BETRAYED (1)
An adventure story set in London during the war, Clark Gable, Lana Turner and Robert Montgomery are the stars. Gable plays a man who is betrayed by one. The obvious talent of the three stars is not stressed although the film is a routine romance with a dash of espionage. The course of espionage is not followed at first, but straightens out as the story goes on and where it concerns the betrayal of whom.

Two collisions marred the Tri-Command observance of Safety Wednesday last week, the Camp Provost Marshal's office said.

Injuries were reported.

Comparative figures show 1954 figures running well below 1953. Injuries a year ago stood at 270, as compared to 23 reported this week. The fatality figure stands 23 against 28 last year.

New Camp regulations governing the wearing of civilian clothing to movies, athletic events and on liberty have been issued to go into effect Wednesday.

Beginning that day the wearing of civilian clothing at all movies, aside from outdoor theaters; at athletic events, and at entertainment at the Camp theater and field house will be prohibited, except on weekends and holidays.

Existing regulations regarding the wearing of civilian clothing on liberty have been repeated in Camp Memorandum 308-54, which states the necessity for neatness and conformity at all times. Marines are reminded that the wearing of T-shirts, levis and dungaree trousers is not permitted during athletic or recreational events.

HAVE YOU EVER KEPT A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION?

PVT. FRANK A. CHASTEEN, "H" CO., 3RD BN., EIGHTH MARINES

Yes, I made a resolution, and that was not to quit school, but broke it after two months when I decided to join the Marine Corps in February, '54. I also made a resolution not to drink anymore, and that, too, has been broken.

PFC GEORGE B. FIRMAN, "G" CO., 3RD BN., SIXTH MARINES

—Yes, two years ago, and that was to stay a bachelor. Ten months later I guess the right girl came along and I'm getting engaged Christmas. I tried to give up smoking quite a few times, but I gave up on that resolution.

PFC JOSEPH A. MORRISSEY, "I" CO., 3RD BN., EIGHTH MARINES

—No use making any resolutions, as I most likely won't keep them. The way I figure is that I'll be a hypocrite if I make any resolutions. For example, I made a resolution to buy my girl an engagement ring before the year was over, and I still haven't accomplished that deed.

PFC RICHARD J. CONWAY, "I" CO., 3RD BN., EIGHTH MARINES

—My big resolution was to stop smoking. I held out for two years, and everything was just fine. I was then shipped out to Vieques, where the Don Q, and cigarettes tempted me and I started all over again. I guess I'll have to make another resolution this year, and hope that I'm not sent on another cruise.

CPL. FRANK SVANCARA, MP CO., HQ. BN., MCB

—I haven't made any resolutions in the past, but I'd like to start them this year, come New Year's Eve. One is to start going to church regularly and to stop smoking and drinking.

Generous Marines Aid Needy Families As Christmas Nears

Ten needy families in the Jacksonville vicinity will have a merrier Christmas this year, thanks to the officers and men of the 3rd Bn., Second Marines.

The idea of giving the needy a "real" Christmas arose from a recent meeting of the battalion officers. Maj. J. J. Rooney, commanding officer of Weapons Co., contacted the Onslow County Welfare agency for names of 10 deserving families. The agency made a check and furnished the major with a list, including all races, who were in dire need of help.

A mimeographed notice of the "Christmas Fund" was distributed throughout the battalion and collection jars along with printed posters were placed in conspicuous places. The jar at the end of the pay line claimed the largest collection.

More than $400 had been received up to last Wednesday, averaging more than 50 cents per man.

The proceeds will be divided evenly and used to purchase turkeys, cranberries, nuts and other foods for the needy families. The children will receive stockings filled with toys.

"One man, Cpl. Rocco Renaudo of Weapons Co., contributed $20 of his pay and explained that these people need it more than he does," said 2nd Lt. Bob Cunningham, Battalion Special Services officer.

There were more than 22,000 women marines in the Marine Corps in World War II.

Col. Seifert, Division Disbursing Officer, To Retire Dec. 31 After 36-Year Tour

BY TSGT. BILL MORRIS

Lt. Col. John L. Seifert, 2nd Division Disbursing officer, winds up more than 36 years' service when he retires on December 31.

Recruiting, always a big item, was making it's first "Uncle Sam Wants You" pitch when one day in 1918 in New York, John Seifert was singled out by the now-famous index finger.

He was sent to Parris Island for boot camp. His recollections of that period are as vivid today as then—but now he wears the silver leaf of a lieutenant colonel.

But then it was different as has often been said. He had just entered the service. A rifle score meant the difference between traveling to France or staying put. Marine expert rifleman were being shuttled off to France and those who only qualified went to the support department.

A surprise party honoring three retiring Camp Lejeune and 2nd Division Disbursing officers was held last Saturday evening in the Paradise room of the Paradise Point club.

Honored were Lt. Col. John L. Seifert, Division Disbursing Officer, with 36 years, and CWO Levi J. Shambough, Assistant Division Disbursing officer, 30 years.

CWO Joseph J. Ayers, one of the officers honored, was unable to attend as he is convalescing in the Naval hospital following a recent operation.

"I had just qualified," Col Seifert said, "and after training was called out with a large group of recruits and placed in three ranks which represented jobs other than infantry. One was the Quartermaster section. I was placed in their ranks."

Thinking of leaving the Corps after the war, he decided to stay for a little while longer—a "little while" that has extended to more than 36 years, 16 as an enlisted man.

In Colonel Seifert's time payrolls have jumped from hundreds of dollars to sums like Camp Pendleton's quarterly payroll a few years ago of $12,882,194. A big payroll in the 20's and early 30's was $75,-

Safety Responsibility Law Compulsory A Must For Drivers In North Carolina

RALEIGH—Acting under the legal provisions of the new Safety Responsibility law the Motor Vehicles Department has withdrawn the driving privileges of 11,539 Tar Heels so far this year.

The law specifies that motorists involved in accidents resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100 must show proof of financial responsibility. Vehicles Commissioner Edward Scheidt said a third of the drivers involved in accidents through November did not have adequate liability insurance.

Several options are offered motorists involved in mishaps, Scheidt said, in an effort to make clearer the provisions of the law.

If he is not protected by adequate liability insurance he may make a cash deposit up to a maximum $11,000, secure a release from liability, or, if within one year no court action is pending, the case is dropped.

Scheidt said nearly 5,000 drivers

a month file accident reports, about 63 per cent furnish proof of financial responsibility. The other third are not licensed is subject to suspension unless a satisfactory settlement is made.

Some 800 drivers are not comply and their licenses are suspended.

There has been some question as to what type insurance is adequate to comply with the responsibility law.

Scheidt explained that automobile liability insurance protects the other driver's property and collision insurance protects only the owner's.

The Safety Responsibility law enacted Jan. 1, 1954, is to afford greater protection to motorists innocently injured by negligent drivers.

In his letter to the Division Operations officer, the Commandant said, "The initiative displayed by you in submitting your proposal for a field artillery computer, together with complete schematic diagrams is indicative of a high degree of professional skill and interest."

Colonel Adelman is a graduate of the Naval Academy and entered the Marine Corps in June, 1937. He received the Legion of Merit and his third Bronze Star medal while serving in Korea. His first two bronze stars were earned at Bougainville and Okinawa during World War II.

Commandant's Greetings

To all the officers, men, and women in the Marine Corps, wherever they may be, and to all our loyal civilian employees, I send my warmest personal greetings and best wishes for a joyous Christmas holiday and a happy and successful New Year.

This Christmas finds many marines far away from home and the close family ties that always are associated with the holy season. This is in the tradition of marines who, since the birth of our nation, have guarded its interests throughout the world without regard for personal sacrifice.

Each of you, wherever you may be, is filling a vital role. May you find reason for rejoicing in the knowledge that your unselfish efforts stand as a pillar of strength and inspiration to all freedom loving people.

I join you in the fervent prayer that the new year will bring the world closer to the realization of that peace which is the truest expression of the meaning of Christmas.

As related in the book, "The Old Breed," General Vandegrift asked his operations officer, "Twining, what are you doing?"

Colonel Twining passed over to the general a drawing he had just sketched on overlay paper. "An idea I had for a shoulder patch," he explained. "The stars are the Southern Cross."

For a moment or two General Vandegrift examined the design. Then jotting something on the sheet, he returned it.

The notation read: "Approved, A. A. V."

So was "born" the famous diamond device of the 1st Marine Division. Reaching Australia, Colonel Twining miraculously got the patch into production and only three weeks after it had been approved, the patch was being worn by members of the Division.

General Twining originally joined the 1st Marine Division here in November, 1941.

During the recent hostilities in Korea he served as assistant Division commander from March to June, 1952.

USNH Doctor And Corpsman Overcome Obstacle With Own Idea And Initiative

In administering a specialized X-ray at the Naval hospital here, technicians and doctors ran the risk of over-radiation. Patients were receiving limited and therefore harmless doses, but because of the lack of an arteriographic shield, administering personnel were in danger.

Dr. Frederick R. Latimer's idea to make his own shield was put into effect by HM3 Francis Perrelly, who used surveyed lead and, with the help of a brazing iron that kept the lead's shape, fastened it to the X-ray table. Considerably less expensive than the original, the "gadget" is doing the job.

An arteriogram is a diagnostic process whereby an X-ray is made immediately after the injection of a dye into the neck arteries, outlining blood vessels and helping doctors diagnose brain tumors or hemorrhages.

In most hospitals, a bulky professional arteriographic shield protects medical personnel from over-radiation. So specialized is the equipment, however that it has not been included on Navy Supply.

Dr. Latimer has submitted a description of the project to the Armed Services Medical Journal both for the idea's acceptance and as a possible aid to other Navy Medical workers who might be having the same difficulties.

COMMISSARY TO CLOSE

The Camp Sales Commissary will be closed all day tomorrow and will reopen Tuesday, Commissary Officer Capt. Stuart V. Schuyler said this week. The Commissary also will be open a half-day Friday, Dec. 31, will close at 11:30 a.m. that day, and will reopen Tuesday, Jan. 1.

AT Company Looks To Set New Record With No Absences

February 6 will be a red-letter day for the Anti-Tank Co., Second Marines, if they can continue their present string of 102 consecutive days without an unauthorized absence. By that date, they will have 148 absence-free days, enough to break the standing 2nd Division record of 147.

Capt. Chester T. Jones is sending a letter to each man now on leave, containing a Christmas greeting and a reminder that they must return on time if the streak is to be kept intact. He is confident, along with the rest of the men, that they will comply with the reminder.

Capt. Jones attributes the 102-day streak largely to his first sergeant, J. P. Mangon. Sgt. Mangon continually lectures his men on the consequences that unauthorized absence carries. "Our policy of firmness, fairness and appreciation is paying great dividends. The unauthorized absence accomplishment is one of many that reflects the outstanding quality of Mangon, and our well-organized NCO's and men," Captain Jones said.

This spirit is also reflected in the comments of the men. "It's a personal thing now. No one wants to be remembered as the man who broke the string," said Pfc Thomas Mullin.

First Stateside Christmas Observance Held In Florida

NEW YORK (AFPS)—The observance of the Feast of Christmas in what is now the United States dates back 426 years.

Christmas day was first celebrated in 1528 somewhere in Florida by the five Franciscan missionaries who arrived there that year bringing with them the ideals and feasts of Christianity. Several years later, more missions sprang up in the Southwest and in California colonies of Spain.

In the English colonies along the Atlantic coast, the first recorded Christmas was celebrated in 1607 by the British settlers at Jamestown, Va. The leader of the colonists, Capt. John Smith, had this to say:

The extreme wind, rayne, frost and snow caused us to keep Christmas among the savages where we were never more merry, nor fed on more plenty of good oysters, fish, flesh wildfowl and good bread."

For the Pilgrims further up the coast, where the wind was really extreme, Christmas day was another day of hard work and struggle against the elements. As late as 1659, although Christmas was regarded as a solemn feast there, a man taking the day off from his labor was liable to a fine of five shillings.

One of the most memorable Christmas nights in American history was that of 1776 during the War of Independence. That was the evening that the American forces under George Washington made their crossing of the Delaware river.

Pay Boost On Top As 13 Benefit Bills Face 84th Congress

A new pay boost proposal will be among the 13 major service benefit bills that Defense officials will pass on to Congress when the law-makers convene next month.

The pay bill is one of four new bills that include permanent transportation allowances, a relocation allowance and the establishment of permanent integration authority into the Regular establishment.

The other bills include additions to laws already in effect and the re-introduction of bills either submitted too late for action by the 83rd Congress or held up awaiting further study.

Leading the parade of hold-over bills are the Dependents' Medical Care bill and the Reserve Forces bill. Others are pay credit for time as a student at the service academies, 20-year retirement for Navy "T" officers and flight training for Air Force ROTC students.

It is anticipated that major revisions will also be made in the present Uniform Code of Military Justice and survivors' benefits.

Three Navy Crosses Given To Corpomen With 1st Division

Three Navy Corpomen have been awarded the Navy Cross for heroism while serving with the 1st Division in Korea. Two of the wards are posthumous.

HN Dale W. Brown won the award for gallantry on the night of April 19, 1953, when a patrol he was accompanying was ambushed. He quickly located concussion, fragmentation and anti-tank grenades the enemy was using to shower his position and threw them back in an effort to protect wounded comrades.

Seriously wounded when a grenade landed near him, Brown feigned death when the enemy overran the position, and when a rescue party arrived directed medical treatment for other wounded before allowing himself to be evacuated.

Posthumous Navy Crosses went to HM3 Charles E. Pope and HN Billy D. Smith.

Pope was killed Feb. 22, 1953, while serving with a combat patrol. Painfully wounded in a bombardment, he stayed in an unprotected position to render aid to the wounded until he collapsed from loss of blood.

Smith died July 13, 1953, when he tried to protect a wounded marine with his body during an intense enemy barrage.

Raider Association Mails 'Dope Sheet'; Reunion In February

WASHINGTON—Edson's Raiders Association has just mailed The Dope Sheet to more than 1,400 former members of the 1st Marine Raider Bn.

The publication is printed and distributed semi-annually to approximately 1,500 former members of the 1st Marine Raider Bn. of Tulagi-Guadalcanal-New Georgia fame. Although many of the former raiders have returned to civilian life or retired, it is estimated that there are more than 300 former raiders still on duty in the regular Marine Corps.

The Dope Sheet describes a special meeting held in conjunction with the 1st Division reunion in New York City last August. It also contains an announcement of the association's seventh annual reunion to be held at Quantico Feb. 12. More than a hundred members are expected to attend.

John B. Sweeney, president of the association, said members not receiving this issue should write to Association Headquarters, Post Office Box 105, Quantico, Va.

2nd Amphibian Tractor Bn. Plays Santa For Kennedy Orphanage In Kinston

The dreams of 54 youngsters from the Kennedy Orphanage in Kinston came to life Saturday when they met Santa Claus at the 2nd Amphibian Tractor Bn., Force Troops, Christmas party.

As the children filed into the indoor movie at Courthouse Bay, they were greeted by a standing ovation by the AmTrackers. After proceeding to the stage they were "adopted" by Marine "parents" and given white sweaters.

After a magic act by "Max the Magnificent" Armstrong — that had the kids and marines baffled — came the moment the children had long awaited.

The curtains were opened on a huge, decorated Christmas tree surrounded by presents for the children. Santa entered the hall by the back door and the youngsters stirred with excitement as soon as they saw him. After Santa distributed gifts to each child, he presented every cottage of three orphans each a Western Flyer bicycle.

The children were treated to an hour of cartoon movies after lunch in the mess hall.

Members of the committee responsible for the party were: Chaplain Leo J. McDonald, chairman; Capt. Jack W. King, 1st Lt. Harold L. Kendrick, 1st Lt. James W. Rahill, 1st Lt. James W. McPartlin, Master of Ceremonies MSgt. Apple, Sgt. Barton Forrester, Pfc Edgar R. Canon and Pfc Anthony A. Lucenti Jr.

A Christmas Tree . . .

A Christmas tree is a thing of beauty with its brightly colored lights, shiny tinsel and other gay decorations. A tree is a must on nearly everyone's list.

Ironically, this traditional Yuletide symbol of joy can be a hazard if proper precautions are not taken. To keep your Christmas a merry one remember to:

Get a fresh tree, keep it in water before and during the time it is up. . . . Take it down before it becomes dry and easy prey for fire. . . . See that it is well supported against tripping, and place it well away from any fire-place, stove or heat. . . . Watch your cigarettes and matches. Keep them a safe distance from the tree. . . . Avoid using light fixtures that have worn insulation on the cord. Use low-wattage lights, do not overload a circuit. Watch for loose connections and broken sockets. Better to discard a lighting set than to take a chance. Never use flame candles. . . . Use metal, asbestos and mica decorations instead of paper or cotton ones. Put nothing on a tree that will burn.

REMEMBER: Even a fresh tree is a considerable fire hazard, as oil in evergreens make them burn readily and hot.

Don't make this Christmas a bad memory!

Ten years ago this week:

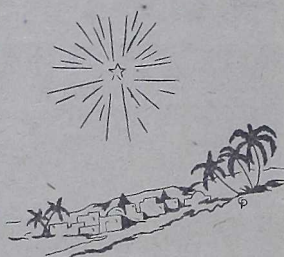

President Roosevelt visited Camp Lejeune in a two and a half hour inspection tour. It was the Commander-in-Chief's first appearance here.

The Camp Basketball team upset Fort Bragg 44 to 37, to remain undefeated.

The Christmas Story

And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us."

And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known aboard the saying which was told them concerning the child. And all they that heard it wondered at these things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

LUKE 2:8-19

Chaplain's Corner

CHRISTMAS 1954

One of the greatest phrases used in expressing Christmas joy is "Peace on earth, good will toward men." It seems a long time since this has been true. At the present time, part of it is partly true; a semblance of peace is raging all over the world, and while goodwill is not at a maximum, never-the-less men everywhere are trying to unite the family of nations in a true family spirit.

The one true and infallible means of absolute peace among men can only be, when each man is at peace, the peace of God. We call it peace of soul. It is Divine peace, and as such can only come from the Infant Prince of Peace. His throne is a manger; His palace, a stable; His courtiers, domestic animals; and yet from there He reigns over all the universe. God-made-man rules in simplicity as well as majesty.

Too often the preparatory swirl of Advent, usually more material than spiritual, tends to conceal the world-shaking event of Christmas. More and more we are forced into an American Christmas rather than Christmas in America. Internal peace seems too remote to most people, and yet without it there can be no external peace. How can the precious Child of Bethlehem enter a hardened and calloused heart? How can He bring peace to a self-satisfied soul?

Jesus Christ will reign in men's hearts if they are made ready for Him. They must be as stout as oak and large enough to hold Him, and also they must be lined with the golden straw of love.

Yuletide Services, Children's Activity Planned At Geiger

John J. Arnold, Protestant chaplain of the 2nd Combat Service Group, announces the following services and activities for the holiday season:

A party will be held for the Geiger Trailer Park Sunday school children in the Trailer Park Activities building at 7 p.m. Christmas Eve. The children will receive sacks of candy and luminous crosses.

Christmas day will be observed with worship services at 10 a.m. at the Geiger chapel and at 11 a.m. at the Geiger Trailer Park. Chaplain Calvin Raines, new MCAF chaplain, will give the Christmas morning message.

A worship service, followed by the period of fun and fellowship is planned for New Year's Eve at 7 p.m. at the Camp Geiger Chapel.

May God reign in the manger of your hearts now and always.

Tenth Marines

Cherry Point Rally Fizzles As Net Squad Wins 71-68

Lejeune staggered to a 71-68 triumph over Cherry Point a week ago Wednesday night as the Flyers' wild fourth quarter rally was checked in the final minute of play.

In recording their sixth victory of the season on the home floor, the locals were hard-pressed until the final buzzer.

With the score knotted at 66-all, Ted Hunkele drove down the center lane for a two-pointer and added a foul to give Lejeune a 69-66 edge.

The Flyers' Bill Elliott sank two free throws to narrow the lead to one point, but Hunkele hooped two charity tosses with 12 seconds remaining to settle the outcome.

Play was sluggish during the first half as Lejeune took a 37-31 lead at the midway mark. The locals' passing game was far off form, and the shooting on both sides was equally poor.

Nick Maguire, who suffered a sprained ankle in the third quarter and sat out the remainder of the game, scored eight points in the first half and Glen Bissell contributed the same.

Cherry Point trailed 52-42 as play started in the final quarter. The rally began when Chuck Ford sank a jump shot and continued until the ball game was tied up.

Lejeune repeatedly threw the ball away on defense and Cherry Point capitalized on every mistake. Elliott flipped in seven points in the last five minutes to spark the attack and scored 11 during the game.

Joe Delise tallied 13 points to pace the losers, while Glen Bissell topped the Lejeune offense with 16. He ran his total points for the season to 158 in nine games and an average of 17 a game.

Five Champs Crowned At Boys' Finals

An added attraction to the Lejeune-Quantico card last Thursday night was the finals of the first annual Paperweight tourney.

Since last September the youngsters from the ages of 8-12 have been working toward this tournament and last Thursday five men were crowned as the younger set's pugilistic champions of Camp Lejeune.

In the 50-60 pound Atomweight novice division Richie Martin used a two-fisted attack from every direction to gain a decision over Mike Ballenger. Ballenger showed a lot of spirit and heart, but couldn't cope with Martin's punches that descended from every angle. Not once during the two one-minute round bout did Martin stop punching.

Reed Watson scored the only TKO of the finals and the third in the tourney when his fight with Roy Sudeck in the Open Atomweight class was stopped in 57 seconds of the first round.

Watson pounded Sudeck into submission by scoring well to the mid-section, then countering with over-hand rights to the head.

A Fleaweight clash saw Chester Fritts win a very close decision over George Phillips. Through the two rounds the "men" stood toe to toe in the center of the ring and battled it out, but Fritts ended the fight in a tremendous flurry to gain the nod.

Mosquitoweight Tim Randall decided James Treadwell for the title of that division. After knocking Treadwell down in the first round, Randall covered up well in the clinches and used a straight right to good advantage to win.

In the 80-100 pound Paperweight division, Jerry Apgar had too much reach for John Finnegan. Apgar crowded Finnegan through the whole fight and bullied him in the clinches, thus making Finnegan, who likes to stay away from his opponent and jab, change his style.

HOUSE OF DAVID BASKETBALL TEAM—Basketball action and laughs galore are in store for Camp Lejeune's cage fans when the House Of David meets the Camp team at 8 p. m. Jan. 4 at

RIFLE RANGE

The 2nd Division's Headquarters Bn. had the high man on the Rifle Range last week when Cpl. G. R. Haverson fired 233 of 250. Maj. W. E. Lunn of Force Troops' And AmTrac Bn. fired the pistol high, 371 of 400.

In rifle qualification percentage for the year Marine Corps Base was high with 81.2, the 2nd Division stood at 81 per cent, and the Force Troops percentage was 80.8. In pistol qualifications the figures were Force Troops, 87.5; MCB, 79.1; and the Division, 74.2.

Sill Beats Bolling In Poinsettia Bowl

The undefeated Fort Sill (Okla.) Cannoneers, paced by former Oklahoma University Halfback Billy Vessels, rolled over Bolling Air Force Base 27-6 last Sunday in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The victory gave them the Armed Forces football championship. Vessels scored himself early in the game, was instrumental in setting up the Cannoneers' other three touchdowns, and was a power on defense.

Bearded Cagers Invade Field House For Go With Camp Quintet January

The 1955 sports schedule will be initiated with a performance at 8 p. m. Jan. 4 when the Camp team meets the fun-loving House of David cagers at the Memorial field house.

Combining both good basketball with comedy, the Bearded Beauties need no introduction. Each year they tour the United States, Canada and Mexico playing more than 200 games against all opposition. Over a 12-year span they have posted a record of 2,158 wins against 121 losses.

The House of David not only presents high class basketball, but also entertains the fans with their eccentric play, comedy actions and clever line of chatter. Outside of their football, baseball and hunting routines, probably the most famous is their hidden ball act in which the bearded boys gather in a football huddle on the floor and the basketball disappears.

Heading the list for the House is Player-Coach Bobby Roth. Roth, who played college ball for the University of Michigan, is billed as the fastest-breaking forward in the game and basketball's Clown Prince of Comedy.

At center is 7-foot Moose Gordon, former Georgia schoolboy sensation, who works with Roth in both scoring and getting laughs Gordon first attracted basketball attention while playing high school ball in town, Hapeville, Ga., though college and pro beat a path to his door, he chose a barnstorming career.

In the other forward 6 foot 6 inch Bill Reeder, ed baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals and basketball with the New York Yankees, N. Y., club of the Professional Basketball League. Though a big man, he is a deliberate style of play, ways makes him a hit with fans.

Former Appalachian State player, 6 foot 5 inch, who made a hit with New York fans when his athletic prowess appeared in Madison Square Garden, works from time to time as the team's chief writer. In the off-season he is a recreation director in N. C.

Rounding out the team is the rookie of the team, Fort Jackson Star Joe Grist, who before joining the bearded cagers played for Jackson and the city of Miami.

Meyers On First Team All-Service Football

This year's offensive giant for Camp Lejeune, Left Halfback Bob Meyers, former Quantico and Stanford, was named this week by the Armed Forces Press Service to a string of the 1954 All-Service football team as selected by a world-wide poll of service civilian sportswriters and football coaches.

Halfback Billy Vessels, an Oklahoma All-American and winner of college football award in 1952 — the Heisman Memorial Trophy — led the voting. Vessels, a speed-merchant, was the sparkplug of the top service team in the West this year, Fort Sill, Okla.

Runners-up to Vessels in the voting were former Illinois All-American Tommy O'Connell, quarterback for the Bolling AFB Generals, Washington, D. C., and Princeton's two-time All-American end and captain of the Tigers in '52, Frank McPhee.

McPhee, a member of last year's All-Star team when he starred at Quantico, Va., did his pass-catching for the marines at Camp Pendleton, Calif., this season.

Also appearing in the All-Star line-up in '53 in addition to Meyers — who also played for the Quantico Leathernecks last year — was Bob Williams of Bainbridge NTC, Md.

Army dominated the voting, placing eight players on the first and second teams. The Navy and Air Force grabbed five positions each and the Marine Corps landed four.

Some 350 outstanding service football players from both Stateside and overseas military installations were nominated in the poll.

Ronnie Zatkoff, rugged center for Newport Naval Station, R. I., is the only AFPS All-Star without college experience. Zatkoff on the second team, is the younger brother of Michigan's great star Zatkoff, now a linebacker professional Green Bay Packers.

Thinking about the local punchers we may at times go over-use of various adjectives describing their feats. Maybe we really have something. We think so.

LEJEUNE'S TOUGHIES—Should the New Year hold the same success for the Camp boxing team as the last few months of 1954, Lejeune's punchers would be the best on the East Coast. Golfers Get Turkeys With Woods, Irons Instead Of Rifles

Twenty-one golfers got their Christmas dinners through their links skill last Saturday and Sunday at the Paradise Point course in the second "turkey shoot" of the season.

Three men, Sgt. S. Fernandez, Maj. P. W. Stark and Jimmy Midgett won two turkeys apiece.

Six turkeys were awarded in the blind bogey scramble, one each to Capt. R. E. Rapp, Mrs. W. S. McLaughlin, Capt. D. I. Carter, MSgt. P. E. Lovell, Capt. W. J. Young and Lt. J. M. Perry.

In the pitching to the pin from a distance from 100 yards competition, Jimmy Midgett was the closest when he made a hole in one on his second shot. Other winners were: MSgt. J. B. Broadus, Lt. Col. R. G. Warg, Maj. P. W. Stark, CWO F. R. Robertson, MSgt. J. R. Butler, MSgt. E. C. Thomas, MSgt. A. Nalewanski and Sgt. S. Fernandez.

In the nine-hole putting contests four men were tied with 15 putts each, but 15 were tied with 16. Since there were only five turkeys left the winners of the remaining birds were drawn from a hat.

Jimmy Midgett, Maj. D. W. Atchison, MSgt. L. J. Gedrich and Lt. P. L. Calhoun were tied with 15 putts apiece; while Capt. A. L. Lindall, Maj. P. W. Stark, Capt. C. E. Jackson, 1st Lt. D. W. Bowman and Sgt. S. Fernandez were tied with 16 putts and were awarded the turkeys when their names were pulled out of a hat.

MSgt. Broadus, golf course NCO, said there would be no more tournaments at the course until after the holidays.

1955 Baseball Team Mixes Old And New For Coming Season

Forty-two applications already have been received by the athletic office of Camp Special Services for Camp Lejeune's 1955 baseball team.

As yet no coach has been named to replace last year's mentor, Maj. Arthur O. Weddell, but tryouts are expected to begin around the middle of January.

Lejeune will have 10 men returning from last year's team, but in addition have picked up applications from six men who played last season with Parris Island's East Coast Marine champions and All-Marine runnerup; and five men from Quantico, Eastern Marine runnerup team.

Boxers Break Quantico Jinx; Unofficial Coast Champions

Filled with the holiday spirit, "it is better to give than receive," Camp Lejeune's boxing team broke a three-year hoodoo at Goettge Memorial field house last Thursday night as they punched their way to their sixth consecutive victory of the season via a 4-2 win over Quantico.

For the last three seasons the Virginia Marines had first absorbed a beating by Lejeune, then had bounced back in the second encounter to tarnish the locals' record.

Last Thursday, however, Lejeune's pugilists hammered out a TKO and three decisions to break the hex, by scoring two consecutive wins over Quantico in one season, and become the unofficial 1954-55 East Coast Marine boxing champions.

The locals beat Quantico 6-2 last month at the Marine Corps Schools.

In a carbon copy of the bouts at Quantico, Lejeune Welterweight Nick LaRosa was edged by Terry Downs and Light-heavyweight Duke Belton lost to Woody Myers. Both men lost to the same opponents last month.

Two Defeats Run Devilpup String To Six

The 1954 portion of the Camp High school's basketball season ended last week when the Devilpups twice lost to run their winless string to six games.

A week ago Wednesday Dixon High school rallied in the fourth quarter to dump Lejeune 58-42, and Morehead City took measure the following night to overpower the locals 78-46.

Inexperience and lack of back-board strength have been the determining factor in each game, Coach Dick Lauffer said.

A week ago Wednesday, after trailing by only two points at the half, 25-23, the Devilpup cagers became rattled and fell 16 points behind in the fourth quarter. Lejeune's Jack Cohen and Bob Salisbury paced the locals with 13 points each in a losing cause, while the Smith brothers, Billy, with 24 points, and Jim, with 17, led the Dixon five.

Jerry Willis, 6 feet 6 inches, and Wayne Cheek, 6-feet 7 inches, had the backboards to themselves and each contributed 19 points to the Morehead City win.

Salisbury and Dave Stage netted 12 points each last Thursday to top Lejeune's scoring, but their contributions made little difference as Morehead built up a commanding 42-19 lead at the half and added 34 points in the third and fourth quarters while Lejeune could only pick up 27.

The preliminary games also saw the Lejeune girls' losing string extended to six with losses to Dixon, 62-39, and Morehead, 46-24.

The Camp cagers open their 1955 schedule Jan. 5 when they travel to Beaufort, then begin a four-game home stand at Goettge Memorial field house when they meet Smyrna Jan. 7.

Featherweight Basil Blackson scored the only TKO of the evening when Referee Elder Craft called it quits for Quantico's Val-ton Garris in 1:58 of the second round. In the first round Blackson scored well with left jabs and right hooks to the body and split Garris lip in the last 30 seconds with a chopping right.

Using Garris' lip as a target in the second round Blackson countered repeatedly with uppercuts until the fight was stopped.

Despite giving away a seven-pound advantage Lightweight Dave Gonsalves won a decision over Gar Studyvant. Both men were quick and "fancy duns", but Gonsalves won the decision by scoring the most damaging blows through the combination of a chopping left to the midsection and an overhand right.

As in the previous five matches, a newcomer was introduced into Lejeune's lineup. Last Thursday, Middleweight Curtis "Hambone" Johnson made his debut and upheld the tradition established this year that the neophyte never loses his first outing by decisioning Gene Dew.

Johnson has a style patterned after Nick LaRosa, and LaRosa looks like a miniature Rocky Marciano. Through the whole fight Johnson kept Dew on the ropes and on the defensive by wading in a swinging.

Middleweight Themis Kountis can be credited with sewing the match up for Lejeune with his decision over Gene Colando. In a fight that saw each man repeatedly stagger the other, Kountis built up a big advantage in the first and second rounds with zipping right crosses.

During their first month of operations from two airfields on Okinawa, Marine fighter pilots knocked down 209 Jap planes while losing only four in aerial combat.

HOLIDAYS

I'd like to take this opportunity to wish all my readers, hunters, fishermen, conservationists, etc., the very merriest Christmas ever and the best outdoor life in the New Year.

FISHING OR SNAFFING?

Rumor has it that Commander Timberlake has a new method for catching sheephead. He simply uses a lure and snags them in the head. Isn't that right, Commander? I understand it weighed four pounds.

MSgt. Pace and MSgt. Korunyk of MCSS returned from Stella, on the White Oak river, with 22 trout. They ranged from two to four pounds and were hitting any type plug thrown them.

DUCK HUNTING

Only had one report on ducks this week. Sgt. F. J. Schweighardt obtained his limit in mallards plus a few extra (on additional days, of course). Where? You'll never guess! Why, how'd you know it was behind Camp Knox Trailer park? New River is coming into its own in the duck line it seems.

Some of our local hunters have asked me how to set up a temporary duck blind. Although I am not an authority on it, here are a couple of ideas. An umbrella with the cloth taken off and chicken wire or netting in its place can readily be covered with grass, brush, or the particular cover you are hunting in. Also a minnow seine makes a good foundation for cover. If you are careful with it, it can be saved for its original purpose.

June Kirk has come up with another good one. It seems he was out duck hunting and knocked down a duck. (Sounds good so far.) Here's the catch. As the duck hit the water, a nine-pound bass grabbed the duck. However, Kirk's loyal retriever wasn't to be outdone. He brought back the fish with the duck's feet hanging out. Believe it or not, Kirk says he can prove it—because he has a picture of the event.

The Fish and Wildlife club has scheduled another meeting for Dec. 29, 1954. The time is 7:30 p.m. Bring along the wife and kids. Don't feel lost, you single men, we very definitely want you. The only reason we mention wife and kids is so Dad can make it to our meetings without protest.

DEER HUNT

Major Lindquist has done it again. His party bagged nine buck deer. They accounted for two eight-pointers, four six-pointers and three spikes. One of the spikes had horns 10 or 12 inches long and weighed 140-150 pounds. Major Lindquist estimated the weight, almost as large as one of the eight-point bucks.

Jan. 1 is the last deer hunt of the season. Anyone interested in going, contact the huntmasters. Most of the hunts are low on men. If you don't succeed with the first huntmaster you call, remember there are seven of them and your chances of landing on one are 99 out of 100.

Cagers Break For Holidays; Sport Six Won, Three Lost

The Camp Lejeune basketball team takes a break for the Christmas holidays with a commendable 6 won 3 lost record and an 84.0 point average per game over a nine-game stretch.

The locals have racked up 268 field goals and 220 free throws for a total of 756 points. The opposition has recorded 735 points on 275 field goals and 185 foul shots for an 81.7 average per tilt.

The Leathernecks boast a 64.8 shooting average from the foul line with 220 one-pointers in 339 attempts. Opponents have hooped 185 free throws in 310 tries for a 59.7 average.

The top scoring output of the season thus far was the 109-point rout of MineLant, while Jackson swished the most points against Lejeune in a 98-83 victory.

Player-coach Nick Maguire has the high individual scoring average on the club with a 19.0 mark. The former Villanova star has accounted for 152 points in eight games.

Glen Bissell has scored the most points on the team, 158 in nine outings for a 17.6 average. Dick Harter is third with 117 in the same number of games for an 11.9 average.

Bissell also is the club's top foul shooter with 50 successes in 60 attempts for an 83.3 average, probably one of the highest in service court circles. He made 28 straight in one stretch.

Harter has made 31 of 43 for a 72.1 percentage and Maguire has hit 53 of 93 for 62.3 per cent.

The top individual scoring feat for Lejeune thus far was Maguire's 34-point output against PhibLant. Neild Gordon of Fort Jackson turned in the top performance against the locals when he flipped in 33 points.

Forward Red Hart's 22-point effort against Belmont Abbey in his second starting role ranks with the top individual performance of the season.

Lejeune, incidentally, has committed 177 personal fouls against 202 for the opposition.

Twenty-six games remain to be played on the Leatherneck's 35-game schedule. Their next appearance will be at Goettge Memorial field house on Jan. 6 against ServLant.

MCSS Leads Intramural Cage League

Marine Corps Supply Schools continued their domination of the Marine Corps Base intramural race last week when they extended their undefeated basketball string to five games.

Trailing Engineer School Bn. by four points in General's Cup Competition, with only the sports of basketball and table tennis to be completed, MCSS is making a full scale assault on the award.

With the 1954 section, which is one-third of the schedule, completed, MCSS has beaten Service Bn., Military Police Bn., Engineer School Bn., Rifle Range Detachment and Naval Hospital to outdistance the league.

While MCSS is getting by its opponents with ease the rest of the league is a toss-up between seven other teams.

Military Police Bn., with its only losses at the hands of MCSS and Headquarters Bn., is in second place with a three-won, two-lost record, while USNH, 3-3, Headquarters Bn. and Engineer School Bn., both two-wins, two-losses, are tied for third.

Rifle Range Detachment is in fourth place with a 2-3 record, followed by Service Bn. at two wins-four losses and First Infantry Trng. Regt. last with no wins in three games.

Glen Chandler Sets New TT Cage Mark To Pace Eightballs

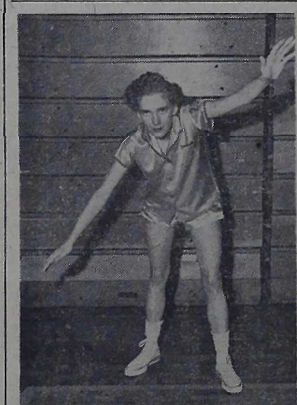

Peewee Pierce reached 39 points to set a short-lived new individual scoring mark in Tarawa Terrace Boy's league competition during the half of the Lejeune-Cherry Point game a week ago Wednesday, when he scored 18 points to lead the Yardbirds to a 24-6 rout of the Gizmos.

Connecting on nine out of 13 shots, Pierce briefly took over the league's scoring honors until the second game when Glen Chandler's four points led the Eightballs to an 8-2 upset victory over the league leading Bulldogs. Chandler's total is 40 points.

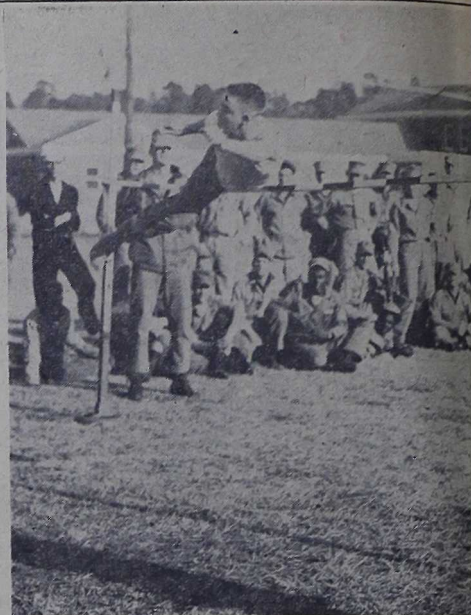

Winfree Abernathy was runner-up for scoring honors for the Yardbirds with four points, while Roger Frogner, Bill Sasser and Bob Dennis each had two points for the Gizmos.

John Bloom scored the Bulldogs' only two points.

Last week's action ended the competition for the Boys' league until Jan. 6.

Tankers And Radiomen Win Two To Pace Force Troops Basketball

Eighth Tank Bn. and 1st Radio Co. each won in the Force Troops Intramural Basketball League while MAG-26, 8th Communications Bn., 2nd Communications Group and 2nd ANGLICO won single games.

Eighth Tanks trounced 8th Motor Transport Bn. 100-55 for the highest point total so far in the season, and edged 2nd Amphibian Truck Co. 57-50.

Four of the starting quintet scored in double figures for the Tankers with Chet Topp, with 26, and Karl Fields, with 20, leading the way. Emanuel Reed notched 23 tallies in a losing cause.

The Truckers, without the services of their star center, Ewell Bencaz, who has 60 points in the three games he has played, came on fast in the third quarter and held a four-point lead after trailing by 12 markers.

The lead changed 11 times before the Tankers pulled ahead midway in the fourth frame.

Merlyn Feaster of Trucks was the game's high scorer with 20 and Don Schultz was one behind him to lead the Tankers.

First Radio Co. defeated the previously undefeated 8th Howitzer Btry. 58-48 and 2nd Topographic Co. 63-26 for a 3-1 record in league play.

The Radiomen trailed the Howitzers 28-24 at the end of the first half, but overcame the slim lead in the third frame. Knowles scored 19 points.

MAG-26 edged 2nd Communications Bn. 60-52 behind a point effort of Frank Seaman, 1st Lt. Fischer led the four radiomen in double figures with 19 points. Bob was outstanding for his high man for his 12.

The defending Camp 2nd Combat Service Group paced by Player-Coach had little trouble in Trucks their second season, 73-50. Likening points and his pass for many more two-pointers was the leading Truckers with 18.

Second ANGLICO was game by downing the aggressor-Smoke. Platoon 19.

WM Basketeers End Year Undefeated Open 1955 With Fort Bragg Jan

Camp Lejeune's WM cagers go into the new year undefeated with a 4-0 record. The WM's next contest was on Jan. 15 when they meet Fort Bragg.

Lejeune thus far has scored 92 field goals to their opponents' 57 and has completed 55 per cent of their foul shots to beat their opponents by an average of 26 points a game.

Lejeune, whose average height is 5 foot, 5 inches, seems to be on its way to another East Coast championship and possibly the All-Marine title. With four girls attaining an average of 10 points or better a game, and the defense limiting their highest scoring opponent to only 17 field goals, the team seems to be clicking as a unit.

Elsie Stephens, newcomer to the Lejeune scene, is high scorer with an average of 18.7 points per game. The consistent scoring of petite Peggy Jo Compton and playmaking by Patty Burbage—both with the same average—13.5—round out the well-balanced team.

Sparkling defensive work and smooth ball handling by the guards,

Pat Smeltz, Carol LeDarby, has proved a deciding factor in Lejeune's streak.

Lejeune, thus far, 56.7 points a game against opponents 30.7.

Lejeune has been 55 fouls in their while opposition has 67.

Lejeune, however, without its setbacks, it doesn't show in column. The team services of Guard through transfer to 1 January First String Smeltz will complete years and return to These two vacancies have to be filled before takes to the road on 29 for a return engagement the Norfolk WAVE's NAS.

IT CAN'T BE TRUE—Lt. (jg) Morrie Berkowitz, right, roars with laughter as his roommate, Lt. (jg) I. Rosenberg stares unbelievably at MSgt. Joseph Mole rising into the air apparently at Rosenberg's command. Part of the show put on by Hypnotist Mole for the Chanukah party that began the Feast of Lights at the Jewish chapel Sunday night, Rosenberg had been hypnotized into believing that his roommate was not in the room, and that he had the power to make an object rise or fall at his command (Official USMC Photo by Pfc Walter Klages).

FESTIVE SPIRIT—Displaying enough spirit for two Holiday Seasons are the Krazy Karbon Kopies as they go through a zany number in a laughter-packed program. Ron Klonek is under the bass, Tommy Sackley is on sax, Vic Dery is on drums, and Paul Disilets pounds the piano. The comedy quartet will be featured at Lejeune theaters today through Dec. 31 and will play seven dances at Marston Pavilion (Official USMC Photo).

Karbon Kopies Trio Booked For Holiday Tour Of Tri-Command Installations Here

Keeping pace with the festive air of the holiday season, the Karbon Kopies, acclaimed by critics as "a most hilarious comedy combo," will do a series of shows around Lejeune and dances at Marston Pavilion. Starting tonight they will commence seven evenings of dancing which will wind up with a gala New Year's Eve party at Marston.

This quartet that plays "with a big band quality" also will keep you in stitches with their comedy routines. They will be seen at the Camp theater and theaters at Montford Point, Courthouse Bay, Camp Geiger, Naval hospital, Rifle Range and 500 area.

The story of the Krazy Karbon Kopies is still new. They started briefly in 1951, only to stop after a successful six weeks when Ron Klonek, saxophone player and comedy writer was drafted. Reforming in 1953 after their pal's discharge, they have shifted from their original pantomime act to bank on their own talents in a live comedy combo.

This policy has paid off as the quartet is held over in city after city. In their first year they have been asked to stay over at the finish of each engagement.

A trio until a few days ago when they added another saxophonist, who also is their ballad singer, the outfit has perfected new material designed for a four-man setup. How heartily they throw themselves into their work was demonstrated at a show here at Lejeune when the new member Tommy Sackley jumped off the piano during a "wild" blues number and wrenched his leg and arm.

CHRISTMAS GIFT—Sure, we put the same label on our Hometown Pinup of Dec. 9, but what better way to describe the Christmas weekend bride-to-be of Pfc Bobby J. Johnson of the Camp Post Office? She's Miss Patricia Armstrong, she's 17, and she grew up in Fountain, S. C., just 20 miles from Bobby's hometown, Grayer. They met through mutual friends, he decided she was for him during boot camp, and they've been steady ever since. The honeymoon'll be delayed 'til February, though. Because of the Christmas rush, the PO can't give Johnson leave 'til after the holidays!

This Week's Movie Review

CRY DANGER (2½ Belts)

One for the armchair sleuths. A man is unjustly sentenced to prison along with a friend. He is cleared after five years and sets out to free his pal. Attempting this he is constantly dodging bullets and his pal's wife, who has fallen for him.

THE ATOMIC KID (1 Belt)

Mickey Rooney, the human dynamo, bounces his humorous way through every reel of this. Elaine Davis is around for an attractive eye rest between the Rooney take-offs.

VICTORY AT SEA (3 Belts)

A thrilling documentary of the British and American Navies during World War II. With an original and highly-praised musical score by Richard Rodgers of the Rodgers and Hammerstein team, it's a dramatic account of the roll played by our sea power from the beginning with the British in the Mediterranean, through the sub-pack battles of the Atlantic to the Guadalcanal landing and winding up with the Normandy beach-head.

THREE-RING CIRCUS (2½ Belts)

Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis take the big top apart with rib-tickling thoroughness. They take off on their antics in this one as pals just mustered out of the service who decide to give circus life a try. Jerry is not mis-cast as a clown, and Dean does his singing-straight-man role well. For an added eye-filled there are Zsa Zsa Gabor and Joanne Dru backed up by the entire Clyde Beatty circus—all in Technicolor.

SWORD'S POINT (2 Belts)

Ancient history on a horse, stars Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara.

BETRAYED (2½ Belts)

An adventure story of the Dutch underground in World War II, starring Clark Gable, Lana Turner and Victor Mature, where the betrayal is a military one. The obvious talents of La Turner are not stressed although she manages a routine romance with both heroes in the course of espionage.

BLACK 13 (British)

Crime on the campus. A bandit's getaway car is traced to the local college by a police undercover agent. He sets himself to bringing justice about by falling for the culprit's sister. As usual it is the fine character parts played by the supporting cast that carry the interest. Stars Peter Reynolds and Rona Anderson.

FEAR IN THE NIGHT (2 Belts)

A detective story, stars Paul Kelly.

PORT OF HELL (2 Belts)

Stars Dane Clark and Carole Matthews.

GONE WITH THE WIND (4 Belts)

Reissue.

Here is one film that makes common use of superlatives in any description. Although it's running time is close to four hours, there isn't a scene you can honestly say is wasted. Clark Gable and Vivian Leigh star in this grand account of the South before and during the civil war, which has won more awards than any other picture.

CRY VENGEANCE (2½ Belts)

Mark Stevens, the Martin Kane of TV, earns the plaudits in this tense film that lets you observe an ex-cop who appears to be out for revenge. He has just been released after three years in prison on a frame-up that killed his wife and child and left his face a mass of scar tissue. Filmed along the waterfronts of San Francisco and Ketchikan, Alaska, this one is as rough as the locations.

GIVE A GIRL A BREAK (1½ Belts)

A movie high lighted with the dancing of Marge and Gower Champion that concerns itself with not one but three highly deserving young ladies. All three are out to secure the lead part in the same play. The production numbers all take off from this plot. It's capable, but nothing to get charged about. Debbie Reynolds and Helen Wood compete with

Mrs. Champion.
