Prodigal Dollar Bill Returned After Five-Year Delinquency

BY CPL. DAVID McCULLOUGH

This is the story of a wayward dollar bill.

It all began in the blue March sky over Iwo Jima in 1945. A Marine transport plane bumped through peppery flak, over the belching guns of the U. S. 5th Fleet, and released its fluttering cargo of ammunition.

Marines on Iwo's crusty ridges cheered as the supplies drifted down to them.

SSgt. Peter B. Germano sat in the plane's cockpit. A Marine combat correspondent, his job was to keep people in the United States informed of the course of war in the Pacific.

He had left Saipan that morning with two other correspondents, Sgt.
David Stick and TSgt. Norman Miller, a pilot, a co-pilot, and three other passengers.

Considerably lighter, the plane wheeled around, wiggled its wings in final salute and made the long haul back to Saipan.

Holly, Mistletoe Set For Housing Here

Yuletide decorations will be available in December to individuals occupying married quarters here, after military units and activities have been supplied. Holly, pine branches, and mistletoe may be obtained by calling at the lot in front of Bldg. 1105 in the Industrial Area.

Christmas trees and decorations will be on sale to individuals at the Camp Exchange. No trees are to be erected in living quarters other than married quarters.

No bulbs larger than ten watts are to be used in illuminating indoor decorations and these should be turned off when occupants retire or leave their quarters. Lighted candles can not be used as decorations.

EXTRA HOURS

The Central Exchange, Men's Shop, Central Annex and Toyland will be opened for the convenience of Christmas shoppers from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. December 7, 10, and 11.

Holiday Leave, Liberty Set Up For Lejeune Personnel

Holiday routine, as well as leave and liberty periods, have been promulgated for all Lejeune personnel. They are as follows:

For all personnel here holiday routine will prevail December 25, 26, and 27 and January 1, 2, and 3.

Recommend Bigger Bonus For 'Shipping'

Due to increasing manpower shortages in the Armed Forces, an investigating Pentagon committee has recommended that a larger re-enlistment bonus be enacted as an incentive to keep service personnel interested in military careers.

At the present time an enlisted man "shipping over" receives a maximum of $360 for another tour of duty.

The committee bases its recommendation on the estimate that it costs the government $14,600 to train a serviceman during his military tour. Every time a man leaves the service it requires a replacement and this runs into millions of dollars a year.

If an increase in the bonus to $1500 or $2000 is offered, officials hold that the government will save approximately $12,600 on each man who reenlists.

It is believed that a sizeable bonus, such as would cover a downpayment on a home or the purchase of an auto, would be an excellent way to attract men to stay in the service.

Added incentives suggested by the committee were better pay, the retention of commissaries and post exchanges, a more consistent personnel policy, and an unchanging pension and retirement benefit.

3rd Divvy Starts Rotating Men For Dec., Jan. Release

The 3rd Division in Japan has set in motion machinery for its first homeward rotation draft of men scheduled to be released in December and January.

Approximately 950 men will be sent from Camp Okubo to the States in January and it is expected that the "short timers" will leave early in December.

The first group of replacements will be awaiting assignment from the processing center at Okubo early next month. As soon as the replacements from the States have disembarked, the rotation group will embark on the same ships docked at Kobe.

Plans for rotating Division personnel other than "short timers" now are being considered for final approval at Corps Headquarters.

Marine Corps Base leaves for the holiday period will be broken down into two groups: Group Able (Christmas leave) and Group Baker (New Year's leave). These are further subdivided, based on departure and return dates.

In Group Able One, personnel will be allotted leave from 4:30 p.m. December 17 until 7:30 a.m.
December 28. Group Able Two will start its leave at 4:30 p.m.
December 18 and end it at 7:30 a.m. December 29.

Group Baker One personnel will leave 4:30 p.m. December 28 and return by 7:30 a.m. January 8.
Group Baker Two starts its leave
4:30 p.m. December 29 and ends
7:30 a.m. January 9.

The leave period for Division personnel will be through December 17 to January 8, during which time unit commanders may grant a maximum of ten days to any one man.

Force Troops special liberty periods will be granted from noon December 24 until 7:30 a.m. December 28 and from noon December 31 until 7:30 January 4.

The leave period will commence at 4:30 p.m. December 17 and end at 7:30 a.m. January 9.

Privates-Sergeants CG Housing Open

Housing now is available for privates through sergeants and is ready for immediate occupancy at newly-opened Camp Geiger Trailer Park.

Interested personnel who have not already made application are advised to contact the Camp Housing Office in Bldg. 1 at once.

All recently-promoted staff sergeants occupying government rental housing are requested to notify the Camp Housing Office of their change in rank so that their reassignment to appropriate housing may be effected. This notification is required by Camp Regulations.

88 Captains Picked For Majors' Ranks

Eighty-eight Marine captains will soon be promoted to major as a result of choices by a May 1952 selection board. The selected 88 will have November 6, 1953, as their effective date of rank, the day Navy Secretary Robert Anderson signed the necessary promotion authority on behalf of President Eisenhower.

As soon as the Secretary of Navy approves the necessary papers, 70 Reserve officers, on both active and inactive duty, are due for hikes to major. The Reserve officers also were selected by earlier selection boards, whose findings were approved June 17, 1952, and March 17, 1953.

SELECTIVE SERVICE

Selective Service personnel who immediately reenlist in the regular Marine Corps upon completion of their 24-month tours of duty are entitled to lump sum leave settlements, mileage expenses, and re-enlistment bonuses. Those who re-enlist within three months may retain the lump sum settlements and mileage and also are entitled to reenlistment bonuses.

vision Information Section, smiles as 2nd Lt. James S. Keightly Jr., Division information officer, informs him of the return of his long-lost "Short Snorter" bill. The buck, lost since 1948, was received by Miss Beverly Young (center), of the Camp Library, at a local drive-in recently. Puzzled, she showed it to Lieutenant Keightly, who recognized Germano's name on it, and reclaimed the bill (Official USMC

U. S. POSTAGE

PERMIT NO. 9
JACKSONVILLE, N. C.

WHAT ARE YOU MOST THANKFUL FOR THIS THANKSGIVING?

CPL. DAVID TUREL, H&S BN., MCB — I'm most thankful for the friends I've made here. I'll be getting discharged in a few weeks and to me my buddies are the most valuable part of my enlistment. I've learned to live peacefully with others, and my hitch in the service has taught me another important thing—responsibility.

SGT. GEORGE D. TANNER, 8TH MARINES — I'm thankful that my own family is safe in a country free from the forces of evil we fought against, which are continually threatening to take over our civilization.

CPL. PATRICK J. WALSH JR., H&S BN., MCB — I'm thankful that I still have my good health and for all of the things which have been bestowed upon me. I'm humbly grateful I've had the chance to serve and protect my country, because it has given so much to me.

TSGT. CARL W. HAMILTON, SUPPLY DEPOT — I'm thankful that I live in a country which allows a person to worship as he pleases and is not dominated by the Anti-Christ. I'm free to worship my own God without fear that I'll be persecuted.

PFC FRANK Z. CULVER JR., H&S BN., MCB — I'm thankful that this Thanksgiving the troops aren't fighting in Korea as they were last year, and I hope that the whole world is at peace by next Thanksgiving.

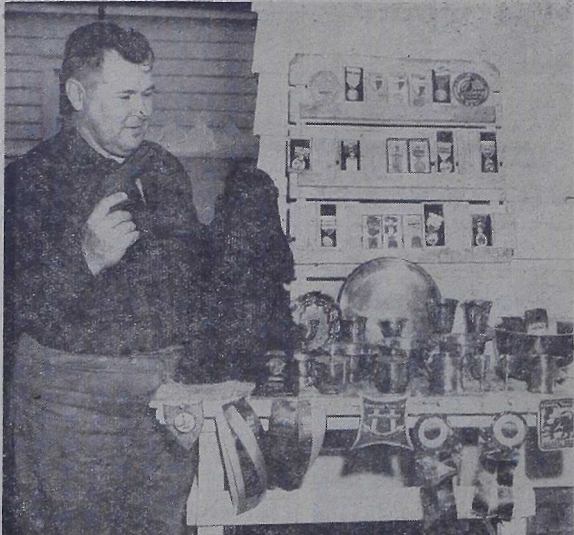

Raccoon, 'Possum Hunts During Night Authorized

GLORY GALORE — MSgt. Albert W. Faby, of 8th Engineer Bn., cocks pistol he used to win America's highest marksmanship rating, Distinguished Pistol Shot. With him are prize cocker spaniel and awards and trophies won by Faby as a wrestler, weight lifter, sharpshooter, and dog breeder (Official USMC Photo).

'Strong Man Faby'

Senior FT Enlisted Man Sinewy Jack-Of-All-Trades

Exactly 30 years ago, a private broke down and wept after failing for the second time to qualify on the rifle range. Last week the same, MSgt. Albert W. Faby, now an Expert Rifleman and Distinguished Pistol Shot, qualified for the 19th time.

Force Troops' senior enlisted man, now with the 8th Engineer Battalion's S-3 office, is reluctant to publicize his marksmanship feats, achieved as they were in the line of his life-long duty, being a Marine. But concealing his full, varied, and fabulous life is really impossible.

Sergeant Faby's regard for physical culture has marked his colorful career ever since, at 14, he made his own bar bells out of a box, a broomstick, and two bricks. Weighing 112 pounds and aiming at becoming a Marine, he launched an ambitious program of body development.

Into The Corps

Eighteen months later he had gained 76 pounds. An accomplished amateur wrestler and weight lifter, he enlisted in 1922 with his mother's consent.

His first tour took him to the Dominican Republic as a BAR man and to Haiti as a machine gun instructor.

Discharged in 1925, Faby was employed as a guard at the Federal Reserve Bank in New York. At night he attended Columbia University's school of physical education and studied painting under the noted George Bridgman at the Grand Central Art School.

It was during these years that "Strong Man Faby" put on exhibitions in civic auditoriums for the benefit of orphanages. One of his stunts was clenching a 6½-foot long steel rod, ¾-inch thick, between his jaws while two cohorts on each side bent it into the shape of a horseshoe.

In 1930 overtraining, overstudy, and overtraining for the 1932 Olympics resulted in a severe breakdown complicated by pneumonia. He was hospitalized for two years.

Released from the hospital, he reenlisted in the Corps, this time to stay.

Erudition By Night

At Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, he was chief instructor of eight machine gun squads during the day and camp librarian at night. The latter job afforded him opportunity to increase his knowledge of history, archaeology, agriculture, ethnology, world affairs, political science, astronomy—a source of amazement and admiration to many.

In his spare time, he embarked on a slow progressive program of physical reconditioning, finally regaining his old form.

In 1934 he won the West Individual Division Pistol Match, and the following year was awarded America's highest marksmanship rating, Distinguished Pistol Shot.

The year 1940 was memorable for Faby. He instructed at the Corps' first Officers Candidate School in over two decades. And he was selected for the group that was to familiarize key personnel at East Coast commands with the new basic infantry weapon, the M1.

Assigned Here

Promoted to warrant officer in 1942, he assisted the civilian engineers of two corporations in installing synthetic gunnery training devices here and at Camp Elliot, Calif.

During World War II, he served on Midway, Johnston Island, Guam, and Saipan. In 1946, reverting to master sergeant, he returned to Lejeune to operate and instruct in the Polaroid Trainer.

In 1950 he was sent to Yokosuka, Japan, to help construct an anti-aircraft defense system. Since 1952, he has been a basic military subjects man in battalion S-3 offices.

Sergeant Faby is married to the former Iris Perez, an interpretive dancer and professional violinist, whom he met in 1939.

Prize Dogs

The Fabys have been raising prize cocker spaniels and German shepherds since 1943, when they established residence in Jacksonville, N. C. They hope to perfect 15-point champions and to operate a boarding kennel upon Sergeant Faby's retirement in 1955.

Sergeant Faby has come a long way since his first job as a blacksmith's helper in his home town, Baltimore, Md.

Only the Corps, he feels, could have opened such vistas to him.

Civilian Employees Hit High Bond Mark

Civilian employees of the Naval establishment who are enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan invested an individual average of $36.30 in United States Savings Bonds during October. These individual investments set a new high in the amount of average monthly personal payroll savings since the Navy installed this systematic thrift plan 11 years ago.

In October 1944, when the Navy recorded the highest percentage of employee participation in the bond program during World War II with a 93.9 percent enrollment, the average pay withheld for investment in War Bonds was $28.16.

All the nearly 100 lakes in western North Carolina are artificial. The largest is Fontana in the Great Smokies, covering 10,800 acres.

STRONG MAN — MSgt. Albert W. Faby, of Force Troops' 8th Engineer Bn., who enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1922, can still baffle old friends by driving a 100-penny spike through an inch-thick board with one blow of his hand (Official USMC Photo).

Miss Ann Lamonds Weds SSgt. Connly At Geiger Chapel

Miss Ann Lamonds, of Candor, N. C., became the wife of SSgt. Robert A. Connly Jr., of Force Troops' MP Platoon, recently at a double-ring ceremony in the Camp Geiger Catholic Chapel.

Sergeant Connly joined the MP force in March as assistant platoon leader.

The bride, a Camp Geiger Hostess House employee, was attended by Mrs. James Farrell in the Catholic wedding ceremony conducted by Chaplain Robert L. Heim.

Cpl. Henry McCullough, also of the MP Platoon, was best man.

recalled to active duty in 1950. After two years as a recruiter in his home town he was transferred to the 2nd Division Information Section here.

A few weeks ago Germano's chief, Public Information Officer 2nd Lt. James S. Keightly Jr. was checking out a book from Miss Beverly Young at the Camp Library. Beverly was puzzled by a dollar bill given her as change at a local drive-in. She showed it to Lt. Keightly. He saw the name "Germano" and called Pete.

Thus the "Short Snorter" ended five delinquent years. It has apparently been used little: it's still crisp and without squinting you can read the signatures of Stick, who is now attached to the Publicity Staff of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and Miller, now with the New York "Daily News," and of the others who made that dangerous trek across the Pacific over eight years ago.

'Military Review' Offers Cash For Technical Articles

A new policy of paying articles submitted by active personnel of the U. S. Army has been announced by "Military Review," a magazine edited monthly by the Command General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kans.

Articles written by authors will be judged by a board of officers who award $100 to the first-place article and $50 to the second selection. The author of the annual award article, selected among the 12 monthly winners, will receive $350. Payment for published articles by civilian writers and military personnel will remain on an individual basis, the magazine announced. (AFPS)

New Group Formed To Serve Interests Of Enlisted Ranks

A formal charter was issued recently at Norfolk, Va., to an organization entitled the Career Enlisted Men's Association. The association has been created to "assist, promote, and serve the interest of the enlisted man" in all branches of the service.

To be eligible for membership all individuals must have at least ten years of service in some branch of the military. There will be no women's auxiliary.

The group has adopted an initial program seeking higher ration allowances, preservation of commissaries, more government housing, and increased reenlistment bonuses.

President of the infant club is Louis T. Lindley, retired chief radioman. Other officials of the club all are retired Navy chiefs, except MSgt. Paul E. Gordon, USAF, vice-president, and TSgt. Raymond R. Richard, USMC, welfare officer.

GEN. MOORE DIES

Lt. Gen. James T. Moore, retired Marine officer who commanded the 1st and 2nd Air Wings and was Commanding General of Aircraft, FMF Pacific, during World War II, died at his home in Columbia, S. C., on November 10. He had retired in 1946.

JETS AND PROPS COMBO — For the Navy pilots who will fly this P2V-5 anti-submarine patrol bomber, there's no controversy between jets and props. The plane is equipped with a jet and a propeller engine on either side, and the pilot can use any combination he chooses.

Golden Anniversary Of Powered Flight Hits Climax Soon

The year-long, world-wide observance of the golden anniversary of powered flight will be climaxed by a four-day celebration, December 14-17, at Kitty Hawk, N. C., site of the Wright brothers' conquest of the air on December 17, 1903.

With all phases of aviation participating, the four-day celebration will include special tributes to the pioneers and private flyers, the aviation industry, and the military services.

A feature event of the celebration will be the unveiling and dedication of the reconstructed site of the birthplace of powered flight. The Wright brothers' hanger and living quarters will be rebuilt and refurbished just as they appeared in 1903. The wooden mono-rail, used to launch their rugged plane, also will be constructed on the original site.

Airplane development will be demonstrated when a 1912 pusher-type plane re-enacts the first flight over the Wright brothers' original cause, followed by modern jet fighters breaking the sound barrier. Scores of the latest types of military planes will participate in the air review.

Kaneohe In Clover: La Russell Coming

RKO-Radio Pictures says that Jane Russell will be reporting to the Marine Corps Air Station, Kaneohe Bay, T. H., if things go right.

Miss Russell will not be reporting as a member of the newly activated Women Marine detachment at the air station. It'll be to do a part in a picture called "Beyond the 12-Mile Reef," which Howard Hughes is to produce in the islands with Jane, Gilbert Roland, and a second male lead as yet unnamed.

The picture deals with a search for sunken treasure off the Florida coast.

Some Officers Get Immediate Release

Reserve officers returning from the Far East, who have less than three months remaining on their active duty tours, can request immediate release from active duty on arrival in the United States. Economy considerations necessitate this action, according to Marine Corps Memorandum 81-53.

Those who are released before completing two years' active duty will not be jeopardized by such early release. Their recall status will be the same as their contemporaries who completed 24 months' active duty.

MC Selection Board To Choose Captains

A selection board convened at Headquarters Marine Corps recently to select 600 first lieutenants for temporary promotion to captain.

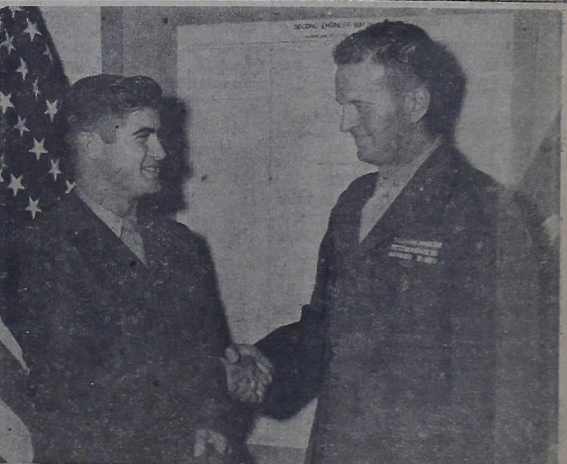

The prospective captains were to be selected under Public Law 188, Seventy-seventh Congress, which provides for the temporary promotion of officers in time of national emergency. Under the provisions of this law there is no zone of eligibility. Officers junior to the last officer selected are not considered as having failed of selection.

President of the board was Colonel Karl K. Louthier.

LONG-DISTANCE CALLS

All personnel, both military and civilian, of units under the military command of the Commanding General, Marine Corps Base, who place or receive official long-distance calls to or from Headquarters Marine Corps or any higher authority, are to transcribe the substance of the call and forward it to the Chief of Staff, MCB, with a copy to the General Staff Section having cognizance of the matter under discussion.

Emergency Period Ending Soon; Economy

White House may be considering the current nation-wide emergency on December 31 for the purpose of ending eligibility for wartime pensions and ration benefits based on service after that date, according to the "Navy Times."

President Eisenhower's Budget used a December 31 cut-off date of three "working assumptions" which should not be included as reflecting policy in a cost-of-benefits chart House Ways and Means Committee.

A chart projected the mounting costs of veterans' compensation benefits through 1985.

Time To Talk Traffic Turkey

Thanksgiving is a time especially dear to the hearts of all Americans, a time of feasting and celebration, a time for remembering and giving thanks to God for His wonderful gifts to us all.

And, since life is His most precious gift, this is a most fitting occasion to talk about traffic accidents and the crying need to end the merciless killing and butchery on our nation's roadways.

So, when you are counting your blessings this Thanksgiving, we hope you still stop to think of safety, and how good it is to be alive and strong and active!

And then, having thought about safety, resolve to preserve this blessing for yourself and for those around you to the utmost of your ability.

And, to put your resolution into action, "turn to" in Lejeune's all-out effort to stop traffic accidents dead in their tracks. The Motor Vehicle Safety Program must have your active support and cooperation if lives are to be saved, crippling injuries averted, and property damage markedly reduced.

REMEMBER, SAFETY IS YOUR BUSINESS TOO. LEND A HAND NOW.

Lejeune Pugs' Sunday Punches Batter Eustis

PI 'Boots' March On Lejeune Sat.

In 1952 Camp Lejeune traveled to Parris Island needing but one Marine Conference victory to cop the East Coast Marine crown and receive a bid to play in California for the All-Marine championship. Parris Island was expected to be the stepping stone for the locals. The final score—Parris Island, 54; Camp Lejeune, 20.

Parris Island, which plays Lejeune at Liversedge Field this Saturday at 2 p.m., once again finds itself in the role of "spoiler." Even with a less potent team than 1952's, it very easily can stop the locals. Lejeune, although not in such a commanding position as last year, still can wind up in a three-way tie for East Coast Marine honors by dumping PI.

This year Parris Island has had a dismal season. The "Boots" have won but one game, a 59-12 decision from a pick-up Army eleven representing the General Supply Depot in Atlanta, Ga. A 28-28 tie with Miami, a comparative newcomer to East Coast Marine sports circles, is their only other achievement.

Lejeune Mittmen On Display Tonight Against Quantico

After a successful season-opener, the Camp Lejeune boxing team unveils for Lejeune fight fans tonight when it meets Quantico at the Goettge Memorial Field House starting at 8 p.m.

Quantico, with an array of talent almost equal to that of Lejeune, already has started its season. The Virginians will be seeking their third win of the season against the locals.

A "grudge fight" appears to be shaping up between Walt Byars of Lejeune and Harold Conklin of the visitors. The last time these two met it was for the All-Marine featherweight championship. Byars, relying more on bicycle tactics and a cunning left jab, coasted to the win over Conklin, who was a big favorite.

Conklin and Byars have picked up weight this season and will be opposing each other in the lightweight division.

Marines Explode For 41-0 Win Over Camp Atterbury

Camp Lejeune sparred evenly with Camp Atterbury for 30 minutes Friday night before erupting for five touchdowns and an overwhelming 41-0 victory over the Army eleven. More than 5000 spectators watched the first annual Zavi Shrine game held at Municipal Stadium in Zanesville, Ohio.

Lejeune was able to score only once in the first half against Atterbury, but 20 points in the third quarter, highlighted by an 83-yard punt return by Jerry Fouts, and two more touchdowns in the last period left little doubt as to the superiority of the Marine eleven.

In addition to his long touchdown jaunt in the third period, Fouts scored another touchdown to divide scoring honors with Ray Smith, who also accounted for a pair of Marine TD's. Mel Yeshnik and Bill Hawkins added to the Lejeune total with six pointers.

Proceeds from the game, the first of its kind in Zanesville, went to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Columbus, Ohio, which is sponsored by the nationally known Aladdin Temple.

Lejeune showed an early lead in its explosive power by jamming across a touchdown early in the game. Starting on their 34, the Marines marched into Atterbury scoring territory in 6 plays. Key play of the drive was a 22-yard aerial from Reggie Lee to Smith, putting the ball on the Atterbury

22. Three plays later Smith scored from the two on an off-tackle play. Lee ran the extra point around the Army flank to give Lejeune a 7-0 lead.

Neither team was able to push across a score for the next 32 minutes of play.

Camp Hoopsters Swamp Wilmington Team By 109-59

The Camp Lejeune Marines played an exhibition basketball game Thursday night, winning a convincing 109-59 victory over the Wilmington Colonials from Wilmington, N. C., at Goettge Memorial Field House.

Lejeune took an early lead in the tussle and never relinquished it, forging ahead in the first quarter with a nine-point lead and from there on never being pressed. Score at halftime was 50-26.

Coach Frank Frates used every one of his players throughout the contest to keep the score down but Lejeune was not to be denied.

High scorer for the Leathernecks was guard Bill Buechel, who tallied 19 points and did some magnificent ball-hawking. Guard Newt Jones was runner-up in the scoring column, throwing in eight field goals from all angles of the floor.

Three other players hit double figures for Lejeune. Dippy Carosi, Joe Prater, and Cy Waldrop scored 11, 12, and 11, respectively.

For the losers, high man was forward Niven, who bucketed eight field goals and four from the line for 20 points. A close second for the Colonials was forward Mason, who collected four from the floor and 11 from the free-throw line for a 19-point total.

The most outstanding feature of the exhibition game was the rebound play. Spirit on the Lejeune team seemed to be very high and the players were in excellent shape.

BEAT CHERRY POINT

The Lejeune golf team won a 26-man team match with Cherry Point here Sunday, 25-9. The match was called off by mutual agreement of both teams at the end of nine holes because of rain.

Camp Sweeps Nine Of Wheels' Coach Edges H

Camp Lejeune's ringmen unleashed a power Wednesday night to sweep nine out of ten bouts from Eustis Wheels at the Virginia base.

Lejeune's only loss came when Bud House, Mar champ, lost a split decision to the Wheels' Ernie F also is head coach of squad.

Intramural Grid Title Clash Wed.

The 10th Marines, Division intramural grid champs, tangle with the 8th Engineers, Force Troops titlists, on Liversedge Field Wednesday afternoon with the camp football championship at stake.

Both elevens will carry unbeaten slates into the game. The 10th Marines played a five-game league schedule, winning four and being tied by Service Bn., 0-0, in the first game of the season. The 8th Engineers won eight consecutive games against Force Troops competition, taking the first championship in the battalion's history.

The Division Cannoneers' lineup has been riddled by injuries and discharges. Bob Jeter, hard-running halfback who ground out big yardage through opposition lines all season, suffered an arm injury that ended his football days for the rest of this season, at least. His spot will be filled by Bob Prentice, with Don Daggett alternating.

Latta To Play

Jim Latta, the 170-pound speedster halfback who was recently voted the outstanding player in the Division intramural league, has been bothered by a leg injury but is expected to play. Player-coach Jim Martland, an excellent ball-handler and field general, will quarterback the Cannoneers' "T", and the fullback chores will be (See INTRAMURAL, Page 8)

But in every other Lejeune men graced the circle. Bob Rigby, salses, Richie Hill, Red Chuck Litwinas, Walt Belton and the two D Don and Joe—received their Army opponents.

Two Hurt

Two fighters suffered Litwinas may be on the rest of the season. Marine heavy contender a severe cut over his that took seven stitches. Joe Davis received a injury of the same type.

Litwinas received what was easily the of the night. He was Jack Smith, a hulking weighed in at 205, over Litwinas.

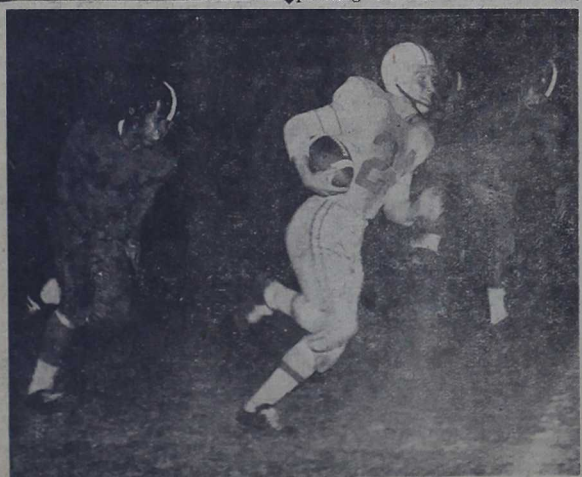

Smith, a raw and fighter, swarmed all over after getting off to a being first held at a ineffective left jab. Midway the opening canto, Smith with a stiff right upper Litwinas for the man count. Litwinas weathered and held on for the round.

Litwinas drew even on round, bombarding Smith with thundering jabs to the body. Smith weakened as the round and, consequently, became weary.

Lejeune teams were busy last week against opposition. Two football and boxing squads, literally swept by their opponents, the WM basketballers were receiving a bopping at home. The team slammed Camp Atterbury (Ind.) all over a neutral at Eustis, Ohio, and the Lejeune swingers clouted the fists from Fort Eustis to a fare-thee-well. But Hanes Hosiery Salem, a talent-loaded lady aggregation that is National, clobbered the distaff Marines on not one but two occasions and 81-13.

At the brighter side first, the showing of the football at Eustis further strengthened the belief of its head j. Biff Crawley. Crawley has gone on record as stating that he is the best service football team in the nation. After a bad taste in the mouths of the fans who sat and watched a poor match.

Ernie Fann made a terrific hit at Eustis. Fans there marveled at the perfect condition of the Lejeune squad and had nothing to say to the fighters. The only bad moment of the night came when Fann pulled a fit of hysterics after losing to Ernie Fann, of the Wheel team.

Ernie Fann put on by Chuck Litwinas of Lejeune and Ed Smith everything right and brought the house to its feet. Two sluggers simply met head-on and whaled away until one of them was exhausted, fell down. Litwinas started nicely, using left job to advantage. All this went for naught, however, when Smith, disdaining the boxing niceties, floored the opponent with a left that seemed to come from the floor. Litwinas weathered this blow, staggered through the round, back fresh for the second heat. The left jab spelled the end here and put Litwinas back on even terms. The third round that a lot of people will never forget.

Ernie Fann was bleeding heavily from slight cuts. Litwinas kept jabbing while Smith, noticeably tiring, discarded his mouthpiece and attempted to make a Donnybrook of the entire affair. Though the round Litwinas was able to slip a right through as though pole-axed, tottered for an instant and then fell the ring floor. The crowd refused to stop yelling and were about the fight as the following bout came on.

Gene Wisniewski, who played at Lejeune last season, is performing for the Islanders this year and operating from his customary full-back slot.

Ray Leading Halfback Jimmy Ray has been the high scorer for PI this season. Thus far he has tallied 18 points and could cause trouble for the Lejeune linemen this Saturday.

Other Islanders capable of giving some tough moments to the locals at Liversedge Field will be Gil Buccu (Pittsburgh), a hard-charging 200-pound guard, and John Ilari (Kentucky), another guard, 210.

Four Lejeune men will be playing their last game Saturday. Glen Graham, Chuck Scott, Jack Maunby, and Jack Connor will have returned to civilian life before Lejeune tangles with Pensacola NAS in its final game of the regular season, December 4.

Co-captains for Lejeune against Parris Island will be center Steve Lazarus and guard Dick Stebe

WM's Socked By Hosiery Hoopsters

Out-reached, out-scored, out-experienced—but not out-hustled—the Camp Lejeune Women Marines opened their 1953-54 basketball season Friday against the Hanes Hosiery team of Winston-Salem, N. C., and were defeated by the AAU champions, 66-18. Nearly 400 spectators watched the seasoned civilian team trounce the Lady Leathernecks.

The visitors repeated in the second game, Saturday, with an 81-13 win.

Following the tip-off Hanes built up a quick 8-0 lead before Ruth Decker sank a long shot for the Marines' first marker. The count was 10-4 at the end of the quarter.

The Hanes attack opened up in the second period sparked by Stroud, Little, Jordan, and Greer, bringing the score to 28-10 at the end of the half.

Greer With 14

Lejeune was in the running even less in the third quarter as Hanes poured in shot after shot. The game ended on a 66-18 note with Greer high scorer for Hanes with 14 points, and Burbage, De Coita, and Galloway tying with four apiece for the Marines.

A bruised and battered WM team faced the towering AAU champs a second time Saturday at the Gofftje Memorial Field House and bravely fought a losing battle.

The Winston-Salem cagers ripped ahead of the valiant Women Marines, coached by Al Perlmutter, and at the end of the half had chalked up 32 points to Lejeune's nine.

8th Engineers Cop FT Title, Beating Supply School, 7-6

Eighth Engineer Bn. copped the Force Troops football championship of 1953 last week by eking out a 7-6 victory over Supply School, its eighth win in a row.

The Engineers will meet the Division champs, 10th Marines, Wednesday on Liversedge Field for the camp crown.

The clincher proved to be the toughest contest of the season for the unbeaten Engineers, playing without injured stars "Doc" Dougherty and Lenny Hazel.

Luckily, a leg injury did not hamper their sharp halfback, Tony Simonelli. Grabbing a Supply fumble in mid-air, he raced 48 yards late in the first half for the Engineers touchdown.

Reliable Buzz Culler's talented toe provided what was to become the winning margin with his conversion.

Minutes later, the fighting Supply men had completed a downfield march that overwhelmed the champs' defense.

Fullback Ben Kimbrough ran 20 yards to the Engineer 46 to start the drive. After halfback Art Weldon gained 25 around right end, he received a pass from quarterback Tiny MacDonald to give the Montford Pointers a first down six yards from the goal line.

Kick Fails

MacDonald connected with Bob Cushing in the end zone for the score. The kick failed, just as an earlier field goal attempt had fallen short.

The Engineers missed the quarterbacking talents of Dougherty, confined to the sidelines as head coach with a cracked collarbone. They completed only one pass, good for six yards. Their line was unable to hold the onrushing Supply School, which gained 162 yards to the league leaders' 121.

Simonelli and Culler shared honors for the Engineers' hardest-earned victory with fullback "Larceny" Petty and halfback Frank Martin.

In another FT game last week, CSG defeated 2nd AmTrac Bn., 7-0, to consolidate its second-place position.

The standings, as of Monday:

8th Engineer Bn.	8	0	0
2nd Combat Service Group	6	1	1
Supply School Bn.	3	4	2
2nd AmTrac Bn.	3	4	1
8th Motor Transport Bn.	1	7	0

MCI Art Contest Entries Exhibited

Marines serving all over the world who submitted paintings to the Marine Corps Institutes' Fourth Annual Art Contest have a sort of international art gallery of their own in Washington, D. C.

The gallery is located in the window and on the second floor of the George F. Muth Co., one of Washington's largest dealers in art supplies. More than 70 of the 300 entries submitted in the contest comprise the display, which has attracted city-wide attention.

Spectators at the exhibition in downtown Washington range from amateur and professional artists to housewives and lunch-hour diversion seekers. However, the comments noted are unanimous in praise of the talent and workmanship shown in the paintings.

gone in the canto, Smith became a bull, rushing Litwinas. Both men were bleeding by this time, Litwinas from the eye and cheek and Smith from the mouth.

Bedlam broke loose towards the end with Smith rushing blindly around the ring as Litwinas peppered him with the stinging left. Litwinas threw one of his few rights and it was enough to floor Smith, who fell partially from the strength of the blow but mainly from sheer exhaustion. The referee wisely stopped the fight at 2:40 of the third round.

Ernie Claywood stung Rigbsy hard to open the first fight of the long evening but class told. Rigbsy shook off the blow and wore his man down with an effective barrage of body blows. A much better and more seasoned fighter this year, Rigbsy continued the same tactics in the second and third rounds and was awarded a unanimous win.

Not As Advertised

The Fann-House fight, billed as the event of the night, was unimpressive. Fann showed the skill while House retreated to his wild slugging tactics of last year. The Marine heavy champ offered little to combat Fann's boxing ability in the first canto and the Wheel coach scored almost at will.

The second round was a little closer with Fann tiring slightly but still having a slight edge. House, in perfect condition, took the offensive in the third, tagging Fann solidly at times. But he started too late and Fann walked off with a split decision.

Dave Gonsalves proved a pleasant addition to the Lejeune fist forces with his very effective style in beating lightweight Billy Berry. Gonsalves was forced to chase his man for most of the fight but whaled him solidly upon catching him. He won a unanimous decision.

Rich Hill, Marine middle champ of 14, depend up to past performance. He is the same weight allowing dependent little time far east.

session for the remainder of the fight, the Lejeune fighter clipping away at will to take a unanimous decision.

Barrineau Too Much

The first knockdown of the fight was supplied by Red Barrineau. The Lejeune pug packed too much power for Ernie Powell, who spotted 11 pounds to his 166-pound opponent. Barrineau sent Powell down for a seven count in the first round and finally put the soldier away for keeps at 1:25 of the second.

Walter Byars, still the clown he was in the 1952 All-Marine bouts when he joked his way to the featherweight crown, hooked up with a very easy opponent in Ray Herring. Although Herring weighed five pounds more than Byars at 139, the Lejeune boxer dropped him twice for eight counts in the first round. Herring took three more falls in the second canto before his handlers wisely tossed in the towel.

Another newcomer to the Lejeune team, Duke Belton, firmly established himself as an important contender this year with a stunning TKO over Jim Cheatham in 1:15 of the first round. Belton rushed Cheatham, edging him into a corner, and sent a flurry of rights and lefts into the Wheel fighter that ended it right there.

Another first-round TKO was supplied by Don Davis of Lejeune, who stiffened welterweight Ken Hopkins in 2:12 of the first after throwing a flurry of leather.

Davis Unanimous

Joe Davis wound up the night's action by scoring a convincing unanimous win over hard-punching Jim Johnson of Eustis. Davis completely outclassed his foe, winning each round by a large margin. Johnson accidentally butted Davis over the eye during the second round, the wound taking five stitches to close.

The entire Lejeune squad was in excellent physical condition, a factor figuring heavily in the one-sided win. Many of the Eustis fighters were worn out toward the end of their bouts and were easy picking for the Marines.

split between Don Palmer and Dick Gezzar.

The 10th Marines have been hit hard up front, too. Herb Edwards, 60-minute center, has a knee injury that will almost certainly keep him out of the game.

The second-string center, Phil Harris, is being discharged the day before the game, as are line-men Clide Lynn, Leland Bracher, as well as halfback Henry Couvillon. Don Cannon will move over from the guard slot to the pivot.

The 8th Engineers have a key injury but will take the field in good shape otherwise. Player-coach "Doc" Dougherty, who quarterbacked the "T" and single-wing offense, is out of action with an injured collarbone but the rest of the squad came through the season comparatively unscathed. Dougherty's job will be handled by Bill Gallagher.

Average 195

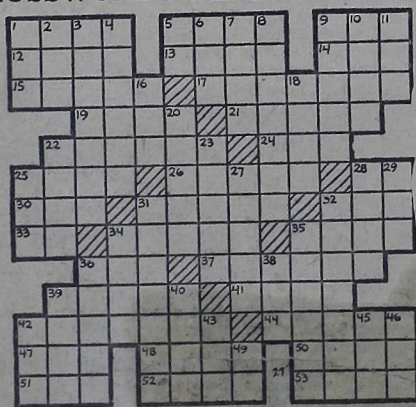

The Engineers' backfield weighs in at about 195. Behind Gallagher will be Tony Simonelli and Frank Martin, the team's leading ground-gainer, at the halves, with Lenny Hazel filling in. "Cannonball" Campbell will be the starter at fullback.

The line is light, averaging 172, but has given up only three touchdowns in eight games. The ends are Hank Bryant and Dick Weidokai; tackles Sid Shapiro and John Franklin; guards Pete Coughlin and Andy Andreozzi. The forward wall is sparked by center Rudy Cunningham, former Virginia State College griddier.

PhibLant Garners
Fleet Touch Title;
FMF Eliminated

The PhibLant Gators defeated DesLant, 25-8, to capture the 1953 Atlantic Fleet touch football championship Thursday at Norfolk. FMFLant placed third in the double-elimination tourney.

The Fleet Marine Force contingent was knocked out of contention by the Destroyer Force, 32-6.

DesLant came behind for its victory over the Leathernecks. Late in the first period FMF pushed across the first score of the game on a pass from Gus Perotti to Charlie Osterman.

The Destroyers roared back in the second quarter with a quick score to tie the game, 6-6. It was during this drive that Perotti, the Marines' star passer, was injured and removed from the game.

DesLant scored again in the second period and then came back in the second half for three more tallies to complete the rout.

Marines Explode

the initial Marine tally. The Red Cardinals moved from their 35 to the Lejeune eight before being stopped by a pass interception. They were aided in the drive by Lejeune penalties.

Lejeune ran and passed at will against the Army squad during the second half, while the Cardinals were victimized by their own mistakes. Lejeune racked up 20 points in the third quarter and 14 more in the final period. Atterbury never could get started. Lejeune snagged five Cardinal passes from the air and recovered four Army fumbles to throttle the Atterbury offense.

Fouts Takes Off

Fouts' long run was sandwiched between two other Lejeune touchdowns in the third quarter. The Lejeune halfback took Ed Soergel's punt on the Marine 17, raced to the right sidelines picking up blockers, and sped to the Atterbury goal. No Atterbury tackler had a chance to stop the speedy Fouts.

The first Marine tally in the third quarter came when Smith cracked over from the two midway through the period. Fouts kicked the point to put Lejeune further in the van, 14-0.

The Marines struck through the air after the long run by Fouts for a pair of touchdowns. Rocky Byrd hit Hawkins with a 30-yard pass, the latter making a great catch for one score, and Bobby Bechtel flipped a 17-yard forward to Mel Yeshnik for the other. Yeshnik caught the ball in a manner familiar to Lejeune fans: after it had been deflected off the hands of a pass defender.

The final Leatherneck score of the night came when Fouts broke free on a 27-yard run through right tackle in the fourth quarter.
