

SecNav Sees War Games At Vieques

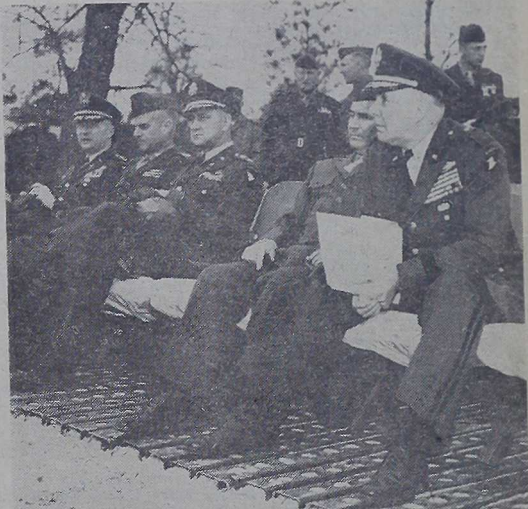

Secretary of the Navy Thomas S. Gates got his first look at the latest amphibious warfare techniques Monday when the 1st Bn. (Reinf.), Sixth Marines, made a helicopter assault landing at Vieques, Puerto Rico.

The 2nd Division marines, commanded by Lt. Col. J. R. Stockman, are the assault troops for the 10th Provisional Marine Brigade which left Norfolk, Va., March 3 aboard the aircraft carrier USS Boxer. Col. J. R. Little commands the Brigade. This exercise, designated BRIGALEX 2-59, was planned to be carried out with use of the Boxer for fast delivery of marine assault troops.

Along with the Navy Secretary to observe the fast landing force concept as employed by Amphibious Squadron 10 of the Provisional Brigade were the Commandant of the Marine Corps, General Randolph McC. Pate, Lieutenant General Edwin A. Pollock, commanding general, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic; Vice Admiral George C. Towne, commander, Amphibious Forces, Atlantic; and Major General J. C. Burger, commanding general, 2nd Division.

Troops of the 8th Provisional Marine Brigade, presently in Vieques, will storm ashore at Onslow Beach March 21 in Phase "B" of BRIGALEX 1-59, following an operational visit to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Troops of the 8th and 10th Provisional Marine Brigades will be landed by HMRL(L) 262, normally based at the New River Air Facility. The squadron is commanded by Lt. Col. James Dyer.

BRIGALEX 2-59 is the second in a series of three amphibious assault landing exercises scheduled to terminate in mid-June by Amphib Squadron 10. The participating ships will return to their home ports at Norfolk at the conclusion of each exercise phase.

Service Dignitaries Inspect Quad - Command Facilities

Quad-Command supply departments and medical facilities were inspected this week by Maj. Gen. R. M. Gulick and Rear Adm. Herbert J. Van Peenen. General Gulick, quartermaster general of the Marine Corps, arrived last Friday and during the week visited Base, 2nd Division and Force Troops commands.

Accompanied by Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, commanding general, MCB, General Gulick toured the new construction site, Stone Street school, local housing areas, and the Marine Corps Supply Schools.

The quartermaster general is scheduled to leave the Base today for the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N. C.

Admiral Peenen, Fifth Naval District medical officer, arrived Monday at the Air Facility where he inspected medical operations. The admiral later inspected the Base Dispensary and the Naval hospital and was scheduled to leave the Lejeune area this morning.

Rabies Shots To Be Given Lejeune Pets

Local dog and cat owners residing within the limits of Camp Lejeune will be able to have their pets inoculated with rabies vaccination beginning Saturday. The vaccinations will be given through March 20 in conjunction with the quarterly quarantine period from March 15-21, according to Base Bulletin 6230.

Inoculations will be given at the Tarawa Terrace Shopping Center on March 14 and 16 from 1 to 3 p.m.; in the Paradise Point area at Bldg. 2626 on March 27 from 1 to 2 p.m.; the Midway Park Fire House on March 18 from 1 to 3 p.m.; the Camp Knox Community Center on March 19 from 1 to 3 p.m.; and the Camp Geiger Community Center on March 20 during the same hours.

Dogs need not be immunized against rabies until they are six months old. Cats and other mammals (See RABIES SHOTS, Page 4)

Service Official Conference Plans Air-Ground Maneuver

Plans for Operation NAILIVIC, the Marine Corps Reserve and East Coast Exercise scheduled for July 27-29, were discussed Friday following a two-day conference here. Eleven ground units and one air Reserve unit are slated for the exercise to be held in the Onslow Beach-Bogue Field area.

The problem, designed to increase the proficiency of the partial phases of air-ground exercises, will consist of an aggressive field exercise concept under an umpire. The units are organized as a battalion team with the assigned observing and consolidating

Deadline Date Changes In Photo Contest

Entry deadlines and judging dates for the 1959 Camp Lejeune and All-Marine Photography contests have been extended, it was announced this week.

HQMC changed the deadline date for AllMar entries to April 28 and judging dates to May 5. The moves were made to allow far-reaching overseas units more time to submit their photos in the AllMar contest, according to Maj. F. L. Straner, coordinator for both local and AllMar contests. The All-Marine contest will be held here.

Lejeune contest dates have also been extended, Major Straner said. Entries must be in by April 10 for judging April 14.

The top three winners in each category of the local contest will be entered in the All-Marine. AllMar winners will, in turn, be entered in the eighth Inter-Service photo contest, to be hosted by the Marine Corps. It will be held June 9 at Marine Barracks, 8th and Eye Streets S. E., Washington, D. C.

The other branches of the Armed Forces will also submit winning entries from their own contests to the Inter-Service competition.

Base, 2nd Division and Force Troops personnel may pick up entry blanks at the Goettge Memorial field house or the GLOBE office in the Camp Theater, Bldg. 19. Entries must be forwarded to the Commanding General (Attention: Base Special Services Office), MCB, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

B SHOOTERS TRY — Tryouts and eliminations get under way at Range Saturday.

PARADISE POINT SIT-SERVICE — Feature Page Six

PAID PERMIT NO. 9 JACKSONVILLE, N. C.

If you ask me...

WHAT DO YOU THINK WILL BE THE MOST INTERESTING PHASE OF YOUR TRAINING AT CAMP LEJEUNE?

(The following answers were received from members of Mobile Construction Bn. presently undergoing six-weeks Marine Corps combat and technical training here.)

RAYMOND E. BRUNEAU, BU2 — Each particular phase of Marine Corps training will be interesting to me, but I will especially be looking forward to the last week. During that time we will hold our own command post exercise and defend it against Lejeune marines from the Second Marine Regiment.

JOHNNIE R. STINSON, SD2 — As a steward, I have never had much dealing with combat weapons, so I think the most interesting part of my training here will be firing the different weapons on the rifle range. Also, I am hoping that I will be able to make a good qualification score with the carbine.

J. G. WALSH, SF2 — I am looking forward to firing expert with the carbine, but think getting a chance to fire the Browning Automatic Rifle will be the highlight of my training. I have always heard of its terrific firepower, but have never had the opportunity to fire it. Since we have been here the crew has been very good and the marines have been very helpful in our marksmanship training.

C. R. KEHLER, CE2 — I will especially be interested in the night firing exercise which we will see along with the demonstration of a cross section of firing. I think the highlight of our training, though, will be getting a chance to put into use all the tactics we learn in the command post exercises.

JOSEPH ANTICO, PN2 — Highlighting my training will be the chance to work in coordination with the marines under simulated combat conditions. As a personnel man I will also have a chance to set up an office in the field which will be part of our command post exercise during the final week's training. Another interesting phase of my training will be firing the carbine for qualification, which I have never done before.

N. M. SYLVESTER, CN — Each different phase of our marine Corps training will be interesting to me, since I enjoy being in the field. I am looking forward to learning the combat tactics taught marines, and how they will be put to use in our command post exercise.

Area Marines To Shoot In Fla. Matches

Representing various organizations of the 2nd Marine Division, the nucleus of this year's Division Pistol Team will travel to Florida this week.

Headed by assistant team captain, 1st Lt. Algie E. Martin, the team will travel to Tampa for the National Mid-Winter Pistol Championships. The matches will be held at the Tampa Police Pistol Range under the supervision of the National Rifle Association.

The shooters include Act. Gy-Sgts. Henry Bercaw, Service Bn., and Robert M. Hays, Sixth Marines; Act. SSgts. Billy Howard, Sixth Marines, Kenneth E. Mass, Second Marines, and John A. Price, Eighth Marines.

There will be 26 matches and a special "Yankee-Rebel" Team Match between the 10 high competitors in the .22 caliber aggregate score.

Other competition will be in the Camp Perry Course Match; the Smith & Wesson Trophy Shoot-off; the Colt Manufacturing Company competition and the U. S. Armed Forces Trophy Match.

The following week the marines will travel to the Palmetto Pistol Club, Coral Gables, for the Flamingo Pistol Tournament.

Competitors, drawn from the military, civilian and police forces, will shoot at the club's range located 10 miles west of Miami, along the colorful, Tamiami Trail.

Maj. Fred E. Eubanks, officer in charge of the 2nd Division's Rifle and Pistol Team, pointed out that no geographical locality has a premium on pistol shooters. The marine shooters this year represent Virginia, New York, Tennessee, Florida, Minnesota and Pennsylvania.

of Eastern United States and Canada. The aggressor's strategic air command failed, however, to penetrate the U. S. and Canada's atomic defenses.

The Northern Landing Group has been assigned the mission of landing the marines in an assault on Onslow Beach. The marines will attempt to seize the aggressor missile launching sites, installations, Bogue air field, and establish lodgements.

The local conference was held in Bldg. 62 where plans for equipment, facilities, and training schedules for the Reserves were completed. Lt. Col. Sam W. Smith, officer in charge of the local Reserve Liaison Sub Unit 1, acted as moderator for the conference. Opening remarks were made by Maj. Gen. James P. Eiseley and Maj. Noble Beck, Division of Reserve representative, from Headquarters, Marine Corps.

Other top-ranking unit representatives attending the conference were: Col. A. L. Booth, 4th MCR&RD; Col. H. D. Strunk, 1st MCR&RD; and Lt. Col. C. E. Moore, 6th MCR&RD.

Units scheduled for participation in NALFVIC and their respective cities where they are normally based are:

- Marine Air Reserve Group-25, Willow Grove, Pa.; 2nd AmphTrac Co., Jacksonville, Fla.; 1st Inf. Bn., Garden City, N. Y.; 5th Rifle Co., Savannah, Ga.; 74th Inf. Co., Mansfield, Ohio; 53rd Inf. Co., Charleston, S. C.; 5th 100mm How. Btry., Reading, Pa.; 6th Engr. Co., Knoxville, Tenn.; 2nd Tank Bn., Mattydale, N. Y.; 4th Comm. Co., Cincinnati, Ohio; 1st Comm. Supt. DRIVE UNDER WAY

Campaign Chairmen Briefed On '58 Red Cross Activities

During the first drive chairmen's committee meeting in Bldg. I Monday, Quad-Command campaign chairmen heard Mr. L. M. Sherriff, Lejeune Area Field Director, and Miss Marianna Nicholson, U. S. Naval Hospital Area Field Director, explain how the American Red Cross helped local personnel during the past year.

Mr. Sherriff, during the meeting, pointed out that his unit helped almost 9,000 local servicemen last year. Almost 2,500 of those received help for emergency leaves or extensions of leaves.

The local director went on to say, "Our Red Cross unit loaned out almost $49,000. Of that amount, only about $26,000 was repayed with the other marked off our books at the end of the year."

It was pointed out that the Base Red Cross conducted 15 water safety instruction swimming classes which resulted in Lejeune having another 241 servicemen qualified as senior lifesavers.

Miss Nicholson of the Hospital Red Cross unit explained, "We also granted emergency leaves and gave financial assistance to those needing it but our main job was to provide entertainment and recreation to the many servicemen at the hospital."

She went on to say, "In 1958 our Gray Ladies and full time-workers helped entertained patients by visits, sponsoring recreational programs, and passing out books and hand craft items."

Through the Red Cross, she explained, "Marine and Navy patients were shown 745 movies in their wards."

Each contributor to the drive will receive a '59 Red Cross membership card and lapel button.

The March Red Cross drive which is under way at most military establishments throughout the world is highly backed by civilian and military leaders of our defense establishment. President Eisenhower had this to say about the Red Cross: "Every family in America has benefited in some way from the work of the Red Cross."

way from the work of the Red Cross.

"During the past year, I understand 79,500 victims of natural disasters have been sheltered, fed, and restored to strength through the help of the Red Cross.

"Each month, over 100,000 servicemen—and their families—receive some form of Red Cross assistance," the President added.

Marine Fire Loss At New

Fire losses through Marine Corps last November and December amounted to $31,253, the total for those months. Camp Lejeune accounted for $12,694.

A recently published Corps Bulletin, which concerns for increase in "experience," shows figures were 517 responses during those three months in 1958, 438 answers to alarm calls while only 496.

Smoking and care of smoking materials account for 13 per cent of post and station heating accounted for 13 per cent, and weathering in brush fires.

At Lejeune, the bulk of the damage occurred in "dempst" and quarters, according to the bulletin. Further, 58 matches caused 58 fires while 41 were caused by devices.

Lone Surviving Crash Victim At USN

The lone survivor of the Marine Corps R4Q transport that crashed and burned Friday about five and one-half miles northwest of the Cherry Point Air Station was reported in an improved condition by hospital authorities at the Naval Hospital here at GLOBE deadline. Eight marines were killed in the crash and the aircraft's radio operator, Acting Sgt. Ralph J. Mauro, Jr., 22, was the only survivor.

A new course in the welding of aluminum and magnesium alloys has been initiated at Marine Corps Engineer Schools. The course will enable students to fuse materials that have in the past been impossible to weld satisfactorily. In order to acquaint students with the most modern techniques in fusing aluminum and other light metals, the Maintenance School division of Engineer Schools obtained an inert-gas welder from the Marine Corps Equipment Board, Quantico.

The need for the new course arises from the increased use of lighter equipment utilizing aluminum and magnesium alloys. In the past, mobile bridge equipment made of non-ferrous metals was impossible for the average student to repair since the metal would burn before it reached a temperature at which it could fuse. However, the inert gas apparatus envelops the area to be welded with a cloud of non-inflammable gas which makes it impossible for the metal to burn before arriving at the desired temperature.

The model now being used is manufactured by the Air Reduction Co. and utilizes a spool of welding wire rather than the standard rods. The welder is effective for overhead welding as well as ordinary flat welding and eliminates the need for dismantling most equipment.

At the present time there are two machines in use by the Marine Corps, however, if the performance of these machines is satisfactory it is expected that they will undergo formal acceptance tests at the Marine Corps Equipment Board, Quantico, Va., and eventually be used as operational field welders.

Divvy Recon Unit Headed For Vieques

This time of the year most Americans would consider a trip to the Caribbean an ideal vacation. "Charlie" Co., 2nd Recon Bn., 2nd Division, is traveling south for a different reason.

The hard-charging Leathernecks of this unique marine company will undertake a rough training schedule on the island of Vieques.

One hundred ninety-two hours of daylight work, featuring helicopter landings, rubber boat training, scouting and patrolling and physical fitness drills will be tied in with 74 hours of night work.

The helicopter training includes marking landing sites, entering the "copters by ropes, the technique of landing the craft by radio homing devices, signalling the pilots from the ground by the use of panels and special flashlights. The helicopters will also be used for setting up observation posts and for aerial reconnaissance.

The rubber boat training includes the method of paddling, commands used, training of corpsmen, scout swimmers technique and security from seaward to the beach and then to the hinterland.

A hydrographic beach survey problem dealing with surf soundings, beach sketches and gradients, wave action, direction of tides and angles of the waves on the beaches will be a prime training mission.

"Charlie" Company's Leathernecks, commanded by Capt. Bayard S. Pickett, will also work in conjunction with more than 2000 Leathernecks of the 10th Provisional Marine Brigade who will be on maneuvers in Puerto Rico at the same time.

MCB Eastern Div. Tryouts Get Under Way Saturday

Top-flight East Coast rifle and pistol shooters will arrive on the local rifle range in two weeks to prepare for the 1959 Eastern Division marksmanship matches. Quad-Command activities will hold tryouts and eliminations at the rifle range beginning Saturday. MCB was scheduled to have selected about 100 rifle shooters and 50 pistol shooters at a meeting in the Camp theater yesterday morning. From those shooters, the Base will select its competitors for the matches.

Local commands will complete eliminations by March 24, and the following Monday will join all East Coast competitors to begin the five-weeks' practice prior to the matches.

The matches, scheduled May 4-9, include competition for individual honors and team "shoot-offs" for the Elliott, Wirgman and Edson trophies. Individual competitors will be "sighting-in" for legs toward Distinguished Marksmanship and Distinguished Pistol Shot Medals.

In the trophy matches, organizations with more than 600 enlisted men will furnish four-man rifle teams to vie for the Elliott Trophy. Smaller units will compete for the Wirgman rifle team trophy, while pistol teams from most posts and stations shoot it out for the Edson cup.

Last year, MCB's Sgt. Eric England was nosed out of individual rifle honors by Sgt. Edward Eibert of Parris Island. The Base came back later in the week, however, to top the Elliott and Edson trophies. The team from Marine Barracks, Naval Re-training Command, went back to Norfolk carrying the Wirgman award.

While the representatives of more than 60 eastern units fire at the Lejeune range, the Pacific Division matches will be held at Pearl Harbor, T. H. The following week, Western Division matches get under way at MCRD, San Diego.

San Diego will dominate the competition-in-arms scene June 1-6 with the Inter-Division Matches and competition for the Marine Corps Rifle, Pistol and Lauchheimer trophies. In the early fall, the shooting season climaxes with the National Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Bar Members Addressed By Admiral Ward

"Russia apparently has not gone into mass production of nuclear powered submarines, but when they do . . . it'll be many," said Rear Adm. Chester Ward, judge advocate general of the Navy, in a speech here Monday night.

Addressing more than 200 members and guests of the Camp Lejeune-Cherry Point Bar Association, Admiral Ward made numerous comparisons between U. S. and Soviet Union military and naval power.

"In 1956," he said, "Russia built 100 submarines. We built two." He added "Russia now has 450 long-range submarines . . . and that we need a larger anti-submarine force to meet the threat."

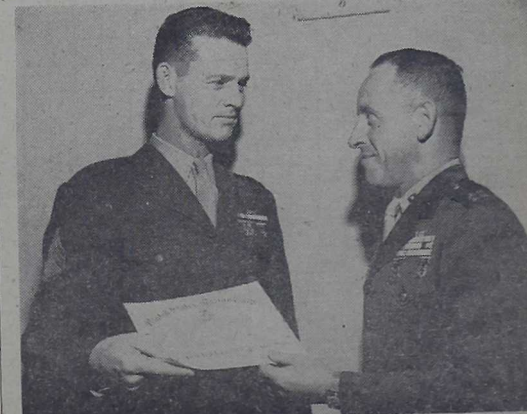

The admiral cited U. S. advantages by saying that we have attack aircraft carriers, while Russia has none. He added that we need more of the carriers, however. "The Russian navy is 70 percent new since World War II," he emphasized.

Welcomed to the speaker's stand by Lt. Col. A. W. Valentin, association president, Admiral Ward opened his talk with a report on the results of "operation tapecut in streamlining military justice." He spoke on the subject before the bar association over a year ago.

"In one year," he said, "operation tapecut has reduced brig population 30 percent, due largely to the impetus given the program here at Camp Lejeune." In addition, he pointed out Lejeune's example has enabled the Navy Department to cut overall brig population 32 per cent.

Anticipating questions about the much-publicized "Hump Bill," now pending in Congress, the admiral said that he doubts there will be any final legislation on the bill this year.

Thank You

A marine's wife was so impressed with the efficient handling of traffic after a recent movie at the MCB Drive-In that she took time out from her household chores to write a two and a half page letter of "thanks" to all personnel responsible for the traffic control.

The grateful housewife sent the letter to the Base Informational Services Officer in hopes that it could be published in the GLOBE for all hands concerned.

"It used to be quite upsetting with little children in the car at the end of a drive-in movie, when everyone wanted to leave their parking spaces at the same time," the letter read in part, "but last night it made me feel good to attend the movie there (MCB)."

The wife's letter went on to say that she hoped this orderly procedure would continue. It was her firm belief (and ours) that movie-goers will be able to leave more quickly by obeying the traffic rules.

In closing, the wife wrote, "I feel whoever is responsible for this matter should be commended for it. The GLOBE staff wholeheartedly agrees with Mrs. M. T. T.'s letter, and would like to point out that several individuals are worthy of this praise, including the Provost Marshal's staff. Movie-goers can share in this praise, too, by continuing to follow the directions given by the Drive-In personnel and Military Police.

lian pets need not be immunized until four months old, but they still must be registered with the Provost Marshal's Office in Bldg. 37.

The cost of inoculations given at the preceding locations will be $1 for each animal.

A certificate of rabies immunization dated after January 1, 1959, and "tags" issued at that time must be presented when registering pets, except for dogs that were vaccinated in 1957 or 1958 with chick-embryo vaccine, which is good for three years. These dogs rate blue and red tags, respectively, and owners need only bring the tags and have them stamped with a figure "9" for this year. Cats and other mammalian pets must be vaccinated annually.

All owners of dogs or cats are to register or re-register their pets during the period of March 14 through 20 at the Base Provost Marshal's Office, or at the established vaccination stations where the Provost Marshal will maintain a registration clerk during the hours each station is in operation.

Provost Marshal authorities will pick up tagged and untagged animals not quarantined in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and Base Order 6210.1A.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Washington (AFPS) — The Soviet submarine is one of the most serious military threats to our national security today.

Admiral Arleigh A. Burke, Chief of Naval Operations, voiced that warning to the nation before the Navy League's 1959 Seapower Symposium recently held here.

He also said the undersea threat is becoming more and more pronounced as the capabilities of submarines advance.

Tracing the progress in anti-submarine warfare since WWII, Adm. Burke said nuclear power has given our submarines "greatly increased performance capabilities in underwater speed and endurance."

The U. S. must deal with enemy submarines with the weapons systems available from the very outset of any conflict, he said, cautioning "in any future war there will not be time to come from behind."

Unveiled at the symposium were three new antisubmarine weapons that are a part of the Navy's "stepped up" program to combat the submarine threat.

One of the new weapons was a small and versatile torpedo, described as "capable of attacking faster targets at greater depths."

Scheduled for fleet evaluation in April, the torpedo is an electrically propelled missile that can be launched from both aircraft and surface ships.

Two new aircraft-launched mines, which can be launched at extremely high altitudes, with pinpoint bombing accuracy, also were disclosed at the conference.

TWO LEVERS

A commercial publication recently carried this: "Thought for Bosses." There are two levers for moving men—interest and fear.

The two levers used in the Christian faith for moving people are love and fear. One approach takes the attitude that the way to make people good is by scaring the evil out of them. Like the "Sword of Damocles", fear is held over the individual in the form of God's wrath, earthly punishment, death, and the torments of hell. In the end it may produce a desired form of human conduct and religious piety, but at what merit to the individual? His conduct and religion are the product of compulsion, not of his own volition. The mode is there but the true motive is absent.

Jesus said the true motive of conduct and religion is "love." This was the great commandment — to love God for what he is, and does, and means to each of us; to love our neighbors as ourselves. Love in this sense is first an intellectual appreciation and respect which then evolves from the individual a feeling of gratitude, loyalty, devotion and reverence. His conduct and religious expression is something he wants to do, that gives him joy and satisfaction, as contrasted to something he feels he "must do or else." In 1st Corinthians 13, the Apostle Paul highlights the necessity of the love motive as the only acceptable approach to God when he points out that if I have "the tongues of men and angels . . . the gift of prophecy . . . faith to remove mountains . . . giving all that I have to the poor . . . delivering my body to be burned . . . and have not love, it profiteth me nothing." The true motive is basic. We can fool some of the bosses and some of the people some of the time, but we can't fool the One God, any of the time.

Short Round

A special postage stamp will be issued in 1960 the first man to land an airplane aboard a ship if proves a bill introduced by Rep. Clement W. Mill. The stamp would commemorate the 50th anniversary B. Ely's San Francisco flight.

Quarters for military families have been assigned for U. S. military men assigned to the Korean Military Advisory Group (Provisional) beginning June 1. The housing units will be located at Seoul, Tae-gu, Pusan and Chinhae.

The slogan for this year's 10th annual observance of Armed Forces Day (May 16) will again be "Power for Peace." Posters for this year's observance feature a hand-clasp between the civilian and the military, symbolizing the trust and understanding which must exist between members of the Armed Forces and other Americans and free world friends with whom the U. S. stands for peace and progress.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars' Commander-in-Chief and Gold Medal award were presented to Gen. McC. Pate recently by Louis G. Feldman, VFW commander. The presentation was made to the Gen. in recognition of his service to the nation's security.

Yeoman First Thomas D. Noe, USN, a Richmond Navy recruiter, has issued a plea for anyone who knows the whereabouts of his 14-year-old son, John Edwin Noe, to please contact the Richmond office. The sailor's last sighting was in January 28 and has blond hair, blue eyes, weighs 135 pounds and stands 5'6". The sailor believes his son may be on or near a military installation. He has lived around them all his life.

CAMP SITE—Mrs. T. F. Patton, chairman of the Onslow County district of the Girl Scouts of Coastal Carolina, presents Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, MCB commanding general, with a letter of appreciation for the land located at Montford Point, which was donated recently to be used as a Girl Scout Day Camp.

Montford Pt. Camp Site Donated To Girl Scouts

Kicking off the National Girl Scout Week activities in this area, was a presentation of a letter of thanks to Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, Base commanding general, for the land donated as a Girl Scout camp site. Mrs. T. F. Patton, Chairman of the Onslow County district, made the presentation Tuesday morning at the office of the general, expressing appreciation for the land, which is located at Montford Point. The land, made available by licensed agreements with the Fifth Naval District, will provide a day camping site not only for nearly 500 local scouts, but also scouting units in the five surrounding counties. Camp Lejeune district Girl Scouts have planned a full schedule of activities for their participation in the annual Girl Scout Week celebration, according to Mrs. H. W. G. Vadnais, district chairman. Saturday at 2 p.m. the Scouts will participate in a parade at Camp school. All parents and friends are invited to view the parade and the bazaar afterwards. Girls of each troop will display their handicraft in booths at the school. On Sunday all Brownies and Girl Scouts will attend services in a group at various chapels and churches in their uniforms.

Activities Calendar

OWC — In place of their regular monthly Officers Wives club luncheon, Group I will hold a "Happy Evening" tomorrow between 6 and 8 p.m. at the Paradise Point club. Mrs. J. R. Justice and the wives of the dental officers will act as hostesses. The club dining room will serve dinner until 10 p.m. There will be dancing, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Group IV of the club will hold its regular monthly luncheon next Wednesday, with Mrs. Charles R. Baker and the wives of Hq. Bn., Second Marines, hostesses. There will be a social hour at noon and luncheon at 12:30 p.m., followed by a demonstration on beauty care and hair styling. Reservations for the luncheon can be made by calling Mrs. J. W. Eaton, 8-7429.

PROTESTANT WOMEN'S GUILD — The guild will meet Monday night, 8 p.m., at the Base Protestant Chapel. Dr. R. M. Reed will speak on "Psychiatry and Religion."

Social hostesses will be Mrs. R. M. Kritner, Mrs. G. C. Schmidt and Mrs. B. J. Jackson. Mrs. E. A. Law will give the devotional. All women in the area are invited to attend.

3 WM's in 'Who's Who'

Washington (AFPS) — Three Woman Marine officers have been selected for the first edition of "Who's Who of American Women." They are: Col. Julia E. Hamblet, at the time Director of Woman Marines; Lt. Col. Barbara J. Bishop, Commanding Officer, Woman Marine Recruit Training Battalion, Parris Island, S. C.; and Lt. Col. Emma Hope Clowers, Commanding Officer, Woman Marine Detachment, Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va.

Nominees Picked For OWC Executive Board By 9 Group Chairmen

The Officers Wives club announced nominees for the 1959-60 executive board as selected by the nine individual group chairmen, at a recent meeting. Votes will be cast prior to March 25 during regular group functions. Presidential nominees are Mrs. J. O. Butcher, Mrs. E. A. Law and Mrs. R. D. Wright. Mrs. W. H. Junghaus, Mrs. John Sundholm and Mrs. J. A. Witherspoon were nominated for vice president; and Mrs. R. R. Funk, Mrs. R. F. Haebsch and Mrs. R. H. Secrest for second vice president.

Completing the nominee slate are Mrs. F. H. Campbell, Mrs. E. W. Killian and Mrs. A. C. Smith, publicity chairman; Mrs. G. E. Codrea, Mrs. J. F. Paul and Mrs. G. C. West, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. C. Goodpasture, Mrs. John Lomac and Mrs. J. A. Sloan, recording secretary; Mrs. H. G. Bozarth and Mrs. F. D. Cortner, treasurer; and Mrs. E. L. Barker, Mrs. R. S. Wilson and Mrs. H. F. Woodbury, hospitality chairman.

A bulletin board with pictures of the prospective officers is on display in the Paradise Point club. Results of the election will be made public following the March 25 meeting of the OWC executive board.

Ladies unable to attend their March group luncheon may obtain absentee ballots by contacting respective group chairmen. These ballots can be taken or mailed to Mrs. H. J. T. Ellzey, MOQ 2213, Camp Lejeune. Only paid-up members of OWC are eligible to vote.

A host of club members, their husbands and guests were on hand for the presentation of "Spring Daydreams," by Group VI of the Officers Wives club, Saturday night at the Paradise Point club.

More than 40 fashionable outfits were modeled by the 20 ladies selected from the club. The clothes ranged from unique evening gowns to bright spring sport sets, including wearing apparel for all occasions.

The club was decorated in spring colors, with thousands of paper flowers filling long baskets which were suspended from the ceiling.

The runway was set up between the cafeteria and dining room, with the models making a circular tour between the two rooms on an elevated platform.

Lt. Col. S. D. Low and Maj. G. J. Haskins were the commentators. Escorting the models to the platform were Capt. Welis L. Field and Lt. Bill Gentry.

Fashions for the occasion were provided by the Parisian, and hair styling was by the Allure Beauty Shop.

Q—If a young man is accompanying two girls to the theater, is it all right for him to sit between them?

A—Yes, unless there is an aisle seat. Then, of course, he must sit next to the aisle.

SPRING DAYDREAMS — Mrs. Lynda Williams models an aqua tulle formal dress at the Officers Wives club spring fashion show held Saturday at the Paradise Point club.

Mrs. Butcher Is Appointed To USO National Council

Mrs. Joseph O. Butcher, a member of the Tallman St. USO Operating Committee, has been appointed as a regional member of the USO National Council representing the National Board of YWCA. Mrs. Butcher was selected for this post by the USO Board of Governors at a recent meeting.

Mrs. Butcher will be representing the Southeastern region which includes North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Tennessee.

She was formerly chairman of the USO Operating Committee in Barstow, Calif., and is currently serving as Chairman of the USO Awards Committee on the Tallman Street Operating Committee.

Mrs. Butcher is the wife of Col. Joseph O. Butcher, commanding officer, Marine Corps Supply School.

Miss Burger Named As Apple Blossom Festival Princess

Miss Eleanor S. Burger, 21-year-old daughter of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Joseph C. Burger, will represent the University of Maryland as a princess in the Court of Queen Shenandoah XXXII at the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival to be held at Winchester, Va., on April 30 and May 1.

Miss Burger, a senior, majoring in elementary education, formerly attended Florida Southern college, Lakeland. The pretty princess-elect is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, national social sorority. Queen Shenandoah will be attended by 34 princesses and two maids of honor from schools and colleges in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia during her reign over the 32nd annual spring-time celebration. Besides the famous coronation, the colorful celebration includes an applebake, beauty contest, celebrities, concerts, dances, exhibits, pageants, parades and many other interesting activities.

Paradise Pt. Baby Sitter Service Available For Officer's Children

The Paradise Point Sitting Service, sponsored by the Officers Wives club, offers Lejeune officers' dependents an efficient and reliable baby sitting service on a large scale basis.

This non-profit organization, located in Bldg. 2624, enables local wives to take a day off for necessary errands and shopping trips, by providing complete facilities to care for children from four-months to 10 years of age.

Whenever children are left during a mealtime, they are served either their lunch or dinner according to the length of their stay.

All reservations must be made 24 hours in advance by calling 6-6723, and early reservations are necessary in order that the proper number of attendants are made available.

Competent, reliable adult supervision is afforded the children at all times, and in some cases, teen-agers of a high-caliber assist the regular attendants. Mrs. Helen St. Clair is manager of the service, and is assisted by Mrs. Peggy Wooten.

When leaving children, the Sitting Service suggests that all proper equipment, such as bottles, baby food, diapers, and etc., be furnished by the parent along with instructions as to the child's feeding time.

Just as adults love a coffee break, the children are given refreshments and rest periods. At 2 p.m., 4 p.m., and just before bedtime, juice and cookies are served.

For the children's comfort, convenience and amusement there are many varieties of toys. Other facilities include a 21-inch TV set, three air-conditioners, 20 cribs, four playpens, 50 cots, large construction blocks and several different musical toys. An indoor play yard is also used in good weather, and features a swing set and candy-striped houses for the children to play in.

On Officers Wives club luncheon days and for scheduled coffees, special programs are extended in training with musical toys as well as the different books which are read to the children.

One third of the yearly dues from the Officers Wives club is used to support this activity. Its services are available from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

CHECKING-IN—Mrs. G. J. Haskins, checks her three children into the Paradise Point Sitting Service before departing on a day-long engagement.

Friday's hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 1 a.m. On Saturdays, the service opens at 12 noon and closes at 1 a.m. Sunday's hours begin at 9 a.m. to enable parents to attend the church of their choice, and is offered free-of-charge to all.

Daily rates for the service from 12 noon to 8 p.m. are 30 cents per hour for the first child in a family, 15 cents for the second, 10 cents for the third, and each additional child. On any day, parents may leave their children for the fixed rate of $2 for the entire day regardless of the number of children in the family.

For a very small fee the Sitter Service will furnish a cup of hot soup, and milk is also available. If desired, the parent may leave a lunch of their choice and it will be served during the noon hour.

Mrs. G. J. Haskins, chairman of the service, stated that a new vinyl-tile floor is being installed and murals are being painted on the walls of the various rooms. New play equipment is also on order for the children from seven to 10 years old.

Maj. Gen. Wallace M. Greene, former commanding general, MCB, commended that the Paradise Point Sitting Service is one of the finest of its kind in the Marine Corps.

The Officers Wives club operates this service by a board of officers' wives who serve to establish rules and policies for the successful operation of the service.

The board of officers includes Mrs. Haskins, chairman of the board; Mrs. J. J. Thomas, co-chairman; Mrs. J. J. Meek, recording secretary; Mrs. G. S. Haver, treasurer; Mrs. T. S. Stockwell, purchasing agent, and Mrs. B. Berckmans and Mrs. E. E. Allen are members-at-large. Mrs. F. W. St. Clair is manager.

HOUSE PLAY—Several children take advantage of the outdoor recreational facilities on a sunny afternoon.

INCOMING MAIL—Mr. Leslie Hill, of Jacksonville, waits for Act. MSgt. F. X. McElroy, MCB Postal Clerk, to check in one of the twice-daily mail runs from Warsaw, N. C. Mr. Hill is employed by a civilian contractor hired by the government to truck U. S. Mail into the Base.

of unit diaries every day and adds to or corrects their files appropriately. The unit diary copies are submitted to the post office by each Base unit. Copies of all transfer orders are also sent in order that the postal personnel will know when an individual is due to report in to Lejeune for duty.

On all joinings, transfers, etc., a new strip file for the directory and locator file is typed for each man concerned. When a person wants to know where a certain individual can be reached, or when a misaddressed letter needs correction, postal workers need only refer to their strip files for the answers.

Over a quarter million letters come in to the post office each week. Many of these letters must be forwarded or returned to senders due to transfers, discharges, or other absences of the addressees. About 10,000 mis-addressed letters a month are corrected by the postal staff, according to Capt. Frank M. Soltys, Base Postal Officer.

Three phones are available in the locator section for incoming calls. A 24-hour watch is maintained at the phones and over 200 calls are answered daily. This section also receives numerous posters each day from organizations on the Base requesting locator service.

The Base Post Office is a branch of the Jacksonville Post Office. The main office's administrative section in Bldg. 37 and five complete independent sub stations strategically located around Camp Lejeune are manned by 12 marines and six Woman Marines.

Twenty civilian postal employees operate the financial division of the main building and postal stations at Camp Knox, Camp Geiger and the Naval hospital.

The five Marine sub stations and their respective numbers and postal clerks in charge, are:

1.—Montford Point, Act. SSgt. George E. Smith; 2.—Rifle Range, Act. Sgt. Leroy E. Kish; 3.—Courthouse Bay, Act. Sgt. David L. Dargin; 4.—Infantry Training Regiment, Act. SSgt. Frederick P. Ellis; 5.—Industrial Area, Act. SSgt. Phillip J. Faye.

When questioned about the volume of business all five units have, Act. MSgt. F. X. McElroy revealed that over a quarter million dollars in money orders were sold during the Christmas holidays.

A truck referred to as the "Round Robin" leaves the main office six days a week at 7 and 11:45 a.m. and distributes mail to the five sub stations. Thirty-six mail rooms around MCB pick up their mail from these stations.

Two schools are held weekly for marines in the main office by Act. SSgt. James B. Harris which are in addition to their normal military training. An hour each Friday is set aside to further train postal clerks in the 0161 MOS, and two-hour classes each Tuesday helps to correct discrepancies and any complaints that may have come about in the previous week.

In an average week, over 391,000 pieces of mail are handled in the main post office. The unit's entire staff often works a full six-day week, and a crew is also detailed to process incoming mail on Sundays and holidays.

Mr. Kermit L. Guthrie, superintendent of the local post office and a colonel in the N. C. National Guard, said it usually takes 20 employees three hours to "work" (sort) the morning incoming mail and two hours in the afternoons.

As an added postal service around MCB, stamps are sold in every Marine Corps exchange. Approximately $7,500 in stamps are sold in this manner each month, according to Mr. William T. Cannon, Assistant Superintendent of the Post Office. "We have received as many as 400 pieces of registered mail in one day," Mr. Cannon added, "which keeps us plenty busy."

Captain Soltys and Mr. Guthrie agreed that the efficiency of their staffs stems from their belief that the U. S. Mail is a marine's biggest morale builder.

Judo Players Win Third; Host Pointers

Cherry Point felt the brunt of Camp Lejeune's judo players in an away encounter Thursday night as the local Marines picked up their third straight win of the season, taking five of the eight matches.

Outstanding player of the evening was Jerry Mustoffa, 174 pounds, who defeated E. C. Dahlberg with a shoulder throw at 2:35 of the initial period.

Gene Rodriguez (158) began Lejeune's victories employing a sweeping loin technique against K. F. Liebert (160) at 1:45. Bob Burke (156) defeated J. E. Davis (160) with a choke hold at 1:40.

Howard George, fully recovered from an elbow injury that sidelined him for almost a month, used a grappling technique in disposing of R. L. Meola (165) with 1:40 recorded on the clock. Mel Meyers (150) concluded the competition when he dropped the Cherry Point coach, R. K. Coulter, with a shoulder throw at 35 seconds.

Losing to the Pointers from the local club were newcomer Ron Laflamme (186), Larry Davis (164) and Stan Harris (160).

The Marines will face off against the same team in their last home appearance prior to the All-Marine tomorrow night at the Goettge Memorial field house beginning 7 p.m.

The All-Marine will be hosted by Parris Island with 150 experts expected to converge on that base March 21. The tourney will be decided through elimination matches with four weight divisions at stake, 130, 150, 180 and heavy-weight.

An overall champion will also be crowned with the player emerging victorious who defeats the other three top weight classes.

The Col. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Memorial Award, dedicated to the memory of the Marine Corps' foremost protagonists of hand-to-hand combat, will be presented to the individual winner. The trophy will be placed on permanent display at HQMC, Washington, D. C., with the name of the All-Marine Judo Champion engraved on it along with the Marine organization he represents.

Last year's overall champ was D. R. Powers of Camp Pendleton.

AAU rules will govern the matches. These are the same rules that are used at the Kodokan, Japanese Judo Institute in Tokyo, which is recognized as international judo headquarters.

Officials, two referees and four judges, will be provided by the East Coast Black Belt Federation, Washington, D. C.

OUTSTANDING PLAYER—Jerry Mustoffa was Camp Lejeune's outstanding player when the local judo players disposed of Cherry Point for their third straight victory. Mustoffa employed a shoulder throw in defeating E. C. Dahlberg with two minutes, 35 seconds having elapsed in their match.

Stars Back In Lineup

RETURNING MAINSTAYS—Shortstop Charley Armstrong is flanked by leftfielder George Uremovich, left, and first baseman Hal Norton. The three holdovers from last year helped pace the Camp Lejeune team to one of its most successful seasons. The local managers are depending on them again this year as the trio will open in their usual slots on March 19 when the Marines return home from their current roadtrip to engage VPI at Harry Agganis field.

Division Team Trimmed By FAG In Quad Opener

Second FAG, Force Troops, gave notice that they are the team to beat as they stopped the Second Marines, 2nd Marine Division, 78-64, in the opening game of the Quad-Command Basketball Tournament Monday night at the Goettge Memorial field house. In the night cap, 1st ITR, dealt MAG-26, representing FT, a 67-53 lesson.

Action will continue for the remainder of the week with the semifinals set for tonight at 4 and 8 p.m. Tomorrow, the finals will be staged at the same times in the Goettge gym.

Tall lanky George Willis of FAG was the outstanding performer on the court in the initial fight. Not only did he take high scoring honors with 33 points, but he controlled the boards throughout the evening's work. Willis received an excellent assist in the cool backcourt operation of Pete Olsen who steadied his team in the pressure.

After taking an early eight-point lead and holding it until four minutes remained in the half, FAG saw its margin sliced to two points with Lynwood Cox of the Second Marines leading the surge. At the intermission, FAG was ahead by only four markers, 33-29.

The Divvy team tied the game with three and a half minutes gone by as play resumed on Dick Griffith's charity toss. However, Willis sank a two-pointer from underneath and the winners never were in trouble after that as they opened the gap to 10 points at the 10-minute mark.

Of Willis' 33 points, 21 were tallied in the first half. Cox was high for the Division quintet with 17.

The fighting Flyers of MAG-26 gave it a battle but finally succumbed to ITR with seven minutes remaining in the game after tying the score twice after the intermission.

ITR took a quick 16-4 lead only to have it dissolved at the nine-minute mark, 14-14. ITR connected prior to the half to pull away and lead at that point, 32-25.

ITR's C. Walker had to take the game practically into his own hands as he bucketed 10 markers in the final seven minutes to pull the game out for the winners.

Pacing the losers was Larry Thompson with 15, while Walker of ITR sank 24 on nine from the outside and six from the line.

ROD AND GUN

Col. C. O. Tolman will be the guest speaker tonight at the monthly meeting of Camp Lejeune's Rod and Gun club scheduled for Marston Pavilion, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Local Nine Open Against Fla. Club

The 1959 Camp Lejeune baseball edition came up next Tuesday afternoon when the local nine opens season against Rollins college at Winter Park, Fla., first of a two-game series. Results were not available at presstime. Today and tomorrow, coach Hal Glasgow's will face Stetson university at DeLand. The Marine club will move "north" for a weekend invasion of Florida State university at the Florida capital of Tallahassee.

In FSU, the locals will be meeting a college power as the Florida team has made three straight trips to the regional play-offs and one to the nationals under the direction of coach Danny Litwhiler.

Lejeune will conclude their first road trip with a two game series

OPENING GAME

The Camp Lejeune baseball team's initial appearance of the year resulted in a tie game against Rollins college in a contest called because of darkness after eight innings of play and the score knotted at eight apiece.

The locals scored their eight runs on nine hits and committed one miscue. Thirteen Marines were left stranded on the base paths.

A trio of Lejeune hurlers held Rollins to five hits. Big Gerry Smith opened on the mound and worked for four frames. Herm Emigholz took over for Smith with Bill "Pappy" Herrington relieving in the last inning.

against Tampa prior to opening at home Thursday against Virginia Polytechnic Institute in Harry Agganis field beginning 2 p.m.

Against Rollins Tuesday, the outfield positions were manned, left to right, by the colorful veteran George Uremovich, Dick Meade and Sam Valentine. Uremovich, a "third coach" on the squad, is considered the Satchel Paige-Archie Moore of service baseball where the secret of age is as closely guarded as the hydrogen bomb plans.

Uremovich hit .320 last year at Lejeune, including 13 triples and 10 doubles. Coach Hal Glasgow calls him his "ace in the hole" as he figures Uremovich can always fill in as a catcher if needed, a position he was considered the best in while playing some 13 years in service circles.

Meade, another all-around athlete who can fill in in the will lend swiftness to the Valentine, a former All- football player at Penn S. be making his debut in baseball. He already has mark at Quantico, where star lineman for the p years, receiving All Service nition.

Pin Pickers Stop Meyers In Officers Wives Keg League

The Pin Pickers remained in first place in the Officers Wives Bowling League, stopping the Meyers, 3-1, in last week's action. Margaret Sutts' 160 game and Millie Hoover's 404 series were high for the winners, while Ellen Montgomery recorded a 168-385 for the losers.

The second place Dreamers whitewashed the Yak Yaks with Dollie Saylor bowling a 186-450. Ruth Rubbero and Lee Riley combined with a 143 and 400 game and series, respectively.

Diane Krepps' 164 game and Dottie Checklou's 411 series led the last place Alley Bi's to a 3-1 victory over the Hot Shots. The losers' Marilyn Moore, 162 game and Koby Bryant's 399 series represented highs for the Hot Shots.

The Bowling Belles stopped the Sad Sacks, 3-1. For the Belles, Dottie Cronk had a 178-464, while Joyce Bandyk had a 174-428 for the Sacks.

Mrs. Saylor took week with a 204 game and 530 with handicap.

Terry Anzilotti Paces Strickettes To 3-1 Win

Terry Anzilotti's 158 game 445 series paced the Strickettes a 3 1/2 win over the Rollettes in the Staff NO Bowling League. Ollie Egan had a 155-146 for the Rollettes.

The Guttersnipes took from the Whirlwinds with Beth rolling a 187 game and Fetterols a 456 series for the winners. Marion Kailer's 17 and Ernestine Owen's 23 represented highs for the winds.

FMFLant Wraps Up Atlantic Fleet Boxing Tournament 7-3

Camp Lejeune's boxing team, fighting incognito under the Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, colors, made like a PT boat, sinking the visiting DesLant and MineLant stables at the Goettge Memorial field house last Wednesday night before 1,500 fans.

DesLant, defending champ, managed to take three of the weight divisions but it was coach Ray Rogers' FMFLant pugilists who swept through the first five matches undefeated before the Marines' Dick Gilford lost a split decision to DesLant's Ernie Curtis. But by then it was all wrapped up for the locals who went on to take two more bouts before the evening's festivities had ended.

This marked the third time that the FMFLant boxers had won the rotating trophy in the last six years.

Perhaps the sweetest victory of the night was recorded by undefeated Jerry Eley in the 178-pound class. Tuesday evening Eley scored a unanimous decision over DesLant's Jim Roseette. The following night, MineLant's All-Navy champ, Pat Patterson, attempted to stop Eley's streak at 12. The first round was even and then it was all Eley as the Lejeunite artfully changed his tactics from the aggressor to counter and back again with his opponent only managing to fight in flurries.

Curtis' success against Gilford had all the markings of a grudge fight as it was the FMFLant boxer who disposed of Curtis in last year's classic. Curtis took the fight to Gilford from the opening bell and never let up until mid-way through the second stanza. From there it was Gilford, missing with killer punches, as he desperately attempted to knock the DesLant welter out. Ironically, the story in the split nod from the judges could have been the result of referee Ray Russ' taking a point from Gilford in the first round.

In a barroom slugfest, FMFLant's Jimmy Flood banged out a unanimous decision over Harold Glover, DesLant, in a 156-pound clash. Glover had scored a 39-second TKO the previous night over MineLant's Bob "Cochise" Chapman.

With Flood taking the fight to his opponent, the flashy Marine connected at one minute of the second round, decking Glover for the mandatory eight-count. A repeat performance was staged 50 seconds later. However, Glover came off the canvass and chopped a quick right to the head of Flood sending him to the canvas for an eight.

Both boxers scored well in the final round with Flood in command at the bell, boring in for the KO.

All-Marine Jerry Moore began the Lejeune streak in the first match of the night with a unanimous decision over DesLant's John Cortez, New England Golden Gloves flyweight champ last year. Moore took quick charge from the opening, bloodying Cortez's mouth and nose with a barrage in the second stanza.

Wasting little energy and no time, FMFLant's Bobby Tuell threw a hard right-left combination that decked DesLant's Billy Joe Dean for the mandatory eight at 1:05 of the initial round. Referee Russ stepped in, ending the contest at 1:34 with a TKO awarded the 119-pound Tuell.

Unbeaten Rocky Fiorentino, FMFLant's 125-pounder, traded punches with Glen Fink, DesLant, as both fighters threw away style in favor of slugging tactics. At the end it was Fiorentino by unanimous decision and win No. 6.

AlMar Crown To Quantico; Play In AAU

The Quantico basketball team, hosting the All-Marine last week, breezed through three games to take the coveted title, thus ending the most successful season ever recorded at that Marine base.

With an overall mark of 44-3, including a perfect 15-0 mark in Marine Corps competition, seven players from Quantico were picked to represent the Corps in the National AAU competition March 16-21 at Denver and the Armed Forces Tournament, March 26-28 at Mitchel AFB, New York.

Representing the Virginians are John Brewer, Leo Hayward, Jim Carey, Jack Sullivan, Cliff Daniels, Dave Smalley and Joe Miller. Also selected were Al Dillard and John Fannon of Hawaii, Frank Allen and Jack Stillwell of San Diego and Cherry Point's Bob Kessler, former Honorable Mention All-American at Maryland.

In driving to the top, Quantico received a bye and then went on to defeat San Diego, 80-66, and Hawaii twice, 99-70 and 95-86.

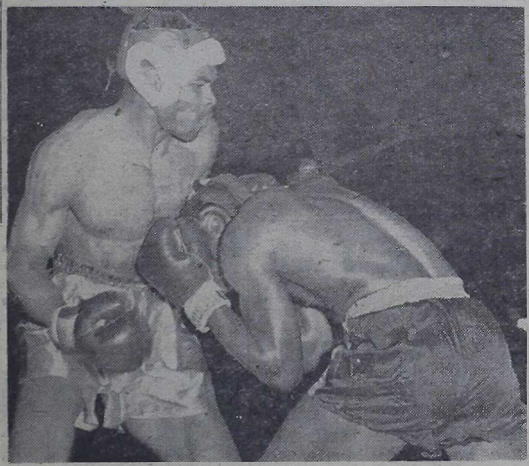

Sullivan's 41-point outburst in the final spelled doom for the Islanders after they held a 10-point advantage in early play. With five minutes remaining in the half, the newly crowned titlist finally went ahead, 36-35. And then it was no contest as the Virginians put on a display of championship basketball, leading at the intermission, 54-47.

Sullivan, averaging 25 points a game during regular season play, hit on 13 outside shots and 15 from the foul line. Teammate Brewer accounted for 17 on 5-7 for runner-up honors.

Boy's League Schedules Plans Meeting March 13

There will be a meeting for all interested parties concerned with forming the Camp Lejeune Boy's Baseball League, March 12, in the club house at the entrance to Tarawa Terrace No. 1, beginning 8 p.m. Anyone desiring to manage a team, umpire, or work with administrative details is urged to attend. Two separate leagues will be formed with boys in the 8-12 age groups comprising one loop and 13-15 in the other.

For those who are unable to attend contact Chief B. M. Johnson, Base Dispensary, 7-3310.

ATLANTIC FLEET—Top, FMFLant's Rocky Fiorentino bangs a right to the face of DesLant's Glen Fink in the 125-pound division during action last Wednesday at the Atlantic Fleet Boxing Tournament in Camp Lejeune's Goettge gym. Fiorentino went on to win the decision, recording his sixth straight victory. Bottom, Jerry Eley, FMFLant's 178-pound king, readies to slam home a right in his fight against MineLant's Pat Patterson, 1958 All-Navy champ. Eley extended his win streak to 12 when he received the nod from the three judges.

Track Prospects Showing Well In Spring Practice

Camp Lejeune's varsity track team will open against Springfield college March 26 at Liversedge field. Forming the nucleus of the squad are returnees Tony Szalkowski, All-Marine hammer thrower, and sprinters Al Terry, Les Campbell and Jim Hinman, all members of the 440-yard championship relay team.

Terry has been an outstanding prospect in the 100 and 220-yard dashes in early practice. He is also expected to add depth in the javelin. Terry was All-State while attending Princeton High school, Princeton, N. J. He was a member of the local football eleven during the 1958 season.

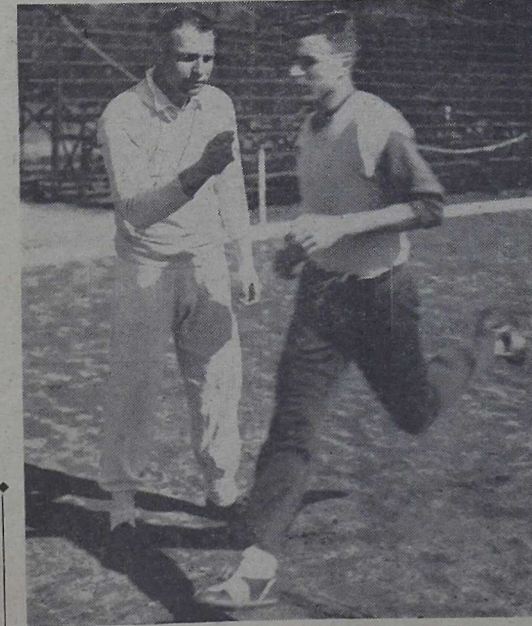

In the middle distances, coach Gary Gilson will be relying on former Northwestern university standout, Lenny DePalma in the quarter and half-mile and Mike Fleming in the half and mile. Fleming ran for the U. of Nebraska for two years. Bob High of St. Albans, N. Y., will back DePalma in the 440.

Vic Zwolak, third in the AlMar steeplechase in '58, is back for his second year in the distance events. Another top candidate is Dick Welsh of Manhattan college.

A product of Butler university, Jerry Inglett has been showing well in the broad jump. Another local football player, Don Swanson of Minnesota, will participate in the pole vault. Besides Terry, Don Kennon, Saul Ross college, will throw the javelin.

Coach Gilson has Campbell back in the hurdles along with Frank Carra, Western Illinois State college.

LEJEUNE DISTANCE RUNNER—Coach Gary Gilson clocks distance runner Vic Zwolak as spring practice draws to a close. Zwolak was third in the steeplechase at last year's All-Marine Track and Field Championships. The local track team will open against Springfield college on March 26 in a home encounter at Liversedge oval.

BOXING

The Camp Lejeune boxing team winged into San Diego early Friday morning. Accompanying the club were two businessmen, not distinguishable for their grey flannel suits, but rather, from their Marine Corps uniforms. Neither were out to conclude negotiations for a company merger. Instead, what they represented was purely physical, mixed in with the basic ingredients of success, a clear knowledge of the field.

Of course, we're talking about Lejeune's smallest and heaviest additions to the Marine stable, Jerrys Moore and Eley. Their business—win their respective titles at the All-Marine which began Monday in California. Moore won the coveted belt in '58 when he defeated teammate Bobby Tuell and will be gunning for his second straight.

Neither can be considered a colorful fighter inasmuch as they won't supply a writer with the descriptive adjectives that fill sports pages of their antics in and out of the ring. They don their uniforms of business, step into the ring and conduct themselves in the lively profession that the Marquis of Queensbury set forth some 96 years back. Between the two, they have dropped only one while banging out 20 wins.

JERRY MOORE
...Gunning For Second Straight

Eley was to have been tested last Wednesday night at the Atlantic Fleet. In Pat Patterson of MineLant, and All-Navy tiffist of 1958, Eley was given just better than an even chance from ringsiders who know their business. Eley played Patterson even for the first round, feeling out his opponent. After that it was strictly Eley and the rest is in the record book.

There are others in the Lejeune stable that will take their crowns. Gone are the big names that filled the GLOBE sports pages of the last few years. There has emerged some upstarts that have felt their way through a year or two of service competition.

The local pugilists have the depth that they haven't had in two years. Last season they took an AllMar title when the odds were against them. If they win this week, it will mean their seventh straight.

If Moore and Eley, the two quiet men on the team with the "terrible tempers," have anything to do with it, they will pace—not so gentlemanly negotiations—the locals to another mark of ring glory, the All-Marine Championship. The odds in this corner favor a definite repeat with the local stock soaring to another record peak.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT—Archers from MCAF and Cherry Point staged their first meet last week at New River, with the visiting "Bowhunters" defeating the host "Field Archers." The next scheduled match, over a 28-target field course, will be held Sunday at Cherry Point. Camp Lejeune's archers are expected to participate in the coming tourneys. Eulberg Rolls 627 Series To Break Record

Joe Eulberg, bowling for State Life Insurance Co., of Group II in the Staff NCO Bowling League, set a new loop mark when he recorded a 627 series, breaking Jim Wray's standard of 625 in last week's action.

Eulberg paced the front-runners to a 3-1 win over Staff Club Zebras. In the losing cause, Bill Copes had a 236-618. His 236 games was one pin short of the league record of 237, held by Wray. State Life, with a 50-18 ledger, is trailed by the Zebras with a 39-29.

The fourth-place Pigirons dropped Leatherneck Tavern, 3-1, behind the combined rolling of Pat Byrnes' 179 game and Pierre Carrière's 492 series. John Petrunich had a 189 game and Hank Schwarz a 517 series for the Tavern group.

The Sports knotted at two-all with Automatic Serv. Co. Art Bloss chalked up a 202-497 for the Sports while Ernie Church and Jim McCarvill had a 191 and 492 game and series respectively for Automatic.

In Group I action, D&E Car Exchange moved one game closer to the pace-setting Putt-Putts when they shut out the Wilde 3-Balls behind Woody Owen's 180-498. Fred Mathieu had a 181-471 for the losers.

The Putt-Putts stopped the Toppers, 3-1. Lee Pridden's 191 game and Jim Cassidy's 484 series topped the winners. Doc Hanson had a 180-492 for the Toppers.

Eighth Engr. Bn. buried Budweiser, 3-1, with Sam Foster rolling a 184 game and Paul Phillips a 510 series for the victors. Budweiser's Chief Grohowski had a 196-523.

Wray's 183 average is high for the league.

Frank Beach, Hq. Division, rolled like a 1 as he led Division's team to the Quad-Command Bowling Championship. Beach recorded an average of 191.2 in pinners for individual honor.

Team No. 1 totaled 18,314 to MAG-26's 18,000. The new champion walked off with high averages and series with a 973, respectively.

High individual game Joe Eulberg of the team when he rolled 627. The team had individual high totals together a 214-567.

Jim Wray of MAG-26's 186.3 average was second for top honors. Bill Simon's Team No. 2, and team No. 2, MCB, had averages.

Comprising the winners were Pappy Tubbs, Bill Schmidt, Bill Wooster, John Belk and Beach.

Mullaney had a point taken from him for a low blow in the second stanza.

Methodical Billie Hailes, All Marine and representing FMFLant, took a unanimous decision from All-Navy light welter, John Dixon, DesLant, in a 139-pound brawl. Hailes hit his opponent at will, showing little effect of his two days of sweating off poundage to get down to the weight limit.

JEANNE EAGLES
This is a story of Jeanne Eagles' brief career as a Broadway star, from a beauty contest at a traveling carnival in Kansas City to her suspension by Equity and her collapse from drunkenness and drugs. Lasting 114 minutes, the plot is based on fact and fiction and stars Kim Novak, Jeff Chandler and Agnes Moorehead.

FIRST MAN INTO SPACE
A combination of science fiction and some known space facts, starring Bill Edwards, Marshall Thompson and Maria Landi. The plot deals with two rocket pilots who are lost when they pass out of the earth's atmospheric limits. Their return to earth was undiscovered until a recurrence of several grisly murders that lead officials to believe they had been turned into space-created monsters.

PATHS OF GLORY
An excellent melodrama with a good cast. Kirk Douglas, Ralph Meeker, and Adolph Menjou in a realistic film about an incident during World War I. A French advance is being blocked by German forces entrenched on a huge hill known as the "Ant Hill." Kirk Douglas is defense counsel for three men to be court-martialed for not making a success of the attack. Realistic and sincere, it depicts a portrayal of a drive for justice and human right. (96 min.)

TAP ROOTS
This one dates back just a few years but is said to have carried a good public opinion when released by Universal. The 109-minute movie stars Van Heflin and Susan Hayward.

NOWHERE TO GO
It just might appeal to anyone who hasn't anything planned or no where to go.

MARJORIE MORNINGSTAR
Natalie Wood plays the role of an 18-year-old who tries to get into show business in this highly rated film which won top honors as a novel. During the show Miss Wood manages to fall in love with several enterprising men, namely Gene Kelly who she meets while at summer camp. She follows Kelly through several bouts with the bottle, many girls and across Europe before learning her lesson.

THE BIG COUNTRY
Gregory Peck, Jean Simmons, and Carol Barker star in this 166-minute Technicolor spectacular, accentuating the colorful southwest. Peck plays the role of a former sea captain who becomes involved in a bitter feud between proud and stubborn ranchers who are fronting as righteous individuals but in the end turn out to be quite arbitrary and ruthless. Violence comes to the scene in a fight between Peck and a ranch foreman over the latter's designs on Carol Barker. The Big Country will be shown at 1:15 p.m., 5:15 and 8:30 p.m., due to the length of the running time during the Camp Theater play date.

TORPEDO ZONE
If on the same level as MGM's Torpedo Run, it could prove to be a real action-filled submarine thriller. In the event that they are using a ship other than a sub, and weapons other than torpedoes, who knows what the outcome will be.

A PLACE IN THE SUN
A 1951 Paramount release which stars Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Shelly Winters in a 122-minute portrayal of deep emotional young love.

THE SNORKEL
The British tube is used in this 74-minute release highlighting the methods employed to commit murder without suspicion, and make it look like suicide. A twin air-intake and exhaust tube device, normally used by underwater swimmers, known as a snorkel, becomes the perfect means by which the killer flees by Peter Van is able to breathe while his victim is subjected to asphyxiating gases.

MARDI GRAS
This story combines the atmosphere of Virginia Military Institute cadets and all the excitement and fancy of the New Orleans Mardi Gras. Pat Boone plays the lead role as Paul Newell who is selected by his 900 fellow cadets to meet Christine Carare, a Hollywood movie star, at the Mardi Gras and invite her to the graduation prom at VMI. Tommy Sands, Sheree North, and Gary Crosby are also featured in the cast.

TENNESSEE WILLIAMS NAMED DESIRE
Tennessee Williams brings to the screen a complex drama of love and frustration in the turn-of-the-century New Orleans. Marlon Brando is starred as the original "beatnik" character Stanley Kowalski and is co-starred with the very apt Vivian Leigh.

SPY IN THE SKY
Steve Brodie and Sandra Francis star in this 1953 release. Judging from the title it could entail almost anything, including rocket ships and outer-space men. Motion Picture Herald rates this 74-minute film as fair.

LOVE AND WAR
A story about three marines in World War II, dealing with their friendships, romances, and conduct in battle is told in this 1954 production. Emphasis is placed just a little more on love than war, but several battle sequences near the end provide the kind of action represented in the title. Rated very good, it stars Robert Wagner and Dana Wynter in 111 minutes of entertainment.

Probably similar to its counterpart-type movie featuring frogmen who never fail to get tangled up in sea monster that no one else before. The circumstances probably prove to be enthralling ever.

LEFT-HANDED
Billy the Kid, played by a wandering cowboy, job by co-star Colin Kelly, cattle rancher. Keith-Johnson by a couple of bandits, sheriff and the Kid decide death by similar tactics. Used as an action-packed western which portrays actor of an illiterate, ailing psychopath (according to the early West).

TARAWA BEACH
Realistic war action, with footage, forms a backbone story of a sergeant's life a glory-seeking, heartless no consideration for the men. Kerwin Mathews and Ray Danton as the atmosphere charged on the outcome of the battle.

KNUTE ROCKNE—ALL AMERICAN
A movie featuring the football and Knute Rockne as an All-American coach during the early Babe football.

INVISIBLE AVENGER
Anything that's invisible, usually creates a mystery in this case might surprise punched need to prove existing action.

WEST-BOUND
Wagon trains, Indians, and the strife encountered days of cross-country travel probably comprise the action doubly western film.
