Ceremony Honoring General Geiger Features Address By PI Commander

"Determination, fearlessness, loyalty, and humility" was the capsule characterization of Gen. Roy S. Geiger made here Friday afternoon by Maj. Gen. Merwin H. Silverthorn, speaking at the dedication of a plaque to the Marine hero at the entrance to Camp Lejeune.

General Silverthorn, commander of MCRD, Parris Island, S. C., was introduced by Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott, camp commander here, as "probably the closest friend of General Geiger in the Marine Corps." General Silverthorn acted as Geiger's chief of staff during most of the Pacific campaigns.

Many high-ranking officers were present at the ceremonies which opened with a short address by Brig. Gen. Francis B. Loomis Jr., commanding general of Force Troops, Atlantic.

An invocation by Chaplain William A. Wiggins of Force Troops preceded the introduction of the main speaker by General Linscott.

Rifle Range Closes Dec. 18 Until Feb. 1

The Chief of Naval Operations has announced July 27, 1953, as the terminal date for eligibility to wear the tenth engagement star on the Korean Service Ribbon. The star is for the "Korea, Summer-Fall 1953" campaign which started May 1.

The tenth and final campaign star was announced several months ago without a cutoff date.

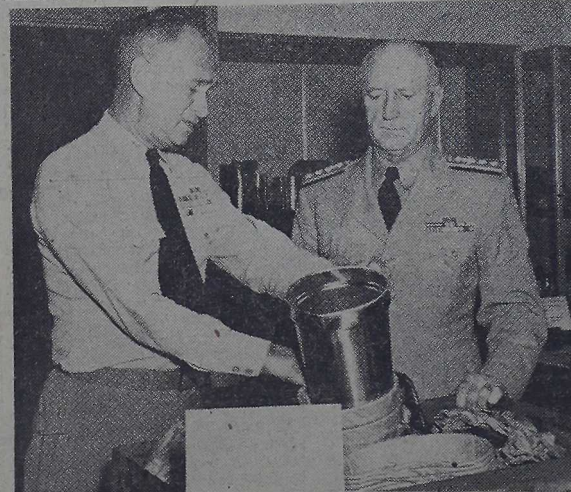

A battalion of troops from Camp Lejeune formed the honor guard for the occasion and the 2nd Division band furnished music.

Present at the ceremony were: Lt. Gen. P. A. Del Valle, USMC (ret.) of Elkridge, Md.; Lt. Gen. W. O. Brice, assistant commandant of the Marine Corps for Air, Headquarters, Marine Corps; Maj. Gen. C. ## 12 Leathernecks Picked For Naval Academy's Prep

Twelve regular Marines are included in a 162-man group recently selected for the Naval Preparatory School at Bainbridge, Md., to study for appointment to the Naval Academy, according to the "Navy Times."

Also chosen were 20 Naval Reservists and 130 regular Navy enlisted men.

All will go to the prep school to prepare for the Academy's entrance exam in March 1954. Those passing will be enrolled in July.

Candidates' selections were based on fleet-wide testings last July and commanding officers' recommendations.

Both regulars and Reserves were eligible to take the examinations. However, only those with obligated service to July 1, 1954, were eligible to attend the prep school.

Marine Corps, gives commanding officers the authority to release or discharge such personnel in this category on the authority of convenience of the government, if practicable.

This ruling was put into effect because of an overage of personnel during this period. Individuals being discharged or released after December 31 will get out on their normal terminal service dates.

The order also states that all individuals desiring to enlist, or reenlist, extend, or request retention on active duty will be retained at their request and released or discharged on their normal dates of release or discharge.

Personnel in the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve who have requested retention, in accordance with Almar 12, will be permitted to complete their stay if they wish to.

Any persons being released under this program who would normally have to serve a five-year Reserve obligation as result of early release will be considered to have served their three years and therefore acquire no five-year obligation.

Individuals serving in the Corps for three years will be credited with their full three-year service time even though they may be discharged earlier through this program.

WHO DO YOU THINK WILL WIN THE WORLD SERIES?

CPL. LEE R. WOODS, CAMP SPECIAL SERVICES — The Yankees

will be champions of the world after five games. In the past New York has been noted for coming through in the clutch, while the Dodgers seem to choke up in the big games. I believe the same thing will prove true again this year. The Yankees have the best team. They have been world champion for the past four years and will be the first team to make it five straight.

SGT. ROBERT A. HALL, 6TH MARINES — The Series will go the full seven games with the Yankees making it five straight championships.

Both clubs rate fairly even in batting power, so the outcome will depend on superior pitching. The Yanks have the better hurling staff with such stars as Reynolds, Raschi, Lopat, and Ford.

CPL. JOHN R. DIBART, H&S Bn. — I look for the Series to go six games with the Yankees again emerging as champions. They still have the best pinch-hitter in Johnny Mize, the man who caused the Dodgers so much grief last fall. Their pitching staff is just as good as Brooklyn's and with Berra, Woodling and Mantle supplying the power in the clutch, their hitting is better than the Dodgers.

CPL. DAVE T. BUTLER, 10TH MARINES — Brooklyn will win in five games because of its terrific batting power. Such sluggers as Snider, Furillo, Robinson, Campanella, Hodges, and Reese will produce too much power for the Yanks to cope with. I look for the Dodgers to come up with a "sleeper" in Bob Milliken as a surprise starter in one of the games.

CPL. ANTHONY P. DITIZIO, H&S BN. — The law of averages is bound to catch up with the Yankees. I pick Brooklyn to win in six games. The Dodgers are superior to the Yankees in every department — hitting, pitching, and defense. Campanella and Snider will be the outstanding players of the Series.

Gratuity Payments Given Suspension For Ten Months

GI loan gratuity payments have been suspended for the ten-month period from September 1, 1953, to June 30, 1954, as required by Public Law 149.

In compliance with this law the Veterans Administration has announced that those veterans who obtain GI loans after August 31, 1953, will not receive the gratuity payments. Previously, veterans were given a payment equal to four percent of the guaranteed portion of the loan up to maximum of $160. These payments were credited to the loan accounts of the veterans by the lenders.

Gratuity payments still may be allowed where the loans have been initiated prior to the cutoff date of August 31, 1953, only if they fall in the following categories:

- 1)—A loan on which the VA has issued an evidence of guaranty or insurance or has issued a certificate of commitment dated prior to September 1, 1953.
- 2)—A loan which has been closed and actually paid out in full prior to September 1, 1953 by a supervised lender.
- 3)—A VA direct loan which has been closed or when the VA has issued a notice of approval or a commitment prior to the cutoff date.

Gratuity payments may be resumed July 1, 1954, unless Congress takes action to further suspend or cancel the payments.

To emphasize the productivity, ability, and willingness of most physically handicapped people as employees, President Eisenhower has established the period of October 4 through 10 as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week."

Supplementing a year-round program of education and publicity on facts about physically handicapped people, the week is designed for intense efforts along these lines by civic organizations, newspapers, and radio stations.

Mr. Wiley Wall, the local Veterans' Employment representative, urges all prospective disabled discharges, or employers who wish to hire such persons, to contact him here at the Camp Theater.

8-Year Obligators May Gain By Org. Reserve Service

If you entered the Armed Forces for the first time after June 19, 1951, you owe Uncle Sam eight years. The Armed Forces Act of 1951 obligates each such person under 26, who had no previous military service, to that total in active and Reserve service. These six years, if spent in the Organized Marine Corps Reserve, can pay off.

Upon release from two years' active duty, a Marine not joining the Organized Reserve is classified as a Ready Reserve, meaning that he can be recalled to active duty for war or for a police action such as Korea.

However, a man who has completed his two years' active duty obligation and who participates in an Organized Reserve program, will be placed in the Stand-By Reserve. This means that he can be recalled to active duty only if Congress declares war.

Participation in the Organized Reserve includes attendance at weekly drills and two weeks annually of active duty training. In return for this a Reservist receives cash for his drills and summer training, plus points for promotion and retirement. Besides that he keeps up with his military specialty.

$1.79 An Hour

A corporal, for example, who has two years' longevity, will receive $3.57 per drill, or a very respectable $1.79 an hour. For his annual two weeks' training he'll get $53.51.

In the Organized Reserve, the Marine gets promotions according to time in grade, military specialty, and the needs of his outfit. And with each promotion that pay goes up, meaning more money now and extra dollars upon retirement.

When a corporal finishes two years' active duty, he has 730 points toward his retirement credit. Then, for each two-hour drill he gets one point, and for each day on subsequent active service, one point. Upon successful completion of 20 years' service, and when he's 60 years old, he receives a monthly sum based on the points earned and in the pay grade of the highest rank he's held.

MOS Scoop

In the Organized Reserve you'll be able to keep abreast of the developments in the field of occupational specialties, information that may prove invaluable if you ever again have to serve on active duty. And there's the chance to change your MOS or take on an additional one.

In the Organized Reserve a Marine learns skills that will help him make a better living; participates in sports, recreation, and social events; earns credits toward a solid chunk of retirement pay; and helps defend his country in a top-flight outfit. That Marine can be you.

Cherry Point NCO's Attend Division's Leadership School

SGT. W. E. MOORE

Eight Cherry Point NCO's of the 1st Air Wing recently learned the "snoop and poop" or "Mud Marine" cousins

The airmen learned from their ground buddies that the lessons learned on compass marches, reconnaissance and combat patrols, and infiltration problems effected under the cover of darkness could gain the advantage over a foe.

The Cherry Point Leathernecks participated in these activities with a versatility proving the adage that "a Marine is a rifleman first, a specialist second," according to Captain Champion.

Enthusiastic about the accomplishment of his men, Captain Champion praised them for the active interest displayed during all phases of the training and commended the Division instructors and coaches for their diligent efforts.

Plan First Eastern Orthodox Conclave

Day And Night

During the day and night training schedule, the airmen participated in the actual use of the basic infantry weapons including the 60 mm mortar, machine gun, heavy machine gun, and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Practical demonstrations, given by Division personnel, included the use of fragmentation grenades, and M-1 machine gun launchers.

In the field, tactics were stressed and the team through company and platoon defensive and offensive maneuvers and tactical theory was stressed in the classroom work.

The Call's For You

Once a year the call comes to every American to contribute to the Community Chest. The wisdom of concentrating our various charity drives into one, rather than splintering these into individual solicitation, has been proven. The convenience of this arrangement is obvious.

We servicemen can be no exception when Americans must respond to the Community Chest's call. Now we have an opportunity to prove ourselves. Our contribution to this campaign will be apportioned among eight worth-while local agencies, such as Polio Relief and Onslow County Relief for Crippled Children; four national organizations, such as Heart and Tuberculosis Relief, and Crusade for Freedom; and six groups under the United Defense Fund, such as American Relief for Korea, National Recreation Association, and USO. In a land of package deals, this is a package deal par excellence.

It is well to remember that in helping others we are, in effect, only helping ourselves. No one knows where disaster will strike next nor who will be its next victim. Though today you give, tomorrow you may get—when you need it.

By giving to the Community Chest you make it possible for service organizations like the USO to serve you. If your contributions averaged a dollar or two, you still would be unable to raise sufficient funds to provide for the everyday benefits it gives. Jacksonville's USO alone has a yearly budget in the neighborhood of $50,000.

This will be one of three actively sponsored charity drives here during each year. The other two will be for the Red Cross and Navy Relief. No one who thinks it over can consider these excessive.

Let's pitch in and give. No gift will be too large nor will any be too small. Unitedly let us demonstrate that we Marines of Camp Lejeune are among the most generous; that we Marines know our obligations—and meet them.

GLOBALS

"We Must Attack Wherever We Find Them."
—General Henri Eugene Navarre.

A seven-year-long war in the steamy, muddy, monsoon-swept jungles of Indo-China's three associated states—Laos, Cambodia, and Viet Nam—rages into its fall offensives between French-Vietnamese forces and Communist Viet Minh troops.

Four months ago General Henri Eugene Navarre stepped from a flak-riddled C-47 at the French airport at Nason to take command of a demoralized French army, weary of a long, apparently futile, war.

Extolled as a man who "knows his business and has military and political guts of a high order" by France's top soldier, Marshal Alphonse Juin, General Navarre quickly and astutely appraised the situation in those jungles, inspired his troops, and soon revived the French to an aggressive and spirited campaign aimed towards a conclusive victory over the Communists.

In The Lush Jungle, More Dead Than In Korea
The war which General Navarre inherits so far has cost French Union troops 147,000 casualties, including 60,000 dead. Comparatively, this is 5000 more casualties and 35,000 more combat dead than U. S. troops suffered in Korea. Besides the price in blood, Indo-China's war cost France $1.3 billion last year. Of this bill the U. S. footed 400 million dollars and has pledged 785 million more this year, in addition to World War II war machines.

The total of combined allied forces (French Foreign Legion, native Vietnamese, Senegalese, North Africans) fighting in Indo-China is 248,000. The so-called Communist "guerrillas" have about 300,000 men, organized into six regular divisions commanded by General Vo Nguyen Giap and supplied with arms by the U. S. S. R. These people have suffered approximately 200,000 casualties, but have conscripted replacements.

Besides pouring flesh and finances into Indo-China, France fought in Korea, has militarized a politically distraught French Morocco, and has had to build a home front force in the event of continental aggression by Russia. Anemic as France is from her losses, the country has gotten new hope and spirit at home from Premier Laniel, and now cherishes the belief that its great wound, Indo-China, can be healed.

In The Halls Of Madrid, An Agreeing General

As France fights on to destroy its Communist foe, the United States continues to shore up its military bastions around the globe. For nearly four years the U. S. has been moving towards including Spain in the western defense system against strong allied opposition which holds Generalissimo Francisco Franco a totalitarian dictator.

However, last week the U. S. signed a military and economic agreement with Franco which provides mainly: (1) U. S. to grant Spain $226 million in aid to bolster her economy and modernize her army; (2) the U. S. Mediterranean fleet will get immediate use of at least five Spanish ports and U. S. air power will have the use of several airfields. Although this move is expected to reap a large harvest of political problems from France and England, the U. S. government felt that the tactical advantages of a Spanish alliance outweigh the political disadvantages.

In Geneva, Not Much

The much discussed Korean truce talk, slated for Geneva, Switzerland, was set for October 28, and today there seems ample reason to doubt that such a truce conference will convene. (FLY)

All Protestant divines throughout Camp Lejeune will include celebration of the sacrament of Holy Communion. It is desired that all make a special effort to participate in at least one of these divines.

Cherry Point Golfer Wins FMF Clash

MSgt. J. W. Laing, representing the 2nd Air Wing at Cherry Point, shot a 303 total at the Paradise Point Golf Course to win the four-day FMF golf tourney that concluded here Friday.

Laing sank a two-foot putt on the eighteenth green to cap his play in the 72-hole medal competition. As the eliminations winner he led the five-man FMFLant team into the Atlantic Fleet Golf Tournament, which teed off here Tuesday.

The golfers, men from the 2nd Division, Force Troops, FMFLant headquarters, and the 2nd and 3rd Air Wings, teed off Tuesday last week, in the opening round. The first two days were marked by a cold, blustery wind that played tricks with high, arching drives and helped run all scores over the par of 72.

Laing shot 75-75-74-79 for his low total 303. He was in second place at the end of the first round but took the lead next day, and held on for good.

Groups I, II Wind Up Preps As Div. Grid Season Starts

With the Division Intramural football season getting underway tomorrow, league gridmen are polishing up and waiting for the opening whistle. In first-day action Group I will vie with the 6th Marines on Field 1, the 2nd Marines will meet Group 2 on Field 3, and 2nd Service Bn. meets the 10th Marines on Field 2.

All games during the season will be played on Fridays at 1:30 p. m.

(Location of the above fields is contained in the season schedule at the end of this story — Ed. note)

Group I Outlook

The Group I eleven, composed of men from the Shore Party, Ordnance, and Tank Battalions and coached by Capt. Cy Wadzita, runs out of a straight "T" and will have plenty of good quarterbacking.

Kim Alsop, a rangy 165-pounder, is an excellent ball handler and good passer, but is getting crowded for the starting berth by Ben Monn, who quarterbacked the Penn State frosh last year.

Group I has two good fullbacks in Mike Salapow and Joe Fortunato, both 185-pounders. Three fancy-stepping halfbacks, Angelo Santa-Maria, Pat Parris, and Larry Steffens, will give the club a running game to complement the Alsop and Monn aeriels.

Shortage Of Guards

The line will be big, averaging 195, and rough. Willie White, a 6-2, 180-pounder, looks very good at end. Percy Cook is a 200-pound holdover tackle and Bill Baxter, 175, a scrappy, aggressive guard. The problem with the forward wall is a shortage of guards, so much depends on Baxter holding up.

Captain Wadzita, a former Milliken (Decatur, Ill.) University griddier, likes his club's chances for league honors if it can get by the 6th Marines in the opener.

Weekly practice sessions have been scheduled from 1:30 until 4 p. m. on weekdays and from 9 until 11:30 a. m. on Saturdays.

A 31-game card has been slated for the Marine hoopers this year. The schedule will include games against other Leatherneck teams in the All-Marine conference.

Naval Golf Tourney Here October 5-8

Camp Lejeune will act as host to the 5th Naval District Golf Tournament, to be held here October 5 through 8. Each activity in the 5th District will be eligible to compete. All teams will be composed of six players.

Lejeune's Fleet Ray Smith Forges Three Touchdowns

With halfback Ray Smith scoring three touchdowns, the Leatherneck line sparkling on defense, Camp Lejeune won its second straight win of the season Friday night at Monmouth, defeating the Signaleers, 20-6, before a crowd of 7500.

Lejeune Vies With Loaded Lee Eleven Here This Saturday

With their first two games safely tucked into the win column, the Camp Lejeune Marines are girding for what could be their hardest contest as they play host to the strong Fort Lee Travelers Saturday at Liversedge Field.

Rated one of the strongest service squads in the nation, Lee also has won its first two games. It opened the season with an impressive 14-7 win over Bolling AFB, national service champs of 1952, and slammed out a 30-0 win over Norfolk NAS Saturday.

Most of last year's team, which won eight, lost one, and tied one, is back in the fold. The entire squad is big, the line averaging 225 pounds.

Pro Backgrounds

The Traveler line is composed mainly of players who have seen professional action. At the end positions Fort Lee will have Leo Sugar and Chet Ostrowski. Sugar played for Purdue and Ostrowski comes from Notre Dame.

Bob Brennan, 225, from Pittsburgh University, will handle one of the tackle slots with Hal Mitchell, 240, formerly of UCLA and the New York Giants, holding down the other position.

The Fort Lee guard positions seem to be the most fortified. Head coach Morris Tiller plans to rotate three operatives at these (See LEJEUNE VIES, Page 7)

SKEET RANGE OPENS

The Skeet Range now is available for use from 8 until 10 a. m. on Sundays. During this time anyone may use the range and Camp Special Services will supply the shells free of charge. Shotguns must be drawn from unit special services.

The 24-year-old Smith formerly played with Oklahoma State and Camp Pendleton all the Lejeune touchdowns. Lejeune forward vied with the Army team in an outstanding defensive limiting the Army team to one on the ground.

The Marines racked up their first score in the second quarter, culminating a 65-yard march and another TD in the period, and notched a touchdown in the third quarter.

Monmouth scored its only in the second period, a play which covered 59 yards. John Jaekel to former Penn State Ed Bell from Penn State.

After a scoreless first quarter, both teams engaged in a punting duel around midgame. Lejeune began to roll late in the period. Starting from the Leathernecks' march, Lejeune scored a touchdown.

Smith and Joe Capra carried the ball to the Lejeune 40-yard line. Byrd carried Lee on the Monmouth hit off right tackle. Lejeune yards and the Capra-Sugar picked up five more before cracked over from the Howie Hostetler's bid extra point was blocked. Lejeune led, 6-0.

A recovery of a Monmouth fumble in the Army 45-yard line in the second quarter paved the way for the second Lejeune score. Lejeune smashed his way to the 40-yard line in two carries. Byrd was a host of Signaleer tackles. Lejeune eight-yard loss while passing, but connected on a play with a 22-yard heavy pass, ever present Smith on the line.

Fifteen yards for Lejeune roughness against Monmouth. The ball on the Signaleer 11. Smith, with gain of five, a rare carry for seven, a TD. Jerry Fouts kicked the TD. (See LEJEUNE'S FLEET, Page 7)

Woman Golf 'Pro' Holds Clinic Here

Miss Beverly Hanson, a member of the professional advisory and technical staff of the MacGregor Golf Co., will be here Saturday to conduct a golf clinic for all inter-ested golfers.

Miss Hanson will conduct the clinic at the Paradise Point Golf Club starting at 10:30 a.m. The golf professional will spend 45 minutes explaining golf funda-mentals and then play a nine-hole exhibition.

Miss Hanson won the National Womens' Amateur Golf Tourna-ment in 1950. After turning "pro" she won her first professional tournament, the Eastern Open at Reading, Pa., in 1951.

called optimistic. The squad is made up of gridders from the Engineer, Medical, Motor Trans- port, and Headquarters Battalions.

Group II runs out of a single- wing with some "T" variations. Coach Gene Driscoll, 185-pound tackle-playing mentor, has a well balanced crew.

He has a big, talented backfield tailbacked by Dick Johnson, 195, who is a highly-regarded passing threat. Bob Inglehart and Jack Whitten, weighing in at 210 and 204, respectively, are hard-running halfbacks who can make the sing- le-wing's power play offensive go.

Lack Of Depth

The first-string line will weigh about 185 from end to end. The forward wall is fair but the big question mark is the lack of depth.

The season schedule:
October 2 — 2nd Marines vs. Group 2, Field 3 (v); 6th Marines vs. Group 1, Field 1; 10th Marines vs. Service Bn., Field 2 (x).

Jaeckel started the march by flipping a 15-yard toss to Burrell Shields on the Army 46. Two smashes at the line cost Monmouth five yards, but Jaeckel faded back to pass on the next play, saw Bell open, and hit him with a short toss in the flat. The entire play covered 59 yards, Bell carrying the ball 50 of them.

Rilo Breaks Through

A block of an attempted Mon- mouth punt by Lejeune and Joe Rilo set up the final Marine touch- down. Jaeckel tried to punt on fourth down on his own 43 in the third period but Rilo broke through, recovered the ball, and raced all the way to the Signaleer five, where he was pulled down.

Three bucks at the Signaleer line failed before Smith sliced off left tackle for the tally. Hosteller kicked the twentieth point.

Inter-Service Title Won By Alamitos

QUANTICO, Va. — The Navy's champions, the Los Alamitos Raiders, walked to the First Annual Inter - Service Baseball crown here recently by blanking Barks- dale AFB, 7-0. Right-hander Pete Vururevich's brilliant four-bitter and the booming home run bat of first baseman Dale Coogan brought the West Coast sailors to their one-sided win.

Alamitos gained a shot at the Inter-Service title by downing Fort Belvoir in the championship opener, 4-1.

Barksdale won its way into the finals by edging the Quantico Marines, 1-0, in the most exciting game of the series. Thirty-three-year-old right-hander Mel Har- nely set the Leathernecks down on four hits and snuffed out a des- peration ninth-inning rally by fanning catcher Hal Naragon with the tying and winning runs on base.

In the series consolation game, Quantico gained third place by smothering Belvoir, 3-1. Speed- balling Roger Osenbaugh twirled four-hit ball and was supported by a 15-hit assault on three En- gineer hurlers.

Arrows will quiver, presumably in the bullseyes, on targets set up on the parade field at Hadnot Point at 2 p.m. Sunday, as the founding archers of a proposed Camp Lejeune Archery Club hold a demon- stration shoot. Personnel here, male or female, who're interested in watch- ing some contemporary Robin Hoods exercise their skills, are invited to come to the parade field. Instructions will be given those interested in the fundamentals of bowmanship.

At a meeting of bow and arrow enthusiasts Monday at 7 p.m. the following met to compare notes: TSgt. E. M. Pottgiesser, Supply School Bn.; TSgt. C. B. Williams, Supply School Bn.; MSgt. R. J. Dolan, H&S Bn., 2nd Combat Service Group; Sgt. L. A. Pritler, H&S Co., 2nd Mar- ines; Cpl. J. L. Hutcheson, "L" Btry., 10th Marines; Pfc J. F. Richards, "L" Btry., 10th Marines; Capt. F. M. P. W. Tomberlin, Motor Transport School Bn.; Pfc J. L. Cascone, Electrical Maintenance, MCSD Capt. J. Gorman, VMO-1; and 1st Lieutenant Rex W. Crook, Supply School Bn., motivating spirit for the club.

Different types of equipment were displayed, tentative plans for future shoots and hunts discussed, and the Sunday afternoon shoot set up. Another meeting of all interested bow and arrow enthu- siasts, novice or experienced, men or women, will be held at the Goettge Memorial Field House, Hadnot Point, at 7 p.m. Monday. Additional information may be had by contacting Lieutenant Crook, phone 60-158.

Along the arching lines, fishermen might be interested to know that special bows and arrows have been made for shooting fish, from flounder to sharks. The bows have a spindle mounted on them which holds strong fishline, which, in turn, is attached to the arrow. When the arrow is fired at the fish, the line strips off the spindle like a spinning reel, enabling the bow-fisherman to retrieve his impaled fish. Or, if he misses his shot, to retrieve his arrow.

A Deluge Of Spots

If you have been seeing spots before your eyes, you have prob- ably been fishing recently from one of the numerous piers along the coast. For example, week-end catches at Kure Pier on Kure Beach ran to 300 to 400 fish per angler. With the spot are sheepshead, bluefish, pompano, and a growing fall run of sea trout.

All of these savory feeders can be caught readily with shrimp, or other cut bait, fiddler crabs, or artificial lures, such as plugs and feathers. Besides these coastal feeders, a late-season run of dolphin has set offshore fishermen running for the charter boats. One party, fishing off Nags Head, caught 175 dolphin in a single day. And man, that's sport.

With fall tumbling down on us, geese and duck hunters should plan some shooting . . . and there is no better shooting on the eastern seaboard than at Lake Mattamuskeett, about 125 miles northeast of Camp Lejeune. Mattamuskeett is a 50,000-acre, federal waterfowl refuge, with hunting permitted in certain areas. Last season this writer saw a two-mile stretch of marsh gray with bonkers and the sky filled with wave after wave of geese and ducks. Many hunters were in their blinds but 20 minutes before they had had their limits. For informa- tion, write Axson Smith, Mattamuskeett Lodge, New Holland, N. C.

Rating System Pegs Lejeune Gridmen In Eighth Position

Camp Lejeune was rated the eighth service team in the nation by the famed Williamson grid rating system this week.

The local Leathernecks attained the high position with a mark of 89.0 on the basis of their convincing 20-6 triumph over Fort Monmouth Friday.

Three other Marine teams, Cherry Point, Quantico, and Parris Island were selected in the first ten under the Williamson system. Cherry Point was picked fourth with a rating of 91.4, Quantico placed fifth with 91.0, and the Islanders completed the top ten with an average of 86.9.

An interesting note in the selections was that, of the ten top teams in the rating, seven are on the Lejeune schedule this year. Fort Lee, which plays Lejeune Saturday, placed ninth in the selections with 87.6.

The top ten and their ratings are as follows: Fort Eustis, 92.8; Fort Jackson, 92.8; Little Creek, 91.6; Cherry Point, 91.4; Quantico, 91.0; Bolling AFB, 90.0; San Diego, 89.0; Camp Lejeune, 89.0; Fort Lee, 87.6; and Parris Island, 86.9.

MARA-TIME — Mara Corday, former model and cover girl, displays the winning form that has just captured for her a long-term film contract in Hollywood.

Supply School Bn., 8th Engineers Win FT Grid Openers

The Force Troops Intramural Football League opened last week as Supply School Bn. blanked 8th Motor Transport, 19-0, and 8th Engineers defeated 2nd Amtracs, 13-0.

Supply School never allowed 8th Motor to penetrate inside its 36-yard line. Gaddy's passing was the chief offensive weapon as he threw two for touchdowns of 45 and 20 yards, and then passed for the extra point after a blocked kick was run over for the third touchdown.

The 8th Engineers used a sharp defensive game coupled with quarterback Dougherty's passing to blank 2nd Amtracs, 13-0. The Engineers got off to an early start when Bryan picked off a pass in the flat and ran it over from 45 yards out for the first TD.

This was the only score until the last quarter, when, moving on the sharp smashes of Simonelli and the passes of Dougherty, the Engineers pushed over for their second score.

The drive was set up by Simonelli's interception of an Amtrac pass.

Pup Squad Crushes Richlands By 44-0 For Third Straight

The Camp Lejeune Devilpups bared full-grown fangs Friday night, mauling a scrappy Richlands eleven, 44-0, for their third straight win this season.

Charlie Sells started the ball rolling in the first quarter by intercepting a pass and running it back 37 yards for the first score. Johnny Mugford's quarterback sneak in the second quarter raised the score to 12-0.

Tom Hemingway, Bobby Peele, and Kip Hering scored one TD apiece in the third. Mugford's pitching arm and Bill Hemingway's receiving accounted for the sixth tally early in the fourth quarter.

When the Wildeats were forced to kick from their ten later in the period Peele took it on the 40 and ran it back to the 11, going over two plays later. Abernathy's kick was good and the final score stood at 44-0.

The Devilpups take on Ramlico tomorrow night. The loss of the Hemingway brothers (Bill and Tom) who are transferring this week, is a serious setback, according to coach Dick Lauffer.
