CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1958 NO. 37

New Ranks Added To Pay Grades E-9; Entire EM Structure Changes

Camp Lejeune marines, as well as every Corps' member, have come under the establishment of two new ranks in pay grades E-8 and E-9 which is a major feature of the new structure announced by Headquarters Marine Corps last week.

The new enlisted ranks—master gunnery sergeant, gunnery sergeant and lance corporal—added to the Marine Corps' enlisted rank structure.

The new rank structure at no marine will assume new rank titles upon promotion. The following rank titles will be used in each pay grade: E-9 sergeant major, master gunnery sergeant; E-8 first sergeant, master sergeant; E-7 gunnery sergeant, acting master sergeant; E-6 staff sergeant, acting gunnery sergeant; E-5 sergeant, acting staff sergeant; E-4 corporal, acting sergeant; E-3 lance corporal, acting corporal; E-2 private first class and E-1 private.

Three stripes and four rockers with a star in the center will designate all sergeants major while the same number of stripes and rockers with a bursting bomb in the center will indicate a master gunnery sergeant. First sergeants will continue to wear three stripes and three rockers with a diamond in the center while their counterpart, the master sergeant, will wear crossed rifles in the center of his stripes.

Present master sergeants (E-7) will continue to wear six chevrons and will be called acting master sergeant. The gunnery (E-7) chevron consists of three stripes and two rockers with crossed rifles in the center. The rank of technical sergeant, which is now the E-6 pay grade, will be eliminated from the rank picture. The title of staff sergeant will be moved up to the E-6 pay grade and will be indicated by three stripes and one rocker with

Seventh Fleet Still On Alert Near Formosa

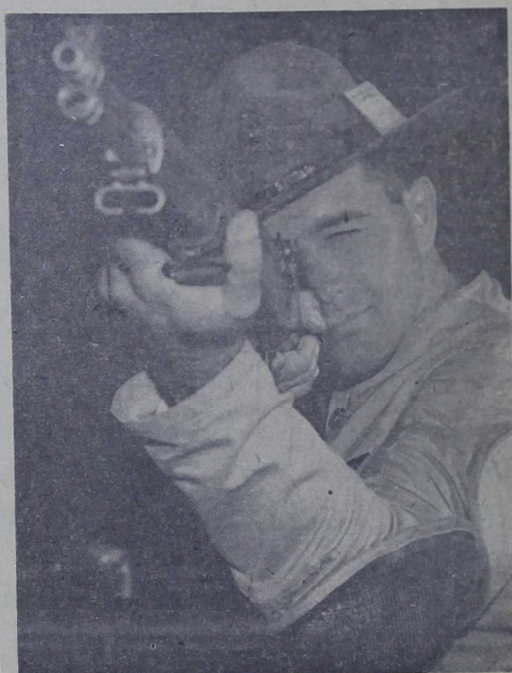

The Seventh Fleet, under the command of Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beakley, continues to remain in an alert status in the Taiwan Straits area as the situation in the Quemoy Islands becomes more critical.

The Chinese Communists have been shelling the Quemoy islands for the past few weeks. These two small islands in the Formosa Strait are considered to be Nationalist Chinese territory by the Chiang Kai-shek government headquarters at Taipei, Taiwan.

The Nationalist government and what was left of its armed forces took refuge on Taiwan in 1949 after having been driven from the mainland by the Chinese Communists.

The Seventh Fleet, which is under the overall command of the Commander in Chief, Pacific Fleet, shares the responsibility of keeping a firm grip on the vast sea area from the Bering Sea, Alaska and the Aleutians through Japan, Ryukyu, Taiwan, The Philippines and the South China Sea to Malaysia.

It is also partially charged with establishing and maintaining control of all essential lines of communication keeping control of the sea and denying its use to the enemy.

TOP SERVICE SHOOTER—TSgt. Anthony Pietroforte of Rockville Center, Long Island, N. Y., and Encinitas, Calif., sights in while setting the all-time National Rifle and Pistol Match record by firing a perfect 250 score over the national match course, to become the 1958 National Trophy Individual Champion. It was the first time that the coveted "250" possible was fired in competition.

Marine Sergeant Shoots Possible At Camp Perry

The "impossible possible," 250x250, was fired at Camp Perry, Ohio, on September 2.

Marine TSgt. Michael Pietroforte fired the perfect score to become the first rifleman in target history to shoot a "possible" over the national match course in official competition.

Sergeant Pietroforte, 1957 National Service Rifle Champion, put 23 shots in the V-ring during the 50-round all bullseye record.

Going to the 600-yard firing line, the 30-year-old marine was run a close second by Army SSgt. Gordon M. Voss, who held a 248 with 21 V's scored.

As the veteran shooter began his last string of fire, every available spotting scope was trained on target 33 to watch the master marksman make his bid for a perfect score.

Sergeant Pietroforte on the 600 placed his seventh shot in the bull for a five, his eighth was a V, his ninth a five, and then for the next 11 shots V after V was marked in the butts.

When the target came up for the last time, he had fired the almost impossible 250x250.

New Cols. Selected From Camp Lejeune

The Secretary of the Navy has announced that the President has approved the report of the selection board that recommended the following named officers of the regular Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve for temporary promotion to the grade of lieutenant colonel.

Scheduled to receive the temporary promotion at MCB are: Maj. Wallace M. Halbert, MCSS; Maj. B. Guy, Hq. Bn.; William R. Holt, Base Materiel Bn., and George C. Schmidt Jr., Base Materiel Bn.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE SACK DRESS?

PFC BERTIE P. LEMAY, Sales Commissary — I think the sack dress is one of many items that help make women turn into something that we will never be able to figure out. They actually detract from a woman as far as I'm concerned.

PVT. RITA A. EVANICH, Base Material — I like them. They're comfortable and they're the most, to say the least. They're different but still very much in style. I don't think they will stay around as long as the plainer type dresses.

CPL. ANNA B. JOHNSON, Base Disbursing — I don't care for them. I don't think they flatter a woman at all. They went out of style in the "20's." From what I hear the dress manufacturers don't think much of them because they haven't caught on as was expected.

SGT. MYRON W. YENCHA, Base Disbursing — I don't like them. They don't look right on a girl. It looks like something has just been thrown on them. Unless a woman has a really terrific figure the dress doesn't look good on her.

SACK—Pfc Patty Morris models her creation of the sack via the ORIGINAL line. The dress was created from a burlap bag and approximately two yards of ribbon. Above are some marine views on the comeback of the 20's craze.

crossed rifles in the center. Marines now holding the rank of technical sergeant will be designated acting gunnery sergeants and will continue to wear five stripes until promoted.

The title of sergeant will move from the fourth to the fifth pay grade. The new rank insignia will be three stripes with crossed rifles. Personnel currently holding the rank of staff sergeant will continue to wear four stripes and carry the title of acting staff sergeant until promoted.

Corporal stripes with a crossed rifle will hereafter signify the fourth pay grade. All Marines now holding the rank of sergeant in the fourth pay grade will be designated acting sergeants until promoted.

The traditional rank of lance corporal will be introduced in the third pay grade. The insignia for this rank will be one stripe with crossed rifles below the stripe. Corporals, now in pay grade three, will be designated acting corporals and will continue to wear two stripes until promoted to the next higher pay grade.

The E-2 rank of private first class and the E-1 rank of private will remain unchanged.

The new nine-pay-grade structure will enable the Corps to strengthen its enlisted rank structure by adding prestige to all its non-commissioned officer ranks, and by providing for additional levels of supervision.

Actual conversion to the new rank structure will be delayed until suitable rank insignia are available in the supply system.

Gen. Hogaboom Speaks To Bar Asso. Members

Lt. Gen. Robert E. Hogaboom, chief of staff, Headquarters Marine Corps, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Camp Lejeune-Cherry Point Bar Association Monday evening at the Paradise Point Officers club.

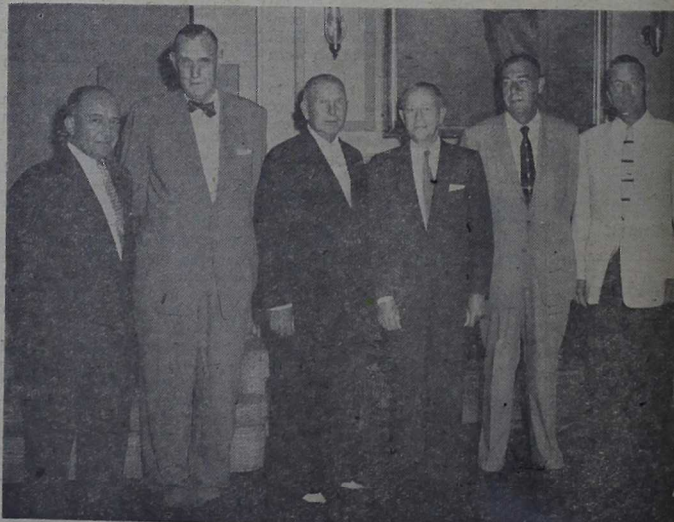

General Hogaboom's main topics were: (1) Level of forces and level of funds concepts, and their present and future effect on the Marine Corps; (2) the changed enlisted rank structure and the reasons for the changes; and (3) the status of the Marine Corps under the Department of Defense reorganization.

An informal talk by Maj. Gen. W. S. Brown was another of the evening's highlights. General Brown closed his speech with the statement, "The Marine Corps is bigger than the people in it, the people who have been in it or the people who will be in it." The general was "enthusiastically received" by members of the association.

General Brown enlisted in the Marine Corps as a private May 28, 1918, and was commissioned Feb. 19, 1925. The general has served with the Tenth Marines on two occasions. In July, 1941, he became executive officer of the 4th Battalion and in June, 1949, he became commanding officer of that regiment. He retired from the Corps in 1953.

New officers for the coming year were elected at Monday's meeting. Incoming president is Lt. Col. Alaric W. Valentin, Base Legal Office, and Maj. Matthew A. Clary Jr., 2nd Division, was named vice president. Maj. John A. Reynolds of the Second Marine Air Wing is the new secretary. Maj. Gahan J. Haskins, Base Legal Office, was the outgoing president and Lt. Col. Robert E. Smithwick was the past secretary.

commanding general, MCB; Lt. Gen. Hogaboom, chief of staff, HQMC; Maj. C. Burger, commanding general, 2nd Division; Brig. Gen. L. F. Chapman Jr., general, FT, and Col. E. T. Dorsey, MCAS, Cherry Point.

Krushchev's Visit Delays

In July Premier Nikita Khrushchev of the Soviet Union demanded a "summit" meeting to "end the war in the Middle East. Great Britain and the United States agreed to attend a meeting of the United Nations Council to discuss and seek solutions to the problem of a threat to peace in the area, including "indirect aggression." They pointed out that Chiefs of State could, under the rules of procedure, attend Security Council meetings. In the last of an exchange of a series of notes in which Khrushchev accused Britain and the United States of stalling, he asked that an early date be set for the meeting.

Then, before a date was set, Khrushchev made a sudden surprise visit to Peiping, where he conferred with Chinese Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung from July 31 to August 3. On August 5, Mr. Khrushchev in a letter to President Eisenhower called off the Security Council meeting on the pretext that the Security Council "is practically subordinated to U. S. foreign policy" and that Communist China is not represented in it.

Instead of a Security Council meeting, Khrushchev demanded "the convening of an extraordinary session of the U. N. General Assembly to discuss the question of the withdrawal of U. S. troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan."

President Eisenhower replied that a U. N. Assembly meeting was "completely acceptable," particularly since the United States had proposed such a meeting before Khrushchev asked for a summit conference.

SIX-POINT PLAN

The U. N. General Assembly, composed of delegates from 81 countries met to open its emergency session on August 8 in New York City with President Eisenhower addressing the Assembly.

In outline, the President asked the General Assembly to:

1. "Consider how it can assure the continued independence and integrity of Lebanon, so that the political destiny of the Lebanese people will continue to lie in their own hands."
2. "Give expression to the interest of the United Nations peace in the Middle East.

3. "Consider making the radio broadcast across national boundaries near Eastern Europe examining 'complaints' which of national security jeopardsy the fomenting of without."

4. Create a "Nations peace force" of this armed pressures coming across the border."

5. Set up "a regional development plan" to celebrate improvement standards of these Arab nations."

6. Take "steps" arms race spiral in the Middle East."

Marine Display At 'Porcedo'

An estimated crowd of 1,000 persons was present at the Marine Corps display at the Port of Call, Wilmington, N. C., sponsored by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce. Contributing displays included aircraft from the United States Marine Corps, a 155mm howitzer, and a 105mm mortar.

In attendance were: Lt. Gen. Robert E. Hogaboom, chief of staff, HQMC; Maj. C. Burger, commanding general, 2nd Division; Brig. Gen. L. F. Chapman Jr., general, FT, and Col. E. T. Dorsey, MCAS, Cherry Point.

88 Start Navy Relief Classes Last Tuesday

Classes began last week for the volunteer workers of the Navy Relief Society with 88 service wives attending. The classes are being held from 9 a.m. until noon and 1 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Marston Pavilion.

A tea for the volunteer workers was held by Mrs. James P. Riseley in her quarters as the official opening of the classes. The tea was given in order for the volunteer wives to meet their instructor, Miss Barbara Blair, field representative for the Navy Relief, and Mrs. Van Northam, executive secretary of the Navy Relief Auxiliary.

One of the main administrative purposes that the women will learn, and one that is stressed, is the conditions under which service personnel may get assistance from the Navy Relief Society. There must be an immediate emergency before the society can give aid. Some of the things the society cannot lend money for are: personal gain, capital investment, leave, liberty, or purchase of automobiles or other personal luxuries.

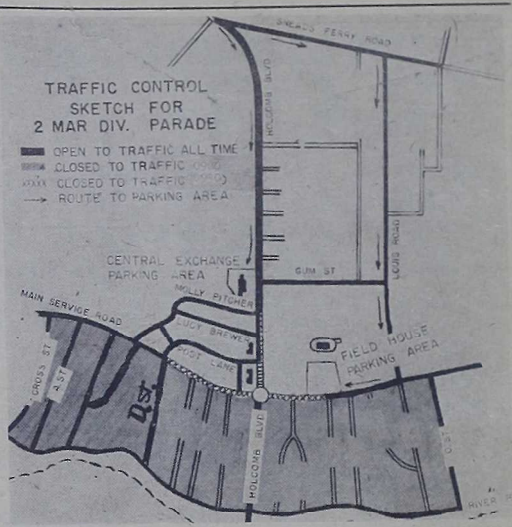

Miss Blair has conducted two classes before at Camp Lejeune in 1956 and 1957. She is a former Air Force officer.

She will speak to officers and non-commissioned officers regarding the operating procedures and policies of the Navy Relief Society. On September 19, she will be at MCAF theater from 1-2 p.m. Miss Blair will then speak at the Camp Theater from 1-2 p.m. on September 12 and 22.

Mrs. H. F. Stevenson announced that a refresher course is being held for volunteer workers of the Navy Relief Society who have completed the regular course of instruction.

The refresher course classes will be held at Marston Pavilion from 9:30 to 11:30 on Monday mornings, September 15 and 22.

Registration or further information may be obtained from either Mrs. Sidney S. Wade, chairman of the volunteer workers, phone 6-6543, or by contacting Mrs. Van Northam, executive secretary of the Lejeune auxiliary, at 7-5584 or 7-5825.

Divvy Provost Marshal Outlines Parade Plans

In view of the coming visit of Vice Adm. R. H. Hanlon, Commander, Amphibious Forces, Atlantic, on September 18, the Division Provost Marshal published the following traffic flow plan for vehicles during a Division parade rehearsal on Tuesday and the final parade next Thursday.

The traffic control plan is divided into four phases designed to allow the maximum traffic flow possible during movement of troops to and from the parade field.

On Thursday in the Division area bordered by Main Service and River Roads and from "D" to "C" Streets with the exception of Holcomb Blvd. inbound, from traffic circle to Bldg. 2, will be closed while troop units are forming. This will go into effect at 9 a.m.

At 9:30 a.m., Phase II starts with the closing of Main Service Road from Post Lane to Louis Road and Holcomb Blvd. from River Road to Molly Pitcher Drive as the troops move to the parade field.

As final units clear traffic control points in marching to the parade field, Phase II will go into effect. The outbound lane on Holcomb Blvd. from the circle to Molly Pitcher Drive will remain closed during the parade. The inbound lane on Holcomb Blvd. from the circle to Molly Pitcher Drive will be opened for two-way traffic during Phase III, but entries will halt all traffic on Holcomb Blvd. during the gun salute.

Phase IV begins when troop units leave the parade ground to return to Division areas. During the movement, all roads closed to traffic in Phase I and II will again be closed.

Base traffic will return to normal behind last troop units.

Tuesday there will be a parade rehearsal. Phase I will go into effect at 7:40 a.m. Phase II begins at 10 a.m.

Dependents reporting to Naval Hospital during the early morning hours are urged to use the Brewster Blvd.-Stone Road route on both days.

Armed Forces Voter Week Suggested By Defense Secretary

The week of September 15-22 has been suggested as "Armed Forces Voters' Week" by Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy.

In a recent department of defense news release, the Secretary urged all state and territorial governors to back the vote week as a means of getting members of the Armed Forces to exercise their voting rights.

Secretary McElroy also urged parents and wives to write to their sons and husbands overseas, telling them of local issues and candidates. The Secretary, according to the news release, also suggested that parents and wives urge the men to take part in coming elections.

For information on voting or obtaining absentee ballots, contact the Base Voting officer in the Camp Theater building, or call 7-5121 or 7-5572.

Col. R. C. Power Speaks On Camp School System

The Camp Lejeune School system was explained when Col. Roger C. Power Jr. was interviewed by Mr. Ben McDonald over WECT-TV last night.

The program "Military Log," seen each Wednesday night at 6:45 p.m. over Channel 6, and, according to Mr. McDonald, is designed to bring to the people of Eastern North Carolina information about all aspects of military life.

Colonel Power is Comptroller at Marine Corps Base and as additional duty is the chairman of the Camp Lejeune School Board.

Keep Lejeune Clean

Enough has already been said about the litterbug at Camp Lejeune. Yet, it remains a critical problem that seems never to end. Half of this week's picture page deals with the unsightly scenes that prevail at times on the Base.

It is shameful that a problem of this nature should take so much money and work power on the efforts of so many persons, all attempting to improve the looks of Camp Lejeune.

For those marines and their families who have had the opportunity to observe other bases, Lejeune is without a doubt one of the finest physical plants in service camps today.

The pride in which one keeps his household, barracks and personal being should be reflected in the Reservation itself. To be squared away does not end with the marine or his living quarters. Every day visitors come aboard observing Camp Lejeune and its marines. The appearance of the marines as well as their Base is reflected in what is observed in practically every light. An unsightly mess in front of a building does not leave a favorable impression.

It is not one man's job to wage a clean-up campaign. It is every man's responsibility every day in the week. It is an effortless campaign if kept after. Once the job is postponed, it becomes a problem that few would willingly accept.

The litterbug campaign should be year round. It is every one's responsibility to keep Camp Lejeune clean and a reflection of what a marine is in the eyes of the visitor.

Useful Time

Several marines were observed pondering what to do with their time Saturday morning. Over across the open field, a football scrimmage was in process. A mile away, a marine was fixing his car at one of the hobby shops. At the golf course, a foursome was just teeing off on the Number 2 course.

The extent of recreational facilities and constructive projects opened to the military and their dependents at Camp Lejeune are extensive. There is no end to the amount a marine can accomplish at this Base or in the surrounding area.

Offered for the individual who wishes to further his education are excellent libraries, MCI courses, off-duty education subjects worked in conjunction with a local college and numerous other services that will further a person in the Corps or prepare him for the time when he retires.

The hobby enthusiast has every conceivable outlet in practically all interests to enrich his hobby, learn about others, and add to his outlets.

There are many clubs on the reservation that offer marine fellowship. Every day church organizations welcome new members and help those in an hour of need.

For the sports conscious, whether active or just the casual onlooker, there are as many as you would find on any major campus across the country. Lejeune and its surrounding area has become a virtual paradise for the game hunter and fisherman.

Activities on the Base vary along with the personal likes and dislikes of the marine or dependent. The fact is that there are these opportunities available to everyone stationed at Lejeune. To use time in a constructive manner, better the individual both mentally and physically. It is all yours for just the taking.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Commandant of the Marine Corps, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, warns that the Marine Corps is bad off and with war staring us down the gun barrel, further personnel cuts will put the Marine Corps in a perilous situation, according to Navy Times.

To maintain the Marine Corps at a strength of 200,000 men, Congress voted more than $850 millions in defense. A force of 175,000 fighting men by next June 30 is wanted by the Defense Department. There are now 190,000 marines on active duty.

Defense personnel planners have not yet decided what to do with extra money voted by Congress for added Marine personnel for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The current fiscal year is one which will see a high personnel turnover—without any forced reduction. At least 30,000 recruits are needed to take care of regular separation and attritions.

Changes in requirements for the promotion of privates to private first class in the Marine Corps Reserve have been made by Headquarters.

Reservists must meet the requirements to be considered for promotion. A reservist to be eligible for promotion has to have completed six months service in grade; not be serving on extended active duty; not be on the Inactive Status list; not be on a release list; and not a member of an officer candidate-type program.

Chaplain's Corner

Recently in a magazine, there was a shrewd observation of life that said in effect: "Some parents spend all their time teaching their children not to act as they act, nor use words that they use." And, perhaps, Charles Adams, with his weird sense of humor, comes closer to the point in his cartoon, where there is a husband holding an axe over the head of his wife . . . with this caption underneath: "Please, John, not in front of Audrey, she is so impressionable!"

The example set by parents or other adults plays an important role in molding the life of the child or adolescent. And it is this conscious (or unconscious) influence we have over youngsters that thrusts a responsibility upon us to live up to our own ideals that we believe are important for the lives of our little loved ones. So often one generation reflects the failures of the preceding generation.

The future of our lives is in our young ones, because of the investment of our lives in them. Now is the time when we are given the opportunity to help mold their lives . . . and their future could well be a judgment on how we have lived, for many parents have been horrified to see their old sins being reflected from the eyes of their children.

As mature and exemplary individuals, we have a responsibility to our community, nation, and world, to train these lives entrusted to us as sacred creations from the hand of God. And as we strive to develop hidden talents in children, we may at the same time uncover our own.

With our Creator as our Judge, one question may be ours to answer: How have our sons been able to fare in the battle of life, and especially have they been able to cope with the temptations that so easily befall all of us? In the words of the closing line of a play, where the guilt-ridden conscience of a war profiteer finally sees how his actions brought about the death of many aviators: "As far as I'm concerned, they were my sons."

—Chaplain Peter I. Ota,
Lt. (jg), ChC, USNR.

Short Round

Words often seem to make themselves quite inopportune times. Not so with the 85th Congress about 506,763 pounds of words this year. That's a lot of pounds. The figure represents the metal it took to set the proceedings and debates in second session for publication in the Congress. This work is completed, each of the 25,987 pages of leaving racks, bins and open floor space of the Office jammed with type.

Now, you too may become a Dragon Boat. The fine art of Dragon Boat Racing may be piloted the island of Taiwan. It involves the use of boats at least two each, and is practiced by all interested parties. Dragon Boat Races are the climatic activity of a festival held annually in memory of a patriot-poet of ancient times who broken-heartedly snuffed out his life in the Hsi-lo river when his loyalty to the emperor was questioned. Each boat has a crew of 24. The next time you happen to be in the area of Taiwan, dragon up a boat and make it to a race. Who knows, maybe you will become a Dragon Boat Racer first class.

In the last 60 seconds, Air Force aircraft have flown some 4,750 miles. This mileage is equivalent to crossing the U. S. twice a minute; traveling to the moon in one hour, or two trips a year to the sun. Many people do not realize it, but at any given day, the Air Force has between 110 and 1,200 aircraft where in the world.

A torpedo, the Mark-20, that is guided by wire added to submarine armament. The Mark-20 is a launching vessel by a thread-like wire that is played travels through the water. The torpedo receives a signal that direct it to its target over the wire. The Mark-20 is a conventional torpedo, is actually an underwater guide of closing in on the target despite countermeasures of enemy vessels. Wire-guidance enables the torpedo to follow the target until the "kill" is made.

The Navy at China Lake has developed a new way to save the life of jet pilots faced with low altitudes. It will be installed first on the seats of all D-15 Navy's "pocket-sized" carrier-based atom bombs. The rocket chair equipment will be able to clear the falling aircraft at a rate of speed better than a height sufficient for his parachute to open. It is being conducted on the possibilities of designing an ejection system which would carry a pilot back to safety after his plane crashes and sinks, for carrying fall into the sea.

The Minnesota State Legislature has already authorized for all Minnesota marines eligible for the State Disbursement had previously been planned for after

Autumn Hues Adorn Paradise Point Club For 11th Annual Welcoming Tea

Old and new members as well as guests were hosted at the Paradise Point Officers' club Monday to the Officers' Wives club's annual Welcoming Tea.

The tea, which hosted nearly 500 officers' wives, dependents and guests, was hosted by Group I of the Officers' Wives club as their first official function of the year.

Mrs. R. C. Power acted as overall chairman of for the hosting Group.

On hand to greet the guests to the elaborate affair were Mrs. R. H. Crockett, president of the club, and Mrs. James P. Riskey, honorary president. Also in the receiving line were Mrs. Sidney S. Wade, Mrs. Joseph C. Burger and Mrs. Leonard F. Chapman Jr.

Prior to serving the refreshments, the wives were introduced to the individual group chairmen, of each nine groups. Each group had a table at which the new members could become acquainted with the respective organizations.

The hospitality chairman of each group served as a hostess for the afternoon. They were Mrs. L. F. Pottebaum, Group II; Mrs. S. D. Low, Group III; Mrs. G. H. Eaton, Group IV; Mrs. D. L. Maklin, Group

V; Mrs. M. M. Updegrave, Group VI; Mrs. R. A. Engelmann, Group VII; Mrs. K. M. Ford, Group VIII; and Mrs. J. R. Plummer, Group IX.

The newcomers members were assigned to the group that includes the organization to which her husband belongs.

The main dining room where the tea was served was decorated in rich autumn colors for the occasion. Three tables were used to service the many wives that enjoyed the reception.

The three serving tables were decorated in the respective colors, green, gold and brown. OWC officers and group chairmen and co-chairmen alternated in pouring throughout the receiving hours of 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Staff NCO Wives Hold Meeting; Discuss Activities For Remainder Of September

The first meeting of September was held Thursday by the Staff NCO Wives club at the Tarawa Terrace Community Center.

Discussed at the meeting were plans for the bowling league and a tea that was held at the Community Center last night. Persons interested in the Staff bowling league will meet tonight at the Had-not Point Club.

Guests that attended Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Sidney S. Wade, chairman of Navy Relief volunteer workers, Mrs. J. S. Webb, supervisor of the layette program and Miss Barbara Blair, Navy Relief field representative.

Miss Blair spoke to the women about the problems faced by service widows and different service programs such as the Medicare program and the Navy Relief Society.

Mrs. Lewis York and Mrs. Kenneth Rice were named as new chairmen for the layette program. Mrs. Rice also has been named as the new Sergeant at Arms replacing Mrs. George Lepp.

Plans were also made for coming activities. A white elephant sale will be held at the next meeting. All members are requested to contribute one article to the sale, gift wrapped with the approximate price of the article attached.

A cake sale will be sponsored by the club Sept. 20, to be held at the Tarawa Terrace shopping center.

CARELESSNESS MAKES LEJEUNE

MORNING AFTER—Not a normal hangover but certainly a headache for the people of Police Section, Grounds and Roads Division of Base Maintenance. Nearly all of this could be avoided by simply waiting until near a trash receptacle to dispose of waste paper. It is just as unlawful to throw trash out at the drive-in as on the highway.

NOT FULL—This dumpster isn't full but even if it were the "GI" cans sitting around it block off any truck doors left open invite a cigarette to be tossed in, start occur too frequently at Camp Lejeune.

GAME TIME???—This is a preview of what the field will probably look like the day after a game. Again this adds to the cost of policing the Base. Base Special Services has provided several cans and a dumpster at the field. It just takes a few more steps to keep the field clean.

Officers' Wives Decade Of Service

Ten years ago this month, the Officers' Wives Club of Camp Lejeune was founded by Mrs. Franklin A. Hart. Now it has a thousand active members participating in a wide variety of activities. These activities function to foster acquaintance and friendly interests among the wives in the area to improve their welfare.

Membership is open to wives of active, retired or active or retired women officers of the military service, women employees of the American Red Cross, adult dependents of officers, and adult female dependents of civilian military personnel. The club is a part of the Point Club.

The members of the Executive Board of the club are: Mrs. R. H. Crockett; first vice president, Mrs. L. D. Swenson; vice president, Mrs. W. F. McQueen; recording secretary, Mrs. E. A. Lawrence; and Mrs. E. A. Lawrence.

Ford, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. D. K. Macklin and Mrs. J. W. Eaton. The committee is responsible for seeing that each wife is greeted by a member of her prospective group and also keeps up to date an informative booklet on Camp Lejeune, the "Welcome Book."

PLATTER PARADE—The Officers' Wives club sponsors a cook book each year entitled "The Platter Parade." It is a collection of tried-and-tested (at the expense of marines' stomachs) recipes used by service wives in the Camp Lejeune area. Mrs. J. H. Campbell, chairman of the cook book committee, looks over a new edition soon to be ready for sale, with committee members Mrs. F. H. Campbell and Mrs. N. C. Harvey.

Maintenance A Costly Problem

MIDWAY PARK—Even the housing areas aren't exempt from litter. Boxes must be broken down whether they are cardboard or wood. Trucks will not pick up dumpsters that are full of boxes not broken down. The sack at left would have been put into a can if the owner had just taken about five more steps with it. A new pick-up system at Camps Geiger and Knox completely eliminates setting out cans.

HOLCOMB BOULEVARD—On a good day, the boulevard looks like this in the morning. On Monday the amount of trash on that thoroughfare is tripled. The Quad-Commands spend an estimated $65,000 to $70,000 yearly cleaning up the Base. Nearly all of this could be saved by just waiting until you reach home to dispose of the paper you might have in your car. Persons caught throwing trash from a car will be cited by the Military Police.

Records First Of Community

The Officers' Wives Club, which has been active for many years, is now participating in a project to set up a record of the club. These officers are elected annually for a period of one year. Mrs. J. P. Riseley is the honorary member of the club. The club is divided into several groups, each with its own chairman, co-chairman, treasurer, secretary, and hospitality chairman. These officers coordinate the various groups' activities into a unit. The newcomers are assigned to the group to which her husband belongs. The club endeavors to inspire among its members a sense of community. The success of the past 10 years is the goal of the club, for those now here and for those to come in the future.

POINT SITTER SERVICE—The sitter service was founded for the convenience of the officers' wives and is considered one of the finest of this type facility at any Corps installation. Since its founding, it has expanded to include services other than sitting alone; it also services older children with such services as training aids. Many hours are devoted by the Wives' Club members to perpetuate the high standards set by this function. Some of the children cared for are Mrs. F. H. St. Clair, and Mrs. B. B. Wooten, standing.

THE WELFARE COMMITTEE—Mrs. R. A. Bushnell, chairman of the Welfare Committee and committee members, Mrs. F. N. Reeve, standing, Mrs. C. E. Fulton and Mrs. Donald McLane work on clothing for the Navy Relief layette program. The committee acts as liaison between the OWC and the groups whose programs they sponsor. They include the USO, the Navy Relief, Foster Homes program, the Grey Ladies and the Red Cross.

Game Scrimmage Proves Effective

Session Slated With College Football Saturday Beginning 10

The Camp Lejeune varsity football team will begin its week's activities with a game scrimmage Saturday before some 300 spectators at Liversedge field. O Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, one of the Marines supporters.

Under the direction of coaches Jim Quinn and Fred Campbell, the Gold squad defeated the Red team, coached by George Cordel, 27-12.

End Joe Fowlkes, a three-year man at Lejeune, began where he left off last season with a terrific display of offensive and defensive play capped by five catches good for over 100 yards. The big end scored two TD's and kicked one extra point for the Golds.

All-American Ron Beagle also showed well catching two, also for 100-plus.

Up front for the Golds, Ron Botchan, Jim Kunsman and Jim Schwartz were selected for their stellar performances. Botchan continually jolted would-be opponents.

In the Gold backfield, Marshall Newman and Carey "Choo Choo" Henley were outstanding with the former directing the signals and Henley doing most of the lugging. Newman quarterbacked the North Carolina university eleven for three years while Henley picked up his experience at Chattanooga.

Williams paced the Red forward wall while Pat Altieri and Willis Fjerstad did most of the carrying. The latter two are returnees from last year.

In the overall picture, the coaches were pleased, pointing out many bright spots in the attack, feeling that the team as a whole is further advanced than last season's squad at this point. However, they all felt that there still remained several phases that must be ironed out prior to the club's opener against the Little Creek TARS on September 20.

Activities during the past week began with a light workout Monday followed by game scrimmages with a local college eleven Tuesday and yesterday.

Action will continue today with the Marines going against the same college at 1 p.m. on Liversedge field. The team will get a rest tomorrow but come back against the college Saturday morning at 10 a.m. in a regular game scrimmage.

This will actually be the unofficial unveiling of what fans can expect for the coming season. Local fans are urged to attend.

Hoop Meets Schedule September

The first call for aspirants came out when it was announced by the head coach Capt. "Boogie" L. Thompson that the screening will begin September 29. Prior to that time, there will be a lot of hopefulness of all hopefuls 25 commencing 3 p.m.

The screening will be in the practice set for October 10. Tentatively scheduled games. Last year's the direction of Maj. Spencer, compiled a winning record of 39 wins and 13 losses.

Skipper Thompson Bowling Green during seasons and was a member of the Atlantic Fleet champions of Cherry Point Lejeune players. He is a high school basketball player, Ill.

Assisting mentor 1st Lt. Gerry Smith will be in the squad late last year. Played at Notre Dame 25-game winner with varsity baseball team.

Camp Rod And Schedules Meet

The Camp Lejeune Club will hold their meeting tonight at Marston beginning at 7:30 p.m.

On hand will be Lt. Bozarth, Base Maintenance officer and Mr. L. Starson who will talk about the preservation of Lejeune wildlife and expected to be outlining coming deer hunts.

Refreshments will be served. Anyone desiring to join the club is invited to attend.

Themes To Be Selected For Home Games; T.N.T. Against Little Creek

As publicity, centered around support of the local varsity football team, builds up, a new idea in service circles was inaugurated last week with the announcement that fans in this area will see a new look at Camp Lejeune.

In an effort to move the baseball supports from Agganis field to Liversedge field, the game with all its autumn flavor will give to Lejeunites the color of the high school, college and professional side highlights that make the fall sport one of the most popular drawing cards in athletics.

As with outside teams, a theme will be selected every home game and all activities will be centered around this. For the season's opener against Little Creek on September 20 at Liversedge field commencing 10 a.m., the theme selected has been "T.N.T." for "Tounce Norfolk TARS."

Every aspect of the day's activities will be directed towards this subject. A meeting has been set for Tuesday with all battalion special services officers of the four commands to map out plans in which local fans will see floats depicting the chosen theme.

A pep rally will be held next Friday afternoon, September 19, in front of the Goettge Memorial field house with several football players and coaches on hand to speak to the fans, beginning at 6 p.m. Tentatively scheduled is the introduction of Lejeune's new cheerleaders. Immediately preceding the rally there will be a motorcade comprised of the floats touring the Base.

At the game Saturday morning, September 20, during the halftime show all floats will tour the track with the selection of the outstanding float capping the festivities. A special award will be presented to contributing members.

Banners are to be placed above the surrounding highways advertising the schedule.

All home contests will be played at 10 a.m. allowing persons to see top notch ball in the morning when the Marines play and again in the afternoon when the game of the week is on TV.

All persons residing in the Jacksonville area are invited to attend the games at Camp Lejeune.

HQMC Takes East Coast Softball Title

The East Coast WM Softball Championship was awarded to HQMC last week when they defeated the Cherry Point Jets, 8-7, to come out of the losers' bracket and emerge as new title holders.

The Jets administered a first-round loss to the winners and then it was all HQMC as they took five straight in their push to the top.

And in initial action last Wednesday in the All-Marine at Parris Island, the East Coast champs dropped San Diego, 13-5, after the visitors had taken a quick 2-0 lead.

Gail Reals went the distance, picking up credit for the victory. She allowed three tallies on eight hits in the last six innings of work.

Rifle-Pistol Club To Meet Sept. 15 At Montford Pt.

Capt. Billy N. Hahn, vice-president and acting president of the Camp Lejeune Rifle and Pistol Club has announced the monthly meeting will be held on September 15, at 8 p.m., in the back room of the Montford Point Staff NCO Club.

One of the main items on the agenda is the Pistol Championship September 20, which is to be one of the year's biggest shooting events.

Refreshments will be served, and there will be door prizes.

All members and interested parties are invited to attend.

BOWLING MEETING

There will be a meeting today beginning 6:30 p.m. in the Hadnot Point Staff club for all persons interested in forming a winter bowling league.

It is hoped that the loop will commence action starting next week.

JOE "HANDS" FOWLKES—With his arms outstretched, Joe Fowlkes prepares to gather in another pass despite the "enemy" defender covering him. Fowlkes went on a personal offensive binge in Saturday's game scrimmage at Liversedge field. The three-year Lejeune end picked up five passes for over 100 yards, scored two TD's and kicked one extra point.

"CHOO-CHOO"—Carey "Choo Choo" Henley makes like as he breaks into the secondary in Saturday's game scrimmage. The ex-Chattanooga two-year man was the workhorse for team that "upset" the Reds, 27-12. This Saturday, the local will scrimmage a North Carolina eleven at Liversedge field commencing 10 a.m. Fans living in the Wilmington and Jacksonville areas are urged to come out and see the Marines in the unveiling of things to come.

Havelock Defeats Pups, 13-6; McCarville Tallies Local Score

The Camp Lejeune Devilpups, displaying an off-and-on offensive, fell victim Friday night to Havelock, 13-6, in their season's opener at Harry Agganis field before a standing-room-only crowd.

On hand were Maj. Gens. James P. Rissley, MCB commanding general, and Joseph C. Burger, 2nd Division commanding general. The halftime show featured the famed 2nd Division band.

The unfolding of the local eleven, under the coaching of Tom McGhee and Jim Ward, showed a potential power club that made several costly errors and thus cost them their first ball game. Last year, the Pups defeated Havelock, 19-7.

Art Potts, co-captains Jim McCarville and Joe Bernier, Bucky Mugford and Phil Wicks, all contributed outstanding performances in the losing cause.

Potts, a right end, pulled in nine of Mugford's passes for 88 yards. The Lejeune field general completed 14 in 21 attempts. Bernier and McCarville were the work horses for the locals with the former picking up 118 total yardage. McCarville had 73 to his credit and scored the only TD for the junior Devilpups. Wicks was singled out for his stellar defensive play.

The Pups lost the toss with the visitors electing to receive. Both teams sparred back and forth in the first quarter with Bernier highlighting the activities with a 23-yard sprint, almost breaking loose for a TD.

The Pups managed to penetrate the visitors' 23-yard line mid-way through the second stanza. However, their march came to a halt on an intercepted pass.

The first half ended without either club scoring.

Employing a split and straight tee and a single wing, Havelock got right down to business as play resumed after the intermission. With the Pups unable to move the ball, the winners took over on Lejeunes' own 34-yard line. Eleven plays later and with the help of a 15 yard penalty against the Marines, Dave Seaton tallied for Havelock. The 185-pound fullback ran the extra point to place Havelock ahead, 7-0.

Rebounding right back into the ball game, a Pup threat was thwarted on Havelock's own 19-yard line. However, Jim Gross dropped on a fumbled ball recovering for the locals. On the next play, McCarville scooted right end for the score, placing the Pups one down. On their first attempt at the PAT the Pups missed but Havelock was off-sides. Mugford pegged the ball to Potts who made a valiant stab but failed to come up with it.

Havelock immediately came back with another six-pointer. With the ball resting on the Pups' 43-yard stripe, Seaton came out of the middle of the line carrying the ball to the one-yard line before being pulled down in the tradition of the old college try by McCarville. Seaton fell on his own fumble in the end zone on the next play for the last score of the evening.

Saturday, September 13:
College vs Marines, 10 a.m., Game
Scrimmage Liversedge Field

Baseball trainer Joe DePompa has moved over to the football squad where he will act in the same capacity. Before coming to Lejeune, DePompa was with the Quantico club.

ALMOST AWAY—Halfback Joe Bernier is off and running in Friday's opener against Havelock. The 139-pound sophomore was brought down after a 12-yard gain. The Pups lost their first one but will try to break into the win column tomorrow night against a visiting Beulaville eleven.

GOOD FOR 23 YARDS—End Art Potts, after hooking in a Bucky Mugford pass, glides down the sidelines for a quick 23 yards against Havelock. The Pups, in losing in their initial appearance, showed a jam-packed house at Agganis field a potential scoring offense that when developed should put them in the winning bracket.

Devilpups To Host Beulaville Tomorrow Night At Agganis

The Devilpups of the Camp Lejeune High school will tackle Beulaville Friday night at Harry Agganis field beginning 8 p.m.

In an interview with head coach Tom McGhee, the youthful mentor stated that he will make some changes at the guard and tackle slots prior to gametime. Discussing Friday's loss to Havelock, coach McGhee felt that the club as a whole tried to work too fast and in doing so, bogged down on their scoring opportunities.

No serious injuries came out of the opening fray and the local aggregation should be ready for their Friday encounter.

Beulaville played to a scoreless tie in their initial game of the season last week against Richlands.

The visitor's attack will be centered around triple-threat Buddy Mercer who was named on the All-

East Central Conference team at the quarterback position. Coach Glenn Nixon is using his star at the halfback slot, utilizing his speed.

The middle of the Beulaville line is regarded as "big" with Don Ball and Benny Ray Thomas weighing in at 230 and 200 pounds, respectively.

Captain Hal Glasgow, 1958 baseball coach, has assumed new duties as MCB Athletic Officer. His office is located at the Goettge Memorial field house.

TOUCH FOOTBALL

Eighth Engrs. and 2nd Topo Co. will start the FT touch football season with a game scheduled for 2 p.m. today. The contest will be played at 5-239, the FT touch football field on "G" Street behind the Service Club.

SEARCHING—All eyes turn skyward as Lt. Col. Jack Antink, FT G-1, and representing Brig. Gen. L. F. Chapman Jr., FT commanding general, flips the coin opening the 1958 FT football season. Flanking Colonel Antink, left to right, are MCAF's team captain Jack Caddy, head referee R. V. Wilson and 8th Engr. team captain Frank Cooper. The Airmen won the toss and elected to receive. However, the Engineers won the game in a close, 28-26, decision.

Cooper, Anderson Lead Engineers To 28-26 Victory Over Air Facility

Sharp running by Frank Cooper and Jack Anderson, Force Troops' 8th Engineers' answer to mister inside and outside, sparked their teammates to a close 28-26 victory over MCAF Monday night in initial action of the FT football loop.

The Engineers led at halftime, 14-6, accounting for eight points in the first period and adding six in the second. In the third quarter, and with Joe Patterson, Cooper and Anderson lugging, the winners scored two TD's.

Behind 22-12 in the closing minutes, the Airmen came back to score 12 markers, almost pulling the game out.

Anderson chalked up the first tally as he dove over from the four-yard line after he and Cooper had brought the ball into scoring position. Mike Reittmann picked off a pass from Cooper adding two extra points, and what proved to be the winning margin at the end of the tilt.

A series of line plays enabled the Engineers to move from their own 25-yard line to the Air Facility 36 in the second quarter. Taking to the air for the first time, Cooper threw a 35-yard pass, connecting with Joe Delucci just in front of the goal line who stepped over for the tally.

In the closing minutes of the same period, MCAF scored their initial six-pointer on a 20-yard end run.

Patterson scored for the Engineers as play resumed after the intermission. Anderson ran for the two PAT's.

The Airmen's Joe Frawley reeled off two long runs that totaled more than 60 yards and pay dirt.

Anderson quickly retaliated for the Engineers.

In the waning minutes, the Airmen struck two more times with Frawley and John Caddy scoring a TD and Bill Smith adding two extra points via a run.

Divvy Football Conference Opener Set For Yesterday

The 1958 Division Football Conference began yesterday afternoon with Group I taking on the Tenth Marines in the season's opener at Brown field. Results were not available at GLOBE presstime.

This year's conference will include six teams which will play each other once during the regular season. Five of the teams will be returning from last year's conference. They include the Second Marines, last year's champs, the Eighth Marines, the Tenth Marines, Group I and Group II. Second Reconnaissance Bn., forming a team of their own, will be the new addition to this year's conference.

The Group I aggregation will be comprised of 2nd Serv. Bn., 2nd MT Bn., and 2nd Med. Bn., while composition for the Group II squad was selected from Headquarters Bn., 2nd Pioneer Bn., and 2nd Anti-Tank Bn.

National Collegiate Football rules for 1958 will govern conference play. There will be four 15-minute quarters with a two-minute rest period between quarters and a 15-minute halftime intermission. A time limit of 15 minutes will be allowed a team not ready to start at game time. At the expiration of this time, the team not ready to start will be charged with a loss by forfeit.

MSgt. Herb Hale, Division Special Services NCOIC, conducted an interpretation meeting for all coaches and officials from the 2nd Division, Force Troops and MAG-26, Thursday and Friday. The meetings covered the revolutionary changes in the 1958 National Collegiate Rulebook.

Ex - Major Leaguer Addresses Banquet

Ex-major league hurler, Ray Scarborough, was to be guest speaker at the baseball banquet Tuesday night at Marston Pavilion.

Scarborough broke into organized baseball in 1940 with Chattanooga. His best year in the minors was recorded the following year while with Selma when he recorded a 21-10 ledger. He also paced the league in strikeouts with 220.

In 1942, he was brought up to the Washington Senators. The next three years were spent in the service and in 1946 he returned to the Washington nine. His best year in the majors was notched with the seventh-place Senators in 1948 when he posted a 15-8 mark. The following season, the same club finished in last last place with Scarborough winning 13 games.

The next two years saw the right hander beat the Red Sox out of pennant contention in the last week of play with the New York Yankees emerging as champs in both seasons.

Traded to Chicago in 1950, Scarborough finished out the remainder of his career in consecutive years with the Red Sox, New York Yankees and finally Detroit.

FISH & WILDLIFE

This past week provided an interesting and exciting fishing trip just out from Morehead City in one of the that dot the coast. This is also a lesson that can be enticed Gaff 'Em Green." A friend and I were in a small boat when to an average sized tarpon. After the close to 100 pound had gone through the usual aerial acrobatics, it was enough to the boat for gaffing.

We both thought the fish was spent. We erred. It was and it took off like a shot away from the boat when the st him. I hadn't noticed that slack line was coiled around the until I found myself in the water. I finally got the fish the fish get me?

Hunters in North Carolina will enjoy a long hunting season liberal bag limits during the 1958 season. The season starts September 6 when the season on doves opened statewide of some kind will continue through February 14, 1959, season on rabbits, quail and wild turkey closes.

With the hunting season upon us, I thought I would mention about the game, and a few of the pertinent facts regulations of North Carolina as they apply to military persons.

MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

DOVES—Another bumper crop of doves will make possible day bonus for hunters this year, with the bonus days between the segments of a split season. The season runs from September 6 through October 4, and December 10 through January 10, daily bag of 10 birds and a possession limit of 20. Shooting from noon to sunset.

MARSH HENS—This is sora, rails and gallinules. The season runs from September 10 through November 18, with shooting one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Fifteen rails or sora will be allowed daily, singly or in the aggregate, with 30 in possession. The limit for sora is 25 daily or in possession.

WOODCOCK—The season opens Thanksgiving Day, November 27, and continues through January 5, with shooting hours as for marsh hens. The limit is four daily, eight in possession.

WATERFOWL—The outlook is not too good. It appears there will be a reduction in bag limit on diving ducks, and the season will only be 60 days as compared to 70 last year. I will detail information at this writing on all waterfowl.

UPLAND GAME

For dates and bag limits on the following game, see the pamphlet put out by the North Carolina Game Commission.

DEER—The outlook is better than last year's results. It was taken in some areas for the first time in many years, eastern sections deer have become so numerous there have been complaints of depredation to farm crops. Deer hunting military reservation will be controlled, so watch for further information in this column or contact the Rod and Gun club.

BEAR—The population seems to be about the same this year, and it is anticipated that the kill will be about the same as last year.

WILD BOAR—Boar hunting will be confined to the westernmost counties, Clay, Graham and Cherokee. Hunting is expected to be good.

RACCOON AND OPOSSUM—Both have increased in number over last year so hunting should be better than last year's were plentiful last season.

SQUIRREL—The squirrel situation could best be described in some sections where the young constitute a bumper crop, hunting will be excellent, but it will be poor in others.

RABBITS—This should be one of the best years in many years. The outlook over the state is good.

QUAIL—O! Bob White has more than held his own this year. In general there was an excellent nesting season, so quail will be plentiful.

WILD TURKEY—Hunters may expect only fair results in most parts of the turkey range.

RUFFLED GROUSE—Since grouse hunting is a rugged sport, a highly successful nesting season is reported, the supply of no doubt exceed the hunters' demands.

The above information came from C. P. Patton, executive of the N. C. Wildlife Resources Commission.

A partners "Low Ball Tournament" was held Saturday. The tourney is played by selecting a partner, adding his handicap to yours, take half of it, and play best ball with the handicap subtracted from the gross at the finish.

Ken Carruthers and J. D. Brown carried a fantastic 60 to take first place.

Sunday saw Capt. C. S. Strand, USN, take first place in the one-day blind bogey event. W. Worthington took the runner-up slot.

The qualifiers for the club championship are moving right along. Among the players who have already finished, the leaders are: J. D. Spencer, 155; Gordon Brownlee, 156; and Joe Moore with 157.

Scores have been a little higher than usual and whether or not "Silent Sam's" 155 holds up for the medal would be hard to say at this point.

NEW BOOKS

THE CAT WITH TWO FACES, by George Young. . . An exciting and suspenseful true story of a French woman spy during World War II. Known as the Cat to her German, French and British colleagues, she alternately played the role of a good housewife, patriotic underground leader, vile traitor and sophisticated cynic.

ORDEAL BY WATER, by Peter Keeble. . . The story of naval salvage in the Mediterranean during World War II as told by an English war hero and diver. Working under combat conditions, the author and his crew raised sunken ships, cleared harbors, and occasionally recovered secret equipment from booby-trapped German wrecks.

THE SOUTHERN WILD, by Ruth Chatterton. . . A novel of the South and of the men and women of tradition-bound world who were out of step with the changing world outside.

MY LITTLE CHURCH AROUND THE CORNER, by Dr. J. H. Randolph Ray. . . The third rector of New York City's Church of Transfiguration writes of his own life and the history of the church which has the romantic reputation as a place for marriages and as a church for people of the theater.

MATHEMATICS FOR SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING, by Philip Alger. . . Designed for self-study, this book covers mathematics from elementary school through college with special emphasis on mathematical methods useful to engineers.

Dependents' Information

Commencing at 8 a.m., September 15, and 4 p.m., September 21, inclusive, a regular quarantine period for dogs and cats will be in effect. This is applicable to all animals harbored within the geographical limits of Camp Lejeune, including Midway Park, Tarawa Terrace, and Camp Knox and Camp Geiger Trailer Parks.

During this period, all pet owners will keep their animals within quarters or on positive leash. Any dog or cat found at large will be picked up and impounded in the Base Dog Pound, and the owner will be required to show cause why he should not forfeit his privilege of harboring the animal. (BO 6210.1A)

Change 3 to Base Regulations requires personnel occupying quarters or housing to notify the Base Provost Marshal (7-3046) if they leave their quarters or housing vacant for a period of 36 hours or more. (Para 1425.17, Base Regs)

Military personnel and their guests may take photographs of their families and friends on the reservation; however, they will not take photographs of or within the Industrial Area, the Base Magazine Area, the Anti-Tank Area, the Base Brig, special types of weapons, or in a "Restricted Area" unless specific authority is obtained. (Para 741, Base Regs)
