING CHOIR—Members of the Base Protestant choir pause for a picture before loading on a bus which will take them to WNCN television in Greenville, N. C., for a dress rehearsal of "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Theodore Dubois. The hour program will be presented Saturday, between 4 and 5 p.m., on channel nine. Capt. Wilbur L. Mundell is the director.

Camp High School Senior Class To Present Three Act Comedy

"Professor, how could you?" this highly dramatic line is uttered by Priscilla (Sallie Yon) in act three of the comedy by the same name, which will be presented by the senior class in the high school auditorium on April 3. The public is invited.

The story of the play revolves around a highly intelligent, modern woman-hating professor, Keats Perry (Harry Powell), who lives with his grandparents (Joyce Rindfleisch and Jim Hilburn) and pursues the study of his one and only love, Cleopatra. The peace of his life is interrupted when he is offered the deanship of the college, on the condition that he find himself a wife. He has three days.

To the rescue comes friend John (John Butcher), to whom Keats assigns the task of choosing his wife. John's candidate is his secretary, Priscilla, who is cute and can't spell at all. But this is not the only candidate, Grandma and Bog-gins, the butler (Nicky Hatch), place in the race Miss Tootsie Bean (Susie Truesdale), saucy and the best cook in town. Then Vicky (Joyce Davis), thirsting for revenge because the professor demanded an apology for throwing an ink bottle at him in class, offers candidate Valerie, a southern siren (Billie Gann). There is still one more candidate, unknown to the others. Grandpa, after each "Campaign Manager" has placed his candidate's name and his bet in the little jar on the shelf, adds one more name to the race, and then sits back to watch the fun.

The confusion gets a good start when Grandma, after her better judgment, gives a dinner party, inviting all concerned in the romance. Before the evening ends, each girl manages to propose to the professor and the poor man is baffled. But the next evening, when the girls all arrive ready to elope, confusion really reigns.

The climax, of course, proves to be hilarious, with the addition of a deserted and beaten wife, three shoeless children, a minister and a lemon pie.

The play is directed by Mrs. Betty Quinn and Miss Jean Littleton, English teachers at the high school. The story takes place during the spring in the library of the Perry home in a college town.

Activities Calendar

OWC—Group V of the Officers Wives club will hold its monthly luncheon today, 12 noon, in the Chinese room, Camp Cafeteria. The group will vote at that time for club officers.

Group VIII will have a luncheon at the Paradise Point club next Thursday, 12:15 p.m. Hostesses will be the 2nd Air and Naval Gunfire Liaison Company and the guest speaker will be Col. W. C. Capehart.

Reservations must be made by calling one of the following ladies by noon on Tuesday, March 31; Mrs. E. R. Pierce, 8-6374; Mrs. D. A. Owen, 8-8935; Mrs. S. Bente, 6-6348, or Mrs. J. D. Jordan, 6-6778.

DENTAL OFFICERS—The 2nd Dental Company will hold its monthly cocktail and dinner party and professional stag meeting tonight, 6 p.m., at the Paradise Point club.

Speakers for the evening will include Lt. S. L. Bahn, DC, USNR; Lt. R. J. Good, DC, USNR; and Lt. G. E. Hamme, DC, USNR. The topic of their talks will be, "With Marines at Lebanon."

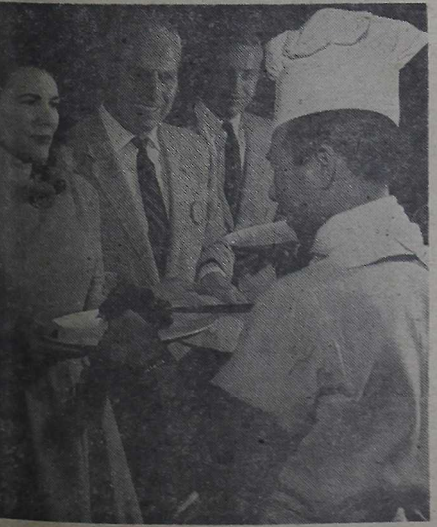

SOJOURNERS CLUB—Mr. Craig L. Barnhart, city manager of Jacksonville, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the National Sojourners, 6:30 p.m. at the Paradise room, tonight. Mr. Barnhart will speak on the "City Managerial System."

BOY SCOUTS—Adults interested in leadership positions with Base-sponsored units and boys aged 10½ through 11 interested in joining the Webelos Scout Den in Cub Pack 190, Tarawa Terrace, are encouraged to contact Assistant District Commissioner Don MacGowan, 530 West Pelulu, 8-7131, or Base 0-8263, for details.

The Webelos Den conducts weekly Scouting meetings each Saturday morning at 10 a.m. at the same place.

PRE-CAMPOREE—A pre-camporee (practice run) will be held by the District Boy Scouts on March 26 through 28, at Verona Loop Training Area.

Registration, based on the Camporee Pamphlet, will begin Thursday.

DINNER—Mrs. L. J. Parnell is served by the Hadnot Point club's chef, Henry Wong, during the Force Troops' 2nd Battalion's officer and staff NCO "get-together dinner" held Friday evening at the Hadnot Point Staff club. Lt. Col. Second from left, commanding officer of 2nd Tanks, and 1st major, William Moran, wait to be served.

BRAKE REPAIR—Pfc Edward A. Tremblay found he could replace his brake-linings much more economically by using facilities at the Base Automotive Hobby Shop.

FRONT-END, WHEEL ALIGNMENT—Act. GySgt. Ralph W. Wood, NCOIC of the Automotive Hobby Shop performs about six front-end and wheel alignment jobs daily. This service is done on an appointment basis only.

Base Hobby Shop's Features 'Handy' —

Is your car in need of repair—pockets thin of that green stuff? If so, the place to go is the Base Automotive Hobby Shop located at Bldg. 1107 in the mainside Industrial Area.

At the auto shop a marine can put his "clunker" in tip-top shape with a minimum of expense—and he doesn't have to be a skilled mechanic.

The only things needed are will-to-work and a little cash, as a competent staff is available to assist and supervise all work.

According to Act. GySgt. Ralph W. Woods, non-commissioned officer in charge of the shop, there are five marine supervisors and one civilian supervisor on hand to assist the amateur mechanic. The civilian mechanic, Mr. Arnie Aman dates his auto repair experience back to Model-T days.

The shop is open on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. Saturday's hours are from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. On Sunday the shop is open from noon until 6 p.m.

"If it runs and needs repairs the work

One of the most popular features of the automotive hobby shop is the grease rack which functions on a do-it-yourself, first-come-first-served basis, grease being furnished free.

The shop is a Special Services activity and is supported solely by profits from various exchanges aboard the Base. All machinery, tools and small items such as grease, nuts and bolts are purchased by Special Services out of exchange profits.

Just recently the shop obtained two new valve machines. One refaces valves and the other refaces valve seats.

Experimenting is a fad with the shop staff. Right now they are assisting a Navy doctor convert an eight-cylinder automobile engine into a marine inboard motor.

Another automotive hobby shop is located at Camp Geiger in Bldg. TC-618. It has most of the facilities offered by the main-side shop with the exception of the wheel alignment service. The hours for the Geiger shop are the same as for the main-side activity.

CHECKING OUT TOOLS—Pfc Allen C. Eklund receives a complete tool kit from tool room attendant, Pfc Clyde E. Roberts. Almost any type tool can be obtained on a loan basis.

MOTOR REBUILD—Mr. Arnie Aman, right, civilian supervisor, explains to Pfc George R. Cummings how to re-assemble the MG motor he is rebuilding. Marines re-build about 15 motors monthly at the shop.

SMALLEST AND TALLEST—Hawaii's Gil Sanchez, the 114-pound All-Marine champ, puts a "hold" on teammate Bill Frank, 240-pound giant, after the 4th Annual All-Marine tourney. Both grapplers won their respective divisions with Frank repeating for a second straight year.

Banquet Ends Mat Events Saturday Nite

Upon completion of the matches Saturday night at the All-Marine Wrestling Tournament, Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, MCB commanding general, presented rings to the winners and jewel cases to the runners-up.

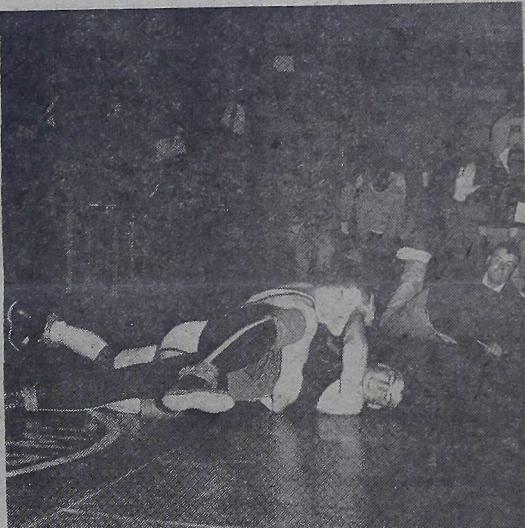

A buffet-style dinner was served later at the Camp Civilian Cafeteria concluding the three-day event.

In an interview with Mr. Ray Swartz, tournament director and mat coach at the USNA, the former Olympic mentor expressed the opinion that the 1959 games here assembled the finest competition he had ever seen in service circles, excluding both military academies.

Queried as to who he felt had the best potential among the eight champs, coach Swartz quickly cited Bill Frank and Gil Sanchez, both of Hawaii. Frank, a 240-pound, 6'4" giant, wrestling without previous college experience, captured the unlimited class with relative ease.

Sanchez, also without college training, picked up the sport while stationed in Japan. A rarity in the art, Sanchez is a better "bottom wrestler" than "top" man.

Besides Mr. Swartz, other officials at the tourney included Leland Merrill, Rutgers university; William E. Krouse, University of Maryland; John G. Reese, Wilkes college; Charley W. Parker, Davidson college; J. J. McNelis, Mt. Ranier HS, Mt. Ranier, Md.; John T. Gales and K. C. Horner, McDunough HS, McDunough, N. J., and Ray Oliver, Washington HS, Washington, N. J.

NO TIME LOST—Camp Lejeune's Earl Peterson, 160 pounds, pins Walter Salazer at 52 seconds during third-round action at the 4th Annual All-Marine Wrestling Tournament hosted by Camp Lejeune. Both matmen were eliminated prior to the finals Saturday night.

Putt Putts Capture Group I Title In Staff Bowling Loop

With pre-season forecasts holding true, D&E Car Exchange took the Putt Putts right down to the wire before succumbing in their final meeting, 3-1, enabling the Putts to walk off with the Group I title in the Staff NCO Bowling League. Only one more match remains in the top five averages.

Holding individual honors for the season were the Putt Putts' Bill Ebert with a 243 game and Russ Sponsler with a 571 series. D&E took high game and series with three of their members in the top five averages.

With State Life Insurance Co. sewing up Group II several weeks ago, a battle developed for the runner-up slot between the Staff Club Zebras and Leatherneck Tavern. Getting an assist from Automatic Serv. Co. who took three from the Tavern keglers, the Zebras cinched second place by defeating the Sports, 3-1.

Jim Wray has the highest average of both groups with a 181. Wray had held the individual game and series records but in the past three weeks, these marks have fallen. Wray had a 625 series until "Uncle" Joe Eulberg brought home a 627. Jim Holmes rewrote the record book with a 244 game after Wray had bowled a 237.

Banquet arrangements have been made with John Strange of the Hadnot Point Staff Club. The close-out event will be held April 3 starting at 7 p. m. Additional banquet information is posted on the bulletin board at the club.

Pendleton, Hawaii Dominate Game Held At Local Gym

The 1959 All-Marine Wrestling Tournament officially ended Saturday night with four grapplers successfully capturing their respective weight classes and four new titlists. It took 177 matches in three days at Camp Lejeune's Goettge Memorial field house to wind up the successful game.

In addition to the National AAU and Pan American events to be staged this spring and summer, completely dominating the tournament was Camp Pendleton with five winners and three runners-up. FMFPac, Hawaii, captured the three other classes with one second place wrestler. Hosting Camp Lejeune had two runners-up, Cherry Point one and Marine Corps Supply Forwarding Annex, San Francisco, one.

The musty pages of the rules book decided the 191-pound class in a decision seldom dealt with in the art. In their final match to determine a winner, Pendleton's Harry Broughton and Lejeune's Dick Brittain wrestled to a draw. Olympic rules state that the player with the least number of bad marks is declared champ. Both players had identical points.

Once again the rule book had to be used. The rule that applied was that the contestants must be weighed and the wrestler weighing the least would be the champ. Broughton weighed in one-half pound less than Brittain (191-191½) and was declared champ. Broughton, second place last year, went through four matches on his way to the title with his fastest win recorded in first night action over M. P. Clark, MCSFA, by a fall in 1:45.

In the first championship match Saturday night, Gil Sanchez of Hawaii, an ever-moving 114-pounder, won by a unanimous decision over Pendleton's Terry Tierman. Sanchez, one of the outstanding wrestlers in the games, won five bouts, three by falls, on his way to the top.

Pendleton's Ron Pineda pinned Lejeune's Harvey Bekowitz at 9:12 to walk off with the 125-pound championship. Second last year and fourth in the National AAU, Pineda was a draw by Bob Belz of Hawaii in his initial appearance. Pineda, third in '58, had to settle for second slot with one win and one draw.

Repeating as titlist at Pendleton's Jerry Hoke, a former wrestler won a unanimous margin over Hawaii's R. Garcia in his final match. (See WEST COAST VISITOR)

ONE SOILED UNIFORM—Camp Lejeune's Dick Esau makes like an' express sliding safely into third base in the Marines' home opener Thursday afternoon against VPI. Waiting for the relay is the Gobbler's Jimmy Steel. The local nine went on to take the three-game series by scores of 19-3, 5-2 and 16-3.

Marines Win Five As Fullerton, Smith Combine In Stand

The Camp Lejeune Marines successfully opened their first home stand of the season by taking five straight games from visiting college nines. Gerry Smith, Lejeune's 25-game winner last year, picked up two of the victories. Pacing the offense was catcher Barry Fullerton, former Michigan State star, who alone accounted for 10 RBI's with his well-placed hitting.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute fell victim to the locals, 19-3, 5-2 and 16-3. Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons, respectively. In a doubleheader Monday, the Marines stopped Springfield college, 5-1 in the first contest and then came from behind in the nightcap to defeat Indiana university, 6-5. The locals' season record now stands at 6-4.

In their initial appearance against the Gobblers of VPI, Lejeune banged out 16 hits which included six extra base blows, for their 19 tallies while committing four errors. Smith worked seven frames, allowing three runs on seven hits with the Gobblers miscalcating thrice. Smith walked four and struck out nine opponents.

Leroy Mason finished up the game blanking VPI.

The Marines went ahead 2-0 with the Gobblers tying the score in the fourth on pitcher John Brandon's two-run double. Lejeune took permanent lead in the bottom of the same inning when Stan Jackson

The Marines extended their win streak to six, dealing Springfield college a 9-6 defeat Tuesday afternoon. Coming from behind in the eighth, the locals tallied five runs; featuring Stan Jackson's bases-loaded double and a solo homer by Hal Norton.

Bill "Pappy" Herrington, relieving starter John Mugford, was credited with the victory. Thad McCollum pitched the last two frames.

walked to lead off and Smith uncorked a homer over the leftfield wall. Lejeune closed out their scoring with eight runs in the eighth featuring a solo roundtripper by Fullerton.

Lefty Max Eller, the hurling Navy Chaplain, gave up five hits in going the distance in the second game. With the help of five VPI errors, the Marines accounted for nine hits in the 5-2 win. Eller whiffed 10 and walked only two batters.

Spotting VPI two markers in the second frame, the Marines took the lead on three runs in the bottom of the fifth with Fullerton hitting a bases-loaded single through the middle to tally two teammates.

Bill "Pappy" Herrington hurled the final against VPI, giving up three runs in eight innings, walking three and fanning four. Mason took over the chores in the ninth. Herrington also shared the spotlight in the hitting department as he slapped out three singles in four trips to the plate, equalling his production of last year.

And again it was the potent bat of Fullerton who paced the Lejeune 18-hit attack. The hefty catcher in six appearances accounted for three singles and a double, three RBI's and two runs. First baseman Hal Norton had two for four including a two-bagger, one

Divvy Teams In Volleyball Tournaments

The majority of the regiments and groups are preparing this week for the 2nd Division volleyball tourney which gets under way April 14 at the Eighth Marines' gym.

In order to pick the best representative to the championship, inter-regimental tourneys are being run off.

The Eight Marines led the parade, holding its tournament last week. The 1st Bn. swamped the 2nd Bn. in the finals Thursday, 15-4 and 15-8.

It was a clean sweep for the 1st Bn., which beat the regimental baseball team, 15-3, 3-15 and 15-9, and Hq. Co., 14-16, 17-15 and 15-12 in its first two rounds of the double-elimination tourney.

The 2nd Bn. fought its way to the finals with a win over the baseball team and a split with Hq. Co.

Bob White, team captain of the 1st Bn., was chosen the Most Valuable Player after the final match of the tourney.

The winner and runner-up of the Division tourney will qualify for the Quad-Command Tournament to be conducted at the Goettge Memorial field house April 6-10.

WHAT'S ALL THE COMMOTION? — Barry Fullerton, Marine catcher, seems rather unconcerned about the whole affair while VPI's Al Sebest bites the dust. Action took place in the second tilt of a three-game series. Sebest had singled to lead off the second inning and came home on John Sapon's double.

Local Marine Contributes To World Bob-Sled Crown

A Camp Lejeune-based marine was caught speeding at 100 miles per hour last month. But instead of receiving a citation from the military police or a fine from civilian authorities, he, along with three other "violators," won the acclaim of the American people.

The marine—Gary Sheffield; the vehicle—a bob-sled; the outcome—the first U. S. title in this field since 1953.

Sheffield, who is presently attached to Hq. Bn., 2nd Marine Division, and the remainder of the U. S. team which includes driver Art Tyler, Parker Voorhis and Tom Butler, won the world championship February 15 at St. Moritz, Switzerland.

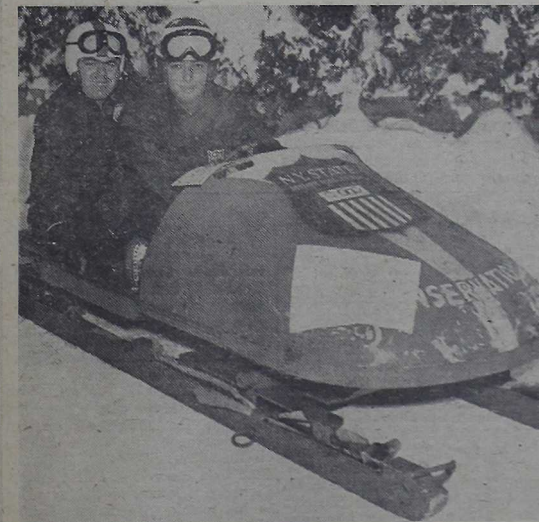

Butler, a marine lieutenant, is stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., while Tyler is a carpenter, from Weston, Mass. Voorhis is a New York gentleman farmer.

The speedsters, under the expert piloting of Tyler, took first place on the twisting mile-long track of ice and snow with a 5:10.82 total in four runs to defeat the Italian entry by less than a split second.

Sheffield, a 22-year-old private first class, who hails from Lake Placid, N. Y., rode as No. 2 man for the victorious foursome. Although he has been engaging in the sport for the past six years, it was his first crack at the world championship. His future plans may include a crack at the 1960 Olympics or next year's world championship at Cortina, Italy.

He picked up his valuable experience from his father, James Sheffield, who also rode in the world championships, finishing third at France in 1952. His father retired from the sport only two years ago.

His brother Bill, 16, was the world's indoor barrel jumping champion in 1955.

Act. Sgt. William Smith

BASEBALL: Already the local baseball team is living up to expectations. Despite the fact that they lost four games in Florida on the first road trip of the season, this was not a true indication of their potential, as coach Hal Glasgow inserted his untried talent in an effort to see exactly what the team was comprised of.

With a five-game win streak going and several pitchers already working well, fans will be witnessing baseball at its best.

Besides the outstanding hurling of Gerry Smith, Max Eller, Bill "Pappy" Herrington and reliever Leroy Mason, there appears to be a real swinging gent in the guise of a catcher who is making the fans forget the merits of one Mick Taylor. Not quite the leading hitter on the club but at least the most dangerous one at the present time is Barry Fullerton, a product of Michigan State.

A fine competitor, Fullerton is whacking at a .394 pace and in the last five games has been the deciding factor in four of the victories. Included in his spree are 13 hits in 33 appearances, three doubles, one triple and homer, and 12 big RBIs. One of the more pleasant surprises is the way he handles himself behind the plate.

Weighing 204 pounds, Fullerton moves with a great deal of grace despite his size. He has only made one error and has yet to miss a ball popped up in back of him and still in the park.

PITHY PIDDINGS: A great All-Marine cage team comprised mostly of Quantico players was finally ousted in the quarter-finals of the AAU National Basketball Tournament by the Phillip's 66 "Oilers," 86-80.

However, the Marines' glory was inscribed in the record book in opening action when they set a mark of 111 points, breaking an eight-year-old record. Three nights later, the Wichita "Vickers" established a new high of 120 markers.

One of Quantico's victories came over the Buchanan Bakers of Seattle, the fourth-seeded team in the tourney.

The local writer's prediction of another AlMar boxing crown really fell short as only two locals managed to take their titles. However, it wasn't surprising to see the Marine Inter-Service roster which includes several of Lejeune's best, even though they failed to finish in the money at San Diego. Both Jerry Moore, All-Marine in '58, and Jerry Eley will be wearing the Marine colors along with Bobby Tuell, Dick Gilford, Bobby Long and Jimmy Flood.

The AFPS reports that Humberto Corrales of San Diego had never previously won a bout before banging out a unanimous decision over Lejeune's Moore.

The East Coast WM Basketball Tournament began Monday with hosting Quantico pre-tourney favorites with a 13-3 record.

Besides Quantico, other entries include Lejeune, Parris Island, Cherry Point, Henderson Hall and Norfolk.

The winner of the event will play San Diego, victor in the West Coast conference. The tourney will also be held on the Virginians' court.

Jumping to football, "Y" "C" McNease has signed a grant-in-aid to North Carolina State. McNease was a star back with the '57 Lejeune eleven but saw limited action last season due to injuries.

On the former opponent's news side, ex-Notre Dame and Bolling AFB quarterback Ralph Guglielmi will handle the signal calling during the Washington Redskins' six exhibition games.

Also, Norfolk's Bill Miller will play ball at the University of Georgia this fall and teammate John Mizerock at Arkansas.

ALL THE WAY—The Camp Lejeune judo team walked off with the unofficial championship during the second annual matches at Parris Island last week. Front row, left to right, Durton McKain, Jerry Mustoffa, Bob Green, Paul Jones, Stan Harris, Charles Spellman, Ray Robichaud, Bob Davis, Robert Burke and Harry Reese. Standing, left to

Cates Smashes Opposition In Capturing AlMar Crown

Camp Lejeune's Ernie Cates struck like a tornado, completely devastating all opposition at the Second Annual All-Marine Judo Championships held at Parris Island last week. Cates, holder of the second degree black belt, Sho-Dan, played and defeated the three other champs in their weight divisions to walk off with not only the 180-pound class title but also the all-around crown and the Col. Anthony J. Biddle Memorial Award.

The trophy, with Cates' name inscribed on it, will be placed on permanent display at HQMC, Washington, D. C.

The championships were completely dominated by the judo club which managed to capture three of the 150-pound division, judoists swept all three

Floyd "Little Joe" Fournier, the 130-pound crown in day of action. Reese took while the runner-up slot Parris Island's John Ayala Mel Meyers, a black Dan, went through six unbeaten to capture 150-pounds. Gene Rodriguez lost bout to Meyers to take the up spot. Stan Harris concluded Lejeune whitewashing in by winning third place.

Cates had little trouble posing of all opposition 180, winning all of his six Quantico's Bright and Ty second and third, respectively.

The local marine then to whip Fournier, Meyers heavyweight titlist, Dick for the overall champion

In Monday's outing against Springfield, Smith went the route for his second win of the campaign, allowing four hits, whiffing 14 and walking two.

Lejeune picked up single runs in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh innings with Springfield pushing across a lone tally in the fourth.

Big bat in the local attack was shortstop Charley Armstrong, who hit a double and a three-base slam in three trips. Norton had two singles in three appearances.

The final game against Indiana proved almost a nightmare for the locals as they had to come up with four runs in the bottom of the eighth to win. The Big Ten school had taken a 5-2 margin going into the last of the eighth. With two outs, Dick Meade and Norton were issued passes.

Fullerton slammed a double scoring Meade. Sam Valentine followed with a two-bagger to the 350 mark against the leftfield wall, tying the game at 5-5. Dick Esau lashed out a single with Valentine coming home with the winning run.

Rube Aderholt started the game, working three frames, giving up three hits, two runs and four walks. Mason made his third appearance in five games, going five innings, allowing three tallies on five hits, fanning four, and gave up two free passes. Mason was credited with the victory, his first of the year. Thad McCollum worked the ninth.

ber of the '58 U. S. All-Star team, Hake recorded one of the fastest falls in the tourney when he pinned Cherry Point's E. M. Campbell at 44 seconds in his first bout. Hawaii's Ed Corr was runner-up.

Bob Belz, brother of Bob, arrived right on schedule as he took the 147-pound class for the second straight year. The 1958 National AAU champ in Greco-Roman style, captured four matches in the three-day event. His win over Hawaii's K. C. Ashley Saturday afternoon gave him the title. G. T. Tucker, also of Pendleton, was runner-up.

Earl Perillo, Hawaii, made it two years in a row in the 160-pound division when he took a fall from Cherry Point's Ron Mehlin at 7:48. A second place winner in the National AAU, Perillo had little trouble with his opposition, recording pins of 26 and 58 seconds and one decision in moving to his crown.

Pendleton's D. J. Fiehart, who finished out of the money last year, captured the 174-pound division Saturday afternoon when he defeated Cherry Point's S. D. Baker. Held to a draw in his first match, Fiehart won two decisions prior to his match with Baker. Second place was MCAF's R. E. Jackson.

In the tourney's final, Hawaii's Bill Frank repeated as All-Marine champ with a 2-42 pin of Lejeune's Lynn Bechel. Frank, weighing 240 pounds and fourth at the '58 National AAU, steamrolled two matches, winning the falls, before engaging Bill Bechel. The winners and runners compete in the National Stillwater, Okla., next in the Pan American games the summer.

... MUST HAVE HAD QUITE A SALUTE PROBLEM...

Hawaiian Statehood Bid Approved By Congress

It didn't come exactly as a surprise; yet the average serviceman must have felt a glow of satisfaction when Congress acted to bring Hawaii into the Union as our 50th state. For to service folk everywhere Hawaii is something special—a preferred duty station, a place of fabulously beautiful scenery and balmy temperatures where the atmosphere of a tropical paradise is balanced by civilized comforts equal to those of any modern U. S. city.

To the serviceman Hawaii means "Wahoo"—Oahu and the capital city of Honolulu. Sailors and marines think of Pearl Harbor; the soldier thinks of Fort Shafter and Schofield Barracks; the airman thinks of Hickman Field, and they all remember the tumbling breakers of Waikiki Beach under the towering landmark of Diamond Head.

Hawaiians have undergone drastic changes since Capt. James Cook first landed in the islands in 1778. Cook found a Polynesian population of about 400,000; by 1860 this had dropped to less than 70,000. Today about 640,000 persons inhabit the islands including 60,000 military personnel.

Ethnically, the pure Hawaiian is a "vanishing American." Today the population is about 38 per cent Japanese; 20 per cent European and American; 15 per cent Hawaiian of mixed descent; 13 per cent Filipino; 7 per cent Chinese; 3 per cent Pureto Rican and Korean, and the remaining 3 per cent Hawaiian.

As anyone who has been to the islands will tell you, this mixture of races has produced a people who are handsome, sturdy, intelligent and courteous. The Chinese and Japanese, originally brought to Hawaii as a labor supply for the cane fields, later improved their lot as merchants and professional men and won educational advancement for their children.

Eight of the larger islands will make up the new state. They are: Hawaii ("the Big Island"), about twice the size of Delaware. Its active volcanoes, Mauna Loa and Kilauea, are a big tourist attraction and its capital, Hilo, is the second largest city in the islands.

Kahoolawe, smallest of the main islands, is all but uninhabited.

Kauai, "the Garden Island," is another tourist favorite and is considered the most beautiful of the chain.

Lanai, "the Pineapple Island," is almost entirely one pineapple plantation.

Maui, "the Valley Island," has high mountains at either end and is centered by a fertile plain.

Molokai, "the Friendly Island," is the site of the Hansen's Disease (leprosy) Sanitarium made famous by Father Joseph Damien.

Nihau, "the Mystery Island," is privately owned and mostly used for ranching.

Oahu, "the Gathering Place," also has large sugar and pineapple plantations in addition to the city of Honolulu and the installations that make it a military bastion. It is here that the bustling American atmosphere of Hawaii is most pronounced.

Visiting Circus Troupe Has World-Wide Span

Each year Polack Brothers Circus has performers from widely-scattered parts of the world, and this year's edition is no exception. South Africa is the home land of Frank Burger of the Burger's Ken-L-Kade, which features performing Afghan hounds, an exotic breed of dogs that derives its name from Afghanistan and has a colorful history going back an estimated 8,000 years.

Oscar Konyot, trainer of the smart trio of chimpanzees from the Belgian Congo, is Hungarian by birth and his wife, Patricia, who presents the act, is English.

The High-Wire Coronas are a family troupe from Czechoslovakia. The Amandis and Ricardos, whose respective specialties are teeterboard and trampoline acrobatics, are Danish.

Though their family name has long been conspicuous on the ford, is of German birth. The Reynoso Trio, teeth suspension aerialists, and Senor Cardona, artist of the clod swing, are natives of Mexico City. Of the clowns, Javier Peluza is from Mexico, Johnny Cirillino from Italy and John Thomson from Scotland, and the rest are native Americans. The Aerialovelles are partly of European and partly of American origin.

Asia is represented in the circus group by the Besalou Elephants, whose birthplace, is Cambodia.

American circus scene, the George Hanneford bareback riders trace their origin to Great Britain. Princess Tapania, the make-believe "Indian Goddess of Flight," who in private life is Mrs. Tommy Hanne-

DRIVE-IN (DI) — Begins at 7:30 p.m. COURTHOUSE BAY (CB) — 6 p.m. and 8 p.m., indoors daily except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays when show starts at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. NAVAL HOSPITAL (NH) — 1:15 p.m. (Patients only) and 7 p.m. daily.

FROGMEN Probably similar to its counterpart-type movie featuring frogmen who never fail to get tangled up with some great sea monster that no one has ever heard of before. The circumstances could probably prove to be entirely different, however.

LEFT-HANDED GUN Billy the Kid, played by Paul Newman, is a wandering cowboy who is given a job by co-star Colln Keith-Johnston, a cattle rancher. Keith-Johnston is killed by a couple of bandits and a crooked sheriff and the Kid decides to avenge his death by similar tactics. The movie holds out as an action-packed different type western which portrays the famous character of an illiterate, adolescent, brooding psychopath, according to history of the early West.

TARAWA BEACHHEAD Realistic war action, with exciting stock footage, forms a background for this story of a sergeant's bitter regard for a glory-seeking, heartless lieutenant with no consideration for the welfare of his men. Kerwin Mathews as the sergeant, and Ray Dagen as the lieutenant keep the atmosphere charged with suspense on the outcome of their relationship.

KNUTE ROCKNE, ALL-AMERICAN A movie featuring the golden era of football and Knute Rockne's experiences as an All-American end and long-time coach during the early history of Notre Dame football.

INVISIBLE AVENGER Anything that's invisible, especially an avenger, usually creates a mystery, and in this case might supply that added punch needed to provide some interesting action.

WEST-BOUND Wagon trains, Indians on the warpath, and the dirt encountered in the early days of cross-country traveling will probably comprise the setting for this undoubtedly western film.

SPED CRAZY Warner Brothers brings to the screen a teen-age adventure starring Mamie Van Doren and Jeff Richards. The story, produced only a few months ago, probably deals with a couple of teen-agers involving reckless driving for thrills.

SEA CHASE Yvonne Lime and Brett Halsey are in the spotlight of this production by Allied Artists. Also filmed a few months ago, this picture should show a lot of action and thrill-packed adventure. The story again deals with speed and automobiles, but this time in their places, namely the race tracks.

FRANKENSTEIN 1970 This movie certainly isn't outdated, and it should prove interesting to see

RIFLE RANGE (RR) — 6 p.m. and 8 p.m., Sunday through Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 7 p.m. MONTFORD POINT (MP) — Indoors at 7:30 p.m. daily. CAMP GEIGER (CG) — Indoors at 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Allied Artists' version of the futuristic study of the screen's all-time horror creation 11 years from now. Boris Karloff again portrays the monstrous Baron Victor von Frankenstein. The baron, true to character, is attempting to recreate a legendary monster in a basement laboratory. Moving forthwith in the swing of monster sequences, Karloff gets his zombie slugging away, with significant assist from an atomic reactor and then the fun begins. (85 min.)

LONE TEXAN A good western with a better-than-average story and three familiar names. Willard Parker, Audrey Dalton and Grant Williams, to head the cast. Released by 20th Century Fox, the story is based on an actual incident in the producer's family just after the Civil War. Parker, former Union cavalry officer, returns to his Texas home town to find himself branded a traitor because he fought for the North. His younger brother becomes sheriff and runs the town with the aid of his young gun-slinging deputies. In the final phase, the two brothers face each other to determine the destiny of the town. (70 min.)

SEVENTH VOYAGE OF SINBAD Kerwin Mathews as Sinbad and Kathryn Grant as a beautiful princess head this color spectacular there is plenty of action as the Sinbad sails the seas to find the secret that will remove a wizard's curse from the princess and he finds it in the form of a gen. This fantastic story should be an adventure lover's dream.
