Following Simple Rules Prevent Needless Fires

After year combustible decorations, improper use of candles and other means of lighting, such as candles, and carelessness result in needless fire tragedies at Christmas.

Corp Bulletin 5100, issued Saturday, outlines simple rules to prevent use paper, cotton or combustible decorations. Use the freshest, greenest possible and don't keep a tree until it has dried out.

Set up the tree until two days before Christmas. Keep it fresh.

Place the tree in a relative place.

Put a tree near a stair-exit.

Only lighting sets that are in good condition.

Leave tree lights on when no one is around.

Take the tree down as soon as possible.

Use of gift wrappings as possible and place in metal containers.

Be careful in choosing toys and those requiring alcohol, gas or carbide.

Look out for chemical sets, especially.

Watch matches and open flames and don't allow smoking near the Christmas tree.

Plan on what to do if a fire breaks out. Know the provisions of the local Fire Bill and notify the Fire Department immediately if fire occurs.

Follow these rules of safety and enjoy your holidays as you keep them safe and sound for your family and loved ones throughout the season.

Hitchhiker-Marines Face Stiff Penalties

Thumbing a ride might seem easy, but military personnel face heavy penalties for hitchhiking.

Strictly forbidden in the Fourth Naval District, hitchhikers are subject to payment of fines and possible confinement upon conviction by civil authorities.

According to the Navy Department's District Staff Headquarters at Philadelphia, hitchhiking particularly on the Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes is a violation of both military and state regulations.

District Shore Patrol and other Armed Services police have been directed to apprehend and return all naval and Marine Corps personnel to parent duty stations if the servicemen are found hitchhiking.

Owners Must Register '58 Plates

Carolina license plates, to be on sale January 2, must be registered at the Provost Marshal's office immediately after purchase.

According to Maj. James E. Pearl, chief of Military Police, MCB, all must report to Bldg. 37 out form 273 AD, which is Motor Vehicle Registration Notice.

Plates, which expire December 15, may be purchased up to January 15 at the Carolina Motor Vehicle Registration Office, 24, east.

Local Area Prepares For Holiday Season

Holiday spirit prevailed aboard Base this week as Camp Lejeune Marines and their families began their annual preparations for the festive feasts of Christmas and New Year's.

Kermit L. Guthrie, superintendent, Camp Post Office, reported that the Christmas mail rush was reaching its peak as Lejeunites mailed more than 150,000 Christmas cards and 2,500 packages.

Although a full calendar of religious and social events has been scheduled for those remaining on Base over the holidays the majority of local personnel will share the holidays with their loved ones and families at home.

Half of the Marines left Tuesday on leave, while the remaining number will depart Friday and Saturday, December 28 and 29, respectively.

Extended liberty will be available to those who remain on Base for both holidays from 6 a.m., December 24, to 8 p.m., December 26, and from 6 a.m., December 31, until 8 p.m., January 2.

Regular holiday routine will be in effect on Wednesday, December 25, Christmas day, and again on

New Year's day. Santa Claus, complete with red suit and white beard, will arrive at the Goettge Memorial field house Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. with a sleighful of gifts for all dependent children of military personnel. Parents are reminded that it is necessary to furnish the unit Special Services officer of their command the name, age, and sex of their children attending the party.

'Eye Openers' Provided For Tired Drivers

"Coffee Bars" featuring free coffee and doughnuts will be available to Marines returning from New Year's leave all night January 6-7.

As in the past, the coffee bars will be located on U. S. Highway 17, north and south of Jacksonville, and on U. S. Highway 258, north.

During their operations over July 4, Labor Day and Thanksgiving, the coffee bars were credited with reducing highway accidents, injuries and deaths by 50 per cent.

Operated by Marine Corps-Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce personnel, the three stands are approximately 30 miles from the Base. Large, well-marked signs announce their location and abundant table benches will be available for the weary travelers.

Servicemen who departed on Christmas leave will also receive the helpful "eye openers" on December 27-28.

SAFETY FIRST
With ten auto fatalities involving local personnel recorded this year, Lejeune Marines are advised to exhibit extreme caution on the nation's highways during the closing days of 1957. Don't become a holiday death statistic.

Flight Reservations Still Being Accepted

Reservations for holiday flights throughout the United States are still being accepted by the airlines ticket office at Bldg. 235. Although a number of the low-cost tourist flights are booked to capacity, there are still many seats left for interested personnel. For reservations, contact the airlines office by phoning 7-5521 on the Base, or 0-1312 at Camp Geiger.

PLEASE SANTA—A surprise, pre-Christmas visit by Santa Claus to the home of Maj. R. V. Anderson in Northwoods last Friday brought a profusion of big-eyed questions from his three youngsters, Karn, left, Chris and Robert.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASONS?

SGT. PHILIP F. JONES JR., Sub Unit 1, Hq. Bn., MCB—For myself,

I can think of no better place to be at Christmas than home with my relatives. Pre-holiday plans call for a trip through the Great Smokey Mountains with my family. One can't imagine the beauty of the Smokies until they have driven through them and take in all their beauty and massiveness.

SGT. JOHN P. JEFFREY, H&S Co., 1st ITR —I am going to spend Christmas and New Year's at Camp Geiger Trailer Park with my family. Since my home is in Windsor, Canada, it would be too far to drive with three children. I think we will have a very good time and I plan to take the family to the Christmas dinner on the Base.

SGT. EUGENE M. STANKO, H&S Co., 1st ITR —Last year I spent both Christmas and New Year's here at Camp Geiger. This year I plan to take New Year's leave and go to New York. There are four of us going so we should have a fine time New Year's Eve. We plan to spend most of our time touring the city.

SGT. M. E. FOLEY, H&S Co., 1st ITR—I intend to spend my holidays in North Carolina. There are many facilities for hunting and fishing here and I plan to get in a big share of it. I will be at home to some extent as my wife is a native of N. C. We plan to spend Christmas Day with my wife's folks.

PFC JOSEPH DEVINO, Sup. Co. "A", Hq. Bn., MCB—Last year I took leave at New Year's and I plan to do the same this year. I'd like to celebrate the holiday in Connecticut, although I may go into New York for New Year's Eve. After the celebrating is over in New York, I'll spend the rest of my leave at home with my family.

Supposed to become particularly infuriated when they see red objects, bulls actually are color-blind. Numerous investigations indicate that all cattle are color-blind. It is the cloth in motion rather than the color that excites and maddens the bull. Waving a green tablecloth would excite a bull just as easily.

OFF-DUTY COURSES

Preliminary registration for college off-duty courses will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 8-11 a.m., Saturdays, beginning January 2 at the Base Education Office in the Camp theater.

Christmas Season For Marines Marked By Glory And Heroics Since Founding Of Corps In 1775

By PFC JEROME F. MELVIN GLOBE Staff Writer

Throughout the Marine Corps' 182 years of existence, the men of the Corps have celebrated the feast of Christmas in countries around the world.

Being Marines and readily adaptable to any situation, they have participated in the distinctive feasts and customs, common to foreign lands.

For the Leatherneck, the holiday season has not always been gay and colorful, but rather it has been marked by strife, anguish and sometimes death.

Ironically enough, the first Marine unit to come into existence was a detachment formed aboard the Cabot during the Christmas season of 1775.

For these hearty sons of liberty, scarred and torn records reveal that a tankard of rum and stale hardtack served as their Christmas repast. Christmas spirit was lacking on that Revolutionary vessel as its occupants were in dire need of food, arms and supplies.

A year later, in 1776, Maj. Samuel Nicholas with a battalion of Marines accompanied George Washington when he made his crossing of the Delaware. Shortly afterwards, on Christmas night, the combined forces surprised and captured an entire Hessian garrison.

Christmas day, 1861, found Marines from the South Atlantic Squadron participating in several minor engagements against the Confederate forces. For a nation torn by discord this would be the first of four such tragic and enflaming Christmas days.

Constant clashes with the natives during the Philippine Insurrection in December, 1899, didn't allow the men of the old Corps much chance to observe Christmas rites as practiced by the Spanish-instructed islanders. Then as now, children in Spain and its possessions set out their shoes on Epiphany Eve for Balthasar, one of the three kings, to fill on his way to the Holly Land.

Banana Wars provoked unrest among many Caribbean countries in the early part of the 20th Century.

In accord with the "Big Brother" policy of the Wilson administration, the U. S. government tried to establish firm government in the troubled areas of Haiti, Santo Domingo and Nicaragua.

In order to save the Haiti government from bankruptcy, 65 Marines during the Christmas week of 1914, secretly transferred $500,000 in gold to the USS Machias, which then sailed for New York.

Few Haiti youngsters set out their shoes for the Christ child to fill Dec. 25, 1914, as poverty was a grim reality. For Haitians, the main feast is January 1, when adults exchange gifts and hold family reunions.

Organized at Quantico on Oct. 5, 1917, the Sixth Marines arrived at St. Nazaire on Oct. 5, 1917, determined to give their all in "the war to end all wars."

While undergoing combat training, these young men, soon to be labeled "Devildogs" were able to observe their English allies celebrate the yuletide.

The ancient English custom of burning the yule log and saving half of it to start the following year's initial fire was faithfully observed. Britishers told the Yanks how at home, children called waifs, would gather in large groups and wander through the English streets singing Christmas carols.

Across that barren, deathly isolated gap called "No Man's Land," a German soldier was thinking of past Christmas holidays shared at home with his loved ones. Perhaps he remembered how his family vied with others for village honors in the wood carving of dolls and animals.

Half-starved, weather-beaten faces looked up at Col. W. W. Ashurst when he rose to give his Christmas message Dec. 25, 1942, to the Marines imprisoned at the Shanghai prison camp. These men were the remnants of Wake Island garrison and the Legation guard.

As the Japanese interned American citizens, taurant owner Jimmy aged to supply the with more than 300 Moisture-filled eyes captives' feeling when ple sent them person ed Christmas cards delicacies.

Christmas during W for many Marines station infested jungle isles w from the gay holiday t back home.

Five years later, ma same men, no longer youngsters, had to leav ilies once more and flames of totalitarianis

Heartfelt appreciat guiding force which w cal Marines go dow knees this year and th they are once more wi ed ones, home, in the l ty.

Causes Many Headaches

Old Man Winter Arrives Ahead Of Schedule

Old Man Winter reached Camp Lejeune last week nine days before his scheduled December 21 visit. Temperatures and brief snowflurries heralded his arrival.

Lejeunites brought out their winter wear and stored up on anti-freeze.

The mercury skidded to 15 above at the Marine Corps Air Facility early Thursday establishing it as one of the coldest spots in coastal North Carolina.

Youngsters were deprived temporarily of a white Christmas when the long-awaited snow melted upon contact with the ground. Spirits remained undampened as the children continued to make last-minute preparations for Santa's coming.

Frigid temperatures played havoc with several automobiles as they failed to start. A multitude of vehicles were lined up along local highways.

Tarawa Terrace residents reported that the cold blast made water pipes unserviceable and many families were forced to scurry from house to house in search of water.

Area maintenance crews were on standby alert throughout the week to prevent highways from becoming icy and unserviceable.

Freezing temperatures were registered here in December, 1952, one of the coldest months on record. Jacksonvilleites recall a 1947 sleet storm, so powerful in force that communications between the Base and town were temporarily disrupted.

MT Officer's Grads Hear Address By Brig. Gen.

that motor transportation important in the nuclear age. The general delivered a commencement address for the motor transport officer's course. He also addressed 20 graduating officers of the Corps Supply Schools and students.

"People tend to lose sight of the importance of motor transport in an age where rockets, ICBMs, and Sputniks dominate the picture," General Wade said.

Concluding his address with a brief history of motor transport in the military, the general said "Coming as a commander of a motor transport school, I can assure you that motor transport means much to me."

UNITED FUND CHECK—Brig. Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., Base commander, presents a check for $28,726.51 to Albert P. Rachide, president of the Camp Lejeune-Onslow county United Fund Campaign. ## The Meaning Of Christmas

The meaning of Christmas is found in the Gospels, but the New Testament writer who comes closer to the modern story teller's method is St. Luke in blending narrative with intimate homely details. Practically every Christmas carol takes off from this simple story.

The Christmas celebration takes its customs from many lands. From the Germans came the Christmas tree, candles, cradle scene, and carols. From the British came the yule log. Other countries contributed their customs so that the Christmas season represents many nationalities of the world. This is basically good so long as the season is not used as an excuse for hilarity—so long as the true meaning of the occasion is not lost.

Around St. Luke's Bethlehem the shepherds watched their flocks under the stars that always appear bright in desert countries. The angel of the Lord that appeared did not speak in the language of theology but in the words of human comfort, "I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people."

This simple proclamation was intended to unite all people in a bond of friendship and even the total stranger might win a kindly smile.

The whole story and meaning of Christmas is the result of that intangible but very real something which is called the "Christmas Spirit."

The words of the Nativity account of St. Luke were as simple as the humble surrounding where Christ was born. Most any part of the world was far more beautiful than the dry little corner of it where the event took place.

Commercialization has tended to cheapen the true meaning of the occasion and the simple story has sometimes fallen out of focus.

It is good to get back to the simple basic fundamental issues of life. When man has lost his appreciation of these fundamentals he will gradually lose his identity and private harmony with the universe.

There is a feeling among a small but talented minority that, in spite of the present prosperity, generosity and good will, something is lacking. One thing they pointed was the superficiality in the dignity that is placed on material things. If this be true then perhaps the world needs to rediscover the basic meaning of the simple Christmas story. Maybe the world is suffering from an inadequate sense of that event's importance.

In a world where uncertainty over security and survival grows keener with each new announcement of a scientific discovery, the story of the Nativity seems homely, but in such a world it is more necessary than ever before.

Another Year

It was the week before Christmas and all through the GLOBE not a typewriter was stirring, not even a stroke . . .

For you see, this edition will be our farewell gift for 1933. Christmas comes only once a year and the GLOBE staff, like all other Marines, eagerly awaits the coming of the man with the white whiskers.

Not only does he grant us a week's respite from our toil, but he fills our stockings with all sorts of delights . . . typewriters, deadlines, news angles, big scoops, and even printers ink . . . all of which we will put to work in next year's GLOBE.

Colwebs and dust will gather next week but come January 1, our Remington raiders will start clanging and jumping once more.

From us to you . . . we have just one request: Keep being good Marines so we can continue to publicize your doings in the GLOBE and your hometowns.

THE CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

At that time, there went forth a decree from Caesar Augustus that a census of the whole world should be taken. This first census took place while Cyrenus was governor of Syria. And all were going, each to his own town, to register. And Joseph also went from Galilee out of the town of Nazareth into Judea to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem—because he was of the house and family of David—to register, together with Mary his espoused wife, who was with child.

And it came to pass while they were there, that the days for her to be delivered were fulfilled. And she brought forth her first born Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds in the same district living in the fields and keeping watch over their flock by night.

And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them and the glory of God shone round about them, and they feared exceedingly. And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which shall be to all the people; for there has been born to you today in the town of David a Savior, Who is Christ the Lord."

"And this shall be a sign to you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth among men of good will."

—F. T. O'LEARY,
Senior Chaplain,
Marine Corps Base.

The Old Corps

Ten Years Ago—The Second Division assumed a new formation yesterday when its reorganization into a more mobile and flexible fighting organization was affected. The reorganization was planned with an eye to atomic warfare and the probable need for decentralization of control as well as greater dispersion.

Fifteen Years Ago—Maj. Gen. Julius C. Smith, Commanding General at New River, is pleased that Headquarters Marine Corps has officially designated the entire New River base as "Camp Lejeune," in memory of the late Lt. Gen. John Archer Lejeune.

Greater Marine participation in the program has been urged by Capt. W. W. J. Kogagen, institutional Scouting representative, who may be contacted at the Base Post Office or by calling 7-5662.

Chaplain Hughes Addresses Protestant Women's Guild On Christmas Customs

The significance of the coming of Jesus was recalled by Lt. Cmdr. B. F. Hughes, (ChC)USN, for members of the Protestant Women's Guild at a meeting Monday night in the Junior club building.

Pointing out that parents should not neglect telling their children the true meaning of the day while eager eyes dance delightfully over Christmas gifts, Chaplain Hughes went on to tell the group of the various customs of Christmas celebrations throughout the world.

"In Sweden," he said, "there is the early morning Christmas service attended by families who come to church in sleighs; there are the Norwegian Christmas sheaves as a birds' Christmas tree; the lucky almond in the Danish Christmas dinner."

In Holland, he explained, the Dutch exchange gifts on St. Nicholas Day, while in Belgium the Christmas bells peal their tunes.

Midnight services in French cathedrals and the family Christmas tree of gifts and lights in Germany all are part of the glorious day, he said. In Spain the children do a tambourine dance around the nacimiento and the Italian families pray beside their persepis.

Various other customs, according to the chaplain, include the Rumanian boys' Three Kings possession with lighted stars; candles and prayers in the Yugoslavian dinner, candles in the windows of Syrian homes and lights on the rooftops. In India, the Christians decorate the walls of their white-walled homes, while in China posters proclaim the peace and joy of the day.

Lt. Paul Hoffman Tops Toastmasters

A speech on "Chatarunga," meaning "The King Is Dead," won the speaker of the evening award at the December 9 meeting of the Officers Toastmasters club for 1st Lt. Paul R. Hoffmann.

"Chatarunga," the lieutenant pointed out, was created in 3000 B.C. by an oriental philosopher named Exerses. Ancient Babylonia, Lieutenant Hoffmann said, was ruled at that time by a very wicked king name Euilmerodach. In order to instruct the king to be kind and just, Exerses invented a game which he called Chatarunga.

The nature of the game, according to Lieutenant Hoffmann, was such that the king would have to protect his subjects and they, in turn, would have to protect him or he would die.

"The modern version of the game is Chess, and resembles Chatarunga only in the design of the chessboard and chessmen," he said. The ancient game was played according to a code of etiquette and the modern game follows military patterns.

Divvy Boxing Title To 8th; Varsity Takes Ter

Charles Stable Captures Crown With 42 Points

Kid Charles' powerful stable of fighters from the Eighth Marines easily captured the Division intramural boxing championship last Thursday. The Eighth won six of the 10 weight classes and scored 42 points. The Second Marines were a distant second with 26.

The three-day tourney, beginning Tuesday night, wound up on Thursday with the Eighth's contingent represented in every weight of the finals. The defending Sixth Marines placed only two contestants in the finals and tallied 11 points for third place.

With no other entry in the fly-weight class, little Willie Lowery accepted the title for the Eighth by default.

In the bantam class the Eighth's Otto Hicks easily outpointed southpaw Bob Emerson of the Second for a unanimous decision. Next, a split decision was awarded feather-weight Bob Tuell of the Second Marines after he floored the Eighth's contender Danny Morris late in the last round.

Sam Wilson cornered the Second's Ron Kennedy for the lightweight title on a split decision. This contest, one of the best of the evening, featured furious action in the first round.

Bill Vinson battered his way through the finals in the 139-pound class as he defeated Happy McElroy of the Sixth Marines in the semis for a split decision, and was awarded a TKO against 2nd Shore Party's Ron Stebbins late in the second round of the finals.

Backing up the Eighth's contin-gent in the welterweight slot, Dick Gilford effectively used his powerful left to win over Jim Jesse of the Tenth Marines by TKO in the semi-finals, and then walked off with a unanimous decision over the Sixth Marines' Paul Stefano.

Coach Van Bell's Second Marines' middleweights captured the 156 and 165-pound classes, one by TKO and the other by split decision. In the lighter weight, tournament physician Doctor Al Blue stopped the fight late in the first round when the Eighth's contender, John Brady, received an injury to his left arm.

At 165, the Second's Ted Jordan was awarded a split decision over Ron Gathers of the Eighth Marines. Going all three rounds, Jordan proved the stronger in the evenly-matched championship.

Sugar Boy Holly, lighthavy from the Sixth Marines, captured a unanimous decision over Scott Blount, a hard pounder of the Eighth.

In the final event of the finals, heavyweight Jim Pickens of the Second hit the canvass for a 10-count after Rocky John Leach set him up late in the third round. The bout was a fitting climax of the action-packed evening and produced the only knockout of the night.

WILSON WINDS UP — Eighth Marines lightweight Sam Wilson throws a one-two at Simmon Kenney of the Second Marines during the Division boxing tournament last week. Wilson went on to take a split decision as the Eighth Marines ran away with the crown, amassing 46 points to Coach Bell's second-place Second Marines distant 26.

All-Star Squad Announced; Bolling Takes Service Title

Of special interest this week was the announcement of the 1957 Armed Forces Football All-Star team of which expert Herman Hickman had this to say, "I would take that team and play the professional world's champions anytime."

Camp Lejeune failed to place a man on the squad. However, of the first 11 men named, five played against Coach Wil "E" Overgaard's charges during the regular season.

Four players are from the same team, the Bolling AFB Generals. This is the same club that went to a post-season bowl game Sunday and defeated the San Diego Marines, 28-7, in the Shrimp Bowl for the National Service Football championship.

Phillips tries in vain to outjump McKenna. Walton's teammate is P. Mason (22).

Foxtrot Defeats Charlie To Take Basketball Title

Highlighting the 2nd Division intramural basketball competition this week was a company level regimental championship tournament in the Eighth Marines.

After three weeks of intensive participation to determine battalion champions, the Eighth held a tourney in the Area 4 gym Tuesday to establish a regimental company champion.

In the semi-finals, Charlie defeated Golf, 58-57, in a closely contested battle and Foxtrot whipped Anti-Tank, 56-41. Rockwell led Charlie with 24 points and Irwin was high for Golf with 21. Barrow was high man for Foxtrot with 27 markers and Andrefski was top man for A. T. with 15.

Then in the finals, Foxtrot defeated Charlie, 53-40, for the championship. Franke netted 19 points for the winners and Carroll hit with 14 for the losers.

Late last week, Provisional won its third game without a loss by beating Third Battalion, 89-62.

Wettling and Padgett each had 21 points for the winners and Sheehan basked 31 markers for the losers.

Last Friday, 2nd Battalion took 3rd Battalion 78-68 behind Jantsch with 17 and Gaskin with 15. For the losers, Brolicca had 14.

Over in the Tenth Marines, India Company won the 3rd Battalion crown with a 3-1 record, and H&S took 4th Battalion title with a perfect 4-0.

Military Field Meet Taken By Eighth's Golf Company

Military field meets, which breed unit spirit and while adding interest to the everyday training routine, are becoming increasingly popular in the 2nd Division.

For the third successive year, companies of the 3rd Battalion, Eighth Marines, vied with each other through a series of military and physical training events during two days of competition last week. When the judging ended and

The club from Wilmington, one of the best in the area, early 6-1 lead. Coach Spencer's Marines came back to go ahead at the point, 39-16.

And a new star developed in the onslaught as Coach Spencer's four experienced college players, along with a 19-year-old school star, Jerry Fritz, newcomer from Patterson, exhibited a great deal of playing less than half game and scoring 21 points for his team in the victory.

This was the second week that a Coach Spencer's team defeated the Biltmore. Sunday night, the locals the same squad, 91-45.

The head Lejeune quintet tied his bench early in the quarter in an effort to scoring down. However, stringers came back even in the last two periods and tied 73 markers.

Another sub, Angie Cuttaia, the runner-up spot in the derby with 16, followed Telligman (14) and Ed Griffith (12).

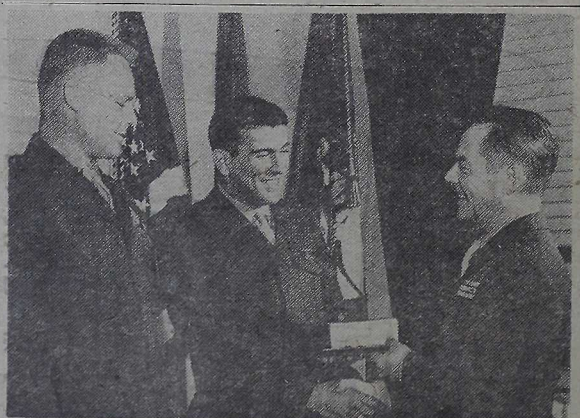

For the losers, Tom Phillips led the Biltmore five with goals and three free throws in the last two periods and tied 73 markers.

ALL-SEA SERVICE PRESENTATION — Brig. Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., Base commanding general, right, congratulates Lou Hollow, center, and presents him with an Elgin watch forwarded from the NAVY TIMES. The presentation was in honor of Hollow's selection to a first string berth on the All-Sea Service football team. Looking on is Coach Wil "E" Overgaard, head Lejeune mentor.

all points were totaled, the team had repeated its triumph year by a margin of 17 points over second place Item Cons, Hotel and H&S following that order.

A highlight of the meet was a 15.4-mile forced march in which picked squads from each of the "H" Co's winning entry. Sgt. Holly L. King, covered the tance in a fast three hours, 15 minutes. Hot on their heels came and Weapons, tying for second place in three hours, 15 minutes and a scant minute ahead of this Golf Co.

In physical exercise event, Donn L. Winkle of "I" Co. something of an iron man by taking two firsts and a place out of four contests. His 91 push-ups and 87 sit-ups placed him in the lead.

A new event, added this week was a weapons "grab bag" by a fire team from each of the four companies. An M-1, pistol and .30 cal. machine gun field stripped and the parts placed in a locker box. Reling all the weapons in a time was the fire team from the 4th Battalion, 8th Marines.

PFC WILLIAM SMITH

FINAL REFLECTION—Amidst the oyster on the shell, cocktail egg roll, T-bone steak and apple pie and ice cream, each Wil "E" Overgaard talked solemnly to his boys for the first time. The occasion at Marston Pavilion marked the 1957 football edition with the exception of the All-American that will be announced at a later date by LEATHERNECK. All head mentor reflected back on a squad that finished with a record of 13 points, the ledger might have read 8-1; the breaks the category of 18 points, the total figure keeping the eleven one of their best years.

Coaches at the beginning of September looked to the club team. The team as a whole had little experience other than school ball handling. A few of the men attended a year at a university and a minority of them had four years of college, plus service competition.

Over second-guessing an opponent, everyone concerned with the team knew that the squads facing the locals would be out for them after such a successful season in 1956. So, the team didn't win every one. But the men showed well, coming back and were down 0-3 and 1-4.

Overgaard stated at the banquet that, "The team exemplified the spirit of the Marine Corps. They never gave up." The service ball, one cannot say, "Wait 'til next year." The person who is too great. For this reason there cannot be a building school athletic programs. With the announcement that the team will be back at the reigns next season, the Marines stationed at this Base are well assured of a football eleven that will do its best in giving to Lejeune a winning team.

The feelings of the men on the squad can be attributed to a coaching staff. It is seen in the way the men conducted themselves out on the playing field. They took their losses hard. They were one of the finest groups of boys that I have ever seen. The way they put out for us, well, one couldn't have asked for more. I learned a great deal from them. With these losses, I don't consider a 4-1 record a losing season. This was the head tutor summed up his parting words to the football unit. The determination and self-sacrifice are the prerequisites for a great club. But this in part must work both ways. Coach Overgaard staff displayed these two items also. This is why their men played without hesitation.

Harper Leads Marinettes To Win Jets; Drop Second Encounter 63-43

Camp Lejeune's Marinettes came from behind to defeat the Jets of Cherry Point, 56-47, in their home opener at the Memorial field house Saturday night. Sunday, the team dropped their third contest.

During basketball season, 63-43, they couldn't find the net against the same club. In the first game, Coach Nans paced Coach Nans girls, totaling 54 points to 49.

In the second game, the Marinettes were unable to find the net and wound up with a 29-43 outside shooting average. In the previous encounter, the Jets aggregation hit on 52 percent of their shots. The Marinettes will have a two-point lead before action is resumed in a two-series weekend clash with FMFLant at the Goettge gym.

A four way tie has developed for third place between the Shiltzers, Cluster Busters, Jokers and Putt-Putts. All four teams have identical 26-18 records as the first half of this bowling league ends.

The Shiltzers picked up a win at the expense of the Pointers, whom they defeated, 3-1. Skarzynski combined a 223-552 game and series respectively for the Shiltzers, while Dave Davison rolled 192-528 for the Pointers.

Two third place teams split with Ed Rogan and Bill Copes, combining with a 218-509 game and series in that order for the Jokers in their 2-2 game with the 2nd Engineers.

BOATING SCHOOL

Boat owners interested in attending a boat handling and navigation school are asked to contact Lt. Col. M. M. Menefee at 7-5618. The school, sponsored by the U. S. Power Squadron at Camp Lejeune, will meet for two and one-half hours each week over a 12-week period.

MP Bn. And MCSS Leaders In MCB Basketball League

Seven games were played last week in the MCB Intra-mural Basketball League with MCSS, MP Bn. and Serv. Bn. all picking up two wins. The latter dropped a decision to 1st ITR to stand at 2-1 for the week's activities.

MP Bn. and MCSS stood in a two-way tie for first place with the MP five winning one more game than MCSS with neither team having a loss on their record.

MCSS pinned the first defeat of the season on Hq. Bn., 51-43, behind the steady performances of John Bennett, Jim Hyland and Gerry Cox. Bennett paced the winners with 12 points while S. Barton led the losers with 14 markers. MCSS came back later in the week and defeated a luckless USNH five 56-39. The sailors have yet to win a game while losing four straight.

Serv. Bn. also dropped the USNH, 55-30, and trounced Engr. Sch. Bn., 64-34. ITR handed Serv. Bn. its only defeat of the week by a 62-48 margin.

A strong MP aggregation moved into top contention for league leadership when they upended Hq. Bn., 69-60, behind the sharpshooting of Leon Harper, who netted 20 points.

SUSPICION BACKED UP — Two weeks ago, the "Old Angler" brought out the thought that Catherine lake must hold some lunkers. Since then, I have had several calls from anglers who have been fishing the lake and have backed up my statement.

One such call came from Lt. Ellis A. Schmidt of Force Troops, who told me he had been fishing there all year and has caught and lost some mighty big ones. On Thanksgiving day, he came home with a two and a half pound bass and two weeks ago he boated one weighing three pounds, six ounces. Lieutenant Schmidt uses mostly plugs, but feels that someone with minnows would have a ball up there. So do I.

Another call came from Sgt. Francis Hershey of MCAF, New River. He, like the "Old Angler," was told that Catherine lake was fished out. As a result he never gave it a try.

After reading this column, he made plans to give it a try on December 7. He was sure glad he did, for that day he landed a five-pound bass. He also told me that he lost several others. One made a rush for the lily pads and broke his line, but before he did, Hershey got a look at him and estimated that he would have gone over four pounds. The pike were also hitting that day and he reported that he lost count of the ones he caught. He was spinning, using the Mepps lure.

DOVE HUNTING—Last Saturday the "Old Angler" was invited to take in a little dove hunting, a new experience to him. Since I enjoyed duck hunting, I felt it would be a good chance to get in some actual experience in shooting these pesky little feathered creatures. For several weeks I had been hearing how much fun it was to hunt them and I also wanted to see why they were becoming America's best game bird.

After getting off work at noon, I proceeded to a prearranged meeting place where I met Lt. Duane Miller and Lt. Karl Peterson. Five hours and 34 shells later, the "Old Angler" was still without a dove. I could have taken my spinning rod and had better luck. At least I'm a little accurate with fishing gear. The other hunters had better luck and managed to bag about eight of the little fellows. Oh, well, some day I'll learn.

SKET shooting—Every Sunday morning, starting at 9 a.m., local nimrods and any other interested persons are afforded an opportunity to take up skeet shooting. After Saturday's experience with the doves, I felt that there was a good chance to learn the finer points of knocking down birds in flight, so I went to the skeet range.

Let me say this, it has been a long time since the "Old Angler" has enjoyed himself more. On hand were some experts who belong to the National Skeet Shooter's Association and they put on quite a show. If you have never seen skeet shooters in action, you are really missing something.

After the pros completed their registered meet, they stayed around to give instructions to those who were anxious to learn the art. And, would you believe it, they even had me hitting the clay pigeons, as bad a shot as I am. In all, each person was given a box of shells and the chance to shoot the complete course. Of the 25 shells, the "Old Angler" came up with about six or eight hits, which is mighty good for me.

To give you an idea of how good the instruction was, one fellow, Sgt. Robert Katula, of the Base photo lab, hit 13 out of the 25 shots which I think is very good as Katula had never fired a shotgun before Sunday. After about three more weeks of that kind of instruction, the "Old Angler" ought to be able to hold his own in the dove hunting department.

If you are having trouble with your shooting eye or would like to take up bird hunting, the best advice the "Old Angler" can give you is to visit the skeet range every Sunday. I guarantee you will become proficient in a very short time.

Skeet shooting is just another one of the fine recreation programs that are provided by the Base Special Services. Ammunition, expert coaching and a separate range for beginners are now being offered every Sunday to personnel and dependents stationed at Lejeune. You don't even have to own a shotgun to take part. Shotguns are provided by Special Services but should be checked out from your own unit.

The skeet range is located down the "Drive-In" road, next to W4LEV and the parachute tower. Further details can be found on Page 10 of last week's GLOBE. See you at the range this Sunday.

Hunters And Nature Lovers Cautioned To Check Areas

All individual hunters or nature lovers who like to stroll around the woods while hiking are cautioned to check the area they intend to use before going out.

Reports from the past few deer hunts indicate several cases of unauthorized people wandering in and around the areas that have been set aside for organized deer hunts. This can be an extremely dangerous practice and one that could lead to tragedy.

Base Order 1723.1B clearly outlines the areas that are to be used for organized deer hunts and these hunts only. No other person or persons are allowed in these areas for any purpose while these hunts are being held.

With two hunts still scheduled on December 21 and 28, Lejeune personnel are urged to stay clear of these areas which surround most of mainbase.

They are: area 1, bounded by Holcomb Boulevard, Highway 24, and Sneads Ferry Road; area 2, bounded by Smiths Road, Highway 24, Highway 172 and Lyman Road; area 3, bounded by New River, French Creek, Marines Road and Courthouse Bay; area 4, bounded by Marines Road and Sneads Ferry Road, Highway 172, Mossy Point Road, Smith Road and Lyman Road; area 6, bounded by Freeman's Creek, Mossy Point Road, Smith Road, Lyman Road, Queens Creek Road and Inland Waterway; and area 7, bounded by Highway 172, Freeman's Creek, Inland Waterway, New River and Courthouse Bay.

Pups Lose Twice; Linda Stallings Nets 57 In Two Games

The Camp Lejeune junior Devil dogs were unable to find the winning combination last week as they were defeated by Richlands, 58-23, and by White Oak, 49-39. The high school girls split with the same teams losing to Richlands in a close contest, 44-36, and upending the White Oak squad, 38-36.

Paced by Joe Bernier's 14 points, the Devilpups exhibited their best offense of the season in losing to White Oak.

Linda Stallings netted 57 markers in two games to lead the girls' team in the scoring department. The young forward hit for 14 baskets and three charity tosses for 31 to lead her squad in the victory over White Oak. Stallings came up with 26 points to pace all scorers in the Richlands game.

Nine Judo Members Upped After Tests

Nine judo enthusiasts were promoted last week after performing before three of Camp Lejeune's Shudokan members, an organization comprised of holders of the black belt. The promotions were held in the Area 4 gym Thursday night.

Those successfully advancing to Go Kyu, or fifth degree green belt, were Charles Land, Bill Winters, Henry Haberski, Vinnie Hedrick, Deane McBride, and Burris Alphonso. Promoted to Yon Kyu, or fourth degree green, were Charles Reeves and Ray Johnson. A third degree brown belt (San Kyu) was awarded to John Neubauer.

In an added event of the evening, Joe Blaile met the newly-promoted judo members, with the exception of Neubauer, in a Shiai. This is an actual contest where Blaile had to meet all of the team members in a maximum five-minute match. Blaile defeated all of the men to face him.

Pin Busters Downed By League Leaders

The Curves continued on their merry jaunt in the Staff NCO Wives Bowling League as they shut out the third place Pin Busters behind the rolling of Nell Alford. In other league action, the runner-up Rolling Pins defeated the last place Topplers, 3-1.

Alford bowled a 161 game and 439 series in pacing the league leaders in their whitewash. Helen Wayne led the losers with a 167-449, the latter figure represents the high series for the week.

Betty Christy and Ollie McCarville combined to pace the Rolling Pins with a 169-398 game and series respectively. Christy's game was tops for the week in the league.

FINAL VICTORY—In ceremonies held Monday at the M T. J. Noon, left, commanding officer of MAG-26, presents the annual Touch Football Trophy to former commanding officer, Maj. W. H. Livingston. The champion H-MS-26 took the trophy by beating last year's champion VMO-1 squad by decision in a thrilling game in November.

Spencer's quintet, with 10 wins in their belt, will meet Wilmington college tonight at sonville high school gym commencing at 8 p.m. Last year the varsity five traveled to Seymour Johnson AFB to meet the Airmen for the first time this season. Results were not available at GLOBE deadline.

Team statistics through the first eight games revealed that ex-Florida State university star, Rick Benson, is leading the squad in four departments.

The tall center has averaged 14.5 points per game. In all the contests, Benson, 6'7", the other members of the team, have seen limited action. Benson also paces the team in rebounds at 11.4, total points at 148 and field goals made at 14.
