Jacksonville Airport May Get Airline Passenger Service

Trial airline passenger service out of Jacksonville airport could be in operation by the first of the year if current negotiations continue, Airport Owner Samuel A. Munch told the GLOBE Tuesday.

Munch said he has had verbal agreement from Tom Davis, president of Piedmont Airlines of Winston-Salem, N. C., that, "If we extend the runway, they will come in on a trial basis."

Munch said plans already have been established to add 1,500 feet to the present 3,000-foot airstrip as well as to improve other airport facilities if the project goes through. He added he also has been in contact with National Airlines and has hopes that a third line, Capital, also might consider serving the local area. More than 3,000 airline tickets were sold to local marines last

Installed as vice president was SSgt. James P. Carroll Jr. of "B" Co., 2nd Shore Party Bn.

Also installed was a nine-member board of governors, including six newly-elected members and three former members. Five members of this panel represent the 2nd Division and the other four represent Marine Corps Base.

The three reelected members are MSgt. E. Terry, 2nd Shore Party Bn.; MSgt. J. S. Grimm and MSgt. George B. Detrick, both of Service Bn., and TSgt. J. W. McCandless of MP Bn.

The remaining six members are MSgt. P. E. Murphy, 2nd Tank Bn.; TSgt. J. Dancy, 8th Tank Bn.; HMC M. F. Kelly, 2nd Medical Bn.; MSgt. James O. Landrum, Second Marines; MSgt. D. S. Moore, Service Bn., and TSgt. J. W. McCandless of MP Bn.

Potkonski's first official act as president was to appoint TSgt. William B. Kuhl of MP Bn. as club secretary.

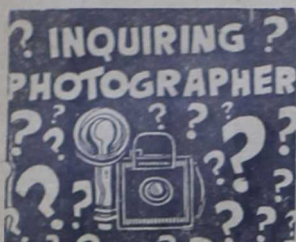

The installation of officers was followed by an "on the house" party and dancing to the Division orchestra.

AS A MARINE, DO YOU FIND IT HARD TO KEEP UP WITH CURRENT EVENTS?

SGT. WILLIAM JOHNSON, 1ST BN., EIGHTH MARINES — I don't think it's too hard to keep up with the news. I read the GLOBE regularly so this keeps me up to date on my Marine Corps news. The best way to "keep up" with the news, I find, is to listen to the "scoop" from the messmen. They seem to know just about all there is to know.

SGT. D. J. BARROSSE, 1ST BN., EIGHTH MARINES — No, it isn't hard to keep up with current events. After all, we have radios, newspapers and television. With all these, it isn't very hard at all. Then you have "scuttlebutt" — this isn't always reliable but it helps. All in all, I think that there is really no difficulty to keep up with the news.

PFC PHILIP BENVENUTO, 1ST BN., EIGHTH MARINES — No, I can honestly say that I don't find it hard to keep up with current events. I listen to the radio during the day when I can and read the newspapers. At night I look at television. These methods will keep you pretty "hep" to what is going on in the "outside."

PFC DANIEL O'LEARY, 1ST BN., EIGHTH MARINES — I can keep up with current events pretty well by reading the newspapers and listening to the radio. At night I sometimes look at television. These things keep me pretty well informed as to what is going on. I have local papers sent from home so these keep me informed as to what is happening in my own locality.

SGT. RICHARD G. BYNION, 1ST BN., EIGHTH MARINES — No, I haven't much trouble keeping up with current events. There are a sufficient number of radios around to keep me pretty well informed as to what is happening. Then again, I go home almost every weekend and get the scoop that I might have missed while I was here. I think it is pretty easy to keep up with current events if you really want to.

Leatherneck Holds Lyrics Contest For Hymn About Corps

Leatherneck magazine and the Marine Corps band are sponsoring a contest to find appropriate words for a newly-written hymn. A prize of $250 is offered for the winning lyrics.

The hymn, originally entitled, "God's Marines," was written by Mrs. John Powell of Decatur, Ga., in memory of her son, Pfc William N. Powell who died in Korea. When Lt. Col. William F. Santleman, leader of the Marine band, received the piece of music it should be played during the Marine Corps' two Jima Memorial dedication ceremonies. At that time the new lyrics will be sung by a soloist.

The title of the hymn has been changed to "Heaven's Scenes," and the lyrics to be submitted should serve as a tribute to all Marines. The hymn needs two verses, with the last refrain repeated. A copy of the score is available to interested contestants who write to Leatherneck, P. O. Box 1918, Washington 13, D. C.

Deadline is Oct. 1, 1954. A panel of judges from the Marine band will select the winning entry, which will be announced in the November Anniversary issue of Leatherneck. Members of the U. S. Marine band and the staff of Leatherneck are not eligible.

Entries should be addressed to: Hymn Contest, Leatherneck Magazine, P. O. Box 1918, Washington 13, D. C.

Force Troops Bridge Builders Do Job In Cloud Of Smoke

BY CPL. DON W. SHARPE

Cooperation between units is essential for successful combat operations and two Force Troops units have carried out peace-time training schedules far enough to produce a day which closely simulates actual combat situations.

The newly-organized 1st Provisional Smoke Platoon, under the command of 1st Lt. Conway J. Smith, journeyed from Camp Geiger to Montford Point Wednesday last week where they provided a dense smoke screen that masked the training operations of the Fixed and Floating Bridge Platoon.

The 13 officers and men of the platoon "held school" for 24 Marines of the 2nd Engineer Bn. under a new concept of training which states it is more practical for bridge platoon men to supply technical advice and equipment rather than build the bridges themselves.

The Bridge Platoon is part of Force Troop's 8th Engineer Bn. and is commanded by 2nd Lt. Joe Stenzel who is responsible for more than a million dollars worth of equipment and three different types of foot and equipment bridges.

The exercise, held at Wilson Bay near the bridge compound, consisted of assembling and decking a 50-ton capacity floating bridge, moving it into position by sections, connecting it and moving heavy equipment across — all under a complete fog of smoke generated by generators from the Corps Reserve Platoon.

The difficulty in moving the six-foot wide bridge was increased by the fact that the visibility was reduced to a few feet. However, the primary purpose of the exercise was to test the ability of the bridge builders from "enemy" units to effectively accomplish their task.

The smoke generators, which are capable of producing a large area of smoke on an island or in the sea on the beach, are used by three rubber rafts which are attached to the aluminum alloy beams. The bridge is in position by ropes and the sections to twin cables along the bridge and sections on shore.

As soon as the bridge is completed, heavy equipment is moved across still under the smoke, ending a training exercise which benefited the troops in the area. The exercise proved the value of the bridge as well as combat cooperation between units.

WET WORK—Waders attach towing lines to two bridge sections. Men of the Bridge Platoon, secure the sections together prior to moving them into position. The "fog" which covers the area was produced by the 1st Provisional Smoke Platoon, which journeyed from Camp Geiger to Montford Point last Wednesday to participate in the exercise (Official USMC Photo by Cpl. Don W. Sharpe).

Planning To Bring Your Car On Base? Follow These Rules For Legal Driving

Planning to bring your car aboard?

Here's what you'll have to do to be eligible for base tags by the time your 15-day sticker expires:

First, that 15-day sticker is not renewable. If an auto owner can't comply with the regulations within that first period, he must move his car off base until he becomes eligible for base tags.

To pick up your tags, check in at the Pass and ID desk in Bldg. 11, next to the Camp Photo lab on Post Lane. Present your "satisfactory" proof of ownership—registration card, title or bill of sale—or, if not owner, notarized written permission from owner in duplicate (not necessary from wife or husband).

Also be prepared to present an insurance policy covering the minimum $5,000/$10,000/$5,000 personal injury and property damage insurance on your car written by a commercial company licensed by a state or the District of Columbia.

Present a valid state motor vehicle operator's permit that will entitle you to the free issuance of a Camp permit. Bring proof that your car has passed the Camp safety inspection at the Post Exchange gas station in the Industrial area or at one of the five authorized inspection stations in Jacksonville.

Finally, check Chapter 5 of the Camp Regulations for rules for auto owners and operators.

When you get your tags, fasten them securely. Poorly fastened plates are the chief reason for tags reported lost, according to MSgt. George Hartman, NCO in charge of the Pass and ID section of the Provost Marshal's office.

2nd Division Ass'n Elects Genge Prexy At Diego Meet

SAN DIEGO—Three hundred and 50 members of the 2nd Marine Division Association gathered here July 16, 17 and 18 for the organization's fifth annual reunion and elected Hugo Genge of Chicago their new president.

Genge succeeds Mike A. Boyle of St. Louis who presided over the reunion. Genge was formerly vice-president.

The meet began with a parade. Battle flags of the Division and its units which won Presidential Unit citations were flown in the parade for the first time since World War II.

Among the marchers was Col. Henry P. Crowe, a Division hero of the Pacific war who now commands H&S Bn., MCB, San Diego.

Later in the day the members were on the reviewing stand as 2,000 Recruit Depot marines passed in review. Lt. Gen. Julian C. Smith (Ret.), commander of the Division at Tarawa, was reviewing officer.

Principal speakers at the Association's annual dinner and dance were F. J. McKinney, representing New Zealand's ambassador to the United States, and Louis Gough, former commander of the American Legion.

A check for $4,500 was presented to the association's scholarship fund from the sale of the Tenth Anniversary edition of the book, "Tarawa, Story Of A Battle." The money will go to provide a college education for children of 2nd Division men killed in action.

A memorial service for Division dead was conducted on the last day of the convention by the Rev. William Lumpkin who served as Division chaplain during World War II. The services were held at Rosecrans National cemetery while jet fighters from El Toro flew overhead in the formation of a cross.

Here's A Reminder On Pair Of Rules

Failure on the part of many local motorists to heed a pair of rules has brought this reminder from Camp Traffic Officer 2nd Lt. Edward J. Chapman:

1. The flashing red light on an approaching vehicle means it is on emergency duty. Slow down and PULL OFF onto the shoulder of the road until the vehicle has passed.

2. The no-passing zone still is in force in the Magazine area on Sneads Ferry road between Main Service road and Marines road.

School Days

Camp School Opens Sept. 8; Enrollment Due August 27

The "Three R's" will ride again at Camp Lejeune when the local Children's school opens for its 1954-55 season at 8:45 a. m. September 8.

Enrollment will be held for all grades on Friday, August 27, with grades 1 and 2 enrolling at Midway Park, grades 3, 4, 5 and 6 in the Camp School annex and grades 7 through 12 in the Camp Junior and Senior High school building 40. Surnames A through K will register in the morning; L through Z in the afternoon.

Children who will be six years of age by January 1 may be en- rolled in the first grade only during the first six weeks of school. A birth certificate must be presented at the time of the enrollment of first graders.

Eligible to enroll are children who live in MOQ's, Midway Park, Piney Green, Tarawa Terrace, Camp Knox Trailer Park and Camp Geiger Trailer Park and who are dependents of military personnel or have a parent or guardian em- ployed by the government.

Hot lunches will be available, and bus transportation will be provided.

Cpl. Joyce Francoeur, Cpl. Eli- zabeth Whitaker, Pfc Patsy Mc- Cune and Pfc Lorreta Borowski are being released under the marriage bill. Sgt. Martha Robin- son was discharged Saturday upon completion of her enlist- ment.

MSgt. Margaret Goings, after al- most 10 years in the Corps, re- quested her release in order to at- tend school in California. Sgt. Go- ings plans to study veterinary medicine. As you may recall, Sgt. Goings was the first woman ever to become first sergeant of a male Marine company at Lejeune. She was first sergeant of Headquarters Co., MCB.

Pfc Margie Pleszko was wed recently to Cpl. Richard Martin, Hq. Co., Hq. Bn., MCB, in a dou- ble-ring ceremony in Jackson- ville. Mrs. Robert E. Ouellette, Court Recorder's office, was ma- tron of honor and Cpl. Charles Cooper, Hq. Bn., was best man.

The bride wore a white cotton dress with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in rhinestones and wore a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Ouel- lette wore a dress of red and white dotted swiss with white accessor- ies.

The couple will make their home in Midway Park.

The WM picnic last Thursday proved to be a big success with a turnout of approximately 250. The girls "dug in" and enjoyed them- selves. Some of the braver ones went swimming while the others were content to lounge on the beach.

WAVE's Celebrate 'Golden Hashmark' Birthday At Party

Camp Lejeune WAVES celebrat- ed their 12th anniversary Tuesday last week with a party at Marston Pavilion.

The anniversary took on special significance as it was the "golden hash mark" year. WAVE's with the required amount of service may now wear the three gold hash marks denoting 12 year's good con- duct.

After brief ceremonies and congratulations by Capt. E. V. Hightower, Naval hospital com- mander, Mary E. A. Price, HM3, cut the first piece from the gaily decorated cake. She is the sen- ior Lejeune WAVE. She has been in the Navy since November, 1951, and has been stationed here for 26 months.

WAVE's attended the party in dress whites.

Following the ceremonies, dance music was supplied by the "Serenaders," a Division combo.

Twenty-seven WAVE's are cur- rently here. They serve as Corps- WAVE's at the Naval hospital and as dental technicians at the Dis- pensary.

Former Pfc O'Brien Wed To Sgt. Faust In Catholic Rites

Sgt. Harold P. Faust Jr., Service Co., Service Bn., MCB, was wed to the former Pfc Clare O'Brien, WM Co., at a Nuptial Mass in the Catholic chapel at 9 a. m. Saturday. Chaplain Raymond Beane performed the ceremony.

The bride selected a white, ballerina-length gown of nylon net over taffeta and crinoline. The gown featured a fitted lace bodice with matching bolero and a half hat with a finger-tip nylon net veil. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias trimmed with streamers.

Attending the bride was Patricia Faust, sister of the groom. She wore a street length gown of lime nylon with matching bolero and carried a bouquet of pink carnations trimmed with lime satin streamers. The best man was Joel Harlocker of Charlotte, N. C.

The couple will reside in Mid- way Park after their honeymoon.

WEDDED BLISS—Sgt. and Mrs. Harold P. Faust Jr. smile brightly as they leave the Catholic chapel Saturday after speaking marriage vows at a Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Faust is the former Pfc Clare O'Brien of WM Co. Sgt. Faust is a member of Service Co., Service Bn., MCB (Official USMC Photo).

Lejeune Ends Month Of July With No Traffic Fatalities

—headline

Feel safe, marine?

You've a right to—in a way. Your post—Camp Lejeune—is one of the safest in the nation. Traffic accidents for the year are running almost 100 under the figure for the same period last year. The local command has just passed the month of July without a single traffic fatality, despite the two forecasts by the Camp Traffic office, and despite the fact that the month included the traditionally deadly Fourth of July weekend.

Sure, you've a right to feel safe—but not TOO safe, because the conditions that produced the 11 deaths already on the books this year still exist—and how!

Hundreds of liberty-bound marines still clog the highways every weekend, still trying to go too far too fast, still forced to burn up the road on the return trip to make Monday morning muster.

Speed and fatigue: these are the killers.

So take it easy. Don't be one of the two fatalities predicted for the month of August. Don't push yourself so far that your reflexes fail; that your eyes refuse to focus; that you endanger not only your own life, but the lives of your passengers and of those in other vehicles.

The odds are with you because you're being protected by a top-notch traffic safety crew. But don't push your luck too far. When in doubt, slow down. When too hazy to think about it: stop!

The Old Corps

Ten years ago this week:

Lejeune's Coast Guard unit joined the rest of the service in celebrating the CG's 154th birthday (August 4).

Cpl. Fred Lasswell, cartoonist who draws Barney Google and Snuffy Smith, stopped off at Lejeune on his way to Parris Island. He was gathering material for his new comic strip for Leatherneck. The name of the strip? "Hashmark." Remember it?

The GLOBE had an editorial condemning "necking in public."

Lt. Gen Robert Kho-Shang-Lim, chief of the Supervising and Planning commission of the Chinese army arrived here to make a two-week tour of the base. His purpose: to visit Navy-Marine medical installations and to formulate a medical program for the Chinese army.

Brig. Gen. Field Harris was named director of the Division of Aviation, USMC, succeeding Brig. Gen. Louis E. Woods.

TWENTY-ONE AND OUT—CWO Frank R. Railsback, right, receives his release papers from Col. A. F. Penzold Jr., commanding officer of 2nd Service Bn. ### A PAIR OF SCISSORS

You say there's a God, Father, but I have one good reason to believe no such person, or being, exists." So I said, "Okay, what's your reason?" The sailor most seriously said, "If a God exists, whom you say is all loving, all kind, all merciful, how come the world is so all fouled up today with one nation ready to cut the other nation's throat or stick a knife in their back as soon as it's turned? If your God really exists, how come He let the whole world get fouled up by having two world wars in which hundreds of thousands got killed and millions were made to suffer. Go ahead, let's hear your reason why the good God allows such stuff to go on."

As soon as this question was popped, in fact long before the sailor was finished, my memory was taking me back to the day when I was sitting in a barber's chair getting a shave and a haircut. My Roman collar was off and my neighbor in the next seat had no idea I was a priest. He just proposed this problem to the barber and I figured to myself, "Oh boy, here we go again," but I didn't have to open my mouth because the Italian barber gave this guy the best explanation in un-theological language that I have ever heard. I wish I could repeat it word for word, but I'll try in this article to summarize what he said in more or less his language.

"Kick about the world being in a mess. Who put it that way? God? Don't be stupid. It's us human beings who made the world the way it is today. Full of jealousy, hatred, bigotry, lust and all the other stinking things you hate so much. When God created the world and put Adam and Eve into their little garden it must have been some place! Imagine everything you could want right at your doorstep and a special connection with the Big Shot when you need Him. What more could a guy want, I ask you? Nothing, but were Adam and Eve satisfied? Naw, they had to do the one thing they weren't supposed to do and everything went wrong and you blame it on God.

"Let's look at it this way, Mac, when God created everything it was pretty good to look at. Like a beautiful 12x12 Chinese rug, but God gave to those who lived on that rug a pair of scissors apiece. You know what those scissors represent,

Mac? Free will, that's what you got. You can go and come when you want, you can sin or be good.

"There ain't a guy in the world who can force you to do what you don't want. You can keep the rug nice and neat or you can use those scissors to cut the thing up into a mess. That is how we've used our free will. We've cut and hacked the world into a mess.

"You're the skipper of your ship. You are the complete boss of your destiny. How are you making out? You want to know why the world is in such a sorry mess, well, ask yourself a few questions. 'What am I doing to make it better? Do I secretly nurse hatred or am I bigoted against someone of a different religion? Would I be willing to lay down my life for an ideal I believe in?' United Nations, phooey! Make it United Humans, and then you got something, because nations is made up of guys like you and me!

"It's not God, Mac, that makes the world what it is. It's us. Yeah, you and me. Want a shave now?"

—Father H. T. Lavin,
Tenth Marines.

MAINTENANCE OF RADIO JEEPS is a vital part of the work of the Division Signal Repair shop, charged with the repair of all 2nd Division communications equipment. Here Pfc F. R. Feblinger of the repair shop staff does repairs on a jeep deep in the boondocks...

... Keep Division Radio On The Air With Skilled Electronics Maintenance

V. GEDRICH repairs M-3 mine detector, one of many devices of this type repaired daily by the Division Signal Repair shop...

"Better take it down to the signal repair shop."

This is the word you may hear in the 2nd Division when some type of electronic device goes AWOL from service—which means the equipment may be taken to the Division Signal Repair shop in Bldg. 905. There units of the Division will find 2nd Lt. M. A. Soper and his crew of 30 ready to help.

The shop is equipped and staffed to repair almost any electronic device, including public address equipment, telephones and field phones, switchboards and vehicle equipment. The maintenance of Division radio jeeps is a steady project of the shop.

Stumped by a given job, the staff can dig into its electronics library, do a bit of research work, and the defect is quickly handled.

In combat, the duty of signal repair is to maintain continuous communications and do echelon maintenance.

Some men are assigned to the signal repair shop after completion of a 24-week course at the Electronic Training schools at Great Lakes, Ill., or San Diego, Calif. Most of the personnel, however, come straight from boot camp.

Personnel are assigned one of five MOS numbers: 2600, basic electronics; 2611, radio repairman; 2619 radio technician; 2636, telephone repairman or 2639, telephone technician.

Individual duties at the shop are at the discretion of the Division Signal officer. Average GCT of a signal repairman is 120.

When a man is assigned to the shop he begins a month's training under the supervision of Staff Sergeants W. E. Hill and A. H. Renken. He then is assigned to an AN/PRC-19 radio set to master its every part. After this training he is started on small jobs. When he shows progress, he is moved up to major jobs.

An example of the adjustment a man can make in signal repair is Pfc W. B. Moore, assigned to the shop five months ago with no experience in the field. Now Moore is able to repair almost any article assigned him. "He has made outstanding progress in the past few months," Lt. Soper said. He expects assignment to an electronics school later this year.

Well-versed in all phases of electronics, Lt. Soper has six years with the Corps. He enlisted in January, 1948, and in five years was a tech sergeant. He was commissioned here in March, 1953.

MSgt. R. C. Sturgis is NCO-in-charge of the shop.

Lejeune Splits Final Series With Eustis

In their final two games of the year, the Camp Lejeune nine split with Fort Eustis, taking the first 4-3, but losing the season's finale 6-2.

Thursday night's encounter saw the Leathernecks pound out six hits for four runs in the sixth inning to come from behind for their 24th win of the season.

Stan Horvatin went all the way for Lejeune, giving up five hits and three runs to Eustis in the fifth. It was his 11th win of the season against 14 defeats.

Friday night Lejeune Coach Maj. Arthur Weddell tried to fulfill the wishes of two men making their final appearance in Marine Corps baseball by awarding them pitching assignments.

Weddell gave the starting nod to Ralph Russo, but the versatile Lejeune player didn't have it. Fort Eustis picked up one run in the top of the first but Lejeune tied the score in their initial times at bat when Jim Given stole home. However, the Wheels turned got four runs on four hits, a walk and an error in the second inning.

Dave Petros came on in the third for Lejeune and handled the mound chores as capable as any pitcher Coach Weddell has started this year. Although he gave up one unearned run in the third, he limited Eustis to just four hits in the seven innings he worked.

Lejeune got its final run of the season in the fourth inning when Dan Smigay walked, and singles by Charlie Chronopoulos and Steve Reich brought him across.

PI WM's Take East Coast Title

Parris Island's Women Marine softball team came through with two big runs in the top of the seventh inning to nip Lejeune's WM's 7-5 and win the Eastern Women Marine softball title, here Sunday.

Making it a complete sweep for Parris Island diamond teams this year, the Island Women Marines broke a 5-5 tie to hand Lejeune their fourth loss in Marine competition against four wins.

Lejeune dropped a pair at the Depot and split with Cherry Point at the Air Station while taking Parris Island here two weeks ago and sweeping a two-game series from the Flyers.

'I Will Back Athletics' At Camp Lejeune, General Puller Tells Baseball Banquet

With a speech in which he said, "As long as I'm here on post I will back athletics," Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Puller, commanding general of Marine Corps Base and the 2nd Division, highlighted the combined banquet given for the Camp Baseball team and the Women Marine softball team at the Chinese room of the Camp Cafeteria Monday.

Some 50 athletes and dignitaries gave their approval to the speech destined to give a morale boost to Lejeune's athletes and fans.

General Puller said he is a firm believer in athletics and will do all in his power to help Lejeune's sports program.

General Puller went on to say he doesn't think any type of athletics develops a man more than baseball "Take a baseball player out to the rifle range and you can develop him into an expert rifleman within a week. You can't do that with the participants of other sports."

Athletics is good training, said Gen. Puller, but in order to win battles you have to absorb more than athletic training.

General Puller disclosed that since he left here nine and a half years ago he has been disappointed that Lejeune hasn't turned out more championship teams.

However, he quickly pointed out that it is up to everyone here to "develop the material we've got."

Lt. Col. Sidney J. Altman, Camp Special Services officer, acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Lejeune Baseball Coach Arthur Weddell congratulated the team for the job they did during the season—saying "You've all done a wonderful job, and in times to come when you carry a rifle instead of a baseball glove you won't find the odds any greater than we faced this year."

The banquet concluded with the presentation of trophies to the members of both teams.

Tenth, 2nd Med Win In Softball

The Tenth Marines and the 2nd Medical Bn. were winners in first-round 2nd Division championship softball play Monday when the Tenth beat 2nd Service Bn. 3-1 and the Medics beat the Second Marines 10-2.

Teams entered in the double-elimination tournament scheduled to end tomorrow, include the Second, Sixth and Tenth Marines the 2nd Service Bn., winner of the Group I league, and the 2nd Med Bn., winner of Group II.

Golf Women Play Paradise Pro On 'Beat Ducky Day'

It was "Beat Ducky Miller day" on the No. 2 golf course at Paradise Point Tuesday as members of the Ladies' Golf Association played to better the local pro's score of 36 over the back nine holes.

There was no winner in Class A as Mrs. G. A. Sharit came out runner-up to Miller with 47-7-40 in the match, which was played at one-half handicap for the women.

In Class B Mrs. Ann Linker scored 50-15-35 and runner-up was Mrs. A. L. Lindall, 49-13 and a half-35 and a half. Class C winner was Mrs. L. A. St. Jeor, 54-21-33; runner-up was Mrs. L. L. Ball, 58-24-34.

Mrs. Ruth Rapp tallied the least number of putts for the nine holes in Class D when she dropped 20.

RIFLE RANGE

The 2nd Division upped its rifle qualification percentage for the year from 80 per cent to 81 per cent at the rifle range last week as Division men again fired top scores on rifle and pistol.

High on the rifle with 234 of 250 was Sgt. R. R. Chabot of the Tenth Marines. High pistol score was by 2nd Lt. A. L. Forbes of the 2nd Engineer Bn.

In other rifle qualification percentages for the year, Marine Corps Base stood at 82.1 and Force Troops at 80.3. In pistol Force Troops has qualified 87.1 per cent this year, MCB, 81.2 and the Division, 73.3.

Jack Haver

Jack Cassidy of "C" Co., 2nd Tank Bn., utility player of the baseball team, has been named coach of the Camp Lejeune-Cherry Point team which will represent Fleet Atlantic, at the Atlantic Fleet tournament at Little Rock, Mo. The Marine team will be defending the title won in 1953.

SPORTS STATISTICS YOU SHOULD KNOW
The time it takes the average relief pitcher to amble from the bullpen his whiskers sprout .0743 of an inch. The interval between rounds in a 60 seconds, 58 of which are devoted to commercials.

Given most frequently by Lejeune personnel for not being able to win the athletic events was eliminated last week. The "an-clothes" order had such an overwhelming effect on the last two baseball games was up one game.

Among them was the fact that the Islanders baseball team cinched the title last Sunday. The Islanders baseball team cinched the title last Sunday.

Jones, Lejeune's football coach, said that he won't have a hair over this year's football team, but that it could be cold fall and winter that he has already invested in long red flannels.

in $100 some Saturday or Sunday? The New Topsail Fishing pier are offering this amount at lands the first tarpon fish, from the pier, weighing 11-14 record.

Lieutenants from Engineer School Bn. are the latest fail. F. E. Paige Jr. took leave to go after a tarpon but was disappointed.

Paige, battled a tarpon from the pier for 150 yards before he got away. With the first bite, 150 yards of line went zinging out. Paige spliced the line to his car that was gone added another section, before the fish flight.

With solidly hooked, it was a battle of endurance. Unable to in, Evans backed over two roads and up onto the bank with his fish in tow. With the tarpon almost on the bank, an end friction snapped the line and the fish took.

FT Softball Crown At Stake As Hq. Co. Plays 2nd AmTrac

Headquarters Co., Force Troops, and the 2nd AmTrac Bn. will meet for the third time Wednesday at Camp Geiger with the intramural softball crown at stake.

In the first game two weeks ago Hq. Co. beat the AmTracs, 4-3, but the game was cancelled when an AmTrac protest, resulting from an umpire's decision, was upheld by the Force Troops Special Services officer.

The protested game was played last Wednesday night and it went 11 innings without a decision as each team scored seven runs before the game was called because of darkness.

Headquarters Co. held a 5-1 lead in the fourth inning but AmTrac tied it up in their half on four errors by Hq. Co. Headquarters Co. was trailing by one run in the last inning but they tied it up seven all.

The game's most spectacular play occurred in the last of the seventh when with one out and AmTrac runners on second and third, Kaugh caught a fly ball deep in center field and made a tremendous throw to Wargo, Hq. Co.'s catcher, to double up the runner trying to score from third after the catch.

For the next four innings both teams remained scoreless until the game was called. Creamer, who hit a home run, went all the way for Hq. Co. as did Long for the AmTracs.

Camp Skeeters Win Cotton States Open, Lose To Fort Jackson Over Weekend

Camp Lejeune's National Champion Skeet team was charged with its second loss of the season last Sunday but picked up its 12th win of the current campaign Saturday in the Great Cotton States Open at Spartanburg, S. C.

Led by Capt. Hank Stowers and MSgt. C. R. Wingard, the skeeters won over a field of 26 teams Saturday when they fired a 483x500 in an electrical storm.

Stowers and Wingard tied with 99x100 for the individual honors, but Wingard won the shoot-off. In the last match for Capt. Billie Loos as a representative for Camp Lejeune on Sunday, Fort Jackson nipped Lejeune by two targets.

Jackson fired a 481x500 while Lejeune slipped to a 479x500.

Lejeune's first loss after compiling 23 straight wins was at the hands of Jacksonville Naval Air Station last month, but the 12 wins the team accumulated so far this year have been over a total of 421 service and civilian teams.

(Lt. Crook is on leave. This week his column is conducted by MSgt. Bruce Earhardt.)

Thirty new members of the Fish and Wildlife club were among the many who filled themselves to capacity on shrimp, crab and fish Saturday night last week at the club's fish-fry. At 5:30 that afternoon the shrimp boat owned by CWO's Sparrow, Gottshalk and Mikel unloaded four bushels of crabs; one bushel of shrimp and a bushel and a half of flounder, croaker and spot. Waiting for the load were pots of boiling water, Potato salad, potato chips, pickles and liquid refreshments rounded out the feast. After the big feed, members enjoyed the famous Navy film, "Victory at Sea." According to Club President Capt. R. L. Shuford, fish fries will be held frequently in the future.

Next time your travels take you toward Courthouse Bay, turn in at the sign, "Fish and Wildlife Club." Take a look around. It will all be yours if you become a member.

STRIPED BASS
Striped bass will be hitting in the Scuppernon river area soon. For fresh water fishermen the south shore country of Albemarle sound will provide innumerable spots for excellent fishing. The Alligator river, Scuppernon river and a small body off the Alligator called the "frying pan," are all well known to ardent anglers of the Carolinas.

SMALL FRY TAKE NOTE
Lt. Col. Stan Low, Supply officer, Force Troops, deserves two whoops and a holler from the members and children of the Fish and Wildlife club. (Especially the children.) Colonel Low donated an "out-door playground" for the little folk. With swings, rings, ladder and see-saw, the young ones find plenty to occupy them while Mom and Dad enjoy themselves with the other club facilities. Hats off to Colonel Low.

INTERESTING FACTS DEPARTMENT
We wonder sometimes at our inability to catch fish. We are superior human beings. They are just dumb fish! Dumb? I wonder. They have the senses—sight, hearing, smell, taste and feel. Add to that a sixth sense, a sort of built-in radar. That lateral line that runs the length of most fish is a row of nerve ends that feel movement yards away from the fish. The smooth, naked skin of the catfish has taste buds in it. He can "taste" that bait on your hook though it may be several feet behind him. Perhaps we should consider whether or not we are a worthy opponent.

The hiss of a turtle is not a warning signal or a danger sign. It's caused by the turtle's breath being forced out suddenly to make room for its indrawn head inside its shell.

Tenth Marines Win Division Baseball Championship Title

The Tenth Marines overpowered all opposition in the 2nd Division Intramural baseball tournament last week to cop the Division title and win a berth in the Camp championship being played this week.

Headquarters Bn. gained second place when they were defeated twice by the Tenth 13-5 and 8-4.

The Cannoners won the title last week when they defeated Headquarters Bn. for the second time. Claude Evatt gave up but six hits to Headquarters, while his teammates clubbed Bob Boehme for 10. Jim Starcevic and George Gracie hit for extra bases to give Tenth Marines the victory.

After the game Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Puller, 2nd Division commander, presented the championship trophy to Maj. William J. Kohler, executive officer, 1st Bn., of the regiment. Both the Tenth and runner-up Hq. Bn. represent the Division in the Camp championships being played this week.

CANCELLED
Sorry, the "A.A.U. Synchronized Swimmers" were unable to appear at Camp Lejeune last Monday because pools were closed for "draining and cleaning".

Hundred Fighters Entered In Divvy Boxing Tourney

Avid participation and interest in the 2nd Division's boxing tourney, which gets under way at 7 p.m. Monday, is keeping 2nd Lt. Mike Capriano and his staff of coaches and trainers busier than a BAR man with a misfire in a fire fight.

Camp Meets J'ville As Golf Takes Over Local Sports Scene

With the passing of baseball and only a pre-dawn outlook on football, golf takes over the sport spotlight for the next few weeks with plenty of action slated for the Paradise Point course.

Competition gets under way Sunday when a 24-man team from Jacksonville invades the base for the first annual match between Lejeune and the neighboring town. Tee-off time is 1 p.m.

Saturday August 14 is the date set for the first Triangular match between Lejeune, Cherry Point and Parris Island.

Lejeune will send an eight-man team against the best the Depot and the Air Station have to offer in a tournament that has the possibility of becoming a round robin affair.

Last Monday 12 men were picked to represent Lejeune, an eight-man team plus four alternates, in the August 14 tournament. They were: Col. M. I. Shuford, Maj. P. W. Stark, Capt. W. S. Anthony, Lt. Louis Brown, Lt. G. M. Christ, Lt. T. Allen, CWO V. P. Garrison, MSgt. J. B. Broadus, TSgt. J. D. Spencer, TSgt. S. Burek, Pfc Paul Williams and HM F. Stoffel.

"Forty-nine more participants are needed to make the Pro-Amateur Tournament August 19 a success," MSgt. J. B. Broadus, NCO in charge of the golf course, said last Monday.

The tournament committee is striving to team each two amateurs with a professional in the all-day affair.

year, according to Joseph S. Garganus, manager of the Joint Airline Military Ticket office here, with more than 75 per cent going to enlisted men. Garganus said overall sales at the local office average more than 400 a month.

Air travellers now must make connections at Wilmington, New Bern or Kinston, Garganus said. He said National, Piedmont and Capital Airlines between them operate more than 20 scheduled flights from Raleigh, New Bern, Kinston and Wilmington that might be altered to include the local field.

BOATHOUSE CLOSING

Because of the water skiing show the Wallace creek boathouse will be closed Sunday.

More than 100 hopefuls are working out at the Goettge Memorial field house daily and Capriano expects his crew to be in top shape for the opening bouts.

There will be 10 weight divisions and entries are unlimited in each division. The tourney will run through Friday.

The winner and runner-up in each division will receive a trophy. The winning team and the outstanding boxer of the tourney will also receive trophies provided by Division Special Services. Lt. Capriano, camp boxing coach, will referee the bouts.

New foamite ring covering, the same used for championship fights in Madison Square Garden, will be employed for the protection of the fighters. New gloves and new composition head gear also will be featured.

So, if it's boxing you like, the Division boxing tourney will provide plenty of hard fast action.

MC Supply Schools, 10th Marines Win In Camp Tourney

The Tenth Marines and Marine Corps Supply School teams continue to display the talent which won them their unit titles when both won opening games in the Camp baseball championships Tuesday.

After drawing a bye in the first round the Tenth beat Force Troops' Combat Service Group 7-6.

Tuesday morning the Marine Corps Supply Schools beat the 8th Engineers, Force Troops' runners up, 16-2.

In the opening game of the tournament Combat Service Group had an easy time with Division Hq. Co. when they beat Jim Gregor 8-2.

Monday afternoon the 8th Engineers beat Engineer School Bn. 4-1.

All teams have now played at least one game. Only the Tenth and Supply Schools are undefeated.

Bandleader Peeper Began Career Early; Plays Here Aug. 12

Lee Peeper, who brings his orchestra to Lejeune August 12, has been a professional entertainer for more than 17 years.

He began fingering the ivories for his own personal satisfaction when he was eight years old. While he was in college he began playing professionally in his brother's band. When he graduated he organized a six-piece band and was hired by the Cunard Steamship company to provide music aboard ships crossing to Europe and back.

In 1942 he joined the army and served part of his enlistment as leader of an Army band stationed at Fort Crook, Neb., headquarters of the 17th Infantry Division.

Peeper plays popular and semi-classical pieces on the piano and also plays the accordion. Nine other members of his band play the "squeeze-box" and they occasionally do accordion specialty numbers.

Vocalist Sue Morris is featured with the band, which includes four saxes, two trumpets, a trombone and bass, drums and two pianos.

Peeper's band will play for a show at the Camp theater from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and for dancing at Marston Pavilion from 9 p.m. until midnight.

Eddie was a featured performer in Billy Rose's New York World's Fair Aquacade. After seeing one of his performances Eddie Cantor remarked, "Eddie Rose is the greatest I've ever seen. I wouldn't miss one of his performances if I was around anywhere he was performing."

Rose's antics off the high diving board will be a feature of the show. He also teams with Danny Dillon in imitations of singing stars of stage, screen and radio.

The show lasts two and a half hours and consists of 11 water act and 10 stage acts in and on 17 feet of portable pool and stage which will be set up in Goettge Memorial field house.
