

Day For Remembering

Today is a holiday at Camp Lejeune, though a holiday, it's quite different from any other. Memorial Day is a day dedicated to the men who gave their lives for their country. It is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember. For Memorial Day is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember. For Memorial Day is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember.

Day is a day for remembering. It is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember. For Memorial Day is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember. For Memorial Day is a day that gives special meaning to what we all should remember.

Small Tribute

Dear to the Commanding General, the last week she wrote, I have written this small tribute to the Marine bases in honor of the men who have made the sacrifice. My Marines seem to have received the enclosed letters that I have written. I am sending this parcel out this year. My Item Company, 3rd Bn., 5th Regiment, I believe, intend to use it on their Memorial Day services. I hope they do, because what I have written comes from my heart.

"I hope you like it and maybe you'll instruct someone to pin it up on the board for the men."

"No wonder I love the Marine Corps. Not because my son enlisted at 17, but because it's the finest outfit on the face of the globe. . . God bless you all, and extra blessings for our men in Korea."

To Mrs. DeMarranza last week went a letter from Camp Lejeune's Commanding General, Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott. It read, in part: "Your memorial poem is most appropriate at this time and we are delighted to receive it in ample time to enable us to publish it in the Memorial Day issue of our camp newspaper, 'Camp Lejeune GLOBE.' I am sure that the thousands of Marines here . . . will enjoy reading it."

"There is no Marine who will challenge your statement that the Marine Corps is the finest and you may be assured that the Marine Corps would not enjoy such a reputation if it were not for the faith and loyalty of the mothers who so splendidly support us. May we continue to receive it and deserve it." This is what Mrs. DeMarranza wrote:

When the setting sun our heroes sleep,
On the icy hill, the bitter cold,
The slimy trail, the torrid heat
Never touch the noble warrior's soul.

Twilight
Cold, and orange,
And with purple in the west,
I meet the soft greensward
Where the graves and crosses white,
The evening dew, like fallen tears throughout the day,
On the soft green carpet
Lies the night.

The grey clouds move swiftly, as in prayer,
Through with colors from the Master's brush,
The heavens' deep blue, with her countless Golden stars,
Cover them with a holy, sombre hush.

The little birds did sing;
Their feet hopped tenderly and light upon the sod.
Now they keep in tree tops high, and, in the dark,
The feathered sentinels, detailed there
To guard the great commander, God.

At last we turn, and leave them sleeping side by side.
In memory, we wipe the tear drops from our face.
We are not alone; for living trees,
The singing of the birds at dawn, the living carpet green,
Prove that life eternal
Is their resting place.

Headquarters Releases Cutting Scores For Promotions To Corporal, Sergeant

Headquarters Marine Corps has released Almar 9, listing the necessary cutting scores for promotion to corporal and sergeant. Appointments will not be effected until June 19 and not after July 19.

Marines eligible for promotion must have the appropriate MOS, but personnel in service schools possessing a basic MOS may be promoted if their commanding officers believe they will be qualified for an appropriate MOS in their field.

Date of rank on the forthcoming promotions will be June 1, and all promotions will be temporary.

The only exceptions to the June 19-July 19 time limit will be in cases where a man was in transit or his record book was not available during this period. Below are listed the occupational fields and the necessary scores to be eligible for promotion:

Gen. Hogaboom Temporary Head Of 2nd Division

The 2nd Division has a new Commanding General this week in Brig. Gen. Robert E. Hogaboom, a veteran Leatherneck campaigner who has been designated the interim commander of the division.

Assistant division commander under Maj. Gen. R. McC. Pate, General Hogaboom took over the reins of the 2nd Friday when General Pate left for Korea. He will continue as interim Commanding General until the arrival of Maj. Gen. George F. Good Jr., who has been named to succeed General Pate and is expected to take command around June 23.

Allotment Checks To Be A Little Late

In the future Marines' dependents will be receiving their allotment checks two or three days later than the customary time.

In order to provide a more efficient administrative procedure, Headquarters Marine Corps has found it necessary to mail the allotment checks on the second day of each month. It is hoped this system will continue to provide prompt service.

MCR Staff NCO's Given Reenlistment, Extension Deadlines

Any Reservist Staff NCO who wishes to integrate into the regulars under the provisions of Marine Corps Memorandum 54-52 will have to request integration from his commanding officer prior to June 10, according to part one of Almar 10.

Part two of the omnibus Almar states that any requests by Staffs to stay on active duty beyond their release dates, under the provisions of Marine Corps General Order 104, also will have to be submitted prior to June 9.

Any requests for an unrestricted assignment to extended active duty, under provisions of the Commandant's letter to DistList AO1-KB, dated 20 October 1952, must be submitted to District Directors before June 9, according to part three.

Part four sets the policy that after June 9 any Staff Reservists (See MCR STAFF, Page 2)

Col. S. S. Ballentine Named Camp's New Chief Of Staff

A quiet change of duty took place in Bldg. 1 Monday with the assumption of the duties of Chief of Staff, Marine Barracks, by Col. Samuel S. Ballentine, who relieved Brig. Gen. William S. Fellers. General Fellers has been assigned to the staff of the Inter-American Defense Council in Washington, D. C.

Colonel Ballentine was assigned to the Chief of Staff post after service as Camp Inspector here since March 1952. Over three decades of Marine Corps duty preceded his present assignment.

A native of Marietta, Ohio, Colonel Ballentine enlisted in the Marine Corps in August 1922 and was commissioned in February 1925. Prior to World War II he served in Haiti, the second Nicaraguan campaign, and China.

During World War II he was in the Canal Zone in charge of the Naval Intelligence section, 15th Naval District; at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico; and on the staff of the Commander, 3rd Amphibious Force, Pacific.

Armistice Commission

Following World War II, Colonel Ballentine served on the United Nations staff as chairman of the Egyptian-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission and the Hashemite-

COL. S. S. BALLENTINE

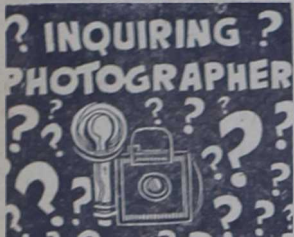

Jordan-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission.

For two years he was commanding officer of Marine Barracks, Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., and was transferred to Japan for duty in 1951. Camp Lejeune was his first assignment on returning from Japan.

Brig. Gen. William S. Fellers, outgoing chief of staff, served as Deputy Camp Commander here from July 1951. Enlisting as a private in 1917, he was commissioned in December 1918.

During World War II he was awarded the Legion of Merit and Gold Star in lieu of a second Legion of Merit for his work as Assistant Chief of Staff for supply and evacuation with 1st Division during the Guadalcanal campaign.

What Is Your Biggest Problem?
(Asked of Company First Sergeants)

MSGT. DAVID L. REYNOLDS, GUARD CO. NO. 1, H&S BN.—I've got too many of them to pinpoint any particular one, but none of them pertain to my company as a whole. My biggest problem is coping with certain individuals. As the old adage goes, put a bad apple in with a bunch of good ones and soon they're all bad. My job is to weed out the bad ones before they spoil any of the good ones.

MSGT. F. C. ANTHONY, WPNS. CO., 3RD BN., 8TH MARINES—We have more than one thing that gives us a problem. One of the major problems is that we have to split the company with each training maneuver we make. We have to attach a section from each platoon with the rifle companies. Then what a time we have reorganizing after the maneuver. Whew!

MSGT. CLYDE KELLOGG, SERVICE CO., H&S BN.—Well, I've got about 625 men in this company and that's 625 problems right there. Trying to get all the various training schedules to jibe is my biggest headache. Making sure that the men follow that schedule is the next. But that's what I'm here for, after all.

MSGT. ROY L. CHENAULT, "M" CO., 4TH BN., 8TH MARINES—My biggest problem is trying to figure out how to give my men the full benefit of their once-a-month special liberty and still keep up with the training schedule. Another is trying to explain to one man why he can't have a leave while another is getting one. We have to have so many men here at all times, so we give the leaves out according to how long it's been since a man has had one.

TSGT. G. A. MCCOLLOUGH, WPNS. CO., 4TH BN., 8TH MARINES—I guess my biggest is special liberty—everybody wants it. I no sooner get to the office in the morning than a couple of men want to know if their special liberty requests have been approved. And you can hear some good reasons why an individual should have special liberty that week-end.

BARRACKS BALLADS—Whatever the fellows may be doing, it's always put aside when Pfc Hugh Bryant starts singing. His deep tone and professional poise have made Hugh a favorite songster for his barracks buddies. Hugh came into the Marine Corps with a background including the Juilliard School of Music and New York TV and night club appearances (Official USMC Photo).

Operatic Minded Marine Keeps C's Sharp In Corps

"I started singing in a quarantine ward with scarlet fever and I won't stop until I sing in the 'Met'."

Pfc Hugh Bryant spoke with a spirit in his voice that echoed a strong determination to reach his goal.

To musical minded Hugh Bryant, attached to Camp Special Services, the Marines' criterion of "Be Sharp" includes for him keeping his B sharps from becoming B flats. A professional singer, baritone Bryant is putting his Marine enlistment to good use in the vocal department.

Now singing in "Saddle Up," the 2nd Division musical, Hugh is a soft spoken 23-year-old baritone from Brooklyn who made his musical "debut" at eight while recovering from scarlet fever. Patients in the quarantine ward weren't allowed to take any gifts home on recovery, so Hugh would get all the other kids' toys from the doctors and nurses if he sang songs for them.

"I guess singing was always in my blood," he says, "because my mom was a professional singer who went by the title of 'The Stormy Weather Girl.' She got it from her theme."

To Bigger Things

From singing for toys in the hospital Bryant went on to bigger things—singing for the kids in grammar school.

Music took on a serious aspect when Hugh went to Boys High School in Brooklyn where he started singing in the glee club. Soon a featured soloist with the choral group, he had the opportunity to sing at many New York City festivities and concerts in Carnegie Hall.

In each of his four years at Boys High Hugh was nominated to New York's All-City High School Chorus as a soloist and on graduation was voted the chorus' outstanding singer.

Upon graduation Hugh received a yearly scholarship to the Juilliard School of Music and Arts from the Metropolitan Opera Guild Association, which makes such yearly awards to promising young singers.

While going to Juilliard he and eight other fellows, who had sung with him in their high school glee club, formed a vocal group called the "Melody Men."

TV Offers

Like many other entertainers and vocal groups, their proving ground was the Catskill Mountains' "borscht circuit." Singing there soon brought offers for television and night clubs dates.

On TV they were seen on the "Arthur Godfrey and his Talent Scouts," Milton Berle, and Jack Carter shows.

They played on Broadway in the Palace and Capitol Theaters and at benefits in Madison Square Garden. But their biggest date, in Hugh's opinion, was when they were featured at Bill Miller's Riviera night club in New Jersey.

After completing three successful years at Juilliard and being on his way to another scholarship to complete his last year, Hugh decided to enter upon a new life. In 1951 he entered a monastic seminary run by the Benedictine order in Collegeville, Minn.

Another Sharp Turn

After a year in the seminary Hugh's life took another sharp turn. Leaving the seminary, he joined the Marine Corps.

Hugh's drill instructor was probably the first in the Corps to take advantage of Bryant's talents. "He used to have me sing to the troops," Hugh says, "and on our last night at Parris Island I sang in front of his tent."

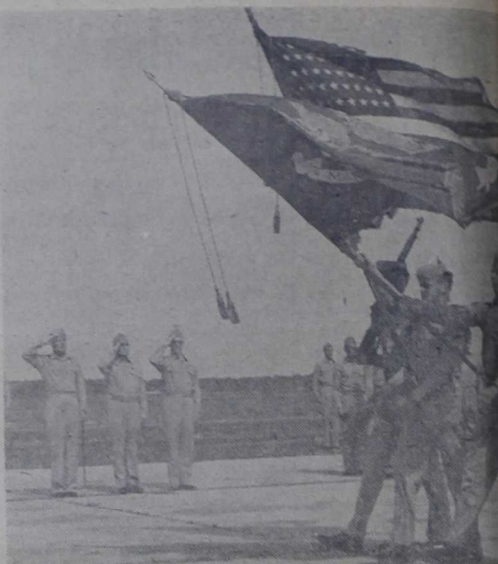

From "boot" camp he was transferred here to Motor Transport School at Montford Point.

Transfer from Motor Transport School brought Hugh to Special Services where he works on the maintenance crew. On week-end evenings he sings for the Staff NCO's at the Hadnot Point Staff NCO Club.

The 18 other awards were United Nations Medals awarded veterans of the Korean campaign. All the men are stationed at the New River Air Facility.

States Set Up Voting Rules For Summer, Fall Balloting

(This is the first in a series of articles containing the latest voting information. It applies to service personnel, dependents residing with service personnel, and U. S. citizens attached to, and serving with, U. S. Armed Forces beyond the continental limits of the U. S.)

Eleven states will hold state and/or local elections during the summer and fall of 1953.

Generally speaking, Armed Forces personnel and civilians officially attached to, and serving with, the Armed Forces of the United States will not be able to vote in person if stationed outside their home states. Laws in most states, however, provide for voting by absentee ballot for service personnel.

In many cases, servicemen and women will return to their home states upon completion of their service requirements and therefore it is to their advantage to take part in the state and local elections at home.

Information concerning the first two states holding elections of any kind during the summer and fall of 1953 is as follows:

CONNECTICUT

Towns, cities and boroughs will hold elections on varying dates. (Schedule can be obtained from local Education offices). Service personnel may obtain ballots by mailing the Federal Post Card

Application to town, city or borough clerk at place of Connecticut residence.

MISSISSIPPI

The general election for mayors, members of boards of aldermen, and other municipal or local officers in most municipalities will be held June 2, 1953. Application for ballots by the Federal Post Card Application may be made at any time to city or county registrar.

Brooklyn Beauty Reigns As Queen Of Tenth Marines

A Brooklyn beauty is reigning supreme over the 10th Marines this week, having been named by six Leatherneck judges from the regiment's units as "Queen of the Canoneers."

Picked from a field of 30 other entries was Miss Jean C. Ferris.

ris, a five-foot four-inch, green-eyed lovely who hails from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Jean's coronation—by mail, that is—climaxes a hotly contested beauty race which began several weeks ago when men of the 10th began submitting the photos of their favorite home town blonds, brunettes, and red-heads.

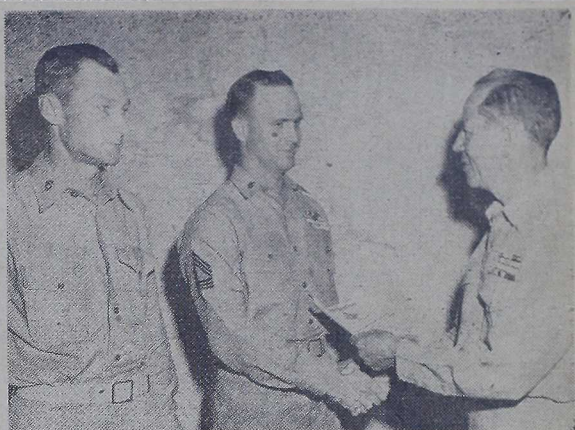

Jean, a brunette, won by unanimous vote. Her picture was submitted by Sgt. Richard W. Block of the Regimental H&S Battery.

A graduate of Grover Cleveland High School, 21-year-old Jean is employed by the Bell Telephone Company as an IBM operator.

Leathernecks of the 10th are planning to send their "Queen" a trophy to mark her elevation to the Canoneers' mythical throne.

Navy Relief Drive Extends Into June During Final Phase

The 1953 Camp Lejeune Navy Relief fund - raising drive has reached its final phase after a three-day gala carnival held under the "big top" of stately Goettge Memorial Field House here last week.

Throngs of Marines, their families, and civilians swarmed the concessions that covered the main deck of the vast building. The concessions were built, decorated, and operated by various units of the base under the supervision of Lt. Col. F. A. Vaughn.

Complete with sawdust, barkers, cotton candy, sodas, dart games, and general hub-bub, the carnival netted upwards of $8,000.

Activities of the drive, under the leadership of Col. John A. White, have filled the entertainment program since the drive started. Staging Spike Jones and Harry James shows in addition to the carnival, Navy Relief has made it pleasant for the average Marine to invest in safeguarding his future.

For those who have not yet contributed, the 1953 drive has been extended to include both the first officer and first enlisted pay days in June.

Navy Relief is used by the individual and maintained by the individual. The dollars raised this year by the drive are a bulwark against your emergencies.

NOMINATIONS

President Eisenhower recently nominated 1087 Marine Corps officers for appointments. Included in the appointments, both permanent and temporary were one colonel, 29 lieutenant colonels, 114 majors, 160 captains, 261 first lieutenants, and 522 second lieutenants.

'New Look' Utilities Coming Next Fall

Uniform changes that will give Marines a "new look" in the field have been announced by Headquarters Marine Corps.

The new utility uniform will consist of trousers and a shirt-type coat, the latter bearing a marked similarity to the civilian sport shirt with a convertible collar. Flat bone buttons will replace the old metal ones. It is anticipated that the new uniform will not be available until fall, and then only in limited quantities. The wearing of combinations of the new uniform with the old will be permissible.

Available next fall also, and in five sizes instead of the current three, will be a utility cap that is expected to retain its shape through innumerable launderings.

KEY OF WELCOME—On behalf of his men, Lt. Col. James W. Sperry, commanding officer of the 2nd Bn., 8th Marines, receives a symbolic key of welcome to Camp Lejeune from Col. DeWolf Schatzel, commanding officer of the 8th Marines. The battalion returned from a six-month Mediterranean tour of duty last week.

THE END—Poor signal lights can cause as much destruction of property and loss of life as reckless driving. The driver behind you depends on your lights for information or what you're going to do. Make sure he gets it straight. This Memorial Day week-end is a good time to keep this in mind (Official USMC Photo).

Attendance Papers Awarded At Final Motherhood Class

In the final Motherhood Class of the 1952-53 season, the Camp Lejeune Auxiliary of the Navy Relief Society closed its program Monday evening by presenting 24 expectant mothers with perfect attendance certificates.

The meeting, held in the auditorium of the Medical Field Research Bldg., was attended by fathers as well as the graduating mothers-to-be. During the season the Navy Relief Society has served 2,167 prospective parents at the Motherhood classes. Two hundred twenty-four expectant mothers have received perfect attendance certificates during the year.

The lecture series was designed to instruct mothers in pre-natal care, feeding, and bathing the newborn baby, as well as care of the mother and baby after they return home.

Mrs. Bula McBrier, Navy Relief nurse, introduced the guest speakers, Cmdr. William Baker, head of the Dependents Department at the Family Hospital, and Chaplain Abbott Peterson, Jr., executive vice-president of the Navy Relief Auxiliary.

Chaplain Peterson outlined a program to be carried out when the motherhood classes resume in the fall. A lecture series on "How to get the most out of your food dollars," tentatively set to start July 20, will be included later in the motherhood classes.

WM Maneuvers

BY CPL. ELOISE TURNER

Woman Marine Pfc Jean L. Spillman, 18, of Newton, Kans., is the diminutive power behind the bugle that blasts "You gotta get up, you gotta get up," every morning at 5:30.

Jean was introduced to the WM Co. field music section when she and Pfc Ernestine Smaniotto played echo taps a month ago. Ernie was on the trumpet and Jean played the bugle.

Now the girls take turns playing taps and reveille with Jean usually doing the honors in the early morning.

The Kansas lass recently participated in a variety show presented by Supply Depot. She played assembly call, sang "Hey Bob-a-ree Bob," and gave humorous readings.

Years' Experience

For this bit in the variety show Jean drew from several years' training and experience gained in civilian life. Musically speaking, Jane played the viola for six years with the Newton School orchestra.

She studied dramatics in high school with emphasis on comedy and readings. Jean says she "sang for her supper" in a few night clubs in Wichita and her hometown. Her singing ambitions are limited to "be-bop."

In November 1952 Jean enlisted in the Marine Corps. Following recruit training, she was assigned to Clerk-Typist School at Parris Island. She graduated with honors in the top ten of a class of 40 students. At present the reveille artist is completing a 30-day tour of mess duty.

BEACH GEAR LOST

Mrs. M. MacDonald, of 217 N. 2nd St., Wilmington, N. C., has written the GLOBE to inform the three Marines she gave a lift to coming from Carolina Beach a week ago Sunday that they left a blue swim suit, a towel, and a sun glass case in her car.

Miami Girl Weds Lt. Robert Johnson At Geiger Saturday

Miss Denis M. Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ring of 6140 NW 12th Ave., Miami, Fla., was married to Lt. Robert A. Johnson at the Camp Geiger Chapel Saturday.

The bride wore a blue nylon suit, a white hat, and black patent leather pumps. She carried a white carnation corsage. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Steve Doherty of Camp Lejeune. Best man was Cpl. Thomas Cronin, 2nd PhibRecon Co.

The bridegroom was attached to 2nd PhibRecon Co., Force Troops, but at present is under orders to attend the Officers Basic School at Quantico, Va. The young couple will make their home in Washington, D. C., after a short honeymoon.

POCKETBOOK FOUND

MSgt. H. Rasnick, NCO in charge of the Wallace Creek Boat House, found a pocketbook Saturday at the boat house. Owner may contact Sergeant Rasnick at the boat house.

"Had this division not been a successful division, I would not be going to Korea." These were the words of Maj. Gen. R. McC. Pate, former commanding general of the 2nd Division, to the officers of the division and their ladies at a formal farewell dinner in his honor last week at the Officers Mess.

General Pate, scheduled to relieve Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Pollock as Commanding General of the 1st Division in Korea, was introduced by Brig. Gen. Robert E. Hogaboom, now interim division commander.

Presented a decorated ceremonial swagger stick by General Hogaboom on behalf of the officers of the division, General Pate lauded the division's cooperation and "gentility" and expressed his and Mrs. Pate's appreciation for past kindnesses.

Over 100 guests attended the dinner in the River Room. Guests of honor seated at the general's table were: Maj. Gen. and Mrs. G. F. Good Jr., Maj. Gen. and Mrs. H. D. Linscott, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. R. E. Hogaboom, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. W. S. Fellers, and Brig. Gen. and Mrs. M. C. Horner.

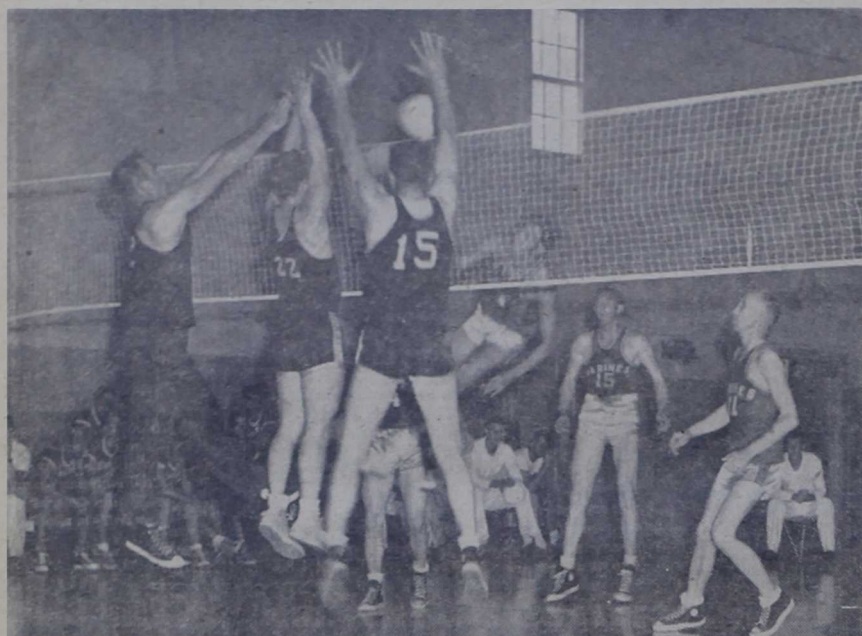

Mrs. Pate, due to an accident, could not attend the dinner.

ATLANTIC FLEET VOLLEYBALL—After winning the basketball, boxing, and bowling crowns in Atlantic Fleet tourneys this season, the Fleet Marine Force finally dropped one, losing the final match in the volleyball tournament at Norfolk last week to AirLant, 2-0. In the opening round the 2nd Division's Joseph W. Schindler (3, behind net) goes high in the air to send back a ball to the AirLant squad. FMF dropped its first match to the AirLant outfit by the scores of 15-9, 13-15, and 15-9. Coming back later in the afternoon, the Marines remained in the running for the fleet crown by whipping ServLant in straight sets, 15-4 and 15-11 (Official USMC Photo).

Jackson Here For Return Cinder Match

The local Marine tracksters return to action here tomorrow afternoon for the second meet with the Fort Jackson Golden Arrows. Lejeune took the first meet, 73 2/3 to 57 1/3, at the South Carolina Army base May 16.

Frank Rivera, Lejeune's Olympic 440 man, will be out to revenge his defeat by Jackson's Harry Bright of Seton Hall, one of two men to beat the San Juan speedster this year.

The Marines have had a two-week lay-off since their last meet, while the Army contingent competed last week-end. Both squads should be in top shape for the event. For Lejeune it will be the last dual meet before the important All-Marine Track and Field meet here on June 11-13.

In the last meeting with Fort Jackson, Marine dasher Robert Montgomery set a new track and Camp Lejeune record in the 100-yard dash with 9.6.

UNDEFEATED, the Camp Lejeune mile relay team puts its six-victory string on the line here Friday afternoon against Fort Jackson in the Marines' last dual meet before the All-Marine Track and Field meet, which will be run off here June 11-13. Camp Nine Begin Home Stint Tuesday Against Fort Lee's Mighty Battery

The Camp Lejeune Marines will be out to erase a blemish on their record Tuesday night when they inaugurate a two-week home stand by playing host to the high-riding Fort Lee Travelers at Varsity Field.

Using as a nucleus a major league battery composed of Harry Chiti, Chicago Cubs catcher, and Chet Nichols, fireball hurler of the Milwaukee Braves, Lejeune has swept through most of its opposition this year and holds one of the three victories posted against the local Marine nine this year.

On the recent away stint, Lejeune split a brace of games with Lee. The Army nine humbled Lejeune in the opener of the series, battering Marine ace Bob Grim for seven markers in six and two-thirds innings and winning, 9-2.

Roared Back
Lejeune, however, roared back the following night to even the series the hard way. They climbed all over Nichols, hammering out six runs and nine hits off the right-hander for a 6-5 win.

Lee has put together a strong line-up of heavy hitters to aid a fine mound staff. The only infielder from last year's contingent is Rocky Raklovits, who swatted .401 last year for the Travelers.

Eric Rodin, who led the team in hitting last season with a mark of .407, will be one of the big guns in the Lee attack. Against Lejeune he clubbed a pinch-hit home run off Ben Johnson in the second game losing cause.

Pitchers' Duel

Although both clubs are loaded with long ball hitters, the two-game set here could well develop into a pitchers' duel. Lee is expected to lead with Nichols and follow up with either Heinen or stylish southpaw Herb Davis. Lejeune will have Grim and Johnson primed to oppose the invaders.

For Grim, it will be an opportunity to square accounts with the Travelers, who have scored the only blot on his mound record this year. Grim's record is now 10-1.

The balance of the home stay will find Lejeune facing some of the stiffest opposition they will meet here this year. In two-game sets they play host to Fort Dix next Thursday and Friday; Norfolk NAS, June 6-7; Quantico, June 10-11; and Fort Meyer, June 12-13.

Camp Skeet Team Cops Trophy Shoot At Hot Springs, Va.

The Camp Lejeune Skeet Team won its fourth consecutive shoot Sunday at Hot Springs, Va., taking the Annual Hommel Trophy Shoot with 482 broken pigeons out of a possible 500.

CWO D. L. Lawson nosed out his nearest teammate, Bill Loos, with 99 out of 100. Loos was runner-up for individual honors with 98. The other three members of the camp squad were Henry Stowers, James A. Martin, and Joe Stoffa.

Langley Field, Va., was runner-up for five-man team honors with a score of 478 x 500.

Sunday's triumph came on the heels of Lejeune's victory at the Richmond Open and has established the Camp Lejeune team as one of the top service teams in the country.

The camp team has its sights set on the Southeastern Regional Championship, to be held June 17 through 19 at Spartanburg, S. C., and is current holder of the East Coast All-Marine Championship Trophy.

Horsehide Horde Cop Four Swelling Record To 43

Four more wins were added to the Lejeune victory last week when the traveling Leathernecks humbled the Aircraft Bombers twice, 4-0 and 6-5, shut out Camp 6-0, and buried Stuart AFB, 22-2, on the strength of a barrage.

3 Baseball Teams Share FT First Slot

Amtrac and 155 Gun Bn. played to an extra-inning 5-5 tie to leave both teams at the top of the Force Troops baseball standings. Automatic Weapons, which was idle this week, also is undefeated and shares the top spot.

The Amtrac-155 game, one of the most important of the young season, will be resumed sometime this week. Another important contest to be played this week will be the A/W-Amtrac game, which will pit the two league powers of the early season play.

In the tie between Amtrac and 155, spectators were treated to some good baseball, as fine pitching, a 300-foot home run, and spectacular infield saves marked the day for both teams.

Early Victories

Both Amtrac and 155 Gun had notched victories earlier in the week. The 155 group downed a stubborn Recon team, 3-2, behind Leandro's four-hit pitching. Rudy Schildroth led the winners at bat with two hits in three trips. Amtrac, not to be outdone, won a runaway game from 8th Engineers, 10-1. Amtrac's Dostine pitched three-hit ball and first baseman Bob Shufort hit a grand-slam homer in the first to salt the game away.

Eighth Engineers previously had beaten hapless Aggressor Co., 8-3, to chalk up its first victory of the season. Diamond Economy's two home runs and five runs-batted-in led the way. Aggressor Co. took another thrashing later in the week when ArmAmphib ran roughshod over it, 14-1.

In other games, Combat Service Group, which stands just behind the undefeated leaders, won an important victory over 2nd 90 AAA, 4-1. With pitcher Bonnano tossing five-hit ball and Joe DeLuca and Bobby Southwick getting the wins.

(See 3 BASEBALL, Page 7)

Lejeune's win over Stuart AFB, 22-2, was the first time the Leathernecks had won a game since their first loss to the Bombers Wednesday last week.

Nevio Pelleschi and Lejeune, two Marine bullpen warts, combined to stop the Bombers' offense Saturday night as they pounded out 22 hits and scored 22 runs in the 22-2 win. Pelleschi was the first four innings and the last three in the abbreviated seven-inning affair.

Although outbatted by the Bombers Wednesday last week, Lejeune's win over Stuart AFB, 22-2, was the first time the Leathernecks had won a game since their first loss to the Bombers Wednesday last week. Lejeune's win over Stuart AFB, 22-2, was the first time the Leathernecks had won a game since their first loss to the Bombers Wednesday last week.

After snuffing out a Marine in the first with an inning double play, Lejeune pushed the winning counters in the second.

Hawkins Connects
With one out, Bill Hawkins singled and stole second. Jim Dingle reached first, being pitched by Lejeune.

Ryan scored on the error. Later on, Hawkins singled and stole second. Jim Dingle reached first, being pitched by Lejeune.

Don Brown lined a hit ter with Dingle scoring. Grim was nailed at the plate by a perfect throw from Red Bertz to end the game.

The second game with Thursday was a nip-and-tuck affair all the way with Lejeune winning a 6-5 decision in ten innings. Krings' single with two out and Ralph Russo, who had based on an error, from score break the stalemate.

Ben Cops Win
Ben Johnson was the hurler for Lejeune, going to his seventh straight win this season. Johnson allowed no runs while fanning five batters.

Martin came from behind to win the game.

Jeune has come through its first "crucial" series in great style, and for all the critics who claim the Marines can't win the one should be silenced.

There is no harder team to beat on the east coast than Fort Lee and the first time this season Lejeune was up against a better stocked with minor league talent than Lejeune. In the Travellers have two major leaguers, catcher Harry and pitcher Chet Nichols.

led with ace Bob Grim in the first game. The righthander in the straight and had recorded over 100 strikeouts. Lee didn't get a number-one man, Nichols. Instead, the Travellers decided to use their number-two man, Jack Heinen, and if they lost the game they had Nichols for the next day. If Heinen could win, so would the Travellers. Heinen won, 9-2. The Travellers hit Grim solidly, and for the first time he had to be relieved. For the first time this season Lejeune suffered a loss.

In A Perfect Spot

Having taken the first game, was in a perfect spot. The Army has one game and Nichols was ready to throw, gunning for his straight. Lejeune's managers, Pete Larghey and Charley Zio, have mound assignment to Ben Johnson.

The game itself has been written in the GLOBE. Lejeune's Nichols as if he were a high school hurler, instead of the veteran run king of the National League. They chased him out of the park and went on to win, 6-5, as Johnson recorded his 10th win of the year.

The loss to Lee might have spelled doom for Lejeune's hopes for the top spot among service nines. The confidence built by the team might have been shattered by a twin loss to a team rated as the top. But, instead, the Marines bounced back and won. They are in at the beginning of next week. There'll be two more games, but now Lejeune knows it can beat any team on the east coast probably the west, too.

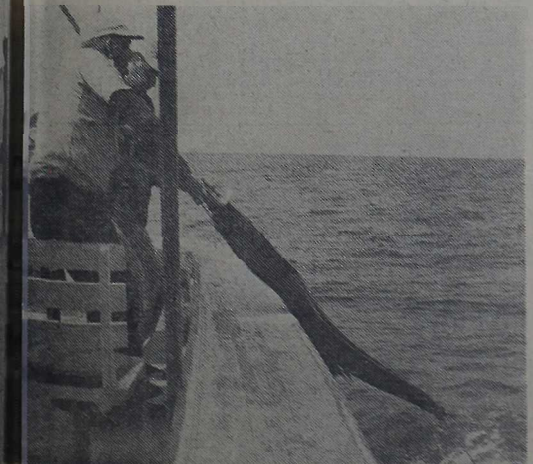

On the road trip: Ralph Russo, Lejeune's top utility man, was in the lineup. He wore Fort Lee minus his shirt. He wore Charley Chronopoulos' uniform. He wore 6 against Fort Lee when he replaced Dave Krings in the lineup. Later on Chronopoulos got 16 back to pinch hit for the late innings. The next day Ben Johnson, who owns the record, borrowed 16 because 2 is too small.

In the moment Russo is wearing 2, Johnson 16, and Chronopoulos is wearing 16. On the same note, left fielder Jimmie Lee took off the bus an hour before game time and found out he had two left shoes along. Handy Charley Swope, the team's manager, lent him a pair that just fit.

have said that the human population is most dense from the coast, but no cynic will deny that the best east coast fishing is taking place off North Carolina. This is, of course, salt water fishing. Practically all the off-shore fish, from bluefish to sailfish, have been caught this week. Record bluefish catch of the week was made by Pan Shoals near Southport, N. C. Captain Leon McKeith caught the "Botfly," led a party of five to a catch of 325 blues. In the ambers, too, the kingfish continued to run well, and the amberjack catches were registered. Reports indicate that fishing has picked up all along the coast. Southerly winds drove the fish and spots, greedy bottom feeders. Widespread catches of bluefish have been made all along the coast, also.

At Hatteras, near the famous Diamond Shoals. Also, one bluefish was hooked and lost. Sailfish range from four to eight feet in length and have a long savage bill which they use to subdue food fish. Also, they have a dynamic fighting form which has converted fishermen to spend thousands of dollars and thousands of hours of time down these spectacular aquatic demons. Pictured below is a half-footer being hoisted aboard a charter boat off South-lina's shrimpers have made some gigantic hauls. Four hundred pounds of brown shrimp was dragged from the sea in the City and Beaufort area last week from Monday to Wednesday. These were valued at more than $100,000—not bad for a 48-hour haul. Several of the larger shrimping boats grossed more than $4,000.

DOUBLE HONOR—Awarded the double honor of being chosen for both the All-Marine and All-Navy football teams by "Leatherneck" magazine and "Navy Times," respectively, is Pfc Alfred R. Viola of the 2nd Bn., 8th Marines. Viola played guard for Lejeune for the past two seasons. Congratulating him, Lt. Col. James W. Sperry, commanding officer of the 2nd Bn., 8th Marines, presents him with a "Leatherneck" Football Certificate and a gold wrist watch from the "Navy Times" (Official USMC Photo).

Expect 200 To Compete In Rifle Meet

Approximately 200 riflemen are expected to arrive here early in August to participate in the Regional High Power Rifle Championships, sponsored this year by Marine Barracks, Camp Lejeune.

Participants, most of whom will come from the southeastern area, may enter nine matches. Of these nine there will be six individual matches, one team event, and two aggregate matches.

The tournament will be open to qualified members in good standing of the National Rifle Association and the match will be conducted under the rules set by this organization.

Although the match is open to civilians as well as service personnel, it is expected that at least 95 per cent of the entrants will be the latter.

The predominant weapon will be the M1 rifle. However, any rifle cleared by the NRA for this type of meet will be allowed.

Winners of the Marine Corps Rifle Competition recently held at Quantico will enter the matches in hopes of annexing individual awards. Marine winners here will be eligible for selection to accompany the National Marine Corps Rifle Team to Camp Perry, Ohio, where they will participate in the National High Power Rifle Match.

knot the count after trailing, 5-2, in the seventh. They scored two in the seventh without benefit of a hit when Johnson's control faltered and he passed two men. A wild pitch, passed ball, and a routine grounder accounted for the runs.

Two singles and an infield out knotted the score for Martin in the eighth and set the stage for Krings' game-winning blow in the tenth.

Kilmer Whitewash

Adding to the week-long rash of wins, southpaw Bob Reich whitewashed Camp Kilmer, 6-0, on a neat six-hitter Friday night as the Lejeune stickers clubbed Kilmer pitching for five markers in the first two innings.

For Reich it was his seventh triumph of the year as against no setbacks. He fanned 11 hostile batters while doling out two walks and was in control all the way.

Three runs poured over the plate in the first when Ed Kababek led off the festivities with a triple to the right field corner. Krings followed with a long double to score Kababek and Brown reached first on an error as Krings scored. Paul Donovan walked and both runners were safe on a double steal. Brown scored as Babe Daskalakis grounded out.

First Bn. Batsmen Hold Narrow Lead In 8th Regt. Circuit

The fourth week of 2nd Division intramural play found two teams vying for top honors in the 8th Marines baseball league. The teams of the 1st and 3rd Battalions have chalked up five wins. The 1st Bn. has the lead percentage-wise, having lost only one game, while the 3rd has dropped two.

These two top teams came together last week, and when the ragged fray was over the 1st Bn. diamonders were on top in a 21-10 ball game. In other games the 1st stopped the 4th Bn., 6-2; the 3rd took two tilts from the Composite Bn., 6-4 and 14-10; and the Composite nine shut out the 4th Bn., 2-0.

The 1st Bn. played in the only two games in the 8th Regiment's softball league, dropping the first game, 14-7, to the Composite Bn., and winning the second over the 4th Bn., 6-2.

In Group I of the leagues formed of independent battalions, the feature sport of the week was softball. Hq. Bn. lost to a 2nd Service Bn. squad, 7-4. In the other game of the week's play the 2nd Engineer Bn. softball squad stayed in the winners' bracket by outscoring 2nd Tanks in a wild 14-11 contest. The league will open its baseball play next week.

In pre-season practice games the 2nd Engineers have remained undefeated. They have played games with all league members and thus far have met with little trouble. In their last pre-season tilt they downed the 2nd Service Bn. squad, 5-3.

giving four hits between them, CSG was able to get an early lead and never received a serious challenge thereafter.

Signal Wins

Another high-ranking team in the standings, 8th Signal Bn., put on an impressive exhibition of power as it walloped ArmAmphib, 12-0, to notch its third victory against one defeat. The only other game played pitted 8th Tank against little Recon. Eighth Tank came out victorious, 2-0.

13 Lejeune Golfers Beat Julius Boros

Julius Boros fired a two-under-par 70 over the Oakmont (Pa.) Country Club course Saturday but 13 Camp Lejeune golfers copped "I beat the U. S. National Open Champ by beating Julius Boros" medals by carding lower scores on the Paradise Point links.

The contest, which saw approximately 100,000 golfers throughout the country attempt to beat Boros, was the feature event of the Second Annual National Golf Day.

Mrs. Carey Lucky, R. G. Sonnenberg, and W. A. Hahn, led a record field of 89 Lejeune entrants by posting 18-hole scores of 64. Only one of the 13 winners relied on the Calloway handicap system to top the champ.

The winners and their final scores including handicaps were: R. G. Sonnenberg, 88-24-64; Mrs. Carey Lucky 86-22-64; W. A. Hahn 91-27-64; Mrs. Faye Moore 123-57-66 (Calloway system); R. A. Femme Softballers Belt Norfolk, Bragg To Boost Win Skein

In its first two games away, the Camp Lejeune Woman Marine softball team picked up two wins by defeating Norfolk NAS, 16-6 and Fort Bragg WAC's, 25-5. The two triumphs gave the distaff Marines a 4-0 slate for the season.

The power of Lejeune bats came to life early in the game with Norfolk Saturday. The Marines tallied once in the first and poured across six more in the second, while sending ten batters to the plate.

They put the game far out of reach in the fifth with a five-run outburst. Barbara Summerlee, Lejeune shortstop, sparked the rally by hitting her second grand slam home run of the year.

Split Chores

Angie Darby and Bev Moose split the mound chores for Lejeune. Darby, who received the win, was in trouble only in the second inning when the WAVE's scored four times.

Lejeune made short work of their Army hosts Monday. In a first-inning uprising, 13 Woman Marines batted to send ten runs across the plate. Carol Lau bagged out two round-trippers and Ruth Decker hit for the circuit once in the inning.

Rita Cohen, starter and winner, allowed two Army runs in the second and Bev Moose, who finished up for the Marines, was tagged for three in the fifth.

Camp Lejeune resumes its chase for All-Marine WM softball honors June 4, meeting Quantico in a single game there.

Smith Wins Year's First Sailboat Race

The sailboat racing season opened officially at Wallace Creek Sunday and the season's first race was won by Lt. Frank W. Smith of Motor Transport School, Montford Point.

Racing officials have stated that although there was a fair turnout they would like to have a larger field. Sailboats can be checked out on a "first come, first served" basis, starting at 8 a. m. Those in the race should be aboard their boats by 1 p. m.
